Science Club Ends Another Active Year

Club Only One Of Its Kind In State

by EARLE SIEBERT

Wednesday evening, May 24, marks the end of another year of activity for the Social Science Club which was organized at Central State February 28, 1938. Under the leadership of Edwin L. Lietz the club got off to a good start, and has succeeded in gaining the respect and admiration of many of our faculty members as well as the students at large. As the preamble to the constitution states, the purpose of the organization is to "gain a better understanding of world events and their interrelation upon human society."

Beginning with six charter members the club has grown to a membership of ten students and one faculty adviser, almost reaching its capacity which has been fixed at twelve. Only social science minors are qualified for membership, and they must have maintained a 2.1 honor point average in those courses. Dr. Reppen, faculty adviser to the club, was an early supporter of the idea, and the success of the organization is in a large measure the result of his guidance. Round table discussions on questions of social, economic, or political significance are the order of the meetings held twice each month. Some of the more important sub-

Mr. A. Bartosz will address the survey courses of History 110 and 112 respectively on the subject: "Poland Past and Present." Visitors are invited to attend this first hand picture of the hub of Europe.

"In Search Of America" Tonight In Auditorium

The Speech Class presents "In Search of America" tonight in the auditorium at 8:00 o'clock. The play is coached by students and under the direction of L. M. Burroughs, head of the Speech Department.

The program is in three parts: Ideals are Born; Melting Pot; and Young America Evolves.

The public is cordially invited; there is no admission fee.

CINDERELLA TO COME TO C.S.T.C. FRI. NIGHT

The Intermediate Department of the Training School, composed of the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades, will present its operetta "Cinderella In Flowerland" on Friday evening, May 26, in the College Auditorium. The operetta is being supervised by Miss Helen Bolly, critic teacher, and coached by student teachers.

The characters are: Cinderella — Arlene Kust; Proud Sisters — Virginia Leo and Yvonne Gabelson; Godmother — Mary Lee Falkner; Bonnie Bee — Janet Jayne; Robin Red — James Davis; Prince Sunshine — Jack Trickey; and Butterflies — Betty Seefluth, Janet Reed, Marjorie Kohler, and Shirley Sprella. The Guests at the Ball will be sixth grade students, the Flowers of the Field will be fifth grade students, the Raindrops — fourth grade boys, and the Sunbeams will be fourth grade girls.

Production Managed By Student Teachers

The songs are being coached by Eleanore Theisen and Eileen Marx; the costumes are being made by Evelyn Sonnenberg, and the stage setting and lighting is being done by Ted Meyer. Between the scenes the seventh and eighth grade girls will sing several songs. These girls will be directed by Jeannette Winarski.

Admission Fees Not Fixed

Miss Bolly stated, "The operetta is coming along nicely and I can promise all that attend a very enjoyable evening and a polished performance. The question of admission is still unanswered because the production costs have not as yet been figured. The admission price will be as low as we can make it and if it is at all possible there will be no admission charged."

The first all-student assembly of this semester will be presented on Thursday morning at ten o'clock. This program should be of special interest to all students and faculty members, for it will feature the results of C. S. T. C.'s talent scouts and co-chairmen—Ula Mae Knutson and Norman Hinkley. The purpose of this assembly is to give C. S. T. C. students an opportunity to enjoy the talent within their own "rank and file".

The program will feature Claude and his Tom-Cat Orchestra. Numbers on the program include: a tap dance—Elayne Sebor; piano duet—Gerald O'Doherty and Marvin Yost; dance—Ingeborg Enderlein; two-piano duets—Ula Mae Knutson and Sonny Olingy; quartet selections by the Collegeers—Herbert Upright, Gordon Cowles, Bill Clements, and Gerald Torkelson; humorous monologue — Ruth Behnke; dance — Sara Anderson.

This program was placed under the supervision of Ula Mae Knutson and Norman Hinkley by Dr. Arthur Lyness, chairman of the Assembly programs.

SENIOR ANNOUNCEMENT

From now on the glass case next to the main bulletin board will be used for important announcements for students intending to graduate. Please watch this for notices as they will be important.

There will be a very important meeting of the graduating students after assembly Thursday morning. The meeting will be in the front part of the assembly.

Yearbook Is Largely Pictorial

Editor Spindler announced to the Pointer staff that the Iris will come out, if no delays occur, either May 22 or May 23. The company reports that everything is in excellent shape and that most of the book has been printed and bound.

Says Editor Spindler, "This year's book is largely pictorial but a moderate amount of copy has been used. Several new and unusual features have been worked up especially for this book, both in student ideas and mechanical improvements. One of the outstanding points of interest is a double page aerial view of our college, taken last summer. This is the first ever taken of C.S.T.C. and one of the few aerial pictures used in school annuals.

Kerwin Speaks At Last Rural Life Meeting

The last regular meeting of the Rural Life Club was held Monday night with Miss Doris Kerwin, a field worker of the Anti-Tuberculosis Association as guest speaker. She gave an illustrated lecture prepared especially for teachers, showing the danger of the spread of tuberculosis, the detection of symptoms and the best methods for care.

Reports of the Intercollegiate Rural Life Conference at Oshkosh were made by Marguerite Carmody, Matt Kneede, Bernice Martens and Jean McPetridge.

Other numbers on the program were a reading "Under the Big Tent" by La Verne Lonsdorf, a group of vocal solos by Clara Rabbit with Laura Schreiber as accompanist and club singing led by William Clements, while Wilson Wickman accompanied.

Mr. Williams called upon Mr. Neale who expressed his appreciation for the fine cooperation of the students in all division projects and the feeling of sadness felt as the graduation of those finishing courses approaches.

During a business meeting it was decided to have a picnic for the club members next Monday evening. Mr. Williams appointed Lorraine Brown chairman of the refreshment committee and Ruth Wagner chairman of the entertainment group.

Frank Splitok, a freshman in the Rural State Graded Division, read resolutions drawn up by his class, expressing the appreciation of his group for their welcome into "Rural Life" and for the assistance which has been extended them by older students. He extended an invitation to graduating seniors to return often.

ACTIONS SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS

"Actions speak louder than words" spake one philosopher. These words seem very appropriate at this particular time. Students should remember that their conduct does not only reflect on themselves but may be taken, as representative of the entire student body.

Certainly prospective employers will be skeptical about hiring a graduate of Central State if they have received nothing but unfavorable impressions of the student body. And these employers do get around..... Of course these impressions may have been derived from the antics of a select few, but nevertheless the rest of the student body pays.

The students must be brought to realize that "their actions are their own business" but, if the actions belittle the school, they are the business of every student enrolled.

To avoid any adverse criticism we should all watch our behavior. We can and should be accountable to each and all the students of C.S.T.C.

POINTS FROM Old Pointers

15 YEARS AGO

The last meeting of the Home Economics Club was held Monday evening, May 14. A very interesting milk demonstration was given by five of the junior girls. They demonstrated how appetizing milk dishes could easily be made for the children. Each one gave a talk on the value of milk in the diet. This part of the meeting was held in the white kitchen. We then adjourned to the Rural Assembly room where we heard a very interesting meeting of a mock Home Economics faculty. "See yourself as others see you," proved very interesting. The remaining time was spent in playing "Cootie."

The Home Economics teachers, Misses Allen, Wilson, Meston and Church entertained the Home Economics seniors at a chafing dish supper Sunday evening, May 27.

2 YEARS AGO

Plans are nearing completion for the Tau Gamma Beta Sorority spring formal which will be held Saturday night at Hotel Whiting. The dinner for active and alumni members and their escorts will be held at 6:30. Sorority colors will be carried out in table appointments and decorations. The sorority president, Dorothy Richards, will preside, assisted by Alice Oik, Regina Schwebke, Ethel McDonald, Laura Jane Rosenow, and Dorothy Mullarkey, who will receive the guests.

Chaperones and guests for the evening will be President and Mrs. E. S. Hyer, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kotal, Capt. and Mrs. F. A. Hirzy, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh L. Huffman, and Miss Jessie Jones, faculty advisor.

The music of Charles Brinckley and his twelve piece band will be featured for the evening of dancing which will begin at 9:00.

Students and townspeople and their escorts are cordially invited to attend.

THE WISDOM CORNER

DOC BEN

As the college career of some of our illustrious students draws to a close it would be well for us to have some of their opinions as a guide to under-class men's aspirations. During the course of the next week I shall interview numerous students. I shall choose them with extreme caution, picking those that I consider the solid backbone of our graduating class. (Consider yourself flattered if I call at your door.)

In all seriousness, never let it be said that seniors were not given their opportunity to leave a monument in their stead. This should however, not be construed as a survey, it is in a class of its own distinction; it refuses to be classified.

His lectures are illustrated with very interesting movies taken while he was on his numerous expeditions. "Cliff Dwellers of the Far North" will be told with the only existing pictures of the customs and habits of the people living on King Island off the coast of Alaska. Father Hubbard has written two books about his travels, "Mush, You Malemutes" and "Cradle of the Storms," both books superb pieces of English writing. Nearly all of the largest auditoriums in America have been filled to capacity by his listeners and it is expected that a large crowd will enjoy this rare treat for Stevens Point.

Making the Haul Complete

The Sunday drivers had picked the farmer's fruit and his flowers, and their car was full-of-plunder. Pointing to an unexplored highway, they inquired of the farmer: "Shall we take this road back to the city?" "You might as well," replied the farmer, "you've got almost everything else!"

THIS WEEK AND NEXT

Sigma Zeta will hold a picnic at the Wild Rose Fish Hatchery this Wednesday, May 17.

The Speech class will present "In Search of America" in the College auditorium Wednesday, May 17, 8:00 P. M. There will be no admission charge.

Thursday at 10:00 A. M. there will be a student talent assembly in the College auditorium. Everyone is urged to attend.

Following the assembly Mr. A. Bartosz will address the History 110 and 112 courses. The subject will be "Poland, Past and Present." Everyone is invited to attend.

Following the assembly there will be a faculty meeting in Mr. Burrough's room.

At 11:00 A. M. Thursday there will be a meeting of the graduates in the assembly.

Simple Task

A gentleman to whom an Irishman had applied for work asked if he knew anything about woodwork. Assured that the applicant knew everything about the carpentry trade, he said: "Well, can you make a Venetian blind?" "It's a treat, sor, to see me at the job," said the son of Erin. "How would you do it, then?" "Why, I'd just poke my finger in his eye, sor!"

Keep Up With The Rimes

HER ARE WENT

Her are went and gone and left I, Went and left I all alone. I are black and blue in left eye Where her hit I with a bone.

Blue I are in spirit also— I are have a tired heart, And at nite it be I also I are once more in the mart.

Do her know how I are lonely She are really be surprised. Do I cannot have she only I are rather be demised.

Still and all it are not bad here— I are see experience teach. Did she would come back I'd say, "Dear, You're not the only pebble on the beach." —Paul Izdepski.

SONG OF A PURITAN

I don't indulge in smokes or drinks; I go to chapel every day; I never read, nor sing, nor dance, But saintly live in every way. My life runs on as smooth as glass With ne'er a naughty tale..... You ask me what I do with time? I'm doing mine in jail. —Nelson Boulware.

"Ain't It The Truth"

It's a sad state of affairs when the faculty has to go out and catch its own breakfast before it can eat. Maybe our governor's proposed teachers' salary cut would have been more drastic than we imagined in our wildest fancy. They tell us that Dean Steiner rose at 4:00 A. M. Monday, donned his waders and fishing hat, went out to Galloway, angled, caught a ten-inch trout, and came home and had it for breakfast. When one stops and gives a second thought, however, it may not have been expediency that caused "Tunk" (as he was known in his undergrad days, may he, forgive me for breathing it) to go a-fishing, but a natural love of the sport that marks him as one of the most avid anglers of the faculty.

Remember a couple weeks ago, we mentioned the ancient but still beautiful spring suit Jerry Krems dragged out for the "summer season?" The suit must have attracted widespread attention and established Crems as a Beau Brummel because a local clothier picked Jerry from the ranks to use as a model displaying his wares at the Home Show.

Some of the people in Mr. Burrough's English classes have such an interest in the drama that they've ordered an old time silent flicker, made way back in 1920, which they're going to show Sunday nite, in Mr. Watson's room. There's a handsome hero, a mustachioed villain, and a demure little thing, as the heroine. People interested may attend for a very nominal sum. (On the level, only a dime to cover costs.) It promises to be good.

"Ain't it the Hawaiian" Gdyniewicki strums a mean guitar, even if he didn't win a prize at the Fox Amateur Show last week. The audience gave him a big hand as they did Harold Irish, whose tap dancing marks him as a threat to the throne of Astaire. Irish may not be as tricky as Fred but he makes up for it in vigour. The Phi Sig resurrected their "Finklestein's Fashion Show" from the Mardi Gras of a year ago and proceeded to win first prize and ten bucks on it. (Methinks that a lot of that tremendous applause came from a bunch of loyal brothers sitting in the first row, but it sounded good anyway). The boys didn't know whether to donate the money to the Red Cross or buy a keg of Stevens Point's Best with it. Any bets where the money finally ends up?

Friends of Greg Dorsha will be pleased to know that both Greg and "Junior" are doing nicely. In reality "Junior is a bandaged hand, however, at the first glance one might think he is in the wrong ward. If the fellows keep on kidding him he will probably have the nurses wrap "it" with burlap instead of the nice, soft, pink blanket he has on "it" now.

Judging from the number of girls that keep coming to see Greg there must be quite a few of the "fairer sex" waiting for him to get back in circulation again.

Mrs. E. Rogers Presents Books To Library

About one hundred books from the private library of Mrs. E. Rogers, wife of the late Dr. Rogers, long-time Stevens Point physician, have been presented to the Central State library as a gift by Mrs. Rogers.

Mrs. Rogers comes from a family which has long been interested in education, and particularly in that offered by normal schools and teachers' colleges of the state and nation. Her father, John Phillips, lived most of his life in Stevens Point and was on the State Board of Regents of Normal Schools from 1876-91. Tracing back another generation, the father of Mr. John Phillips was the founder of the first teachers' college in the United States, which was established in the state of Vermont.

Gift Made Through Mr. Evans

The gift was made through Mr. Charles Evans, a member of the faculty, who expressed to Mrs. Rogers the appreciation of the school. The books are now being gone over and sorted by Mr. Evans, who will then turn them over to the library for tabulation and classification. After this work has been completed on them, the collection will be distributed to their proper places in the library where they may then be used by the student of the school.

Intramural Track Meet To Be Held May 24

The intramural track meet which has been scheduled for Wednesday, May 24 already has drawn several contestants from all four classes. Eight events will be run off including the one hundred yard dash, half mile, broad jump, high jump, mile, discus, shot put, and relay. The meet will begin at 3:30.

Several stars of former C.S.T.C. track will be seen in action. Ray Grandkowski, who has been a crack miler for the past three years, will run in the half and mile run and also the one hundred yard dash. Hank Warner is a high jumper of note besides being entered in the one hundred yard dash. So far the upper classmen will pin their hopes on Duecker, Warner, Copes and Sybeldon in the weights. Sybeldon and Warner will fire the javelin while, Duecker, Copes, and Warner will try in the shot put. So far the upper classmen have no one entered in the relay.

The lower classmen will depend largely on former high school stars. Ted Fritch of football fame will try his luck in several events. "Ducky" Lewison claims he is quite a half mile runner while Pete Terzynski will attempt to show his stuff in the one hundred yard dash.

In the weights Ted Fritch and Bob Klake seem to be the only muscleman among the Freshmen and Sophomores. The entries thus far are:

Lower Classmen: Fritch, Meckish, Turner, Schrank, Cashin, Terzynski.

"SIZIN 'EM UP"

Arrangements have been made at the local golf course for students wishing to play at a reduced rate. The fee will be 35c instead of the usual $1.00 for students. (This offer will be good until school closes.)

H. Nimz one of our most versatile freshman athletes has left school to work for the Coco Cola Company. He will return to school in September.

Unless warm weather arrives rather suddenly the intramural tennis tournament will have to be curtailed somewhat if play is to be finished.

The intramural baseball play-offs should be finished well before school closes unless there are a large number of postponed games.

The intramural track-meet to be held May 24, should uncover some good track talent. However, the list of contestants should be much larger than it is at present. Entries will be received until the day of the meet.

The local High School and the Emerson School were dismissed Monday for the opening of trout season. It's too bad there are not more trout fishermen in our institution.

We understand Mr. Steiner got the limit or rather, his limit (1) last Monday. He ate all of them (or it) for breakfast.

Miss Gormley shot an 87 (2 less than last week for nine holes). There have been no recent reports on Miss Davidoffs or Miss Stull's scores. They're probably waiting till they get down to two figures.

"Mase" Atwood one of the student managers, has "gone theatrical" on us. He made two brief appearances in a local theatre recently and was not signed for a return engagement.

Tau Gam Tea Last Saturday

Alumnae members of Tau Gamma Beta Sorority were entertained at a tea last Saturday afternoon. The active members acting as hostesses greeted the alumnae in the Home Economics Parlors from 3:00 to 5:00 P. M. Crimson tulips and white snapdragons in a silver bowl flanked by tall white tapers decorated the table. Gladys Greve and Ruth Behnke poured.

To comply with the many requests for an alumnae association, the formation of such was discussed. The alumnae elected the following officers: President, Elizabeth Collins Pfiffner; Vice-president, Margaret Richards Crosby; Secretary-Treasurer, Magdalen Wolf; Corresponding Secretary, Lucille Scott.

Mother-Daughter Banquet

Friday evening the girls of Nelson Hall entertained their mothers at a Mother-Daughter Banquet. This affair is the second of its kind and is planned to be a traditional event at the dormitory. Approximately 65 mothers and daughters attended. The theme of the dinner was spring flowers. The tables were decorated with pastel flowers and streamers. Novel placecards and programs tied with pastel ribbon added to the effect. Each mother was presented with a dainty corsage. The guests ate by candlelight.

Irene Dix, dorm-council head, acted as toastmistress. Mrs. Finch gave an impressive talk. Mrs. Torkelson gave ashort acceptance on the part of the mothers. Charlotte Reichel sang several solos and the Boys' College Quartet also entertained with several numbers.

Picnic At Iverson

Members of Grammar Round Table enjoyed a picnic at Iverson Park Monday evening, May 15. A weiner roast climaxed the party, and games were played. Special guests were: Miss Leah Diehl, Miss Lydia Pfeiffer, Miss Edna Earlsten, Charles Watson, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Herrick.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

The Wisconsin High play day which was held Saturday went off with a bang. Blue ribbons for first place went to the Circle Q ranch while the Ranch Hands were presented red ribbons for second place. White ribbons for third place went to the Spur High ranch. Arleen Skudlark from Green Bay was first in the tennis tournament and Lois Lynn of Stevens Point was second. Lillian Strenski of Green Bay won the horse shoe pitching contest. The posture contest, a new event proved a success. Mrs. E. T. Smith was the main speaker of the contest.

The annual W. A. A. picnic will be held Wed., May 24. Awards for girls scoring one thousand points will be a blue S. For girls scoring seven hundred points in athletic competition during the year will be a gold diamond with C. S. T. C. on it.

On Friday, May 19, the Orchestra will go to the Dance Drama at Madison. Among those going will be, Eleanor Theisen, Ruby Ottom, Marion Lawrence, Barbara Brewster, and Janet Benn. Miss Gormley was a member of Orchestra when she attended the University at Madison.

The intramural softball tournament has narrowed down to four teams. They are, The Chi Delt, The Loafers, The Phi Sigs, and The House of Yulga. The team finishing the tournament with only one defeat or none at all will be awarded the school championship.
