AN ENGLISH CONVENTION WITH RESULTS

Faculty members and students who attended the conference on "Problems in the Teaching of English", which was held in Mr. Norman Knutzen's room last Thursday afternoon, lauded the success of the undertaking.

Mr. Knutzen and his Teaching of English class sponsored the convention. It was the first time in the history of the college that such a meet has been conducted here. Mr. Knutzen invited English and Public Speaking teachers from the local and neighboring High schools to sit in with his class and discuss the various problems which confront the English teacher.

The English material and experiences which the various High school teachers presented to the class and outside guests were not only interesting but also extremely practical. The guest speakers discussed their own experiences in the teaching field. They answered questions and talked informally with members of the class after the meeting. During the afternoon material and information were unravelled and unearthed which no text book could effectively cover or present.

The guest speakers included Mr. Joseph Kraus, Principal of the local High school; Miss Bertha Glennon, also of the local High school; The Misses Ritchie and Bill of Wisconsin Rapids, The Misses Burkhart and Armstrong of Wausau, Miss Torkelson of Amherst, Mr. Arthur Rice of Rosholt, and Miss Hyland of Auburndale.

Following the English discussion Mr. Knutzen was host to the guests and his class at a tea and lunch which was served in the Home Economic parlors. Marie Meehler presided at the convention and Cletus Collins welcomed the visiting teachers. Jean Boyington, Elizabeth Neuberger and Eileen Mueller prepared the refreshments.

So successful were the results of last week's meeting that plans are already underway for another conference next year. It is proposed to make the convention an annual event. Mr. Knutzen and his class have established a precedent which may advantageously be carried out by other college departments.

The training given by C. S. T. C. seems to fit people for life as well as for teaching, judging from the diversity of life work in which our graduates have been successful, as shown in the following list.

BROADCAST

Letter From a Grad
 Lane School
 Rt. 8, Wauwatosa, Wis.
 April 7, 1933

Mr. O. W. Neale
 Central State Teachers College
 Stevens Point, Wisconsin.

Dear Mr. Neale:
 Saturday's mail always contains "The Pointer" which brings back memories of the work and the fun at good old Central State. It is more interesting than I ever thought it would be when one is away from "home". The students at the college are to be congratulated for the fine records made in forensics and athletics this year and I am sure the scholastic records are equally admirable.

I believe you are interested in hearing how your graduates are getting along so must let you know that I have signed a contract for the same position for next year with an increase in salary of $25 which is a total of $150 per month. I feel that you and other faculty members at the college are greatly responsible for this and I deeply appreciate all you have done for me.

Arlene Dumke and Richard Brehmer have also been rehired.

Yours respectfully,
 HILDA LUKAS

IF WE DONT SEE OUR FRIENDS ANYWHERE

When we visit the old "Point" once more,
 We note it looks prosp'rous and fair,
 But something is missing around the old town
 If none of our old friends are there.

If we roam through the old school,
 we look
 For the faces that used to be there,
 But loneliness steals over body and soul,
 When we don't see old chums anywhere.

So we go to the Annual Banquet, —
 It is gorgeous and festive and rare,
 But the thing isn't worth what we pay to get in,
 Unless our old schoolmates are there.

Then, suppose I attend the big meeting
 In Mjlwaukee, each year, or elsewhere,
 The program seems tame and my time is ill-spent,
 If I don't meet some class mates down there.

TRACKMEN WORK FOR CONTESTS ON CINDER TRACK

Meets At Lawrence, Milwaukee, And Platteville Scheduled In Preparation For The State Contest

Track is having its day on the Athletic Field at the present time, and over twenty candidates are flashing their speed to catch Coach Kotal's eye. A grueling series of meets have been scheduled, and the thinly-clads have got to get in shape.

Track Worked On

The field itself is being whipped into condition, with students doing the bulk of the work. Jumping pits have been dug, and the track itself is being manicured into a perfect running surface. Facilities are complete to stage a complete track and field meet at the college.

The following meets have already been scheduled, with a likelihood of more being announced later.

Scheduled Meets

May 10, a meet at Lawrence College, with Lawrence, Oshkosh, and the Point participating.

May 13, a meet at Milwaukee, with Milwaukee, Platteville, Whitewater, Oshkosh, and the Point entered.

May 20, a meet at Platteville, with La Crosse, Whitewater, Milwaukee, and the Point entered.

May 27, the state meet at Madison, with all the teachers colleges taking part.

Prospects Bright

Local hopes are high for a successful track aggregation, with three state champions in Atwood, Thompson, and Scribner ready for work. Myles Graney is expected to add strength in the field events, especially in the broad jump, while Gene Fitch is a promising prospect in the weight events.

Scribner And Reedal Win Ping Pong Honors

Velma Scribner and Ruth Reedal tied for the school ping-pong championship, each having been beaten once. Alice Sorenson and Thyrsa Iverson tied for second place with two defeats. A match consisted of two games out of three, and two points were awarded to the winner of the match.

The final standings are, Ruth Reedal, 20 points, Velma Scribner, 20; Alice Sorenson, 18; Thyrsa Iverson, 18; Bonita Newby, 14; Reinetta Reisinger, 10; Carol Anderson, 8; Kathryn Slowey, 6; Irene Miller, 4; Kathryn Wiggins, 4; Alta Stauffer, 2.

Point Fans Contribute $115.25 For Cage Awards, Trophies

A total of $115.25 was contributed by friends and well-wishers of the championship Point basketball team to purchase trophies and awards for the victorious athletes. The conference has no standard award. The gift was termed an expression of appreciation to the Central State Teachers College team and Coach for giving Stevens Point a State Championship. ## START TRYOUTS FOR VARSITY TENNIS TEAMS

Four Veterans Back; New Rules In Regard To Use Of The Tennis Courts

Plans are being formulated to hold the teachers college tennis tournament here again this year. Last years tournament was held on the local courts, and was so satisfactory that it may become an annual features at the Point.

Veterans Back

Last year four college racquet-wielders took part in the state meet, and the same four, Arvie Gordon, Cletus Collins, Morris Skinner, and Art Thompson, are still available. The date of the tourney is not settled yet, but probably the event will take place in the last of May.

Tryouts for the tennis team are to start immediately. The varsity netters will take over the south courts from five to six every afternoon. Every college student is eligible to try out.

College People Privileged

Miss Seen's gym class in tennis will also be given the use of the north courts every Wednesday and Friday from four to six. College students are to have preference in the use of the courts at any time. Outsiders will have to pay two dollars for the privilege of playing. Training School pupils are considered members of the college in this respect.

With ideal weather conditions prevailing the courts have been jammed every day. The plan to sign up for courts has been dropped, but instead an hour's limit is set for the occupation of the courts.

"Schmeek" In Charge

Mr. Schmeckle is in charge of the varsity net team, and it was largely due to his efforts that the state meet was secured. New wire netting is being installed, and it looks as if tennis will become "the" spring sport this year.

Miss Seen 'Way Down South In Kentucky

Miss Eva Seen left for Louisville, Kentucky, Monday where she is attending the National Physical Education convention.

Miss Seen is State Chairman of the National Amateur Athletic Federation of the women's division. She is also a member of the program committee for 1934 of the National Directors' Association. Miss Seen will return Sunday.

"S" Club Initiates Twelve New Members

The "S" Club, honorary athletic organization, initiated twelve new members into its ranks last Thursday night. They are Don Abel, Milton Anderson, Mondt Bader, Bruce Bender, Leroy Bishop, Al Dumphy, Ronald Murray, Les Omholt, Harold Reichert, Lyman Scribner, Bob Tardiff, and Ray Urbanowski.

Membership in the "S" Club is limited to men who have won their letters in some competitive sport. Student managers and cheer leaders who get their letters are also admitted.

Dance For Members

Ed. Baker, president of the organization, announces that a private banquet and dance will be held May 4. The "S" Club finances have been bolstered this year by the sale of ice cream bars at all home basketball games.

Bud Van Roo, former Point gridiron hopeful, has cinched the blocking half-back position on the Milwaukee Teachers football team. Bud played in the line on the local team of two years ago.

Apologies to Cletus Collins for neglecting to list him as one of the veterans of the tennis team.

Now that basketball is over and football is a thing of the past, we fail to see the necessity of this column — if there ever was one.

Hart Schaeffner & Marx and Kuppenheimers are threatening to blackball our college. They claim that they can't sell any suits, now that everybody has a sweater.

The biggest hit of the season is Asher Shorey singing "I Met Her In A Garden".

A recent faculty ruling insists that, on the grounds of modesty, everyone must use a racquet when playing tennis.

River Falls and Platteville have up-and-coming baseball teams. Oh, well, maybe someday . . . . .

Miss Seen's horse acted in a very ungentlemanly fashion on the Athletic Field this last week.

FLASHES

An inter-class track meet will be held Saturday, May 6. All students, regardless of race or pace, will be eligible. The "Sophs" won last year's event.

"Man who died at 12 o'clock" is the fourth play to be presented in assembly today. Jean Lynn, Walter Ploetz and Willie Schwahn are the characters. Michelsen's orchestra will furnish the accompaniment.

Two of Coach's student managers, Ray Urbans and Al Dumphy, are doing a little spring cleaning in the athletic storeroom. Spring-time has sent the other two managers, Bill and Harris, flocking to their mates.

Earl Eckerson, according to reports, has discovered that it's bad business to leave the concrete with an auto during these spring thaws.

Did you know that marriage is the only life sentence that is suspended by bad behavior?

"Akron" Disaster Discussed

A very enlightening and informative address on the "Akron Disaster and the Need for the Maintenance of Similar Aircrafts" was given by Mr. C. C. Evans at a regular meeting of Sigma Zeta Science Society held in Mr. Evans' room Wednesday, April, 19, at 7:30 P. M. Mr. Evans briefly described the disaster and emphasized the belief that an individual accident such as the "Akron" had should be no reason for the discontinuance of such modes of travel. Mr. Evans also described the construction of the "Akron" and its sister ship the "Macon", illustrating his lecture with pictures.

Plans were made for the annual picnic which will conclude the society's work for the year. Election of officers will take place at that meeting. Plans were also made to hold a special initiation service, Tuesday, May 2nd, at 7:00 P. M. All members are asked to take notice of this special meeting and also the change in time. Watch the Pointer for further announcements.

Sorry, girls, but you must wear a coat over your athletic garb when crossing the street going to or from your gym classes. This is a ruling instigated by paternal protest.

Several alumnae visited us just recently. The list includes Esther Hawkes, Rosholt; Ann McWilliams, Coloma; and Ruth Meifert, Wittenberg.

Stauffer Resumes Work

We are glad to see that Alta Stauffer has "come through" splendidly since the date of her ill-fated accident. Alta resumed classes with the rest of us after the Easter holidays.

Agnes Sprattler, a former student, was the guest of Marguerite Schroeder at the dormitory. Charlotte Gauthier was entertained at Oshkosh over the week-end. Agnes Hayes deserted us for Sherry, where she was the guest of Dorothy LeRoux. Marcella Hoerl was detained at Marshfield on account of the serious illness of her younger sister.

Say It Isn't So — that the reason women have cleaner minds than men is because women change theirs so often.

Indoor baseball rivalry between the Chi Delts and the Phi Sigs will be renewed tomorrow afternoon at 3 bells when the two teams clash on the Garfield diamond.

The Frat team winning the first 3 out of 5 games will get possession of that little brown jug which the Phi Sigs snatched from the Chi Delts last year — only it'll be full of Roosevelt's tonic this year.

Sammy Bluthe celebrated his 16th (figure not official) birthday last Saturday night by inviting his college pals down to a cottage party near Plainfield.

After the party the gang wandered over to Jarves' ballroom, located in the marshes some six miles north of Sam's village, and whata time, folks, whata time.

Can you feature Pete directing an orchestra, Pizer at the drums, or Asher Shorey being featured as a soloists? They did — and they uncovered lots of other talent.

It was mighty nice of the Chi Delta Rho fraternity to rake the front campus last week. Prexy Hyer felt plenty pleased over it (so should the janitors) and he said he only regrets that he was ill at the time and wasn't able to serve doughnuts and beer to the boys as he had planned.

Alta Stauffer wants to thank Clarence Styza for his work in connection with the Senior Class play while she was laid up in the hospital as the result of an unsuccessful chemistry experiment.

And we are told that two of our faculty equestriennes had their mares photographed on our new grid last week, and here Schmeckle already had the blame pushed onto Eddie for not replacing the turf after his famous divot shots.

We'll have to hand it to the Chi Delts for the swell formal they sprung last Friday. No fool-in' it was one of the bestever at the Whiting.

FORMAL DANCES WILL ENTERTAIN SOCIAL GROUPS

and ball at Hotel Wausau. Jack Cameron and his Appleton band will furnish the music. The Omegas were forced to change their date from a Saturday night because of the hotel's being in use that evening.

Gumin For Prom

Friday, May 19, will usher in the big social event of the year, the college Junior Prom. Joe Gumin and his orchestra, direct from Toy's Restaurant in Milwaukee, will be the music attraction. Celestine Nuesse, class president, and his prom committees have started work on the gala affair.

Last Formal Dance

College spring formals will come to a halt on Friday, May 26, when Tau Gamma Beta sorority will hold its annual banquet and ball in Hotel Whiting. George Benson and his Beloit band will furnish the music. The Tau Gams shifted their dance from a Saturday to a Friday night.

Chi Delts Entertain

Over 60 couples, not including active and alumni members and their friends, attended the Chi Delta Rho fraternity spring formal in Hotel Whiting last Friday night. Harold Stevens' and his orchestra entertained. This was the first college formal party of the spring season.

For the benefit of those 15 students who didn't have an opportunity to read Tom Smith's postcard in the office basket the other week we have a duplicate in the Pointer office.

Looks like the depression's gone at Platteville. The Wisconsin Mining school is having Ted Weems at its Commencement Dance, which is the gala affair of the year for the "minors".

We'll be seein' ya in Chicago or at the "Bull In The Woods".
