

YULE PROGRAM TO BE STAGED

PILLSBURY—NOTED SCIENTIST TO SPEAK AT THURS. ASSEMBLY

Arthur C. Pillsbury, naturalist, explorer, and lecturer, will be featured in an assembly program in the college auditorium Thursday morning, December 8. Mr. Pillsbury has just returned from an extended photographic trip through Colombia, South America, and also Jamaica, picturing their flowers, shrubs, and animate life. He has three lapse-time motion picture cameras that show in natural color the opening and growing from bud to blossom.

Does Spectacular Things

Mr. Pillsbury is of unusual interest to his audiences because he does unusual things. He climbs the mountains for flowers; he walks on the ocean bottom picturing and sketching marine life; he shows with his remarkable lapse-time camera the results of days or weeks of growth in a few seconds. Life, growth, protoplasm and life processes requiring years to picture are shown in action and in words anyone can understand. Everything shown is scientific but sensational, unique, educational, and highly entertaining.

Photographer

In the harbor of Pago Pago, American Samoan Islands, Pillsbury, without the ability to swim or a weapon of any kind, walked over the ocean bottom. He set up his tripods, pictured the coral and fish, studied them in their natural habitat, and with pencil

MICHELSEN COMPLETES PLANS FOR TREES

By EILEEN ROSE

Way back in 1930, a new member of our faculty decided to bring a touch of the old Christmas spirit into C. S. T. C. So he erected a mammoth Christmas tree, composed of over fifty evergreens, and decorated it in the old gym. Well, he did such an excellent job that it's been his ever since. Every year for the past eight years, Peter J. Michelsen has been playing Santa Claus to our students and faculty.

Girls Glee Club To Help

The artistically decorated Christmas trees, with their colored lights and sparkling tinsels, that you will see in the halls during the last week before the Christmas holidays, will have been erected by Mr. Michelsen. Hitherto, he has worked almost alone. But this year members of the Girls' Glee Club are going to help him. If you are interested in decorating trees, you might see Mr. Michelsen about it.

CHEERLEADER UNIFORMS ARE PROPOSED

The possibility of furnishing new uniforms for the C. S. T. C. cheerleaders is being considered by a special committee appointed by Dr. Falk.

The committee, composed of Miss May Roach, Charles Evans, Eddie Kotl, and Charles Heyer, will consult the cheerleaders as to type of uniforms desired and then consider the problem of expense. No final action has yet been taken by the committee.

Anderson, Mogensen Leads

Miss Sarah Anderson and Miss Meta Mogensen will be the cheerleaders for the coming winter sports season. The athletic committee is hoping for a revival of interest in the basketball games of the college this season with the transfer of the games to the new Jacobs High School gym, and the school's cheerleaders will thus have the additional responsibility of securing better yelling at the games. The new uniforms proposed would add to the "show" and probably make their task easier.

STUDENTS—NOTICE!!!!

The assembly programs for the semester have been selected by a program committee composed of our President, a faculty representative, and a student representative. The aim of the committee has been to have fewer outside programs, and more programs selected from the outside curricular activities within the college. In the purchase of outside programs the committee has attempted to select the programs very carefully; purchasing only the highest grade programs that our budget will permit.

It seems that the programs have been well attended and well received. It is difficult to select programs which will please everyone, but the committee has attempted to do just this.

We would like to have the students' opinions, criticisms, and suggestions. Send your letters of opinion in to the Point now so that the committee will have them to aid in selecting the programs for next semester.

COLLEGE THEATER SPONSORS CONTEST

The College Theater will be host to the State High School One-Act Play Contest on December 9th in the College Auditorium. This contest will be the final of a series which has been held throughout Wisconsin during the past two weeks. The Theater members will take care of all the secretarial work, staging, lighting, etc.

Colby For Central Wis.

Last Saturday, Colby, in a sectional contest here at Stevens Point, was selected over Oconto Falls and Onalaska to represent Central Wisconsin in the state contest. Colby presented "Fiat Lux" directed by Miss Dolores Flynn. Oconto Falls, who captured second place, gave "Dust of the Road" and Onalaska presented "Mrs. Jones". Besides Colby, there will be a representative from the southern district and one from the northern section.

Awards At Whiting

The awards of the final contest will be presented at Hotel Whiting at 9 A. M. on December 10. The guests will include the participants of the plays, College Theater helpers, Mr. Warren Jenkins, Mr. Leland Burroughs, Mr. Norman Knutzen, Mr. Sam Moreau, and Regent Martens.

STORANDT ELECTED TO HEAD COLLEGE BAND FOR THE YEAR

Last week the band held its annual election of officers. The election for the president, vice president, and the secretary-treasurer was by ballot, and that for the sponsor was by a standing vote.

The officers for the coming year are: President — Kenneth Storandt, Vice-President — La Verne Olinig, Secretary-Treasurer — La Verne Schwingel and Sponsor — Marguerite Adams.

The office of "Sponsor" is one with which a great deal of work is connected. She must meet every visitor and make him feel "at home"; answer any questions that might arise; and see that the students are properly cared for during the annual band trip. The other officers also have plenty to do, especially the president and secretary-treasurer. They must handle most of the work or problems of the trip and those that arise in connection with the band convention to be held in the spring; besides taking care of the business that arises throughout the year.

December 15 Is Date Set By Michelsen For Christmas Production

DR. TOLO CONDUCTS SURVEY OF STUDENT WORK

All of the sophomores and the transfer students of the High School Division will be able to get an estimate of their mid-semester grades from December 7 through December 18, during the 9 o'clock hour or from 3:00 to 4:30 P. M. These grades will be given out in room 353.

Each student, who wishes this information, should be sure to bring a sheet of paper with him on which to record his grades and grade comments.

Offers Thanks

Dr. Tolo, who made this survey, thanks the faculty members who have been kind enough to indicate a student's grade trend as well as commenting on aptitude and class attitude.

Students and townspeople alike are anticipating the eighth annual Christmas Concert sponsored by the musical organizations of C. S. T. C. on Thursday evening, December 15. The College Orchestra and the Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Peter J. Michelsen, the Men's Glee Club directed by Norman E. Knutzen, and a Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Fred Parfrey, will collaborate to make the program interesting and varied.

Origin Of Idea

Mr. Michelsen inaugurated the idea of a Christmas Concert at C. S. T. C. about eight years ago. The program met with such immediate approval that first year, that since then a Christmas program has been an annual affair. With each presentation, the attendance at these concerts has become larger and larger until the audience has filled the auditorium to over capacity.

Spirit Is "Contagious"

The audience cannot help but catch the true Christmas spirit in the still auditorium, dimly lit by huge Christmas trees with hundreds of brightly

Debaters Practice In Bancroft Demonstration

Last Friday, members of the College Debate Squad participated in a debate at Bancroft High School for an assembly program.

The affirmative team was composed of Marion Smith and Margaret Becher and the negative team of Ben Laskewitch and Gordon Haferbecker. The negative won the decision which was decided by the audience.

Question

The question which was the topic of the debate was: Resolved, that the government of the United States should cease to use public funds to stimulate business. This is the question which will also be used for inter-collegiate debates. Mr. Verrill, an alumnus of C. S. T. C., is principal at Bancroft.

Meet Postponed

The debate between the Point and the Eau Claire debaters, which was to have been held last Saturday, was called off because the coach, Mr. Donaldson, and some of the members of the Eau Claire team were stricken with severe cases of the flu. This contest will undoubtedly be held in the future, but as yet, no definite date has been set.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

Students with incompletes from last semester must have them made up by the time grades come in for the first semester or they revert to failure.

E. T. Smith

Seniors are requested to get their proofs to the Cook Studio by the end of this week. The Cook Studio must have the proofs in order to make prints which will be sent to the Engraving Company by the Iris Staff.

POINTERS "TOP" GREEN KNIGHTS IN FIRST GAME

By JOE BLOOM

Central State Teachers College successfully raised the curtain on the 1938-39 basketball season by stopping the St. Norberts Green Knights from West DePere by a 41-40 score, Monday night at the P. J. Jacobs High School gymnasium.

From start to finish the game was one of the most hair-raising cage contests to be seen in the P. J. Jacobs High School gym since Wausau and Stevens Point inaugurated it a year ago in that 32-29 thriller between the two high schools. The lead changed five times during the first half which ended up with the locals holding a 24-17 lead.

Point Leads At Half

The Pointers started the second half as if they meant business with Fred Nimz, Hank Nimz and Olk running the score to 32 for Stevens Point while Kafka and Floriania kept St. Norberts in the game was in the bag at this stage but the Green Knights put on an exhibition of long shots that would have done justice to the Oshkosh All Stars. They came within an ace of pulling the game out of the fire in the last minute, but the Pointers hung tenaciously to their slim lead and the final hour found them one point victor.

Nimz Brothers Active

For Stevens Point the two Nimz boys were the high scorer, Fred

MISS PEGGY GLENNON

Plans are nearly completed for the annual Senior Ball, to be held this Saturday in the new college gym. Norm Hinkley and his decoration committee have turned artists for the occasion with the result that ball-goers Saturday will see life-sized figures of Wimpy, Popeye, Ferdinand the Bull, the cow that jumped over the moon, and scores of other figures from the comic strip and the pages of Mother Goose stories.

The advertising and publicity committee have focussed state-wide attention on the affair by sending stories and cuts of the ball to the newspapers in the Central Wisconsin area and also to the metropolitan dailies in Milwaukee.

Wally Beau's "Swing"

The committee in charge of music have arranged for Wally Beau, "The Bob Crosby of Wisconsin" and his twelve piece band to carry the musical assignment for the evening.

Invitations Out

The invitations have been sent out according to the invitation committee and Oscar Copes of the ticket committee, reports that advance sales exceed expectations and promise a large and successful dance.

Steiner In Charge

In general charge of the ball is Franklin Hitzke, senior class president, who is escorting Miss Peggy Glennon, an active junior, and John Steiner, General Chairman of the dance, who is escorting a prominent freshman, Miss Helen Scheinert.

In the receiving line, in addition to the king and queen and chairman and his escort, will be Dr. and Mrs. Falk, Regent and Mrs. Martens, Dean and Mrs. Steiner, and E. T. and Mrs. Smith.

The invitation committee is comprised of Elizabeth and Jean Dopp; the refreshment committee of Ruth Johnson and Ruth Benke; advertising of Jim Murat, Warren LeRoux, and LaVerne Schwingel; music committee of Norman Hinkley and Charles Kohls; programs by Don Olson; tickets by Oscar Copes; and the decoration committee is in charge of Norman Hinkley.

Students Engage In Many Extra-Curriculars

Extra-curricular activities? Of course! They'll do you lots of good. When you're out in the "field" you'll be expected to coach or direct like groups. While in college, participation in "outside" work will help you to lead a more "completely rounded out", more interesting life.....

In the past students have been urged to participate in all extra-curricular activities. The only requirements — those which the organizations into which they seek admittance enjoin.

The requirements of these extra-curricular groups are, as a rule, easily met by the average student. Thus we have our average student belonging to two or three such-bodies. Often a student may belong to several "extras".

The following situation develops: Student J. A. Jones enters as a Freshman in the high school division and is automatically a member of the Forum. If he likes music he tries out for the band or glee club. In his second semester he may be rushed by a social fraternity if his honor point average is 1.5 or above.

This student is also urged to be a member of some religious organization — Y.W.C.A., Loyola Club, or L.S.A. Then as he goes through school he has a chance of getting into Sigma Zeta, Alpha Kappa Rho, Sigma Tau Delta, Alpha Psi Omega, and perhaps the College Theater. Then, too, there is the Social Science Club, the Audio-Visual Aids Club, etc., etc., etc. ....

By the time J. A. Jones is a Senior he may belong to so many organizations that he actually does his schoolwork "on the side". One Junior pledged three different fraternities in one period this semester — one social, two honorary.....

The situation should be rectified. This would be especially for the best interests of the freshmen. Freshmen should be expected to devote most of their energies to the requirements of their respective courses of study and should be permitted to engage in only a limited number of so-called "outside" or "extra-curricular" activities.

If the number of activities in which the upper-classes could participate was limited it would be better for the organizations and the students. The student would try to become a member of a group which he really thought worthwhile and would, consequently, be more active in the organization.....

40 YEARS AGO

As the foot-ball season draws to a close, we begin to hear questions now and then as to what is being done with basket-ball. Miss Crawford informs us that there are six teams organized among the young ladies and doing regular work in the gym; while there are prospects of at least four good teams of young men. The material shows up much better this year than ever before, the organization is better, and on the whole everything indicates good work for the season. Two challenges have already been received; and probably one game will be played before the holidays. The mid-winter basketball tournament is to be held soon after Christmas.

THIS WEEK AND NEXT

Thursday, December 8, Lecture by Arthur C. Pillsbury in the Auditorium 10 A. M.

Forum meeting after assembly. Group pictures of Forum after meeting.

Friday, December 9, High School one-act plays in the Auditorium.

Saturday, December 10, Senior Ball to be held in the Training School Gymnasium.

Wednesday, December 14, Sigma Zeta meeting. Watch the bulletin for further notice concerning time and place. Dr. Wisiol is to be the speaker.

Wednesday, December 14, Photo Club to meet in T. A. Roger's room. Everyone please come.

Annual Christmas program to be given in auditorium Thursday evening, December 15.

Many Christmas parties throughout the week from December 11 to December 16.

TO THE EDITOR

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This department is conducted for students and faculty members whose opinions have no other means of printed dissemination. The letters do not represent the Pointer editorial policy, however, but the right of editing and rejecting contributions is reserved.)

Dear Editor, Writing a letter to the Pointer seems like old times. Several years ago, when Harvey Polzin was Editor, he wanted to develop a "voice from the student" column. For some reason or other, no one was writing to the darned thing. So, to incite interest, and to give vent to our own pet peeves, Harv and I took up several controversies, using various noms de plume. One time, we aroused Mr. Hyer's ire to the extent that he threw his weight on one side of an issue during an assembly. After that, there were plenty of genuine contributions. Miss Roach flared up, too.

Thinking of C. S. T. C. without President Hyer, Professors Spindler and Collins is almost an impossibility for those who knew them. There were three men. No persons can take their places. No one should try. A new man, to be worth his salt, should make a place of his own.

Is Sue Colman's office still a multiple occupancy suite? When I was in school, that was the first place we looked for anyone we wanted to see; from there one would trek to the Coach's basement lair; and finally to the College Eat Shop.

Is Miss Mansur as modest as ever? One time we wanted to write a story about her in the Pointer. Well, briefly, she wouldn't allow it. No sir! And the terms of her refusal were positively negative. I still think she is awful nice.

Do fraternities and sororities still try to influence school politics? No need to answer!

Has Miss Roach lost any of her enthusiasm for Rural Life and Loyola Clubs? No need to answer.

The Iris for last year was, I thought, easily the best ever produced at C. S. T. C. Congratulations Ben and Vera. Don't you agree the new editor is on the spot?

I could ask a million questions. One can't go to a school four years without learning a lot of things about a lot of people. In fact, that is at least as important as anything to be learned in the class room. If anyone disputes you on that score, you'd better know that that person is, in essence, perhaps a learned, but not truly an educated person.

Think it over, what can't be done if you get others to work with and for you? Think it over, what could be done if you had literally to work alone?

After leaving school, I taught for two years in the Junior High at Elmhurst, Illinois. I liked teaching and liked working with boys and girls but the work had a stagnating effect and I was glad to leave.

Since then I have worked for the Hardware Mutual Casualty Company in Chicago. I enjoy the work and never expect to do anything else.

Three things about my college life have helped me most. 1. Things learned in classes, including facts, attitudes, and ideas; a broadening of one's vision. 2. My fraternity. That association helps me today to meet, to know, to like people. 3. Debate. That

THE WISDOM CORNER

By "DOC" BEN C. S. T. C. Band

I believe in giving credit where credit is due — I am not a musician. Spectacular growth usually carries with it the aged question — "Will it last?"

The band has risen from nothing in 1929 to one of marvelous merit in 1938, but its firm foundation and structure stands despite keen observation.

The spirit of the director is indeed a compliment to the fine attitude of the school toward the band and its work. In answer to the question of difficulties and problems, he answered that there were none now and had never been any. The 100% cooperation of the administration, faculty, and students has not allowed any to arise.

However, here is a fertile ground for thought. There are enough musicians in school to nearly double the size of the band — were there room for them. The practice room now seats approximately 60. There is no limitation as to membership except that necessary because of the lack of space — the weeding out process is done by tryouts.

Mr. Michelsen came to Stevens Point in 1930 under the administration of Mr. F. S. Hyer. With untiring effort on his part and complete cooperation of the administration and faculty then and now, it has developed sufficiently so that C. S. T. C. can justly be proud of its band.

In 1930 25 members with capes as uniforms, and with a limited instrumental organization, constituted the band. Since then it has improved from year to year. Faculty contributions, and student fund allotments have made possible the purchase of uniforms and additional instruments.

From a first year trip to high schools of one-half day's duration, to a whole day the second year, to an entire week since shows active growth as an organization.

The Band Today

It is recognized as one of the best in the state..... It has the best instrumentation, and the most outstanding library..... No requests need be sent out in the arrangement of an itinerary. Schools from the entire state are asking that the band play there in its annual trip..... It may go north, south, east or west; a three week's tour would not exhaust the demand..... Fine musicians are being continually drawn here by the attractive opportunities.

The Band Master's Clinic, held yearly in February proved of such service that an additional one has been added in November..... Directors from all parts of the state attend. Upwards of 50 and 70 attend the fall and spring clinics respectively.

High schools have changed some of their rehearsals to correspond to the college broadcast enabling them to hear their requests played and to follow them on their own music. Each week notices with selections to be broadcast are sent to the high schools within reach of W. L. B. L. clinics.

The High School Band Festival, held here every spring, is mainly for the purpose of offering suggestions and criticisms to the attendants.

This year's officers are: Kenneth Storandt, president; La Verne Olingy, vice president; La Verne Schwingle, secretary-treasurer; Marguerite Adams, sponsor.

"Pete"

Mr. Michelsen is a member of the American Band Masters, a selective fraternity, recognized as consisting of the best musicians in the United States and Canada. At present there are but 78 members including two from England. The composer Carl L. King is their president. They will meet at Fort Dodge, Iowa from Feb. 26 to March 1, 1939.

He is president of the Wisconsin Band Masters Association, a professional organization requiring considerable experience for membership. There are at present 22 members.

Both of these groups adhere to exceedingly high standards in their membership requirements.

The wisdom of radical movements and changes are justly questioned, but there is no doubt that we can learn from departments that are doing. I'm talking about placements. The band's placement average is 100%.

activity helps me today to think logically, and to give those thoughts audible expression in a manner understandable to others. Well, "hello" and "good bye" to everybody.

Yours, A. J. Shorey

POISON'S PRUNINGS

The highlight of the week was George Bernard Shaw's "Apple Cart" as presented by the Speech class. To begin with, the College Theater's technical staff handled the stage and the efficiency was conspicuously fine. The scenery was excellent and the lighting superb.

The play itself contained that typical subtle Shaw wit and dialogue that keeps you on your toes if you intend to follow.

The speech class provided the actors and even though many of the characters have never impressed anyone as being theatrically possible—they all did a fine job of acting in a very difficult play.

It's unfair to place anyone on top as a superior actor, but that interlude was the "nuts". I don't know whether Sara was cut out for the part or the part cut out for Sara—at any rate the two went beautifully together. (The last time Sara appeared in this column yours truly wound up in the doghouse and he's been there since. Consequently, my next paragraph is strictly impersonal.)

The young lady who played the part of Orinthia, in the interlude, exhibited the most skillful control of dialogue that has ever left that stage. Yes, I've seen a few other plays. I'm in the orchestra and we are often asked to play. I might add that that organization does very well by itself, too. (You're welcome Mr. Michelsen. That'll cost you a C+.)

To get back to Orinthia—Not once did she rush or crowd her lines, as so often happens to amateurs. She hesitated like a professional when her lines drew a laugh and she picked them up never leaving a noticeable or awkward gap. That's acting. She carried her audience exactly where she wanted them and everyone knew it and enjoyed it. Well done, my dear—Orinthia.

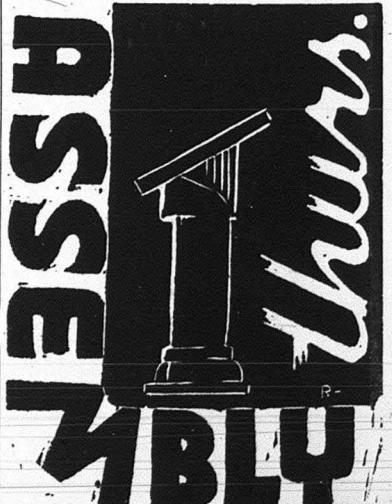

Now for the chap who played opposite her. His name's Tony and he's just as likeable and unassuming as he was on the stage. He handled his lines expertly and both he and Sara showed evidence of having actually studied their parts and the characters that were to be portrayed. Tony is musically inclined and has a nice voice. One of these days we're going to have a student program and prove it to you.

The rest of the cast did very well and it all boils down to this—it takes good directing, hard work, and lots of midnight oil to make a play like that possible. Professor Burroughs and his speech class did just that. Their dress rehearsals lasted 'til well after midnight.

"Apple Cart" was a difficult play well presented. Some faculty members were conspicuous by their absence and they should be sorry they missed it. However, our old stand-bys, for whom we always look, were there and the picture was complete with Mr. and Mrs. Hyer sitting in the row they so often choose in the past.

We can always look for Miss Mansur, Miss Roach, Mr. and Mrs. Steiner, Dr. and Mrs. Tolo and several others who seldom fail to attend.

The crowd was much too small. It seems that past experience should have taught producers that your average at 10c. a seat would be more than it is at 25c.

CENTRAL WISCONSIN SCHOOLMASTER'S CLUB TO MEET DEC. 14

The third meeting this season of the Central Wisconsin Schoolmasters' Club will be held on Wednesday, December 14 at Marshfield. About fifty men are expected to be present at the six o'clock dinner served in Guild Hall. Music will be furnished by students from the Marshfield High School Music Department.

Mr. Everett C. Hirsch, president of the Schoolmasters' will be general chairman of the meeting. N. E. Knutzen of the local faculty is secretary of the organization.

Students of Central State will be interested to learn that Mr. Pillsbury is the author of a book, which was published last year, "Picturing Miracles of Plant and Animal Life". This book has received very favorable reviews from leading newspapers and magazines including "The New York Times", "The New York Herald Tribune", "Natural History", and "Horiculture".

Versatile Arthur Pillsbury promises to keep his audience in steady interest when he lectures here on Thursday.

KOTAL PLAYS GAME ALONG WITH HIS BOYS

By JOE BLOOM

A few weeks ago an article appeared in the Milwaukee Journal on how Harry Stuldreher acted during a game. Coach E. A. Kotal can also be put in this class since yours truly had the opportunity of interviewing him before the St. Norberts game and sitting behind him during the actual playing. If he wasn't bushed after that game, then the story of Mrs. O'Leary's cow and the great Chicago fire was a myth.

Before the game the Coach was calm and when I asked him for the lineups he rather deliberately told me that the two Nimz's, Olk, Warner, and Bandow would get the call. But it was during the game that the featers really flew.

At the start of the game it was, "Come on, Hank — Play it nice". "Freddie, call a few — Call a few, boy". "That's it, Olk — Take your time". "Aw! Get up in the air and bucket that ball!" "My gosh, how hard can a man be hit before being fouled?" Suddenly he looks down the line and says — "Pete!" Immediately the freshman guard is at his side and Kotal is giving him instructions on what to do with Kafka who has suddenly found the range. Pete is rather nervous to get in but Coach waits and then says — "All right, Pete, get in for Olk and play 'in close". O. K., boy, go in!" As Olk trots to the bench, Eddie is up with a teasing slap on the back, "all right, Bobby, you looked all right but you etc., etc., etc." "Come on, Pete, play him close!" "That's it, Pete, be close — that's it, boy!" Suddenly Hank is called for fouling for the third time "Oh that wasn't a foul, ref!" Then he says — "Schneider, get in for Nimz and play guard on defense and forward on offense!" As Schneider trots on to the floor, Kotal looks rather approvingly at the line up that is now in the game. "These boys ought to show 'em some speed!" "Oh, Schneider, dive in there, that's it — boy, wasn't that a pretty shot!" At this point Fred Nimz pushes in a one hander. On his feet now, Coach says "That's the prettiest shot I've seen him make in four years!" and so it goes.

The first half waxes into the second half and St. Norberts begins to threaten with a barrage of long shots. When the score is 40-36 and all of the second stringers are in Coach gets up and says "All right first string!" The original starting lineup are on their feet and Coach says "All right now, hold that lead — let's see some ball handling now!" "That's it, Freddie!" "Pete, get in there for Olk — and hold that ball!" The score is now 40-38 and Hank Nimz is awarded a free throw. "Come on, Hank boy, put her on ice now." "Ah that puts her up there — 41-38!" Kafka makes a long shot and Coach jumps up and says "Don't let me get another one like that!" "Come on, Pete, ten seconds, hold it!" "Five seconds and Kafka takes another long hope shot that just misses. Three seconds, two, and one. "That's the way to hang one up!"

After the game Coach says "Well, that was a close one, wasn't it?"

Pointers "Top" Green Knights

(Continued from page 1, Col. 5) hitting the loop for 11 points and Hank putting the oval through the net for 10. The floor work of Bandow; Terziński; Olk; and Warner was class all the way through. For St. Norberts', McNulty, Finke, and Schumacker stood out on the score sheet while Purke and Collins also showed flashes of ability at times.

TWENTY CANDIDATES OUT FOR HOCKEY

About twenty hockey candidates attended the first hockey meeting held last Thursday in room 106. Chuck Heyer gave preliminary instructions and talked to the fellows concerning their previous experience and the positions they wished to play this year.

With the support of these fellows assured, the only remaining difficulties seem to be in securing enough time to practice on the local rink and in obtaining enough financial support for transportation to out-of-town games. It is hoped that these difficulties will be ironed out so that the season will be under way before the holidays.
