POINTERS TRAVEL TO ST. CLOUD

Huskies Have No Defeats -- Yet!

Coach Eddie Kotal's gridders "go west" this week to engage the "Huskies" of St. Cloud, Minnesota. The Pointers administered a 12 to 6 defeat to their Minnesota rivals last year, and would like to add another victory this year.

Back on the victory path after defeating Oshkosh, the Purple and Gold gridders will have to work hard this week to shape up a formidable attack to cope with the out-of-state eleven. The St. Cloud team will enter Saturday's game with an impressive record of five consecutive victories. Their opponents have scored but six points in their five encounters, while they have rolled up an average of about twenty points per game.

The Kotalmen should be about at full strength Saturday for their battle, as Carnahan and Ted Fritsch and others will be ready to go at top speed. Klein and Filippi are St. Cloud's outstanding threats and are furnished good blocking by a fine forward wall.

The Pointers will leave by bus for St. Cloud Friday and will stop overnight in the Twin Cities. They will embark for St. Cloud Saturday and will return home sometime Sunday.

Mrs. Frances Jonas Begins Twenty-fifth Year At CSTC

You have seen her hundreds of times around the halls. Short, gray-haired, neatly dressed, quiet, always busy. Perhaps you've wondered about her and perhaps, though you've seen her often, you've never known her name. She is Mrs. Frances Jonas, only woman of the college maintenance staff, and she has been here longer than most of the faculty.

This semester marks the beginning of Mrs. Jonas' twenty-fifth year as janitress at CSTC. In recognition of her many years of loyal service to the students and teachers of this college, the Pointer is pleased to inscribe this story.

The representative of the Pointer who called to interview Mrs. Jonas had a hard time convincing her that the school would be interested in hearing her story, but finally she laughed and agreed to answer questions. She is reticent about talking about herself, but if you can get her started she can tell many stories about the hundreds of students and teachers she has seen come and go in the quarter of a century she has spent here.

Mrs. Jonas told her interviewer that she couldn't remember exactly, but she thinks the enrollment was about 500 when she came here in 1916. She has seen five changes of administration, Presidents Sims, Baldwin, Hyer, Falk, Smith, and Hansen. She was here during the first World War and saw the effect it had on the college and now twenty-three years later we are facing the same kind of a crisis.

Mrs. Jonas, a widow, has a married daughter, living in Menasha. At one time she worked as a cateress and has the reputation for being one of the city's finest cooks. She is famous for her Angel Food cakes.

She owns a home on Briggs Street which is attractively furnished and immaculately kept. She is Catholic and very active in parish work at St. Stanislaus.

Of the twenty-five years that Mrs. Jonas has been employed at the college she has missed only two weeks for illness, and one of those she spent in the hospital where she underwent a tonsilectomy.

MRS. JONAS

"quarter century . . ."

Mrs. Jonas has a rare sense of humor. She is forever rattling off little jingles she makes up about anything which happens to catch her fancy.

On the anniversary of Mrs. Jonas' 20th year here, several women on the faculty had a surprise party for her at her home and they still tell about how overwhelmed she was. When presented her with a gift she was stunned into speechlessness for the rest of the party.

This afternoon, on her twenty-fifth anniversary the faculty women are honoring her with a tea from 4:15 to 5:15.

Mrs. Jonas likes young people but she admits that girls are her favorites, perhaps because she has a daughter of her own. One of her special duties is to keep the Home Ec rooms in order and she is a real friend to all the girls in that department. However, she is interested in the fellows, too, and has many friends among them. She has been one of the many visitors in Louis Posluzny's room these past weeks.

Mrs. Jonas is always ready to do anything she can for any of the students and teachers and she always has a pleasant "good morning". The next time you meet her in the hall say "Hello" even if you don't know her. She'd like to have you say it.

CHI DELTA RHO

Actives, alums, guests, and rushees of Chi Delta Rho fraternity gathered at Iverson Lodge Sunday evening for their first rushing party. Cards were played, the losers being rewarded with a taste of pledging, in the form of the paddle. Refreshments were served to conclude the evening.

OMEGA MU CHI

YWCA

Will have a Hallowe'en costume party at 7:30, Thursday, October 23.

Lecturer To Speak On Present War

Dr. O. Roderick Chyle will lecture in the regular Thursday morning assembly at 10 o'clock. The subject of the speech will be "The Economical and Political Aspects of the Present War". Dr. Chyle is an able speaker well versed in the economical and political angle of the war. He is a refugee of Czechoslovakia, having escaped that country through Rumania, Jugoslavia, and Albania in the spring of 1939. He is a graduate of Charles University, Czechoslovakia, and holds a doctor's degree in jurisprudence and economics. He was in the diplomatic service of the Czechoslovakian government from 1930, having served in New York and Cleveland as well as in Europe. Dr. Chyle speaks English very fluently and is certain to provide an interesting and enlightening hour's entertainment for the student body.

More Taxes??

We pay taxes on everything from hair tonic and lipstick to football games these days. There have been some who were concerned about the taxability of our student activity tickets.

Mr. Schmeekle was consulted last week by a Pointer representative and he stated that although there has been no definite statement about it as yet, the ticket probably will not be subject to tax. If it were a ticket to a game, a play, a dance, or a specific activity, the admissions could be taxed. The student activity fund, however, supports the entire school program. This includes the IRIS, the POINTER, and music organizations, etc. On these grounds, the college maintains that the activity ticket is not taxable.

Torkelson At Mosinee

Gerald Torkelson, one of the outstanding graduates of the class of 1941, is teaching in Mosinee High School. A major in history, he is now instructing four classes a day in that subject.

Shortly after the beginning of the school year, he was engaged by the college as chemistry laboratory assistant to take the place of William Winsor, who was drafted into the army. Torkelson resigned to take the Mosinee position and has been replaced at the college by Charles Kohls of Stevens Point, a graduate of the class of 1939.

LSA

The business meeting of the LSA was held at the college on Wednesday evening, Oct. 15. Gilbert Halverson opened the meeting with devotions. Jane Weinmann was elected secretary. The next meeting will be held Oct. 30 at the home of Rev. Romstad. The Iris picture will be taken at this meeting.

TOO MANY ADS . . .

The bulk of the student criticism leveled against the POINTER so far this year has been on the amount of advertising matter. The entire POINTER staff feels the same way about it. "Why cut our articles short in order to give the space to ads?"

This situation is lamentable but hardly avoidable. The POINTER is supported in the main by its advertising revenues. The amount of money in the fund supplied by the student activity fees is only one dollar per student. The total seems large until we break it up into the different expenditures. By far the greatest of these is the cost of printing. One thousand copies of a four-page issue cost $38.00 to print; six pages would cost $52.50. Cartoons, pictures, and smaller type raise the price accordingly. To cut the statistics short, the budget on which the POINTER is working at present allows only $12.87 from the activity fund for each issue. The balance of the cost must either be made up in advertising or there will be less issues during the year. To make the proper balance, each four-page issue MUST have 72 inches of ads included in its 200 inches of space. Six pages cannot be paid for without 125 of their total of 300 inches taken up with advertising.

With these figures, it should not be difficult to realize that the Stevens Point merchants who purchase advertising space are really making the paper possible. Without their aid, there would be no POINTER.

Dope From Pils . . .

"Pardon me Boy, is that the Chata-nooga Choo Choo?" rates almost a number one spot on the hit parade of the campus. Almost everyone seems to be singing that in addition to Elmer's Tune, Yes Indeed, and $21 a Day Once a Month. You should have seen Joe Negard and Patoot dancing at the Eat Shop the other night. We had a regular floor show. Saw Joe dancing with one of the Quinn girls and they danced so well together I gathered it wasn't their first try at it.

On Wednesday last the WAA climaxed their initiation period with a kids party. You probably noticed a few of the victims talking baby talk and writing notes to their kid party dates for several days afterward. There was an imaginative exchange of frat and sorority pins and an act of double dating. All WAA members had fun because they are a peppy bunch of gals—never a dull moment is the motto.

It isn't so surprising to see Betty Johnson here on week-ends, but in the middle of the week too! Jack Ackerman is a pretty lucky guy.

To those of us who know Helen Rogers, here's a little item of interest—Helen is the proud possessor of a diamond—the donor being in the army.

"Drummer Man" Larson has several reasons for coming to CSTC—a certain house on Church Street which leads to one answer. . . Donna Raye Pett. And then there is the tale of the two coeds who were worried while walking home one dark night, because they thought no one was following them; or about the freshman that was so dumb he thought a mushroom was a place to neck in; or the other freshman who says "Each time it gets harder to act as if it were my first kiss". Rose Marie Howes has been seen quite frequently in the company of Clarence Buck who doesn't like to be called Clarence at all.—Don Walker doesn't mind his work down at the drug store—a majority of the evenings are spent

ON STAGE

With Hannah Kaufman

BACKSTAGE: The artists of last Thursday's program were swamped with autograph seekers after the performance. We finally managed to corner Mr. Youkstetter, the brilliant pianist of the evening, who told us that he is a graduate of Pamona College and that he holds an M.A. degree from the University of Southern California. Mr. Youkstetter has a large repertoire of compositions, an amazing number of which he has committed to memory. He stated that he learned and played a Mozart concerto in six weeks time! Brahms is his favorite composer. This is Mr. Youkstetter's first cross — country tour.

Each of the members of the Quartette has been in the entertainment field for many years. Mr. Iblings, the top tenor, told us that he traveled the Orpheum Circuit. When the curtain came down on vaudeville — next came New York concert stage—then Hollywood — radio and motion pictures. It was while working in the radio studios that Mr. Brandt, Mr. Kuzell, Mr. Hunseker, and Mr. Iblings met and formed the Guardsmens Quartette. Hollywood, they affirmed, is a place where the "breaks" predominate over talent, and the test comes in the ability to "hang on" after repeated disillusionment.

Their extensive tour will be ended in another two months when they will return to Hollywood to be home for the Christmas holidays. After that—they hinted of a radio program which apparently is just being lined up. They declined to comment further.

FROM THE CRITIC'S BOX: That squeaking piano pedal was anything but a credit to us last Thursday night. The least we can do for an artist is to make sure that the equipment he has to use is in the best possible condition.—Music department, please copy. Rustling of paper and shuffling of feet during any performance is an unpardonable breach of etiquette.

NOTICE TO ALL STUDENTS: The acting bug has escaped from the College Theatre office! If you have been bitten, report to the Directors of the One-Act Plays for immediate treatment!

Kotalmen Victorious At Oshkosh

FROM THE

Jimmy Kulidas & Jack Rasmussen

Coach Eddie Kotal scouted the Chicago Bears in their game last Sunday with the Detroit Lions for head mentor Curly Lambeau of the Green Bay Packers. Coach saw an eye-fall as the Bears turned on the heat and defeated the Lions 49-0. So if the Packers hand the boys with the famous "T" formation their first setback of the season on Sunday, November 2, you will know that it wasn't an upset or that the Bears had an off day. You will know that the game was won on Sunday, October 19, when Eddie Kotal was in the stands with a pencil and paper writing down every move the world's champion pro-gridders made. Games are won on the practice field weeks before the actual contest is played. ... The St. Cloud Peds, whom the Pointers meet this Saturday, are undefeated in five games thus far this season. They have defeated St. Johns, Eau Claire, Duluth Teachers, Mankato, and Winona Teachers. Don't be surprised if the Kotalmen topple them off the undefeated ranks. Last fall the Minnesota boys came here with a record of seven wins and one defeat and were favorites for an easy victory. Well, they went home with a 12-6 loss. ... Northern Illinois Teachers of De Kalb, Illinois, whom Central State plays November 8, is also undefeated thus far. The Huskies defeated Whitewater 14-0; held the powerful Ball State Teachers of Muncie, Indiana to a 6-6 tie; beat Illinois Normal U. 6-0 and walloped Wheaton College 24-0. They travel to Oshkosh to meet the Titans Saturday. ... Captain Vic Aldridge of Illinois Normal U. found a set of Illinois Wesleyan plays. These two schools, with their campuses one mile apart in the city of Bloomington, Ill. are arch rivals. Vic promptly gave the plays to Coach Hancock who in turn returned them to the Bloomington outfit without looking at them. Real sportsmanship, eh! ... Roy Otto played a bang up game last Saturday. Time after time he was seen breaking through the Titan forward wall to smear the ball carrier for a loss. ... Ted Fritsch was a hard man to bring down. On his 35 yard run after taking the lateral from Leon Kalkofen, four would-be-tacklers bounced off him. Four men were taken off the field during the game after attempting to bring him to earth. Time out was called for two others who had the wind knocked out of them when they made contact with Ted. ... Dr. Pierson was off form last Thursday night and came up with a 139 average for three games. Watch him come up with a 170 average tomorrow night. ... Mr. Mott, finished the season last year with a 118 average in 42 games, posted scores of 188-187 and 164 for a 541 total and a 180 average. ... Central State will meet Carroll College on the hardwood during the middle of December. ... Chi Delta Rho Fraternity and Phi Sigma Epsilon will battle it out for supremacy on the tennis table. The four best table tennis performers from each organization will meet in a round-robin set, whereby each member of both squads engages each other in three games to settle the dispute. Some very interesting and exciting matches should result when the boys tangle.

Six Teams Bowl In CSTC League

The Central State Teachers College Bowling League opened its third season of competition last Thursday night on the South Side Alleys. The Phi Sigma Epsilon Fraternity boys took three games from the Faculty team No. 11; the College Eat Shop swept three games from Faculty No. 1 and the Sport Shop keglers defeated the De Molay team thrice.

Bob Becker was the high man for the evening. The Phi Sig star sent the pins sprawling for scores of 182-226 and 255 for a total of 653. His 255 score broke the league record for a single high game. Jack Turecek's 237 game was high until the fraternity boy burned up the alley. Bob's 653 series score came within six points of Jack Turecek's league record of 659. Leon Kalkofen and Mr. Mott posted total scores of 541 to finish second high for the night. Tomorrow nights games are:

- Alley 1 & 2 Phi Sigs vs Faculty I (Plus 89)
- Alley 3 & 4 Faculty II vs DeMolay (Plus 28)
- Alleys 5 & 6 Sport Shop vs College Eat Shop (plus 3)

TITANS DOWNED ON MUDDY FIELD 6-2

Central State slipped and slid to a 6-2 victory last Saturday over a hard fighting Oshkosh Teachers eleven before a rain soaked crowd who came to watch the two traditional rivals battle it out on the gridiron.

This was the first conference victory for the Pointers and their second win of the season in four starts. For the Titans it was the nineteenth consecutive conference defeat and the fourth setback of the current campaign against no victories.

Coach Eddie Kotal's grid warriors, showed their superiority over Oshkosh from the opening whistle but bad breaks and fumbles prevented them from scoring during the first half.

Neither team could make any headway in the sea of mud and a punting dual between Kiddie of Oshkosh and Fritsch of Central State took place during the first quarter. The Titans kicked on the first and second downs and one of Kiddie's tremendous punts put the Central Staters back on their 3 yard line. Frankie Koehn, attempting to punt from out of the end zone, couldn't hold the slippery pigskin and was tackled in the end zone for a safety. This gave Oshkosh boys a 2-0 lead which they maintained at half-time.

The Pointers came back and scored the winning touchdown at the start of the second half.

On a fourth down, Kiddie kicked to Kalkofen, who caught the ball while running at top speed. He returned the punt ten yards and lateraled the ball to Ted Fritsch just as he was being tackled. Fritsch reversed his field and galloped to the 18 yard line. Frankie Koehn made it a first down on the eight yard line on an end around sweep and then

This semester finds a new member of the office staff. Miss Loretta Gonering is the secretary in Dr. Lyness' office. Miss Gonering was graduated from Sheboygan High School in 1938. Before coming to CSTC, she worked in the employment office in Green Bay. She likes music, especially Shubert and Strauss, and plays the violin. Tennis, dancing, and skating are the pastimes from, which she derives the most pleasure. Red is her favorite color. Ice cream and French Fried potatoes hit the spot where food is concerned. Miss Gonering, by the way, states that she has so far enjoyed her work here at CSTC.
