Michelsen To Speak At American Band Masters Conference

P. J. Michelsen, Director of the Music Department, is to speak at a meeting of the American Bandmasters Association of which he is a member, to be held in Fort Dodge Iowa February 25th to March 1st. His topic will be "The Value of State Bandmasters Associations".

Organized in 1930

The American Bandmasters Association, which includes members from United States and Canada, was organized in 1930. John Philip Sousa was the organization's first president. The association is a very select group including only 80 members chosen from the bandmasters of two nations. The members have to pass a very rigid examination as well as accomplish something outstanding in the field of music before they are accepted by the association.

The present president is Carl King, a nationally known composer from Fort Dodge, Iowa.

To Criticize New Music

During the four day meeting the organization will hear and criticize

Pointers Win 10 Out Of 16 In "Pumpriming" Debates

Coach Leland M. Burroughs and his squad of Central State Teachers College debaters took part in the Third Annual Debate Tournament at the state teachers college at Eau Claire on Saturday, January 21, winning 10 out of 16 debates.

Stevens Point teams won 5 out of 8 in both class A and class B. The team of Ben Lasky and Gordon Haferecker won 3 out of 4, while Joe Ophoven and Jim Murat won 2 out of 4 in A tourney. In the B section the team composed of Jayne Akins and Jane Johnson won 3 of 4, while the other composed of Marion Smith and Margaret Becher won 2 out of 4. Ben Kordus, men's alternate, also made the trip. The squad was accompanied by Coach Burroughs, faculty representatives H. R. Steiner, and H. M. Tolo, all of whom acted as judges of some of the debates during the day. Stevens Point won third place in the B tournament and tied for second in class A. Eau Claire was first in Class B and Carleton in Class A.

The following schools participated in this invitational annual tournament: St. Thomas, Mankato Teachers, Hibbing Junior College, Carleton

The annual Mardi Gras celebration at C.S.T.C. will be held on the evening of February 20. Students and faculty members are cooperating to make this evening of fun one of the best in years. To insure success, the celebration has been reorganized in a newer way.

The fun-seeking crowd will be entertained by gala carnival concessions from 7 to 9:30 o'clock. A special attraction will be a Smorgas board under the supervision of Miss Edna Carlsten and Mr. Norman Knutzen. The student chairman of the carnival concessions is Franklin Hitzke.

An all-school "Hard Times" dance will be held in the gym from 9:30 to 12:00. Prizes will be awarded for the most original costumes. The highlight of the evening will be the selection of the Mardi Gras Queen. This popular girl will be selected—not by ballot—but by the hand-clapping of those attending the dance. Names of several girls will have been submitted before the dance, and she will be chosen queen—who receives the longest and loudest applause.

The floor show of the dance will be comprised of original skits, selected previously by competition. The best skits will be selected at a preliminary presentation on Thursday evening, February 16.

All organizations and independent groups of students wishing to take part in either concessions or skits are requested to sign up with Miss Helen Gormley or Mr. Charles Heyer, faculty advisors of the Mardi Gras celebration. Bernard Johnson, Iris business manager, is general Mardi Gras chairman.

Omegas To Dance To Theisens "Swing" Band

Plans are almost completed for Saturday evening, February 4, when Omega Mu Chi Sorority will have its annual formal dance at Hotel Whiting. The dance will be preceded by a 6:30 o'clock formal dinner for members of the sorority and their invited guests.

Zilphia Webster, president of Omega Mu Chi, will preside, and Jayne Akins will be toastmistress at the dinner. It is expected that a large number of alumnae will be present for the dinner and the dance. Guests for the evening will include President and Mrs. E. T. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Tolo, Miss Colman, Miss Carlsten, and N. E. Knutzen of the faculty, and Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Taylor and Mrs. Charles Cashin.

Dancing will begin at nine o'clock, with music by Eddie Theissen and his orchestra.

Annual Band Clinic Again Sponsored By C.S.T.C. Music Dept.

A band clinic sponsored by the CSTC band is scheduled for Friday, February 10. The concert, to be given by the college band under the direction of P. J. Michelsen, will be presented in the college auditorium at 7 p. m.

Bandmasters' Banquet

Preceding the concert a Bandmasters Banquet will be held in Nelson Hall. The banquet is to begin at six. Invitations have been extended to 108 band leaders in the surrounding territory to attend the banquet and clinic. Last year's attendance totaled 64.

To Play Tournament Numbers

In the concert following the dinner the college band will play numbers selected from the state and national tournament lists.

The situation that has been pending in regard to Fred Nimz was brought to a head and final conclusion last week. A meeting of the faculty representatives of the teachers colleges upheld the decision of the executive committee and so it looks like Freddie has played his last game under the Purple and Gold Colors.

Protest Raised Five Weeks Ago

About five weeks ago a protest was registered on the part of Milwaukee forcing an investigation of a game that Fred was to have played with the Dorchester Aces. Upon further investigation it was found that he had played this game and according to the rules such a thing is not allowed in this conference. The Dorchester Aces are a semi-pro team thus causing Nimz's removal. The case was taken up by the executive committee who voted that Stevens Point had committed an infraction of the rules. Not satisfied with the decision of this committee the case was appealed to a higher court which consisted of representatives from all of the teachers colleges in the state. The meeting was held Thursday and the representatives from all of the schools but Superior upheld the decision of the executive board. The decision of the board also means that Stevens Point must forfeit the games already played against Whitewater and Oshkosh.

Outstanding High School Star

Fred Nimz entered this school in the fall of 1935 after piling up an enviable record in both football and basketball at Wausau High School. In that school Fred was all-conference three years in basketball as a center and two years in football as an end. In his third year in high school Fred

Mens Glee Club On Annual Mid Term Jaunt

The Men's Glee Club returned Thursday, January 26, from its annual between-semester tour after presenting concerts at Abbotsford, Medford, and Colby. The organization left Stevens Point on Wednesday afternoon, after presenting their semi-weekly half hour broadcast over station WBLB.

The broadcast was arranged and directed by Ted Meyer and the announcing was done by Warren LeRoux. Miss Roberta Peterson accompanied the organization numbers, as well as the special quartet and solo selections. The quartet sang two numbers and was made up of Gerald Torkelson, Gordon Cowles, Herbert Upright, and Bill Clements. Russell Frederick was soloist for the afternoon.

Old Bus Still In Use!

The two-day trip was made in the college bus and two cars. Twenty-seven men with their director, Norman E. Knutzen, and accompanist, Miss Roberta Peterson, made the trip. The Wednesday evening concert was presented in the Abbotsford armory building and was sponsored by the P. T. A. Supper was eaten in the Methodist Church. A short concert was sung in the high-school in the morning before leaving for Medford. The group had their dinner at Med-

Faculty Abolishes Night School Sessions After Due Consideration

At a meeting of the faculty on January 24, 1939, the problem of whether or not to have night school this coming semester was again considered. The faculty finally reached the decision of abolishing night school for the coming semester but not to drop it for good. This decision was reached due to the faculty not being available to teach the requested subjects.

Falk Facts

At a previous meeting President Falk took the chair for the night school discussion and presented a detailed description and explanation of the problem before the faculty. He considered it a splendid idea—that of college service to teachers in service in the area. There has never been adequate provision for finance as night school is not an integral part of the college program. The night school has grown in size far beyond original expectations. Of all faculty least able financially to carry an added burden is Stevens Point. The fact that certain staff members have carried this burden personally is an indication of unusual professional spirit. But there are limits beyond which even magnanimous people ought not and cannot go.

He went on to show that the night school idea was initiated by the college and that there is an implied obligation by the college not to "let-down" students whom it has solicited and urged to enroll.

Excessive Attendance Overload Discussed

He also brought up for discussion and thought "Questionable practices" as he called them. These were four in

Driving Clinic Announces Result Of Student Survey

Roland Cady was judged best all-around scorer in tests conducted in the drivers' school at Stevens Point State Teachers' college, the State Highway commission announced today.

Special mention was given the following for excellent performance: Weston Burquest, Gerald Torkelson, Beryl Joosten, Joseph Bartkowiak, William Mailer, Reuben Belongia, Dale Hills, Harvey Brown, F. R. Arnold, and William Winkler.

162 Take Tests

Of 162 teachers and students who went through the clinic, 19 were discovered to have had depth perception. Colorblindness was found in five students. Eyesight tests were favorable otherwise.

Lowest and best brake reaction time was thirty-three hundredths of a second, made by Roland Cady, William Drengler, Francis Kelly, Gerald Torkelson and Harvey Brown. Thirty-two persons scored between 34 and 36 in this test, 75 scored between 37 and 40, 38 scored between 41 and 43, and 10 were above 46.

William Winkler lined up small cars on a miniature highway in perfect alignment, viewing the cars only through a distant mirror. A perfect score seldom is made in this test, which determines distance judgment. Coming within two centimeters of perfection were Weston Burquest, Gerald Torkelson and Edwin Sligwinski. A score of three was recorded by Charles Heyer, Reuben Belongia, William Mailer and Harvey Brown.

Results

A distance judgment score of excellent was given to 66 students, good to 77, fair to 13 and poor to three. Highest score in parallel was 83 per cent, made by Roland Cady and Frank Kiedrowski.

Jayne Directs New Radio Program For Current Semester

By action of the Radio Committee last fall, Clarence D. Jayne, of the training school faculty, was appointed Director of College Broadcasting, and was thus made responsible for the college radio programs. At a subsequent meeting Mr. Jayne was authorized by the committee to appoint his own staff to carry out the duties which were required of the faculty director. The staff he has set up and their duties are substantially as follows:

Colby and Faust in Charge of Programs

J. D. Colby, one of this year's additions to the college faculty, was placed in charge of programs and production. He is concerned chiefly with the writing of scripts, selection of personnel for the programs, and actually getting the programs on the air. He supervises the technical production of all programs.

Gilbert W. Faust, of the Chemistry department, and musical hobbyist, was placed in charge of the production of musical programs, working with Mr. Colby in the checking of scripts for the programs and in the actual rehearsal and production of them. He has also been placed in

Fraud Peddler Uses C.S.T.C. Name To Sell Chinese "Irish Linens"

EXCLUSIVE

A letter has been received by the office which states that some lady-peddler is using the name of the school in order to increase her sales. A part of the letter goes as follows: "I am a lady selling Irish Crochet table cloths and runners came to Berlin, Wisconsin to sell them. She said she taught Irish Crochet in the Stevens Point Normal College. I think you should be advised that there are such women about using your name to bolster up their nefarious sales," signed: Miss Juliet O'Hearn.

This type of salesman is all too common and students are urged to be careful not to sign any contracts or to be taken in by such unfair advertising, without first having a thorough investigation made of the proposed plan. They are also urged to curb or report any such misrepresentation.

ART STUDENTS SPONSOR DANCE—GRAHAM'S MUSIC

A comparatively new but undoubtedly active organization at C. S. T. C. the Art Students League will sponsor a dance Friday evening, February 3 in the college gym, after the Platteville-C. S. T. C. basketball game, which will be played in the P. J. Jacobs High School Gym. Music will be furnished by Bennie Graham and his orchestra.

NOTICES

Tennis Anyone interested in playing tennis either varsity or otherwise, meet in Heyer's office at 3:00 P.M. Thursday. If enough interest is shown, arrangements for the use of one of the gyms will be made.

College Counter

The College Supply Counter will be closed between the three and four o'clock hour during the second semester. It will be open from 4:05 to 4:30.

OFF TO A NEW START

Finals are over..... A new semester has rolled around and we are off to a new start.

Since the beginning of last semester this college has seen many changes. A new president, new teachers, new organizations.

A NEW LEADER We are beginning the second unit of this school year under the leadership of another new president. Familiar to all of us..... the students' choice last year for president and one of the most popular members of the faculty..... "E. T."

After the great respect shown Mr. Smith by last year's petition it is hardly necessary to say that the student body will support and cooperate with him in every way. We congratulate you Mr. Smith, wish you all the luck in the world and earnestly hope that your temporary appointment as acting president will be a permanent position as administrator of a college which you know so well.

Talking of changes and reforms there are many that might still be made to improve the conduct of the student body.

LIBRARY CONDUCT A SPECIAL CASE IS THE A PROBLEM

Should I say library? Sometimes when one goes in to - ah - study one finds the various fraternities and clubs holding their meetings at the various reading tables. Even faculty members exchange choice bits of gossip in the sanctum occasionally.

Instead of working out the day's assignments, instead of making use of the great wealth of valuable information the library has to offer, we see people discuss the new transfer from the "U" or planning the night's entertainment.

Probably one should not be surprised at such conduct. Perhaps we should expect to see our students gossiping and chewing the fat as if they were charter members of Aunt Hattie's Stitch-and-Chatter Club..... by gum!

THE WISDOM CORNER NEWS FROM THE FIELD

By "DOC" BEN
I used to think that punctuation was of little importance in newspaper script, above all, an asterisk was indeed insignificant. This erroneous conception was shattered in the last issue of the Pointer. Instead of making a line that was intended to be a compliment, the misplacement of this meaningless punctuation mark turned into an insult. This writer was saved from disgrace by the fact that happily the remark was directed at a gentleman with an unusually delicate sense of good old New England humor. I now wish you doubly well, Mr. Smith.

To most people, semester grades are an amazing revelation. They are explained in various ways; The teachers got it in for me; I got gyped; The exam was unreasonable; I was too honest; or he didn't give anybody a grade - the alibi might take this turn - "Boy, I pulled a fast one there"; "It pays to polish"; "He is certainly an easy marker"; "Your term paper, Al, certainly helped me"; and "I hope I can get him again next semester". - Doesn't anybody ever blame themselves?

Going back to the last issue, grades in C.S.T.C. are no standard of achievement. Here is a problem which demands the attention of both faculty and students. Perhaps no one is directly responsible, perhaps no one saw what we were headed for, perhaps it served the purpose for which it was intended, but I believe it has definitely outlived that purpose.

I'm suggesting no possible remedy but, the direction in which we must travel is clear. Possibly a bit of concerted and well directed action on the part of any group, faculty or student, would lead us to the desired result.

Whether you are pleased or indignant with the results of your first semester's work, you should have learned one important lesson....Your grade is your instructor's opinion of you and your work....Did you give him what he wanted and expected?

Regardless of the consequences of our marking system, we have the necessary facilities, and the teachers are unusually helpful, to make it possible for any student to achieve any heights of which he is capable.

New Program Initiated By College Station

THE CENTRAL STATE BROADCASTING SERVICE wishes to call your attention to the following new programs to be broadcast over WLBL, 900 kilocycles:

Test-tubes and Telescopes - Mondays, 3:30-3:45, beginning February 6, 1939.

This is a series of programs interpreting recent developments in the field of science. The developments to be dramatized are not those in highly technical and specialized fields, but rather those which have been before the public eye because of their recent mention in newspapers and magazines. While the program is designed to have a popular appeal, it will be suitable for use in connection with Science courses in high school. Topics under consideration include - the 200" telescope at Mt. Palomar, California; the use of ultra-violet irradiation; construction and use of huge dams (TVA, Bonneville, Grand Coulee).

Preparation of scripts for this series is under the direction of Mr. Gilbert W. Faust of the College Chemistry Department, and is sponsored by Sigma Zeta National Honorary Science Society. Dramatizations are written by Lon Lewis.

Exploring Wisconsin - Mondays, 3:45-4:00, beginning February 6, 1939. (To be carried also by WHA, 940 kc)

This series of explorations throughout our state is given to you with the hope that it will bring to you the keener appreciation and understanding of that which is your heritage here - Wisconsin itself. It will deal with her natural beauty and resources, her people, her geography and geology, her historical development and many human interest stories. It is especially designed for students and teachers of Wisconsin lore.

Ain't It The Truth?

Poison's left us and with him goes his Prunings, those outbursts of mental anguish which have so amused us all year. His girl tells us that orange blossoms and Lohengrin are to be an event of the early summer. Best of luck from here on, Poison - we hope all your kids are clarinet players like their old man.

Gus Hannon, Joe's big brother, has enrolled in C. S. T. C. this semester. For the past six years he's been busy stepping himself in Greek, Latin, and philosophy at St. Louis U. Gus usually knew as much as his teachers back in his high school days..... now he'll be able to give his answers in three languages so teachers beware!

Wonder if Mae Roach is praying again that Benny will lose his debates out in Fargo? The story is that Miss Roach cornered Benny after the Eau Claire trip and told him she had devoted her matins on the day of the debate to Benny's downfall. Could it be that Miss Roach is attributing a certain pep display and walk out which occurred last fall to the fine Italian hand of Benny?

Glad to see that the athletes got their long awaited awards. Those senior coats that Frank Hitzke, Micky McGuire, and Ray Grandkoski are sporting look pretty nice.

Doc Tolo has a pretty busy time of it keeping the poundage down. He has now turned to badminton as a last resort to keep his figure free from "those unsightly bulges".

Anybody want to go to the bank nite matinee free of charge on Tuesday afternoons? Eddie Durand canvasses the homes in his neighborhood and tells the ladies of the manors that he'll sign their prolix cards for them if they'll give him the money. Usually he collects enough for five or six admissions, so if you want a ducat without cost, see Ed and join the Tuesday afternoon moocher's gang.

Congratulations, Jim McGuire on your new teaching job at the local high school. For their own sakes, I hope none of the lads in your classes get smart with you. Plaudits also to Dotty Mullarkey for snaring the post vacated by Ethel McDonald in the Training school kindergarten.

Young Gordy Lewison is one of the frosh house dogs at Nelson Hall. He is over there so much to see his little Madeline that the authorities are asking a state grant to build an addition to the dorm to house him.

We hope that some of the boys whose previous social activities have been rather limited will not have too guilty a conscience when their best girls take them to the formal next Saturday nite.

HUMOR

The two inmates were airing their grievances. Said one, "It's an outrage. I've been here ten years and I'm as sane as anybody." "So'm I," said the other, "let's go and demand our release." "Wait a minute - I'm gonna test you," said the first. Then, putting his hands behind his back, he asked, "What have I got in my hand?" "A street car," promptly answered the other. "You cheat," was the heated reply, "you saw me pick it up."

Culver-Stockton college, in Missouri, boasts of a 3 by 12 foot neon guidepost. Located in the neighboring town of Canton, the huge arrow serves to guide strangers to the campus.

An intellectual, C. C. style, is a fellow who spends the evening talking about a girl's mind, and staring at her legs.

"You remind me of the sea." "Because I'm wild, restless, and romantic?" "No, because you make me sick."

Students of Temple University, Philadelphia, recently presented a campus news-reel, taken by members of the commerce department. Scenes from recent dances, play and band rehearsals, elections, and fraternity initiations were shown. The celluloid program was augmented by 12 acts of student vaudeville.

It was the end of a tragic scene. The heroine was starving. "Bread," she cried, "I'm starving." Then the curtain came down with a roll. What a stale ending all the way around.

The latest fad at dignified Princeton university after a formal dance is the signing of the stiff tuxedo shirts by those who have attended the dance. -Indiana Daily Student number and are as follows: (a) Amount of credit granted for time and facilities available in some courses, (b) Size of some classes grossly beyond reason, causing unfair burden on teacher and making desired quality of work impossible, (c) method of payment, and (d) the program and procedure which was appropriate when night school students were largely experienced teachers and advanced students is not effective with large numbers of recent graduates from one year county normals.

Student directors Delos Kobs, Warren LeRoux, Ted Meyer, Gordon Cowles, and John Steiner handled many of the numbers. The quartet appeared in most of the programs as did organization soloists Gerald Torkelson, Russell Frederick, and Warren LeRoux. A piano duet was played by Mr. LeRoux and Miss Peterson, and Tony Klein sang with his own guitar accompaniment. Miss Peterson was also heard in a vocal duet with Mr. LeRoux, which she also accompanied.

He added "For next semester, if any staff members would like to offer any course next semester, please give statement to Mr. Knutzen before 4:00 today. They were to specify name and number of course and all specific conditions such as: Number of credits, maximum number of students, pre-requisites, time of course, facilities necessary and any other qualifications you might care to make. We cannot permit any teacher to become overloaded with credits."

These were then discussed at the faculty meeting on January 24, and a vote was taken. The vote was in favor of discontinuing night school for the coming semester.

ANNUAL BAND CLINIC

At the state tournaments the high school bands are required to play one warming-up number, one required number, and one selected number. Some of these numbers will be played by the college band during the concert so that the bandmasters may get their interpretation of how the numbers should be played.

Storandt in Charge

The preparations for the clinic are in charge of Kenneth Storandt, president of the band.

JAYNE DIRECTS NEW PROGRAM

charge of publicity for the Central State Broadcasting Service. Many College Programs 1st Semester

The first semester has been a rather busy one for those connected with the Central State Broadcasting Service. Programs on the air have been musical, featuring the concert band in a weekly half-hour program every Thursday, and the Men's Glee Club and Girl's Glee Club who have presented half-hour programs on alternate Wednesdays. These programs alone have required one participation of over 150 people.

But the actual production of programs has been the smallest part of the activities with which the Broadcasting Service has been concerned. The production staff, has been established, new programs arranged, scripts for many of the next semester's programs have been prepared, try-outs have been held, and many rehearsals conducted.

Elsewhere in this issue of the Pointer will be found descriptions of the new programs, as well as a summary of the old ones which will be continued during the new semester.

Anybody who is interested in working on these programs, either as script writer, actor, announcer, or technician, is requested to see Mr. Jayne or Mr. Colby.

On Saturday of this week, Ben Lasky and Gordon Haferbecker with their coach will take part in the Midwest Tournament at Fargo, North Dakota. This trip is an annual affair for two members of the squad and brings together many of the finest debaters in this section of the country.

"Pioneers" From Platteville To Face "Pointers" In Home Game In P. J. Jacobs Gym

The Pioneers from Platteville will furnish the opposition for the local men this Friday night at the P. J. Jacobs High School gym.

Milwaukee Beat Them!

Platteville has a team that trumped Whitewater 48-45 earlier in the season then dropped a 39-31 decision to Milwaukee in a later game. The Pioneers are not a push over by any means. Lead by Goff and Brostrum they have a team that has showed signs of class this season and can be expected to give the Pointers a stiff battle if not hang a black eye on them. Perkins, an all-conference guard is another of the Platteville team and handles the back court in good style. Huttenberg, a ratty center, will also provide an interesting evening for anyone assigned to guard him.

Kotal Line Up

Kotal will probably rely upon the lineup that did so well in the Milwaukee game. Captain Hank Warner and Hank Nimz at forwards, Belongia center, and Bandow and Olk or Pete Terzynski at the guard positions. To this lineup we expect to see Van Dyke and Bohan substituted rather frequently. Aside from these the rest of the lineup will remain mostly intact.

Come on out and cheer you Pointer fans. The team needs your support now probably more so than any other time this season.

set a scoring record that stood until broken only two years ago by Kots of Rhineland. In football Fred was the outstanding punter in the Valley conference besides being an adept pass receiver and good on defence.

Upon entering Central State Teachers college he immediately won the favor of all the fans by his tactics both on the gridiron and on the hard wood court. He was chosen as all-conference center in his sophomore year and only a back injury, which kept him from playing in all of the games, prevented him from gaining that honor last year. This year in football he was shifted from an end position to the backfield where he showed up well as a ball totter. In basketball he was well on his way to reach new laurels when the decision of the board necessitated his removal.

Exceptional Leadership

The loss of Nimz will be one of the hardest blows an athletic team of Central State has had to take for years. Down at Milwaukee Fred was given the reins and he handled the team in a style that would have done justice to football's Knute Rockne. Fred will best be remembered for his outstanding work on the gridiron and his very exceptional work on the hard court. His calm cool leadership ability when he occupied the role of captain and his ability to rise to exceptional heights to meet a pressing situation. The Southern conference will not see another Fred Nimz in a long time.

THE MILWAUKEE SEQUENCE

by JOE BLOOM

A supposedly crippled Stevens Point team roared into Milwaukee, Friday night, hung a 31-28 trimming on the Penwell men and left the court still as rugged and classy a team as the southern conference has seen thus far this year.

Without the services of their star center, Fred Nimz, who was ruled ineligible by conference rules committee the Purple and Gold played together as a unit, fought off an early lead by the Penwell men, and emerged victorious after as hard a struggle as has been played this year.

Nimz Pilots

Coach Eddie Kotal used a bit of major strategy in the game when he put Fred Nimz at the helm and watched the game himself from the bleachers. Nimz ran the team, made decisions and substituted as if the job was anything but new to him. The players abided by Fred's judgment—and good judgment it was, for the team played a super brand of ball and took the sweetest victory in years on the rack.

Little can be said as to the outstanding player for the Pointers. Probably the play of Rube Belongia who took Freddie's place at the pivot position deserves some comment. Rube apparently sensing the responsibility that was placed upon his shoulders led the team with Hank Nimz in scoring. Besides this Rube's defensive play was of the highest caliber. Van Dyke who was inserted so nobly and scored a couple of two-ply markers to aid the very worthy cause. The rest of the team to the last substitute played a brand of ball that should warm the hearts and admiration of every loyal fan.

On the Milwaukee side of the ledger little can be said. The Green Gulls put up a stiff battle but they were up against a Point team that was out to prove to every school in the southern conference and any other interested party that they are not a one-man team. The loss of Nimz is one that will be felt but we sincerely believe that the team is equal to it and will prove it even more conclusively in games to come.

Kotal's Men Definitely Down Agnew's 40-30

Chuck Agnew brought his Royal Purple basketekers from Whitewater here on January 20 and left just one game light in the win column and one game up in the lose column. When the final spoils were counted and the final spoils were settled the score was 40-30 and the Pointers had hung up their tenth straight victory.

Austin "Fouled" Out

Although the score would seem to indicate a decisive victory the game at all times was exciting and nerve tingling. Not until Whitewater lost the services of Austin their star center and captain did the Purple and Gold step out to a safe lead. Hoyum, Whitewater forward lived up to his reputation as a fast clever man and lead his team in scoring with eight points. Other men who showed up well for the Royal purple were Austin, center and Koenings and Gau at the guard positions.

Bloom Thinks

The support given the team at this game was improved considerably over previous performances. There is, however room for improvement.

Here's your chance to better your dancing technique. Thursdays at 8:15 o'clock ballroom dancing will be given for the advantage of you guys and gals.

Are you interested in a Winters Sport Club? We have a lot of dandy equipment and this winter is just to nice to waste. How about organizing a club and going out on skating, skiing and tabaggon parties. Give your opinions about this idea to Miss Gormley or Miss Davidoff and let's get this thing a-going.

Let's start our creative dance work in earnest this semester. There is certainly a lot of work to do and we would like to have as large a group as possible come out for this activity that will be given on Wednesdays at 5 o'clock.

There will be an important meeting of the Orchestr, Thursday at 7 o'clock in the Nelson Hall Recreation Room. All members are requested to be present.

Volley-Ball

All people interested in joining the intramural volley-ball league must sign up this week. The deadline for entries will be on Friday Feb. 3, 4:30 P. M.

Free Throw Contest

The free throw contest is still open for participants. The person must qualify by making at least 8 of 15 free throws. It is not necessary to have tennis shoes for this. The first tryout will be held in the college gym on Thursday Feb. 2nd. Any person who can toss a basketball is invited to enter the contest.

Intramural Basketball

The intramural basketball narrowed down from eighteen to ten teams as a result of play during the first semester. The ten teams were divided into two five team leagues for the stretch run and some hotly contested games are expected. League I. is made up of the following teams, the Phi Sigs, the Chi Delt's "2", Sims Dummies, the Dizzy Dopes, and the Frosh Boys. The outstanding men are, for the Phi Sigs Roman Baker a guard and Bill Miller a forward. On the Chi Delt roster Weingartner and Slewinski are tops with Frenchy leading the way in scoring. The Sims Dummies are headed by Louie Lang and Gene Belongia the latter doing heavy duty in the scoring department. The Dizzy Dopes are lead by "Lucky" Lewison who has very good fortune on his shots as most games have shown. Hill a stocky guard stars on defence for this team. Of the Frosh boys Hank Poskie and Manny a Minocqua boy look best.

In league II. Where the competition is undoubtedly stiffer we have, The Scrubs, The Maulers, The Chi Delt's "1", The Midgets, and the Red Hots. On the Scrubs Jim Bagnell and Jim Cashin look best with Bagnell the leading scorer. The Maulers are lead by Holt, giant center, and Sword a guard. On the Chi Delt's "1" we have a question mark of the intramural league. Here we have a team that is capable of leading the way but which has lost the services of two star men namely Jim McGuire and Oscar Copes. Whether this team can carry on without the services of these two men remains to be seen. The Midgets are lead by Rene Stimart, Ken Parry and Bud Menzel. Parr is a push shot artist of no mean ability. On the Red Hots Bob Urbanowski shows up best in the scoring department while Dick Larson is best on defence.
