COLLEGE THEATER TO PRESENT SECOND PROGRAM JAN. 11

College Theater will sponsor its second assembly program, Wednesday evening, January 11, 1939.

This second assembly program will consist of two one-acts...one a mystery-thriller concluding in comedy and the other is founded on an actual event in the pioneer history of south-east Missouri.

Kenosha Man Is Author

The play "Murder by Morning" was written by Irving Wallace, who was raised in Kenosha, Wisconsin. Quoting Mr. Wallace, "I enjoy satirizing pomposity and Americana. I enjoy ridiculing intolerance and war.... I've never written a back-stage, musical comedy, never named a butler Meadows or Jarvis, never expected my first play to be grabbed by the Theater Guild....which all makes me feel I'm entitled to the Pulitzer Prize", we find that he has quite a sense of humor. You will be fortunate....if you ever do succumb to this mystery-thriller business....to find a counselor like Sheila. (Nancy Steiner). Dumb, like Reynard the Fox, is Sheila.

Besides Nancy Steiner, we find in the cast Harvey Martini, Dorothy

Awards were presented the respective schools at the annual breakfast of the Wisconsin State Forensic association held at Hotel Whiting on Saturday morning. Gold, silver, and bronze medals were presented the winners of first, second, and third place casts. The forensic banners were given to schools from the southern, central, and northern districts, which the winning groups represented. A silver trophy was given to Muscoda High school, winner of the first place.

The Winner

"Feast of the Holy Innocents" was the play presented by Muscoda players, who were all girls: Marcelle Lemke, Elizabeth Huppler, Lois Miller, Maxine Rohevis, and Helen Hodach. Miss Elizabeth McCoy was coach. Colby High School presented "Fiat Lux", which won second place. This play was coached by Miss Dolores Flynn. Eau Claire players were awarded third place with the play "Sir David Wears a Crown". Earl Kjer, an alumnus of C. S. T. C., was coach of the Eau Claire cast.

Kraus, Toastmaster

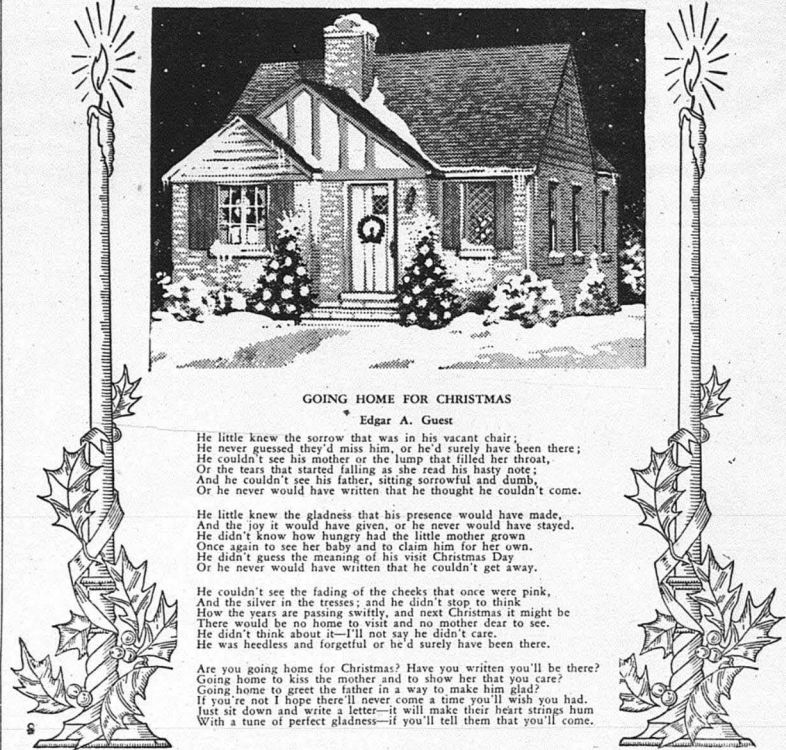

Joseph F. Kraus, chairman of the Stevens Point district, presided as toastmaster at the breakfast, which was served to fifty-nine. He introduced

GOING HOME FOR CHRISTMAS

Edgar A. Guest

He little knew the sorrow that was in his vacant chair;
He never guessed they'd miss him, or he'd surely have been there;
He couldn't see his mother or the lump that filled her throat,
Or the tears that started falling as she read his hasty note,
And he couldn't see his father, sitting sorrowful and dumb,
Or he never would have written that he thought he couldn't come.

He little knew the gladness that his presence would have made,
And the joy it would have given, or he never would have stayed.
He didn't know how hungry had the little mother grown
Once again to see her baby and to claim him for her own.
He didn't guess the meaning of his visit Christmas Day
Or he never would have written that he couldn't get away.

He couldn't see the fading of the cheeks that once were pink,
Going home to kiss the mother and to show her that you care?
How the years are passing swiftly, and next Christmas it might be
There would be no home to visit and no mother dear to see.
He didn't think about it—I'll not say he didn't care,
He was heedless and forgetful or he'd surely have been there.

Are you going home for Christmas? Have you written you'll be there?
Going home to greet the father in a way to make him glad?
If you're not I hope there'll never come a time you'll wish you had.
Just sit down and write a letter—it will make their hearts strings hum
With a tune of perfect gladness—I'll you'll tell them that you'll come.

PARFREY APPOINTED ASS'T BAND DIRECTOR

By LARUF SMITH

Last week Fred Parfrey received what is thought to be one of the finest positions in school. The position is that of the assistant director of the band.

Formerly the students voted who they wanted to fill the position, but in view of the fact that Peter J. Michelsen is more able to select the one best fitted for the job, he will, from now on, make the appointment.

Fred's excellent directing and handling of the band in parades and at football games, his directing of the mixed choruses, — evidences of his outstanding musical ability — more than qualify him for this important position.

DEBATERS ARGUE TO "GOOD SHOWING" AT MEET HERE

WIN 13 OUT OF 21

The debate squad of Central State Teachers College won six out of nine debates of the A division, and 7 out of 12 in the B division in a practice debate with the Eau Claire team. The tournament was held at the College on Saturday, December 10, and was divided into divisions in order that experienced college debaters should not be debating inexperienced members of other teams.

Ben Laske and Gordon Haferbecker, seasoned debaters with previous intercollegiate experience, were successful in each debate. Of the unseasoned local debaters, Frank Splitek and John Anderson won all of their matches.

ATTENTION!

All seniors get blanks at the counter and fill them in at once. We want a record of your extracurricular work and your majors and minors. If you fail to do this there will be no record in the Iris for you. This must be done before Christmas.

All Seniors who have not returned their proofs to the Cook Studio, please do so immediately.

Any students having interesting photographs that might be used in the Yearbook, please submit the negatives to the Iris staff. Insert them under the door of the office on the third floor.

"T. B. TESTS TO BE ADMINISTERED" STATES DR. MARRS

The Health Service is ready to give to each and every student the tuberculin and Wasserman tests. They will be given during the regular hours from 11-12 A. M., starting with the new year. Every student should sign up as soon as possible when they will be able to take the tests. These tests are free.

Annual Test Necessary

The cooperation in industry is far ahead of that in colleges, but it should come from an educational stand-point. Colleges should be in the lead. Every student is asked to cooperate, as this test should be taken every year. "When you consider the importance of this test, you won't pass up this opportunity. If it is neglected, remember you are the loser."

Painless Procedure

The tuberculin test, which consists of injecting between the layers of skin a small amount of tuberculin, is a painless procedure which has much importance to the student body. Everyone must be willing to present satisfactory proof that he or she is free from tuberculosis. This proof may be obtained by this tuberculin test, and a thorough physical examination which includes an X-ray picture of the lungs.

Need 100% Cooperation

Mary Neuberger, College Nurse, states: "Perhaps I could illustrate in a few words why we should have a 100% cooperation from the student body. The enrollment is approximately

The jaunt will wind up at the dorm with a Christmas party for all of the girls. Girls are advised to dress warmly for the occasion.

We, the Y. W. C. A., feel that our efforts have been very worthwhile and would desire to have every member present for an evening of spiritual compensation as well as fun.

MICHELSSEN SET TO PRESENT SCHOOL YULE PROGRAM

The annual Christmas program will be given in the College Auditorium on Thursday evening at 8:00. This program is one of the most colorful, beautiful and symbolic that the students of C. S. T. C. produce throughout the school year.

The glee clubs, orchestra, and the mixed chorus have been spending many hours under the guidance of Peter J. Michelsen, Norman E. Knutzen, Frederick Parfrey, Miss Edna Carlsten, and Miss Helen Gormley. There has been much practice, both in separate and combined groups, to present one of the most complete and artistically beautiful pageants portraying the spirit of Christmas.

Dr. Phillip A. Falk called a meeting of executives of all school organizations to discuss plans for financing the purchase of a new school bus. The meeting was held last Thursday at four o'clock in Mr. Burrough's room. Among those present were officers from classes, publications, fraternities, etc. The group, with Dr. Falk presiding, voted 18 to 1 in favor of the purchase of a new school bus.

Plans For Financing Purchase Submitted

A plan for financing the purchase was submitted by Mr. Rightsell, chairman of a sub-committee appointed to draw up such a plan. This suggests that the bus be paid for with money from the Student Activities Fund. The appropriation of this $5600 fund is 6 1/4% or $550 a semester or $700 a year. It is estimated that the bus will travel 3000 miles a year, charging 15c a mile, the income from the bus amounting to $750. Including the income from summer school students, which amounts to $200, the entire income will be $1650. It is estimated

SOCIETY LIFE

Frances Bourcier and LaNore Oleson, Senior Home Economics students, entertained guests at a formal dinner party at Sims' Cottage Saturday evening. The dining room table was decorated with Christmas favors. Tall red candles set amid a cut of white birch wood and greens helped instill a pleasant spirit to the party. The unusual dessert consisting of an English plum pudding, garnished with holly served "on fire", provided a novel finale to the meal.

Miss Oleson acted as hostess and Leo Lang was guest of honor.

Have you noticed the two trophy cups in the case by the auditorium? Well, there's one for volley ball and one for basketball and the last dates on them are '26 and '27. Now wouldn't it be nice if your team could have its name on the cup for the year '38-39?

The other night at mixed sports there were four girls to twenty fellows. Let's see that makes five men for one girl. Come on stop this highway robbery. Girls give these gals some competition.

Instead of volley ball on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 4:00, tumbling will be offered. The training school classes are working on a demonstration that will be given soon after Christmas.

The ping pong tournament is getting underway smoothly. All those persons who participated in the ladder tournament are scheduled in this elimination tournament. Definite dates and rules are posted on the bulletin board. All during the life of the ladder tournament Zoddie Malesevich reigned supreme. Let's see if someone can't defeat her and become the Champ.

At the last meeting of the W. A. A. it was decided to start the "point system". When a girl receives an allotted number of points she will receive a letter. Participation in sports, games and activities make the points count up, so come on out for them.

Basketball practices are coming along so well that soon we will be able to run off the tournaments. Wonder who or rather what team will be the winner.

Have you noticed the nifty bulletin board. I think it's nice but what about a light for it???? Just a hint, but we would appreciate it.

A STUDENT'S VERSION OF "LOHENGRRIN" TRIP

Lohengrin, Lohengrin, Lohengrin..... What the heck can I write???? Students, teachers, friends—all jammed in an undersized carriage called a "school bus".

The occasion was a jaunt to Milwaukee to attend the Chicago Opera Company's presentation of Wagner's Lohengrin on December 6. The accompanying orchestra of nearly one hundred pieces was conducted by McArthur, Kirsten Flagstad, Rene Maison and George Czapliski carried the lead parts. Pertaining to the opera itself.....well, to me it remains "ineffable".

Friendly Atmosphere

In describing the trip it can be said to begin with the conclusion "all returned tired but safely". Entertainment "poured forth" from the time the trip started at one in the afternoon until 6:15 A. M. next when Mrs. Finch "piled out" and graciously gave the dormites entrance.

Diversity

There was great diversity in the caliber and the content of the "stuff" that transpired. Entertainment was inaugurated by a gentle repartee between Miss Davis in one corner of the bus and Herr "Hitler" Faust in the other. Unlike a Hitlerite Faust failed to "dominate the situation".

Wit? No!

In sweet contrast was the rasping scratching voice of "Sunny" Olinzy reading lines of Lohengrin to a contented Betty Gustin.

About this time the "music bug" could no longer be restrained in this "Opie" bound group. Beautiful female voices, led by the outstanding voice (it had more volume than the rest) of Marjorie Judd.

Stop At The 'Kosh

The bus stopped at Oskosh to refuel.

Enough of this trash.....the trip was a success—well-organized and conducted. More are planned for the future.

Lois Gene Peden acted as hostess, and she introduced members of College Theater including Barbara Gerdes, secretary, Joe Ophoven, Earle Siebert, and Ted Meyer. Several contestants were also called upon to give informal speeches.

Faculty Judge

Norman E. Knutzen, of our faculty, acted as judge for the contests. Humorous entertainment between the plays was given by Don Walker, Robert Schnittger, Don Powers, and Byron Dunn, high school students.

HEALTH TESTS NOW!

In this picture we see Dr. Marrs getting a sample of blood for a test when this new service was introduced last year.

"T. B. Tests To Be Given"

700. If 600 were to take the test, you would say that that is a fine percentage. But, supposing that in the 100 students that did not take the test there would be one who is infected. Then the test has failed. This one would be at large infecting others who come in contact with him—roommate, pals, classroom associates, and others, who use this building. It isn't fair to your neighbor.

A positive reaction to the test does not necessarily mean that you have tuberculosis. It means that you have been exposed and should be on your guard. You should have the proper diet, fresh air, sunlight and moderate exercise. If you are found to have an active lesion with an X-ray test, then steps should be taken immediately to rectify this condition. Tuberculosis can be cured if found in its early stages.

Everyone's Problem

The question of syphilis and tuberculosis is a question of prevention, of eradication, of the protection of the well against the contamination of the sick. We must realize that it is every person's business, every person is in danger of it, every person pays for it.

Tuberculin is only good 10 days after shipment, that's why it must be given in groups. This is a big job for the Health Service. "We are willing to do our part. We want you to do yours".

Debaters Argue

tion held intra-team debates for the purpose of getting additional practice.

Faculty Judges

The judges for the afternoon were Nels O. Reppen, Harold M. Tolo, Warren G. Jenkins, Charles F. Watson, Chester H. Matravers, Joseph Mott, Leland M. Burroughs, Edgar F. Pierson, and Jim Murat. The debaters were ranked 1, 2, 3, 4 in each debate and counting a first as worth three points, a second as two points, and a third as one point, the leading debaters in their respective divisions were as follows:

A Division

Ophoven	7
Haferbecker	7
Laske	6

B Division

Lensmire	6
J. Anderson	6
S. Anderson	6

Debaters

The following students debated for Central State: Ben Kordus, Joe Ophoven, Gordon Haferbecker, Ben Laske, Marion Smith, Margaret Becker, Jane Johnson, Jayne Akins, Laurel LaValle, Celta Jordan, Joe Bloom, Carl Hoth, Sarah Anderson, Loretta Worzalla, Phillip Anderson, Warren Lensmire, John Anderson, and Frank Splitek. In addition to the two teams which won all three of their debates, Ben Kordus and Joe Ophoven in class A, Sarah Anderson and Loretta Worzalla, Phillip Anderson and Warren Lensmire, all in class B, won two out of three of their debates.

Purpose Of Meet

The debate is an annual affair between the two schools and is held to provide practice under pressure for the prospective debaters of the coming season for the two colleges. The general chairman for the tournament was Gordon Haferbecker. The local team were hosts to the Eau Claire squad at a five o'clock luncheon at the Gingham Tea Room.

Sieck, Harlow Henninger, and Leo Lang. The assistants are: stage manager, Norman Bensen; lighting, Meriville Meverden; make-up, Jean Holman; and Barbara Gerdes, costumes. The play is directed by Margaret Becher and Betty Hannon.

Wayne Johnson Directs

The other play, Swamp Spirit, is directed by Wayne Johnson. The cast includes Al Carmody, Ben Laske, Janet Poggemiller, and Madeline Davel. The assistants are stage manager, Earl Siebert; make-up, Jean Holman; costumes, Evelyn Sonnenberg; and Meriville Meverden, lighting.

The play, was written by Lealon Norvel Jones, who was born in Missouri, and did graduate work at the University of Wisconsin where his chief interest was dramatics. His hobbies are directing plays, promoting creative folk drama, and collecting folk material. Swamp Spirit was written while he was attending the U. of Wisconsin.

Founded On Actual Event

Author's Note: "This play is founded on an actual event in the pioneer history of southeast Missouri. When Spain was a power in the new world, a man attempted to found an empire with New Madrid, Missouri as its capital. Plans for the empire, to have been founded under Spanish Grant, failed from lack of support." Ghosts, superstitions, and ignorance culminate to make this play a true story of the lives of these southern swamp people.

Announcement of details of the I. B. A. Essay Awards, which were established by the Investment Bankers Association of America at its recent convention at White Sulphur Springs, was made today by Jean C. Witter, Dean Witter & Co., San Francisco, President of the Association.

The competition, which will be open to undergraduates (men or women) in American colleges and universities, offers three cash prizes of $300, $150, and $50 for the best essays which, in the judgment of the Jury of Awards, will contribute to a better public understanding of the business of investment banking.

Papers are to be submitted by July 1, 1939, and will be judged by a distinguished Jury of Awards made up of the following individuals:

Kenneth C. Hogate, President, The Wall Street Journal, New York, N. Y.
James M. Landis, Dean, Harvard Law School, Cambridge, Mass.

Harold G. Moulton, President, The Brookings Institution, Washington, D. C.

Robert G. Sproul, President, University of California, Berkeley, Cal.

Robert E. Wood, President, Sears, Roebuck and Co., Chicago, Ill.

"The Association has long recognized the importance," said Mr. Witter, "of a fuller understanding on the part of the general public of the significance of the investment banking function in the American economy. Accordingly, one of the chief purposes of the Association has always been an educational one, to extend knowledge of the nature and purposes of the business not only among people in the business, but also, and more particularly, to the general public. As a part of its extended program for the coming year, the Education Committee of the Association is sponsoring the essay contest to stimulate interest in the subject on the part of that important segment of our population represented by college undergraduates. It is, naturally, the hope that many of the contributions will be worthy of publication in INVESTMENT BANKING, the journal of the Association, and in periodicals of more general interest, and, in that way, advance one of the more important objectives of the Association."

Francis F. Patton, A. G. Becker & Co., Chicago, chairman of the Education Committee of the Association, explained that there are no restrictions as to the scope and method of the essays sought. "Students may treat the subject in its general aspects or concentrate on some special phase," he said. "Papers may deal with one or more of the economic or social factors involved, present proposals for changes in the technique of the business, or consider phases of the regulatory measures of recent years."
