Notice!

There will be no more Pointers this year. With this issue, the 1936-37 staff puts out its 30th paper, the number which is allowed for one year.

Iris Editor Announces Book Near Completion

By Cliff Malchow

The yearbook will soon be out. It is too early to say definitely as this issue of the Pointer goes to press.

Word was received last week from the printers that they would do their best to have the book here by Friday, May 21. However, the book has to be printed in two colors and is in very close register, so they could give no assurance that the book would be here by that time. In the event that the book does not arrive before Friday, the distribution will be held up until Thursday, May 27, due to the faculty's request that no books be distributed while final exams are in session.

The editor has received a message to stand by for a call to Dixon, Illinois, to direct the final activities in the printing of the book. His presence in Dixon will facilitate matters considerably. He will leave some time this week as soon as he receives word that all the type is set and the printers are ready to run the presses.

We sincerely hope that you enjoy the book as much as the staff has enjoyed putting it together. Watch the bulletin board for further announcement.

55 Placements Reported To Date

55 placements have been reported to date by the training school office as contrasted with 17 for the corresponding time last year. Although some of these are replacements, the list is unusually large for this time of year.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS!

Happy birthday, President Hyer, on your sixty-eighth birthday. We extend sincere greetings for the birthday you will celebrate next Friday, May 28.

Mr. Hyer has been a member of the faculty of this school for 22 years. He served on the faculty from 1904 to 1919, when he went to serve as President of Whitewater Teachers College. Returning here in 1930, he became president of the college. Through his efforts, C. S. T. C. is now a highly recognized and respected school throughout the northwest.

We wish you, President Hyer, the best of luck and hope your success will continue as in the past.

F. S. Hyer

IRIS REQUISITIONS

Quite a group of students has been talking lately about the Iris requisitions. The conclusion to which they have come is that an additional sum should be added to the student fees each semester so that the cost will be distributed more evenly. The proposed amount is $1.00, fifty cents of which would go to the Iris and fifty cents to the Pointer. The worth of these school publications is coming to be more and more recognized, and additional funds are needed to make them more valuable.

FLAT GRADUATION FEE

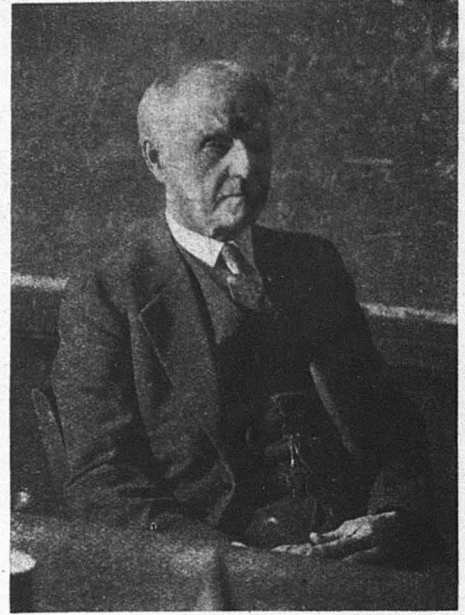

The seniors are coming to realize how much expense and worry graduation entails, and have been talking among themselves of changing the present procedure of having each of the costs of graduation paid for separately to covering them all with a flat graduation fee to be paid at the beginning of the second semester or even at the beginning of the senior year. This would enable the administration to plan exactly for each of the items that is known to be coming up and also would allow them to set up some sort of budget.

The fee could be made to include Iris pictures, application pictures, senior class gift, graduation announcements, cap and gown rental, and all the other expenses that come up.

Through the combined efforts of the present graduating class, some change could be made for next year. It seems impossible to editorialize the students of Central State into doing anything, but perhaps there may be a few juniors interested enough to ask the graduates about it.

Farewell, Dr. Collins

PAINTING IMPROVES APPEARANCE

The second floor of the main building of this college has certainly been improved by the painting that was done recently. Not only is it cleaner and brighter, but it also gives one the impression of being wider and longer. President Hyer plans to have the corridor on the first floor refinished between the closing of this season and the beginning of the summer session.

IN RETROSPECT

At the end of a year it is often well to look back and note one's progress. A college may do the same thing, particularly in the case of one which has enjoyed as much as Central State has, so perhaps a short review of a few of the outstanding points of progress would not be out of place at this time.

The fact that we have football and basketball championships goes almost without saying it seems, as long as Coach Eddie Kotal is at the helm. He "brought home the bacon" again this year, as usual.

The music department has been improved by the addition of much new music and several valuable instruments. Prof. Peter J. Michelsen just completed his successful music festival, in addition to a well-attended band clinic which was held early this semester. Prof. Norman E. Knutzen and his Mens Glee Club just finished their 30th concert for this year last Friday night.

The College Theater just organized this year and managed entirely by students, has made itself the name of a successful and efficient dramatic organization, having given a number of well-polished presentations throughout the year.

Prof. Warren G. Jenkins, in charge of the stage in the auditorium, has developed a really fine switch board and lighting system. This is the first year that the stage has really been in a condition that approaches being properly equipped.

President F. S. Hyer has succeeded in having almost the entire building repainted and revarnished on the inside.

The forensic department, under Prof. Leland M. Burroughs, was very successful in turning out men and women who were consistently winning debaters.

The change in the manner of checking out books in the library has resulted in a very satisfactory saving. The students in this school can be thankful that the stacks are not closed, as they are at many other similar institutions.

Many unusually fine assembly programs were presented this year, some of the most outstanding ones being "Kryl and His Symphony Orchestra," Carlos De Vega and his Dance Ensemble, Richard Halliburton, Harry White, Doctor Gary C. Myers, Al Pridy, and Slim Williams. In all, more than 30 outstanding entertainment were given.

This is the first complete year that the letter system of grading has been in effect, and it seems to be working successfully. In general, it has served to make the higher grades harder to attain and has improved the standard of scholarship.

Central State was 3rd in placement of graduates among the nine teacher colleges with a rating of 81%. At this rate the campaign is proceeding very well, perhaps that number will be exceeded this year.

This year's Junior Prom was the most successful one ever held, both socially and financially.

Sigma Zeta Open House drew a larger crowd than ever before, as did the English and Home Economics Open Houses, and the W. A. A. Play day.

A fine broadcasting institute was

W.A.A. MEETS TONIGHT

There will be a meeting of the Women's Athletic Association tonight at seven-thirty o'clock.

All members must be present at the election and installation of officers will be held. Anita McVey of Omega Mu Chi sorority, the outgoing president will preside.

CLASSES VISIT RAPIDS

Mr. Knutzen's English Technique class and Mr. Allez's students in T. L. T. C. enjoyed a trip to Wisconsin Rapids Monday afternoon in the school bus. They observed the classes at the Lincoln High School in that city.

TAU GAM FORMAL A SUCCESS

One hundred and twenty-eight couples attended the Tau Gamma Beta Sorority formal held at Hotel Whiting Saturday evening, May 15. This highly successful party closes their social season of this year. Music during the dinner and for dancing was furnished by Charles Brinckley's band of Appleton. Pastel colored sweet peas and daisies matched the nut cups and made the tables very springlike. The sorority crest illuminated one corner of the dining room. The attractive dance programs were silver gray with rose colored cords with the gold crest on the cover.

Covers were laid for eighty. Chaperones for the evening were President and Mrs. Frank S. Hyer, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Kotal, and Captain and Mrs. Ferdinand A. Hirzy. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh L. Hoffman.

Dorothy Richards, president of the sorority, greeted the guests and introduced the other officers. Several of the men present were called upon to speak. President Hyer mentioned the changes in college customs during the 28 years of the sorority's existence and commended the girls for their fine cooperative and enthusiastic spirit throughout the year. Short humorous speeches were given by Mr. Smith and Mr. Kotal. Captain Hirzy was introduced as the designer of the sorority coat-of-arms.

RURALS MEET IN EAU CLAIRE

Twenty-five students, accompanied by Miss Bessie La Vigne and Miss May Roach, represented our Rural Life Club at the state conference in Eau Claire

Greek Activities

The Greek organizations are closing the school year with informal get-togethers before the summer vacation.

Omega Mu Chi sorority had "a swell time" at their picnic Tuesday evening at Robertson Park—Hot dogs and buns, lots of olives, and group singing were among the highlights of the evening.

The Phi Sigs are planning a get-together at Waupaca Lakes of Sunday, "purely stag" (Poor Jerry).

Chi Deltis are going to Lake Emily on Saturday for a "pre-lakes" party (We can't imagine what that is).

Seniors and transfers will be accorded fond farewells and summer meetings will be planned for although school is out, the bonds of the Greeks still keep plans for next year's activities formulating.

on Saturday.

The Rural Life Quartette, Gordon Cowles, Kirkwood Likes, William Clements, and Paul Hein sang at the luncheon. They pleased their audience so much that because of the many requests, they sang again at the dinner meeting.

Mr. Likes conducted one group in musical directing, and several of the girls acted as secretaries in various groups while all took part in the discussions on various questions vital to rural youth.

RURAL LIFE CLOSING YEAR

The Rural Life Club held the last meeting on its program for the year on Monday night, with Paul Hein, president, in charge. After club singing led by Gordon Cowles, Helen Jackson appeared in two tap dance numbers. In response to several requests Paul Hein sang two solos, both popular pieces.

The speaker of the evening was William Clements who spoke on "The Holding Company, A Menace to Democracy". He gave a fine explanation and illustrated the points he made by examples familiar to his audience.

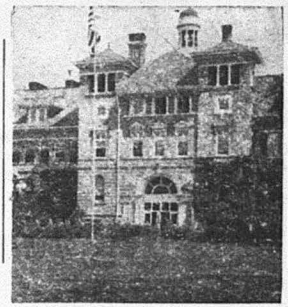

Another feature of the evening's program was a report of the State Collegiate Conference held at Eau Claire Teachers College last Saturday. This report was made by Genevieve Hamrick who gave a graphic picture of the meeting.

Miss Davis, Students Enjoy "Idiots Delight"

Twenty students, accompanied by Miss Mildred Davis, motored to Milwaukee May 12 to see Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontaine in the Pulitzer prize winning play, 1936, "Idiot's Delight." The group left in the college bus Wednesday noon and returned after the play that night. Sponsored by Sigma Tau Delta, the trip was adjudged a big success by all those participating.

The French Department of the University of Wisconsin is planning a program of French broadcasts for next year to be given once a week during the school day. It is their hope that such a series of varied programs, including short talks, simple dramatizations and musical selections, whose texts will be sent to the schools in advance, will enrich and vitalize the teaching of French throughout the state. A sample program will be broadcast over WHA on Friday, May 21st, at 2:45 PM.

Tennis Meet At Milwaukee

The tennis team is rapidly getting into condition for the state meet to be held in Milwaukee, May 28, Morris Skinner has already picked two of the men who will go along with him but he has not definitely decided upon the third player. Ernie Ruppel and Harold Dregne are the men who are assured of going to the tournament.

Everyone who has tennis aspirations should see Skinner before the end of the week so that he may choose the other man as soon as possible.

Sports Gossip

During the past week a number of Central State's softball players organized a team called the Independents and then immediately issued a challenge to the Chi Delta Rho team for a three game series. The winner of this series is, according to the Independents, awarded the softball championship of the school. The idea of another team entering the annual kittenball series is perfectly O. K. but, how do the challengers figure they can choose their opponents for the school title? The Chi Deltas were forced to defeat the Phi Sig entry before obtaining possession of the "Brown Jug". Why not have the Independents tangle with the Phi Sigs first and then, if they are victorious, they should be entitled to their proposed series. It may be a little late in the year to play all of the necessary games, but arrangements for next year might be made accordingly.

"S" Club Meeting Today, Thursday

The "S" Club will hold its final meeting of the year today, May 20, at 4 P. M. in Mr. Watson's room. Officers for next year will be elected and several important financial matters are to be settled. Alvin Bucholz, president during the past year, asks that all members please attend this last meeting.

Health Service Ends First Year's Work

As school closes for this year, it also brings the end of the first year of the Health Service with doctor, nurse, and a regular office in the building.

This year the school doctor, Dr. Fred A. Marrs, has given a physical examination to every student in school. He has given medical service to approximately 600 students a month who have come to the office to be treated, and he has also made home calls and calls at the dormitory.

More recently the Medical Department gave tuberculin tests to 331 students and those who reacted positively were given further checkups.

The success of this new department has all ready been noticed and the Medical Department has become a very well liked and much appreciated new institution. A good indication as to how other authorities consider it may be seen in the fact that at least two other colleges are adopting systems patterned after Central State's in the very near future.

13 Schools Represented At W.A.A. Play Day

Girls from thirteen of the neighboring high schools enjoyed the Play Day sponsored by W. A. A. last Saturday. High schools of Wausau, Wisconsin Rapids, Merrill, Stevens Point, Marshfield, Horicon, Wautoma, Antigo, Port Edwards, New London, Manawa, Amherst, and Waupaca were represented.

The weather man held off the rain until all of the games had been played and everyone was indoors. One hundred and eighty one people—including guests and W. A. A. members—attended the luncheon. The dining room at the dormitory rang with school songs and cheers. The Methodist Ladies Aid served the luncheon cafeteria style. In this way the girls were served quickly and efficiently. Guests at the luncheon in addition to the girls and their leaders were Mrs. F. S. Hyer, Mrs. E. T. Smith, Miss Susan Coleman, Miss Bessie May Allen, Mrs. Hugh Huffman, and Esther Hawks.

After an excellent creative dancing program given by both the college and the training school classes under the direction of Miss Beatrice Richardson, the guests left for home. Many college students and townspeople also enjoyed the dancing program. Miss Richardson's friends from Madison came down to see the program. Marie Odegard, who went to Central State Teachers College for the last two years and who is attending the school of dancing at Madison this year, was also here.

Coach Kotal, Central State's athletic director, has decided to enter a team in the State Teachers College track meet to be held in the Wisconsin Rapids fieldhouse Saturday, May 22. The track men have been working out for the last few weeks and are expected to make a good representation at the meet. The men who will carry Central State's colors are: Fred Nimz, high jump and discus; Charles Sparhawk, discus and shotput; Bjorn Christenson and Ed Bull, distance runners, and Don Johnston, pole vault.

Other prospects are working out daily and may be taken along with the team if they show enough promise.

Traffic Tests Given In Rural Assembly

Linus Gould, traffic officer from the state inspection bureau, conducted a test given in the rural assembly of the college last Monday to select two traffic officers for Portage County. The tests consisted mainly of questions as to traffic laws, but also contained a short intelligence test. 101 persons registered for the examination. The selection of these officers is turned over to the state by the counties in order to relieve any pressure that might be brought to bear on local committees. In this manner, the best men are selected, regardless as to their local political preferences.

Junior High Head Writes On J. H. S.

By BURTON R. PIERCE,
Principal of M. D. B., J. H. S.

Burton R. Pierce

The J. H. S. is not an educational fad. It is not merely a grouping together of 7th, 8th and 9th grade boys and girls. It is an attempt to solve two serious problems and unless it is an attempt to solve these two problems it is not a junior high school.

The first problem is that of bridging the gap between the elementary school and the high school. That such a gap exists is recognized in Wis. The changes which have taken place in the subjects-offered 1st year pupils and the substituting of others until the new members "get used" to high school is evidence of this. The J. H. S. attempts to solve this problem in three ways. First by including in the courses of the 7th and 8th grade elements of secondary education. A beginning of science, a beginning of algebra, a background for history, English and economics. These elements are included as they come in a natural setting. Thus by the 9th grade the pupils are started on their secondary career. Second, the J. H. S. seeks to develop the ability to study independently. Rather than to have the pupils solve so many exercises in arithmetic, the next chapter in geography or history, units and problems are studied. This makes the study purposeful. There is a reason for study. Study becomes more than an aimless memory process. It becomes purposeful activity. Third, the J. H. S. includes in its curriculum activities—the Jr. Council, the School paper, the forensic contest, inter-mural athletics, plays, programs, and clubs. These activities introduce the pupil to the activities of the senior high school and help him select those which are most suitable for him.

8th, 9th Grade Critical Period

The second problem is that of helping the boy and girl at the most critical period of his or her life. The 7th through the 9th grade period is the most difficult period. You who have had boys

In Retrospect . . .

(Continued from page 2, col. 4) held here recently, considering the importance with which education by air, has come to be regarded, it was a compliment to this school that one of the first meetings to be held in the state was held here.

The photography club has gone practically without mention throughout the year, and it certainly deserves much commendation. Few people realize how complete and up-to-date the dark room off the chemistry laboratory is.

The Mardi Gras celebration was the biggest ever this year. More organizations actively participated than ever before.

The Radio organization, consisting now of technicians, audition managers, program managers, talent scouts, etc., started out "from scratch" this year. Before long they had fine new equipment and proceeded to put out programs of which Central State can be proud. We now have at least four regular weekly spots on the air over W. L. B. L.

No student who has been to see the doctor once this year can have cause to complain about the cost of the new health service, and many can be highly grateful to it for saving them some large doctor bills. In general, the student health has improved immensely.

Finally, through a symposium which was compiled early this semester, it was proven conclusively that credits from this college are accepted unreservedly by other colleges and universities, if the grades are fair and the subjects have been chosen properly.

Undoubtedly many points of progress and advancement have gone unmentioned. If any have been omitted, it is only because there is not space to cover them. Another year will bring even greater achievements.

and girls pass through this period realize that I speak the truth that the 8th and 9th grade years were the most critical and determined or conditioned your boy's or girl's future years. School officials often discuss the "freshman" problem. The freshman of 9th grades is a problem. James M. Glass, an outstanding educator, points out that the reason for this is that boys and girls are unadjusted at this age. The 10th grade, he states, is the natural turning point and not the 9th grade. The J. H. S. seeks to solve this problem and does solve it because of the change in the attitude of the 9th grader due to the fact that he is the oldest member of the group in the J. H. S. and not the youngest as in the common high school set up. In one he is the leader with responsibilities; in the other he is the follower.

This is a critical period. It is the period in which the novel, the hero, the daring, the exciting makes its greatest appeal. Get your girl or boy safely through his 8th or 9th grade years and you have done much to make him or her what he or she will be.

We want you to see that our J. H. S. is not a fad. It is not an attempt to be different just to be different. It is a solution to an educational problem. It is an attempt to make the school serve

Award Dinner Honors Mens Chorus Members

An award dinner for members of the Mens Chorus will be held tonight at the Gingham Tea Room. Following the dinner the members and their girl friends will dance in the old gym.

At the dinner members who have belonged to the Club for two, three, or four years will be presented with keys. Only two of the 46 members will receive gold keys. They are William Theisen and Howard Pagankoff. Members entitled to silver keys for three years membership are: B. Larson, G. Cartmill, E. Westfahl, S. Groves, C. Hartvig, K. Likes, and G. Eyer. Those who will receive bronze keys for two years membership are: J. Laskey, R. Anderson, G. Cowles, G. O'Doherty, R. Dumpleton, P. Dumpleton, J. Murat, D. Colby, C. Rockefeller, F. Parfrey, B. Knox, T. Posluszniak, O. Pennington, C. Fonstad, D. Stoeger, D. Leiser, D. Kobs, T. Peterson, J. Steiner, and W. Hodsdon.

Guests invited to attend the dinner are President Hyer, Conductor Glockzin of the Appleton Macdowell chorus, Prof. Steiner and Prof. Rogers.

Club members last week elected officers for next year. John Steiner will succeed Kirkwood Likes as president, Gordon Cowles will succeed Calvin Rockefeller as librarian and Bill Larson was re-appointed business manager.

Girls Glee Club Elects Officers

Girls Glee Club officers for next year were elected Tuesday after the regular rehearsal. This year a new method of election was used. A committee composed of Thelma Knutson, Eleanor Theisen, and Jeanette Warnarski drew up a slate of candidates on which the whole club voted. The officers elected were:

President . . . Margaret Torkelson
Vice President . . . Lucille Bleck
Secretary . . . . . Jean Kopp
Treasurer . . . . . Jean Redemann
News Reporter . . . Eleanor Theisen

the needs of boys and girls at that period which is the critical period in their lives.

We invite you to visit our school. We would like you to understand that what we are doing is more than talk. We recognize the problems and are anxious to help boys and girls live, and plan to live the kind of lives that will be the best for them now and in the years to come.

Radio Notes...

The Norwegian National Holiday last Monday was given the spotlight on the "History and You" program. Dr. Tolo spoke relative to the occasion. Those who heard Dr. Tolo recite the words to the Swedish National Anthem in the Swedish language enjoyed a real treat.

Gary Willecke's question bee on Tuesday called forth more very original answers to questions prefaced by Gene Belongia. The students got in their last broadcast before the final exams.

Today the interview of Prof. Burroughs in regard to extra-curricular activities continues with Rosalie Timm doing the task of interviewing.

This is the last week of College Radio presentations. If you have any inclination towards participating on the radio program staff next year, see Gerhardt Willecke who will endeavor to organize next year's staff.

Omega Mu Chi sorority entertained the radio audience on Monday afternoon with fifteen minutes of music and dramatics.

Miss Evelyn Schwingel played her marimba over the air waves for a time. Miss Gene Connor presented the beautiful musical reading, "That Old Sweetheart of Mine" by James Whitecomb Riley. Their accompanist was Ula Mae Knutson. Ruth Nason, of the radio staff, announced the program.

Miss Phyllis Gikling arranged the entire program.

Stiebs attended the Rural Life Conference at Eau Claire Saturday.

Miss Gene Connor, Miss Rita Murphy, Miss Mary Lou Tenley, and Miss Virginia Gajewski attended "Idiot's Delight" Wednesday evening in Milwaukee.

Miss Avis Gherke sustained a foot injury Sunday night, and at present is confined to her room.

Spring housecleaning is on at Nelson Hall. The floor paint is dry; now the curtains are being washed. One interested observer answering to the name of Smith, states that the new floor paint is just the color of the kind grandfather used to paint the barn on the farm.

A collegian wants to know why dormites are like termites. Ask the Pointer editor elect. He knows the answer.

Several Phi Sigs who call at the dorm occasionally proudly announced that Jolly, the Phi Sig dog, is the happy mother of five puppies. Congratulations!

A few short weeks and co-eds will begin dismantling rooms at the Hall, as has been the custom for the past twenty-one years. Some of them will not be returning—yet once having made these walls their home they belong to that intangible sisterhood—The Girls of Nelson Hall.

Nellie wishes you all a Happy Vacation!

(Editor's Note: It has recently become known that Kathryn Becker is Nellie. She has been doing a fine and efficient piece of work. Thank you, Kathryn, for covering an important beat in this school.)

Music Department Has Successful Year; 37-38 Prospects Bright

Central State Teachers College Band has had, under the able leadership of Prof. P. J. Michelsen, the most successful year since it was first begun. It was developed remarkably in quality as well as in membership and equipment.

Although the college band has presented numerous concerts both in Stevens Point and in other cities, the three main events of the year were the tour, the band clinic, and the band festival.

The third annual tour that extended from February 8 to 12 included eleven cities in southern Wisconsin. The band was cordially welcomed at each city. At least 5,000 people heard the band play during the tour.

Between sixty and seventy bandmasters from throughout the state convened on February 24 for a band clinic. The college band presented a concert of numbers chosen by the visiting bandmasters. The main purpose of the clinic was for critical discussion on the interpretation of the concert numbers.

Thirty-four bands and three orchestras from towns surrounding Stevens Point participated in the 4th annual music festival held at C. S. T. C. on April 23. Concerts were presented all through the day. Piano, reed, and brass solos were also given. Short programs were broadcast over WLBB, both in the morning and afternoon. A large parade of all the organizations took place in the afternoon.

Victor Grabel, director of the Chicago Symphony and noted composer, was among those who visited the college band this year. He commented very highly on the excellency of the group and on its remarkable progress.

Instruments added to the band this year include the chimes and the marimba. A great number of new concert numbers was also purchased.

The band this year has surpassed all previous attainments. Mr. Michelsen has had a large number of musically minded students to choose from and has a fine group

The Mens Glee Club of Central State Teachers College has developed greatly under the capable direction of Prof. Norman E. Knutzen. This year, the most successful since the club was first founded, has been a very active one for the organization.

The club was first begun in 1933 when a small group of 26 men formed what was then called the C. S. T. C. Mens Chorus. That year the men made a one-day tour to Antigo and Rhineland. At the present time the membership totals nearly fifty voices. During this year thirty concerts have already been presented. Most of these were given outside the city.

The Home Concert on March 31 was attended by the largest "paid-admission" crowd that has attended a college sponsored concert. In addition to appearing at Oshkosh May 3 in the second meeting of the Wisconsin chapter of the Association Glee Clubs of America, the men are looking forward with much anticipation to competing in the Chicago-land Music Festival to be held at Soldier's Field, Chicago, August 21.

The fine support and encouragement given by President Hyer, the college faculty, student body, and the townspeople and the ability of the director and the men are responsible for the high ranking of this organization.

to work with. Not completely satisfied with a record year, he is looking to an even better season next year.

Student Opinion

To The Students:

Assessments of different organizations of the Iris have aroused considerable comment. From students who belong to several different groups this is in a measure justifiable. However, these people cannot unqualifiedly ask all students to pay the whole expense. The Iris consequently suggests that each enrollee pay an additional fifty cents to the amount now paid at the beginning of each semester.

The aims of such a plan can be clearly stated thus: First: It would not place an unjust penalty on any student who joins an organization, substituting merit for penalty. It is not intended to eliminate the entire assessment of the social or professional groups, but rather to make it very slight, with a fair distribution, and at a time when one is best able to pay. Graduates would not need to be asked for a large contribution when they have a great many other expenses. Second: The Iris staff could compile a better book. Although this would form a source of very slight additional revenue, it would enable the staff to definitely determine the amount allotted for publication and consequently it could organize a "penny-tight" system, giving you a better planned book.

Finally: Apportionment of space in the Iris could be made on a merit system. The number of students represented and prestige added to the school are just two of the things that should be considered, rather than ability of any group "to pay".

C U AROUND

Ain't hard to notice that this is the time of the year when all the twerps and twits hold down the old front porch a bit longer each evening—solemn vows of fidelity (concerning, you're the only one for me and such stuff) are being made by those who in but two weeks must separate for the summer months—much of the talk—when people talk—concerns the approaching vacation—the writer has interviewed numerous students as to what to do during vacation—there are some travelers, lots of working people, some students who can't get enuf and are going to summer school, and there are many who feel they have earned a rest and will spend their time partaking of tennis, swimming, riding, baseball, and other restful forms of recreation—among the Greeks the big thing is the week at the Lakes—much talk and big plans that add up to plenty of fun with all the trimmings—it is rumored that a couple of usually reserved Chi Deltis have once more resumed correspondence with Lawrence—will the Phi Sigs pole their canoes

With Memorial Day approaching, and with the poppy and forget-me-not sale starting soon, it would be proper that one look again at the cause for these events. A short poem of John Galsworthy's seems particularly applicable.

Valley Of The Shadow

By JOHN GALSWORTHY

God, I am traveling out to death's sea,
I, who exulted in sunshine and laughter,
Thought not of dying—death is such waste of me,
Grant me one prayer: Doom not the hereafter
Of mankind to war as though I had died not—
I, who in battle, my comrade's arm linking,
Shouted and sang—life in my pulses hot,
Throbbing and dancing! Let not my sinking
In dark be for naught, my death a vain thing.
God, let me know it the end of man's fever,
Make my last breath a bugle call, carrying
Peace o'er the valleys and cold hills forever!

Training School Holds Art Exhibit

An exhibition of Children's Creative Art is on display in the Training School Gymnasium Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. The subjects presented are creative design, art and history, athletics, metal tooling, soap carving, cartooning, weaving, finger paintings, clay modeling, and children's activities. All students are urged to inspect the work done by the Training School pupils during the past year.

Tips On Tomes . . .

During this school year, 1936-1937, the library has added the following to its circulation:

- 1,509 new books
- 223 bound magazines
- 43 government documents
- 302 clippings
- 157 pictures
- 56 pamphlets.

Many books are lost each year, so the library has homecoming day for books. Only about seventy books were returned. The library wishes that as many books as possible be turned in so that students in the future may use them.
