

Alumni Welcomed Back

OSHKOSH IS HOMECOMING FOE

Pointers Prepared For Stiff Contest

Oshkosh State Teachers will furnish the Kotalmen with strong opposition for the Homecoming battle which will be staged on Schmeckle Field at 2:00 P.M. on Saturday Oct. 12th. Oshkosh and Central State are rivals of long standing and each contest between the two assumes all the color and fire of an old time hair pulling contest. Not only will our Pointers be out to secure a homecoming victory but they will also be out gunning for their second conference win. The local eleven really needs a victory if they are seriously considering a possible championship. Needless to say Oshkosh will be in there fighting from the opening whistle until the final blank has been fired. Incidentally Point hasn't won a homecoming game since 1934 and, coincidentally the last victim was Oshkosh.

The editorial staff, on behalf of the students of C. S. T. C., welcome the alumni! The POINTER has perhaps been the most successful instrument in keeping the alumni in contact with the college, therefore, we feel that it is our privilege to extend a hearty greeting to old "grads" at this time Central State wants you back! It is your Alma Mater—make the most of this annual "get-together" and renew old acquaintances and make new ones! We've planned a regal celebration for you!

Michelsen Organizes Alumni Band Again

The alumni band, which was a new feature at last year's homecoming and which made such a big hit at the game, is going to be with us again this year.

Fred Parfrey, who was drum major and solo flute player during his four years at C.S.T.C. and who is now band director at Blair, Wisconsin, will lead the alumni band as drum major. Other band alumni, who are now directors, will also play in this band.

A larger band is expected than the one which last year made a hit in the parade and at the game with its spontaneous maneuvers accompanied by the "Beer Barrel Polka." Maybe this year, to be in style, they might want to play "When the Swallows Come Back to C.S.T.C."

As an added attraction, Bill Theisen from Cornell is bringing his flag and baton twirling corps to C.S.T.C. for the parade.

Saturday at 12 noon Alpha Kappa Rho is sponsoring a dinner for its alumni including alumni who are now music directors. Following this social dinner the directors will hold their annual meeting.

NOTICE!!

Tau Gamma Beta will hold its annual fall tea, Wednesday, October, 9, in the Home Economics Parlors. Everyone is invited to attend.

Many Events On Schedule For A Big Week-End

MANY OLD GRADS EXPECTED HOME

This year, homecoming promises to be the most interesting and exciting one in years, for the team plays Oshkosh, the old-time rival of Central State. Mr. Evans again will be the chairman of homecoming, as he has been in former years.

The first pep meeting will be held Thursday morning at eleven o'clock in the college auditorium. Final announcements concerning floats and other homecoming arrangements will be made at this meeting also.

Bonfire and Dance

On Friday night the activities will begin with a bonfire at seven o'clock at Schmeckle field. Materials to be burned will be collected beforehand

Thursday Assembly To Be Pep Session

Coming—a big pep meeting for everyone! The date is Thursday and the time is 10:00 A.M.—the usual assembly period. The program is one that will certainly deserve your attendance. The college band will open the meeting with some peppy numbers that will put you in the mood for some keen school spirit.

New Cheerleaders Out

Our new cheerleaders, June Todd, Billie Eichhorn, and "Mike" Blissett, will lead you in our peppy cheers so be sure to bring your Pointers along if you don't know the yells.

Faculty To Help

Faculty members will also attempt to arouse in you a school spirit of which C.S.T.C. is worthy. This is one time when you can yell as much as you like and not be considered unmannerly. Remember—the Homecoming game with Oshkosh is coming up and we would surely like to hear those stands ring with cheers from you students. How about coming Thursday and really show what you can do for your school?

"WILLKIE OR ROOSEVELT?"

To several thousand American voters, the coming Presidential election promises to be the most significant election in the history of our country. It is important that every voter go to the polls next month and cast his ballot for the candidate he thinks ought to guide the American people for the next four years. Will a new personality be the choice of the voters, or will the third-term tradition be discarded and President Roosevelt be re-elected for another term?

The Editor, in compliance with the POINTER editorial policy, wishes to present in the "WILLKIE OR ROOSEVELT" column a series of unbiased, non-partisan articles concerning the candidates and the campaign. Beginning this week and continuing until the election, these articles will appear as editorial commentaries. The first in the series will deal with the Republican presidential candidate, Wendell L. Willkie. While there is unquestionably marked value in such treatment of the issues, it still remains for personal opinion to bring out the real points in question. The Editor urges the use of student contribution to aid in this way. The expression of individual opinions yet remains the watchword of American democracy. It is time for American citizens to change their attitudes of indifference toward politics, and to throw away the fatal idea that all politics, are dirty. If they are dirty, don't you think it's time we did something to make them clean? The first and most important step in this direction is to exercise our right to VOTE. From the standpoint of democracy it is the most cherished privilege remaining in the world today. It should not only be an AMERICAN PRIVILEGE, but it should also be an AMERICAN DUTY.

WENDELL LEWIS WILLKIE Republican Candidate for President

Wendell Willkie was born in Elwood, Indiana, in 1892, during the time when factories were springing up like toadstools in middle-west towns. He was one of six children of Herman and Henrietta Trisch Willkie who were law partners in Indiana. His mother was the first woman admitted to the Indiana bar.

While in high school and college Willkie sold papers, drove a bakery wagon, worked as a harvest hand, oil field worker, cook and dish washer. He taught American history at Coffeyville, Kansas, high school, and was coach of athletics. After attending Indiana University Law School, Willkie practiced law with his father in Elwood: In 1917 he joined the army and served as a lieutenant in the 325th Field Artillery. In January, 1918, he was married to Edith Wilk, a young librarian from nearby Rushville.

After the war Willkie became a partner in the law firm of Mather, Nesbitt and Willkie. It was at this time that he was active in the campaign against the Ku Klux Klan in Ohio. In 1929 he and Judge John C. Weadock became chief counsel Commonwealth and Southern, which was connected with the J. P. Morgan banking interests. Four years later Willkie was elected president of this billion dollar utilities system sprawled over the map from Michigan to Mississippi.

In 1932 Willkie, a Democrat, contributed $150 to the Roosevelt campaign fund. In 1938 he switched to the Republican ranks, and in June, 1940, was nominated at the Republican National Convention to oppose Franklin D. Roosevelt for the Presidency. He was nominated for his stand as an opponent of the New Deal philosophy.

Willkie gained prominence through his attacks on the TVA's competition with his company in the South. In 1939, after several years of legal dispute, Willkie sold out his properties to the TVA at the record price of $78,000,000.

The Republican lawyer insists that he is a businessman who opposes both the evils of "big business" as demonstrated during the 1929 boom and depression, and the evils of "big government", as demonstrated by the New Deal in the past eight years. He denounced Wall Street bankers as a "bunch of jugglers" but accused New Dealers of trying to punish all-businessmen for the sins of a few.

NOTICE!

The Primary Department will hold its annual fall picnic Monday afternoon at 4:00. Watch the bulletin board for further announcements.

I'LL VOTE FOR WILLKIE

I will vote for Willkie because of his sound principle and because I see our democracy endangered and our liberty and freedom hampered at present.

I say the Republicans have always provided a better government of the people, by the people, and for the people than the Democrats. Has Roosevelt and his New Deal helped to solve the unemployment situation or decrease the national debt?

I am sick and tired of seeing our government as something to experiment with. The New Deal has been an experiment and our government is far too important an institution to experiment with.

Isn't it about time we got someone in office who will realize conditions, abandon the disintegrating, reckless, blundering spending, and begin a drive to sane economy and sensible administration of public funds?

COLLABORATION CORNER THE COLLEGE INFORMER

Once more we just make the deadline. We stuck around here all weekend, hoping to pick up a little news, but we sure got fooled—everybody else went home. Only about fifteen of the 109 dormites stayed at Nelson Hall over the vacation.... You might be interested in the talent booked for the Memorial Union theater this season: Paul Robeson, Lotte Lehman, Egon Petri, Anatol Haminsky, and Dorothy Maynor. School bus may go down for one of the concerts.

One of the funniest things we've seen around here for some time was Frankie Koehn's 80 yard touchdown run Saturday with Platteville's Harold Huttenberg hard after him. In his high school days Hutty, who is about six foot five, was one of Wausau High's stars.... Gum manufacturers sell 5,672,174,600 sticks of gum each year to Americans!

In class the other day Mr. Mott was telling about a dog that always annoyed him on his way to school, and how he cured it of barking at him. "I didn't punish it," he said. "I just picked it up and made it look at me".... We noticed this address on a letter on the student mail basket:

Assistant Professor William Winsor
Sub-Titular Personage and Master of Persiflage
Department of Chemistry—C. S. T. C.

Wonder if Bill recognized himself under all that build-up....

We would like to correct the enrollment figures given sometime ago and add a few additional statistics. There are 775 students in the regular session and 296 in night school. Also in the regular session there are three men and three women who are part time, one part time boy who is a post-grad, and four men and two women who are post-grads, taking a full load.

Mary Geer insists she really did have a flat tire Sunday nite when she got in a half hour late.... We noticed this on Jim Kulidas' information card in the office: Date of birth—October 26, 1940; Date of first entrance to C. S. T. C.—September 11, 1939. Hmm!.... Kotal had a terrible cold the first part of the week and sent one of his students downtown to get him a box of Kleenex. The fellow brought it back, when it was opened it was a delicate shade of peach. Poor coach! He's had quite a weekend.

Herbie Upright was back for the weekend. We saw him walk into the Eat Shop with Louise Reese....

I found the following lyrics, written by J. Lillian Vandeveré, in a song book a short while ago and thought they were especially applicable to a certain type of college life. Here they are:

A lad set out one bright fall day,
The school his destination,
His one intent, or so they say,
Was higher education.
The varied things that him befell
Is what we shortly aim to tell,
The frat men soon had spied him out,
And fell upon him gaily,
The football coach said, "You look stout.
Report to me, sir, daily."
That took his time from two 'til four,
Perhaps it was a trifle more,
He joined the school dramatic club,
And triumphed as an actor.
He served with vim as football sub,
In track he was a factor.
And when they heard his tenor voice,
It made the Glee Club's heart rejoice.
Then midyears came in French and Greek,
Each question was a teaser.
He wrote and wrote for one whole week
On hist'ry, math, and Caesar.
And when he failed they said,
"Poor Jim! His school work was too much for him!"

Here's our thought for the week: "TO BE ALONE IN SOMETHING YOU THINK IS RIGHT IS COMPANY NEVERTHELESS."

Martin Plays For Dance At Hotel Friday Evening

In accordance with the homecoming tradition, the annual pre-homecoming dance will be held Friday evening at Hotel Whiting.

Music will be furnished by Le Roy Martin and his extremely popular dance orchestra of Merrill, Wisconsin. The dance is to be semi-formal and dancing will continue from 9 until 1.

This is the first formal dance of the year and a large crowd is expected due to the fact that many alumni have indicated their intentions of attending their respective sorority and fraternity homecoming dinners.

The school extends an extensive invitation to freshmen and newcomers to this pre-homecoming dance as an introduction to the social life of C.S.T.C.

KOTALMEN 'TROUNCE PIONEERS

Kotal In Tenth Year As Mentor Of Point Squads

The beginning of the end of a decade of athletic coaching at Central State is in view for Coach Eddie Kotal. This marks his tenth as mentor for the Pointers. It must be with a great deal of pride that Coach glances back at his record and scans his won and lost column. Certainly, few can produce records equal to his in his particular field. Football and basketball are his two main concerns and it is in connection with these that we have evidence as to his ability as a coach.

During his first seven years here at Point, Coach consistently produced championship teams. In fact, during that period Coach won a championship in either football or basketball in every year. No doubt one of his greatest thrills was received when his 1932 championship team defeated the U. of Wisconsin team in an exhibition game at Wisconsin Rapids.

This fall again finds Kotal with a likely looking squad of boys and it is not impossible that Coach scents another championship in the offing. Let's make it a successful season and a happy homecoming and hats off to All-American Eddie Kotal.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

by
Jimmy Kulidas & Jimmy Hanig

Since homecoming was inaugurated here at C.S.T.C. the Pointers have won six games, lost 13, and tied 2..... Homecoming has been held every year since 1919 except in 1929..... Here are the homecoming records which the purple and gold gridders have compiled. Eau Claire beat us twice, Milwaukee three times, Oshkosh three times, River Falls once, Whitewater twice, Illinois Wesleyan once, and De Kalb once. We beat Stout once, Milwaukee Engineers once, Eau Claire twice, Oshkosh once and Platteville once, Mankato and Milwaukee tied us in two occasions. Last year Milwaukee trounced us 27-6. Here is hoping that we begin a long string of victories from this year hence..... Mr. Evans was quarter miler during his undergraduate days at Ohio Wesleyan. He once ran a race in which his mind was a complete blank for the last 30 yards. He doesn't remember finishing the race but his friends told him that he had..... Mr. Evans also played baseball in college and his coach was Branch Rickey. Mr. Rickey is the present owner of the St. Louis Cardinals..... Joe Goodrich had never been injured in a football game until Saturday's encounter with Platteville. Joe will be lost for about three or four weeks with a chipped ankle bone..... Felix Bohan and Warren Becka received a break when the Milwaukee Chiefs released them to the Boston Bears of the same league. The Chiefs are going to disband because of financial difficulties despite the fact they are enjoying a successful season to date. They haven't lost a game in five starts..... The football players will miss the pre-homecoming dance Friday night. They will get their chance to skitterbug on the gridiron Saturday..... Don't forget your "Mum" for homecoming..... College teams play before an audience of 18,000,000 people annually..... An army of 1,000 players make up 700 college teams..... La Crosse is the pre-conference favorite to win the Northern Conference championship. They looked very good in defeating a strong Milwaukee outfit that is favorite to win the southern half championship..... The first Tournament of Roses game in Pasadena was in 1902 and not 1916, as is generally believed. Stanford invited the University of Michigan to take a trip to the coast to display their wares, and Michigan defeated Stanford 47-0..... Bert Harris, Rutgers guard in 1930, in practice booted 97 successive placement kicks—breaking an earlier record of 40 made by himself..... John Maulbetsch, great plunging full-back, gained 350 yards for Michigan against Harvard in 1913. Each time the ball was taken near the Harvard goal line, Michigan backs failed to gain. Final score: Harvard 7, Michigan 0..... Harold "Red" Grange handled the ball only five times and scored five touchdowns in 1924 when Illinois played Michigan. His runs were 95, 67, 36, 45, and 15 yards..... The Pointers haven't beaten Milwaukee since 1934 and Whitewater since 1937. The boys are looking forward to these two games..... Sweet revenge is in their minds..... There are 21 teams who answer to the name of "Bulldogs"..... Twenty Schools will come running if you yell "Tigers"..... The "Bears" boast the greatest variety, seven colleges have taken them for nicknames..... The "Panthers" represent nine colleges..... and of course there are the "Pointers"..... Jerry La Fleur was the ace passer for the Wabeno High Log Rollers during his three years of football competition. His greatest experience was when he completed a sixty yard pass against Eagle River for the winning touchdown..... The Chicago Bears and the Green Bay Packers will fight it out for the title in the western division. The Washington Redskins will cop the title in the east..... The Lions, Cardinals and the Rams will cause trouble but we think that the Packers and the Bears will overpower them. The Redskins are in a class by themselves in the East and should win the title without very much trouble. Most of their defeats will come from western clubs..... Wisconsin will break even in their conference games this fall. They will defeat Columbia..... Marquette will lose only two more before the season is over..... Coach Kotal weighed 13 lbs. when he was born..... The St. Cloud game which is scheduled for Oct. 26th might be played on Saturday night at the high school field. It will be Dad's Day on that occasion. Last week we predicted—33 right 5 wrong and two ties which we might say is not a bad average. Here are our predictions for the games to be played Saturday:

- Big Ten
 Wisconsin 12 Iowa 7
 Michigan 20 Harvard 7
 Indiana 12 Nebraska 7
 Purdue 17 Michigan State 14
 Northwestern 13 Ohio State 12
 Southern California 20 Illinois 12
- South
 Alabama 20 Howard 0
 Auburn 10 Mississippi State 7
 Clemson 18 Wake Forest 7
 Louisiana State 20 Rice 7
 Fordham 12 Tulane 6
 Tennessee 3 Chattanooga 0
- East
 Colgate 20 Brown 7
 Cornell 21 Army 6
 Princeton 18 Navy 3
 Columbia 18 Dartmouth 13
 Southern Methodist 20 Pittsburg 7
 Penn 12 Yale 7
 Duquesne 20 South Carolina 0
- Middle West
 Central State Teachers 21 Oshkosh 7
 Notre Dame 14 Georgia Tech 13 (could go either way)
 Superior 20 River Falls 3
 Whitewater 18 Elmhurst 7

POINTERS SHOW POWER, BEAT PLATTEVILLE IN CONFERENCE OPENER

The Purple and Gold gridders opened their conference schedule auspiciously Saturday by defeating Platteville, 28 to 0 at Schmeckle Field.

The Pointers, beaten 26 to 0 by the Pioneers last year, held the advantage throughout the game scoring 14 first downs to the invaders seven. Led by her three skitterbugs Koehn, Posluszny, and Peterson who darted and streaked all over the field, the Kotal men displayed flashes of a powerful offense in scoring touchdowns in the first, and fourth quarters.

The scoring started after three minutes of play in the first quarter when Frankie Koehn our hip-swiveling half-back, shook off a couple of tacklers on his own 20, broke into the clear and, with the aid of some fine blocking, ran all the way for an 80-yard touchdown, Ted Fritsch then converted the extra point. That completed the scoring for the first half. In the third quarter after Posluszny and Fritsch had pushed the ball downfield to the 25 yard line, Koehn again broke away on a 25 yard jaunt around his left end for the second tally.

Posluszny paved the way for the third touchdown early in the fourth quarter when he ran 30 yards around end to place the ball on the 30 yard line. On the next play he passed to Van Dyke to put the ball on the 20 yard marker. Koehn went through tackle for ten yards and then Posluszny faded back ten yards and passed to Van Dyke who took the ball over his shoulder on the three and scored unmoled. Peterson intercepted a pass on Platteville's 33 yard line and set the stage for the last touchdown. He picked up 11 yards for a first down on the 22 and then went through tackle, eluded a couple of tacklers and scored.

Stars in the Point line were: Jim Hanig and Co-Captain Dorsha ends, Co-Captain Roy Otto Tackle and Kenneth Parr Center. Carnahan and Fritsch also looked good in the backfield along with Koehn, Posluszny and Peterson. Carnahan with his fine tackling and Fritsch with his fifty yard spring zig zagging to the Platteville 10.

The game brought forth one major casualty. Half back Joe Goodrich will be out for four weeks with a chipped bone in his ankle.

Bowlers Organizing For League Season

Keplers on the local campus have already begun making plans for the opening of the bowling season. Last year saw C.S.T.C. bowlers organized for the first time on the campus. This season's plans are already underway and if possible the schedule will get going by October 24.

The alleys will be open to college bowlers at 9:00 P.M. on Thursday evenings. The cost per team per night will be $5.10. Out of this some will be set aside for prizes, and 10c will be paid for a foul man. Each team will pay $2.00 per season for league fees. This will permit the teams to enter any and all tournaments if they so desire. The league will be run under the handicap system as was done last season. This makes for more equal and keener competition.

The number of teams will, of course, depend on the interest displayed. At least six teams are expected and if possible, eight. Teams will be required to start on schedule and, if late, they will have to forfeit.

If the teams will organize now, the weekly schedule can be arranged so as to make allowances for vacation etc. which are liable to disrupt the bowling.

This fun of bowling on a team is open to all college students and all those interested should see either "Snooky" Van Dyke or Dr. Pierson. Keep in mind the fact that the sooner you organize, the sooner your fun will begin!

ship in the autumnal breezes and with high hopes and grim determination they are setting their minds and backs to the job to be performed.

Central State's outstanding pigskin toters are in a fine fettle and will be in nearly perfect shape for the coming tilt. Ends, tackles, guards, and centers are also pretty much O.K. The one definite loss for the Oshkosh game will be Joe Goodrich. Joe is a fine halfback or guard but is lost to the squad because of a chipped bone in his ankle.

Coach Kotal will conform pretty much to his usual line-up. It will run somewhat as follows; Ends, Hanig and Dorsha; Tackles, Otto and Menzel; Guards, Rades and Lyons; Center, Parr; Halfbacks, Posluszny and Koehn; Quarterback, Bill Carnahan; and Fullback, Fritsch.

Not much news is available on our opponent. We do know, however, that they lost a close game to a very strong Whitewater team and that they are much stronger than last year's squad. The Oshkosh Peds also have a victory under their belts; a victory won over Northland to a 6 to 0 tune.

The possible line up is as follows: Ends, Ratzburg and Schettle; Tackles, Kornowski and Heinritz; Guards, Gatzke and Midthum; Center, Chvala; Fullback, Zoch; Halfbacks, Dahl and Kiddie; and Quarterback, Stange.

by the freshmen. When the fire has burned low, another pep meeting will take place in the Training School Gym, followed by refreshments.

At nine o'clock the annual pre-homecoming formal will be held at Hotel Whiting, with music furnished by Le Roy Martin and his orchestra.

Busy Saturday Planned

Saturday morning the parade will assemble on College Avenue and cross to Fremont Avenue, going south to Clark Street, down Clark Street to the Public Square and back to the college on Main Street.

The main event, of course, will be the game with Oshkosh which begins promptly at two o'clock.

In the evening on Saturday, the Homecoming activities will be brought to a close with the informal dance held in the P. J. Jacobs High School Gymnasium at 8:30.

ORGANIZATIONS

Y.W.C.A.

The Y.W.C.A. cordially invites all women who wish to become members of the organization to be present Thursday evening, October 10, at 7:30 o'clock. Initiation will take place in the Nelson Hall recreation room.

The association will serve doughnuts and coffee or hot chocolate at the Nelson Hall Recreation room immediately after the homecoming football game. Come over for two doughnuts and a hot drink for a nickel.

PHOTO CLUB

The Photo Club met Wednesday afternoon, October 2, in Mr. Watson's room.

Wallace Bartosz, recently selected chairman by the Directors, presided. After a short business meeting the group retired to Mr. Schmeckle's room to look at some very interesting technicolor moving pictures of Camp Chicamaga, a boys' summer camp located in Northern Pennsylvania. Robert Vennie, who took several thousand feet of film there last summer, graciously showed and explained them to the photography fans.

HOME EC.

The Home Economics Club held a business meeting Monday evening, October 7 at Nelson Hall. A considerable increase in the number of new members has swelled the ranks of the Home Ec majors to 55.

The following committees were appointed for the year:

Program Committee:
Ethel Stoltenberg, Chairman,
Ruth Chenoweth, Edna Marotz

Social Committee:
Jane Rezin, Chairman, Helen Thornton, Wilma Anderson,
Mary Ann Borowski, Waltant Schauschmidt

SIGMA TAU DELTA

The first regular meeting of Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity, was held Wednesday evening, October 2.

The group elected Kay Tyler as Treasurer for this semester in place of Bill Miller who is no longer attending school.

Sigma Tau Delta again voted to take the Book of the Month in accordance with past custom and to continue the practice of doing a specified piece of writing each month. Chapters in other colleges judge these writings and send their own to our local chapter to be judged.

Committees were appointed for the work of the year after which the meeting adjourned.

I'LL VOTE FOR WILLKIE

I'm tired of the demonstrators, experimentors and exhibitors leading the New Deal. To me the New Deal has been a march backward.

I marvel at Willkie's punch. Of late he has been rapidly gaining momentum but the public always awakens a bit too late. Can't the public see the underhandedness and secret policies of Roosevelt and his political machine?

I favor Willkie, because if Roosevelt gets a third term a drastic outcome will result. There is too great a danger of his getting power drunk. So far no president has ever been vested with so much authority. Perhaps Roosevelt will not be able to stand the "gaff" of another term, and I could never see Wallace as our leader.

Come on Willkie, keep up the good work!

Rural Life Hears Rev. Saunders Tell Of England At War

The Rural Life Club held its weekly meeting on Monday, October 7. After a business meeting, presided over by President Anthony Schwartz, a very interesting and educational social meeting was held, being directed by Katherine Metcalfe. A reading, "Hunger," was given by Helen Fergus; Courtney Halverson, accompanied by Myrtle Wade, sang "Moonlight Madonna." Reverend James Saunders addressed the group, choosing as his subject, "England and the War." Rev. Saunders, who was born in England and has lived there until the last few years, discussed the English viewpoint toward the war. "England is fighting for her freedom, liberty, equality, and self-preservation for herself, and the freedom of the peoples of the whole world," Rev. Saunders said. Answering the question, "Is England united?" Rev. Saunders said very emphatically, "Yes, England is behind Churchill to the last man. Its unity is the finest and best." Saunders also explained the activities of the Home Guard which is composed of men who are not, because of age limits, able to join the regular forces and who guard England at home.

When the air-raid sirens sound, people go to their shelters singing, "There'll Always Be An England," amusingly followed by "The Beer Barrel Polka." Rev. Saunders said, concerning bombing, that at the present pace of damage being done it would take forty years to raze London and destroy its one million buildings. "English are not over-confident, cocksure that they will win, but they will fight to the last ounce of blood. There is no word 'surrender' in the English vocabulary. England will never be surrendered; they'd rather see it a battlefield first," he concluded.

COLLEGE THEATER BEGINS ACTIVITY

The College Theater has made definite plans for the productions they will sponsor this year. At the first meeting of the course in stage and dramatic fundamentals Thursday, Mr. Jenkins made the following announcement:

The College Theater will present four or five productions a year. One is scheduled for the latter part of this month. Directors were selected and they will be given complete liberty. Anyone may try out for these plays.

One three-act play will be directed each semester by Mr. Burroughs, with the help of Don Krider, the technical director.

Rehearsals Begin

Three one-act plays are now underway.

The first, "John Brown" a dramatic portrayal of John Brown's last hour in prison, will be directed by Lucille Neuman.

A French play, Monta S. Graham's "A Hospitable Fancy," taken from Stevenson's "Sire de Maletroit's Door" is a romantic comedy and costume play. Lillian Boe is the director.

Lawrence Jozwiak and Gerald Hierl will direct a comedy of fraternity life, "Greck Meets Greek" with an all man cast.

Once more your school is having open house. Once more you old timers will gather in the familiar corridors and look over the younger members of the family. You will think them terribly young but perhaps that attitude should be revised. It merely indicates that you are older—youth is relative. To an octogenarian, a sixty year old man is a mere child. The present students average about the same in age, looks and attainment with those of your generation.

The students and faculty unite to urge you to come home. We'll try to help you have a good time.

DEAN STEINER

Welcome home, dear alumnae of C.S.T.C. We hope you will have a happy time reviewing old acquaintances, making new ones, and visiting familiar places.

It is always gratifying to a college to see its former students coming back to renew old friendships, for as long as the ties are strong between the "alums" and the school, its opportunities for service are great. When students no longer turn to their Alma Mater for friendship and guidance it loses much of its prestige and power. Your continued friendship and interest are another "victory for the Purple and the Gold."

Have a good time while you are here—and—come often!

DOWNWIND'S DODO TALK

Well—all of you would-be dodos who aren't enrolled are plumb out of luck for another semester—C.S.T.C.'s limit has been reached. The complete roster consists of Frank Dumphy, Gene Brill, Robert Steiner, Joe Tröler of Stevens Point; Norm Halla, Myron Sharkey of Mosinee; John McCutchen, Jean Roberts, Gus Binnebose, Delbert Gumm, Ray Grandkowski, Robert Dernbach, of Wisconsin Rapids; Ronald Solie of Waupaca; Dennis Brunner of Custer; Harold Jeneman of Bloomer; Harold Irish of Laona; Gene Harrington of Marshfield; John Bing of Ogdensburg; Russ Fredericks of Minocqua; Landis Doner of Plymouth—and while these nineteen boys and a girl are beginning to learn their dodo talk and actions, we want to express our heartiest congratulations to Bob Larson, who has reached a milestone that is one of the ultimate aims and dreams of every dodo.

'Twern't so long ago that you left us, Bob, bound for St. Looney and your first taste of the Air Corps Shucks—seems like you couldn't have much more than gotten off the train before they were sending you down to Randolph Field in Texas—10 weeks there and news comes sifting back home that you were on the way to Kelly Field—and now you've got those Wings—nice going, fella.

And gals, Bob would make a swell target for sweet smites—if he ever gets back to the old 'alma mammy'—he's a commissioned Second-Lieutenant and drags down 205

Mrs. Williams Takes Post As 2nd Grade Critic At Tr. School

Mrs. Mildred Williams has taken over the duties of second-grade critic teacher at the Training School. This position was left vacant by Miss F. R. Dearborn who passed away this summer. Miss Ennor, who took over this task temporarily, will resume her duties as music supervisor in the city. Mrs. Williams received her Bachelor of Arts degree at the Iowa State Teachers' College and her Master's degree at Columbia University, New York City. She has been the principal of the Grant School, a graded-school, at Atlantic, Iowa. She was very impressed by the beauty of our state, for she is a great lover of the outdoors and is especially interested in the study of birds. We welcome her to C.S.T.C.!!

Register, Alums!

Alums, come and register in the homecoming alumni book located in the booth where Pointers will be sold at the game. This year the Pointer has inaugurated a system of recording the names, occupations, year of graduation, and place of residence of all alumni. Heretofore, there has been no method of keeping the ever-changing data concerning returning alums. If this proves successful, the Pointer will continue this recording as a part of its policy.

This is the only way there is of knowing how many alums come back, so come to the Pointer booth and cooperate with them in making this enterprise a success!

Subscriptions for the Pointer will be sold at the Pointer booth for $1.25 for the remainder of the year. Single copies may be had for a nickel.
