

DEBATERS WIN 9 AT EAU CLAIRE OSHKOSH HERE SAT. NIGHT

Waupaca Concert Well Taken, Commences Mid-Season Tour

A group of approximately twenty-five members of the Central State Men's Glee Club, under the direction of Norman E. Knutzen, made an initial appearance at Waupaca Sunday night in the first of a series of mid-winter concerts. A dinner was given for the group in the church parlors at six o'clock, and the concert was successful in more ways than one.

Community Concert at Rudolph

On Monday evening a small group composed of Bob Larson, Dick Larson, Tony Klein, Dick Parrett, Russ Frederick, Adrian La-Brot, Gerald Torkelson, Gerald O'Doherty, Arthur Stapel, Herbert Upright, and George Quandt, with Mr. Knutzen directing and Ula Mae Knutson accompanying, presented a short program at the Rudolph High School.

Tau Gam's Formal Success, Ends Semester Social Season

One-hundred and twenty-five couples, mostly college students and young people of the city, attended the Tau Gamma Beta Sorority formal dancing party at the Hotel Whiting Saturday evening. Ted Gay's orchestra furnished music for the dancing. The sorority coat-of-arms in gold on black decorated the ball room, and the programs had a gold coat-of-arms on the black suede covers. Special guests for the evening were Mrs. Frank Spindler, sorority patroness, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Michelsen, Captain and Mrs. Ferdinand H. Hirzy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh L. Huffman.

Preceding the dance a dinner was served for members of the sorority and their escorts and guests. Fifty were seated at tables decorated with spring flowers in shades of lavender and yellow. Miss Ann Mainland, president of the sorority, presided. She mentioned the fact that Tau Gamma Beta is celebrating the thirtieth anniversary of its founding and introduced Mrs. Spindler, the first patroness of the group when it organized. Others who talked were Mr. Michelsen and Captain Hirzy, who designed the sorority crest. Sorority songs opened and closed the dinner.

New Photographic Contest For College Seniors Offers Careers

The Editors of Vogue Magazine, a Condé Nast Publication, have just announced a Photographic Contest for seniors in American colleges and universities.

The contest offers two career prizes—one for men, one for women—consisting of a six months' apprenticeship, with salary, in the Condé Nast Studios in New York—with the possibility of a permanent position on completion of the period of apprenticeship. In addition, eight cash prizes and honorable mentions will be awarded.

"In our search for new talent," said Mrs. Chase, Editor-in-Chief of Vogue, "it is natural for Vogue to turn to the colleges, where there is a keen interest in photography and a

Hope To Gain Back Winning Streak Against Old Rivals

This week's basketball menu calls for the meeting of two traditional rivals. Coach Bob Kolf will bring his Oshkosh Cagers here to meet the second-place Point five. The Kotal men, smarting under last week's defeat, are out to get into their winning streak and will be raring to go. The game promises to be one of those fast, hard, typical Point-Oshkosh contests that are characteristic of any contest between these schools.

Little is known of the Oshkosh quintet which has lost two games while gaining one decision this season. Coach Kotal will probably stick to his same starting lineup including Terzynski and Warner, forwards, Seffern, center, Anderson and Olk, guards.

Text-Book Library Notice

Text-books are to be returned during the following hours on Thursday and Friday, February 1 and February 2, 1940:

High School Department, Thursday, 1:30-3:00

Rural Department, Friday, 8:00-10:00

Primary and Grammar, Friday, 10:00-12:00

Students who have text-books not in use and wish to do so may return them to the text-book library on Tuesday and Wednesday, January 30 and 31, during the following hours:

9:00-11:00 A. M. Tuesday

2:00-4:00 P. M. Wednesday

In order to avoid congestion, the return of textbooks on Tuesday and Wednesday is encouraged.

Central State debaters came back from the Saturday Eau Claire tournament with nine victories out of sixteen contests. Eleanor Ruchti and Virginia Johnson repeated last weeks' feat by winning four out of four. Margaret Becher and Evelyn Murgatroyd split even up, two and two, as did Don Krider and Frank Splitek. The team composed of Joe Ophoven and Don Kordus won one and dropped three.

Fifteen Colleges Participate

Fifteen mid-west colleges were represented at the Eau Claire meet: Carleton, Duluth Teachers, La Crosse Teachers, Macalester, River Falls Teachers, St. Thomas, Whitewater Teachers, Augsburg, Bethel, Concordia, Hamlin, Mankato, and Eau Claire Teachers. Competition was extremely keen for most of the Central State teams, and the results for the most part do not necessarily indicate the strengths or weaknesses of the teams in relation with one another.

Local Contest February 1

Point teams will battle it out on home grounds a week from tomorrow to determine which teams will represent C.S.T.C. at the Fargo, N. D., tournament February 8, 9, and 10. This tournament is one of the most important of the whole season, and Central State debaters will be fighting to get placed on the teams to be chosen. Coach Burroughs extends an invitation to all freshman and sophomores interested in debate work to report to him January 25. A tournament will be held with Oshkosh early in February and all new participants will be given a chance to compete in this contest. By actual participation in debate work, it is possible to gain membership in the Forensic Society.

MEN'S LOCKER REGULATIONS

1. Every locker that is being used must be registered in office 119.
2. Every lock used on a locker must have either a duplicate key or its combination in office 119.
3. Any lock used on an unassigned locker will be sawed off without any advance notice.
4. All changes in locks should be reported at once.
5. Present locker assignments will carry over to the second semester.
6. For information in regard to lockers or for assignments report to office 119 on Mondays and Wednesdays from 1:00 to 5:00 P. M.

If cooperation is received from the students, the necessity of a locker fee may be avoided.

SENATOR BORAH — A TRUE AMERICAN

With the sudden death of Senator William E. Borah of Idaho last week, America lost one of the greatest liberal minds of this modern era. Senator Borah represented everything we like to call the spirit of America—honesty, fairness and integrity. He will long be remembered for the contributions he gave to his country throughout his thirty odd years in the Senate. No other person has ever held such a high position in the United States government for such a long period of time—this fact alone ought to reflect the high esteem he held in the eyes of the people of Idaho. Regardless of party and politics, Senator Borah's actions in public matters came as a result of his own convictions. A man who will agree when he honestly feels that his sense of reason is correct, and a man who will disagree when his sense of reason leans the other way is truly a real American. Senator Borah was exactly that sort of a man. In a world so full of trouble and turmoil to-day, we can easily see the need for more Senator Borahs—real honest-to-goodness believers in themselves. If we all had the confidence to act as our conscience dictates, there would be less strife and suffering in this old world of ours. May the spirit of Senator William E. Borah continue to remain at the forefront of American ideals!

E.R.S.

OUR EDUCATIONAL STANDARDS IN GRAVE DANGER

Last week there appeared an article in this column regarding the thoughtless waste of electricity in our building. Perhaps a matter like this seems very trivial, as does the matter of conserving on school-supplied paper, but do we realize what is actually behind all of the stress that has been placed on cutting expenses during the last couple of years?

Support in our state higher educational system hasn't been equal to the increase in enrollment during the past decade. Since 1931 enrollment has increased 27% while state appropriations for State Teachers' Colleges and the University have increased 12%. Besides this, the Emergency Board has further reduced the 1939 appropriation $132,000, and has authorization to make still further cuts up to a 25% total. With these continued reductions can we maintain or improve the present quality of education offered?

From a release by the Wisconsin Education Association is the following: "While the institutions have had their state appropriations decreased by nearly $900,000 for 1939-40 over 1930-31, they have been called upon to carry over 4200 more students. With no appreciable increases to the building plants, and with practically no new equipment added, and teaching loads increased, it is evident that in spite of the commendable efforts of the faculties our state institutions of higher learning cannot continue to give the type of instruction which the youth of Wisconsin deserves."

State Teachers Colleges being subject to legislative action and Emergency Board reductions, we can see, by the figures above, how they have noticeably suffered because of a shortage in the state treasury. Perhaps no immediate results are noticed, but if such a policy continues, what can we expect in a year or two? Our leaders desire to give us a broader background in order to increase our efficiency in the field, but they are being handicapped. If our training has to suffer, what is going to happen to secondary education?

Shoatin' from the Lip

Well, people, I hope you have been thinking about our beauty trait search. Even now the questionnaires are being given out. If you do not have one and are interested, you can get a copy at the counter. Hurry because there are perhaps only a very few left. We imagine some girls are going to be a good deal surprised to see that one of their features is the choice of a big per cent of the students for first place in our little composite beauty contest. There seems to be some misconception as to the nature of this search. Understand, we are looking for no one girl who lays claim to beauty. Rather we are looking for the ideal features, such as eyes, hair, teeth, figure and so on as possessed by various girls. In our next column we will list those girls whose traits of personality, beauty, and intelligence are the students' choice.

Madge Lee (no relation to the southern gennulman) and yours truly figured this column was due for a poem. First we ran head first into each wall in the room, made faces in the mirror, read Poe's "The Raven", and wrote this:

Logical Love

Love is all right if you don't fall into it.
Love is a nightmare or something akin to it.
Love is a dream when there's no chagrin to it.
Shore ain't logic, but I'm lookin' into it!

We thus reserve a place in our search for beauty traits contest for Madge as the pome-writin'est kid in this here school.

We have a date with a certain conference N. B. so we fly just like tempus fugit.

MEGAPHONE

So it goes—just when the kids are really enjoying things along comes—guess what—exams, of course; and from what they tell me they sure take the joy out of life. So what—seem' as how you have to I guess you must.

Jim Bagnell wants this little notice published. To whom it may concern—Will all of my "Advice to the Lovelorn" people please pay up their dues as I'm broke.

It seems Betty Gustin had a whale of a birthday party in the dorm the other night—little invitations and everything. Some of the boys are plenty jealous because they didn't get any invites.

One of the campus Romeos—Lover Joe Negard by name—seems to have gotten lost after the formal the other night. I hear he showed up in church the next morning in a tux.

The boys from Berlin are cutting up again. Tommy has been getting letters from Ormsby Hall at Lawrence—and she calls him honey—my, my, Bob, his pal, says there's nothing like waiting for a woman. The way he says it he must have experience.

George Sappenfield spent his vacation in the good old south land—and claims there's nothing like those Southern gals.

Events from Eau Claire—Our Frank Splitek got lost in the hotel Saturday night. Story has it that nobody told him there was an elevator.

Frank Pliner has his troubles. Yup, you guessed it—women it is. If you want to know, ask him.

Of the famous gals of our campus, one Lenore Sweeney seems to have gotten herself campused. I guess she thought that by not living in the dorm—It Can't Happen Here—but they fooled you, eh Sweeney?

Famous sayings of the week: Says Ruchti as she proposes her debate material—"I am confident that I have plenty of stuff but I'm not so sure I have it in the right places."

Well, so long! I'll see you all after exams with the beginning of a new semester—I hope!

THE MUSIC PARADE

Preparations are being made for the annual Band Clinic to be held at C.S.T.C. February 16. The object of this Clinic is to have the College Band interpret the contest selections for the benefit of the high school band leaders. Further information will be given in the next issue of the Pointer.

Mr. Michelsen reports that the Girls Glee Club is planning a trip for next semester. A few towns have been listed but as yet specific plans are not ready for publication.

The Mens Glee Club made their first official trip of the year to Wau-paca Sunday afternoon. The boys gave their concert at the First Methodist Church and we hear it was well received. One member tells me that they were really treated royally by the Methodist ladies—speaking of food, of course.

NO POINTER

There will be no issue of the Pointer during the week of tests, January 29—February 2.

CLUB AND SOCIETY

NEWMAN NEWS

Frank Nalbor will be the speaker at the Newman Club meeting, Thursday evening at 7:30. Mr. Nalbor is a former member of this organization. He spent a year in Poland studying art and will use his experiences there as the theme of his address. Everyone is invited to attend.

PHOTO CLUB

Wallace Bartoz lectured to the Photo Club, last Tuesday night, on the Miniature Camera which he illustrated with slides.

Plans were made for a taffy pull at Iverson Lodge for the beginning of the second semester. They have also decided upon an exhibit of their work to be given early in May.

FACULTY NOTES

President and Mrs. E. T. Smith traveled to Detroit last Friday where they witnessed the wedding of their son, Thomas, to Miss Shirley Siess, of that city. The wedding took place at 8 o'clock, Tuesday evening at the First Lutheran Church.

T. A. Rogers attended the annual convention of the American Cannery Association at Chicago this past weekend. The conclave held at the Stevens Hotel, with about 15,000 in attendance began on Saturday and will continue through the week.

Miss Edna Carlston and Lydia Pfeiffer entertained their student teachers at tea from three to five last Sunday afternoon. Two prospective teachers of the Intermediate department poured, the Misses Kathleen Stone and Sophie Palukas.

The table was beautifully decorated, with a centerpiece of acacia and sweet peas, and pink perfumed candles.

Before tea the guests played chinese checkers and contract.

Miss Mildred Davis and Miss Emily Wilson will give a tea Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Davis' mother, Mrs. I. M. Reed of Osceola, Iowa. Mrs. Reed, who has visited her daughter for the past several weeks, will return to her home on Friday. All faculty women and faculty wives are invited to be present.

Loyal Concert Thursday

A group similar to the Waupaca singers will travel to Loyal for an evening concert Thursday. Loyal is one of the many towns on the Glee Club's concert list, several appearances having been made there in the past. These mid-winter trips are being made in private cars, and the inability to procure a sufficient number of insured automobiles has restricted to some degree the number of singers used.

New Photographic Contest For College Seniors

John Rawlings, André Durst, Roger Schall, Horst, and Toni Frissell. Many of them achieved much of their finest work in collaboration with the London, Paris and New York studios of the Condé Nast Publications. The opportunity to work in these same studios, to acquire the technical and artistic knowledge essential to a career in photography, is now being offered to the winners of Vogue's Photographic Contest.

The contest will be composed of a series of eight photographic problems to be presented in the magazine. These will cover a wide range of topics, including outdoor and indoor shots, action, still life, etc. Winners of the contest will join Vogue's New York staff on or about June 15th.

SPORTS - IN - SHORTS

Hear Ye! Hear ye! Ping pong fans! The ladder tournament will come to an end this week so it would be well to finish your games if you are taking part. The elimination games will take place the beginning of next semester.

Another interesting thing to begin thinking about, girls, is the people you would like to have on the Intramural basketball teams. Each team should consist of eight people. For further details, watch the bulletin board outside the game room.

The Mixed Badminton group that plays on Wednesday nights will at last prove their worth. On the evening of February 16, they will give a demonstration between halves of the Platteville basketball game. Keep coming out on Wednesday night and who knows, you may be one of those who will be chosen to demonstrate.

Coming soon—A Mixed Badminton Tournament!!!

A word to those of you who like to trip the light fantastic. You're missing something worthwhile if you're not in the old gym on Thursday nights. There are nice crowds and a lot of new records. We'll be seeing you—We hope.

In one of those traditional Milwaukee and Point battles, filled with speed, deception and showmanship on the part of the coaches, the Pointers lost to a rangy Milwaukee aggregation. It was Point's game until the closing minutes, but a bad break followed by loose guarding put Milwaukee out in front where they stayed until the gun sounded.

Pete Terzinski, Point forward, scored half of the teams points and gave as good an exhibition of basketball as ever has been seen in this school. He played forty minutes of All-American ball. Along with him were Tony Anderson, Slat Seffern, and Hank Warner to share in the scoring. The team as a whole played a good brand of basketball but it wasn't quite enough.

The Milwaukee attack was led by Ray Krozka, Larry Buehler, and Jablonski. These boys are all pretty big, but we still think the Point will take them the next time they meet.

If Milwaukee hasn't the best coach in the Conference they have the best Showman. Penwell was all over the floor Saturday night and the fans really got a kick out of him. He got a big hand, but not any that was complimentary. It's really too bad someone didn't get a couple of candid camera shots of him spouting off to the officials. We really feel sorry for any official that works in this conference. No matter how hard they try, they can't please anybody.

A bouquet of roses to Dr. Pierson for working so hard to have a faculty team represented last Thursday night. If I am not mistaken some of the bowlers on his team were rather stiff the next day. All in all, I think everyone enjoyed the evening. It's too bad, however, that some of those teams that signed up didn't come around. Let's hope they come around this Thursday because it's something we don't want to drop now.

If you have been wondering why the boys didn't have basketball practice last Friday night just ask "Slat" Seffern. It seems that The Mr. Seffern had a bad case of sore feet. We really are sorry "Slat" and we hope they heal in a hurry.

While leaving the game Saturday night we heard a couple of Penwell's men discussing Pete Terzinski. One of the fellows made the statement that Pete was the best man that he had ever played against. This agreed upon by most of the Milwaukee team and we are plenty glad to hear it for those are also our sentiments.

The newly organized CSTC Bowling League opened the 1940 season last Thursday with two matches being rolled on the South Side alleys. The Chi Delts looked plenty strong in taking three straight from the College Eat Shop team. Jim Duecker led his team with a high average while Koehn was most consistent for the losers. In the other match the Pointer team, paced by Fred Kalkofen, downed a "hard fighting" faculty aggregation. "Doc" Pierson bowled consistently good games but couldn't get his men up to par. The other scheduled match was postponed when neither the Taylor Drugs nor the Phi Sigs were able to round up a full team. This match will be rolled at a later date.

The second round of games will be run off this Thursday, promptly at 9:15. All bowlers are urged to be on time. The public is invited to witness any of these contests. Come on down and cheer for your favorites. This week's schedule is as follows:

- Chi Delts vs. Taylor Drugs
- Eat Shop vs. The Pointer
