

THE POINTER

Last Minute Rally Downs Point Team

After being outplayed the greater part of the game, Coach Zorn's men gave the "homecomers" a thrill of their life when they galloped down the field for three touchdowns during the last four minute period. The game ended 19-0.

The game was a mix-up of thrills and more than once Eau Claire held their breath when Marshall crashed the middle of their line for yards when needed.

The first half belonged to the Pointers, as they had the "pig skin" in Eau Claire's territory most of the time. The only thing that stopped the battling warriors were the penalties handed to them; one came at a most unopportune time. The Pointers carried the ball down to the four yard line. Art did some real head work, for as you all know by now he is our snappy little quarterback, and don't think that boy can't call signals and tackle. The headlinesman penalized the boys fifteen yards for holding. They lost the ball on downs, and Eau Claire punted out of danger zone. The quarter ended, the Pointers having an edge of seven downs to their two.

The second half was fairly even until the fourth quarter when the big rally began. Shea, Eau Claire quarterback returned a punt to the 30 yard line. They did some fighting and carried it over for the first touchdown with only four minutes to play. The second came when Alberts tried a pass and Ginn intercepted and ran across for a touchdown. Shea place kicked. By this time all the Pointers had a chance to be in action and the third touchdown came when Shea ran across after some very nice end runs.

The reason, I believe, for the victory was the spirit shown by the school. They never gave up boosting and yelling even when it looked disastrous for their team.

The winning of the game helped to make a successful homecoming for Eau Claire Teachers. The hosts at Friday's game are to be complimented upon their fine sportsmanship and school spirit.

Following the game the members of the squad were invited to the banquet and dance. The boys attending reported a good time.

Shea was the outstanding player for Eau Claire, while Art did some fine work for the Pointers.

What say we all get out and do some real boosting for this Oshkosh game? We can win if the school wants the boys to, so let's get out and show them we do.

Famous Artist To Appear Soon

Once more Central State Teachers' College is to welcome a nationally known guest. Mr. Rollin Pease, noted concert singer and bass-baritone of the Washington Grand Opera company, will sing during the assembly hour next Thursday, October 31.

Mr. Pease is known and liked everywhere for his fine voice, dramatic ability, and bland humor. His programs are not of the ordinary kind meant only to display a fine voice. He omits the usual exits and entrances, and substitutes for them a moment of his scintillating and instructive remarks on the song to follow. This alone makes the program distinctive from that of other well-known singers.

However, Mr. Pease's principle purpose is not to be witty, but to encourage and further the expression of our national life in understandable music. His repertoire includes songs in the French, German, Russian and Italian languages. These he subjects to the compositions of the English speaking people. His intensive study of English has made it seem in his own words "superlatively important that the language of our own land should be sung also." His guiding purpose has become, therefore, to challenge American assemblies with American settings and American emotions.

His program will consist of old songs and new, — oratorio, folk songs, negro spirituals, and songs of the workaday world. His singing is of the easy, rolling type that sets an audience immediately at ease.

The student body and the training school pupils will hear his program without cost, but out-siders wishing to take advantage of this opportunity to hear a singer of national note will be required to pay a small admission fee.

Complete Schedule For School Movies

The movie schedule up until the end of this year is as follows: On Nov. 5th, "The Actress" with Norma Shearer will be shown. This picture is rated as excellent. The "Patent Leather Kid" with Richard Barthlemess, is scheduled for Nov. 12th. On Nov. 17th "The High School Hero," a highly amusing film will be here. Sally Phipps plays the leading role. "The Big Noise" with Chester Conklin will be shown Nov. 26th.

The notable film "Quality Street" with Marion Davies is scheduled for Dec. 3rd. On Dec. 10th the "Great White North" a picture that was released in February 1929 will be shown and on Dec. 17th Ken Maynard will be here in an exciting film for young and old, "The Wagon Show."

Next Tuesday "The Son of the Golden West" with Tom Mix will be shown.

These films have been selected very carefully to suit the demands of the children as well as the adults. It is the aim of the committee to show the very best of silent pictures at the least possible price.

All the films are from leading companies including Warner Bros., First National, Metro-Goldwyn, Mayer and the Fox Co. All films for any reason unsuitable for the younger members of the community, even those thoroughly worthwhile for adults, have been omitted from the selection.

ORGANIZATION COMPLETED BY ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Senior Class To Sponsor Dance

The students and faculty members are cordially invited to attend a dance sponsored by the senior class. It is to be given in the gym Saturday evening from eight-thirty until twelve o'clock. Dancing, of course, will be the feature of the evening, but other treats are also in store. There is to be a short program and refreshments.

The committees have been appointed and are working to make the dance enjoyable. The refreshment committee is Marguerite Patten, Chairman, Emily Kujawa, and Catherine Novitski. Fern Pugh is Chairman of the program committee and is aided by Janet Urquhart and Cecilia Breitenstein. The chaperones are Miss Jones and Mr. Mott, the class advisers.

The seniors wish to make this first class event a success. The party is for all. The admission is twenty-five cents per person.

Former Student Aids In Assembly Program

Mr. Edward Plank played piano selections for the student body this morning in Assembly. The hour was almost entirely devoted to student singing, and the program of Mr. Plank, who is a former Central State Teachers' College student. His program was as follows:

Novelette ..... Confrey
The Maiden With the Flaxen Hair .....
..... De Bussy
Country Dance ..... Beethoven
Alt Wien ..... Godowsky
Military Polonaise ..... Chopin

The student body appreciated Mr. Plank's splendid entertainment. It is hoped that he will return to his Alma Mater often.

CALENDAR

- Oct. 24 — Loyola meeting and Y. W. C. A.
- Oct. 25 — Stevens Point vs. Oshkosh at Oshkosh.
- Oct. 26 — Senior Dance.
- Nov. 7 — Platteville game.
- Nov. 6-11 — Teachers' Convention at Milwaukee.
- Nov. 27—Dec. 2 — Thanksgiving Recess.

Going? Come Along To Oshkosh Friday

Are you going? Where? To the Oshkosh game, of course. The bus, which is being sponsored by the W. A. A., will be ready to take twenty five or more students to Oshkosh to-morrow before luncheon. Be sure to meet at the east entrance at eleven o'clock. Please be prompt!

All reservations for transportation should be made with Miss Seen or Ethel Kelley, before four o'clock to-day. Come on students, show your pep! The round trip is only $1.50, and the bus will return Friday night. Are you ready to back the team? Let's go!

The Women's Athletic Association has completed its organization for the year. The constitution has been revised and embodies many changes. The point system has been rearranged, and the requirements for membership in the association have been readjusted.

At the last meeting the executive board was completed. It consists of Miss Seen, faculty adviser, the officers, and the heads of sports. The officers are Ethel Kelley, President; Catherine Novitski, Vice president; Murilla Roberts, Secretary; and Anna McWilliams, Treasurer. The heads of sports are: — hockey, Genevieve Pulda; volley ball, Esther Hawkes; hiking, Estelle Buhl; basket ball, Ethel Kelley. Two new members were voted into the association during the business meeting. They are Regina Groth and Edith Sansom. The time of meeting was decided upon as the first and third Wednesday of each month at seven-thirty. It has been later found that this time conflicts with the meetings of the faculty women's gym class. Consequently, the date of meeting is to be changed to the first and third Tuesday.

Many students have been inquiring as to various points in connection with the association. It seems advisable to publish excerpts from the constitution. The articles concern membership, dues, awards, and the point system.

1. Membership.
Each woman desiring membership shall present her name in writing to the Secretary; and after being passed upon by the Executive Board, reading the constitution, taking pledges of membership and paying initiation fees into the Treasury, she shall be declared by the President an active member of the Association and her name shall be placed on the Secretary's Roll.

At the time of the initiation each girl shall be given her insignia of membership.

Any member absent from two successive regular meetings shall be notified by the secretary that if an excuse is not handed to the president and accepted by the Executive Board before the next meeting, her name will be dropped from the roll.

The insignia given with membership is the first letter of the numeral.

2. Dues.
Annual dues of fifty cents a term shall be paid at the first regular meeting of each semester, and a fine of twenty-five cents shall be imposed upon each delinquent for each regular meeting following until dues are paid. If such dues, including fines, are not paid within two months after the first regular meeting the delinquent shall be dropped from the roll of the association.

New members of the association shall pay dues at the time of their initiation into the association.

3. Awards.
Class numeral ..... 300 points
Letter "S" ..... 700 points
Pin (W. A. A.) ..... 1,200 points

4. Point system.
(1) Head of Sport ..... 20
1 hour practice in any organized activity ..... 5
Perfect attendance at practices for any organized activity ..... 10
1 hour practice in an unorganized activity ..... 2
Tournament game ..... 15

BACK YOUR TEAM!

THE fact that no football games are played on the home campus this year, makes it somewhat difficult for the students to show a complete and true exhibition of their support and loyalty to the team. In spite of this handicap, however, a fine spirit exists among all and with the able assistance of a peppy cheer leader, several commendable exhibitions have been staged to prove to the boys that we are backing them heart and soul.

There are many ways of manifesting interest in the achievements of those who represent the college in the field of athletics. It is not sufficient to merely express our faith and enthusiasm in a group meeting but individual praise and encouragement does much to make the players feel a personal contact and interest and to spur them on to greater effort.

Better still, lend your support by individual presence at the game. This is not always possible but when opportunity presents itself, are you loyal enough to accept it?

Opportunity is going to present itself tomorrow. Will you hesitate? Let's have that bus to Oshkosh full to overflowing with peppy, enthusiastic fans.

If you have, by any chance, a car of your own or know of a friend who has one which will not be filled with passengers, why not ask some other anxious student to ride along? It is such loyalty and support that will help those boys to win.

That isn't all. When you arrive at the football field, make your presence known — yell!

Hurrah for the Oshkosh game! Let's hope its' a winner.

TEACHING LURES INCREASING NUMBERS.

LATEST reports state that more and more individuals seek careers as public school teachers.

This increase in prospective teachers presents a serious problem of selection for those engaged in teacher-training work—because the supply is greater than the demand. Ideally, and eventually, this opportunity for selection will raise the standard for public school teachers. Teachers who are "getting by" at just par now and who are not adding any more to their job than just what is asked of them, are doubtless the ones who will, by the process of grading, be precipitated in the group of culls or extras. The newer teachers who are coming into the field every year equipped with fresh ideas and material are bound to crowd out the ones who allow themselves to become stale or to "get in a rut" so to speak.

This selection will present an immediate practical problem of some delicacy in determining what the basis of selection shall be. Extensive tests are now being made in various localities among the first year students at the training schools to find a sound basis for later selective standards.

Without a doubt, one of the first reforms to be actually accomplished would be a universal requirement of a four-year course in teacher training schools.

In any case, it would seem that it behooves each teacher now in the field to prepare himself against such possible circumstances and urges the present day student to prepare for such standards of competition before going out.

HUMOR MORE OR LESS

Voice from Above: Mary.
Voice from below (Presently): Yes, Mother?
V. F. A.: The clock has struck twelve three times now. Let it practice on one awhile.

Abe: Do you play golf vit knickers?
Levi: No, vit vite peoples only.

Gen Pulda: Did you ever see an airplane strut?
Murilla Roberts: No, but I saw a horse feather once.

Harry Rickman: Do you think the airplane will be as popular as the auto?
Nip Chesron: Surely, because you can steer them with your knees.

FAMOUS PEOPLE IN HISTORY

The woman who still leaves her cooking to run out of the house and peer into the sky when she hears an airplane.

"And how did you get away from that Chicago traffic cop?"
"I went into a tail spin and hid behind the Rocky Mountains."

A guy who belongs in the Hall of Fame is old man Mr. Fry,
He never asks an aviator,
"How does it feel to fly?"

"How did that tailor get to be Alderman?"
"Shear energy, boy, shear energy."

"Use a sentence with the word 'Soviet'."
"Pa didn't come home to dinner last night, soviet without him."

HOW IT HAPPENED

1st Soldier: Sit down, you're rocking the boat.
George Washington: Can't.
7th Soldier: Why?
George Washington: My pants are too tight.
So they painted him standing up.

Jane: I want a shorter skirt than the one you showed me.
Clerk: That is the shortest we have.
Have you tried the collar department?

While up at Eau Claire Mr. Lindesmith decided to buy some peanuts so he immediately rushed over to a store and went in, but it was — a piano store.

College Prexy (awakened by the phone from deep sleep at three A. M.): Hello?

Voice: Is this the president?
Prexy: Yes.
Voice: Well, what are you doing up this late?

"I just knocked my math final cold."
"Really—?"
"Yea, below zero."

Lives of great men all remind us
We can kiss and hug
And parting, leave behind us
Lipstiek on the boy friend's mug."

THE QUESTION BOX

The following are answers to last week's question. The question was: What relationship should exist between the faculty and the students?

I "Perhaps some of us have a mental picture of the old school-master, spectacles on his pointed nose, rod in his hand — an unapproachable despot ruling his frightened vassals. His desk, loaded with books, was the everlasting barrier between him and his pupils. I doubt whether such a monster ever existed. If he did, now, at least his kind is totally extinct, and we know that the teacher is decidedly human.

Even so, he is still apart from us and I think he should remain apart. Oh, we all like the prof who is a "good fellow" However he can carry his friendliness too far. We all love to feel that there is someone who is better intellectually and morally than we. That is, we do if we profess to think at all. The majority of us have found that individual in the teacher. If we become too intimate with him, we realize that his faults are perhaps greater than ours — and another of our pet illusions lies shattered.

It is probably hard to attain the ideal, but I believe that a faculty which is friendly to its students, but still shows that its experience and knowledge is the superior experience and knowledge is the perfect faculty." Anonymous.

II "Complete understanding should exist at all times between students and faculty members. Without this understanding, perfect harmony and co-operation cannot be expected to exist. The teacher who understands his pupil and who tries, at least, to diagnose his feelings and attitudes, is better equipped to guide and advise him. Likewise the student who understands his teacher and realizes that he too is human, is not the one who grumbles and growls at every bit of extra work!" J. D.

III What our colleges need is more members on their faculties who feel a vital sense of responsibility for the students under their charge and who without resort to direct method can almost insensibly turn the minds of their students to the things of spirit. We need more members on our faculty who are ready to meet the students at least half way on the athletic field as well as in the class room and who can tactfully influence them toward higher lines of intellectual and spiritual endeavor.

If we are to do our share, we as students must enter College with a high purpose, resolved to work with joy and zeal, not for credit, nor for a degree alone, but for these qualities of mind and soul that cannot be measured in units and that are beyond price. — Emery Fritsch.

The question submitted for next week is: If not Homecoming — What?

He. Lucille, 'mburning with love for you.
She: Come, home, Gregg, don't make a fuel of yourself.

He made a run around the end,
Was tackled from the rear,
The right guard sat upon his neck,
The fullback on his ear,
The center sat upon his back,
Two ends upon his chest,
The quarter and the halfback then
Sat down on him to rest.
The left guard sat upon his face,
The coroner was then called in
To sit upon his case.

"If a hen laid an orange, what would the little chick say?"
"Oh, look at the orange marmalade."

Luke: If a Dutch girl stepped on your foot wouldn't you feel hurt?
Warm: Sure. Wooden shoe?

"It's to be a battle of wits".
"How brave of you, Dick, to go un-armed!"

What is a groundhog?
Sausage.

NELSON HALL NOTES

About three weeks ago, corridor three presented Nelson Hall with a roll for the player piano, "Broadway Melody," and this week they bought "Do Something." Anyone who wishes to follow the example of corridor three will not be thwarted.

Miss Edna Carlsten and Miss Lydia Pfeiffer were dinner guests at the Hall Sunday.

Lucille Scott and Gertrude Conklin found that mysterious hands are very busy. Their room was very artistically and beautifully decorated during their absence this week.

Quite a few of the girls attended the High School fair and supper last week. One of them lost her coat — nearly. Later she discovered that she and another patron had merely exchanged garments.

We have music from within and without. Certainly young ladies on the second floor especially delight in midnight serenades. We don't object seriously, but we like to sleep.

During Dr. Swift's stay at the dormitory, Miss Seen was a dinner guest. Dr. and Mrs. Baldwin also were dinner guests during the week.

Forest County owes a debt to Mr. Steiner for two reasons. Mr. Steiner was one of the conductors at the county institute, but even more than Forest County teachers benefitted by this. Lela Buttgen, Blanche Tyler and Agnes Rindal, all from that district, accompanied him northward and visited their families for a few days.

Alice BuDahn, we hear, is an adept at making delicious peanut brittle or brown sugar candy. Perhaps it would pay to visit her and "sample" some of it. Trips home always mean candy, too. Emily Murray returned with a supply of divinity but it soon vanished.

Wausau, Amherst, Wisconsin Rapids, Jola, Unity, Waupaca and other neighboring towns again claimed girls for the week-end. We hate to see them go, but they seem to enjoy themselves.

Beware of fakes! If anyone asks you to unscrew the cover of a jam jar, don't do it! We tried it and a "snake-like" thing popped out at us.

Miss Betty Wilson spent the week-end at her home in New London. Although she traveled in a rather doubtful vehicle, she got there and back safely.

Miss Janet Urquhardt and Miss Victoria Mason entertained at bridge on Friday night. Their guests were Miss Davis and Miss Goerbing.

Y. M. C. A.

"What Does My Religion Mean to Me" was the title of the talk which Rev. Hesla gave at the Y. W. C. A. meeting. The meeting was held Thursday at 7:30 in Nelson Hall.

Reverend Hesla showed, in a very interesting manner, the effect of religion on the life of an individual. He selected, for purposes of illustration, the hero of a certain book and discussed his life from a religious standpoint. Although this meeting was intended to be a joint Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. meeting, the masculine element was invisible. This was unfortunate for the young men, but fortunate for the girls. They had larger portions of the refreshments!

Home Economics Club Elects New Officers

The Home Economics Club held a formal organization meeting at 4:15 on Monday for the purpose of amending the Constitution and electing new officers. The following officers were chosen.

President ..... Irene Skutley
Vice President .... Marguerite Engels
Sec. and Treas. .... Estelle Buhl

A committee consisting of Fern Pugh, ch.; Irene Skutley, Alice Falk was named as a finance committee.

The following were appointed to collect dues: Vivian Enge for the freshmen, Ann Jeselun for the sophomores, Velva Carley for the Juniors and Marguerite Patten for the Seniors.

Nelson Hall Dances Draw Many Students

The popularity of the dormitory as a place for dance is increasing. A large group of students attended the dance Saturday evening. Perhaps the refreshments are the inducement, or, just perhaps, the girls are getting better looking. It might even be the music. At any rate, the Hall will soon have its encyclopedias and dictionary. A new scheme for these hops is in the making. Come next time to find out.

Dr. Swift Is Nelson Hall Guest At Tea

The last opportunity for a discussion with Dr. Edith Hale Swift was afforded to the young women of the college Friday afternoon. Dr. Swift was the guest at a tea given at the dormitory at 3:00. A short conference conducted by Dr. Swift preceded the tea. A large number of the girls were present at this delightful and informal gathering. Miss Gunnison and Miss Helen Larson presided.

Junior "Highs" Stage A Marshmallow Roast

If you were any where in the vicinity of the college at about seven o'clock last Wednesday evening, you probably were puzzled by the general hub-bub. It was only the Mary D. Bradford Junior High School students and their teachers out for a good time. Over bush and over brier" they went until they found a suitable place for a bonfire. The golden brown marshmallows disappeared only too fast after the fire had started its work. Even a certain critic teacher finally succeeded in disposing of a troublesome box of them. Here's to the pep of the enterprising young revelers in the junior high!

Many Valuable Books Received By Library

During the summer the library received many new books which are especially valuable to the student for reference work and an excellent addition to the library as well.

Volumes 13, 14, and 15 of the "Pageant of America" made our present set complete. "American Secretaries of State and their Diplomacy", bound in ten volumes, should be of great worth to the History and Citizenship student as will "Essentials of School Law" by Trusler and "Eminent Victorians" by Strachey. "The Anglo-Egyptian Sudan", a compendium prepared by officers of the Sudan Government should interest the people acquainted with the Eastern countries. "An Outline of Aesthetics", a series of five books, dealing with philosophy, literary criticism, painting, art criticism, and psychology and aesthetics, is another good set. The library was also very fortunate in being able to buy at this time, the new fourteenth edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica published in fourteen volumes. This edition contains all new interesting facts on the Olympic Games, Einsteins theory, the Byrd explorations and various other current topics.

NOTICE!

For once we have something to offer which every student will want. Scenic views of the campus! The price has been greatly reduced from a dollar to twenty-five cents and you can get them at the counter. They are large size and exceptionally good looking. Everyone will want at least one set to send home or keep in his room.

Dr. Swift Talks To Student Body

During the past week Dr. Edith Hale Swift delivered a series of lectures before the entire student body. The lectures dealt with Social Hygiene and the many problems that teachers must meet and solve in the classroom.

Dr. Swift with her wide experience as a doctor proved an interesting speaker and her lectures were entirely worthwhile. She chose a new subject each day, and called for student responses to her topics. Her subjects follow:

Monday, 1:15 — Childhood.
Tuesday, 2:10 — Purpose in Life.
Wednesday, 9:10 — Character.
Thursday, 10:05 — The Foundation of Character.
Friday, 11:00 — The Ultimate Results.

Dr. Swift is lecturing this week in Platteville to the Teachers' College students in that city.

Facts Of Interest About Former Grads

It may be of interest to those who will graduate this year, and to other students as well, to know some facts about last years graduates. One hundred nineteen pupils left school and one hundred graduates or eighty four per cent of the total have positions. Twelve of the present teachers are working out of the state.

The number of students enrolled in each department and the number and per cent placed is as follows:

	Graduated	Placed	% Filled
Primary	31	27	87

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Imminent danger of any student starving here. The W. A. A., at least, will provide for that. They will sell doughnuts at tables in front of the library after assembly today.

Do students want to know what is happening in other schools and colleges of the state? Many do not know that the college receives school papers from most of them, and also from various high schools, perhaps from yours. They can be found on the last shelf of the magazine rack in the library. This is a very profitable form of exchange and one method of spreading ideas among schools. Take advantage of it.

Miss Gertrude M. Larson, who was until last June, assistant to the registrar of Central State, arrived in the city early enough to visit her friends in the college Saturday. She is at present private secretary to Director Lighty of the extension department at the University of Wisconsin. She is still a loyal booster of the teachers' colleges, and puts in a word for them whenever opportunity arises.

Dr. Baldwin is to speak at the Washara County Teachers' Meeting at Red Granite next Tuesday. Mr. Steiner went to Crandon last week-end to speak to the Forest County teachers.

The students and faculty members are most cordially invited to the consecration candle-light service of the Y. W. C. A. at 7:30 Thursday evening in the college auditorium. This is a beautiful and impressive service.
