Knutzen To Present Male Chorus At Local High School Thursday

On Thursday morning of this week, Director Norman E. Knutzen will present his male chorus of fifty-eight voices in a one hour program before the student assembly at P. J. Jacobs High School in Stevens Point.

"Colleegers" Featured

Members of the organization will be in charge of portions of the program. Piano accompaniment will again be furnished by Miss Roberta Peterson. Special numbers will be presented by the "Colleegers", the organization quartet. Soloists will be Gerald Torkelson, Tony Klein, Jerry Doherty, and Russell Frederick. The program will begin at 10:30 and represents the annual appearance of the organization before that group.

Sing For Rotary Program

About thirty members sang for the Rotarians at their regular Monday meeting. Mr. R. M. Rightsell is president of that organization.

Mr. Herrick Announces Placements In Word To Pointer; Contracts Signed

Mr. A. J. Herrick said that they are beginning to "reap some harvest" in the Placement Bureau. Five contracts were received by this year's graduates last Saturday.

Tenure Blocks Action

The bulk of the jobs will come when definite action has been taken on the Tenure Law by the legislature. If the action taken is in favor of retaining the law or if it is repealed the benefits for C.S.T.C. will be satisfactory. If it is retained many teachers about to complete their tenure will be let out and thereby many positions will be vacant. If it is repealed many unsatisfactory teachers can be discharged.

Mr. Herrick also stated that those with high degrees of academic work and extra-curricular activities have the best opportunity of securing jobs. The extra-curricular work most in demand is in music, speech, and athletics. He said that more than five vacancies had to be ignored due to the fact that our English majors are not capable of teaching either Latin or German.

The Placement Bureau is especially enthusiastic over the calls received from some of the larger schools of the state. These schools are mainly in the southern and eastern sections of our state.

Miss Patricia Cowan, an alumnus of C.S.T.C., was killed last Friday night in a head-on automobile collision on a highway near Wonewoc. Miss Cowan was a teacher in the Wonewoc High School.

Neale Secures '40 Rural Convention For C. S. T. C.

Central State was represented by forty people at the Wisconsin intercollegiate Rural Youth Conference which was held in Oshkosh last Friday and Saturday, with the Rural Division of the Oshkosh Teachers College acting as host.

Mr. Neale was elected to the sponsoring committee which is composed of six members of advisers of rural organizations in colleges.

The invitation of the Rural Division which was extended to the State Conference by Mr. Neale to hold its 1940 Convention here was accepted.

During the Conference the delegations had the great pleasure of hearing the Wisconsin author, August Derleth, discuss "The Literature of Rural Life" and answer many questions asked by the audience. John Stewart Curry, artist-in-residence, University of Wisconsin entertained the conference with an illustrated lecture entitled "Paintings of Country Life" in which he showed slides of his own work.

Pointers on Program

Several Stevens Pointers appeared on the program. Matt Knedle was a member of a panel-group which introduced the Saturday morning program with an open forum on "What's Ahead in Town-Country Relations." Bernice Martens acted as leader in a discussion group that had as its subject "The Farmer is Different." The College Male Quartette, William Clements, Herbert Upright, Gerald Torkelson, and Gordon Cowles, were heartily applauded when they appeared on Friday's program and responded again with encors. At the Saturday night banquet Gordon Cowles directed a chorus which he has been working with in the Rural Division during the year. The group was assisted by some young ladies from the county normal at Wisconsin Rapids.

Assembly Program For Thursday Shows Promise

Arthur S. Lyness, chairman of the College Entertainment Committee, announces that the last regularly scheduled entertainment for the semester will be Thursday, May 4, at 10 A. M. The committee feels that the students generally will be entertained royally by FRYE, the "Famous American Magician." He is being brought here at considerable cost from Ohio and the students and faculty should be present 100% for this program. The Training School has been invited and will be there in a body occupying the front seats in the auditorium.

Adjectives

Newspaper commentators usually rate Frye as an A-1 magician, "Tops," or "Best on the road." In circus billboard parlance his performances may be described as—AMAZING, BEWILDERING, BEAUTIFUL, INSTRUCTIVE, IMPRESSIVE, MASSIVE, MYSTIFYING, SURPRISING, STARTLING, HUMOROUS. It is a clean, moral, and refined entertainment providing plenty of thrills and chills.

Chi Delts "Book" Eddie Theissen For Annual Spring Dinner And Dancing Party

Although the date is yet two weeks away, plans are already underway for the Chi Delta Rho annual formal dinner and dance on May 13. This affair, the last spring formal of the year, will be held at Hotel Whiting. Eddie Theissen and his band, popular with C.S.T.C. dancers, will furnish the music.

LeRoux Toastmaster

Warren Le Roux will act as toastmaster at the dinner. Many alumni are expected to attend the dinner and the dance.

"FLIGHT" PUT ON SALE

Flight, the second annual publication of Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity, will be ready for circulation on Thursday, May 4. The selections were chosen from the literary works of students of C.S.T.C. The editor of the publication is Eleanor Ruchti, while La Rue Smith is the business manager. Jean Dopp, president of Sigma Tau Delta, has announced that copies of Flight will be sold in the halls on Thursday.

The Men's Glee Club of Central State will join with other member organizations of the Associated Male Chorus of Wisconsin to present the "Musical Treat of a Century" in the Central School Auditorium at Wausau this Sunday evening, May 6. This is the fourth annual music festival of this Wisconsin branch of the Associated Glee Clubs of America, of which the local organization is a member, and is presented in Wausau this year as a feature event among the many centennial festivities being held by that city during its one year celebration of its one hundredth birthday.

Five Hundred Voices Participate

Five-hundred voices will take part in eight mass chorus numbers directed by the directors of participating organizations. Mr. N. E. Knutzen of the Stevens Point group, the only collegiate club which is a member of the state association, will direct the combined chorus in "I Love Life", by Mana Zucca. In addition to the mass chorus numbers, each separate organization will present two numbers for its portion of the program. The local club has chosen "From the Sea" by MacDowell and "Ave Maria" by Bach, Gounod, and Homier, as its numbers. The last number will feature Miss Dorothy Vetter of Stevens Point as guest soloist.

Concert of Widespread Interest

Chorus from Appleton, Green Bay, Oshkosh, Fond du Lac, Milwaukee, Wausau, Shawano, and Stevens Point will participate in this formal concert. The Wausau Elks' Male Chorus is sponsoring this concert, which last year was presented in the Milwaukee Auditorium under the sponsorship of one hundred-ten voices will be the largest appearing on the evening program, which will begin at 8:00 P. M. A capacity crowd of fifteen-hundred people is expected to attend this nationally-known program. The concert has been widely publicized throughout the state.

Concert To Be Recorded

All sixty members of the Glee Club will make this trip and will leave Stevens Point by cars on Sunday afternoon. A recording will be made by the entire concert by the Elks' Chorus's recording equipment and will be played during the social hour following the program.

"The Queen's Husband", a three act comedy which will be presented on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, boasts one of the most talented casts that has ever presented a play at this college. Practically every part, from the king to the butler, is played by an experienced actor. Several of the cast are members of College Theater. Some are members of Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatic fraternity. Others in the cast have had considerable dramatic experience in Mr. Burroughs' speech classes or contemporary drama classes.

Interesting Cast

Ben Laske who plays the part of Prince William of Greece, also played leads in "Safety First" and the "Hoosier Schoolmaster."

Gordon Haferbecker who appears as General Northrup has had much experience in speech and dramatic work. He is debate captain and has played parts in "R.U.R." and "Cloudburst." Last summer he played the lead in a three act comedy, "Safety First." "The Queen's Husband" gives Haferbecker and Laske a chance to renew their verbal clashes which ended with the close of the debate season. The play contains some fiery dialogue between the two debaters.

A newcomer to school this semester, Don Krider, promises to become one of C.S.T.C.'s best actors. He is perfectly cast as Lord Birten, an oily diplomat. Krider has had some experience in acting at Antigo High School and at the University.

Extra Teachers Fund Abolished; Operating Fund Slashed By State

One of the revisions of the State Budget for the next biennium is the abolishing of the $40,700 Emergency Board appropriation for the hiring of extra teachers. If this cut is not changed it will entail a 10% wage cut for all teachers. In order to keep the new teachers the progressive party is trying to get this cut restored.

The operating expenses have been cut $482,048 for the period of two years. This includes a cut of $156,467.30 on the Federal projects, special capital—$265,682.40; maintenance—$30,000.00; operating expenses—$38,500; emergency appropriation—$40,700; miscellaneous capital—$42,000; administration—$3,200.

Increases include $6,000 for coal and insurance, and $1,500 for a cafeteria at River Falls.

COORDINATED GUIDANCE Guidance, guidance, lots of it administered in the proper channel is the plea of the placement bureau. Overloading in some fields, shortages in other and conglomerated combinations have been the chief causes of A. J. Herrick's annual headache—the placement of inexperienced teachers.

For example, there have been calls during the past few weeks for six or seven positions to teach Latin and English. The same situation exists in regard to German. Too bad these jobs have to go to waste!

What can we do about it? First of all examine the fields in education and determine what these fields demand. This means considerable effort on the part of someone—yet it must be done eventually, why not now? Secondly, after knowledge of the field's demands are known impart this information to the freshmen in the first—not their senior year. Thirdly, let the persons who have to secure jobs play a part in coordinating guidance and practice; let the pupils receive experience in the fields that will "net" them jobs. Finally, appoint a guidance chairman who will be impartial—there has been a tendency in the past to direct too many people into one field of study. Take the current graduating class for example, there are thirty history and social-science majors and Mr. Herrick doubts whether there will be that many vacancies in these majors throughout the entire state to say nothing about the central portion for which we supply teachers. Obviously some of our people will not be placed—why? Inadequate guidance!

How can we remedy the foreign language situation? Let us shift the emphasis of our department of foreign languages from the university preparation courses to one of teacher training.

Figures at the training school show that in a period of twelve years there have been only three calls for French teachers. Why shouldn't we train our people to teach subjects for which there is a demand? Namely, German and Latin.

Perhaps this all resolves itself to the question of the purpose of this institution. It is the contention of many that our primary work is to train teachers. University preparation should be synonymous, not predominant. The majority of Teacher College students have to teach a few years before they can continue their work at the University. This reason should justify a guidance program. Making our College a desirable place for securing teachers is another reason to advocate an efficient guidance program.

Mr. Jenkins has been appointed Chairman of the Guidance Committee—we hope that he can solve some of our problems for the future and that his work will receive all the support that it justly deserves.

—H.M.

40 YEARS

CANNIBALS EAT DEAD IN ORDER TO GLORIFY THEM

According to a French writer named Petrie, whose conclusions are noted in the Medical News, twenty per cent of all the cannibals eat the dead in order to glorify them; nineteen per cent eat great warriors in order that they may inherit their courage, and eat dead children in order that they may renew their youth; ten per cent partake of their dead relatives from religious motives either in connection with initiatory rites, or to glorify deities, and five per cent feast for hatred in order to avenge themselves upon their enemies. Those who devour human flesh because of famine are reckoned as eighteen per cent. In short, deducting all these, there remains only a proportion of twenty-four per cent who partake of human flesh because they prefer it to other kinds of food.

ON DAIRY BARN

I think that this dairy barn can be remedied in various ways. The odor of the barn is an important factor and should not be nauseating. This might be remedied by sprinkling talcum powder in the barn and immersing the cows in Lily of the Valley toilet water daily. A shower bath could be constructed in one end of the barn so the milkman could have a shower before and after each milking.

The color of walls and ceilings should harmonize with the color of the cows. A reading lamp of green will harmonize beautifully with the cows and instill in them a mood of rest and sweet contentment.

It should be the aim of the dairyman to instill good health habits in his cows.

The milker should set a good example by being courteous to the cows at all times.

If these suggestions are followed carefully whipped cream will be rendered most graciously and efficiently.

RADIO NEWS

Frederick I. Thompson, militant editor and publisher of the Montgomery, Alabama, Journal and Times, has been nominated by President Roosevelt and confirmed by the U. S. Senate as a member of the Federal Communications Commission to fill the vacancy recently created by the resignation of Eugene O. Sykes.

Judge Sykes leaves the Commission after a record of almost twelve years of continuous service in radio regulation. He was appointed to the Federal Radio Commission when it was created in 1927. At various times he has been chairman of both the Federal Radio Commission and its successor, the Federal Communications Commission.

Mr. Thompson, whose newspaper campaigns against private power companies have been outstanding examples of aggressive journalism, is no stranger to the federal service. In 1920 he was appointed to the U. S. Shipping Board by President Woodrow Wilson. He was reappointed by two Republican Presidents, Warren G. Harding and Calvin Coolidge.

"Radio Regulation and Monopoly," a statement made before the Federal Communications Commission hearings on monopoly by S. Howard Evans, representing the National Committee on Education by Radio, was put into the Congressional Record of March 20 by Senator Burton K. Wheeler.

"Ain't It The Truth"

Spring formally arrived Monday morning of this week. One can always be sure that it has at last come to Stevens Point when our pal, Jerry Krembs, dons his "spring" suit. This particular suit, Jerry boasts, is five years old and was bought in one of those weak moments which come to every man when his better sense leaves him. When you see him flitting about in it this week, be sure to go up to him and tell him the suit is swell and that it's a good little fit. He'll be sure to beam kindly at you when you do.

Orchids and pats on the back to Jayne Akins and Betty Schwahn on their placements in the fine old town of Elmhurst, yas suh! To get a job in a system like that, one's first year out of school is a signal accomplishment and the gals deserve plaudits. We hear also, that Johnny Steiner has snared himself a pedagogical post at Waunakee. Sounds like an Indian encampment but John tells us it's a fine little place near Madison, so best of luck to him.

"There's something about a soldier" note—Did you people see the picture of the grim, forbidding soldier boy in the window of Kennedy's studio last week. The young Pershing it represented was none other than Private Pat Kennedy of the local National Guard detachment. So many of the boys began saluting that noble Irishman after they saw the picture that Pat took it out of the window himself, muttering 'curse about some guys not appreciating art. That's O. K., Patrick, it was a swell picture anyway.

"THE HARP I LOVE TO PLAY"
 By listening around here and there and asking a few questions this is what we hear.

Why can't we have a baseball team? We have talent; we have interest; we are willing to start with little. Give us a break.

This from a little coed that's never been sent to sit or stand still in one place for more than a half minute—"I want a place where I can sit down and be a lady, a place to relax."

From a dignified Dormite—"The recreation room is, indeed, a sorry sight. Why can't it be fixed up so I can take my friend down there and entertain him."

"Since I've been in school I have never yet been able to get a look at the Vogue Magazine. It seems that some instructor grabs each new issue as it comes and puts it in a cubby hole for a generation to come."

"Girls, will you please stop crossing my lawn."

Some seniors insist on harping about the tremendous work, slaving, and worrying they must do for practice teaching. Dear Senior—didn't you know what you were getting into?

A lounge for the boys—A lounge for the boys—Maybe, then, they'll leave the grass alone.

It would be a dull life in C.S.T.C. if we could solve all of our problems—But life would be happier for many of us if someone took the initiative to solve a few of the major difficulties.

QUEEN'S HUSBAND

Lightbody Secures Audience; Talks On Legislative Functions

Edward Lightbody, a former student at C.S.T.C., who is a messenger in the Wisconsin Assembly this year, gave an instructive talk to the Rural Life Club on the working of that body, illustrating with what is happening during the present session. He distributed much material to the audience in the course of his explanation and answered questions from members of the audience.

Lynn Feutz, a third year student in the State Graded Principal's Course, gave a travelogue which took us through our western country and which was illustrated with pictures he had taken. He was assisted by Vernon Hendricks.

Other numbers on the program were club singing led by Phyllis De Golier and band selections directed by Kenneth Bartels.

appeared in many of Mr. Burroughs' Contemporary Drama Class plays. Miss Behnke has appeared in two operettas, "Tune In" and "Dress Rehearsal."

Florian Sybelden and Mason Atwood, who play parts as soldiers, recently appeared in one act productions. Sybelden performed in "Rory Aforesaid" and Atwood in "Verdict by Tradition."

Eleanor Ruchti plays the part of Queen Martha. She appeared in "Cloudburst" and "The Importance of Being Ernest." She is one of the outstanding actresses in Mr. Burroughs' Contemporary Drama Class.

La Rue Smith has had dramatic experience both as an actor and as a director. He played important parts in "R.U.R.," "Thirst," "Pot-boiler," "Wonder Hat," and "Penny a Day." He is one of the school's best character actors. He plays the part of the checker playing butler, Phipps.

Ted Meyer has a good dramatic background for his appearance as Granton. He has had extensive experience in acting, directing, and stage designing. He acted in "R.U.R.," "Auf Wiedersehen," "Thirst," and "Penny a Day." He directed, "Pot Boiler."

Sara Anderson plays the part of a lady-in-waiting. Sara's work in "Appelcart" was one of the best pieces of acting that has been seen this year. Gerald Hierl who plays the part of Laker, a radical leader, acted in "Verdict by Tradition."

Speakers Have Been Secured; May 6 Is Date

For the first time in its history, Primary Council is planning a homecoming for graduates who are now teaching in the field of primary education. This meeting will be held at Nelson Hall on Saturday, May 6. The purpose of this gathering is primarily to stimulate an interest in the alumnae to "come-back". Present members of Primary Council should profit much from such an affair, since it will enable them to converse and discuss problems with those who are having actual experience in primary educational systems. A reception at 12:30 P. M. at Nelson Hall will be followed by a luncheon at 1:00 P. M.

Miss Kibbe—Speaker

The main speaker of the day will be Miss Delia Kibbe of Madison. A supervising teacher from the State Department of Public Instruction, Miss Kibbe is an active participant in educational circles throughout the state. Her many duties include membership on the staff of the state superintendent of schools. Other speakers for the affair will be Miss Susan Colman, director of our primary department, and Miss Leda Bassler, an alumna who teaches at Marshfield. Musical numbers on the program will include songs by Charlotte Reichel, and marimba selections played by Evelyn Schwingel.

Guests for Luncheon

Special guests for the luncheon will be: President and Mrs. E. T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Herrick, and Mrs. Josephine Finch. Critic teachers of the training school who will be present include Miss Adda Tobias, Miss Frances Dearborn, and Miss Gladys Van Arsdale.

Bleck—Chairman

Committees named by Betty Schwahn, president of the organization, are headed by Lucy Bleck, general chairman. Members working on the various committees are: entertainment—Cora Mae Anderson, Margy Jacobs, Katherine Mozuch; decorations—Marcelline Warbelton, Carmelita Wirkus, Betty Richards, Janet Poggemiller, Charlotte Reichel, and Ruth Butler; dinner—Lois Gene Peden and Irene Dix; invitations—Marion Wachtl; reception—Lucy Bleck, Margaret Kujawa, Jean Mailer, Natalie Weiser, and Meta Mogensson; clean-up—Elouise Torkelson, Eileen De Horn, and Doris Soderberg.

Mixed Chorus Is Well Received In City Concert; Out Of Town Trips Planned

The Mixed Chorus of C.S.T.C., under the direction of Fred Parfrey, presented another of its concerts last Sunday evening, April 30, at the Presbyterian Church. An appreciative audience applauded the selections by the group, and the solo numbers. Incidental soloists in the songs were Ethel Hill, Charlotte Reichel, and Gerald Torkelson. A girls' trio, composed of Ethel Hill, Doris Soderberg, and Charlotte Reichel sang two songs. The accompanists for the chorus are Leota Brandt and Ula Mae Knutson.

The Mixed Chorus is planning trips to Plainfield and Wisconsin Rapids, where concerts will be given. This organization will sing at the Alpha Kappa Rho Concert on May 10.

It is indeed remarkable and heartening to note the spread of organization for the cooperative production of programs. The wide adoption of the principle of cooperation shows that the soundness of this principle is gaining wider and wider acceptance. Cooperation between institutions, between great public agencies, cooperation in faculties through advisory committees and councils, are examples of cooperating between producers of broadcasts. A deliberate effort to create machinery for cooperation also implies a keener realization of the importance of the program itself.—Excerpt from the report of Dr. A. G. Crane, President, University of Wyoming and Chairman, National Committee on Education by Radio, in his report to the National Association of State Universities.

McGUIRE SQUAD DEFEATED BY KESHENA

INDIANS "SCALP" THE POINTERS; SCORE 6-2

"The lane is long," someone has said, "that never turns again." The victory lane for the Mick McGuire's boxing squad at Keshena came to end last Tuesday night when the Indians scalped the Pointers by a score of 6-2. Don Young and Roman Baker were the only Purgolds to keep their victory strings intact.

Ben Kranski, still in quest of his first victory of the year, was unable to gain the judges' approval. Jack Taylor was knocked out in forty seconds of the first round. The rest of the Point boys, with the exception of Baker and Young, all lost decisions. John Felix lost his decision, an extremely close one, to Buster LaTenter. Felix forced the fight the greater part of the bout but encountered LaTenter's stiff right which ultimately led to his defeat. Clarence Tohm lost to Cooke of Keshena. Cooke seemed to have varied attack which had Tohm puzzled the greater share of the evening. Baker fought a shrewd fight after being floored in the first round and outlabeled Glen Warrington the rest of the way. Manny Boyd took the decision from Louie Lang in the semi-windup. Lang and Boyd slugged it out toe to toe in the best bout of the evening. Boyd received the judges' approval on a close "coin flip" decision. Dan Young, as usual, furnished good entertainment for the crowd with his slugging antics.

Superior To Fight

In the very near future a bout is in store with the squad from Superior. McGuire is trying to get a bout with these boys. Superior has a couple of tough cookies on their squad. Maybe the local boys can handle a few of the Superior lads.

Sports

WEEK'S PROGRAM

Feminine Babe Ruths have been doing their stuff out on the baseball diamond. La Verne Lonsdorf is making quite a name for herself as a hurler for her team the "Panthers." They nosed out both the Badgers and the Bulldogs by comfortable margins. In a following game the Bulldogs bowed to the Tigers, 14 to 13. V. Freeman pitched for the Tigers. Games scheduled are: Wednesday, 4:00 P. M.—Badgers vs. Tigers; Thursday, 5:00 P. M.—Panthers vs. Tigers.

Although Moody and Jacobs are in no immediate danger of losing their crowns; C.S.T.C. is well represented in women's tennis. Tuesday and Wednesday from 4:00 to 5:00 are reserved for the girls. Instruction is also offered at these hours.

Archery instruction is offered Monday and Thursdays from 4:00 to 5:00 P. M. All equipment should be taken from the game room at 4 o'clock.

The climax of the girls' athletic season, Play Day, is definitely scheduled for May 13. Twelve schools have accepted an invitation to attend. At a recent meeting committee reports and final instructions were given.

Pitching Duels Mark Intra-Mural Games

Slotwinski, Baker Win Close Ones

A couple of sparkling pitching duels marked the intra-murals softball games of the last week. The outstanding ones were between Ed Slotwinski of the "Loafers" against Siedel of "Ingersol's Boys" on Wednesday night April 26. The other was between Roman Baker of the Phi Sigs and Alex Szymanski of the Eagles. In the former game Slotwinski allowed no hits while Siedel allowed one. The "Loafers" were the winners 2 to 1. No earned runs were registered in this game. Roman Baker pitched the Phi Sigs to a 2 to 1 victory over the "Eagles" on Monday May 1st. In this game Baker allowed one hit, while Szymanski was touched for five. It required all seven innings to decide the battle. Baker set down eighteen men via strikeout route while Szymanski made twelve whiff the ozone.

Sports Stars

As yet few of the enthusiastic supporters of baseball, tennis, and archery classes have responded. Mr. Heyer will need more than he has to conduct such classes.

All of the scheduled events of the week will be posted upon the mens' and women's bulletin boards.

"SIZIN 'EM UP"

A little major league talent has appeared to Miss Gormley in the girls' softball league. The home run queen is Geraldine Wojcickowski who really takes a lusty cut at the ball, Jerry Lonsdorf who fans the girls ala lefty Gomez style. Anita Jensen appears to be a second Joe De Maggio in the fly chasing department. Zodie is the Lou Gehrig (iron man) of the girls' baseball league.

Mr. Heyer is proposing an intra-class track meet. The Seniors and Juniors against the Sophomores and Freshman. This should furnish an interesting afternoon of entertainment. Besides, track is one sport where rugged individualism comes to the front.

One of the most colorful fighters ever seen in a local arena is Dave Williams. He presents a rather eccentric figure when he first steps into the ring but after a round or so his opponents don't think he's so eccentric.

Some of the more loyal of the loyal Cub fans namely Mr. Steiner, Arnie Gennrich, Jerry Krembs, Ken Storandt, and Gordon Lewison are in their glory now that the Cubs are winning a game or two. It's a good thing they can only meet the Yanks in four games per year isn't it boys.

By the way, why hasn't that net on the dorm tennis courts been given more consideration. That old net is looking pretty dilapidated.

The way Baker of the Phi Sigs and Slotwinski of the Chi Deltas are pitching in the intra-mural league some real pitching is in store for the intra-mural series which should be played around the 15 and 16 of May.
