McDONALD STARS IN OSHKOSH GAME; POINT GETS REST

WEAK SHOOTING AND PASSING FEATURE CRAZY CITY CONTEST

Purple Loses 26-15

Stevens Point Central is still in the cellar division as a result of its 26-15 defeat by Oshkosh last Friday evening in the long and narrow Bug city gym. The Pointers had tough breaks in large doses and basket after basket hit the rim and rolled off, as did a large quantity of the golden clad egemen's shots.

First Half 8-15

Capt. Frank Wierenzinski and Dick Marshall started on the sides, Tiny Bannach in the middle, while Scotty McDonald and Harold Paukert played back. This line up stayed intact except for Ben Weronke, who relieved Tiny at center for a while.

Oshkosh put seven on the score board before McDonald got two free throws, which he promptly sunk, and before the half ended he had two ringers to his credit. Tiny got the only other Point score in the first half when he tossed the ball in from close underneath. Score at half 8-15 in favor of the defenders.

"Free Throw" Mac Stars

The second spasm started off in a swift and even manner with the Purple attempting a come back. Oshkosh climbed to 22 and tarried until Bannach hit the middle of the ring twice and Dick Marshall once. Scotty added a free throw which ended the Points scoring. The Westerners missed about fifty but finally added two, the game ending 26-16, Purple and Golders trailing.

Poor passing and erratic shooting characterized this contest but flashes of Oshkosh's wonderful fast teamwork brightened up the scene. Our own Scotty was the hero of the hour, easily the outstanding figure on the hardwood. He played his usual brilliant game besides making all his free throws, which entitled him to be high man for the Point, giving him seven out of the total of fifteen gained.

Oshkosh Artists

Brendendiek and Baxter, Oshkosh aces, did some fine work for them, as did Ross who bagged four deuces from the court. You've a dandy team over there on Lake Winnebago and it was no disgrace losing to you, but look out next time when the Pep Club gets you on their own floor.

Lundt, of Wisconsin, used the whistle. His style was mediocre, a little lax if anything, but the game was not especially rough.

The Crazy City College sure has a nifty band, adorned in sky blue and white uniforms. They marched in and blew out a few tunes to give the spectators their money's worth; also drowning out our own Pep Club.

Whip Whitewater

Eggebrecht's next struggle occurs here January 28th versus Whitewater. We are minus two in the conference standings to date so we gotta start climbing and there's no time like the present to get going. Come on fellows, come clean with a win and let's get some of the fabled pep into our systems. As it is now, we are all dead and walking around to save funeral expenses. Wake up and put in lots of the old fight and "We'll win, by golly, we'll win!" Maybe! Let's Go!

Prizes Offered For Best Snaps

The Iris is cordially inviting the student body to be the participants in a contest for snap-shots. Not only has the staff of Point College's annual publication invited the students, but it has also offered attractive prizes for the winners.

The first prize which will be offered will go to the person turning in pictures of the largest group of people. These people need not all be in the same picture, the contestant need only hand in pictures of a large number of people. The second prize is for another type of picture, a funny picture. The most humorous picture, group or single, which is handed in will receive a prize. The third and last prize will be presented to the person handing in the picture which is most perfect, photographically speaking. This does not mean you must be an expert photographer, merely that your results are the best.

Mr. Davidson has been selected as judge because of his ability and interest in photography.

The winners will be given recognition in the 1928 Iris.

STEVENS POINT VS. OSHKOSH

Here lies the remains of a good, hard, cage contest. Look it over and weep once more. We've gotta hand it to Oshkosh for they have a dandy, fast, balanced team, but will they be so fast when they get in our cracker-box outfit? We may be down but we are not out, so lets rope 'em next time. What say?

Letter Received By Pinafore's Director

WHAT IS IT? THE OPERA. WHEN IS IT? JANUARY 27. WHERE IS IT? THE COLLEGE AUDITORIUM. WHO IS WELCOME? EVERYONE. THE NAME? "PINAFORE."

Dr. Baldwin recently presented to Mr. Percival a letter in regard to the coming opera, "Pinafore". Edwin P. Brown, principal of the Wayland Academy, Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, is the author of the letter and wishes to know the date of our production.

Wayland Academy plans to present the same opera on March 5th and hopes to send a few of its students to view our production.

Forum To Give School Party Saturday Evening

To Present College Appropriation Bill

The following statements come from Dr. Baldwin in regard to the Bill of Appropriation for Point College. The following Special Capital items are included in the bill which has been drafted during the interim between the regular and special legislature sessions. This bill will be presented at the Special Session of the Legislature.

There will be a transfer of $25,000 original appropriation of March 1, 1919, for a Science building to the construction of the new Training School. This will give Stevens Point a training school which will cost approximately $175,000. The $25,000 will be added to the $150,000 already appropriated. The new training school will face on Reserve Street.

$45,595 will be appropriated for the equipment of the new training School. $65,000 will be appropriated for the construction of a new boiler plant. There was an appropriation made in 1925 for $21,000 to improve the boilers, but this new appropriation will add much to the savings.

For the General Capital Appropriations $14,245 and $25,440 will be appropriated for '27-'28 and '28-'29 respectively. $11,480 and $7,150 will be appropriated for the next two years, respectively, for maintenance. The appropriation for teachers' salaries is one item which has been cut. As listed the bill amounts to $115,600 for each year of the bi-annium.

There has also been included in the Bill an appropriation for $70,000 for each year of the bi-annium for other operations. This includes the teachers' salaries. The amount represents an increase of $10,000 per year over the amount which was in the original bill of the regular session.

Girls Practice For Basketball Tourney

Girls' Basket-ball practice has started. In previous years each department had its own team. So far this year very few girls have come to practice, although it isn't too late to begin now. Look at the bulletin board for notices of practices and report. The more people a department has out for practices the better chance that department has of winning the tournament in March.

Two hours on Saturday mornings have been given over to open practice. Anyone may come to these practices and stay any length of time. Practically all the time is spent in scrimmages. This is a splendid opportunity for the girls that are unable to come to their regular scheduled department practices.

The coaches for the girls' basketball teams this year are girls who have been studying the technique of basketball. They are: H. S. Elizabeth Kelley; H. Ee.—Helen Lohr; Primary—Margaret Collins; Grammar—Margaret Lord; Rurals—Helen Weber; Assistants—Margaret Larsen, Faith Herrick and Mildred Patchin.

Extemp Speakers To Prepare For Contest

The extemporaneous speakers for 1928 have been selected by Professor L. M. Borroughs, who will also coach them. Allen McVey, Clarence Theis, Pauline Buhlman, and Clarence Teske are to compete in the local extemporaneous contest.

May Become Annual Event

The Forum will act as hosts to the college students Saturday evening at a dance in the gymnasium at 8:00. The members of the committees have been working earnestly in an effort to make this party a huge success. It is also hoped that this will become an annual event.

Committees Appointed

The committee of selection, who arranged for the eve on which the party was to be held, was Helen Weber, Neale Precourt, and Robert Breitenstein. Elton Davis, Sherbin Flowers, and William Albrecht are acting as the program and orchestra committee. The committee for decorations is composed of Julia Van Hecke, Marie Mollen, and Mildred Patchin.

Plan Program

The program committee wishes to assure the students that the program will be very amusing and of great interest.

Debate Class Argue Protection Question

The debate class has been presenting recently a series of debates. On Monday at 3:00, one affirmative team, Allen McVey, Captain, Sylvia Brickson, Henri Hess, debated the Negative team, Clarence Theis, Captain, Stanley Miller, Mary Kucierek on the question, Resolved: That the United States should cease to protect by force of arms, American property invested in foreign countries except after formal declaration of war. The judges for the debate were Miss Hussey, Mr. Rogers and Mr. Mott. On Tuesday at 3:00 a second debate, this time a two-man debate, was held. The Affirmative was represented by Frank Joswick and Pauline Buhlman, the Negative by Mary Kucierek and Clarence Teske. Clarence Theis acted as chairman.

A debate is being arranged with Eau Claire for the near future.

Schmeekle Presents Finance Statement

In order to allay any questions in the minds of the students as to where their money goes, it has been decided to print financial statements of the various athletic and social functions of Point College. The following statement is for the Eau Claire—Stevens Point basketball game and for the dance immediately after that game.

A BIT OF ADVICE

"It won't be long now." In a few more weeks the semester examinations will be upon us. Yes, actually, the finals will be here. No doubt it is a sad state of affairs.

If education ever gets out of the experimental stage, which at present it shows absolutely no signs of doing, let us hope that semester examinations will be considered interesting but unnecessary, along with lesson plans, unit outlines, and other morbid and malevolent creatures of the minds of pedagogians.

This is beside the point. To-day, here in Central State Teachers' College, and everywhere else, most likely, semester examinations, or at least some sort of end-term examinations are considered not only interesting but also of sufficient value to be taken into consideration in deciding upon semester grades. This point is too important to be overlooked. Woe unto him that knoweth not his subject at a semester exam.

The question is then, how to pass the examinations? Knowing that this would be the question, we have taken up the subject here and devoted much very, very valuable space to it, with an eye toward the edification and material benefit of the student body in general.

On this solemn occasion let it be known that blessed is he who owneth a good notebook, or not owning one, knoweth of one who doth own one. To this small, farsighted group we give our benedictions and offer our free advice. Hit the notebook hard children, and fear not. To those who have been doing the least possible for almost four months and a half; to those who have "let things go" generally, with the promise to themselves that they would work hard, really hard, just before the end of the half-year and prepare for the examinations, we meekly remind that the time is now come for so doing — and those that can, let them. Remember, if you cram hard, and learn but for one day only, it is well worth it anyway, for it makes the professor happy in the belief that he has taught you something.

To those who have not studied, and do not intend to, we suggest that a careful examination be made into bank balances, for much as we find it trying, this institution has found it necessary to make small demands (only twenty-five dollars) upon those individuals who, to use a common term, fail — often to the subsequent pecuniary embarrassment of said individuals.

To those happy and fortunate individuals who already know what it is all about (what their subjects, courses, etc. are about, that is — not what this article is about) we wish to hearten with the assurance that no matter how much they know they are sure to be asked something they do not know, and so let them spend their time in toil and study.

In conclusion, let it be known that this institution for the training of pedagogues has not made it a practice, so far as can be ascertained through exhaustive study, to present students with D's on general principles — nor yet to give them A's for the same nefarious reason.

WANTED!

WANTED: A group of new college cheers. Old S. P. N. is gone now so lets all yell for its successor. It is very noticeable that while trying to show the team that we are back of them, we suddenly fall flat in certain parts, — those parts in which "Normal" is mentioned.

All those old cheers, and songs too, must be discarded or revised, and new ones adopted. Half the year is almost gone, so don't you think it's time something were done about it?

The name of this institution: ladies and gentlemen, is Central State Teachers' College, Stevens Point State Teachers' College, Stevens Point College, or what have you? You are bound only by your imagination — which should be very elastic.

O. O.

People seldom improve, when they have no other model but themselves to copy after.

Oliver Goldsmith.

HUMOR

MORE OR LESS

AS IF IT COULD!

Leo B: "I've heard that you are fond of music."

Baby Face: "Yes, but don't let that stop your singing!"

OR WHAT HAVE YOU?

Zella: "What a horrible noise comes from that radio set."

Claire: "Well, I guess you would make just as bad a noise if you were coming out of there."

YES, WE'VE MET HIM, TOO

Thelma: "Have you never met a man whose touch seemed to thrill every fiber of your being?"

Florence: "Oh, yes, once—a dentist."

YA BETCHA!

He: "What a run!"

She: (blushing) "Does it really show?"

DEPENDS WHERE THE GIRL IS

Clarence Theis: "How much will it cost to send a telegram?"

Operator: "Where to?"

Clarence: (dreamily) "To Adela."

IT'S THEIR PRIVILEGE

Ruth A: "Women have cleaner minds than men."

Sam Smith: "Sure, they change them more often."

HOW COULD SHE BEAR IT

Piff Kelly: "She suffered in silence."

Shrimp B: "I'll bet she suffered."

Sunday School Teacher: "Now if you are good children there will be angels around your bed at night."

Small urchin: "Don't I know lady, and say, can't they bite?"

SO THAT'S WHY!

Co-ed: "All men are fools."

Lawrence B: "Yes, dear, we were made fools so you girls wouldn't all be old maids."

JUST OFF THE PRESS

Definition of a football game — Twenty-two nice young men entirely surrounded by maniacs.

A MERE FIGURE OF SPEECH

Mrs. Mott: "I must go on a diet."

Mr. Mott: "Yes, figuratively speaking."

Shades of Verdun: The motto of the French and German classes in regard to students seems to be, "They Shall Not Pass!"

THE LIGHT THAT FAILED

Place: At a party.

Time: Darkness

Condition: Lights are all out.

(Now go on with the play.)
One voice: "Is there an electrician here?"

Another voice: "I'm an electrician."

All voices: "Throw him out."

HAS THE BOY NO AMBITION?

Tack: "What would you say if I threw you a kiss?"

Vera: "Lazy, lazy."

"Check your baggage, Mister?"

"No, she's coming with me."

CATCH AS CATCH-CAN COLUMN

Catch what you can;
Can-what you catch.

MAYBE THAT'S WHY PONY COATS ARE SO POPULAR!

Ken McCarr says that every time he sees a girl in a fur coat he thinks of the good old days when he developed husky biceps carrying the race horses. Evidently Ken thinks that all girls who wear fur coats are fast steppers — or at least high steppers. Coeds with fur coats, beware of McCarr!

The tradition that has been held so tenaciously by our own Scotty has been rudely blasted by this trip. It is rather hard to imagine McDonald in the role of a gay Lothario but you should have seen him. Bright may be likened somewhat to the Mazda lamp ad. with Mac as his only rival. The dull red glow that permeated the bus as it left the thriving village of Oshkosh, was nothing more than the modest blushes of the hero of the fray. As the bus driver remarked, "If Scotty is as good a man with the women as he is on the basketball floor the chaperone will have his hands full on the way back."

Charles Pile sneaked into the bus for the return trip in order to collect data on his new book "What I would like to know about the gentler (?) sex."

Frank Wierenzinski has turned out to be a regular Ponzi. After giving away his seat in the vehicle of transportation, he very calmly sold it to two other fellows. We would hate to have to buy a second hand car from such a salesman.

Paukert has banned the singing of the little ditty entitled, "Where was Paukie when the lights went on?" He hadn't ought to kick; he was only caught three times.

HE LOOKS DIGNIFIED

Tiger Flowers, the wild bull of the campus, was in great form and kept the fair maidens in a continuous state of uproar with his droll sayings. To look at him one would never imagine that from such a face and form as his, such humorous outcroppings could be found.

MY TRIP TO BUGTOWN

—By Worthless McDoolittle

The Pep Club's bus, on the return trip from way down east in Oshkosh, could very easily be likened to a "parlor" car.

We feel that Fern Pugh will soar far above the rest of her competitors in the oratorical contest. The subject of her speech is aviation.

SOCIETY

Mr. Mott rights Girl Club Members

The Margaret Ashmun Society held its first regular meeting after the holidays, Wednesday, January 11. Roll-call was taken and each member responded with a familiar quotation.

The first number on the program was a piano solo by Miss Grace Flowers. The name of the selection was "Spring Flowers". The second number was a dramatic reading, "Humorsque" by Miss Mildred Foss. Miss Buhlman gave an interesting book report on "The Private Life of Helen of Troy". Mr. Mott was the speaker of the evening. He spoke on: "The Function of Literature" and also included many funny stories which wound up with a ghost story that effectively frightened the girl members of the society.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

C. This Reports To Members Of Y.M.C.A.

The regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held last evening due to conflicts with the regular night. The program was arranged under the direction of the Vice-President, Walter Wasrud.

Clarence This spoke to the members about his trip to the Conference at Detroit, Mich. He presented to the club the information which he had gained which was felt to be of most interest to a Y. M. C. A. At the close of his talk and Open Forum discussion was held. Mr. This acted as chairman during this conversation and lead the discussion.

Alex Peterson entertained the group with several piano solos.

H. S. Scientists To Be College Guests

The Science Club of the Stevens Point High School will be the guests of the College Science Club on the evening of Wednesday, January 25. At this time the two organizations will meet in room 207 at 7:30.

The speaker of the evening will be Prof. Watson, Director of the Junior H. S. and Grammar Departments. Mr. Watson's address will be on China. In brief outline he will lay forth the background of the recent Chinese trouble.

Prof. Rogers, President of the Science Club, will preside.

Williams Receives Position At Berlin

Vance Williams, a graduate of Point College, who returned this year for post-graduate work, has secured a position as principal of the Junior High School at Berlin, Wisconsin. Vance was also a "rooster" at the Oshkosh-Point game Friday, January 13, stopping in Oshkosh while enroute to his new position.

GOES TO BONDUEL

Miss Olive Van Vuren, Home Ec. student, returned to her home in Bonduel, Friday, where she spent the week-end.

MARRIED CHRISTMAS DAY

Fanny Dawley, daughter of James B. Dawley of Stevens Point, and Felix Mansavage, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mansavage of Plover, were married at 1 o'clock Christmas afternoon at the home of the bride's brother, Floyd A. Dawley, 600 Center Avenue. The bride, who was graduated from Point College in 1921, has been teaching school. Mr. Mansavage is employed at the Stevens Point Paper and Pulp Mill. The young couple are at home on Minnesota Avenue.

LEAGUE INVITATION

The Young People's Luther League of the Trinity Lutheran Church wishes to invite, as special guests of the League next Sunday evening, at their Fireside Hour services, the members of the faculty and the students of the Central State Teachers' College. The program begins at six o'clock and is followed by a supper, the charge for which is 15c. The Trinity Lutheran Church is located on the corner of Strongs Avenue and Brawley Street.

MEMBERS HEAR DELEGATES

President Baldwin took charge of the joint Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. meeting, held last Thursday. Mary Hughes, Charlotte Schlotzman, and Clarence This reported on their recent trip to Detroit where they attended the Detroit Conference. Arline Carlsten and Margaret Webster sang a duet accompanied at the piano by Bernice Gallop. Hymns were sung, and refreshments were served.

VALENTINE PARTY PLANNED

The Grammar Round Table held a meeting January 18. Plans were laid for the annual Valentine Party. The Program Committee, Arminda Werner, Ethel Maes, and Beatrice Polly, secured a very interesting program. Alex Peterson gave a Piano Solo. Miss Harriet Nelson gave a reading, and Mr. Mott addressed the Society.

Tiny Bannach who put the cus in Custer, will be back next year to complete the prescribed course for his H. B. (Hay Balers) degree, it was reported in athletic circles today. He will be eligible for public speaking and dominoes, but will be greatly missed from the marble, poker, and tiddle-de-winks squads. Tiny is an active member of the Tappa Haffa Keg Fraternity besides being a big man around school, —shoes size 14.

Big headline scandal. PROMINENT ATHLETE CAUGHT WITH WELL KNOWN PROFESSOR'S DAUGHTER ON LAP IN OSHKOSH BUS—YOUNG DRUGGIST THREATENS BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT. Another good Scotchman gone wrong!

Professor Delzell, being an experienced and accomodating chaperonek went on the trip without his glasses. But when the lights were switched on occasionally, a person didn't need glasses to see several gentlemen (supposedly) taking advanced courses in applied neckology. When caught, Harold Paukert mastered a beautiful blush and said he was merely bending over to see if Evelyn's powder was on straight, fearing that some had jarred off on account of the rough roads. What an alibi! Don't you know it's leap year, Harold?

We heard an Oshkosh business man ask his wife if our Pep Club had escaped from their local institution, or if there were a circus in town. Sock. We may be from the country, says Ben Weronke, but we sure know the price of potatoes.

This is the time of year when optimists look for signs of spring fever. Harold Holmes rushed up to the Daily Journal this morning and reported seeing a blue jay on his way to school. (The blue jay wasn't going to school, Harold says.) Sorry, old boy, but blue jays enjoy our climate all year around (Spencer citizen suicides).

'Nother, Harold Paukert insists that he saw a robin around his barn this morning. Maybe Harold lives so far south that he sees 'em first, or else he got a hew of some of the same mountain dew that caused us to see horse feathers. (Thanks to W. M.) Adios.
