Band Tourney To Draw Prep Band Artists

EXPECT ATTENDANCE OF 2,500 MUSICIANS, LEADERS

The annual Wisconsin State High School Band Tournament will this year be held in Stevens Point, on Friday and Saturday, May 17 and 18.

Fifty bands coming from all sections of the state will be enrolled. A special train will come from Milwaukee carrying 1,000 people on the Soo Line. In all, it is estimated that there will be about 2,500 musicians and leaders.

The band boys will be taken into the homes of residents of the city and given free lodging. All halls in the city have been donated by different lodges for tournament purposes.

FOUR CLASSES

On Friday, class A and B will perform in the High School auditorium while at the same time class C and D bands will perform in the College Auditorium.

SCHEDULE STUNTS

Plans have been made for entertainment of the boys. Games, outside contests and stunts will be put on by various bands. One afternoon they will be entertained at the theatre by local talent and a movie. Two dances will be given in the evenings under the auspices of the Stevens Point High School Band.

PARADE ARRANGED

The local Battery will have charge of the parade. The military unit will come out and no doubt the parade will be one of the finest and most brilliant ever held.

Since it is believed that Milwaukee will stay over until Sunday, a dance will be given at the High School and possibly a movie at the College on Saturday night.

TO NAME JUDGES

The judges for the tournament have not yet been announced but the names will be made public soon.

Urge Collegians To Enter Tennis Club

The Tennis Club is anxious to have new members so that the vacancies caused by graduates may be filled.

Fees for the club are $1.50 for the first year and $.50 for every year after that. This fee entitles the member to a private key to the courts.

Some money was spent last year in beautifying the courts and installing fountains. It is therefore hoped that the increase in membership this year will enable the club to make more improvements.

Conference Rules Altered By Group

The State Teachers' College Committee consisting of a faculty representative of each college met with the college coaches at Madison on Friday and Saturday of last week.

The committee adopted a resolution whereby the name "Normal School Conference" was changed to "Teachers' College Conference." This conference, of course, pertains to athletic competitions between the teachers' colleges of the state.

The annual track meet will be held at Madison. It was decided to have each school which does not compete pay the sum of $20.00 toward the financing of the event. Those schools which send teams are to pay $30.00 toward the budget.

The committee decided to change the eligibility requirements. As the case stands now, an eligible athlete must pass seven-ninths of his hours if he carries 18 hours work; he must pass in three-fourths if he carries a load of 16 hours.

The reason for the more lenient requirement for the person in a school with a 16 hour semester, is that they are on a collegiate basis with more rigid and thorough courses.

The faculty representatives and coaches meet twice annually — in Milwaukee, at the time of the annual Teachers College Convention and in Madison, during the time of State High School Basketball Tournament.

Coach Moll and Mr. Watson, of the faculty were the representatives of Central State.

McBride Sets Locals In All-State Teams

The attention of the students is called to the article on the fourth page. This article is a rather detailed summary of the honor basketball teams selected by Ray McBride, of the State Teachers' College at Superior.

The compilation must have called for a rather lengthy and laborous bit of research. It is to be expected that many members of the various teachers' colleges will be inclined to disagree with the author of the compilation. Nevertheless, we must give Ray McBride credit for performing the very difficult task.

Capt. "Seott" McDonald was placed at guard position on the first team. "Snuzzle" Neuberger has to perform at center on the second team.

"Polonia" Weronke is slated to gun at guard position on the third squad. Marshall was given honorable mention while "Slow-motion" White was evidently overlooked entirely. Too bad.

F. E. Percival To Go To Music Meeting

Prof. Frank E. Percival will next week be in Milwaukee attending the North Central Music Supervisors' conference.

This conference meets annually at different places to sponsor the furtherance of public school music.

Mr. Percival has been elected treasurer of the conference and will go there to serve in that respect.

Girls' Glee Club To Give Concert

The Girls' Glee Club under the direction of Mr. Percival will give a concert in the College Auditorium on Monday evening May 6. At this time the public speaking classes under the direction of Mr. Burroughs will give a series of plays.

The concert comes at the beginning of the observance of National Music Week, May 5 to 12 inclusive. Every church and school in the city has planned special musical features in honor of National Music Week, and Mr. Percival has planned not only the concert, but has arranged for the Rhondda Singers to appear on Saturday, May 11 as a climax to the college musical activities of the week.

School Junior Prom Is Beautiful Party

The College Junior Prom which was held last Saturday night in the college gymnasium proved to be successful in all respects.

More than fifty couples were present and enjoyed dancing in the old-fashioned garden. A blue sky, studded with silver stars, was overhead; apple blossoms, and vari-colored lights decorated the side walls and the orchestra space was surrounded by a garden fence covered with hollyhocks. A lattice fence extended around the gym with holly hocks and cherry blossoms apparently growing up beside it. Punch was served from a quaint old fashioned well. Entrance into the garden was gained by rustic gates. Floor lamps, easy chairs and davenport placed at intervals about the walls offered inviting resting places.

Ray Jacobs' orchestra, and Rasmussen's orchestra from Wausau, furnished the music for the evening.

Carroll Singers To Appear Here Apr. 12

Friday, April 12, at the Frame Memorial Presbyterian Church, music lovers of Stevens Point will be entertained by the Carroll College Glee Club.

The concert will be sponsored by the Westminster Club of the city, and marks the 23rd annual appearance of the Glee Club which visits twenty cities during a period of two weeks each spring.

An exceptionally interesting program is announced for this year. Alexius Bass, director of voice at Carroll, is the club leader and is also noted as a baritone soloist and a composer.

Stanley Morner is the tenor soloist and Spencer Wallace is the xylophonist appearing with the organization.

COLLEGIANS URGED TO SIGN FOR YEAR BOOKS

This week begins the annual canvass of the student body for Irises.

The president of each department will act as chairman for his group in the campaign. The leaders are as follows: Rurals—Henry Brezinski; Grammar—Evelyn Elliott; Primary—Dorothy Cawley; High School—Elizabeth Collins; Home Economics—Lauritta Wichser.

All who desire Irises will please sign up with the president of your department.

PLAN LARGER BOOK

The year book this year promises to be the best ever published. It will be a much larger book than those of former years and finer in every detail. The price, however remains the same—three dollars.

OFFER INDUCEMENT

A three dollar reduction in the cost of the departmental picture will be allowed to the department which turns in the highest percentage of signers by April 26.

Subscription week includes April 11-18 and all books should be signed for by the end of that week. This will enable the staff to make a report to the printers concerning the number of books to be printed.

ANNUAL IS SOUVENIR

No student ought to deprive himself of an Iris. What this book will mean to the individual later on cannot be estimated. It will always remain a permanent record of his activities, pleasures, duties, and friends. It will forever stand as a representative of his Alma Mater.

It is believed that the Irises will be ready for distribution near the middle of May and will be presented, no doubt, at a party as in former years.

LABOR REQUIRED

The staff deserves an extra amount of credit for their hard and faithful work throughout the year to make the book one that each owner will be proud of.

PLAN CONCERT

The Hartmann Spring Quartette, whose appearance here has previously been postponed, have been scheduled to appear here on May 1st. This is the last number of the Artists' Course and from advance reports will be well worth hearing.

Your student ticket will admit you.

Spindler To Talk To College Grammarians

Mr. Spindler, popular speaker, will talk to the Grammarians at their meeting Monday, April 15th. We know that this fact is incentive enough for every member of the Grammar Round Table to be present.

However, this is not all, for several musical numbers will be presented by various students of the college. Your part of the program is to be there.

Let's give Mr. Spindler a good crowd of listeners.

Published Weekly at Stevens Point by the students of the Central Wisconsin State Teachers' College. Subscription Price $2.00 per year. Entered as second-class matter May 26, 1927, at the post office at Stevens Point, Wisconsin, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

YOUR IRIS

THE members of the Iris staff have been laboring through the present school year in preparation of the 1929 Iris. A portion of the effort of production is taken up in an annual canvass to ascertain the number who desire a copy of the annual.

Of course it is obviously noticeable that the campaign must necessarily take place during a time in the term when collegians are exceptionally blessed with diverting elements.

Serious thought and consideration quite often gives way to amorosness and frivolity. Activity is ousted and inactivity and indolence take its place.

In spite of the numerousness of distracting elements the students of C. S. T. S. should, for a few moments, consider the necessity of signing up for a copy of the Iris. Older students can recall how much pleasure has been derived from the possession of an Iris; these same students also recall how many were disappointed in not being able to obtain an Iris.

Toward the close of the year, the most familiar sight to be seen is that of students grouped on the campus occupied with the task of inscribing Irises.

Indefinable pleasure is derived, in later years, from the reading over of autographed annuals of the Alma Mater.

Get your Iris. You'll want it.

SPRING FEVER

STUDENTS have been suggesting that the length of assignments should be shortened during the time of the year which is designated as spring. The newer students have been loudest in their acclamations as to this needed change.

The recreational activities of spring should not interfere, unduly, with school work. A proper adjustment between the two will obviate any interference.

'Spring fever' should not necessitate a lightening of mental burdens for scholars. Some believe and perhaps rightly, that 'spring fever' is merely a state of mind, induced cyclically, rather than an actual physical phenomenon.

Except in isolated instances, one is, after a full analysis of the question, inclined toward the belief that the length of assignments should not be tampered with.

Keep on hitting the ball.

AFTER THE PROM

THE first Prom of C. S. T. C. belongs to the ages. The importance and significance of the event is not to be denied. As predicted, it was quite pleasing and impressing to behold the ladies enrobed in formal garments, while the gents glided around the floor in formal, semi-formal, or near formal dress.

The 'enormity' and classification of attendance presented proof as to the distinctiveness of the affair.

The crowd in its entirety was quite small. In fact, if it weren't for the fact that many non-collegians were in attendance, the turnout would have been exceptionally skimpy.

It would make an interesting bit of research to have someone inquire to discover and then tabulate the various causes given for non-attendance. The girls of C. S. T. C. have stated their dislike of the general attitude displayed by the men as regards the Prom 'bidding.'

Perhaps, if this has truth in it, a new custom of procedure ought to be established at Central. There doesn't seem to be very much doubt but that the girls would display more loyalty of participation in such social events. In our school, with the great preponderance of females, the request privilege would, perhaps, be more effectively taken advantage of.

In the proposed plan the girls, no doubt, would also be given the right to submit the usual cash considerations. This condition could well obtain for a time at least.

It has been noticed, in times past, that girls have been very good entertainers when given the initiative in the matter.

Why not give the fair coeds a chance?

HUMOR MORE OR LESS

The opening selection for this week's humor column will be an original composition by Mr. Davidson entitled, 'I used to cook in a logging camp; that's why I lumber so.'

Noticing a collegiate tendency toward trousers with rather distended circumference, we can find some use for a saying of Will Rogers' — 'Many college men need narrower pants and broader ideas.'

Balloon pants are old but do any of you happen to remember when the word 'neck' was used wholly as a noun?

SHE'S

Some girls call their sweetie 'Breeze' — whenever he blows around, they get a stiff neck.

ONLY A

Mary Agnes: 'Vrobel's eyes remind me of a bird.'

Emil Pagel: 'In what manner and why?'

Mary Agnes: 'Because they always flit from limb to limb.'

The chorus girls presented Jack Rezzatto with a diamond studded button and an asbestos suit with the following lines of cause for gratitude: 'To a modern Nero, who fiddled around where the flames were the hottest.'

TRAINMAN'S

Alumnus: 'Gone are those spring nights when the 'cops', the S. P. N. janitors and engineers used to go on after warning the loitering students to 'Move on, move on.'

DAUGHTER

Glenn White: 'That girl whom I was out with last night is often called 'Kitty'.'

Ollie Neuberger: 'Why?'

Glenn White: 'Well, she's always getting put out of some place...'

BUT

The boys say that Grace L. is small, just like a sample; small but...

'Have you heard the new suspender song?'

'No, what is it?'

'It all depends on you.'

DEATHLY AFRAID OF

In a new version of the saying, 'The only good Indian is a dead one,' we find a modernistic theme — 'A dead Injun often gives life to a party.'

COLLEGIATE

Vivian: 'Who's the boy friend I saw you reeling down the street with last night?'

Lillian Richards: 'That was no boy friend — that was my steady.'

CARS

Douglas Mainland (speaking to opponent): 'I'm sorry I made you cry — but your face is cleaner now.'

CHOO, CHOO, CHOO, LOOK OUT FOR THE VIADUCT AND THE VINEGAR WORKS. READ THE TITLES FROM TOP TO BOTTOM. THIS MEANS YOU.

The Whirlpool

Respectfully submitted...

Dear Editor of the 'Whirlpool':— Say, could you tell me whether Dagneau and his lady friend came walking up the street to the Dorm at 14 minutes to 5 o'clock on Sunday afternoon? If so, was he wearing a green cap? If so, was the green cap pretty?

Signed, Philipopolopolis Esq.

Reply —

All those questions which you asked of me must necessarily be answered in the affirmative. Too bad! Still that's not the worst of it. We noticed that our faculty members lived up to the well known reputation which professors have attained. Most of them forgot all about the first C. S. T. C. Prom. Well, anyway, many of the dances were altogether too darn long. Some said the ball room was altogether too hot also.

By the way, as spring arrives, the fancies of our young collegiate males have begun to turn to what the collegiate females have been thinking of all winter. This last statement has been uttered by one of our lady faculty members so it must be so.

That's nothing. You ought to see how some of the Ripon boys do things up. Don Juan (Editor)

WHO'S WHO AND WHY

Answer to last week's description — Gilbert ('Happy') Fleetham. Description:

Not a local girl... went to the Prom... name of her home town begins with an 'M', I believe... phone number has a '2' in it... her name (either first or last, one or the other) begins with an 'E'... is in a department of the college which is entirely composed of members of the female sex... sometimes wears glasses... rooms quite close to school... Medium height... medium weight... That's all but there's a lot more

Rose's are red, Pearl's are white, I saw them on the clothes line Just the other night. W. M. S. Geode.

HALL OF FAME

SYLVIA BRICKSON

Next to Eddie Cantor, there is no more ardent lover of the automobile horn that goes ta ta ta ta. (Use correct intonation). But the horn isn't the only thing. The car must be a Buick, Studebaker, Hupmobile, or Cadillac. She has found that when better men are made, these cars will make them.

Is quite a distinguished actress. Successfully portrays the part of an artless, cherishing sort of lady. And boy she makes the 'homeiest' sort of a girl. Watch out! Don't crowd, men.

She appears well and often. Her hair is silken and has those voluptuous curls... potato, potato, potato.

Mr. O. W. Neale Talks At Sheboygan Falls

Last Tuesday evening Mr. Neale appeared at Sheboygan Falls before the Woman's Club and the city and County teachers. He gave a talk relative to picture work and study.

The audience enjoyed the presentation which is quite a thorough treatment of the picture and its study.

Mr. Neale has spent much time and energy in preparation of picture study material and in collection of the pictures themselves.

Lifers To Meet For Slide Presentation

The Rurals of the school have planned to hold a regular meeting of the Rural Life Club on next Monday evening.

The meeting is to be held in the Rural Assembly, beginning at 7:30.

At this meeting, Mr. Neale will show stereopticon slides on Rural Improvement and Consolidation. The Rural Department of the college has received quite a number of the slides and will present the most instructive of the lot.

Letters Awarded At Meeting Of G. A. A.

At 4:30 Friday afternoon, March 29, nine girls roller skated and hiked to Red Bridge. The girls played base ball before eating a delicious lunch packed for them by Miss Rowe.

The Girls' Athletic Association has a new pair of roller skates which it will rent for 15c an hour.

On Wednesday of last week, a business and social meeting of all Girls' Athletic Association members was held. At this meeting the new Girls' Athletic Association members received their letters. These new members are: Mabel Hiltz, Helen Smart, Bernice George, Agnes Sparks, Crystal Joseph, Catherine Novitski, Dorothy Viertel and Esther Hawkes.

Miss Hanna Hostess At Birthday Party

Miss Hanna, a teacher in the Rural Department of the Central State Teachers' College, entertained a group at a birthday party on Tuesday evening.

The group consisted of people who formed a very lively gathering at which the time was enjoyably spent.

The affair was held at the Gingham Tea Room.

"Silas Marner" Show Draws Big Audience

The movie "Silas Marner" which was postponed from Friday April fifth because of a broken bolt in the machine, was enthusiastically received by the audience Monday evening. This picture is one of a number of the world's great stories which have been secured by the committee in charge and presented at a nominal cost to students and townspeople.

The picture was clear and presented in a professional manner.

NELSON HALL NOTES

Lucille Krumm celebrated her birthday on Sunday by having a special table of ten. There was a delicious big angel food cake decorated with fancy designs of frosting and with 7 candles. Nut cups, place cards, and a beautiful hyacinth added to the enjoyment of the good dinner Miss Rowe served.

Miss Marion Nolan of our last year's family called on Saturday evening, Miss Nolan is teaching in Chippewa Falls.

Mary Lea entertained her people on Sunday.

Miss Ruth Warren, of the class of '27, visited friends in Nelson Hall on Friday.

Harold Paukert is prospering in his job; he parked a dandy new Chrysler in front of Nelson Hall, while he paid a visit to old friends.

Kathryn Wunch and Genevieve Leahy have both recovered from slight attacks of tonsillitis.

Hazel Schroeder entertained Misses Geraldine Pinkert and Henrietta Mannecke of Wausau on Saturday afternoon.

The first dandelion of the season is decorating the dresser of room 215. For further particulars ask the occupants.

Miss Esther Hedine, of the local high school faculty, was a guest at dinner on Sunday.

Do you want your picture taken in your car? Good work guaranteed. Ask Greg. Charlesworth.

Sunday afternoon, Hazel Schroeder, Marion Kowitz, Marie Holzschuh, Eunice Riley, Lora Diek, Lucille Krumm, and Mildred Perschke hired a "65" car and drove out to Polonia. On the way they had a flat tire but demonstrated that girls can even change a tire in their "Sunday bests."

More old Nelson Hall girls have been heard from. Among them are Hattie Anderson of Milwaukee; Estelle Burns, Michigan City; Ruth Buswell, Burlington; Gertrude Linchan, Jamesville; Edna Rolfe, Arkansasaw; Dorothy Siebecker, Eau Claire; and Adelaide Greindl, Soldiers Grove.

Miss Martha Forster, who is teaching at Antigo, spent Friday visiting with friends.

Miss Bannach Talks To Rurals Of School

Miss Bannach, Portage County's Superintendent of Schools, spoke to the one-year Rurals of the college yesterday afternoon in Rural assembly.

The purpose of the meeting was to aid the students in the process of finding teaching jobs. Miss Bannach desired to learn the facts in regard to the places where the prospective teachers would be most suited.

The meeting was very interesting and the results of this cooperative conference are expected to be very fruitful.

The greater portion of the teaching material for the rural schools of Portage County has been turned out by the Rural Department of the Central State Teachers' College. Miss Bannach appreciated the conference which will undoubtedly lead to more efficient placement of teachers of rural schools.

Mr. Neale Director of the Rural Department, and his staff have specialized in teacher training for Rural work.

Below are given excerpts which contain comments relative to Stevens Point Teachers' College and its basketball players.

"Neuberger of the strong Stevens Point quint, and Johnson of Platteville are other worthy centers. Neuberger gets the call because of his experience and his fight.

Forrest McDonald, captain of Stevens Point, and Segerstrom, defensive ace of the Falls quints, are the winners of the first team guard positions. McDonald is the idol of the Pointer fans. He shines both on offense and defense, and is a leader of the first rank. Segerstrom will be remembered by Superior fans for his speedy dribbling and never-miss shooting. He is small, but he more than makes up for this in spirit and fight. Together, these two men would form an almost impenetrable defense."

Hall "Combine" Party Is Judged A Success

On Tuesday night, April 2, the Nelson Hall family gave a bridge and dancing party for the benefit of the piano fund. There were about 87 present; everyone seemed to bring a good time with him so the cumulative effect was an exceptionally good one.

Mrs. Collins and Dr. Dubinski won the prizes. Corridors one and two sold quite a little more of the Japanese goods.

The refreshments — chocolate cup cakes and coffee were delicious.

THE MASTER

Great as the powers of Mankind may seem,
God has His share in its wonderful dream.

God makes the hills and the flowering vales;
Man makes the towns and the far — stretching roads.
Man makes the towns and the piers;
God is the Maker of insects and toads.

God builds the mountain, the hill, and the cliff;
Man with his craze for machines tears them down.
God grows the trees on the earth's smiling face;
Mankind displaces her smile with a frown.

Mankind can boast of its wonderful schools;
God is the Master of land and of sea.
Man is the token of wisdom and pride;
God is the emblem of all that is free.

What is Man's greatest achievement to-day?
Naught has been said of the plow or the pen.
Any attempt at an answer is vain:
All shall pass on to return not again.

God is the Giver of light and of life;
His is the beauty of sky and of glen;
Pure in His mercy He fashioned the soul —
God's greatest masterpiece? — Men, loving men.
