

DEBATERS ATTEND ST. PAUL MEET

THIRD ANNUAL TOURNEY NOW IN PROGRESS

Nuesse, Mills, Collins, Zylka
And L. M. Coach Burroughs
Represent C. S. T. C.

The 1933-34 edition of Central State Teachers College debate squad left for Saint Paul, Minnesota, last Monday afternoon, February 26, where it is now meeting its final test of the season in the Northwest Debate tournament sponsored by St. Thomas college. The men making the trip are state champions Celestine J. Nuesse, and the Rev. Donald Mills, who compose one team, and Cletus Collins and Michael Zylka, who make up the other team. Accompanying them is Coach Leland M. Burroughs.

Third Attendance

This is the third annual tournament held under the auspices of St. Thomas. Likewise it is the third time that Central State has accepted an invitation to attend.

The contest opened Tuesday afternoon at which time a Grand Assembly was held for presentation of the rules governing the tourney, and the assignments for the various rounds were made. All participants are prepared to speak on both sides of the question (Should the powers of the president be substantially increased as a settled policy). Each squad alternates taking first the affirmative and then the negative, changing with each debate. Four elimination rounds were held the first day. Only teams winning two out of four of these encounters were allowed to continue in the championship series. (Continued on Page 4, col. 2)

Organize 'League For Industrial Democracy,

A "League for Industrial Democracy" has been recently organized under the leadership of C. D. Jayne of the Training School. The organization welcomes any students interested in the exchange of viewpoints and in education for leadership through understandings of political and economic problems. Anyone interested get in touch with Mr. Jayne, Elmer Buselman or Henry Lampman immediately.

Two meetings, one at which Prof. Ross Stagner of the U. of W. spoke; and one at which Rev. Carl Asmus of this city spoke, have been held thus far.

Music Festival Here Apr. 20. Twenty-Five Groups Invited

Plans are being made for a Music Festival to be held here on April 20. More than twenty-five bands are being invited to attend. It will be the first of its kind to be given at C. S. T. C. A similar feature was staged at Wausau last year. This Music Festival is sponsored by the State Teachers College in Stevens Point and the business men of this city.

Not a Contest

This will not be a contest but a music festival in which all bands and orchestras participate without a feeling of competition and receive helpful and constructive criticism of their work by competent critics. These criticisms will be sealed and handed to the directors shortly after their respective organizations have played their numbers. Each organization will be expected to play a warming up number, an overture, and another concert number, or a solo with band or orchestra accompaniment.

Prizes For All

Each participating organization will be presented a trophy by the sponsors of this festival. These trophies will be loving cups and each will be engraved with the date and the place of the festival and the name of the school receiving it and will be the permanent possession of that school.

Second Semester Enrollment Drops; Total Is Greater

Although comparative enrollment figures have not been received from the other colleges of the state as yet, we are in a position to present those of this institution pro tempore.

At the close of school last night, there were 785 students enrolled, 96 of which are night students, and the balance of 689 are regularly enrolled day students.

Not Alarming

In spite of the fact that the total for this semester is slightly less than that for the first, the total number of students on the rolls for the year is 890 contrasted with 847 the preceding year.

The slight drop in second semester figures is no cause for any great alarm inasmuch as it is a regular procedure for the enrollment to dwindle a bit in the second semester.

Five Men Invited Into Sigma Zeta Science Society

Sigma Zeta, honorary science society, sent invitations last Tuesday to the following students to become active members: Woodrow Tesmer, Gilbert Busch, Alex Perrodin, Leo Flatley, and Art Nygard.

These students were given an opportunity to become associates: John Krygier, Ronald Neff, Ralph Okray, Frank Menzel and Harold Sorbye.

Concert To Be Given By Men Thurs. Mar. 22

The Men's Glee Club, under the direction of Norman E. Knutzen, has had a very rigid schedule of rehearsals during the past week. At a "Smoker", given by the organization recently, plans were made regarding the appearance of the Club in the College Auditorium on March 22. With this factor in view plus a feature of the entire group over WLBL yesterday afternoon, it was evident that much time had to be spent on the various arrangements.

Real Treat

Judging from the reports of the committees in charge of further entertainment, the organization is to have a program which will, no doubt, be well received by the student body. Thus far much talent has been discovered, none of which has been presented to the students heretofore. Considering the enthusiasm shown by individuals, and their regular attendances, it is evident that the student body and townspeople shall be offered an unusual treat on Thursday evening of March 22. There will be no admission charges for this entertainment.

Requirements Stiff

To become a member of Sigma Zeta one must have a science major or minor and have a compound average of 88 in all science courses taken.

Edward Leuthold, president of the organization, has asked The Pointer to give notice to members of the society that the Iris picture will be taken Wednesday night March 7, at 8 P. M.

SIXTY NEEDY STUDENTS ARE AIDED BY CWA

Sixty Three State Loans
Covering Fees Have Been Approved

Sixty students of Central State Teachers College have taken advantage of the Federal Student Unemployment Relief act and are engaged in projects. Or that number thirty one are men and twenty nine are women. The quota for male students is filled. There are still eight vacancies for co-eds. Twenty five per cent of each group are persons who did not attend an institution of higher learning last semester.

All Types of Work

These jobs are allowed to students who must have financial help to stay in school.

The types of work allowed includes: clerical, library, research, work on building and grounds, work in dormitories and dining halls, and construction and repair projects.

The institution is the final judge as to the acceptability of projects carried on within the institution.

President Hyer informed The Pointer that sixty three state loans were received covering admission fees.

5 Per Cent Interest

This semester the state allowed loans for part of student maintenance as well as tuition fees. These grants are to be paid back after graduation from college. Interest must be paid at the rate of five percent beginning July after graduation.

Many of the applications have been approved by the state. As this issue goes to press the maintenance loans have not as yet been received by the students.

Free College Dance In New Gym Friday

An all school dance will be held in the new gym Friday night. The social committee is treating, and college students will be admitted on presentation of their activity tickets.

Aaron Mannis and his "Colleagues" will furnish the rhythm for dancing from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock. Chairman T. A. Rogers of the social committee states that it is imperative that all students present their activity tickets at the door if they desire free admission.

DEBATERS DESERVE A 'HAND'

Debate season is already drawing near a close, and as yet we have failed to see very much enthusiasm shown about school in regards to this activity.

Due to lack of funds on the part of the majority of the Teachers Colleges in the state, a Teachers Conference and the State Tournament have been cast aside this season. However, we should not allow this to lower our interests along these lines. We have with us again this season the two outstanding men, Nuesse and Mills, last year's State Champs, and two very capable men in Collins and Zylka to fill the vacancies created by the graduation of Hotvedt and Smith of last year's squad.

To date, our teams have taken part in a preliminary contest, which was held at Normal, Ill, recently, at which time the wins amounted to a sum total of eleven out of fifteen encounters, and numerous non-decision debates with teams from surrounding colleges, plus several exhibitions put on before high schools in central Wisconsin. In many of the non-decision contests, members of the faculty of the schools at which these were held and other parties, not directly interested, voiced their decisions as being decidedly in favor of the Stevens Point teams.

At the time of this writing the tourney at St. Paul is not yet under way, and we would like to take this opportunity on behalf of the faculty and the student body of Central State Teachers College to wish Coach L. M. Burroughs and his teams the best of luck as participants in the tournament, and we will be waiting for them to "Bring Home The Bacon".

STUDENT

BROADCAST

Dear Editor:

Who writes "I Had A Dream," by John the Janitor, and why? After being bored for years by "Sweepings From The Janitor's Dust Pan," must long-suffering alumni hear such pap being forced upon us when we have no means of protecting ourselves?

When I was in school — but that's enough of that. Sufficient unto himself is John the Janitor and the humor thereof, and such malicious malignment is an affront to those of us who know and revere him.

ALUMNUS.

Silence is a virtue that is frequently overlooked by fools.

Dear Editor:

What is the purpose of cheering at a game?

Does it not express the spectator's whole-hearted approval of the points made toward a victory?

Should not the winning team, therefore, be given a hand when the victory seems to be theirs?

We, coeds of Central State, agree on affirmative answers to the above questions. Milwaukee, the visiting team, made a good start. The Point team followed up with a few scores. Then the score-keepers turned over more leaves for our visitors. With each of the succeeding shots for our own boys a rousing cheer went up among the crowd. However, when the Milwaukee men sank their points, and we, the writers of this article, let them know we recognized their good playing, some of the Point fans let out the seemingly inevitable "boo". In other words, they apparently deemed us "poor sports", and thought us incapable of standing by our team when it was losing. On the contrary, we are not "punks" who "can't take it", but "regular guys" — hoping for the best!

TWO DORM COEDS.

NOTICE!!!

There will be a meeting of the Senior Class immediately after assembly today in Mr. Smith's room. It is very IMPORTANT. All members are urged to be present.

HERBERT REUBEN STEINER

In Mr. Steiner we have a completely Wisconsin product. His grandfather and father landed in Milwaukee in 1845 from Germany. His father at that time was one year old.

His grandfather did not like the stumps and swamps of Milwaukee, any amount of which he could have acquired at that time for a song. He wanted to get amongst the tall timber, so he moved up into the big woods near where Hartford now is, where he worked himself to death in the clearing up of a farm, leaving Herbert's grandmother with a young family of which Herbert's father was the eldest.

It is easily seen that industry, frugality, and practical mindedness would be necessary in such a pioneer family, and many of Mr. Steiner's outstanding traits can thus be accounted for.

If Herbert's grandfather had stayed in Milwaukee and brought his father up on Milwaukee beer instead of country milk, Herbert might have been different. He might by this time have consumed his quota of Wisconsin beer which every Wisconsinite is supposed to do as a patriotic duty.

Herbert was born, sometime ago, in Dunn County. He worked on the farm and attended country school in a perfectly normal way until he was thirteen. We can't but believe, however, that even then he found a day off now and then for hunting and fishing.

Foreseeing the future depression of agriculture, he left home and attended the Dunn County Normal School and graduated from there at sixteen.

He started teaching at Eau Galle on a third grade certificate, taught there two years and then one year at Fifield. By that time he had raised his third grade to a first grade certificate.

On this he entered the Stevens Point Normal in 1906 and attended one year and then went back to Eau Galle to teach another year.

In 1908 he returned to the Normal and graduated from there in the five year German course in 1910.

While in school here Herbert was a fine student and in all kinds of extra curricular activities. He was right tackle on the football team; member of the champion basket-ball team; member of glee club and men's quartet; president of his Sophomore and Junior classes, and member of the Junior debate team with Oshkosh, and also many other activities which as Dean of Men he can no longer remember. Asked if he remembers once when the president of the Junior class was unavoidably detained from the Junior Prom, Dean Steiner said, "Emphatically; No."

Mr. Steiner is a fine example of the old adage that "you can't keep a good man down." He always played in the football line with his head up in the air like a turkey gobbler. One day, Mr. Spindler, the Coach at that time, grabbed Herbert by the belt and jammed his face down on to the ground, and said to him, "Herb, dash it! keep your head down or you'll get killed." herb must have been a good man for he had his nose broken four times after that; — "You can't keep a good man down."

After graduating from here at mid-year, he taught the remainder of the year at Baldwin and until June 1911. Next he went to the Galahad School for Boys at Hudson.

During the summers of 1910, 1911, 1912, and the year of 1912-13, he attended the University of Wisconsin.

In 1913 he took a bold step and, for better or for worse, he married his classmate in S. P. N., Myrle N. Young. Evidently, it was for better, for he is still married to her.

He next went to Cashton as Principal of the High School and after three years there, he was head of the Mauston School system for two years. Evidently he had made a good reputation as an educator for in 1918 he was called to this school to fill the vacancy in U. S. History and Social Sciences left by the resignation of Mr. Merle Ames.

Of his work and usefulness here it is unnecessary to speak. Everyone knows and recognizes his value to the school, as a man and as a teacher. As Dean of Men, he is eminently successful. He is firm but not fussy, friendly but not familiar, human and understanding.

Mr. Steiner has the Ph. B. and Ph. M. degrees from the University of Wisconsin. His Master's thesis was on the subject, "A Comparative Study of the Long and Short Assignment." It was the result of a large amount of experiment and investigation.

Mr. Steiner attended summer school at Harvard the summer of 1931. He took the whole family with him and it was a wonderful experience. He learned American History on the ground. While he was studying Mrs. Steiner was looking up the homes and bones of her ancestors—so a good time was had by all.

Mr. Steiner still is interested in athletics and does his share as member of the athletic board.

There are three children in the Steiner family, Robert, a student in this school, and John and Nancy in the high school.

Mr. Steiner is not just a teacher. He has many life interests. He is an expert fisherman and hunter, a great lover of out-of-doors, and loves to travel on the open road.

Twenty Students At Guardsmen Annual Banquet

About twenty young men of this college who are members of the National Guard at Stevens Point were "Feasted" at the Armory last Tuesday evening, February 27. The banquet is an annual event at the local Armory under the heading of "Father and Son Banquet". Both Headquarters Battery, and Battery "D" of the 120-th Field Artillery took part in this event.

Members of the Guards attending school are: Michael Zylka, Ralph Okray, Wilson Schwahn, Jack Burroughs, Frank Klement, Ronald Murray, Richard Schwahn, Bruno Slotwinski, Charles McDonald, Robert Steiner, Joseph Frank, Waldo Marsh, Glen Hoffman, Edmund Miller, Grover Shanks, Peter Zaborski, Otto Schneck, Donald Hamilton, Charles Sparhawk, and Edwin Yach.

A man isn't necessarily athletic because he jumps at conclusions.

POINT TAKES OSHKOSH FOR RIDE

LOCALS GIVE KOLFMEN 40-30 TRIMMING

It's Basketball Curtain For Hanson, Klement, And Gregory

In one of the most exciting and thrilling games played here this year, the Pointers dropped the strong Oshkosh cagers 40 and 30 last Thursday. The battle was rough with 40 fouls being called, 39 personals and one technical. Unferth, Gregory, Lindow, and Wittig left the game from four offenses. Nell, the little forward with the Hitler haircut, annexed the evening's scoring honors with 15 points from five baskets and five charity tosses. Wandrey got four buckets. The Point scoring was done by Gregory, Marsh, and Hanson. Tardiff and Unferth got five points each.

Seniors Start

Coach Eddie Kotal started all his seniors in the game including Greg who is not a senior but who finished up his three years of competition in that game. Klement, and Hanson were the others. Harry Hanson played a whale of a game, scoring eight points and proving himself the outstanding defense man on the floor. Co-captain Nolan Gregory finished up in a blaze of glory. He accounted for 10 points before he left the game on personals. The hand he got from the crowd as he jogged off the court was the largest received by anyone this year. The boos for the officials possibly were intermingled in the din.

A Game, Gentlemen

Frank Klement played good ball when he was in the game and dropped in a long shot in the first minutes of the tilt. Unferth, who in his first season of competition, has drawn himself a starting berth, played a swell game but was guarded to closely to score much. His speed and aggressiveness were equally felt on offense and defense. Tardiff fought hard, even taking the count of ten at one time. He dropped in five free throws and missed four more.

Hanson Stars

To start the game Hanson dropped in a one-hander. Wandrey eyed the score but baskets by Unferth and Gregory gave the Pointers a lead that they held to the end of the game. At the half the score stood 22 and 7 for the Kotalmen. In the second frame the Sawdusters pulled up fast, once getting as close as 27 and 24. Marsh started hitting the basket then and the game ended as Nell looped one in leaving the final score Point 40, Oshkosh 30.

Point Cagers Almost Upset Loop Champs

The fans went wild in the gym last week when the crippled Point team almost upset the championship Milwaukee cagers finally losing 37 and 36. Both Gregory and Marsh were handicapped, Gregory from a back injury suffered in the Carrol game, and Marsh from a leg bruise. This didn't stop them however, Greg, in fact, was high scorer of the game, getting 6 buckets and 5 free tosses. Paul Humke exerted himself to the tune of 5 baskets and 4 free throws for Milwaukee. Dassow got two buckets before leaving the game on fouls. Unferth dropped in 11 points on 5 baskets and a charity toss.

Second Half Thriller

The battle was close in the first half, the Penwellmen leaving the floor with a 19 and 14 advantage. The second half was a thriller reaching its climax with a tie at 34 points with two minutes to play. Unferth and Gregory were hitting the ring from all over the floor. Kleinman then sank a basket and a free toss which seemed enough to win. However, Unferth heaved the ball through the hoop once more after taking a cool aim. With only a few seconds to play the Pointers controlled the ball but couldn't sink that last basket which would have won the game.

BILL'S BULL

In the Oshkosh tilt, Gregory, Hanson, and Klement, the three men who finished up their cage careers, scored one half of the total Point score. The boys ended the season in a blaze of glory. It seems kind of tough to think that they will see no more college basketball competition. After a few years no one will remember the athletes. Only a few letters and sweaters, medals and tokens, will remind them of the days when they brought shouts of praise from the excited fans. Lots of luck, fellows. We hope you make a name for yourselves that will last. But then don't we all want the same success?

While we were waiting for the dance to begin Friday night, we saw a fellow drive up in front of the gym. He parked his car with the others that were there for the dance and locked it. With the air of a fellow about to enjoy a good night's entertainment he walked up to the door. "Hello, fellows. When does the game begin?" he asked. The poor fan had driven ninety miles to see Oshkosh and Stevens Point play. You never saw a sicklier look spread over anyone's face as did over this man's, when we told him that the game had already been played.

Several of the college pugilists took part in a card at Marshfield last week with not very good results. Russ Beppler got a draw in his match with Del Brodhagen. Art Laabs drew with Marvin Grimm. Mel Andre fought with schoolmate Theron Anderson and outpointed the Swede. Forrest Felix was knocked out by John Osberg. Charlie Torbenson lost a decision to Walter Zawadzki.

Milwaukee has not held a conference basketball title since 1915. This year they have the pennant practically won since the defeat of Oshkosh here last week.

March 2, 3, 4, finds the Northern Wisconsin Amateur basketball tournament underway at Rhineland. This semiprofessional meet always brings the best teams in the upper state. Two Stevens Point teams applied for competition and the City Team was select-

TEACHERS END CAGE SEASONS THIS WEEKEND

Finish Trial Experiment Of Northern, Southern Divisions In State

The Teachers College Conferences close their seasons this week after one of the most eventful of schedules. Many upsets and thrilling games, not a few of which took place here, are almost over. The remaining games include Oshkosh and Platteville, Oshkosh and Whitewater, and in the Northern Conference, River Falls and Eau Claire.

Up to date Paul Humke of Milwaukee is the conference high scorer with 94 points. Hohler and Dassow also of Milwaukee are next in line. Nolan Gregory is in fourth place with 54 points. In the other half of the conference Schwoegler has a total of 98 points. He is a La Crosse cager.

Lose One Game Each

Milwaukee lost only one game, this to Oshkosh 32 and 20, while Superior leading the Northern conference also lost only one game, this to River Falls 38 and 36.

So ends the first trial of the experiment dividing the conference into northern and southern divisions. As a comparison of the respective strengths of these groups, non-conference games between teams of opposite conferences invariably seemed to favor the Northern conference.

Standards Raised

We aren't going to do any predicting for next year because it is seldom practical. Although only three men graduate, others doubtless will not enter school for various reasons. This fact was demonstrated forcibly last year. Bishop, Eckerson, Bader, and Omholt were among those who didn't return. We will, however, rest assured that Coach Eddie Kotal will develop a fine team out of whatever is left. Our coach has raised the athletic standards so high since he has been here that we expect a lot and he always delivers. In the three years here, Kotal has developed a state championship basketball team, a conference winner in football and consistent winners every season.

This group is composed of Art Thompson, Larry Bishop, Guy Krumm, Mon Bader, Reggs Hansen, Frank Gordon, and Asher Shorey. The first four men were on the All-state champs last year and the others are enrolled in C. S. T. C. at the present time. Their first game is at 10 o'clock Saturday morning with the Ashland city team. The winner of this game will play again at 7 P. M.

EXCHANGES

From The Peptomist

Superior Teachers College

"Because of poor attendance, the Superior State Teachers College band was discontinued by Mr. Schliep, conductor.

"In place of the band rehearsal held on Thursdays at 2:30 o'clock, an instrumentation class will be held. This class will meet during the regular band hour. All members of the band and other college students may join if they wish."

The Echo Weekly

Milwaukee Teachers College

"Jobs assigned under the new part time student employment act are by no means permanent, according to President Frank E. Baker.

"President Baker is planning to make a more thorough investigation than was possible at first to determine whether they are placed in proper positions. The jobs, which will probably continue until June 1, may be shifted from time to time, he indicated."

From Zenith City Collegian

"What happens when a professor falls in love?

"In a recent breach of promise suit at Long Beach, Cal., two of the love letters of a political science instructor were read aloud.

One of the letters read in part as follows: "Oh Deenie Weenie, my darling light of the galaxy, how can I ever forget the maddening pungence of your hair, you fluffy chick? What do I care about teaching a group of ignoramuses the fundamental principles of our government? Rather would I lie in your arms, lulled to Nirvana by your lips?"

ries. A consolation tournament is being held for those who were eliminated during the initial skirmishes.

Finals Thur. Eve.

The championship will be decided this evening at 7:30 P. M. Following the final decision the delegates will be guests of the college at a banquet. The winning team will have the privilege of debating over the air Friday.

Competition in this tourney has been particularly keen, for in the neighborhood of sixty outstanding teams from all over the middle west are meeting there at this time.

The locals are making their headquarters at the Hotel Lowry in St. Paul.

Lawrence Encountered Twice

Recently Nuesse and Mills met a negative and an affirmative team from Lawrence College. These contests were held at Wittenberg High School and at Clintonville High School respectively. While both of the contests were non-decision affairs, we have learned that several non-interested parties who audited the meetings were of the opinion that Central State's representatives had a little the best of the argument.

The girls sinking the most buckets are: in field goals, Melva Spry leads with 19 and Irene Lonsdorf is next with 15; in free throws, Melva also leads with 10 while Evelyn Dumbleton and Thyrsa Iverson tie for second with 4 each.

Of the beginners games the first was won by the Golds with Mary MacKenzie as captain. The score of this game was 17-10.

The men's tap dancing class was held for the first time Monday with eight attendance. The regularly scheduled hour is at 5 P.M. on Monday. Vas you dere, Charlie?

Why is Fremont Street a good parking place? — A certain third-story window.

What postmark stamps the "letter a day without fail"? — Oshkosh.

"True love never did run smooth".

When certain young man broke up with his girl, he decided that evenings without her weren't so hot. Indeed, they seemed rather "punk" to him. So he hot-footed it back to the old dorm again. The last we heard he was trying to "Winn" her back.

OLSEN POINTS TO DEFICIENT HOME READING

Educators Should Be Better Informed Concerning Current Affairs

By HUMPHREY A. OLSEN

"School teachers are, on problems of economics and politics, the most uniformly illiterate class known," writes Ross Stagner in "School and Society," Jan. 13, 1934.

The truth of this statement may be challenged, but certainly students do not keep up with current affairs as they should. Crowded schedules leave little time for such things, and when such time does come, one hardly knows where to begin.

Present unstable economic and political conditions make it doubly important that future educational leaders be well-informed, for in their power is the molding of tomorrow's ideals.

Read Regularly

To gain a minimum of essential knowledge, everyone should go over carefully at least one weekly magazine. Many enjoy "Time", a spritely review with the information conveniently divided into departments. Then the "Literary Digest" in its rejuvenated form. The "New Republic" and "Nation" have penetrating articles by well-known observers, but their decided Socialist bias should be kept in mind.

Spending a half hour each day reading newspapers is a valuable habit, but if time prevents this, one can at least cover the able articles in the Sunday New York Times.

Magazines Important

The newspapers and weeklies serve the news hot off the griddle, leaving it to the monthlies to furnish critical analysis possible after time has passed following the occurrence of events. Current History magazine, with the advantage of being backed by the New York Times organization, is preeminent in the field.

General monthly magazines, such as Harper's, Forum, Scribner's and the Atlantic, carry out-

Michelson To Judge Illinois Tournament March 23, Maywood

Mr. Peter J. Michelson, head of the Music Department of Central State Teachers College, has recently been asked to judge a Band Tournament of the North Central District of the state of Illinois to be held at Maywood, Ill. on March 23. Mr. Michelson will be the sole judge at the Tournament. He plans to leave for the event on Thursday March 22.

standing articles on economic and political questions from time to time. The Living Age is particularly internationally minded, and contains excerpts from foreign periodicals on world affairs.

Many New Books

A readable introduction to changing modern thought; Overstreet's "We Move in New Directions", is good as a starter. More specific and especially pertinent in these days of the New Deal is George Soule's "A Planned Society".

Europe since 1918 is ably covered in Buell's "A History of Ten Years," and Scribner's have published a "Modern World" series of histories which are authoritative and up-to-date accounts of individual countries.

The turmoil in the Far East is made understandable by Gowen's "An Outline History of Japan" and Anderson's graphic picture of the Chinese in "The Dragon and the Foreign Devils."
