

HOMECOMING QUEEN TO BE ELECTED

GREEKS ACTIVE WITH RUSHING

Prospective Members Feted At Gay Parties

The Phi Sigs opened rushing season with a bang, Sunday evening, October 18, at the Hotel Whiting. Jake Steckel and Don Walker were in charge of the entertainment which consisted of card playing and in general—just a "get together with the boys." The speakers of the evening were: LaBrot, Jim Sullivan, Myron Sharkey and Harry Hertz. Singing of songs wound up the fun for the evening.

On Monday, October 19, the Chi Deltas entertained a group of rushees at the K of C Hall. The entertainment for the evening was taken care of by Orland Radke and Roman Cooper. The usual method was followed—that of card playing and "talking things over."

A spinster party will be held for the Omega rushees this evening, October 21, 1942, at the home of Jeanette Levi, who is general chairman of the party. The rushees have been asked to bring a picture of the rejected suitor and the sad (or humorous—whichever it be) tale concerning his rejection.

The Tau Gamma Beta Sorority entertained rushees, alums and guests at a dessert buffet party, Tuesday evening, at the home of Dr. Maurice Rice, Plover Hills.

POINTERS TO POINTERS

Interest-drawing leads, news stories, features, and correct writing procedures were a few of the subjects included in the informal talk given recently to members of the Pointer staff by Dorothy Dunn Huffman, Society Editor of the Stevens Point Daily Journal.

Interposed with personal experiences, Mrs. Huffman's talk was both entertaining and helpful to the aspiring journalists who heard it.

RIGHTSELL RECEIVES INSTRUCTOR AS AID

Robert S. Lewis, Oshkosh, will work with Raymond M. Rightsell in teaching the ground school classes here at the college. Mr. Lewis received his M. RECRUITING SERVICE HERE OCTOBER 29, 30

The Sixth Service Command Joint Committee has announced that the Joint Army-Navy-Marine Corps Recruiting Party will be at the college, October 29 and 30. At this time enlistments in all branches may be accomplished. A medical officer will be with the group. All men students interested are urged to see the Recruiting Party at this time.

Former Teacher Dies At Home In Illinois

Miss Nannie R. Gray, who taught languages in Central State for nearly 30 years, died suddenly Tuesday, October 6, at her home in Charleston, Ill., according to information received here recently.

After her long term of service in the Stevens Point Normal School, Miss Gray retired in 1927. Since then she had spent much of her time in California, although she made her home in Charleston.

Faculty members and the students who took courses here several years ago remember Miss Gray as a fine teacher and an exceptionally well-liked and respected person.

YWCA

Mrs. William C. Hansen will be the guest speaker at a meeting of the YWCA Thursday evening at 7:30, in the recreation room at Nelson Hall. All freshmen and new students are invited to attend.

AH! THESE FRESHMEN! TO BE ONE AGAIN

This article is written from the viewpoint of a freshman and, I am sure, is not prejudiced in any way. (Well, almost.)

From the comments heard from the upper classmen, one would think we were the scum of the earth. But, I'm sure others must have noticed, too, that jealous gleam in their eyes, when they see us blithely and innocently running over to the Eat Shop for a coke or hear us remarking at the close of the day, how little work we have to do. Oh, yeah! But I'll bet any one of them would give their "eye teeth" to be a happy-go-lucky, I-don't-know-what-it's-all-about freshman again!

As in the other classes, the girls outnumber the boys, by a margin of 84 to 59. Not a very wide one, but enough. The freshman class is somewhat small this year, only totaling 143, but we have enough pep and enthusiasm to make up for the lack in numbers.

We have brought two new cheerleaders to the school, Betty Steckel and Charles (Squirt) Berard. We have also donated quite a few boys

OCTOBER 30 DECLARED HOBO DAY AT COLLEGE

Two new features have been added to the homecoming festivities. A homecoming queen will be chosen by the student body to reign at the celebration and Friday, October 30, has been declared "Hobo Day".

At the class elections Friday there will be an extra ballot containing the names of three to five girls nominated by the football team. The winner will be crowned "The Queen of Homecoming" during the "Hobo" day celebration. The other girls will act as her attendants. She will also lead the parade on Saturday morning.

For "Hobo Day" everyone in school is asked to come to school dressed in the oldest and "hoboiest" clothes obtainable. The faculty are also asked to join in the fun by dressing up. At the pep assembly on Friday, an award will be given to the best dressed hobo.

The homecoming fun will start with the pep assembly on Friday and the snake dance and bonfire in the evening. There will be the general gathering in the gym after the fire. The dance at Hotel Whiting will round out the activities for the first day.

The ball will keep rolling Saturday with the parade in the morning, game with Oshkosh in the afternoon and the dance at the Training School in the evening. This will wind up the 1942 homecoming!

Dormites Caper At Hall Parties

Did you hear a lot of noise in the vicinity of the dorm Wednesday evening? 'Twas the dormites staging their "stunt night", in the Recreation Room. Seems one group of the girls made a raid on the beds, and came garbed in sheets, presenting a combination ballet and snake dance. From another floor emerged the pajama clad "chlorine dancers", accompanied by an orchestra of combs.

Captains for the stunt were Lucille Zimmer, first floor, Joyce Rathke, Gladys Pils and Dorothy Jane Raddant, second floor and Dorothy Davids and Alice Buth, third floor.

A party for Freshman girls was given Saturday evening in the Rec. Room. Committees in charge included Ruth Monte and Marion Grossman, invitations, Dorothy Raddant and Genevieve Smith, entertainment, and Lottie Fryer and Martha Halama, refreshments.

Former "dormites" who were a welcome addition to fun at Nelson Hall this weekend were the Misses Rita Novitske, Edgerton; Lillian "Pop" Boe, Barron; and Kathryn Piehl, Auburndale.

Student Sparring

Last week in the Pointer there appeared a statement contesting some of the points I made in regard to the independent attitude of some CSTC co-eds. The contention of the anonymous coed who wrote last week's Student Sparring was that talk was cheap and that action was wanted. The two examples that were brought forward to illustrate the indifference of the men on the campus, which indifference is supposed to have driven the women to extremes, were:

- 1) CSTC men stand by the pinball machine in bunches, paying no attention to the women.
- 2) At dances, we men stand around on the sidelines, allowing the women to dance with themselves.

I have spent the last week making a careful survey of this situation with special emphasis on the two examples of male laxitude mentioned above. The results make the girls look rather silly. The following facts are absolutely true.

In three separate investigation of the Eat Shop during busy hours I have found the following average figures to indicate the true situation in regard to the pin ball machine question.

- 1) Forty women present, playing cards or talking with twenty-nine men.
- 2) Six men and two women watching the pinball.
- 3) One man playing the machine. (Naturally.)

The ratio of women in school to men in school is two to one. A look at the above figures will prove without doubt or further discussion that the men of this college cannot be reproached for their conduct in the Eat Shop as far as not paying attention to the women is concerned.

Now for the second point advanced by the coed.

I made a personal survey of the situation at two dances held within Blue Monday? I'd call it Blue Saturday — We lost the game but there's nothing we can do about it now — The cheering and the band were swell. There are still two more games, so here's hoping—Some of ye olde alumni were seen in the bleachers. Denny Roberts in uniform—Betty Fitski was there too, but they were just renewing an old friendship. "Pop" Boe invaded the campus and we saw Lenny Abrahamson all smiles — Ruth Stelter was there plus a diamond from Sports Anderson's brother Norman. Eileen Kobs just received a good looking picture of Jim Neuenfeldt—Jim is now in Nebraska with the Army Air Corps. Here's a few unanswered??? questions reigning over the campus—What happened to Audrey Jocquet's pair of silver wings? How did Bob Handeyside get the name Handeytop? Did Betty Brooks have a good time at the movie Sunday night? Why is Louie Erdman called the "Lipstick Kid"? Why is Fred Fink called the "Match King"? Which of the Navy Cadets has D. J. Raddant been mending socks for? Where was Wimpy the night of the Phi Sig rushing party? How, when and why did Betty Steckel leave the Eat Shop the way she did Saturday night?

(Insert after Phi Sig rushing party — this sentence: WHERE WAS SAM AFTER 12:30 SATURDAY NIGHT?)

Who says our school hasn't pep? Our pep assembly last Thursday proved that—and at the game, even if our team did lose we didn't quit cheering or let them down. No siree — we really have a peppy bunch in school this year.

I don't know whether it's the freshmen who have had so much to do with our newly found pep, but if it is, Keep it up—you're doing OK! You're really showing us old students what pep is!

— and the "drum and bugle corps" — of course it wasn't the whole band, but they did their part to promote more pep. "Rass" can really play a mean bass drum—and I mean, "mean."

Let's keep up the spirit and when Homecoming comes 'round the corner; let's make it the peppiest Homecoming ever!

Kitty Kelly and Atkins danced a pretty steady program at the Chi Delt dance Saturday night. Don Korpus and his wife were right behind them in the situation. Virginia got an enlargement of Howie Stimm in uniform. (Comp. Ed. Note: Do you mean a picture, Pils?) Stimm is now an Army Air Corps instructor at Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Bob Rifleman shouldered a shoot-in' iron last week-end and promised all the guys at the house a pheasant dinner. They ate beef.

PLATTEVILLE HANDS US 20-0 DEFEAT IN FIRST HOME GAME OF SEASON

Playing their first home game, the Pointers went down to defeat Saturday, Platteville being the giant killer, to the tune of 20 to 0. Playing before a largely partisan crowd at Schmeckle Field, the Purple and the Gold failed to carry on as the crowd desired, and for the second game in succession failed to score, although they made a touchdown only to have it nullified by a clipping penalty.

The Pioneers scored a safety early in the game when Bill Carnahan was tackled in the end-zone for a two-point margin. Soon after this marker, they scored their first touchdown, as Heinz went over from the four-yard line. The Leitlemen again drove the ball forward on running plays and a long pass to score another touchdown, and to lead at halftime, 14 to 0. During this period of play the Pioneers were making successful gains inside the Pointer's end and outside the tackle. It was also in this half that the Pointers scored, only to have the play marred by a penalty. The touchdown was beautifully executed on a pass from Carnahan to Swett, who took the ball on the forty yard line, shook off two tacklers and raced down the west side lines for an apparent touchdown.

Controlling the ball most of the time during the second half, the downstate school scored again, with passes doing much damage as in the first half. Heinz went over from the one yard line to finish the scoring, and for the third time the extra point was not good. The Bergmen never threatened seriously throughout the game, as their ground and pass game was stopped cold by Platteville's big line.

Carnahan's fine kicking, Menzel's running and the line play of Barton and Sharkey were the outstanding features for the Pointers. Marks, Thompson, Errikson and Heinz shared honors for the victors.

From The Locker Room

by Jimmy Kulidas and Jack Rasmussen

Congratulations to the student body for the zip and pep it showed at the pep assembly last Thursday and for the fine school spirit it demonstrated during the game. Yes, Central State can stand with the best of the nation's colleges in school spirit. Central State is far ahead of Whitewater, Milwaukee, Platteville and Oshkosh despite the fact that its football team hasn't won a game yet this year. Why, the student body at Milwaukee State and at Whitewater doesn't even support winning teams. That's the way, gang, win or lose, we are behind are team 100%. Let's follow the same procedure during the De Kalb game Saturday and then really turn on the heat for homecoming. The students at Notre Dame, Northwestern, Stanford, Alabama, Yale or at any other so called big name college haven't anything over us. . . . Our band put on quite a show during the "half" of the game Saturday. The maneuvers which they performed were very good. The band should also be given orchids for its fine performances at our two pep assemblies and for the inspiring tunes it supplied during the game. Yes Sir, we have in our midst the best concert and marching band in the State Teachers conference. (They have a "wow" of a cheering section too under the direction of "Curly" Rasmussen.) Possibly we wouldn't be stretching our necks too far out by saying that our band is second only to the University of Wisconsin in the state. . . . Don "Goon" Johnson, star football and basketball player here at Central State from "34-38" is now a physical fitness instructor in the navy with the rank of Chief Petty Officer. Don was head football and basketball coach at Berlin High School up to the time of his enlistment. He is now stationed at Norfolk, Virginia. . . . Joining him on November 1 will be Ted Menzel, another great athlete of Central State. Ted was an outstanding football player for the Pointers from "32-until 36". He captained the championship squad of "36". Ted was also president of his junior class and general chairman of the senior ball. Menzel returned to his alma mater in 1940 to serve in the capacity of line coach of the football team, head intramural director and head boxing coach. Previous to this he was head football coach at Marshfield High School. . . . Seven of the 20 members of the Central State football squad have made up their minds on the branch of service they favor. These seven are on Uncle Sam's roster along with thousands of other college football players throughout the country. They're enlisted in the armed forces' reserve units and they are playing what may be their last competitive season before taking up the ball in the offensive against the Axis. Captain Bill Carnahan and Leon Kalkofen are in the Naval Reserve. Fred Fink, Bob Schunk, Howard Barton, and Myron Sharkey are in the Army Air Corp Reserve and Jay Swett is in the Army Enlisted Reserve Corp. . . . Huskies, Pointers Renew Series Here

The Pointers will be up against a very tough foe when they meet the Northern Illinois Teachers College Huskies of De Kalb Saturday afternoon on Schmeckle Field.

Saturdays game will be the fourth meeting between these two interstate rivals. The Huskies of De Kalb lead in the series with two victories. The best the Pointers could do thus far was to tie the boys from Illinois. In 1936 De Kalb spoiled Central Staters homecoming by defeating the Purple and Gold 13-12 in the last minute of play. The following season the Central Staters traveled to Illinois and earned a 6-6 tie. Last fall the series was resumed and the Pointers were drubbed 32-12 before a Dad's day crowd at De Kalb.

De Kalb will present a lineup consisting of three freshmen and eight veteran lettermen. The three newcomers, who shunted the veterans to the sidelines, are Harry Henigan of Sycamore and Al Mastrageli of Rockford, halfbacks, and Fred Loomer, 225 pound left tackle from Rockford.

Henigan handles the passing duties while Mastrageli, 180 pounds, is a good blocker. The accuracy of the last week to find out whether or not there was anything to that second point. This is what I found.

1) Out of 60 people present at informal dancing there were thirty-six women present and twenty-four men. The proportion here indicates that the men are doing a better job of showing up at these functions than the girls. As for "standing around in bunches", the greatest number of men standing in bunches at any time never exceeded ten. Usually it was less than that.

Feeling that this one example was not enough, I made a point to attend the Chi Delt dance Saturday night before keeping a business appointment in Park Ridge. At nine o'clock there were about fifty students there. TWENTY NINE WERE MEN STUDENTS. Nuff said?

Talk IS cheap, gals. But backed up with conclusive figures it becomes of value. I suggest that we bury the hatchet and try to work out individually a solution to this problem. Don Walker

I looked in on archery the other afternoon; only three of the girls showed up, but a few members of the football team deserted the pigskin for the bow-and-arrow, so that helped. Patty Anderson was doing pretty well with the bow-and-arrow; although not ALL bulls eyes.

The WAA met last Wednesday. The girls are going to sell "Mums" for Homecoming. They'll be on sale in the halls starting Wednesday of Homecoming week, so be sure to buy a "Mum". Another thing of interest—the boys will no longer be EXCLUSIVE with their gold athletic sweaters — the girls of the WAA are going to have them too!
