

GIRLS PLAY HERE SATURDAY

Science Open House Draws Large Crowd

The second annual Science Open House, sponsored by Zeta Chapter of Sigma Zeta National Honorary Science Society, was attended last Friday by approximately 250 high school students of central Wisconsin. Maxine Miner, chairman, and Mr. Rogers, faculty advisor, were pleased with the splendid turnout.

The main feature of the day was a very interesting lecture by Dr. Luther Gable on the "Cosmic Ray". Dr. Gable is a celebrated scientist noted for his work on radium treatments.

The Science department wishes to thank those who cooperated with them in making the affair a success. Due to the splendid turnout, Open House will be held again next year.

SIGMA TAU DELTA ANNOUNCES WINNERS

First prize in the Sigma Tau Delta short story contest was won by Helen M. Wind, with her story "For the Children's Sake". Second place goes to William Clements for "Out of the Frying Pan", and third to Genevieve Marcoux, who wrote "Puppets of Fate".

Members of the fraternity wish to thank the contestants and the judges, Mr. Allez, Miss Roach, and Mrs. C. C. Evans. One of the judges remarked that the winning story was like a picture of human nature lifted out of the author's experience.

Surprisingly, two of the judges, without consultation, chose the same stories for the three prizes, so there was no question as to the winners. The three prizes will be awarded at the Class Day exercises.

Goldsmith Play Occurs Tuesday In Auditorium

Professor Leland M. Burroughs' speech class will present "She Stoops to Conquer" in the College auditorium on Tuesday, May 19th.

A great deal of time has been spent in practice and the play should be delivered in a finished style. There will be a small admission charge to defray the cost of forensic awards.

High School Girls Meet Here Saturday; Varied Program Of Athletic Contests, Dances Feature Day's Activities

College Campus To Be Women's Athletic Group Scene Of Colorful Assemblage Host To Wisconsin Valley Visitors

COMMITTEES COMPLETE PLANS FOR SATURDAY ENTERTAINMENT

"Play for plays' sake" is the motto of all the high school girls who will attend W. A. A.'s Play Day on May 16th. Stevens Point, Merrill, Amherst, Wisconsin Rapids, and Rosholt have already accepted the invitations sent out by W. A. A.

Games Begin At 10:00

The girls will register in the east hall of the college at 9 o'clock. After being conducted to their rooms by W. A. A. hostesses, the guests will dress and go directly to the new gymnasium. Here, when they have met each other, the color teams will be organized. Each team will be taken care of by a W. A. A. team-leader, who will be its guide for the remainder of the morning.

At 10 o'clock a small band will lead the girls out to the field where they will play such games as baseball, volleyball, cageball, and line soccer. In case of rain, the following games will be played in the two gyms; volley-ball, cageball, batball, and dart base ball. Individual games—tennis, archery, horseshoe, pingpong, and deck tennis—will be run parallel to the team games. At 12:30, the color teams will compete in relay races.

Luncheon At 1:15

Luncheon will be served in the Dormitory dining room at 1:15. Rita Murphy, chairman of the luncheon committee, will have the tables decorated with miniature swimming pools and bathing beauties. Mrs. F. S. Hyer, Mrs. E. T. Smith, and Mrs. H. L. Huffman will be guests at the W. A. A. luncheon.

Dancing At 2:30

Graduate Services Occur Soon

Commencement week will extend this year from May 31 to June 5th. The Baccalaureate service, with an address by Rev. Dydvig, will open the period at 2:30 in the afternoon, Sunday, May 31. Following the address, President and Mrs. Hyer will hold a reception at Nelson Hall.

Monday and Tuesday, June first and second, are final days for the second semester's examinations. A band concert has been scheduled for one of these evenings.

The Annual Class Day Exercises, at which awards for different activities about school are to be given out, will be held on Thursday, June fourth, in the afternoon.

DR. AMESBURG TO SPEAK

Commencement will take place at 10:00 o'clock on Friday, June fifth. Dr. Wallace Bruce Amesburg, former professor of literature at Armour Institute, will be the commencement speaker. After the address, the various degrees and diplomas which have been earned by the graduates will be awarded.

The final event of the week and of the school year will be the dinner at Nelson Hall at noon for graduates, alumni and friends.

The results of the contest which was sponsored in connection with this event were as follows: Nature division, first prize, Bob Vennie, second prize, Sam Cress; in each of the other divisions, however, the story-telling, action, and still pictures, all the prizes were covered away by Harold Sorbye. The judges were Miss Davis and Mr. Neale.

The committee in charge of the picture contest were Bob Vennie, Cliff Malchow, and Bill Fisher. This group, on behalf of the Photo Club wishes to thank all those who contributed pictures in the animal contest. Anyone wishing his pictures returned may call for them at Mr. Roger's office. Prize winning photos will not be returned.

The Martyr Of Molokai

The Pointer has not attempted on many occasions to secure the attention of its readers through the publication of editorials. Occasionally, however some things arise which we feel should be called to the attention of our readers, and the transmission of which is best effected through an editorial.

We refer to the recent death of Father Damien. There is a great deal of lip service being paid to the cause of humanity these days. The downtrodden are being courted from a number of directions. It is extraordinary how these obviously "grand-stand" efforts will cling to the headlines as the real thing. It is equally extraordinary that so many genuine humanitarian efforts for far-reaching good fail to find the front page until the benefactor is dead. A moment of thought will suggest many such figures to the reader's mind. The Pointer reprints the following editorial exactly as it appeared in the Escanaba Daily Press recently.

Father Damien

All that is mortal of Father Lucius Damien, a few handfuls of leprous dust, is being returned from Hawaii to Belgium for final interment, while the extraordinary record of the man is considered by the Church authorities in the matter of his canonization. No one will disagree that if there ever was a saint on earth, it was Father Damien.

On the little island of Molokai near Honolulu, several hundred lepers, natives of the Hawaiian islands, drag out a living death. From time to time others are searched out in the island group and sent to Molokai, and this will continue until science finally discovers the cause and cure of leprosy, a loathsome and still incurable disease.

Into this living hell went Father Damien, of his own free will and accord. Molokai was without benefit of clergy until his arrival, and he was not detailed by his superiors for the gruesome job. In the spirit of Christ he came, and lived, and ministered, and died.

It was Father Damien's custom to dress the sores of the sufferers, to help them till their little gardens, to live as one of them. On week days he said Mass, and on Sundays there was a Mass with a sermon. The latter invariably began with the words: "My brothers and sisters."

The day came when Father Damien stood before his little congregation and addressed them thus: "My brothers and sisters and fellow lepers." It must have been an agonizing morning, the first of many for priest and congregation alike, heralding the beginning of the end for Damien. He labored faithfully until the end, and for him there has been and will eternally be a great reward.

No one can read the story in his entirety without a shudder and a thrill,—yes, and without a hope and a prayer that the Almighty will bless the memory of Father Damien.

Orchestra Prepares Fine Concert Program

The College Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Professor Peter S. Michelsen, has been preparing a delightful program for some event during Commencement Week. Among the numbers is the famous "Barber of Seville" Overture, by Rossini. Another highlight of the program will be the very difficult and beautiful piano solo "Capriccio Brillante" by Mendelssohn, with orchestra accompaniment. Miss Margaret Miller will be at the piano.

Omega Mu Chi Dance At Wausau Saturday

Keeping up with traditions the Omega Mu Chi Sorority will again hold its Spring Formal at Wausau on Saturday, May 16, at Hotel Wausau.

The Omega and their escorts will have a banquet at 6:30. The guests and chaperones for the occasion are Pres. and Mrs. Hyer, Mr. and Mrs. Rightsell; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cashin and Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Taylor.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the sorority.

College Welcomes President Hyer In 1930; Coach Kotal Selected As Coach Here; Pointer Assumes a Modern Aspect

By Ruth Nason

Within the last ten years the Pointer has steadily improved the quality of its news. There were livelier write-ups and more of the news events about school were covered. Although the make-up of the paper has not changed recently, it is noticeable that during the "boom" years the staff had a larger allowance, resulting in more illustrations. One page in a 1929 issue pictured different views of Central State.

Just a few years ago, aeronautics began to influence the student body. Several aircraft companies had recognized the opportunity for sales among the college students. In January, 1929, our Pointer ran an article, regarding scholarships at the Alexander Aircraft Company of Colorado Springs. In over seven years, the student body has not modernized to the extent of flying about to and from school or about the campus, and Mickey still rides a bicycle and Joe still runs his Austin.

TRAINING SCHOOL BUILDING ERECTED

The erection of the Training School Building was now of prime interest to all of Stevens Point. The planning begun under President John Frances Sims in 1925 and continued under President Baldwin in 1928 was culminating into a beautiful building where conditions were favorable for learning and teachers could gain a grasp of their profession under conditions most conducive to rapid progress. The efforts of the State Architect, Mr. Arthur Peabody, were most influential in accomplishing this unifying ideal.

JUNIOR PROM IS INAUGURATED

And here's orchids to the Junior Class in 1929! They were the inaugurators of the first Annual Junior Prom. Before this time, the Juniors had held annual class parties, but the all-school formal was new in the school's history. The gymnasium was decorated as an old-fashioned garden. With holly-hocks, cherry-blossoms, a quaint old-fashioned well, and rustic gates describing the scene, the party must have been beautiful. "Ray Jacob's orchestra, and Rasmussen's orchestra from Wausau, furnished the music for the evening." (What—two orchestras?) Mr. Mott and Miss Jones chaperoned the party.

ARNOLD MALMQUIST SUCCESSFUL

One of the former Pointer editors had already successfully pursued a journalistic career. In March 1929, Arnold M. Malmquist was becoming recognized as a writer. He was in the employ of the Kenosha Evening News. In addition to this journalistic work, he contributed to various magazines.

NATIONAL SCIENCE CHAPTER INSTALLED

Sigma Zeta fraternity was completely organized on November 20, 1929. The former Science Club was dissolved and affiliations were taken over by the National Fraternity. Prof. Schmeckle, Rightsell, Evans, and Watson were officers. Misses Jones, Meston, and Allen also held offices. The high standards of the organization are still being upheld. Its activity was well-illustrated in last week's "Open-House".

PRES. HYER BEGINS TENURE

The September 25, 1930 issue of the Pointer carried the story of Frank S. Hyer's being engaged as President at Central State Teachers College. He had been president at the Whitewater State Teachers College for the past eleven years. Before accepting the position at Whitewater, he had been Director of our Training School. He had made a fine record at Whitewater, and was heartily welcomed by the student body, the faculty, and the towns-people.

COACH KOTAL IS ENGAGED

Coach "Eddie" Kotal was engaged soon after President Hyer's appointment. Our athletic committee was indeed fortunate in obtaining Kotal, and his record as an athlete and his work here as a coach proves him an outstanding man in the athletic world.

Several other important changes have been made in our faculty since that time. Some unfortunate losses have been mourned.

At sometime or another it is necessary for everyone to decide what his or her life's work is to be. Earle Cooper, at present a buck private in the National Guard, has made known his aspirations for becoming a Major. (at least)

Ike Walton has quite a number of followers in C. S. T. C. Both instructors and students are counting the days until they can start out for that certain hole. Good Luck! (You'll probably need it.)

A number of people are growing curious concerning Schwingle's consistent patronage at Hannon-Bachs. Come on, 'fella', make it public.

C. S. T. C. has dressed up its athletes. The new jackets and sweaters, given as awards, are good looking and the men seem to be justly proud of wearing them . . . and the other non-athletes members of the student body are gnashing their teeth at the monopoly of the fair sex, due to the new jacket sweaters.

Webb Berard, the scrapping Chi Delt, proved last Monday in the Greek soft ball game that he can dish out home runs as well as lefts and rights.

Rurals Sponsor Evening Assembly

Each year the Rural Life Club tries to provide a program to which it invites the professional organizations of the other divisions and the faculty. This year they have been very fortunate in securing as their entertainer William R. O'Neill, a bass-baritone soloist from Chicago, who will appear in a song recital next Monday night at 8:15 in the College Auditorium.

Lead in "Carmen"

Mr. O'Neill comes highly recommended by those who have heard him. He has appeared in many programs in Chicago and last year sang the leading part in the opera "Carmen" in Milwaukee. The young man is a student in Chicago and is using a part of a short vacation to come to Stevens Point for this occasion. He is a brother-in-law of Mr. Likes, president of "Rural Life". Miss Helen O'Neill, an alumna of our college, and Mr. Kirkwood Likes will act as accompanists. They will entertain with instrumental numbers.

Rural Life invites the college students, faculty, and friends to come to this meeting.

NELSON HALL NOTES

Many of the Dorm girls report a grand trip to Minneapolis with Miss Carlsten's Art Appreciation class. They left Friday noon and returned Saturday night. Saturday morning they toured the city, then went through the Art Institute. The afternoon was spent in shopping.

Friday afternoon the State High School Home Economics Clubs held a joint meeting in the recreation room. A style show was presented by the 7th, 8th, and 9th grades of the Training School for their entertainment.

Mother's Day was observed in the Dorm on Sunday. Mrs. Finch received a beautiful bouquet of tulips.

Miss Barb Fulton spent the weekend in Appleton and Oconto.

Training School Holds Exhibit During Art Week

This week is Art Week at the Training School. The new gym is decorated with many beautiful reproductions of masterpieces. Much interest in the display has been shown by training school students and by students of the college art class. Seniors should take advantage of the exhibit.

Rooms 101 and 102 are filled with creative art work done by the grade students. Each grade from the third to the ninth has some interesting work of art on display. The display is open to the public until Friday at 5:00. A small admission is charged.

On Saturday morning, for Play Day, there will be an exhibit of handcrafts in the college art room.

SCRIMMAGES HELD DAILY DURING THE SPRING GRID PLAY

Kotal Shifts Ted Menzel Into Backfield Along With McGuire

Scrimmages have been the daily menu during spring football practice for the past week as Coach Eddie Kotal continues to send the gridders through their paces in an effort to get a line on his material for next fall. During the past three weeks more than a score of pigskin hopefuls have been working out from 3:30 to 5:00 after school, assimilating knowledge of the various phases of the gridiron game.

LIST OF CANDIDATES

MENZEL AT FULL

Coach Kotal is trying out something new this Spring in that he is using Ted Menzel, all conference tackle for two years, at fullback. Ted is quite fast for the big fellow that he is and no doubt would be a bearcat on defense. He cracks the line hard and low, picking up extra yardage by sheer drive. How Ted would perform at his new position under fire is problematical, but at any rate he would more than uphold his own defensiveness.

McGUIRE IN FORM

Incidentally, local fans can expect a lot of ground gaining by Jim McGuire next fall. "Mick's" injured knee has regained its old time strength, and he will do plenty of ball-carrying for Kotal. Don Johnston and Al Bucholtz complete the regular backfield as it looks this spring.

ONLY THREE LOST

It is hoped that between thirty and forty grid prospects will report so as to make spring football a success. Also, Kotal desires only those to come out for practice who will stay out during the entire spring training period. Kotal plans on running practice for a period of three or four weeks. Only three members of last years team will be lost through graduation so the field should be sprinkled with veterans Monday afternoon. The men graduating are Frank Menzel and Wilbur Berard, ends, and Don Unferth, half back, Bob Broome, center, and Tom Benson, fullback, are not in school this semester, but both plan to return to school next fall.

Almost two weeks of spring football has passed, but as yet

Chi Delts Defeat Phi Sigs Twice; Near Jug

Third Game Of Series Will Be Played This Afternoon At 5:00

Chi Delta Rho fraternity won the opening game of the interfraternity series from Phi Sigma Epsilon by the narrow margin of 7 to 6. A thrilling last inning rally by the Phi Sigs netted three runs and barely missed tying the score. With Anderson on third carrying the tying run and nobody out, Steiner retired Krembs and Dregne on pop ups and slipped a third strike past Hotvedt to conclude the struggle. Steiner's wildness kept him in hot water constantly, the portsider issuing nine passes. However, with the aid of ten strike outs, he was able to escape trouble in all but the third and seventh frames. Storandt, right handed flinger of the Phi Sigs, weakened toward the finish and was replaced by Dregne in the sixth stanza.

LEAD ATTACK

Francis Bremmer was outstanding for the losers with two singles and a pass in four trips to the plate. Maier, with two hits and a couple of walks and Unferth with a pair of singles and a base on balls, featured in the Chi Delts' batting attack.

Score by Innings:
Phi Sigs . . . . . 003 000 3—6-6-2
Chi Delts . . . . . 310 012 x—7-9-1

CHI DELTS WIN AGAIN

Chi Delta Rho made it two straight Monday night when they scored an easy 14 to 1 victory over the Phi Sigs. "Wild" Bob Steiner hurled hitless ball throughout the game, but a pass followed by an error enabled the Coach Eddie Kotal is far from pleased with the number of athletes reporting for practice. Monday night the boys spent a brief period in punting and passing; this was followed up by a game of touch football. Kotal had hoped to have a scrimmage but because only a handful were in attendance he was unable to do so. Among those on hand for practice were Captain Oscar Copes, Ted Menzel, whom Kotal may transfer into a fullback next fall, Jim McGuire, Fred Nimz, Charles Booth, "Red" Miller, Jim Harding, Joe Grady, Charley Burch, and Inman Whipple.

WHERE'S THE OLD SPIRIT?

Incidentally we might mention that Ron Murray, a three year regular who will graduate this June, is out on the gridiron every evening in football togs. Surely if Murray, who has completed his years of competition, can report for practice voluntarily more of the fellows who hope to make the team next fall should report for the short, snappy spring drills. The Pointers won the title in 1933 and 1934, but past records won't win any games in 1936.

DON'T MISS IT TODAY

The third game of the series will be played at 5:00 on the College football field. The Phi Sigs, weakened in their last appearance by the loss of Anderson, star fielder, will again be at full strength. Should the Chi Delts win, the series will be over and the Chi Delts would retain the Jug this year.

Score by Innings:

MISS TILLESON WRITES . . .

I am in Elko, Nevada, teaching in one of the grandest high schools. The weather is great here this morning. It is just like a summer day although the mountains encircling the town are covered with snow.

Nevada has a reputation for being an outlaw state. Maybe that is why I took this position, because I don't like to conform either. But I find the young people here no better or worse than in other states. I like them very much.

I have charge of a library that has 3,000 books in it and I teach a World History class and a class in Freshman English and I must say that I enjoy the work.

My days are very busy and I never have four consecutive hours to myself until Sunday afternoon, as I have a knitting class on Saturday afternoon, a library class Saturday morning and a Sunday School class and church Sunday morning.

I have just got in a consignment of 125 new books, among them "The Woolcott Reader", "North to the Orient", "Around the World in Eight Days", Frank Floyd Wright's "Lectures on Architecture", "My Country and My People" and many other copies that I can hardly wait to explore more thoroughly. I just wanted to name them to show you that the boys and girls read and are interested in a varied assortment of subjects.

The boys and girls come from ranches 100 and 150 miles away and live in town. This is a County High School and there are 264 students. The boys athletic teams are usually called Buckaroos. Although these young people live in the west, they like stories by Will James best of all.

Some of their colloquial expressions are:

Where is he at?
Does he work out?
Does he work in?
Does he work up?

Elko County has 1700 sq. miles in it. It is as large as Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, and Connecticut. This town is about a mile high.

There are three school buildings, the Main building, a dormitory, and the gymnasium and auditorium. Our band is the best in the state, but at the state tournament, only 15 bands compete.

Good luck to you all. I wish that I could be back for commencement this spring.

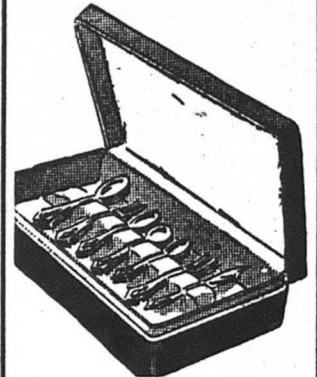

RUBY D. TILLESON

In the Pointer mail is a letter from Miss Ruby Tilleson, a former instructor here, now teaching at Elko, Nevada (address—245 Court St.). We are certainly glad to hear from a former instructor, as well as an old friend.

Mrs. Jones — "I had the most terrible scare last night. I heard a noise in the middle of the night and turned on the light. There sticking out from beneath the bed was a pair of man's legs."

Mrs. Smith: "Was it a burglar?"

Mrs. Jones: "Oh, no. It was my husband. He heard the noise first."

Looney — Who is your wife going to vote for?

Frown: For whoever I vote for.

Looney — Who are you going to vote for?

Frown — She hasn't decided yet.

A, walking down the street, came upon B whom he hadn't seen for twenty years. With B was a little girl of four years. B said "I've been married since we last met and this is my daughter." A asked the little girl, "What is your name?" The little girl replied, "It's the same as my mother's".

A said, "So your name is Margaret!" (How did he know?)

CASE OF SCOTCH

A Scotchman, well known in England, went with his wife to the Alps in Switzerland for a much needed vacation. One day the Scot and his wife left their lodge to climb a mountain. Late in the day the Scot returned with the story that his wife had fallen over the edge of the mountain.

In far off England a man read about the "accident", looked at the picture of the Scot, and knew at once that the Scot had killed his wife.

(How did he know?)

Davis — Did you have any luck on your hunting trip?

Randall — I'll say I did. I shot 17 ducks.

Davis — Were they wild?

Randall — No, but the farmer who owned them was.

The longer I practice medicine, the more I am convinced every physician should cultivate lying as a fine art. There are lies which contribute enormously to the success of the physician's mission of mercy and salvation.—Dr. Joseph Collins.

Marriage is a great institution, but I'm not ready for an institution, yet—Mae West.

The film producer thought he might be able to use the applying actor later, but there was no opening just then.

"If you want me at all," replied the actor, "you'd better put me on the payroll right now. There are several other companies after me."

"Yes?" answered the producer who had heard that remark before, "and what companies are they?"

"Well," said the actor, "there's the electric light company, the telephone company, the milk company, and—"

The producer laughed and the man was put on the salary list.—Christian Science Monitor.

G.O.P. Holds National Convention Here Next Thursday Evening!

MOCK "CONVENTION" HAS "DELEGATES" "STEAMED UP," PUBLIC INVITED

Lightbody Presides

Who will be the Republican nominee for the presidency in 1936?

Any one interested in that question will enjoy visiting the college auditorium on May 21, 1936 at 8:00 P. M. where a student presentation of a Republican National Convention will be in progress. The convention is sponsored by classes in American History. Edward Lightbody is Temporary Chairman of the National Committee. The Publicity Committee is headed by Jim Walsh. Joe Phiffner was selected Chairman of the Platform Committee. Faculty members lending assistance are: Mr. Steiner, Mr. Smith, Mr. Glover, Mr. Reppen, Mr. Jenkins.

On behalf of the loyal Democrats of the student body the Convention Committee wishes to make clear that no party feeling dictated the choice of Republican convention. It was felt, however, that because at present that party is out of power and because of the larger field of candidates more interest would result from a G. O. P. Convention.

Jenkins, who himself participated in a similar project while a student at Miami University. He states, "This mock national Republican Convention is being planned because we wish to give students an opportunity to see how a national convention is carried on. The Convention will be handled in regular form and should prove very instructive and interesting."

English Techniques Class Hears Practical Advice On Problems

Recently the group heard Professor Reppen in an educational discussion. The next meeting was devoted to "testing and testing measurements" by Principal Herriek of the Training School. Miss Florence Glennon of the local high school spoke on "Supplementary aids to English teaching." On last Tuesday Principal Jones of the Plainfield High School talked on "English problems of the Smaller High Schools." Soon the group will listen to Miss Burkhart, English instructor, and Principal Ira Painter, both of Wausau High School, who will discuss English problems of the larger high schools.

EFFORTS ARE APPRECIATED

The class greatly appreciate the opportunity of hearing practical, pertinent and timely discussions of this type. Professor Knutzen is to be congratulated both for the conception of the idea and for the choice of speakers. The class is much indebted to the ladies and gentlemen above named who have so kindly donated of their time and their past experiences, and look forward to more presentations of this type.

SPORT SHOTS

A WORD FROM STOUT

Ten years ago Stout Institute won the Normal School basketball championship by defeating Stevens Point. The Stoutonia, the weekly school paper at Stout has the following to say regarding Stevens Point's championship college cage five of this year: "Stevens Point is laying claim to all kinds of titles after sweeping through the southern conference and defeating River Falls, northern champs, twice. The Pointers boast of two all-state men from last years Teachers' college selections and two all-state high school men, one of them being Nimz, Wausau sensation. They are undoubtedly one of the strongest teams ever to be assembled in this conference. Stout did not play them this year."

PLATTEVILLE LOSES

Platteville Teachers college baseball team recently lost to the University of Wisconsin nine, 10 to 0. Starring this year with Wisconsin we find Roger Rhinehart, former Wisconsin Rapids high school athlete. His name is a familiar one to Stevens Point people due to his participation in basketball, and baseball against the Point several occasions.

"U" FOOTBALL GAME

Coach Harry Stuhldreher, (try spelling that name once), athletic director of the University of Wisconsin, has announced that he will divide his football squad into two teams for a game to be played on Memorial Day. This will mark the first appearance of a Stuhldreher team in Wisconsin and fans will watch with interest the introduction of the Rockne system.

A TOUGH SCHEDULE

Coach Ted Wheratt of Superior has made public his gridiron schedule for 1936. His team plays a tough eight game schedule, numbering among its non-conference opponents Hamline University, Kansas State Teachers college of Emporia, Kansas, Duluth State Teachers college, and St. Johns University.

FALCON ERRORS COSTLY

The River Falls State Teachers college baseball nine suffered a 14 to 3 defeat at the hands of the University of Minnesota, last year's Big Ten champions. Twelve errors by the Falcons played a large part in their defeat. A nine run attack by the Gophers in the sixth frame put the old ball game in the bag. Herkal, Wulf, Nystrom, and Blank of the River Falls basketball team were listed in the box score.

English Society Hears Journalism Discussion In Final Meet Of Year

The members of the National Honorary English Society, the Sigma Tau Delta, heard Miss Greta Tetzler and Mr. George Simonson discuss varied phases of Journalism in last week's May meeting at the home of Professor Leland Burroughs.

Practically a one hundred per cent turn-out heard Miss Tetzler trace the history of Journalism, while Mr. Simonson's remarks which followed discussed Journalism and its relative value as a course in high schools. The attitude of a number of authorities in the educational and journalistic field in support of the inclusion of Journalism as a full time course in high schools were cited as proof of the value of journalistic training as preparation for the modern mode of life.

Light refreshments closed the evening's enjoyable program. The society will hold its annual and final banquet soon.

College Graduates Are Successful Coaches In Forensic-Dramatic Work

This marks the third of our students who have been successful recently in dramatic and forensic work. Celestine Neusse (Antigo) produced a state winner in debate. At Oconto Falls, Earl Kjer coached the state play winner. All are graduates of Professor Burrough's speech department.

Mr. Styza was also honored recently by publication of an article in an English journal. The article dealt with high school paper subscriptions and promotion.

Forum Elects Officers In Annual Meet; Slate Proposed Is Rejected

Bill Theisen was elected president of the Forum last week at their annual meeting. Victor Kilmer was elected secretary-treasurer. The slate of officers drawn up by a nominating committee last October was ruled out and nominations from the floor resulted in the election of the above officers to serve the balance of the year. Mr. E. T. Smith is the faculty advisor of this group.
