Athletic Board Rules Garber Ineligible; Games Forfeited

At a meeting held in Milwaukee last Thursday members of the Teachers Colleges Athletic Board upheld the protests filed by Whitewater and Eau Claire against Stevens Point. The charges claim that Bernard Garber, Point tackle, played while ineligible in the two conference games in which Stevens Point defeated both of the protesting teams.

Holds Garber Eligible

The local Athletic Board's contents were that Garber completed 18 weeks of curriculum work and earned 12 credit hours, which according to conference rules, makes any athlete eligible for competition.

Members of the board declared the Point athlete ineligible on the grounds that his attendance was scattered through a portion of last semester, a summer term, and the first several weeks of the present term.

Five Favor Protests

Board members from Milwaukee, Platteville, River Falls, Superior, and La Crosse voted in favor of the protest. Oshkosh, Whitewater, Eau Claire and Stevens Point representatives did not cast a vote. Stout's member was absent.

Football standings in the teachers conference were revised as a result of the board's action. Stevens Point has been pushed down to eighth place, automatically forfeiting the Whitewater and Eau Claire games.

Capt. Harris And Yodlers Coming Here

Students will be entertained at an assembly next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock when Capt. Harris will give an interesting account of capturing wild animals alive without cruelty.

Mrs. Fiechtl's Tyrolean Yodlers will appear at a student assembly on Wednesday, Nov. 23. The singers appear in their native costumes. They won first prize in the six day yodle and song contest held in Innsbruck, Switzerland.

Aimee Porter will appear at the 10 o'clock assembly today.

Judges selected for the contest include Gilbert Seldes, Hendrik Willem Van Loon, and George Grosz. In a letter to the Pointer, Alexander King, editor of the Americana, said the contest is being conducted to stimulate young blood in the hardening arteries of our great republic.

Well the first line with all those Geece's in it represented one of our attractive coeds, Lois Genevieve Richards. Kenneth Schlytter of Wittenberg was the second winner, and Carolyn Rolfson won the third pass.

If you can correctly spell your name from any one of the three lines below report to the Pointer Editor for a complimentary pass to the local Fox theatre. The passes may be used on any night.

WE'RE LEFT IN A QUANDARY OVER THE WHITEWATER-EAU CLAIRE PROTESTS

We are not challenging the sincerity or honesty of the Teachers Colleges Athletic Board in its recent decision upholding the Whitewater and Eau Claire protests — but after carefully analyzing the situation neither can we say that we are in true accord with their action.

Members of the board admit that conference rules regarding the point which concerned Bernard Garber's eligibility are not specific. Only five of the ten members of the board cast a vote on the alleged violation committed by the Point. Those who did vote acted on "technicalities" only because no rules which covered this particular case could be found in the guide book.

River Falls Teachers College has quarters and no semesters. The board last year agreed that any athlete who had successfully completed two quarters at River Falls or one quarter, a summer term and part of another quarter, in all an equivalent of 18 weeks, would be eligible for athletic competition. Stevens Point acted on this assumption.

Not until Stevens Point had defeated the southern college did Whitewater protest the game. After Whitewater had notified Mr. Edgar Doudna, secretary of the board of regents, that there was a possibility of protest, Mr. Fred J. Schmeeckle, local board member, drove to Madison. Mr. Doudna and Mr. Schmeeckle talked over the phone with Mr. Fischer, Conference representative of Whitewater. At that time Mr. Fischer assured both Doudna and Schmeeckle that there would be no protest.

On the following week we played Eau Claire as our Homecoming game. Prior to the game Mr. Schmeeckle phoned Mr. A. J. Fox, Eau Claire conference member and present secretary of the athletic conference, relative to his view on Garber's eligibility. Mr. Fox assured Mr. Schmeeckle that it would be quite all right to use Garber in the Eau Claire Game. After we defeated Eau Claire, Fox protested.

We cannot understand the actions of Mr. Fox. If he had not consented, Garber would not have been permitted to play in the face of the threatened protest on the part of Whitewater. We feel that Mr. Fox has shown a very unsportsmanlike attitude and that he has been very unfair to Central College.

Not belittling Garber in the least, but both Whitewater and Eau Claire fans have admitted that Stevens Point would have defeated their respective teams without the services of our protested player. Local Athletic Committee members would never have allowed Garber to participate in any conference game had they thought that there was the slightest opportunity of an eligibility question to arise.

Local school officials and Coach Eddie Kotal have taken the decision with no ill feelings toward anyone. Nevertheless it's a hard pill to swallow.

Written rules failed to cover the point involved and only half the board members, by a verbal supplement to the rules, acted upon the matter.

Undoubtedly the board members are just as disappointed that this matter had to occur as we are. Nevertheless their action has left us in a quandary.

Samuel H. Bluthe has been worried... awfully worried lately. Someone in his home town railroaded him into betting on Hoover. If Hoover loses poor Sam will be compelled to chauffeur his friend in a wheel-barrow down Plainfield's main street with the whole town looking on. We're going to press now and the election returns which spell Sam's fate will be known when you read this. Wied says he'll walk to Plainfield to see the parade if Hoover loses. Poor Sam, poor Sam....

A Letter From Oshkosh

State Teachers College
 Oshkosh, Wis.
 Nov. 1, 1932

President F. S. Hyer
 Central State Teachers College
 Stevens Point, Wisconsin

My dear President Hyer:

I am writing to thank you for the very courteous treatment which our men received at Stevens Point. I have always been happy over this interchanging of courtesies which resulted in the visiting delegation being treated to coffee and doughnuts. It was never better appreciated than it was following the game on Saturday. We hadn't expected this second installment. It did warm and cheer us for the trip home. Please extend to your teachers and students concerned the gratitude of our Oshkosh people. We shall hope to reciprocate in kind next year.

I wish also to congratulate your school on the emphatic victory. While we like to win, we can take a defeat. I do not know when I have watched a more interesting contest. In fairness to our team, it did look as though we might win during the second half, but our hopes went glimmering after the touchdown and the safety. The outcome of the game however is only part of the relationship. We really enjoyed the nice school spirit and the interchanged courtesies.

Cordially yours,
 F. M. KARNES

I've been so busy with my job
 Of cleaning up this place
 I found I had to go and rob
 This poem to fill up space.

 His face was worn and old;
 He meekly asked the man of fate
 Admission to the fold.

"What have you done?" St. Peter asked,
 "To seek admission here?"
 "Oh I ran a college paper
 On earth for a couple years,"
 The gate swung open sharply
 As Peter touched the bell.
 "Come in," he said, "and tak a

 You've had enough of hell."

CROCKER'S CRACKS

Two literary minded students kidnaped Shakespeare the other night and took him for an airing. Socrates, too, might have followed had not the Engineer been otherwise minded. There was some little fuss in the halls, we understand, but one of the students managed to escape with Shakespeare under his arm. He got cold feet later, as the story goes, and unceremoniously propped his charge on the front lawn of 1041 Normal Avenue. When interviewed later concerning his little trip into the outside world Shakespeare said, "Nerts!"

Tom Smith went to Chicago last week-end and while there was nipped for $3.80 for seats to the new musical comedy "Of Thee I Sing". This is fair warning... don't let him get started telling you about it.....

Did you hear about the burping contest three of the colleges most attractive coeds staged over hamburger and onions at the Kampus Kitchen Monday evening? Our sorority beauties are becoming more accomplished in every way.

Harry Richman had his tonsils removed the other day and is compelled to speak with a soft, cultured voice to prevent a hemorrhage or something. But what he lost in his voice he has made up with the loudness of his new burnt-orange corduroy trousers. They fairly yell! Skinner says they're "just dears" though, so that makes everything all right.

The shades of night were falling fast

 Ere they laid him in the ground
 They opened up his head and found

According to a poll at the University of California recently fully one-third of the men of the campus have never been kissed. This was not counting kisses by relatives. Who says college students do nothing but neck? But, of course, C. S. T. C. is not the U of Cal. maybe things would be a lot different here. Who wants the job of inquiring reporter with the purpose of solving this weighty question?

Oshkosh at Whitewater.

Before a Homecoming crowd at Depere, Wis. the St. Norbert's College gridders fought their way to a 13 to 12 victory over the Pointers last Saturday afternoon.

Pointers Have Edge

The game was all Stevens Point in the first half. The locals consistently outgained their lighter upstate rivals, and left at mid-period with a 12 to 0 advantage. Becker plunged over in the first and second quarters for the local tallies.

St. Norberts' came back in the second half, but the local line held whenever the goal was threatened. The Kotalmen played a waiting game, striving to hold their lead rather than pile up extra points.

Last Minute Threat

With the game almost over, Jordan of St. Norberts' hit the line for a ten yard plunge for a touchdown. The try for the extra point failed. With the score 12 to 6 the locals tried to continue their stalling tactics. Before the closing gun the locals got possession of the ball on their own goal line. To use up more time a line plunge was called instead of the logical punt. Becker fumbled on the play, St. Norbert's recovering on the three yard line. On the next play Noonan skirted left end for the tying touchdown, and a pass, from Noonan to Jordan was good for the extra, and winning point.

The Pointers decisively outplayed the DePeremen, tallying

Pointers Down Oshkosh, 11-0, In Hard-Fought Rivalry Tilt

Playing the football of which they are really capable, Coach Kotal's gridders downed the strong Oshkosh aggregation Saturday, Oct. 28, for their first official conference win, 11 to 0.

Oshkosh Favored

Oshkosh, fresh from a win over Platteville, was favored to trim the locals, but the game upset the dope. A strong wind careening down from the north gave the team with the wind at it's back a tremendous advantage. This was the case for Oshkosh in the first quarter, and they kept the play deep in Point territory.

In the second quarter, however, with Becker kicking with the wind the locals came back to threaten the Oshkosh goal line. When the running attack was stopped, Warren Becker dropped back and made a "honey" of a place kick from the 35 yard line. The kick, made from a difficult angle, gave the Kotalmen a three point margin which would have won the game alone.

Locals Open Up

The local attack opened up in the third quarter and a series of runs and passes culminated in Anderson's going over for a touchdown. "Andy" substituted for Hinkle. The try for an extra point failed. An Oshkosh safety provided the last two points for an 11 to 0 victory.

SAM'S SPORT SHORTS

Almost any columnist can predict wins and losses fairly accurately, but when they forecast ties! That's something to write home about — and that's just what this column did in the Wisconsin - Ohio game two weeks ago. We don't want to brag... not much!

Anyhow, this is how it looks for next Saturday:

Stevens Point to defeat Stout
Superior to beat Milwaukee
River Falls to beat Eau Claire
Whitewater to trim Oshkosh
Minnesota to edge out Wisconsin
Notre Dame to defeat Northwestern
Michigan to beat Chicago
Purdue to walk over Iowa
Stevens Point High to beat Merrill

The Oshkosh "Advance" reported that the Oshkosh gridders would spoil Coach Kotal's disposition. On the contrary, the game brought his first smile in weeks.

We could say a lot about the decision of the Athletic Council in regard to the eligibility of Garber.

Consider it said.

The game with Oshkosh was a slow one, constant penalties and official brain storms marring a hard fought battle.

Speaking of comparative scores, Whitewater, a team beaten by the Point 3 to 0, defeated St. Norberts two weeks ago, 25 to 0. And then the Kotalmen come home on the short end of a 13 to 12 score.

many more first downs, and gaining many more yards. The last minute breaks of the game were enough, however, to undo all that.

Games This Week

Wausau at Marshfield — Friday.
Stevens Point at Merrill — Sat.
Tomahawk at Antigo — Sat.

Stevens Point High School continued its victory march Saturday when it downed its traditional rivals, Wisconsin Rapids, by a 49 to 0 score. The game was featured by the running of Higgins, the Point's wiry quarterback, and Captain Nugent's superb kicking, missing only two field goals out of seven chances. Passes, plunges, and blocked punts contributed to the locals overwhelming victory.

The valley race comes to a head this week-end when Marshfield, the only other undefeated team meets the powerful Wausau Lumbarjacks at Marshfield tomorrow afternoon. Stevens Point needs only to down Merrill Saturday to be assured of a cut in the title, and if Wausau beats Marshfield, which is likely, the Pointers will have an undisputed claim to the championship. Both Marshfield, who played the Pointers to a 0 to 0 tie, and Wausau, whom the Red and Black edged out, 7 to 6, have strong and scrappy teams, so anything is likely to happen.

STOUT MEETS POINT IN LAST HOME BATTLE

Visitors Last In Conference; Locals Low In Race For Title

The curtain will be rung down on the conference football season tomorrow afternoon when Stout Institute invades Schmeekle field to battle Coach Kotal's slightly ruffled Pointers.

Low Records

Neither team possesses a very enviable record. Stout has already been defeated by River Falls, Eau Claire, and La Crosse, and is sharing the cellar championship with Platteville.

Stevens Point, beginning the season with championship hopes, has had two victories annulled, and through official action finds itself placed back with the tail-enders.

Conference Leaders

Whitewater, by virtue of winning the game by default from the Pointers and defeating Milwaukee all in the same day finds itself leading the conference, tied only by La Crosse, which has gone though its schedule undefeated. Eau Claire, too, won a game in an Athletic Board meeting that it couldn't approach on the gridiron, and also leads the Point in conference standing.

Anderson at left end and Conway at left half are outstanding performers on one of the conferences weakest teams. According to the "Stoutonia" Stout hasn't won a game in the present generation. Let's hope they don't start now.

Local Alumnus Is Made Bureau Head

An article pertaining to Virgil E. Herrick, alumnus of the local college and son of Mr. A. J. Herrick, director of the training school, appeared in the October issue of the Wisconsin Journal of Education. Following is a reprint: "Work of the research bureau of the Milwaukee Country Day school, founded two years ago to solve the problems of the individual child, has been attracting wide attention. The department is believed to be the only one of its kind in direct connection with a school. Virgil E. Herrick, former research assistant at the University, is director of the bureau. A psychological clinic will be added as a new unit to the bureau this year."

Sigma Tau Delta Initiates Pledges

The Psi Beta Chapter of Sigma Tau Delta held its meeting for the purpose of initiating new members in the Recreation Room at Nelson Hall on Monday evening. A banquet-dinner, under the direction of Miss Rowe, was served to more than thirty members and guests. At the table each pledge gave a toast to the organization and its principles. Formal initiation was held later in the evening for Ethelwyn Baerwaldt, Cletus Collins, Patricia Cowan, Carolyn Hanson, Dorothy McLain, Agnes Madsen, Celestine Nuesse, Vera Scheffner, Sigrid Stark, and Clarence Styza.

At the business session which followed plans were discussed relative to the bringing of a prominent literary character to Central State, such as has been done for the past two years. In 1930 Dr. Rollo W. Brown was on our campus for three days. Students recall with enjoyment the appearance of Lew Sarett, woodsman poet last year. Announcement will be made later as to who will appear this year at C. S. T. C.

Greek Dancing Party

Members and their guests were entertained at the Inter Fraternity-Sorority dancing party in the new gymnasium on the evening of Tuesday, November 1. Music was furnished by Irv. Lutz and his Florida Entertainers.

Mr. and Mrs. Kotal, Mr. and Mrs. Rightsell, Miss Brown, and Miss Seen were guests of the Greeks. The party was the first of its kind ever held at this school, but the success of the affair indicates that there will be more. Hallowe'en decorations lent color to th affair.

Bloc Meets Tonight

"Free-Will versus Determinism" will be the subject of discussion at a meeting of the Bloc club tonight. The group will hold its session at the home of Marlowe Boyle, 1314 Clark street. Professor Frank N. Spindler will be the guest speaker.

Knutzen Addresses Harlequin Members

At a meeting of the Harlequin Club held last Monday night, Mr. Knutzen delivered an address in which he suggested that the organization sponsor a high school dramatic contest to include several high schools in the immediate vicinity of Stevens Point. The matter is being given consideration. Possible plays were also discussed.

Two students have been initiated into the club recently. The new members, Mrs. Kay Van Buskirk and Miss Bernita Danielson, have enviable dramatic records. It may interest local students to know that Mrs. Van Buskirk was formerly affiliated with Harry Culbertson, and sang the part of Hansel in "Hansel and Gretel". Miss Danielson is a graduate of Lawrence College, where she was a member of the Sunset Players, and has been a successful dramatic coach in High Schools.

A. J. who is forceful of speech
Knows how to teach teachers to teach,

And no one need ask
For we know it's a task
To teach all these teachers to teach.

And Burton's a nice lad they say,
He's learned much of his lore from
A. J.

And believe it or not
But I've often thought
That their speech is alike in a way.

If Caesar could come for a day,
To hear our Leland, he would say,
That Yank has a line,
Far better than mine,
Three cheers for the old U. S. A.

"Junior Pointer" New School Paper

A "Junior Pointer", edited by Kenneth Thompson and issued by the Junior High School department of the Training School, was on sale in the Training School corridors last week.

The issue is a very clever one, with departmental and class news predominating. The art work is superior to that found in most college papers, and the humor is original, to say the least.

A semester's subscription to the "Junior Pointer" costs twenty five cents, while individual issues are sold for five cents.
