

UNIFORMS FOR BAND A CERTAINTY

HYER EXTENDS GREETINGS TO STUDENT BODY

Stresses Debt of Gratitude Due Parents. "Joy In The Giving"

By PRES. F. S. HYER

The Christmas season is like unto no other season of the Christian year. As the day approaches which Christians observe as the birthday of Him who in life and deed and word brought to mankind the message of peace on earth, good-will toward men, there comes to everyone a feeling of generosity and benevolence felt at no other time. In commemoration of His great gift to the world we are moved to make gifts to our relatives and friends. Friends who have been neglected during the year are remembered now.

At this time we realize that there is greater joy in giving than in receiving, and we appreciate that a gift is measured not by its cost in dollars and cents, but by the spirit in which it is given.

"Tis not the weight of jewel or state,
Or the fondle of silks or furs;
'Tis the spirit in which the gift is rich,
As the gifts of the Wise Men were.
And we are not told whose gift was gold,
Nor whose the gift of myrrh."

"The gift without the giver is bare." During the years gone by

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Primaries Busy Making Presents

Miss Colman, head of the Primary Department, has called The Pointer's attention to the fact that the article carried in the last issue of this paper regarding the Primary department is not correct in all its details. We are glad to present this corrected version.

The first grade at the training school is making silk dolls, calico cats, and gingham dogs which are to be presented to the Red Cross for distribution at Christmas time. This work is being done under the supervision of Miss Tobias. The second and third grades are preparing gifts for the children's parents. Miss Brown and Miss Bizer are in charge. Each grade is making plans for a Christmas party.

Merry Christmas
And A
Happy New Year

Central State Teachers' College has had a most successful year and we have every reason to be happy. We take this means to extend to you the Holiday Cheer we feel.

College will close with the completion of classes Friday afternoon for the Christmas recess and will open Monday morning, January 8.

Wausau Choir 24 Squad Men Orchestra In Get Football Xmas Program Awards Today

Tonight the well known Wausau choir of the First Presbyterian Church will entertain the student body and their friends in the main auditorium at eight o'clock. Students will not be required to show their activity tickets to gain admission. The program, which will consist of Christmas carols by the visitors, will be supplemented by the college symphony orchestra under the direction of Peter J. Michelsen. The music, however, will not accompany the singers but will fill in the interludes between series of numbers. This is the third public appearance of the orchestra within a week.

Sixty Voices

The Wausau choir, a unit of about sixty mixed voices, under the direction of Mr. Mauritz Lundholm, is well known in this city.

For the past four years they have given programs in the 1st Presbyterian Church located on Main St.

With this, your last issue for the year, the staff of The Pointer wishes the best of holiday season to the faculty and student body of this college. And to the Editor, we wish for the speedy recovery of his mother, at whose bedside he is now.

At the regular 10 o'clock assembly in the main auditorium this morning members of the state championship football squad will be given gold footballs as a token of appreciation from the athletic committee. The gold balls have a large purple letter "S" (Stevens Point) raised on the surface.

Undeclared

Above the "S" appears the letters "W. T. C. C." (Wisconsin Teachers' College Conference). Printed beneath the "S" is "1933", and the words "championship" and "undefeated". On the under side the name of the player is written and the initial of the position he played.

Those who will receive medals are: Schwahn (Captain), Fritsch, Copes, Nugent, Anderson, Zurluh, Broome, Klement, Becker, Gregory, Scribner, Beppler, Abel, McDonald, F. Menzel, T. Menzel, Sparhawk, Unferth, Murray, Breitenstein, Lampi, Slotwinski, Holm, and Marrs.

Men's Glee Club Holds First Smoker Tonight

The Men's Glee Club is holding a "Smoker" at the Gingham Tea Room this evening at 7:30. This social gathering is the first of its kind in the organization. It is intended to acquaint the members of the organization with each other.

FACULTY MAN DESIGNS TOGS FOR MUSICIANS

Major Share Of Required Sum Already Realized From Drive

The dream of the College band, and director Peter J. Michelsen, is almost certain to come true within the next few days.

Under the impetus furnished by Lawrence Berdell, the drive for funds has already passed the half way mark. Berdell informs The Pointer that the support given by the college faculty was almost unanimous. The entire staff, including those from the main building, training school, and the demonstration school, co-operated to an extent far beyond that expected.

Large Personal Subscriptions

They have given personal subscriptions totaling $233. In addition, the townspeople have shown an unusual interest in this project. In a later issue of The Pointer, proper credit will be given those who have aided the band in its attempt to secure the necessary pecunia.

Giovannini Designer

The uniforms, which were specially designed by Peter Giovannini, will be of navy blue whipcord, trimmed with gold. The caps will be of a distinctive, octagon shape. On them will appear the insignia of the band, a gold wreath. Just above the wreath, the letters "C. S. T. C." stand out against a blue background.

Distinctive Coat

The coat, a double breasted style, with roll collar, will sport shiny buttons. Adding an artistic touch to the shoulder straps, which match the buttons for color, will be a music lyre and two solid bars. Over the split in the coat lapel, and on the upper arm, will be additional symbols of the Greek god of music.

On The Gold Standard

In the position where service stripes are placed on athletic sweaters, the band coats will have an emblem on each arm with the letters "C. S. T. C." written on them. The lower sleeve will carry a scroll and two bands at either wrist. The trousers have a gold stripe running down the outside seam.

Three companies were selected from which the uniforms are to be purchased. They will submit bids for sixty suits and a contract will be awarded to the lowest bidder.

Published Weekly at Stevens Point by the students of the Central Wisconsin State Teachers College. Subscription Price $2.00 per year.

Entered as second-class matter May 26, 1927, at the post office at Stevens Point, Wisconsin, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

CULTURE

It has come to our attention that some individuals of this institution consider our assembly programs rather too high-brow for the general run of students and that more interesting subjects should be offered in their place. These people feel that if the consensus of opinion were to be taken, one would find that a large majority favored this belief. "Give us what we want and enjoy the most, instead of this so called artistic stuff," they cry.

When these persons speak of the majority preferring the champion old time fiddler of Maine, for instance, to Fritz Kreisler or Jascha Heifetz, they seem to consider only their own 'rah rah' gang. They utterly neglect another large group who have had proper training and have learned to understand and love true art. One does not necessarily have to be an artist or have a so-called artistic soul to appreciate excellence. Some of the world's greatest critics and followers of the Beaux Arts have been unable to paint, act, or play a note on a musical instrument.

The primary purpose of college is to serve as a center of learning and culture. Certainly that purpose would be lost were we to accede to these imbecilic demands and convert the institution into an amusement parlor and burlesque. We are not here to be amused. Rather, we are here to acquire a scholarly and cultured outlook that we, as prospective teachers, may pass on to the next generation the benefit of our training and knowledge.

WILL YOU CONTRIBUTE?

From 'The Stoutonia'

People are evaluated by what they give. Not in the sense of charity, or of duty, but of a sincere willingness to serve. Throughout the histories of nations we study the actions, lives, and characters of contributors to society. It matters little in the annals of the past whether your contribution has been good or bad, you are at least recognized. Men that have lived on the surface of things and have neither marred nor polished the finish are soon forgotten as they are placed on the zero mark of the human scale.

Today, people can not isolate themselves from the scheme of things. What one does involves and affects the life of everyone to a degree and what the total group practices rigidly governs the action of the individual. And so in college, students must either be the dynamic forces, the promoters, instigators, and leaders or the followers or tools of these leaders.

'Milestones', Speech Play, Well Received

Tuesday night, December 19, Mr. Burroughs' speech class presented the play "Milestones" in the college auditorium. The gate receipts from this presentation, which was coached by Mr. F. Rogers Constance, were donated to the college to be used in paying for stage equipment.

Peter J. Michelsen's college symphony orchestra entertained the audience before the rising of the opening curtain and between acts.

The play, a three act English costume play written by Arnold Bennett and Edward Knoblauch, represents the development of the British navy, from 1860 to 1912.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Santa Claus Only Lacking In Hall. All Else Is There

The feeling of the Rooseveltian renaissance, a spirit of the brotherhood of man as taught by Jesus Christ, and recently emphasized by the NRA seems to have permeated the halls of Central State Teachers College. Every corridor has at least two beautifully decorated Christmas trees.

One can not help remarking about the general atmosphere around school when compared to that which existed last year. Can it be that the awakening confidence of the business world has reached the walls of the intellectual institutions?

GRADUATE NOTES

by
FRANK SPINDLER

On our trip last week, among our graduates, we stopped at College Station, Texas, with Duncan Reid, but now we will move on westward to near Tolleson, Arizona, where we will stop a moment and see Winnie Delzell (1916) who is running a chicken ranch with the help of her husband, Mr. A. J. Fram. All the friends here of Winnie will remember her as a very capable and affable woman. We will next move over to Los Angeles where we will find Mabel F. Rice (1914) who is making a great reputation in the University of Southern California in the line of character research. She has already published a good deal and is becoming well known. Mabel was raised in Stevens Point and there are many who will remember her as a girl here.

At Martinez, California, we find Maurel K. Rabenstein (1915). Maurel always was a unique personality. If you once knew him you never could forget him. He had dark hair and dark eyes and he married Ruth M. Parker (1918) who had red hair and light blue eyes. They made a striking looking pair together. He is principal of the high school at Martinez. On to Santa Barbara where we find Dr. William D. Sansum (1903) who is one of the biggest doctors, as far as reputation and work is concerned, on the Pacific Coast. He is certainly a credit to C. S. T. C. Those of us who knew him in his student days are not surprised at his success, for he had energy, grit and brains. At Long Beach we find several of our graduates. There is Katherine Hall (1908) Mrs. John D. Ewart and Neva Wood (1909) (Mrs. J. N. Flesher). Katherine and Neva were great friends when they were here. Neva was a dark brunette and Katherine a blond and they were certainly a beautiful pair of girls. In Sacramento we find Guy C. Hamilton (1901) who is business manager of the Sacramento Bee. He is one of the big men in the newspaper business on the coast. Sacramento is also the headquarters of Milo N. Wood (1910). Many of us will remember Milo as a quiet, unassuming fellow and hard worker with lots of brains. He has made a great reputation as a pomologist and after Mr. Burbank's death Milo helped Mrs. Burbank with the work. If we stop at Monrovia we will find Minnie E. Schofield, a Hancock girl, well-known here and well liked. She is principal of the grammar school at Monrovia.

At Modesto we will find William D. Fuller (1902) Professor of Education and Psychology in Modesto College. William Fuller was always an earnest, thorough, reliable young man.

Going to Portland we would find there are a large number of our graduates but will mention only a few that come to our mind. There is Elmer Brown (1907) who is principal of a school there and then there is John L. Karnopp, a Portage County boy, well-known here in county educational circles, a personal friend of many of us here, who is in the Mortgage, Loan and Real Estate business in Portland and has made quite a success. John married Lura A. Burce, former teacher of English in this school. Jessie May Burce (1914) a sister of Mrs. Karnopp's is a teacher in the intermediate grades in Portland. Another C. S. T. C. boy who is well known in Portland and in Oregon is Conrad Patrick Olson (1904). He is a lawyer and has been prominent in the legislature and in Oregon politics. He married Nellie C. Frost, a graduate of this school, and a Stevens Point girl.

At Ellensburg, Washington, we will find Laurin D. Sparks (1905) a Stevens Point boy, Director of the training school of the Washington State Normal.

STUDENT

BROADCAST

Dear Editor:

The college orchestra under the direction of Prof. Michelsen is certainly a credit to this institution. I, for one, prefer them to the band, and that band is good.

Mr. Michelsen deserves the unstinted praise and congratulations of every student in this college for the fine work he is doing. We are knowingly fortunate, in having a man of his calibre to head our music department.

Let all the honors go to one man, of course we must mention the musicians who co-operate with the master.

How any fellow, such as this chap who calls himself "Scotty", can have the audacity to openly remark as he does, is more than my simple mind can comprehend.

No one is paying any attention to that young upstart. The most popular thing the music department could do would be to appear in public oftener. We certainly appreciate your fine music. "ORPHEUS"

Dear Editor:

This is to the person in this institution who calls himself "Scotty". Sorry, but I can't call you a student because a student is a supporter of any movement to better the school or its organizations.

I am a member of the band and I want to ask why, outside of school spirit, we should play at athletic events? We must pay $6.00 per semester for student activity tickets, and we don't get a refund because we play at games. I wouldn't kick about that, but we can't transfer our tickets. Why should we go to the bother of carrying our horns and music over there when we can see the games without doing so?

Should the band get uniforms? I think that the band represent more personal investment without return than any other organization in school. For instance most members own instruments which cost from $100 up. The reed instrument players must buy reeds which cost from ten to a dollar apiece. Also, think of the investment in music lessons at an average of one dollar a lesson.

Thanks to President Hyer and the administration we are allowed one credit a year for our band work. The President is an ardent supporter of the band and the other musical organizations. BAND-BOOSTER.

College Squad Will Meet U of W Debaters

Hesperia forensic society, of the University of Wisconsin, has written Mr. Burroughs in the hope of arranging a meeting between the local debate squad and the representatives of the University.

Mr. Burroughs informed The Pointer that he will accept this opportunity for a debate on the question, "Should the powers of the president be substantially increased as a settled policy?"

The teams will be of two men each.

COLLINS TAKES SCORING HONOR IN RAGGED TILT

Gregory And Marsh Defensive Stars As Kotalmen Win From De Pere

Last Friday night the Pointers traveled to De Pere and defeated the St. Norbert's cagers 33 to 23. Both teams played ragged ball a good share of the time, with Coach Kotal substituting frequently in an effort to find a five-man combination to carry on this year's heavy schedule.

Promising Man

John Collins, freshman center, played twelve minutes and made three baskets and two free tosses to annex the scoring honors. Nolan Gregory, co-captain of the squad, dropped in two buckets and three charity throws, before he was put out on personal fouls. "Jug" Marsh, veteran guard played a nice floor game and accounted for five points.

Block-Scovell Star

For the De Pere boys, Block and Scovell, midget guards, functioned well besides dropping in the most baskets for their team.

BILL'S BULL

Don Blood asks the hockey players to bring their skates and sticks with them when the holiday season closes. He says that the boys had better get their ice-legs in shape before they return because there's a lot of work ahead.

In case there's anyone who does not know, it happens that a swell skating rink is located at Goerke Field about two blocks from the dorm. Electric lighting makes night-skating a pleasure. Anyway, that's what Neal Rothman says.

Stout Institute has just completed a new athletic field this year and is seeking a suitable name for it.

Tough luck hit Stout when "Huck" Decker, regular guard on their cage squad, lost a thumb and forefinger in a rip-saw.

Warren Becker and Punk Winn are wrestlers now. The boys put on a preliminary bout Tuesday on the city mat show. Anything in the athletic line is likely to find those boys mixed up somewhere.

The main trouble with the Wisconsin game was that it happened on Wednesday after this paper went to press. By now you will know who won the game. In the assembly today the cheerleaders will probably berate the student body for the lack of cheering at the game. We surmise that the yelling was flat as usual. The crowd was probably good as indicated by advance ticket sales. Now we've almost got a story on the game. All that's lacking is the score. Well what's a score anyway?

EXCHANGES

The Ripon Scribbler—Ripon Col.

"Life is just one darn fool thing after another, but love is just two darn fools after each other."

Excerpts from themes. The Editor of the Scribbler guarantees the authenticity of them.

"A heretic is one under the influence of heredity."

"On entering college God became for me a different person."

"This poem is iambic diameter."

Echo Weekly, Milwaukee T. C.

"Neither students nor faculty members are in general opposed to allowing smoking in the college, if facilities are available, but the move is not advisable from the point of placing graduates." Such was the concensus of opinion at Milwaukee when the cafeteria committee met to decide whether or not allowing students to smoke would increase the revenue of the cafeteria.

"Wanted: a nickname for the basketball team! The Echo Weekly in conjunction with Coach Guy Penwell, is conducting a contest to determine a fitting appellation for them."

The Acme News—Merrill, High S.

"The gum chewing girl and the eud chewing cow Are somewhat alike but different somehow.

What difference? O I see it now— It's the thoughtful look on the face of the cow."

Incidentally, the Exchange writer believes that the Acme News, of which Clarence Styza, C. S. T. C. 1933 graduate, is faculty adviser, is one of the neatest school papers that comes to the Pointer office. We include in that statement college, as well as high school, publications.

FISTIC SPORT FAST BECOMING POPULAR HERE

Formation of Boxing Team Planned by Beppler. New Equipment

The first boxing card last week was so successful that Russ Beppler promises a new group of bouts right after the holidays. From the winners of the two cards Russ will select a team of eight men which will engage other college fighters. St. Norbert's has already been engaged on a card. Some of the matches will be here to show the fans how our pugilists rate in state rings. Beppler says that he will fight on the team himself.

Equipment Ordered

Heavy training gloves and other equipment has been ordered. Boxing is fast becoming an attraction in C. S. T. C. The fans have been asking Russ to feature a women's boxing match. Alice Sorenson and Thyra Iverson would probably oblige the spectators.

Card Results

Results of last week's card are as follows:

- Lloyd Hayes and Peter Zaboriski at 130 pounds fought to a draw.
- Frank Joseph won decision over Riley Brandy at 145 pounds.
- Theron Anderson won decision over Torgony Anderson at 155 pounds.
- Charles McDonald and Charles Sparhawk at 175 pounds fought to a draw.
- John Lampi won referee's decision over Chester Lepak at 160 pounds.
- Wilbur Berard won decision over Forrest Felix at 165 pounds.
- Oscar Copes and Frank Exner at 180 pounds fought to a draw.
- Bruno Slotwinski and 'Punk' Winn at 180 pounds fought to a draw.

your parents have given much of themselves and their earnings to you who are students in this college. At this time the richest satisfaction to them is the realization that their hopes and prayers for you are being fulfilled, that you are measuring up to their expectations for you. They are looking for your coming to them for your Christmas vacation with a joyous longing.

Give of yourselves to them during the holidays as you have never given before. Make the hearts of those who love you throb with the joy of knowing that you appreciate the sacrifices they have made and are making for you. No other gift compares with the love and appreciation of a son or a daughter to father and mother. Make this the best Christmas they have ever had, in that respect, and yours will be a Merry Christmas and the New Year will be a happy one for you.

May your vacation be filled with joy and happiness, and may you return to your college work with a new resolution to do better than the best you have done is the wish of

Yours sincerely,

MERRY CHRISTMAS

ALUMNI NEWS

by FRANK N. SPINDLER

College Station, Texas Dec. 20, 1933

Dear Professor Spindler:

I have been very much pleased to receive two copies of the Pointer and find that S. P. N. is still "carrying on". You will be very much surprised, no doubt, to find that though I happen to be an elder in a predestined Presby. Church I have written on the fly leaf of my Bible a quotation taken from one of your lectures in History of Education.

I spent very pleasant evening about a month ago looking over the notes. I had written on the margins of Davidson's History of Education.

Things are going very well here and our Department is just moving into new quarters built by money secured from oil discovered on school lands.

I can not imagine Wisconsin being Democratic as the G. O. P. always claimed that state as its own.

With kindest regards,

DUNCAN H. REID.

Duncan H. Reid graduated from the 4 yr. English Course in 1907 from the University of Wisconsin in 1910. B. S. degree in 1922 M. S. degree. He was a fine student here, a gritty football player, and a hard worker. He is now Professor of Poultry Husbandry at the A. and M. College of College Station, Texas.

New Books In The Library

Promethans, by Burton Roscoe Putnam 1933

By the author of Titans of Literature in which he continues to tell of those who, in the art of literature, have, like Prometheus, brought fire and warmth to their fellow men.

Revolt of the Masses by Jose Ortega y Gasset, Norton 1932

The well known Spanish intellectual watches with alarm the rising tide of the masses "crushing beneath it everything that is different, everything that is excellent, individual, qualified and select". Control by the masses is drowning the voice of the man of ideas and culture. The author sees the dangerous tendency in Italian fascism and Russian communism.

The Wisdom of the Body - Walter B. Cannon; Norton 1932.

A simply written book in which a physiologist explains how by regulating body temperature, blood pressure, salt content of the body, sugar reserve, and other factors the human body preserves the stability that constitutes health.

America Through Women's Eyes - Mrs. Mary Beard MacMillan 1933

A history, incomplete but impressive of woman's part in shaping our national life in pioneering, industry, agriculture, business, suffrage, war and peace. From the diaries, letters, histories and other forms of writing in which women have left records of their activities.

Insuring the Essentials - B. N. Armstrong MacMillan 1932

Includes a general survey on comprehensive discussion of the whole subject of social insurance. The author's thesis is minimum wage plus social insurance - a living wage program.

The Case for and against Psychological Belief - C. A. Murchison Clark University by Sir Oliver Lodge and others 1927.

A fair presentation of the pros and cons of the subject. Part one contains papers by men and women who believe in such phenomena, - Sir Olive Lodge, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, Mary Austin and others.

Part two and three are composed of articles by people convinced of the rarity or improbability of spirit manifestations; and part four contains two articles antagonistic to the claims of spiritualism; one by Joseph Jastrow and the other by Harry Houdini.

Recent interesting biographies added to the library are:

Anatole France; Marjorie Bowler; W. F. McCall; Sir Edward

MERRY CHRISTMAS

I HAD A DREAM

by JOHN THE JANITOR

This week I want to introduce some new characters and at the same time start the story proper. Next week, and each issue thereafter until all have been presented, you will have a chance to become acquainted with more of the players.

More cast:

The Promoter Wilsof Schwahn
Baseball Joe Donald Unferth
Graham MacNamee Robert Neale
Frenchie Francis Walsh
Preacher Donald Mills
Bing Crosby Guy Krumm
Napolean I. L. P. Miah
Chesty C. C. Evans
Tillie the Toiler Miss Tilleson

Now to go on with the story:

Along about eight o'clock in the evening, I came over to the college to do my nightly duties. Mr. Michelsen met me at the west entrance with a petition in his hand. His hair was badly mussed and I could see that he was angry about something. His first statement was: "Chon, dey vant dee pand to haf new uneeforms. Vee don't vant dat, vat vee vant ees poobleecitee. Vill (with a whine in his voice) you sign dees paper to stop President Hyer from sending in dee order? Eef dee members of dee pand haf to vare new uneeforms dey vill not play in pooblick." Well, being a friendly sort of a fellow, I signed.

Hurrying along the corridor in the basement I thought it would be a good idea to warn Eddie Kotal that something strange had come over Piccolo Pete. Can you imagine my surprise, upon entering "Dynamite's" office, when a scholarly looking young man asked me in a slow, easy drawl, "What'll you have"? At the left of this sophisticated gentleman was none other than that big brute, and football captain, Celestine J. Nuesse. As Kotal slowly got up from his chair, and took off his horned rimmed glasses, he explained; "I'm trying to prove beyond any reasonable doubt that Bacon is the author of the dramas now commonly credited to Shakespeare. That has been a matter that has absorbed a great deal of my thinking for several years, and with the aid of Warren Becker, I'm going to hunt this thing out to the bitter end." The room was completely surrounded with big, hard looking books, and I noticed that most of them were old Latin editions, so I guess the coach is going to the source to prove his point.

Collegiate Student Assembly Program To Be Given January 11

By GEORGE MAURER

A collegiate and peppy student assembly program has been arranged and will be presented immediately after the Christmas vacation.

The program will be given on Thursday, January 11, in the auditorium and will be made up of local college talent.

Crooners, dancers, orchestra selections, jazz and other collegiate numbers appealing to the modern and flaming college youth will be found on the spicy program.

Robert Broome will be on the program to sting the hearts of the feminines with his crooning numbers, Donald Halverson will tickle the ivories with the latest jazz hits, Ray "Topper" Thompson, who has a baritone voice that will rock many a gal, will accompany himself with his banjo, James Parshall will perform with his accordion (and he can play anything from Polish waltzes to Nuesse's "Lazy Bones"). The complete program will be announced in the next issue of the Pointer.

Ye Olde Yuletide Spirit Fills Halls Of Training School

Christmas spirit not only fills our college corridors, but those of the Training School too.

Friday morning at eleven o'clock the pupils of the Training School will go caroling. In the afternoon at two o'clock, the Junior High School Department will have its Christmas Program.

Present Playlet

Miss Gertie L. Hanson and Burton Pierce are in charge of the program. J. M. Davidson is in charge of the decorations.

The program for the afternoon consists of a playlet, "Light of the Star", to be given in the south auditorium of the third floor, which has been festooned for the occasion. Music will be furnished by the Junior High Band.

Santa In Attendance

After the playlet the faculty, student teachers and children will be dismissed to the J. H. Assembly, where they will exchange gifts. There is a possibility that Santa may be there with surprise refreshments.

PARTY MAKEUP

Better get in practice now! Girls who are wise are already coaching themselves in the art of makeup to appear truly devastating at Christmas formals and on New Year's Eve.

Makeup is more exciting this year than ever before! The colors of rouge, lipstick, eyeshadow and powder are glamorous enough to give even the young sophisticate a thrill. But let me caution you once more, as I have many times in the past that you need a smooth, flawless skin before you call attention to it with exotic makeup. If you have washed your face daily with a scientific washing preparation and kept the tissues smooth and firm with a pasteurized cream, then you can easily enhance your loveliness with deft touches of makeup. If you have been neglectful of your beauty care, then start right now to clear up your skin before the holidays start. There is a special quick treatment I'll be glad to send you that will do wonders for your complexion within even the short time that is left.

When you have your skin as flawless and lovely as it can be, then you are ready to try out some of the exotic new effects in makeup. One of these is called the new "luminous" makeup. You apply a good powder foundation — for whatever else shines, your nose mustn't! — and cream rouge, powder, eyeshadow and mascara. Then over the color pat on a little youthifying tissue cream. Your lips will shine like smooth red satin — your lids will seem dewy with the freshness of youth, and your lashes will look at least half an inch longer!

Be sure you choose the correct cosmetic colors to accent your beauty. A dashing red poppy shade of rouge and lipstick and peachbloom powder and blue-green eyeshadow is smart on those with medium brown hair and blue eyes. The very fair blonde is beautified by a red coral rouge and lipstick, natural or cream powder and green eyeshadow. The honey blonde should choose a red geranium rouge and lipstick, mauresque powder and blue-green eyeshadow; while the white-skinned brunette will look lovely with a red raspberry shade of rouge and lipstick, natural or cream powder and blue iridescent eyeshadow.

For further information on choosing cosmetic shades to enhance your natural coloring and personality, write Woman's Interest Syndicate, 522 Fifth Avenue, New York for makeup chart or personal advice.

Radio Hour Arouses Community Interest

Much interest has been shown both by the students and members of this community in the Purple and Gold Radio hour every Wednesday afternoon.

The Misses Frances Van Hecke, and Yvonne Dallich, and the Messrs. H. R. Steiner and Robert Emery composed the musical group which was the feature of the Purple and Gold radio hour December 20. They were accompanied at the piano by Miss Margaret Miller.

In addition to the mixed quartette Miss Margaret Lulloff presented several Christmas Readings. Ignatius Mish again handled the college news briefs and Jack Burroughs did the announcing.

Prominent Pointers Present Petitions

Dear Santa Claus:
Will you bring me a new set of songs to sing in the bus after games? "Jug" Marsh

Will you bring me a new knee? Guy Krumm
Will you get a referee who doesn't pick on me? Nolañ Gregory

Will you bring me a left-handed basketball? Don Unferth
Will you bring me a basketball shaped like a football? Warren Becker

Will you bring me a championship cage squad? Coach Kotal
Will you bring me a girl? A girl who is beautiful, can dance superbly, has a home in Stevens Point. She must have a swell personality and a car.

G. Busch and Bill Ringness
Will you disregard all the names of people we don't like. We wish them all a Merry Christmas, even a certain teacher who is so sarcastic. He could be so nice, too.

ART STUDENTS DECORATE ROOM FOR YULETIDE

Miss Carlsten's Classes Place
Interesting Toys On Exhibition

The holiday spirit prevails in the Art room located in the north west corner, on the second floor, of the main building. College students will find it worth their while to drop around that way and take a look at the work now on exhibition there.

Another Santa Claus

Under the direction of Miss Edna Carlsten, Art class 105, (an intermediate group), has made window transparencies. Some are painted on with show card paints and others are made of paper. In one window may be seen a trio of choir boys singing carols, while in another is a colonial lady delivering a gift. In the fire escape doorway is jolly old Santa Claus wishing all who see him a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Class 110 (Primaries); has made stocking dolls, bright colored stuffed animals, and spongew toys. This same group has originated some clever Christmas cards.

Educational Toys

Art 103 (Home Ec freshmen) has developed felt wall hangings in floral designs. This week they are working on tooled leather articles. Favors for Christmas dinner tables are being modeled by the class.

Class 105 has spent considerable time this past week with materials such as card board, cloth, clay, wood, paint, yarn, and tin, developing gifts that children appreciate.

MIXIN' 'EM UP

by the crew

By far the most graceful athlete on the basketball squad is John Collins. How many of you noticed with what ease he took the "Schwahn" dive? It was a treat for sore eyes. I wonder how deep the water is? He hasn't come up yet.

Mr. Michelsen informs The Pointer that the only member of the band who will receive a new uniform this year will be none other than our own Maurice Skinaire. The new suit will be a gift from that would be journalist, "Scotty".

It seems kind of dirty to us after all the work the French horn section has done to help get new uniforms for the band, but Director Michelsen and Peter Giovanni gave them for a Christmas present, last Tuesday, some "canned notes". They said "they blew all the other ones away".

Did you know that there is a certain Helen in this school who a-Piehl's to Pete Peterson?

Nuesse Asks Seniors Have Pictures Taken

Celestine J. Nuesse, editor of the Iris, has asked The Pointer to request that all graduates have their pictures taken in the near future and that they present them to the Iris as soon as possible. Graduates who have not as yet filled in the information blanks may secure one from the main office on the second floor. This should be taken care of at once.

The printing contract for the annual will probably be let today or tomorrow. For the past several seasons the work has been done by the Badger Printing Co of Appleton, Wis.
