

'33 GRADS TO GIVE MUSICAL COMEDY

SENIORS SELECT "IT'S THE GIRL" AS ANNUAL PLAY

Cast Has Nine Characters; Mixed Chorus Will Give Berths To 30 Members

At a meeting held last Friday "It's The Girl" was selected as the three act musical comedy to be presented as the annual senior class play in the college auditorium April 25 and 26. Victor Herbert wrote it.

Pick Cast Wednesday

Mr. Daly of Wausau, who will coach the play, will assist in selecting the nine characters for the cast in the auditorium next Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Only seniors will be eligible for cast parts.

A Mixed Chorus

Mrs. La Grande, also of Wausau, will be in charge of the chorus which will include 15 men and 15 coeds. The LaGrande-Daly Producing company of Wausau will furnish the chorus costumes. The first chorus rehearsal will be held in the auditorium Tuesday, April 4.

Report For Try-Outs

Seniors wishing to try-out for cast and rehearsal parts are asked to report in the auditorium on the respective dates at 4 o'clock.

NOTICE

All students and their friends who are planning on taking advantage of the college special "World's Fair" excursion trip to Chicago, April 29, are asked to leave their names with Mr. Raymond M. Rightsell in his office on the first floor immediately.

Railroad officials must be guaranteed 200 round-trip tickets if the special rate is to be secured. The price, $6.85, includes railroad fare, breakfast, tour around Chicago, and special tours through the Shedd aquarium, Field museum, and World's Fair buildings. Special guides will accompany the excursionists.

For those who wish to remain in Chicago over the week-end, the round-trip tickets will be honored up to Monday morning.

Chorus With Orchestra To Give Concert

A diversified program of orchestral selections, songs by the chorus and instrumental and vocal solos will be presented in the college auditorium next Thursday, March 30th by the college orchestra and chorus. The program will be given during the regular assembly period at ten o'clock and will continue throughout the hour.

Play New Music

At present, there are approximately 35 members in the chorus and 22 musicians in the orchestra. Both orchestra and chorus are under the direction of Mr. Peter J. Michelsen. The music department has received the new music which is to be played at the concert and both orchestra and chorus are at work practising.

The concert will consist of classical semi-classical, and popular selections.

Slants Of World's Fair On Exhibit In Library

A very attractive and interesting exhibit room has been arranged in the library just north of the reserved shelves.

Pictures, maps, books, magazines and other data containing information relative to the 1933 World's Fair, to be held in Chicago this June, are found on display.

Carlsten In Charge

Miss Edna Carlsten supervised the project and donated most of the material. Alice Sorenson, Ethelwyn Baerwaldt and Olga Wolfram, who are members of Mr. George Allez's advanced librarian course, assisted Miss Carlsten.

A pictorial book of Chicago's 1893 World's Fair and recent pictures of the '33 Century of Progress buildings are other features.

Don't overlook the pictorial east wall. The various "high map of Chicago hanging on the spots" of Chicago are illustrated with comical cartoons.

Pictures In Nut

— and that small walnut found on the table isn't for cracking. Miniature pictures of the Fair buildings will be found inside of it. The "nut" belongs to Miss Carlsten.

POINT'S ORATOR AWARDED THIRD AT WHITEWATER

Nuesse Second In Extemporaneous Contest; Superior And La Crosse Winners

Superior won the 38th annual oratorical contest of the Wisconsin teachers colleges at Whitewater last Friday. La Crosse placed second and Stevens Point, represented by Jack Burroughs, was awarded third place.

In an extemporaneous speaking contest held Friday afternoon La Crosse won first place and the Stevens Point speaker, Celestine Nuesse, won second.

Carl Ritzman Wins

Burroughs is the son of the Stevens Point coach, L. M. Burroughs, and the subject of his oration was "The Spirit of Youth". Nuesse was the winner last year of both the state and inter-state oratorical contests. Superior's winning orator is Carl Ritzman, whose oration was "Eternal Growth".

Superior is given permanent possession of the silver trophy by the win.

The ranking given the six competing schools in oratory and the marks given their orators are as follows:

Superior 100, La Crosse 94, Stevens Point 92, Platteville 90, Eau Claire 87, Whitewater 80.

William Welter Best

The extemporaneous results were:

La Crosse 100, Stevens Point 98, Platteville 91, Superior 91, Eau Claire 84, Whitewater 80. La Crosse's extemporaneous winner, William Welter, discussed "War Debts", while Nuesse's topic was "The Banking Situation".

The proposal that the future oratorical contests be held in Stevens Point, a central location, to save traveling expenses of participants, delegations and judges, was not indorsed, although it was agreed to combine the oratorical and extemporaneous contests (Continued on page 4, col. 2)

WOULD CONVERT OUR OLD GYM INTO SWIMMING TANK

Undoubtedly students of Central States Teachers College would welcome no other improvement more than the construction of a swimming tank.

Naturally the undertaking is quite out of order at the present time. However when conditions improve we hope our state legislators will play "santa claus" to the badly slashed and starved teachers colleges appropriation funds. In that event swimming facilities might be possible for local students. Some of the other colleges already have pools. Milwaukee Teachers College has a swimming team entered in an inter-collegiate swim conference.

Our old gym could be converted into an ideal swimming tank. The balcony, surrounding the gym, would make a gallery for spectators.

While Whitewater's students were enjoying those winter "dips" we were reading this article in the Royal Purple:

"It is surprising to learn of the large number of students in our college who are unable to swim. Many of these people come from communities where there is no opportunity to learn. Very few high schools in the state are equipped with tanks where students can be taught. We are indeed fortunate in this school in having such facilities. At this time when the state legislature is cutting down all appropriations for education, we must learn to use to the best advantage the equipment which we now have.

Is the swimming tank being used by those who need it most? It is true some are using it, but for the most part, it is used by those who are the best trained, with the untaught keeping high and dry. Those who have not learned to swim by the time they leave college probably never will learn. The good swimmer should receive much more encouragement in availing themselves of the opportunity. Many large universities and colleges require all students to be able to swim before they can receive diplomas. Physical fitness is a recognized factor in developing teachers. No matter how much history, economics, or shorthand a man may have stored up in his head, he won't keep it above the surface if he can't swim. Swimming is a good exercise for physical development, and a fine recreational sport. Ability in the water is advantageous not only to an individual, but also to his associates. Many lives could have been saved if more good swimmers were in the crowds of vacationists at our Wisconsin lakes.

The physical education program of our school can do much good in supplying a chance for young men and women who have never learned to swim."

Sororities Initiate New Members Tuesday

Formal initiation of 11 Omega Mu Chi pledges and six Tau Gamma Beta new members was held by the respective sororities Tuesday evening.

After the formal initiations both organizations entertained their new members at 6:30 o'clock dinners at Hotel Whiting Tuesday evening. Those initiated into the Omegas were Evelyn Stephenson, Helene Waterman, Helen Piehl, Loraine Gething, Jane Anderson, Margaret Mortenson, Ella Mortenson, Helen Bunker, Vera Torkey, Gwendoline Colburne and Margaret Novitzki. "Bobby" Lindow is president of the Omegas.

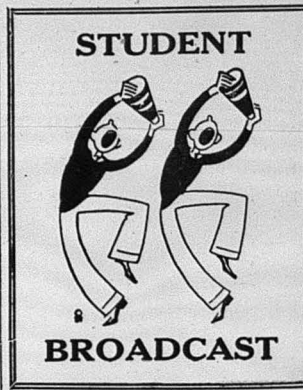

Tau Gamma Beta sorority initiated Margaret Turrish, Barbara Joy, Gaywood Skinner, Florence Knope, Viola Hotvedt, and Adeline Bellman. Pearl Merrill is the Tau Gamma president.

Dramatic Club Takes In Four New Members

At a meeting of the Harlequin Club Monday night four students were taken in as associate members. The new members are Elda Roseberry and Gladys Boursier of Stevens Point; Berenice Edick, Gillette; and Sigrid Stark, Nass, Minn.

President Hyer gave a short talk on the value of dramatics in teaching, bringing out the fact that the only way in which Teachers College graduates can compete for positions with the graduates of the large universities is by their participation in extra-curricular activities.

The possibilities for presenting a play this semester were briefly discussed, and a committee was appointed to investigate available plays.

Attention Faculty!

Members of the faculty:

This missive shall be in the form of an appeal along with an exhortation or two. I speak not only from my own experience, but from that of many others who use the college library and are unable to obtain the newer books they desire. I, myself, have been after a book which a member of the faculty has drawn from the library, for over a month; — a book which could be read in two sittings. Although this work is a true account and very instructive, it could not be used very well as a text or reference, and at this very minute is probably lying forgotten at the bottom of a large pile of others. Meanwhile, I inquire daily at the library, but am unable to obtain the copy.

If this were not a common occurrence, I would stop here. But, I have experienced the same difficulties before, as have many others. I realize that this is not caused by any maliciousness on the part of the faculty, but rather, is evidence of extreme inconsideration and thoughtlessness. That the faculty be the first to draw out new books is a justifiable and time-honored custom and they are entirely within their rights to do so. But, that they withhold the books for any extended period is not included in the bargain and is quite unfair.

Sincerely,
'W'

EXCHANGES

The "Ripon College Days" runs a story to the effect that Alpha Chi Alpha, one of the sororities, has gone in for an annual Leap Year Dance using the reversed order system of dating. We quote: "And I had to wait three-quarters of an hour while he played bridge upstairs... "Not only did he order steak, but fried potatoes and pie." Friday, March 24, the women will again call at the fraternity houses for their dates, plan the programs, present the boxes of candy and pay for after-dance specials.

Competition is the life of trade at River Falls where the dictates of masculine style and up-to-dateness on the campus seem to sponsors the moustache as an asset. Anyway, that is the latest mode among the college boys and the men of the faculty.

"In accordance with tradition, the class of '36 is preparing to edit the Freshman edition of the "College Days". By thus publishing this issue they will be carrying on a tradition of 19 years standing."

(Ripon College Days)

A story published in "The Exponent", Platteville, quotes Henry C. Wagner, Superintendent of the Waupun schools and editor of the "Educational Reactions Magazine": "American schools think too much of the IQ, AQ, and EQ, and not enough of the CQ, character quotient. The three R's should be supplanted by the three C's, character, culture, and citizenship.

WATSON RECALLS FOOTBALL AS IT ONCE WAS PLAYED

Days Of Stagg, Eckersall, And Heston Brought Back In Memories Of Geography "Prof."

Memories of great names and great days were evoked by an interview with Mr. Charles F. Watson, director of the Grammar Department and teacher of Geography at Central State Teachers College.

Mr. Watson had the privilege of playing football at the University of Chicago under the "grand old man of football", Alonzo Stagg. The immortal Eckersall was his team mate. The gridiron greets we read about were his friends. He played with men who made football history.

Five Regulars Named On Conference Teams

Five Point cagers gained recognition on either the first or second teams in all-opponent selections gleaned from the teachers college papers.

First Team

Bishop, Thompson, and Gregory were picked for positions on the first team along with Schwoegler and Novak of La Crosse, Kuss of River Falls, Wittig of Oshkosh, Stori of Stout, and Humke of Milwaukee.

Second Team

Marsh and Krumm were chosen for posts on the second team along with Hohler of Milwaukee, Collins of Superior, Morrow of River Falls, Anderson of Stout, Stogbauer of Oshkosh, and Pintz of Platteville.

Coaches Rough, But Champs Are Tough; Win, 20 To 14

Playing in their last game, exhibition or otherwise, the Point varsity cagers almost lost their undefeated record when they met six coaches and a referee in an exhibition game Saturday night played between the final games in the high school tournament, winning, 20 to 14.

"Eddie" Gets Rough

Led by Coach Kotal and Harry Ringdahl of the High School the old boys went out to win the game. They won the referee first, and "Eddie" could do anything but play leapfrog with the boys and get away with it.

They couldn't stop Guy Krumm from shooting, however, and Guy and Bob Tardiff led the Pointer scoring with three baskets apiece. All this in the face of terrific odds. Kotal was held to one basket and four free throws.

Oh! That Referee!

If the Pointers had lost — it might have been a good thing. At least, this was one time that Kotal didn't stand up and moan about the officiating.

LETTERMEN FORM NUCLEUS FOR A CINDER SQUAD

Five Returning Veterans To Strengthen Team; New Material Promising

Prospects for a successful track season appear to be the brightest in years for Coach Eddie Kotal's thinly clad, with five lettermen returning around whom to build a well balanced squad.

Champion Miler

Outstanding among the returning tracksters are three state champions. Lyman Scribner, who won the mile run and finished second in the two mile in the state meet, was the most consistent performer on the team. "Scrib" picked up points in every meet, and was never beaten in his specialty, the mile.

Art Thompson, who annexed the high jump crown with a jump of six foot two, will be back to score points in his specialty. "Tommy" in addition to his high jump prowess, can place in most meets in the pole vault.

Free Advertising

The third of the state champs, Russ Atwood, broke the tape first in the low hurdles in the state meet at Madison. Russ is an expert timber-topper, skimming the high hurdles, too. In addition he jumps for orders for Normingtons. (Oh, that's perfectly all right, Russel).

Harold Reichert and Myron Fritsch are the other returning "S" men. Reichert specializes in the 220 and 440 yard dashes, and Fritsch heaves the weights. Around this nucleus Coach Kotal ought to be able to develop a meet-winning team.

New Material Promising

Among the new material which Kotal will have at his disposal are Bob Tardiff and Earl Eckerson, who set prep records in the high jump and the pole vault. Ed "Moon" Baker, star dashman of two years back, who has kept out of competition last year by a poor ankle, is trying to get back into shape, and will be a real star in the 100 yard dash if and when.

Track workouts will be started as soon as the weather permits. A cinder track completely around the football field will be ready for use in the near future. No one will be allowed to compete wearing winter underwear.

This is a coming, and a vital, question. We hope that the faculty will define both their situation and our own. It would make things much clearer for the men of the school.

SAM'S SPORT SHORTS

And a rising young man at La Crosse accuses us of writing a combination of "pig-latin and baby-talk". He takes exception to what we say and how we say it. He hints darkly at a family scandal.

Sub, there is only one answer. Our honor is at stake. I challenge you to a spelling bee, with no adjectives barred. And may the best man win!!

That ought to hold him for a spell. (Faint essence of limburger).

At a recent assembly Roe Pflifer was telling the student body about his experiences in Washington. He told about the old gavel that was used to call the Continental Congress to order and which is still being used, and mentioned that the handle was stolen. Whereupon some wise soul inquired when the basketball team went to Washington.

Your scribe called Kotal's Monday night only to be told that Coach had left town for the weekend. (Read it again, buddy, you missed it the first time).

Cinder Path Promised For Track Practise

A complete cinder track around the gridiron of the football field will be ready for the track men when they begin work, Mr. Schmeeckle, Chairman of the Athletic Committee of the college, announced.

"Sing, You Cinders"!

The recent snowfall postponed the leveling activities, which were to have started early this week. The cinders were purchased, but the black cinder top dressing, which makes the track especially fine, is taken from our own college furnaces.

When the program is completed the local institution will have the facilities for a complete track and field carnival. At the north end of the field the jumping pits and weight throwing space will be located, and the pole vaulters will parade on the southern side of the gridiron.

A little matter which has no business here, but probably won't be mentioned elsewhere is this: What is the attitude of the college going to be about beer? Although it is going to be legal, will beer drinking be allowed by the faculty?

Will an athlete be considered to have broken training if he drinks beer? Will a student be prejudiced in the eyes of the school authorities if he imbibes?

Rural Club Gives Special Program; Graduate Speaks

Third and fourth year students of the Rural department were in charge of a special meeting held in the college auditorium last Monday evening. The program consisted of a short talk by Miss Ethel Peterson, a graduate of this school who is now doing research work for the department of Rural Education of the University of Wisconsin, and a play, "Pride Goeth Before A Fall", presented by several students of the department.

Members Of Cast

The cast included Clara Peterson, Myron Fritsch, Linda Schimelfenig, Doris Jones, Lillie Dunning, Francis Roman, and Everett Mills. The program was opened by Roland Koyen with community singing and a vocal selection. A saxophone duet by Arthur Kussmann and Ward Fostad was followed by a reading of original poetic selections by Florence Beaudin Cartmill.

Male Singers

Gerald Olson, Bert Vogel, Melvin Andre, Irl Thurber, Gilbert Busch, Roy Olson, LeRoy Hartz, and Roland Koyen sang a group of songs. They were accompanied by Miss Muriel Waid.

No Beer But Food Galore For Cage And Debate Champions

It seems that when it comes to eating, our basketball champs have nothing on our debaters. The faculty and the business men have been right generous in handing out feeds to the boys.

Hyer Gives Feed

A week ago Tuesday, President Hyer "set up" a chicken dinner as a gag to the fluency of those whom Mr. Spindler aptly calls "the champion liars".

Then this Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Burroughs declared open "house-pitality", and the boys just "et and et".

Wednesday evening Mr. Knutzen, who so manfully "toted" the teams about the country on their appearances at various high schools, entertained, on condition that no one would burst out in eloquent furor over the seriousness of the situation.

Smith Throws Spread

Now rumor has it that Mr. Smith, the chief economic adviser to the group, will entertain Sunday night. The habit seems contagious.

The Rotary Club also crashed through, the boys enjoying a dinner there a week ago Monday.

Y. W. C. A. Girls Meet

The Y. W. C. A. girls will meet tonight at Nelson Hall at 7:30. Mr. C. D. Jayne of the Training School faculty will be the speaker. His subject will be: "Past and Present Prophecies". Miss Irene Miller is in charge of the meeting.

Leaves For Chicago

Mrs. Carroll Van Buskirk left Saturday night for Chicago after spending the past year with her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Van Buskirk, 210 South George street. As Kathleen Powell Van Buskirk, she gave a successful concert recently as a farewell appearance in Stevens Point. In Chicago she will continue her musical training with Isaac Van Grove, director of the Chicago Civic Opera company. She will join her husband who is also engaged in musical work in that city.

Entertain Debaters

The championship debate team of the Teachers College was entertained by President and Mrs. Frank S. Hyer at their home, 626 Clark Street last week. The table centerpiece was a bouquet of yellow calendulas flanked by purple candles, carrying out the college colors of purple and gold, and the place cards were suggestive of St. Patrick's day. Those present were Celestine Nuesse, Donald Mills, Tom Smith, Burton Hotvedt, Clarence Styza and Jack Burroughs, members of the debate, extemporaneous speaking and oratory teams; Coach Leland M. Burroughs and Mrs. Burroughs.

Konclave Delegates

Edward Leuthold, Harry Hansen, and Evelyn Wimme were elected delegates from Sigma Zeta society to represent that society at the National Konclave at a meeting held last Wednesday evening. Katherine Wiggins and Stanley Niemczyk were chosen alternates. The Konclave will be held in Alton, Illinois, April 14 and 15.

St. Patrick's Party

The annual party sponsored by the Rural Life Club was held Saturday evening in the old gymnasium. Ben Mannis and his Collegians played for the dancing. The chaperones for the party were members of the rural department faculty, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar W. Neale, Miss Mary E. Hanna, Miss May Roach, and Miss Bessie LaVigne.

Loyola Club Meets

Rev. Joseph Kundinger, assistant pastor of SS. Peter and Paul church, Wisconsin Rapids, was the guest speaker at a meeting of

NELSON HALL

The Nelson Hall girls gratefully acknowledge Miss Hussey's gift to our reading room collection of books.

The district basketball tournament brought a number of visitors to the dormitory. The Misses Beulah Belot, Jane Lindsay, and Phyllis Lindow of Manawa visited over Roberta Lindow. The Misses Evelyn Slowey, Carol Conant, and Elaine Miller of Westfield were dinner guests of Kathryn Slowey, Margaret Mortenson, and Elda Miller Friday evening.

Goeds Welcome Guests

How these visits from home cheer us! Miss Ruth VonBerg of Mosinee called on the "Mosinee trio" Wednesday. That evening Mr. and Mrs. A. Wachs, and Mrs. C. W. Fobart visited with Blanche Fobart.

Birthday bells rang for Margaret Novitski Thursday, March 16. Margaret's friends decorated a birthday table for her in keeping with St. Patrick's Day (and also with what a green cap signifies at Milwaukee).

We didn't get in on LaZett Schmidt's birthday, because she celebrated in Manawa. However, one certain box was opened in the presence of ye scribe. Thanks, Lazett.

Snow Engulfs Dorm

The week-end was prolonged for a number of us by the wind and dainty little snowflakes (much to our sorrow). The weatherman planted a huge drift right in front of the entrance to the dorm. It's the biggest in the whole city, we think. We use a tunnel now.

The Loyola club, held Thursday evening in the rural assembly. With "Dare to be Different" as his topic, Father Kundinger gave an address which his large audience found helpful and inspirational. He was introduced to the club by Miss Roach, faculty adviser.

The program was begun with a group of Irish songs, sung by Sam Block, accompanied by Miss Kathryn Breitenstein.

Over 700 books, some irreplaceable, are lost every year at the University of Wisconsin library. The University is considering a plan of posting guards to watch all suspicious-looking students while in the bookstacks. Mr. Allez might find this interesting.

Women's volleyball started off with a bang, forty athletically inclined individuals reporting for the second practice on March 16. The teams were picked Tuesday, March 21, and a round-robin tournament will start today.

Spring's first balmy breezes blew on a number of ambitious roller-skaters. Much interest was aroused until the snow wet-blanketed the fun.

The ping-pong eliminations have left Bonita Newby, Velma Scribner, Ruth Reedal and Alice Sorenson in running for the championship. A new set of paddles have been provided for the tournament. The matches will be concluded and the champion crowned by Easter vacation.

At the W. A. A. meeting held March 22 in the Women's Lounge a new set of song books was presented to the club. Tentative plans for the annual girls' "Play Day" were presented, and the committees were appointed. The meeting closed with a special volleyball program presented by Velma Scribner.

When asked about the game as it was played in 1905, Mr. Watson said: "I began to play when the forward pass was just coming into use. The game was not as spectacular as it is today, but no modern team could gain through the line we used to have. The ball-carriers could be assisted under the old rules, and were pulled and hauled along."

"Jackass" Club

Asked about Stagg's coaching methods, Mr. Watson said: "Mr. Stagg had the most sarcastic tongue I have ever heard. He could make a man feel smaller than anyone ever could. He never used profanity, though. His strongest word was 'jackass', and he only used that when some one blundered in a game. The fellows formed a 'jackass club', and only those who had been called that by Mr. Stagg could belong."

Mr. Watson played in the first game played in Camp Randall at the University of Wisconsin. Chicago won that game, 4 to 0, on a muddy field. Neither team could gain through the line, but Eckersall, wiping off the ball and his shoes, kicked a field goal to win. At that time a field goal scored four points.

Michigan vs. Chicago

Reminiscing further, Mr. Watson described another game in which Eckersall's deadly toe provided the margin of victory. Chicago won, 63 to 0, and "Eckie" kicked five field goals for 20 points. The outstanding football game ever played, according to Mr. Watson, was the Michigan-Chicago game of 1905, won by Chicago, 2 to 0.

Michigan, coached by Fielding Yost, had been undefeated for two years. Led by Willie Heston, whom Mr. Watson rates as the greatest player he has even seen, the Wolverines were supposed to be unbeatable. Their defeat by Chicago was one of the big upsets in gridiron history.

Who Said "Rough"?

In speaking about roughness of play Mr. Watson smiled. "The game really wasn't rough", he said. "I played for three years and only had a few collar bones, broken and ribs cracked. It wasn't till I tried to coach a green team that I was really hurt."

Spindler Completes A College "Who's Who"

An interesting "Who's Who" of local college graduates who are now engaged in commercial and educational fields in various parts of the country has been compiled by Mr. Frank N. Spindler.

Today's issue of the Pointer contains another of a series of "old time" grads who have distinguished themselves since graduation. Other outstanding graduates will appear in following issues of the Pointer.

College Alumni Active In Teaching Positions

The initiative and versatility of Stevens Point graduates are attested to by evidences of their activities in the teaching field. Many of the alumni are in charge of excellent school newspapers which are sent to their former critic teachers of the Training School.

All Point Grads

Elton R. Davis, Katherine Turrish, Hazel Schroeder and William S. Richardson, all Stevens Point graduates now teaching at Mattoon, Wis., contribute to a 14 page mimeographed newspaper called the "Mattoonian". Miss Eva Koehl, head of the Lincoln school in Stevens Point publishes "The Lincoln Breeze", while Miss Gertrude Jensen, teaching at the local Garfield school, is responsible for a school paper called "Our Reflector". Ray Clausen, now teaching at Ogdensburg has developed "The Broadcaster" and Helen Verhulst, of the Adams, Wis., school, is in charge of "The Voice".

Indians Print News

"The Indian Youth", issued from an Indian school at Fort Totten, N. D., is an interesting paper produced under the direction of Christian Beitzel, a Point graduate. Eldore Bergsbaken, teaching his first year at Scandinavia, Wis., has developed "The Echo". Another city school newspaper, "The Monthly Chat", is the work of Miss Katherine Grimm of the McKinley school. These school newspapers are exchanged with the "Junior Pointer" of the Training School and are exhibited in the Junior High assembly.

It is not very often that students are given the opportunity to see a nine-reel moving picture for nothing, but that is exactly what they have in store for them Monday evening, April 13, in the college auditorium.

The Rural department is bringing S. J. Ristesund here on that evening. Mr. Ristesund will deliver a lecture on the scenic attractions of Norway, illustrating his talk with nine reels of moving pictures. There is to be no charge. Students will be admitted on presentation of their student activity cards.

"TED" IS A DADDY

A son was born March 9, to Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Rozelle at Three Lakes, Wisconsin. "Ted" is a 1931 graduate and was editor of the Pointer his senior year.

Edna And Lydia In Jaws Of Snow Storm

"Snowbound" by the Misses Edna Carlsten and Lydia Pfeiffer is the latest novel. Ask them about it. The two faculty members attended the "Home Show" in Milwaukee last week-end. Miss Carlsten said they encountered drifts miles high on their return trip so were forced to spend Sunday and Monday at Plymouth, Wis. The "babes of the storm" were rescued by Dr. Walter Pfeiffer of Plymouth, brother of Lydia, who gave them free lodging and food at his Plymouth home while the storm and women raved on.
