PHI SIGS TAKE 1st HONORS IN HOME-COMING PARADE

Homecoming Draws Unusually Large Number Of Old Grads Home

Homecoming was certainly a success. The score was against us in the game, but events proved to all those present that C. S. T. C. is still a champion.

The spirit, the true spirit of homecoming that had brewed over a period of time while we all wondered about our football season, spilled over for the first time Friday night, when a great part of the school met in the Auditorium and literally raised the roof with its pep. The Freshman in the audience were easily spotted when the school song was sung but all strove to add to the song on later choruses. A pep talk was thoroughly enjoyed by all; a pep talk by that most peppy of faculty members herself, Miss Mae Roach. After the rousing session indoors, the whole group rushed to Schmeekle Field, where a huge bonfire blazed, and then scattered toward town in the form of an exuberant snake dance.

"Tune In" Tunes Tuned To Tickle Tunefully Attuned

Talented Cast Practices Nightly For Presentation

Tune in on the dreams of the cast of "Tune In", and you'll probably be hearing some throaty chuckles and catchy melodies. The chuckles arise from the innumerable funny situations that come up in the opera and the melodies are from the songs of the production.

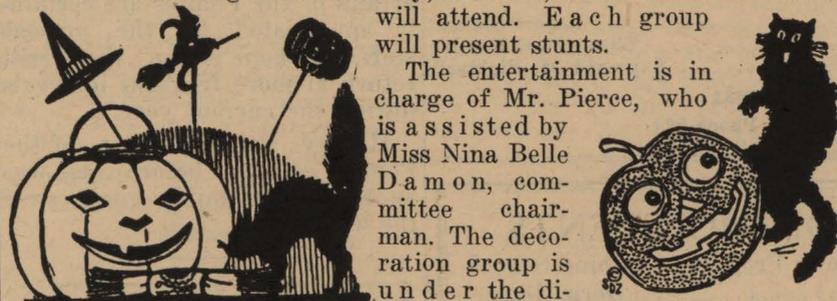

At any rate the cast of "Tune In" has been practicing assiduously, and their final effort should certainly be something to which to look forward. Don't forget, Wednesday, December 4, is the date. The program will be presented in the evening. As there may be some competition with other events in town, plan now to attend this annual debut of the glee clubs.

Hallowe'en Program To-Night

The training School Hallowe'en Program with thrills, spills, and chills is scheduled for seven o'clock this evening at the gymnasium. All of the Training School faculty, students, and student instructors will attend. Each group will present stunts.

The entertainment is in charge of Mr. Pierce, who is assisted by Miss Nina Belle Damon, committee chairman. The decoration group is under the direction of Miss Hanson, assisted by a student committee, headed by Miss Ruth Switzer. Doctor Lyness will see to the refreshments. Miss Norma Truesdale and her committee will assist.

In the main program events Arba Shorey will supervise the "guessing games"; Mr. Ray Ehlert, Miss Florence Knope, and Mr. Ernest Sturm will direct the stunts of the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades respectively. George Simonson will be in charge of the various contests. Judges for the contests are Miss Hansen and Miss Carlsten. Miss Dolores Skarweski will be musical director for the evening's program.

Fraternities - Sororities Report Record Turnouts Last Weekend

'35 HOMECOMING BRINGS OLD GRADS BACK IN LARGE NUMBERS FOR GALA OCCASION

Homecoming is always eagerly anticipated by the Greek organizations for it brings the alumni back to renew old acquaintances and to revive the dear old days, gone but not forgotten. Pardon my waxing sentimental, but ye society editor hasn't talked so fast or furiously, or shaken so many hands, or enjoyed herself so thoroughly, as last Saturday night at the Hotel Whiting, where the sororities held their annual alumnae banquet.

Sororities Entertain

Among the alumnae of Omega Mu Chi sorority who were entertained at a 6:30 dinner were Shirley Webster, Artensia Horn, Lolita Week, Alice Martin, Dorothy Brys, Helene Waterman, Helen Bunker, and Dorothy McLain. Other guests were Mrs. Palmer Taylor and Miss Edna Carlsten. Also present, were all the active members of the sorority and the pledges.

Tau Gamma Beta sorority reported that they had the largest alumnae turnout in many years. At the banquet were Lois and Margaret Richards, Elizabeth Neuberger, Helen Weber, Mary Agnes Boyle, Margaret Reading, Lucille Scatt, Maybelle Peterson, Velma Scribner, Margaret Turish, Bonita Newby, Gennette Beggs, Jean Mailer, Viola Hotvedt, Olga Leonardson, Charlotte Atwell and Audrey Wehr. Special guests of the evening were Mrs. E. T. Smith and Miss Jessie Jones.

Fraternities Entertain

Chi Delta Rho fraternity welcomed back its alumni at a banquet, held at the Gingham Tea Room, 6:30, Saturday night. The returning members were Art Laabs, Donald Duggan, Jim Turish, Willard Hanson, Douglas Robertson, Weldon Leahy, Sam Kingston, Dick Schwahn, Wilson Schwahn, Frank Klement, Nolan Gregory, Bob McDonald, Elmer Larson, Bill Cashin, Art Kussman, Marlowe Boyle, Tom Holliday, and John Murat. The faculty members, Mr. Allez, Mr. Knutzen, and Mr. Rightsell were also present.

The doors of the Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity house swung wide open to welcome back their returning delegation,

Those who returned to the fold were Celestine Nuesse, Art Nygard, Harvey Polzin, Guy Krumm, Asher Shorey, John Collins, Cal Swazee, Neal Rothman, Pete Peterson, Alex Krembs, Alvin Buege, Richard Marshall, Gerald Olson, Harry Rickman, Sam Bluthe, Jack Weid, Orlando Johnson, Rounds Metcalf, Sidney Keener, and Charles Aldrich.

In place of the usual banquet, a pow wow was held at the frat house, and, judging from the reports, a hilarious time was had by all.

College Instructors Will Attend Meet November 7th-9th

School Closes At 4 o'clock Wednesday Afternoon

Both college instructors and students will share a two day holiday next week when the Wisconsin State Teachers meet in annual conclave in Milwaukee Nov. 7th-9th.

MUSIC

The first mass music demonstration of the year took place Tuesday afternoon in the College Auditorium. Aside from the high quality of the performance, of which more will be said in a moment, it was the most effective and significant arraignment of talent ever gathered in this college for a purpose of this kind in the memory of this writer. We can clearly remember the groups of several years ago and the area of difference in between is certainly clear enough to all.

GIRLS' CHORUS PLEASES

The girls' glee club under the direction of Mr. Michelsen, performed in three numbers as the entree of the afternoon's entertainment. When the call went out for them to assume positions on the stage and when they arose to go there, it left quite an area of seats vacant. The same thing was discernible on the other side of the assembly when the Mens' Chorus appeared. Another large and separate bloc of students made up the orchestra. Add to these the band and the numbers must roll up to about 200 musically interested students, at least. Many of these students are training intensively for musical positions on graduation.

MENS' CHORUS

The "Rose In the Bud" presentation by the Girls' Chorus was possibly the outstanding hit in this group. The Mens' Chorus, after the "Purple and the Gold" presented "Requiem", Robert Louis Stevenson's epitaph set to music, and the old English drinking song, "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes."

The orchestra was certainly very capable in "Tango," "Gems from Robin Hood," by Reginald de Koven, and "My Old Kentucky Home" fantasy and specialty number. The orchestral effects in these three numbers were evenly divided so that all portions of the orchestra shared at one time or another the "lead" if one may term it that, giving all sections an opportunity to show fine solo artistry.

MUCH INSPIRATION HERE

Unfortunately, all members of these units are not known to this writer, but looking here and there we could see any number of persons taking part whose duties elsewhere are also quite exacting, but who, for the love of the music they are so much interested in, insist on carrying extra loads in scholarship and in other extra curricular activities. These persons should be an inspiration to those who may now be hanging back, not determined as yet as to participation in extra curricular work. Could it be true, and it certainly seems to be when one sees performances of the type such as given yesterday, that it is really here that one secures the most satisfying, lasting and useful portions of his college education?

FORMER POINTER HEADS RETURN

The present staff of the Pointer had the pleasure of welcoming home Frank Klement, last year's Pointer editor; Howard Kujath, former business manager of the Pointer; and Elmer Ruh, circulation manager of the '34-'35 Pointer. It certainly seemed like old times to have these old friends back with us again if only for a day. Their kind words of advice and never-failing interest in the affairs of the Pointer are certainly appreciated by the present staff. Our hope is that they will return at more frequent intervals during the current year.

Harvey Polzin, editor of the Pointer of year before last was another homecoming guest over the week-end.

Editor's Mail Box

Pointer:

Who is the scholarly person who has no sense of music in his soul at all? How can anyone be so unmusical that he or she can't listen for a few minutes each day to one of the best flute players in the state of Wisconsin. When the aforesaid players limbers up on such a difficult number as the "Flight of the Bumble-Bee" by Rimsky Koriskoff, I think you ought to relax for a few minutes and listen to some real music. Music soothes, and you could do more afterwards.

In the future listen to some real music so you can recognize it when you hear it. This isn't a hot-cha-baby piece.

Signed

I. Squelch Sqawkers

Dear Editor:

It surely makes me sick to see the way most of them students around here act in their seeming "pursuit of knowledge". Do you ever see them "pursuing" any? When an instructor is unfortunate enough to forget to make an assignment, do you ever see them doing anything on their own hook? When they are asked to do a little outside work, do you ever see them use their own heads to try to find material to work with? And in their extra-curricular activities—clubs, and such like—do you very often see them doing anything on their own initiative—without the advice or suggestion of some instructor?

The whole keynote seems to be "responsibility". Despite all the aims of modern education, students (I should call them pupils) still come here from high school expecting to be coaxed along at every turn. I should think that if they have any ambition at all, they will try to pull themselves out of the rut.

COLLEGE RECEIVES GRANT OF GOVERNMENT FUNDS

Perhaps you have been wondering just what all the hammering, moving, and repairing about the building is for.

Through the efforts of President Hyer, the local college was given a government grant to make and improvements necessary on the campus and buildings. The work is being done under W. P. A. Project No. 8.

—New Offices—Rooms Changed

One of the first improvements made was in connection with the construction of two new offices on the third floor. Dr. Glover and Dr. Reppen are to occupy the new structures.

The shelving and cabinets have already been changed from the music room on the third floor to its new location on the second floor and in the basement.

Main Building Gets Most Attention

The main building is to receive the most attention in that it gets a new coat of paint on the roof, an insulated broadcasting room, insulation in the band room, a complete repair and paint job in the library, repair on the masonry of the building, a coat of paint for the walls and ceiling of the auditorium and many general repairs in the basement.

John Sim's Cottage and the Training School will be given exterior painting. A number of improvements around the campus are noticeable. The trees have been trimmed and new "short cut" cement sidewalks make life easier for some students.

Nelson Hall will also be given a "break". All the floors will be given a shiny, new coat of paint and the building will be completely rewired.

Students Social Group Complete

During the last two weeks the final selections of representatives for the Student Social Committee were made by students of the various groups about school. The committee will have a meeting of the various groups about school. The committee will have a meeting in the near future to lay plans for action and then will be ready to settle and pass on all social questions that may rise during the remainder of the year.

The new student members and the group they represent are as follows:

- I. Greek Council President—Francis Bremmer
- II. Professional Organizations—Deane Gordon
- III. Religious Organizations—Lorraine Guell
- IV. W. A. A. and "S" Club—Maxine Miner
- V. Honorary societies—Doris Johnson
- VI. Nelson Hall—Jane Reedal.

Society Notes

Big treat!! An all school party is scheduled for Friday evening, and will be sponsored by the Loyola Club.

Students will be admitted free upon presentation of their activity tickets, and outsiders will be charged the usual price.

The Frances Atkin's Melody Maids will play. Think of it men, a bevy of beautiful girls to look at and listen to, for they really can play! They are well remembered and liked from last year, having played for the Sophomore party.

Knutzen Sings For Epworth League

Mr. Norman Knutzen of the C. S. T. C. faculty will present an evening of music for the meeting of the Epworth League of St. Paul's M. E. Church, Sunday evening, November third at seven o'clock. Thoburn Peterson will be the leader in charge.

At eight o'clock, following the regular meeting, there will be a social hour. All college students and high school seniors are invited to attend.

Gamma Delta Gains National Recognition

Gamma Delta held its regular meeting last Wednesday evening (Oct. 22). Due to the number of members being absent, Josephine Oberst postponed her talk on her trip to Kansas until the next meeting. They were ranked as the "Beta Chapter" at the National Convention. The Washington U. at St. Louis was classified as the "Alpha Chapter", Stevens Point the "Beta", U. of Minnesota "Chi," Valparaiso, "Delta", and others.

All members are asked to be at the next meeting.

Sigma Tau Delta Meets

Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity, held its informal initiation in Mr. Burrough's room, October 24, at 12:30.

The following people have been elected to membership: Margery McCulloch, Earl May, Jack Burroughs, Greta Tetzler, Alesia Jones, Maxine Miner, Helen Wind, Millicent Wilson, Cecelia Falkowski, Doris George, and Margaret Miller.

Former Grad Visits Here

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Ihlenfeldt of Tisch Mills, Wis., drove 135 miles to attend the Homecoming celebration last week-end. Mr. Ihlenfeldt is a graduate of this college. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Urbanowski while here.

PARENTS DAY PROGRAM PLEASES 200

With the figure for the number of visitors to our school last week reaching nearly two hundred, Miss Colman this week expressed her high satisfaction with the event's success.

Under the direction of Roy Ehlert, the morning was spent in registration and in visiting classes. The bright spot of the afternoon was an interesting assembly held in the auditorium. The band played, Mr. Hyer presented a welcome speech, pleasant songs were sung by Joe Pfiffner and Kirkwood Likes, and Rev. Robert Gordon entertained with a very witty and sparklink speech. The whole program was enjoyed by everyone present.

Distant Visitors

Among the list of town's registering visitors we find such far away cities as Waterloo, Iowa, and Chicago. Other towns on the list are; Portage, Washington Island, Mellen, Northland, Dorchester, Tomahawk, and a host of others.

A large number of student-accompanied parents attended the tea sponsored by the Home Economic department. Barbara Fulton and Hazel Blech poured.

WESLEYAN DEFEATS POINT, 7-0

LONG PASS HANDS POINTERS DEFEAT IN FINAL GAME

Fourth Period Score Nullifies Point Great Goal Line Defences

Illinois Wesleyan scored a touchdown late in the fourth quarter to defeat Central State Teachers College football team 7 to 0 in the Pointer's annual homecoming classic last Saturday. This marked the first reverse ever suffered by a Point team on Schmeeckle field. Captain Benson, of the invaders, drove through left tackle for the score after a long pass had placed the ball on the Pointer one yard line. Stevens Point threatened on three different occasions, but each time lacked the necessary punch to score. Illinois Wesleyan chalked up eight first downs to Stevens Point's twelve.

They Shall Not Score!

Wesleyan kicked off with a slight wind at their back, to Johnston, who returned twenty yards to Central State's 35 yard line. On the first play Johnston cracked through right tackle and fumbled, Wesleyan recovering. The Bloomington lads began a steady march toward the goal and finally made a first down on the Point's one yard line. Here the Kotalmen exhibited a great goal line stand and took the ball on downs after Wesleyan had not only failed to gain but actually lost several yards. A few minutes later Wesleyan started another drive after intercepting a short pass on the Point's 25 yard line. Kreps, on a reverse, circled right end for seventeen yards and a first down on the Pointer's 8 yard line. The Point line braced again and took the pigskin on downs after a fourth down pass was broken up.

Half Halts Scoring Threat

Stevens Point made its first threat in the second quarter. Johnston intercepted a long Illinois pass and returned twenty yards to Wesleyan's 35 yard line. Zurfluh's short pass was intercepted almost immediately. The large homecoming crowd received quite a thrill at this point when Ted Menzel recovered a Wesleyan fumble in midfield, after which Al Zurfluh fumbled on the next play and Wesleyan regained the ball. Bucholtz returned a Wesleyan punt to midfield, a runback of fifteen yards. Zurfluh's pass to Nimz gained the Pointers a first down on the 32 yard line. Two line plays gave the Pointers a first down on Wesleyan's 20 yard line as the half ended.

Chartier Gets Going

"Red" Chartier, injured shoulder and all, was inserted into the game in the third quarter along with several other replacements for Stevens Point. This period was mainly a punting duel with Chartier having a slight advantage over Kaska of Wesleyan. "Red" also reeled off several short gains around the ends and was a constant threat to break loose at any moment.

Wesleyan Scores

There was action aplenty in the fourth quarter. After a beautiful Wesleyan kick had sailed into the end zone the Pointers began a sustained drive up the field. Chartier and Johnston alternated in carrying the ball to Wesleyan's 27 yard line. Wesleyan was equal to the occasion, however, and took over the ball on downs at this point. Wesleyan failed to gain on the succeeding play but Miller, Point center, was penalized 15 yards for unnecessary roughness. This gave Wesleyan a first down on their own 44 yard line. Captain Benson of Wesleyan then shot a thirty yard pass to Kaska, who was finally pushed out of bounds on Central State's one yard line. On the first play Benson smashed over left tackle for a touchdown. The Illinois Wesleyan captain also booted a placement between the uprights for the extra point to make the score 7 to 0 with six minutes to play.

Point Nearly Ties It Up

The Pointers wouldn't give up yet though. Al Zurfluh returned the kickoff to his own 30 yard line and the Point began another march. Johnston and Zurfluh cracked the line for several short gains after which "Johnny" passed to Ted Menzel for a first down on Wesleyan's 43 yard line. Another pass, Johnston to Hitzke, placed the ball on Wesleyan's 18 yard line. Zurfluh, in three plunges, picked up another first down on the 8 yard line. The desperate Wesleyan line broke through and tossed Zurfluh for a loss on the next play. Three passes were unsuccessful and Wesleyan finally took the ball on downs on its own 20 yard line. The game ended after the next play.

SPORTS SHOTS

WESLEYAN 7; POINT 0

A long forward pass cast a dark shadow over our homecoming. That toss presented Illinois Wesleyan with a 7 to 0 victory over the Pointers. However let's forget about that pass and that score. Let's just remember those two splendid goal line stands put up by Kotal's men in the first quarter. How those linemen dug in and battled! At one time Wesleyan couldn't push the ball over from the one yard line in four attempts. We should remember our football team of 1935 by those brilliant defenses of the first quarter. A break gave Wesleyan the ball deep in Point territory on the first play from scrimmage. The entire period, it seems, was spent on the Point goal line.

But the gang, their backs to the wall, really got together and pushed their heavier opponents back time after time. What does it matter that Wesleyan finally did score on a long pass late in the game? Ted and his mates showed the grads they could fight against heavy odds after a most disheartening season. That's what our last impression of this year's team should be... a picture of the gang down on that old goal line repulsing drive after drive and never giving up hope of victory.

Intense Rivalry

To say that the rivalry between Stevens Point and Illinois Wesleyan is keen would be putting it mild. Note, if you please, that little incident of the second quarter Saturday. Don Johnston, Point halfback, fell into the Wesleyan bench after making a hard tackle. An over-enthusiastic reserve swung at the Point safety man and Don immediately retaliated

F. Menzel Unable To Play

Kaska, Wesleyan fullback, and Chittum, halfback, were the outstanding players on the Illinois team. Captain Ted Menzel played a fine game for the Pointers as did Red Chartier, Sparhawk, Bernard, and Lowecke, a reserve guard. Frank Menzel, regular Point end, was unable to see action due to a broken nose suffered during last week's practice. The game was the last on Stevens Point's abbreviated football schedule.

The line-ups:

| Wesleyan | Stevens Point |
|-----------------|-----------------------|
| Eberley | L. E. Olson |
| Osborne | L. T. Copes |
| Rasmussen | L. G. Sparhawk |
| Brault | C. Weingartner |
| Pitcher | R. G. Slotwinski |
| Yurecie | R. T. T. Menzel |
| McMackin | R. E. Berard |
| Cochrane | Q. B. Bucholtz |
| Kreps | H. B. Johnston |
| Wallick | H. B. Unferth |
| Kaska | F. B. Benson |

in similiar fashion. Quick action by the officials and other players prevented further activity of this sort. No doubt, in the heat of the game, the Wesleyan substitute lost control of himself for the moment. Such an occurrence should not be permitted, of course. Athletic relations between Illinois Wesleyan and Stevens Point should remain friendly at any cost. Yet it is this writer's humble opinion that a show of the old fighting spirit does not do the game any harm if not carried too far.

The Guessing Game

During the past week fourteen of our choices were correct while we blundered on three. Our seasons total is 53 right, 16 wrong, and 1 tie, for a percentage of .768.

DEBATERS TO HEAR PROF. STEINER ON SUPREME COURT

PROFESSOR BURROUGHS' DEBATERS ASSEMBLE AT THREE O'CLOCK TODAY

The first regular meeting of the debate season was held in Mr. Burrough's room Thursday, October 24 at which time the general plan of the debate season was outlined. About twenty-five men and women were present.

Mr. Arba Shorey, a member of last year's team, was instructed to act as student manager for the present season by Mr. Burroughs. Mr. Shorey is preparing a tentative schedule of debates for the year.

Debate Schedule Complete

Teams to be debated this year are: La Crosse, Dec. 7; and Eau Claire, February 1. The team will also participate in the St. Thomas tournament, February 28 and March 1 and 2; the State Oratorical Contest, Stevens Point, March 25; and the national Phi Kappa Delta debate at Houston, Texas in April.

A number of students will have an opportunity to enter the pre-season debates at Eau Claire and La Crosse. Whether you make the team or not these practise debates should prove most helpful and interesting.

Debaters To Bring Questions

It is the policy of Mr. Burroughs to have a number of meetings during the early part of the season conducted by members of the History and Political Science groups. Mr. Steiner has consented to conduct the first general discussion concerning the Supreme Court. Each debater is instructed to bring a number of questions to the meeting.

Novitiates who were not able to attend the first meeting, be sure to report in Mr. Steiner's room to-day at three o'clock.

CORRECTION

An error was made in the Pointer of October 10. Mr. Waldo Marsh is not teaching at Hawkins, as stated, but is a teacher and coach at Marenisco, Michigan.

Mr. Marsh, a former basketball star, has recently announced his marriage sometime ago to Florence Fulton of this city. He celebrated his third anniversary October 23rd.

RADIO AMATEURS IN LAST BOW

Last Monday ended the series of "Amateur Contests" which have been the feature of the College "Radio Hour". This program was well attended in the college "aud", but remember there are always room for more.

Francis White and his orchestra made a splendid showing with their tuneful melodies, which included "No Other One", a brand new tune "Lazy Bones Got a Job Now", and others.

The "Play of the week" was the well known "Silent System", a clever skit well presented by Beatrice Leahr and "ye master of ceremonies", Jack Burroughs.

New Talent Shows Well

The final amateur contest brought forth some new delightful talent. The winners of Monday's contest will be announced in next week's Pointer. Those who appeared were "Joe" Pfiffner, Norman Hinkley (of operatic fame), Martin Kraus, and Gerald Doherty. The appearance of Gerald Doherty brought to light a new lovely tenor voice which was really music to the ears. Watch him... you're going to hear more from this boy!

Last week's honors were taken by "Gid" Carswell, according to the judges decision, but it seems that the audience did not agree with this selection... for according to the notes which have been coming in, they picked Joseph Praulx as their choice. Both will appear on the final contest next Monday.

Be sure to be in the auditorium Monday at 3:30 to see the show.

Francis White and the "boys" (including Schwingel) will be there to give you the best in music, and you also will be able to help select the final winner. Sound inviting?

PHI SIGS WIN

light Saturday morning when the various organizations about school each contributed a highly interesting float. Phi Sigma Epsilon was awarded first place for their float, a novel one depicting a hair-raising execution of Old Man Illinois Wesleyan. Second place went to the Training School and honorable mention was given to the float of Sigma Tau Delta. One of the funniest floats was the Chi Delt Circus wagon. Certainly there must be something in Darwin's theory; no one can doubt it after seeing Oscar Copes in action inside the cage. The judges were Mesdames Huffman, Kidder, and Marrs.

Dance In Evening

The climax to the day was a very fine dance held in the New Gym, where the old and the new mixed and had a good time.

Mr. Evans, Chairman in charge of homecoming, was well pleased with the day. The response was general and of an excellent character considering the short period of time. He said, however, that he wished that in the future, floats would represent college ideas and have an appeal rather than a high artistic beauty though no designation has been made as to the types of floats to be entered in the past.

And so, another homecoming passes into history.

Smith Named To Education Body

Professor Ernest T. Smith of the Central State College faculty has received notification of his appointment to a state educational body formed for the purpose of studying small high schools.

E. T. Smith

Mr. Smith has accepted the appointment and will take part in the deliberations of the new committee at the Hotel Medford in Milwaukee on November 8th during the Wisconsin State Teachers convention.

When questioned by a Pointer reporter in regard to whether the members of the committee would study consolidations of schools. Mr. Smith replied that the newly formed unit would probably take up finance, curricula etc. Full details will be available in the November 14th issue of the Pointer.

The owner of a midget car drove to a filling station and asked for a pint of gas and two ounces of oil. "Okay," said the attendant. "Now would you like to have me sneeze in the tires?"

The time limit for having these pictures taken has been set at Nov. 23, so please do not put it off but attend to this immediately. Before going to the studio, be sure you have obtained an application blank from Mr. Rogers' office. Do you believe in love at First sight?...

Society Ed. cogitates

You embarrass me, Mr. Editor. Who am I to commit myself. I'm just trying to think how many millions of men I have fallen in love with, if an attraction to some handsome face was to be interpreted as the "grande passion". Nope—there ain't no such animal. Bill Larson says he wants to talk now—I think he knows more about it anyway—

—Barbara Joy

Second Look?...

Oh, I used to believe in love at first sight, but then I learned to take a second look after getting stung a few times, and even then one is never sure. I have certain standards or qualifications that my boy friends must come up to: they must have dark hair and eyes, weight about 150 or so, must dance divinely, have time for three dates a week, must have good imagination, preferably a car, and not talk about the weather all the time.

—Elizabeth Madden

We Know what you mean...

Oh, this is too thrilling, what I mean, you want me to really say what I think about it all? I believe that when one really meets one who feels the same way that one does about another, then one has something that just goes "pphht" inside of one, you know?

—Betty Hahn.

First Formal Band Concert Soon

The band has been practicing for its first formal concert of the 1935-36 college year, and the date for the event has been set for Thursday evening, November 14.

Although the numbers on the program have not yet been definitely decided upon, the general divisions have already been made. The first part of the program will be devoted to more serious numbers, such as the overtures and classical selections; the last half will be taken up with solos, trios, quartettes, novelty numbers, marches, etc. A more detailed schedule of the program will appear in the Nov. 14th issue.
