

KRUMM NAMES JOY '34 PROM QUEEN

WALLY BEAU TO FURNISH MUSIC FOR BIG EVENT

Reception Line Will Form At Eight-thirty. Grand March Nine O'clock

Miss Barbara Joy has been chosen Queen of the annual college Junior Promenade by King Guy Krumm. Only eight days remain before the curtain goes up on the premier of the 1934 social season, which will take place Friday evening, April 6, in the new gymnasium.

Local Resident

Miss Joy is a resident of Stevens Point, and a graduate of the local high school. Since her graduation from the secondary institution in 1932 she has been a student at C. S. T. C. where she is a sophomore in the high school department. Miss Joy is a prominent member of Tau Gamma Beta sorority.

Guy Krumm, who hails from Argonne, Wis., is one of the outstanding men of the college. In addition to being president of the Junior class he was co-captain of this year's basketball team. Krumm suffered the misfortune of wrenching his knee early in the season, and was unable to play in conference competition. Last year he was a regular on the state championship basketball team which defeated the University of Wisconsin. At the close of the season he received all-conference recognition. He is a member of Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity.

Schwahn Heads Line

Heading the reception line, which will form at 8:30 o'clock and disband at 9:00, will be Wilson Schwahn, chairman of the dance, and Miss Thyra Iverson, followed by Mr. Krumm and Miss Joy. Next in order will be President and Mrs. Hyer, Regent and Mrs. Atwell, Dean and Mrs. Steiner, Miss Carlsten, and Mr. and Mrs. Schmeckle.

Dance Until One

The Grand March will start at 9:05 o'clock. Immediately afterward the dancing program will commence to the music of Wally Beau and his orchestra, and will continue until 1 a. m., with the exception of a brief intermission at 12 o'clock midnight.

The price of admission has again been set at $1.50 per couple.

NOTICE!

There will be no issue of the Pointer next week due to the Easter recess.

As the Easter season arrives Central State again closes its doors for a brief recess. The Pointer staff takes this opportunity to wish the students and faculty a Happy Easter. School closes at four o'clock today and reconvenes next Wednesday morning at eight o'clock.

Men's Lounge Gets Needed Coat Of Paint

The profits gained from the dance which was sponsored by the Men's Room recently, have already reached their destination and proved their value. If you don't get what we're raving about just take a "peek" into the room on your next trip by and see for yourself. The walls have been neatly redecorated with cream colored paint having a special characteristic of being two shades darker near the bottom than at the top. The woodwork has taken on aspects of being buff in coloration, and the shabby appearing bulletin boards have been removed. All around the top is an especially attractive border of purple and gold. The floor has likewise received a new coat of maroon finish.

Complete Redecoration

On the wall spaces between the windows we find pennants of the nine Teachers Colleges of the state, Stout Institute and the University of Wisconsin. These banners are unusually designed, being made up with plastic paints which give them a 'felt texture' appearance. The letters are raised and bear the colors of their

'Playing The Game' Chosen As Rural Play

"Playing The Game", a three act comedy-drama, has been selected by the Rural Life Club for its annual play to be given on Monday evening, April 30, at eight o'clock. Rehearsals are well underway for the production. The performance will be given in the college auditorium.

Eleven In Cast

Eleven people are included in the cast of the production. Only members of the Rural Life Club have been cast for the parts. They are: Elizabeth Brockbank, Minerva Busse, Gertrude Zuch, Eleanor Marshall, Genevieve Rupp, Irene Jensen, Bob Neale, Eino Tutt, August Gabriel, Donald Hamilton, and Ole Schlesnes.

Miss Hanna is coaching the production. Further information relative to the play will appear in a later issue of the 'Pointer'.

respective schools.

The banners of Central State Teachers College and the University of Wisconsin are considerably larger than the other pennants. New shades to match the new colorations have been ordered.

NATIONAL MEET AT LEXINGTON DEBATERS' GOAL

Nuesse, Mills, Collins, And Zylka Leave With Burroughs For Kentucky Friday

Tomorrow afternoon, Friday, March 30, debate coach Leland M. Burroughs and his four proteges, Celestine J. Nuesse, Rev. Donald Mills, Cletus Collins, and Mike Zylka, leave for Lexington, Ky., where the first two men will enter in the national convention debate tournament sponsored by Pi Kappa Delta forensic fraternity, to be held April 2 to 6 inclusive. Mike Zylka is entered in the extemporaneous speaking contest, while Collins is official alternate to Nuesse and Mills in the event that either of them should become incapacitated.

Stop At Ripon

The first stop of the journey will be at Ripon College, Ripon, Wis. Our affirmative team will meet a negative squad Friday night. Professor James of Oshkosh State Teachers College will be the judge. Saturday morning they will tackle the University of Wisconsin in a practise session. That afternoon the drive to the blue grass state begins.

Seek Pi Kappa Delta Unit

Formal application has been made for a chapter of Pi Kappa Delta to be instituted at this college. This forensic society has chapters at colleges and universities stretching from coast to coast. In the neighborhood of one hundred and fifty schools will be represented in the tournament at Lexington. Those from C. S. T. C. who are eligible for membership in the fraternity are Professor Burroughs, Cletus Collins, Jack Burroughs, Donald Mills, Celestine J. Nuesse, and Mike Zylka.

Today two teams composed of Mills and Nuesse vs. Collins and Zylka will give an exhibition before the Young Democratic Club at the court house in this city.

Primaries Plan Kid Party April 9

A "kid party" is the unique entertainment in store for members of the Primary department Monday, April 9. Games and a program suitable for this fete promise to be pleasantly diverting. Evelyn Stephenson is in charge, with the program committee. Misses Colman, Bizer, Tobias, and Brown are chaperones for the evening.

HIGHER STANDARDS

It may appear to be quite doubtful to many of the present Teachers College Students, but we believe that to the majority of them the idea of raising the Standards of Teaching, probably in accordance with the suggestion offered by the Council on Education of the Wisconsin Teachers Association, which appears on this page, would be decidedly beneficiary to this profession. The Council states, "We support a four year course beyond high school graduation as a minimum qualification for teaching on any level in our state." This almost undoubtedly would put the Teaching profession up to where it actually belongs, where it would be rated equally with other professions in the eyes of the public. There perhaps would remain a slight tendency for the standard to remain somewhat below that of other professions in that the training necessary for elementary teachers could be completed at state supported institutions, thereby drawing young men and women into the field who are not at all fitted for the work.

On the whole, the level of the profession would be raised considerably. Shifting to Secondary and Higher Educational fields, preparation along these lines would duly equal and in some cases surpass that of other professions. This undoubtedly would rid the field of its many misfits. Likewise salaries must be raised as suggested by the council in accordance with the amount of preparation necessary to enter the various steps in the field, which would also help to raise its level in the eyes of the citizens. Boards of Education of various high schools throughout the state have raised their standards of requirements for the respective teaching positions. The tendency at present seems to inform us that such a movement will become state-wide within the next two or three years.

FOR USE AGAIN

Now that the Mens Room is all redecorated and ready for use again, we're wondering if it isn't possible for those certain few who are continually 'wrecking' the place to refrain from their faulty habits and help to keep the lounging room neat and in a presentable condition. All the men of the college should make a special effort to depict these obnoxious individuals and bar them from the use of the room. President Hyer informs us that as much as he desires to, he finds it impossible to buy any new furniture for the room due to the lack of funds, and if such a thing were possible, it would be a rather foolish move considering the rate at which furniture has been destroyed heretofore. Men — it's your room — use it, but let's use it to a good advantage. Remind the 'rascals' there is a heavy fine for the destruction of State property.

Knutzen Entertains Glee Club At Tea Room

The Men's Glee Club was entertained at the Gingham Tea Room last evening by Mr. Norman E. Knutzen, director of the organization. President F. S. Hyer and Dean Steiner were guests of honor.

In connection with the social side of the evening, plans were made regarding further appearances of the group. There is evidence that the group will make appearances in some of the larger high schools in this vicinity.

A compliment always passes for more than its face value.

A SUGGESTED PROGRAM FOR THE RECONSTRUCTION OF PUBLIC EDUCATION IN WISCONSIN

The Council on Education of the Wisconsin Teachers Association submits the following statements of policy regarding public education for your consideration. These statements are based (1) upon the fundamental principle that education is a function of the state. This is expressed in Article X and repeatedly reaffirmed in statutory provisions and by Supreme Court decisions. (Educational leadership with its power to affect the common welfare is a social trust and must be administered for the common good.) We have a social obligation to remonstrate when the welfare of children is jeopardized.

State Support Of Public Schools

The people of the state are committed to a policy of providing free public schools on both the elementary and secondary level. Since education is primarily a responsibility of the state, we urge as vigorously as possible state financial support up to 50% of the cost of the public elementary and secondary schools.

State Support Of Higher Education

We maintain that the state supported institutions of higher education are an essential part of a system of free education and should receive full and adequate support and confidence.

Federal Aid For Education

We support the principle of federal aid to states for educational purposes.

Priority Of School Taxes

Since education is a first responsibility of the state, we urge the reenactment of section 74.15 which will reestablish the priority of school monies in the distribution of local tax receipts.

Fiscal Independence

We re-assert our belief in the fiscal independence of school boards.

Change In Tax Base

We believe that the base of taxation for the support of public schools should be shifted from property to a more equitable measure of ability to pay. We believe that inheritance taxes, which are the accumulations of wealth created by society, should be held in trust for public education and not dissipated in current expenses of government.

Better Schools For Rural Children

We believe that the village and the open country should unite for school purposes wherever feasible, and where not feasible, the area of the taxing unit should be increased to make possible as fine a system of elementary and secondary schools for rural children as are now available in urban areas.

Part-Time And Evening Schools

We are for adequate financial support and the continuous development of the part-time and evening school system for both juveniles and adults.

Teacher Preparation

We support a four year course beyond high school graduation as a minimum qualification for teaching on any level in our state.

Teacher's Minimum Salary

We support a legal minimum salary base for teachers of not less than $100 per month.

The Necessary Modern Curriculum

We advocate for the public schools a curriculum adequate to furnish an understanding of the world in which our pupils will live. This will include as basic subjects music, art, physical education, home making, industrial and vocational education, as well as the more widely accepted school subjects.

Health Education

We advocate a continuation of health education in the public schools to include such health services as medical examination, school nurses, clinics, and nutrition.

Administrative Reorganization

We favor such a reorganization of the county and state systems of education as will result in a more effective administration thereof and better educational opportunities.

We stand directly in opposition to national groups which advocate fixing the limit of free public education at the elementary school level, and to leagues and alliances backed by financial and industrial leaders which are trying to emasculate the public school program to protect their wealth from taxation. We are unalterably opposed to any movement to place the burden of this depression upon the backs of little children. The recession or withdrawal of state support for the education of normal or mentally and physically handicapped children is an attempt to evade the social obligation of our commonwealth. We insist that public limit of free public education at the elementary school level, and to leagues and the development of school policies, the selection of teachers, and enactment of educational legislation should be determined solely upon their contribution to the common welfare.

NO JUSTIFICATION FOR FRATERNAL ORDEALS

The fraternity "testing" program has changed in the last few years, and it was about time that it did. There can be no justification for the so-called "hell week". It doesn't make "men" out of weaklings. Instead it breaks them down; it is absolutely impossible to administer courage, confidence, and self-respect by any number of beatings. As to the other angle, the humbling of those who are too cocky, it need only be said that again it is impossible to beat humility into anyone. And any brotherhood that exists to break men's spirits should never dare to lift its face in respectable circles.

There is no justification for fraternal ordeals, impelled as they may be by the best spirit of brotherly love. . . . If there is no reasonable justification for hazing in a brotherly fashion, why does it persist? The answer is simple, but in its frankness it is hard to face. Hazing persists because a certain element in the fraternities enjoy it. Some remember the day when they were on the other end of the paddle, and cannot bear to leave the books unbalanced. Others revel in the authority of the paddle. It is a fine game when one can command and be obeyed, even to his slightest desire. Then there is the gang who once upon a time hung around the benches in front of the village store waiting for a dog fight. For them hazing is just a little amusement. If it is not so amusing to the other fellow, so much the better. The laugh is bigger as a result. . . . There have been cases on this campus that almost resulted in death. All for a little fun that isn't fun. It isn't worth it, and the sooner the bloodthirsty brothers realize that the better.—The Lawrentian.

PIONEER FIGHT CARD APRIL 12; NO TOURNAMENT

Boxing Team Selected.
Train Regularly
For First Test

The elimination tournament schedule for tonight has been dropped, due to the fact that most students will be going home for the holidays. The college boxing team has been selected, however, and the men are working hard in preparation for the card at Platteville, April 13. Stanley Roshak, Lloyd Hayes, Charles Torbenson, Russ Beppler, Peter Zaborski, Alvin Zurfluh, Art Laabs, Web Bernard, Bruno Slotwinski, and Mickey McGuire are the punch-throwers who will carry the Purple and Gold as they invade the padded arena of the Pioneers.

Fight At Platteville

College fans will have a chance to see the team in action when a return match with Platteville takes place shortly after the meet there. Other matches between colleges are being scheduled, with St. Norbert's as the best bet.

This year marks the inauguration of boxing as an intercollegiate sport at Central State. The progress in athletics this school has made under Coach Eddie Kotal has not only brought us winning teams, but also a much wider distribution of sports than ever before in the history of the school. Kotal has been instrumental in the backing of boxing, tennis, track, baseball, volleyball, golf, cross-country running, tumbling, wrestling, and intramural games of all kinds. An athletically minded man ought to be able to find exercise and experience along nearly any line of work.

Wide Activity Range

The intramural and interclass tournaments give even the poorest players a chance for competition and exercise. Our institution has progressed rapidly along scholarship, athletic, and extra-curricular lines to such an extent that new fields are open to every mind and body. The opportunities at C. S. T. C. are certainly vast, and it does not pay to pass them all by.

The charity that begins at home doesn't make many acquaintances abroad.

Volleyball

There are a large number of college women out for volleyball. The tournament will be entered by five or six teams, one of which is an entirely "Home Ec" group of sophomores.

Tonight is the last night for the WAA movie benefit, a double feature showing Kay Francis in "Mandalay" and Wynne Gibson in "Sleepers East". Buy your tickets from the WAA's.

The annual volleyball tournament schedule is made out. The games will be played in both gyms on Wednesdays and Thursdays at 4 P. M. starting April 4th and running through the 19th. There are six teams, two Freshmen, two Sophomore, and two Junior-Senior. The tournament will be a round robin affair, the winner determined on the percentage basis. The members of the teams are:

BILL'S BULL

April 12 is the date set for the annual basketball banquet. Fritz Crisler, coach at Princeton, is to be guest speaker. Such an accomplished and well-versed speaker is a treat well worthy of our cage squad.

Tumbling is getting underway with Art Thompson as head tumbler and coach. Men working out are Jimmy McGuire, Charles Sparhawk, Bill Theisen, Leonard Scheel, John Wied, Art Kussmann, and Clifford Elliot. Coach Tommy plans to put on an entertainment in May.

Plans for the fraternity kitten-ball tournament will soon begin. Several of the fellows wanted to know if a certain Frank on the west side of town belonged to the Chi Deltas. He seems to have in his possession an article closely resembling the trophy won in last year's battle.

Meeting

At the monthly meeting last night plans were begun for the event of the year: the annual play day at which the WAA members are hostesses to girls of all the surrounding high schools within a certain radius. Following the meeting the group attended the theatre benefit.

Tennis Men Begin Drill Tourney Soon

The surest sign that spring is near comes when you see Maurice Skinner getting in shape for tennis. Workouts in the gym feature Skinny and his tennis racquette as he gets his eye in shape for the cement court. Plans are already underway for tennis tournaments to select the college team. Skinner, Cletus Collins, Arvie Gordon, Bob Neale, and Dick Schwahn are the veterans returning. Art Thompson was the only loss by graduation.

'33 A Poor Season

Last year the racquetters were not very successful in intercollegiate competition. Special practice periods are being considered to improve the games of the college stars. Possible doubles combinations are Gordon and Schwahn, and Collins and Neale. Every spring matches are held between colleges, climaxed by the state tournament. For the last two years this event has taken place here.

Several New Books Added To Library

By LOIS L. RAINER

Bridge, Ann. Peking picnic
355 p. $2.50, Little, 1932

An artistic novel giving a vivid and comprehensive picture of legation life in Peking. A group of sophisticated English, French and Americans make witty and interesting puppets for Miss Bridge. The author has a keen appreciation for Chinese life and land, and through her we see beauty in a landscape which has often been portrayed as arid and unpleasant. A delightful work through which the reader may gain much knowledge of Chinese life and customs.

Faulkner, Harold Underwood
Quest for social justice
1898-1914. 390 p. illus. $4, Macmillan, 1931

A well balanced treatment of American society of the years before the World War, with especial emphasis on the life of the common people. Prof. Faulkner has taken a heterogeneous mass of facts and organized them into an interesting story of the death of the laissez-faire system; the birth of the conservation movement; the labor and feminist movement; the concern of legislatures for child labor; and the turn of sentimentalism to realistic trends. An excellent panoramic view of American life from 1898 to 1914.

Hoskins, Roy Graham. Tides of life: the endocrine glands in bodily adjustment
352 p. $3.50, Norton, 1933

An up to the minute resume giving the latest developments of the endocrine glands and their functions. A firm believer in the future of glandular therapy, Dr. Hoskins has written with a conservative and critical mind an interesting and popular book on science without embroidering the facts, or becoming tiresome with a lot of incomprehensible technical terms.

Jung, Carl Gustave. Modern man in search of a soul
282 p. $3, Harcourt, 1933

A collection of lectures by a noted Viennese psychiatrist who sees the necessity for an approach to the spiritual side of man in psychotherapy. Jung makes an honest effort to synthesize his knowledge of the human mind into a new and modern philosophy. The reader isn't always positive whether or not the author is sure of himself when he discusses the importance of dreams; the original stages of life and the soul; or the magnanimity of man's spiritual problems; but all lectures are originally presented and arouse the student's mental curiosity.

BROADCAST

Dear Editor:

I know it's a little late for this letter to get to The Pointer. However, I cannot refrain from dropping this in the "slot".

Those seven hundred and fifty of us who nearly filled the auditorium to capacity tonight (Monday) to hear the "Petrie All-Star Quintet" certainly were well pleased with the program. Incidentally I might mention that of the many comments that flowed freely after the close of the program, I did not hear one that did not praise the entertainers. Our expectations were certainly lived up to, to the "nth" degree. President Hyer ought to make an effort to get the same company to favor us with an appearance here again next year.

There is another little matter that deserves attention too. The Men's Glee Club were very good in their initial performance. This is something new this year and deserves the unstinted praise of its many admirers. There are distinct possibilities of those men developing into a real, first class choir. Go to it boys! Everyone wants to see you continue the good work.

Harlequin Club New Amendment Drops Entry Bars

At a meeting of the Harlequin Club Monday night Professor Knutzen addressed the group in an informal and inspiring talk. Plans were made for a party to be held shortly after the holidays. A new amendment proposed by Bill Ringness was officially read into the constitution after being tabled for two weeks. This alteration will certainly be of interest.

New Requirements

Membership in Harlequin Club is now attainable by students doing outstanding work in speech classes as well as to those who have taken part in plays sponsored by the club. Activity in Harlequin productions, which hitherto has been the only method of gaining admittance, will admit only those whose work is deemed satisfactory by a unanimous vote of the club membership, according to the new emendation.

The amendment was adopted in order to affiliate the club more closely with other dramatic work in college and to offer membership to a greater number of people, which has become necessary due to the growth of the school in recent years.

A SECOND FAKE IS UNCOVERED FOR STUDENTS

Teachers Agency Is Termed Not Reliable. Students Should Investigate

The following information concerning an advertisement of a Teachers Agency of which has appeared in several of the Teachers college papers, a second graft within Teachers College circles in the past two weeks, was received the past week.

Post-dated Checks

As far as we can learn the procedure of the agency has been to buy good-sized space, offering post dated checks in payment, these checks being made payable quite some time after the advertising would be of the most use. The registration fee appears to be $3.00 if the candidate enrolls for either a summer or school year position, $5.00 if he enrolls for both, $3.00 each additional if candidates enroll in Department B, which is for people who wish to secure positions in the same city. The commission is 2%. This is quoted from the contract, "The XYZ guarantee to secure a good position for the candidate — with substantial raise in salary, if the candidate is now teaching — or it will, if the candidate requests a refund, refund all the money paid to the XYZ, including all the money the candidate paid the XYZ for photos. The candidate agrees to supply the XYZ with at least six good copies of his or her photo. Failure to do so within one week from the date of this enrollment will relieve the XYZ from all obligation to make a refund to the candidate."

Many Vacancies

Included with the letters sent to those who reply to their ad is a map showing the approximate number of vacancies annually in each state. 2,891 is the number given for Wisconsin. The ad states that "good positions" are plentiful now and that complete information will be mailed upon the receipt of a three-cent stamp. They also offer on their registration blank to pay $5.00 for each name suggested as a candidate as soon as a position is secured for this person.

How the manager got the data from Wisconsin is a mystery. Anyway it seems outrageous to take money on this basis.

Mr. Herriek made an announcement in Mass Conference Monday afternoon stating that all graduates interested in registering with a Teachers Agency see him as to the stability of the organization before doing so.

Say It Isn't So — that Evelyn Stephenson said men are just the opposite from guns: the smaller the caliber, the bigger the bore.

And then there was the bootlegger who walked all the way to the drug store to get some poison to kill the cat.

One family in town has moved so often that everytime their chickens saw a wagon, they'd cross their feet and wait to be tied.

Miss Jones can't understand why Francis Bremmer still comes late to biology class now that his girl has scarlet fever.

Art Kussmann said all a musician does for a living is play around.

One of our student CWA workers said he has eaten three yeast cakes but hasn't got a raise yet.

If you know Mish you'll agree that what the world needs is a good five "scent" cigar.

Madge Griffin stated that one reason why girls are naughty is because they get the shingle in the wrong place.

One of our professors spent some time figuring out why several of our students are so absent-minded and then he forgot the answer.

Sam Kingston said golf is about the only thing that depreciates above par.

The only thing that's more popular than the "silver coach" with the college students is the allowance check from home.

Ed. Jarvis said his home town, Laona, is so small that they painted "Come Again" on the back of the "Welcome" sign.

We understand Celestine Nuesse was proposing to "one" of his coeds on the way home from the dance the other night and then was stopped abruptly on the corner of Main and Division streets.

A few of the college boys can't see what's right under their noses. If they could, a lot of mustaches would be shaved off.

Time will tell—unless the gossips beat it under the wire.

MILWAUKEE

Lowell Thomas, well known adventurer, writer, and lecturer, spoke on "International Phases of the Present World Tangle" at an assembly program at Milwaukee Teachers College. Mr. Thomas needs no introduction to readers, as he is a well known radio reporter on a national chain. He is well prepared to deliver his message as he has travelled extensively in the United States, Europe, Alaska, the Arctic, Arabia, and many other countries. (From the Echo Weekly, Milwaukee Teachers College).

DE PERE

"Denying that they circulated petitions of any kind in the De Pere elections, the Independent Democrats, College Students, who entered city politics ten days ago and dropped out three days later in obedience to their superiors, are today definitely out of the political picture.

"The campaign, which started as a bulletin board joke, and grew into a serious attempt to file nomination papers for a complete ticket of 14 candidates, held the interest of De Pere for over a week, and had state newspapers telephoning the college at all hours of the day, especially during the last week-end." (From The St. Norberts Times, De Pere, Wis.)
