Dedication

To Him who sought for Liberty and Peace
With Sword in Hand,
And fell that we who live might bring to pass
In Freedom's Land
The Dreams and Hopes and Plans He knew.

To Him Who Fell, This Book we Dedicate
Where'er he Lies
That we may in our way, commemorate
His Sacrifice—
And pledge ourselves forever true.

To Those High Memories of Loyalty
He left Behind;
Take Up His Burden, Serve Humanity
With Steadfast Mind,
And Build the World He planned Anew.

Noted Educator And Speakers On Program

Miss Susan E. Colman head of the Primary Department at C. S. T. C. was elected president of the Wisconsin Kindergarten Primary Association at a meeting held at the Convention at Milwaukee last Wednesday. This Education Association is a state branch of the American Childhood Education Association. The purpose of this meeting of the organization was to discuss plans for the ensuing year. The program for the Teachers Convention consisted of a number of renowned educators and speakers. Some of these included Dr. C. A. Dykstra, President of the University of Wisconsin; Sinclair Lewis, famed novelist; and Lady Drummond Hay, international correspondent of England. Mr. Lewis was the speaker at an assembly Friday morning. In his talk he emphasized the fame of some of Wisconsin's most noted authors. Lady Hay gave a discussion of some of her interviews with famous European statesmen; among the people whom she has contacted and whom she described in her talks were Mussolini, Hitler, Kamel Pasha, the famous Turk, Mahatma Ghandi, and Haile Selassie.

Schoolmasters' Club Entertains Educators

The Central Wisconsin Schoolmasters' club will entertain at a banquet followed by a program and business meeting at Nelson Hall Wednesday evening, November 17. The affair is to be held in honor of Frank S. Hyer, retiring president of Central State Teachers college, and Ira Paynter, former principal of the Wausau High school.

Large Crowd Expected

Highlights of the program will be talks by President Hyer and Mr. Paynter and music by the college orchestra, directed by Prof. Peter J. Michelsen, and songs by the Mens Glee Club, conducted by Prof. Norman E. Knutzen.

Invitations have been extended to the wives of the members, and the largest crowd to attend a Schoolmasters' meeting is expected. The banquet will begin at 6:15. Professor Knutzen is secretary and treasurer of the organization.

Sigma Tau Delta Initiates Pledges

The formal initiation of Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity took place at Hotel Whiting Wednesday evening.

The initiation services were held at 6:00, followed by dinner at 6:30. The table decorations were in red and black, the fraternity colors. American Beauty roses, the flower of the society, formed the centerpiece.

The new members of the fraternity include Jayne Akins, Arletta Newhouse, Jean Dopp, Jim Walch, Alvin Bucholz, Tom Faucett, Eleanore Theisen, Ruth Smith, Grace Morgan, Thelma Baierl, and Miss Sue Colman, as an honorary faculty member.

The officers of Sigma Tau Delta for this year are: president, Alice Bentz; secretary, Kathryn Berher; treasurer, Rita Murphy; historian, Jean Redemann.

Ruralites Presented Exceptional Program

A splendid concert was presented Monday evening, November 1, at the Rural Life Meeting, by the East Moundville band under the direction of Kenneth Bartels, a member of the C. S. T. C. student body. The band was organized by Mr. Bartels five years ago. All of the pupils of the one room rural school were members.

Varied Program

Parents, school board, and pupils gave their whole-hearted support. Half-hour rehearsals were held every morning, sectional rehearsals once a week, and individual lessons were given after school. The band members bought and paid for their uniforms with money they earned playing for celebrations and picnics.

The band played a varied program of marches and overtures. Miss Mildred Hume, now a Junior in the Portage high school, presented a cornet solo and Miss Lola Audiss, a sophomore, played a clarinet solo. Many other members are now occupying important positions in high school bands. Mr. Bartels is to be complimented for this unusual accomplishment.

Other numbers on the program included: Club singing led by William Clements; several vocal selections by a mixed quartet composed of Alice Rodenceal, Margaret Torkelson, Gordon Cowles and William Clements; and a humorous declamation by Elva Turamley.

MISS HELEN HEIT TO SPEAK AT ASSEMBLY

Degree at the University of Chicago and has spent three years in Europe as a student of international affairs.

Miss Heit's special interest is in the field of public opinion. In this interest she has studied in Greece for several months before the Metazas dictatorship was set up, and she spent five months in Italy to find out how Mussolini makes Fascists and what he did to resist League sanctions to win the Ethiopia War.

Pres. Hyer Feted At Alumni Luncheon

The luncheon for alumni and faculty of C. S. T. C. which is held annually in Milwaukee at the time of the State Teachers Convention took place Thursday at 12:15 at the Schroeder Hotel. It was a very successful affair this year with ninety people present. Many classes were represented, some from very early in the history of the school.

Alex Peterson of the Stevens Point High School faculty presided in the absence of James Doolittle, the president, and Sam Moreau, the vice president. At the close of the luncheon he introduced Mr. Neale, who represented the faculty. He paid a sincere tribute to President Hyer who was probably attending the luncheon the last time as president of the college. He spoke of Mr. Hyer's great career as an educator in Wisconsin and said people do not ask "how many storms did you encounter, but how did you bring your boat to port?" He referred to Mrs. Hyer as an ideal wife for a college president.

Celestine Nuesse of the Antigo High School faculty spoke for the alumni in his own inimitable manner. He told about his learning the first week he was here that the students considered President Hyer "a regular fellow". Through four years of college life and since as an alumnus, he had learned first hand the truth of that judgment.

President Hyer responded by saying that his success was due in a large measure to the fine friends he had always had in faculties and student bodies. We heard several whisper that to have friends one must be a friend.

After spending about two hours together, those who were present seemed loathe to separate to attend various sectional meetings. It seemed old grads and faculty wanted to remain to visit. The presence of Miss May Rowe, formerly matron at Nelson Hall, was an added attraction.

Alpha Kappa Rho To Sponsor Concert

Members of the college concert orchestra are rehearsing numbers for a public concert to be given Thursday evening, December 9, in the college auditorium. The program will be sponsored by Alpha Kappa Rho, newly organized honorary music fraternity. Some of the numbers to be presented are: Selections from the opera "Happened in Nordland," by Victor Herbert; "Hungarian Dance V," by Brahms; "Minuet," by Paderewski, and "Valse Triste," by Sebelius. The Mens Glee club and the Womens Glee club will also appear on the program.

Sigma Tau Delta Enters 7th Year

Psi Beta Chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, national honorary English fraternity, was organized at Central State in 1930.

Professor Leland M. Burroughs, Miss Mildred Davis, and Mr. George C. Allez numbered among charter members of the chapter. Sigma Tau Delta members have always exhibited an active interest in literary production. Under the sponsorship of the organization authors and lecturers of note have addressed the college. Among these was Margaret Ashmun, alumna of the school. Each year the organization sponsors a short story contest open to all students. Members of the chapter also have in the past contributed to the national publication, The Rectangle.

Sigma Tau Delta ideals may be summed up in three words, "Sincerity, Truth, Design."

Prexy Hyer Lights Birthday Party Candle

October twenty-eighth College Theater staged its first birthday party. President Hyer lighted the one candle which graced the birthday cake. Mr. Jenkins, theater advisor, introduced the anniversary production.

Hyer Tells Experiences

Music was by Frederick Parfrey, president of the organization, lighting effects by Colby. Kathryn Becker, business manager, was in charge of script, while Phil Runkel passed the cider.

The address of the evening was given by President Hyer. In the course of his talk President Hyer admitted the club behind the scenes of his own dramatic experience from the time he helped construct stage scenery with hammer and nails, to the days when as college president, he planned the stage at Whitewater. Mr. Hyer then confined plans past and present for the dramatic future of our college.

Guests of the evening were Mr. Leland M. Burroughs, Mr. George C. Allez, and Mr. P. J. Michelsen.

Nelson Hall Notes

The Dorm was nearly deserted this week end when all but a few girls left for home or elsewhere. Among those visiting were Catherine Piehl, Ruth Smith, and Grace Morgan at Madison; Alberta Veeder at Milwaukee and Lake Geneva; LaNore Oleson at Chicago and Milwaukee; Anita Madsen at Baraboo, and Helen Preston at Milwaukee.

Lois Gene Peden had as her Friday-to-Sunday guest Miss Dolores Will of Chicago. Doris Davies of Wild Rose visited her sister, Margaret, earlier in the week.

Pupils at a school near Westfield welcomed back a former teacher when Irene Floeter substituted there for the past two weeks. She returned to Nelson Hall this past Monday.

Jayne Akins graduated from the Infirmary of Nelson Hall after spending a week there convalescing from an appendectomy.

Ruth Will is recovering from a serious eye injury resulting from an accident which occurred two weeks ago.

Ruth Behnke visited with Gladys Greve at her home in Brillion.

A Point'er To--

This column, which is to be published at least once, is to contain choice tidbits that are not quite suitable for news stories, editorials, society items, or sports hash. If you want it continued, or if you don't, please forward your communications to the Pointer office. Then too if you have any contributions, we'll be glad to use them, that is, of course, if they pass the board of inspectors.

Here's an item that we think should top the list. Did you know that there's a gal in school who's hung around here for four years and hasn't had a date with "anybody else" during that period. Unbelievable but true. He's attending school elsewhere and doesn't seem to get around often. Several of the boys have tried to break the resolution but thus far no one's had much luck. More power to her.... Gosh, we hope we'll never fall into the same rut as Len Olson finds himself. Jane's in the hospital and Ole would really be better off there too. He's useless around the old school now. Pop, at the Eat Shop, has also threatened dire things if Ole doesn't snap out of it soon.

Only the other night one of the college boys had a date with one of the college girls. The latter's pa and ma kindly consented to allow the young upstarts the use of the family automobile for the evening. When it was time to return home after the night's fun, the boy friend carefully drove the limousine in the garage, thoughtfully removed the ignition keys and slipped the padlock on the garage door. Unfortunately, however, he walked to his rooming house with both the car and garage keys in his pocket. The next morning her papa was due at the office at such a time and the only way he could get there without being tardy was by means of the automobile. Yes, he was late and we think daughter and friend will use the sidewalks from now on.

These college orchestra guys are causing some grave inconveniences. One chap in particular is testing the disposition of the girl friend to a treacherous degree. She's threatened everything from murder to calling up the "ex", but thus far everything is peaceful and serene, and she studies or something on his work nights. She's got him kinda worried though.... The fellow who wrote "You Gotta Be a Football Hero" knew what he was talking about, we believe. Margie seems to be renewing a deep interest in one of our gridders. Seems as though she should have hung on all the time.

Have you noticed the wings floating around school? They're really nice and they look serious. Maybe she has no intentions of pursuing a teaching career, even though she's regarded as "tops" over at the training school.... We don't think Cal Cook is exactly blind. We noticed lots of the boys looking twice when the Unitarian walked into the homecoming dance the other night. And we always regarded Cal as a man's man.... And the same night, at the same dance and for the same reason, Alice Bentz seemed to be enjoying herself immensely. There's one guy that should be back.

By the way, don't think that Zip and Jerry, the Bad, have identical program schedules. Jerry just walks to each class with her so that she won't forget where each one meets. Looked odd the other day though when the two of them walked down to the chemistry lab for Zip's class up on the third floor.... And in conclusion, what did you think of the class elections?

College Concert Band Plans Annual Tour

Plans for the annual tour of the C.S.T.C. Concert Band are nearing completion. The itinerary will take in towns in the Eastern part of the state.

The Big Apple!

The Big Apple! The dance that peeps up any party. Wherever college students gather. The Big Apple puts in its appearance. And its fun!

The dance is said to have been started last spring by a group of South Carolina college boys, who copied it from negroes in a night club called "The Big Apple". Since then it has swept the eastern and southern campuses, and, has now made its way up into the middle-west.

The dancers form a circle and begin with foot-tapping and hand-clapping. The cries of a caller direct them into almost any steps he can think of, which are a combination of "Truckin'" and the old-time square dance. Most of the steps are done in unison by all the dancers in the circle, but the caller may ask individuals to "shine" alone when they go to the center of the circle and do an original step.

The "Big Apple" is ideal for a school party, formal or informal, because any number of people may participate.

College Boxers Enter Tourney

Inman Whipple, Point's boxing coach, entered six of his men in the novice division of the Diamond Belt tournament held last Thursday at the local Armory under the auspices of the American Legion. Three of the men won titles and one other fighter received second place. Dan Young of Baneroft decisively beat Mike Senn of Marshfield for the light-heavyweight championship. Lewis Drobnick of Gleason got the nod over Bob Baker of Eagle River in the 145 pound class in his first fight, Walter Bretzke of Stevens Point won by default from Fay Sharkey of Mosinee, a former student of C.S.T.C. in the 135 pound division. Jack Taylor of Stevens Point lost a close bout to Paul Martin of Marshfield in the 125 pound class, Bill Miller of Stevens Point lost on a technical knockout to Bob Larson of Stevens Point in the 145 pound division and Larson lost to Drobnick in the finals. The loss was the first that Larson, who was a champion in high school, has ever sustained. He weighed 141 pounds to Drobnick's 150 pounds.

Since there was no one entered in the amateur division of the light-heavyweight class, Young, who fought as a novice, will go to Milwaukee November 15, to meet the champions from St. Norberts College and the Milwaukee sectional champs. The winners of these bouts will then go to Boston to meet an eastern team.

Kotalmen³ Defeat Oshkosh, 19-7

The Central State gridders won their first football game of the season last week by a score of 19-7. They defeated Oshkosh in a night game played in severe cold. The Pointer's offense clicked for the first time this season and their defense was also strong. The Oshkosh team never threatened the Pointer goal and their lone score came on a 73 yard run by Bieber late in the fourth quarter. The Pointer scores came on a fumble, a pass, and a run. Bucholz scored twice, one on a fumble and the other on a run from the 12 yard line. The other touchdown was made by Nimz on a pass in the end zone. The win put the Pointers in third place in the conference race.

Point Gridders Close Season

DeKalb Teachers College of DeKalb, Illinois, will furnish the opposition for Coach Kotal's gridders tomorrow at DeKalb in the final game of the season for the Purple and Gold. The DeKalb team is one of the most powerful in the Illinois Conference with Chester Davis, colored halfback, standing out as the individual star around which the attack is built. Davis is the boy who wrecked the Central Staters last year and is even better this fall.

Whitewater held the DeKalb team to a scoreless tie in the early part of the season and later went on to defeat the Pointers, which shows the comparative strength of the southern gridders.

Ray Weingartner, Gib Pophal, Edward Olsen, Al Bucholz, Jim McGuire and Ed McAllen will be playing their last game for the Central Staters. McGuire has one of competition left but is expected to graduate in the spring. All of these men are gunning for a victory to close their college career in a blaze of glory after a disastrous season.

Football Makes Stumble Bums

New York, Sept. 30—Football makes addled-brained stumble-backs of its players. That is the indictment leveled today against the nation's leading amateur sport by Frank Scully, noted author, who attributes his invalidism to the drubbing he took in school competitions.

Reporting the results of a survey he made of the leading players of twenty years ago, Scully declares in the current Liberty magazine that any of those who weren't killed in the World War either died from tuberculosis or are now addled-brained dim wits.

"After careful study I have come to the conclusion that you don't have to be a half-wit to be a half-back, but if you are a half-back long enough, you will be," he writes.

Scully relates a meeting with Charlie Barrett, former all-American quarter-back at Cornell and captain of the 1916 unbeaten team. Barrett was in the last stages of t. b. just before his death. "He told me," says Scully, "that six members of that championship 1916 squad have also broken down with t. b. Barrett's confession was the greatest mass indictment of varsity football I had run into up to that time."

But, says the writer, their fate was less pitiful than others whose brains could not stand the constant vicious jarring. He relates the experience of one Coast championship team: "Of the three stars in the backfield, all named on one All-American team or another, subsequently one broke his neck in his last season and therefore missed his chance of becoming a complete stumble-back; the second ended his undergraduate days by walking on his heels; and third was so punch-drunk from too much football that he could see no way out except playing more football, either as a professional or as an assistant coach."

Lawyer: Can you tell me if the defendant was expensively grabbed?

Rastus (a witness): Deed she was, suh, Ah knows spensive garbage when Ah sees it.

Mention "The Pointer"

Jim McGuire was bounced from the Oshkosh game last week for the first time in his college career... He has kept good rein on his proverbial Irish temper until he saw red against the Titans... Jim Duecker will be out for six weeks with his broken ankle... Which means he will be late in starting basketball practice... He is a guard... Chester Davis, the colored flash from De Kalb, will be behind the eight ball when the Pointers play them if the Central Staters have their way... He almost single handedly defeated the Purple and Gold last year... The six men who will play their last game for Central State Friday are planning on giving Coach Kotal a victory as a goodbye gift... McGuire may return to school next fall... He has one year of college competition left... It was so cold the night of the Oshkosh game that Charlie Kohls couldn't unbutton his coat when Kotal sent him into the game... Bill Loewecke played the entire sixty minutes against the Titans... He started at guard and was later shifted to tackle.

Benefit Movie To Be Given Thursday

The movie, "Abraham Lincoln" will be presented Thursday, November 18, at eight o'clock in the college auditorium. The showing is for the benefit of the Visual Education Fund and the purpose is to decide on a possible purchase of sound equipment for the college.

Student Interest Needed

The DeVry Co., the largest manufacturers of motion picture equipment in the United States, will have a regular sound projector and demonstrator here to demonstrate the highest type of 16 mm. sound equipment.

If the student body shows an interest and if the demonstration is satisfactory, the sound equipment will be bought for use in connection with class work and auditorium programs.

Outstanding Movie

The movie which is to be shown is one of the most outstanding movies of the past few years and has just been released on 16 mm. film. This is the first showing in Wisconsin.

If this equipment, which is being used in many high schools throughout the United States, is purchased, C.S.T.C. will be the first teachers college in the state to install such equipment.

Allez Speaks Of Armistice Day

Thursday, November 4, Mr. Allez spoke to the Plover Women's club on "The Significance of Armistice Day".

In his talk, Mr. Allez stressed the fact that Italy, Germany, and Japan have followed a plan of aggression which has been outlawed. He feels that they have found that they can get away with anything they attempt in the line of aggression without punishment from any of the Major Nations of the World.

On the other side, he spoke of the mellowing effects which the years have had upon the horrors of the World War. He believes that even the very men who fought in the war are likely to forget in the face of propaganda which has been released. The same forces which were at work in 1914, he feels, are working to arouse public sympathies and hatred today.

He thinks that we should not take the aggression of the offending nations lying down; however, he feels, on the other hand, we should not let propaganda color our views to the extent that we cannot see plainly both sides of the question of aggression.

Freshmen Break Into Limelight

This is American Education week. Worthy use of leisure time is one of the cardinal principles of education, as Juniors who have taken Miss Colman's Education course can inform you. How do freshmen spend their leisure time? A Pointer reporter resolved to observe National Education week by finding information on this vital subject. Freshmen have not been featured as much in the news as their upper class brethren. It was impossible to trail all freshmen, but the activities of some prominent freshmen have at length been brought to light.

They're Going Places

Miss Nancy Steiner, daughter of our Dean of Men, is busy as assistant director of College Theater's coming production, R. U. R.

Bill Miller, Margaret Davies, and Eileen Rose, will appear behind the footlights opening night, December first. At present all their leisure time belongs to Phil Runkel, director of this production.

Then, too, there are those interested in filthy lucre who will presently be around to sell all Pointer readers tickets—the business staff. Margaret Beecher and Bill Miller represent the Freshmen here.

Eileen Rose devotes some time at work on the Make-up Staff under the leadership of Miss Ethyl McDonald.

The Pointer reporter concludes that the class of 1941 is up and doing.

Progressives Meet

The Young Progressive Club held their regular bi-monthly meeting at the college Tuesday, November 2nd. Mr. Kostuck, a member of the Wisconsin State Assembly from this district, gave a report of the "special session" which took place this fall. He talked on several "must bills" and answered questions after the talk.

At the regular fall election meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing year. E. Lightbody, president; Earl Siebert, vice president; Ben Kordus, secretary and treasurer.

The next meeting of the group will be held on Wednesday, November 17, and a speaker will be invited to talk on the American Courts and the Black Case. All students are invited. The place of the meeting will be announced later.

Band Praised For Quality Of Work

Members of Central State Teachers College concert Band are receiving state-wide recognition and praise for the fine quality of work they are doing. Band directors from all sections of the state who attended the State Teachers' Convention in Milwaukee complimented Professor Michelson on the fine weekly broadcasts.

On December 3, several band members will go to West Salem to demonstrate their instruments for music supervisors of that district. The instruments represented will be the clarinet, oboe, bassoon, flute and French horn.

Officers Elected By Girls Glee Club

The officers elected for the Glee Club are as follows:

President—Margaret Torkelson
Vice-President—Lucille Bleck
Sec.—Treasurer—Jean Dopp
Reporter—Eleanore Theisen
Mr. Michelson has chosen twenty-five members from the Glee Club for advanced practice on Thursday mornings at eleven. Try-outs were held for assistant director. Margaret Torkelson and Alice Bentz were chosen to assist Mr. Michelson in directing the Glee Club for this year.

W. A. A. Notes

A W.A.A. meeting was held Wednesday evening, October 27th, at which plans for taking in new members were discussed.

Girls! Don't forget to sign your name on the Bulletin board in the game room before going out for the various sports. You will have to have a certain number of W.A.A. credits to join and the only way the Sports Heads will know whether you are out or not is by your name on the slips on the bulletin. You may also get credit for minor sports or activities such as bicycling, hiking, roller-skating, swimming, and later on ice-skating and skiing by signing your name, the activity in which you are engaged, and the number of hours on a slip of paper and put it in that little box by the side of the bulletin board.

At the last W. A. A. meeting, plans for taking in new members were discussed. It was decided that those persons who have participated in one or two major sports and some minor sports will be eligible to be on probation for membership. This trial membership system was thought to be the best opportunity for the members to become acquainted with the duties of a W. A. A. member and also a good opportunity for the active members to judge who might be willing to cooperate and do something for the association. These new people will be asked to a dinner sponsored by the W. A. A., at which Marguerite Schwarz of Madison will speak on the American Federation of College Women.
