

Tolo to Teach at Duluth Summer Term

Dr. Harold M. Tolo has accepted a position at Duluth State Teachers college, as visiting professor of history and political science, for the first summer session beginning June 9. He will teach two courses, Recent English History and Comparative European Governments.

After July 18, at the close of the summer session, Dr. Tolo expects to drive to Oregon to meet Mrs. Tolo and their daughter, Mary Lynn, who plan to spend the entire summer there.

Dr. Edgar F. Pierson was asked to fill a similar position at Duluth for the second summer session, but had to turn it down because of previous commitments for the month of August.

Dr. Raymond C. Gibson, former director of the Training school here, is now president of Duluth Teachers college.

Glee Club Will Sing At Janesville

The Men's Glee club, under the direction of Norman E. Knutzen, will sing at the 31st annual state convention of the Wisconsin Federation of Music clubs which will convene in Janesville today and tomorrow, May 22 and 23.

The 25 members of the Glee club will leave on Friday afternoon by car and will sing on the evening program. They will return the same night.

Dr. Eye of U. W. High School Will Speak at Commencement

Dr. Glen E. Eye, principal of the Wisconsin High school, University of Wisconsin, will be guest speaker at the Commencement exercises for the 60 graduates of the class of 1947. The program will be held on Thursday, June 5, at 10 a. m. in the auditorium.

Music for the processional will be "Procession of Nobles" by Rimsky-Korsakov, played by the college band, under the direction of Peter J. Michelsen. The invocation will be presented by Reverend Orville K. Wold of the First English Lutheran church.

Following the invocation, Wallace Bartosz will sing "The Blind Plowman" by R. C. Clark, accompanied by Bob Westenberger at the piano.

Dr. Eye will then give his address, "A Drink from the Running Stream".

Preceding the presentation of diplomas the band will play "Rienzi Overture" by Richard Wagner.

The 60 graduates will receive their degrees and diplomas from President William C. Hansen. After the playing and singing of the Alma Mater, the Benediction will be given by Reverend Wold.

Commencement exercises will be concluded with the recessional "Honor and Glory" by Arthur Bergh, played by the band.

Graduates will receive their degrees and diplomas from the following directors: Quincy Doudna, for the two-year rural graduates, and upper grade graduates, Miss Susan Colman, primary graduates and Raymond M. Rightsell, secondary graduates.

The following 27 students will receive Bachelor of Science degrees: Chester G. Caskey, Phelps, Dolores Cowles, Loyal, Arthur J. Crowns, Jr., Nekoska, Nelda D. Dopp, Wild Rose, John F. Edwards, Sparta, Catherine Firkus, Knowlton, Helen Firkus, Knowlton, Alan Fonstad, New London, Monica Gill, Cascade, Bess Alice Jones, Wil Rose, Eldred E. Judd, Bancroft, Edmund Kowalski, City, Clarence D. Mayer, Junction City, Mary L. Murphy, Clintonville, Rosemary Nelson, Wausau, Richard Oik, City.

Summer School Will Offer Special Workshops

Special workshops in the teaching of reading, the teaching of language arts, and the teaching of arithmetic will be offered this summer at CSTC. Each workshop will run for two weeks and will carry two semester hours credit. Enrollment for one week is permitted without college credit.

These workshops are planned to meet the needs of teachers who desire intensive work in certain fundamental elementary teaching fields, but who do not want to attend the entire summer session. Persons interested in these workshops should take up with their county superintendent any questions concerning eligibility for renewal of teaching permits as a result of attendance at the workshops.

Three Dollar Fees

Fees for the workshops are payable at the rate of three dollars per credit, except for those attending the entire six weeks, and they will pay the regular summer session fees. An activity fee of one dollar per week will be charged all students, whether working for credit or not.

Registration for the first workshop will be at the time of the regular summer session registration. Registration for other workshops will be at 8 a. m. on the day the workshop opens.

Applications for attendance at the workshops may be obtained in Dr. Arthur S. Lyness' office, Quincy Doudna, director of Rural Education, is in charge of the workshop program and has further information concerning it.

Student Achievement Honored At Awards Assembly Program

Farewell Message From the President

As we approach the close of another college year I want to extend my congratulations and best wishes to those students who next year will be occupying a teaching position. I know that I can speak for the faculty, also. We all hope that you will succeed in your work beyond your fondest dreams and that it will be a pleasant experience for you. You are completing your course at a very fortunate time, in some ways. You can be certain of a position at an attractive beginning salary. The work will not be easy because the scarcity of teachers has placed an increased burden on those who are still in the profession. It will be a real challenge to your best efforts. There isn't much satisfaction, anyway, in an easy job.

For all those who are not finishing their work, and that's most of you, we wish a pleasant and profitable summer vacation. Some of you, no doubt, will transfer to other colleges in September and we hope you may enjoy your work wherever you go. For those who are returning in September, we hope to be able to provide a somewhat enlarged staff and somewhat improved facilities. Our staff has not been large enough this year for the student load and the result has been that you have not had the individualized instruction that we would like to provide in a teachers college. There is some prospect of a more adequate budget for next year. So we're looking forward to being able to serve you better next year.

Wm. C. Hansen, President

Announce Candidates For Council Election

Tomorrow, May 23, is the day of the Student Council election. The following students had filed their petitions for nomination prior to the time the POINTER went to press. Additional candidates who may have submitted their petitions at a later time were not intentionally omitted from this list.

- FRESHMEN: Herbert Ottow, Gerald Czarneki, Marge Kohler, Alan Malm, Thomas Madsen; SOPHOMORES: Marjorie Schrank, Kenneth Watson; JUNIORS: Elizabeth Stadler, Esther Davidson; RURAL: Dorothy Olson, Margaret Schindler; SECONDARY: Merlin Brunner, Art Swenson.

Four representatives will be elected from each class and one from each division. If there are not a sufficient number of nominated candidates, students are requested to write in their choices.

NOTICE

The Faculty auditing committee requests and directs the treasurers of student organizations to submit their account books for the purpose of an audit to Miss Syble Mason in the college library office during the following hours: 10-11 and 2-4 on Wednesday, May 28, Thursday, May 29, Monday, June 2, and Tuesday, June 3.

All accounts must be handed in by 4 p. m., June 3. All accounts will be held by the committee for the incoming treasurers who will take office in September. Syble Mason, chairman

Jones, Dopp, Maki Winners Of Top Scholastic Laurels

Winners of special awards and leaders in scholarship among the students at CSTC were recognized at the annual Awards Assembly held last Tuesday, May 20, at 1:15 p. m. Art Pejsa, president of the Student Council, was chairman of the proceedings.

The first awards presented were those in the music department. The chairman introduced Peter J. Michelsen, director of the department, who made the presentation. The following received letters for two year membership in the band: Charles Bart, Barbara Felker, Margaret Hull, Virginia Hull, Joan Paulson and Stephen Speidel.

Chi Deltas Ready For Spring Formal

Judging from the posters displayed on the walls and ceilings and hanging from some very precarious places in college, it would appear that a squad of human flies has been at work. Actually it is just the work of the energetic advertising committee of Chi Delta Rho fraternity announcing their Spring Formal.

The dance will be held at the P.J. Jacobs High school this Saturday, May 24, from 9 to 4 o'clock, and promises to be one of the big affairs of the year. It is the last major social event this spring, and marks the reunion of the Chi Delta Rho Alumni association.

The entire college student body, the faculty and their guests are invited to attend the dance. Tickets at $1.50 per couple will be on sale Friday in front of the library, and also at the dance. Music will be furnished by Larry Woodbury and his orchestra.

Chaperones for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Herbert R. Steiner and Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Lewis.

Preceding the dance a formal dinner will be held at the Belmont hotel for the fraternity actives and alumni and their dates.

Enjoy Tau Gam Cotton Swirl

Pink and blue streamers and a white trellis converted the Training school gym into a delightful "Club Cotton" for the spring Cotton Swirl, informal dance sponsored by Tau Gamma Beta sorority, on Friday evening, May 16.

The highlight of the evening was the southern floor show, the setting being along Basin Street. Musical numbers were presented by "Lene Horna", Darlene Morren, and "Hot Schazel", Jean Walker. Other numbers presented were: "Basin Street Blues" and "Sweet Kentucky Babe" by a ducky sextet and a tap dance duet "Loafing," by Joyce Taylor and Pat Lavers.

Refreshments were served, and dancing completed the evening's entertainment. Door prizes were won by Betty June Maki and by Jack Knope.

Acting as chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Lewis and Mrs. George R. Berg. Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Berg are both patronesses of Tau Gamma Beta.

The Cotton Swirl was the last informal dance before semester exams begin.

NOTICE

All students who have been here for only one semester this year (either first or second semester) will need to pay $1 upon receipt of their Iris. Please have the money ready on the day that the Iris is distributed.

Max Kopchinski, Dorothy Loberg and William Mellin received silver keys for three year membership. A four-year gold key was presented to John Edwards, Charles Larsen, Jack Perry, Calvin (Jack) Rasmussen, Mildred Speidel and Stephen Speidel.

Mr. Michelsen also presented awards to the following members of the Girls' Glee club: Lillian Korzilius, Joyce Kopitzke, Anne Kelley and Monica Gill, silver pins for three years' activity; Mildred Speidel, Nelda Dopp, Barbara Felker, Catherine Firkus and Dolores Cowles, gold pins for four years' activity. As president of the Glee club, Betty Ruth Crawford received a gold pin.

Men's Glee Club Awards Bill Golomski, president of the Men's Glee club, presented the awards to men who were members of the Glee club. Although the award keys did not arrive, recognition for achievement was announced. Four year members to receive gold keys are Fred Schwierski and Alvin Price. It was announced that there is also one five year member, a graduate student, Wally Bartosz. Three year members were awarded silver keys; two year members, bronze keys and one year members received green ribbons attached to safety pins.

Leland M. Burroughs, head of the English department, presented the forensic awards. The following received emblems for activity in oratory and debate: Doris Ockerlander, William Golomski, Ed Przybylski, Byron Crowns, Ed Fenelon, Margaret Guth, John Ziehlke and Dolores Jelinek.

It was announced that the Sigma Tau Delta award to the outstanding senior writer will not be presented this year. Helen Firkus gave a brief history and summary of the activities of this honorary English fraternity before introducing members of the fraternity, Monica Gill, president, Helen Jacobson, secretary, Janice Milton Schoettel, treasurer, Helen Firkus, Bess Jones, Ruth Ruff Zei, Joyce Kopitzke, Esther Davidson, Mary Jane Rankin, Virginia Hull, Evarae Mellentine, Alan Fonstad, John Ziehlke, George Sappenfeld, Gail Smith, Caroline Krogness, Mar (See AWARDS, page 5)

Faculty Receives Gift Of Cap and Gown

In memory of her daughter, Miss Jessie E. Jones, who taught biology at CSTC for several years, Mrs. S. E. Jones has given to the CSTC faculty for use at commencement the gown, hood and cap which were worn many times at CSTC commencements by Miss Jones.

These articles are in the care of the commencement committee and will be used by any member of the faculty or by a guest speaker who, in emergency, finds himself gownless. The faculty wish to express publicly their appreciation for the gift.

Published weekly except holidays and examination periods, at Stevens Point by students of the Central Wisconsin State Teachers College. Subscription Price $2.00 per year. Entered as second-class matter May 26, 1927, at the post office at Stevens Point, Wisconsin, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

That's All, Folks

As the saying goes, "All good things must come to an end," and so it goes with this, the last issue of the POINTER for 1946-47. As we write the final story and proof the last edition we look back on a year of pleasant memories. We have seen CSTC expand from a wartime enrollment of 400 to a peacetime registration of 820. As the occasion demanded the POINTER also expanded from a small, four column paper to a larger five column publication. Because of this enlargement we were able to present more features, detailed write-ups, more columns and a sports page. We have tried to give you an overall picture of life at CSTC and also bits of interest from the other parts of the country. We hope that you have enjoyed the POINTER as much as we have enjoyed "putting it out."

As we write the final head, we wish to thank all those who have made it possible to publish the POINTER, especially to those valiant members of our staff who have cheerfully contributed of their time and talents that we might bring to you a weekly student paper. To Miss Bertha Glennon, our faculty adviser, who stood behind us through thick and thin, we give our sincere appreciation for the many hours spent in helping us to make our endeavors successful. We also wish to thank President William C. Hansen, his staff and members of the faculty who have so willingly cooperated with us throughout the year. To Art Swenson and the staff of the 1947-48 POINTER, we extend our sincere wishes for a good year. May you find in your work the feeling of achievement and satisfaction which we have experienced in ours, and may all your endeavors be successful.

The Seeing Eye

As it was once so aptly put, "The end is only the beginning," even though we find ourselves at the end of our college career wiser in some respects and sadder in others. With this issue the Seeing Eye sings its swan song with the fervent hope that we've been interesting and helpful throughout the year. We've enjoyed writing this column more than we can tell you, so as far as we're concerned that's thanks enough for us.

life just as much as perfect attendance at every class. After witnessing the progress of these Greek organizations this year, we feel that if they are allowed to operate without too much restriction they will go a long way toward promoting our school and weaving together a closely knit student body behind all school activities.

All in all we've seen a pretty good year. Things have begun to assume a pre-war level with the outlook for the future very bright. We had a successful football season and a good basketball season. Both of these sports should see much improvement in the next few years. This brings us to our favorite subject "school spirit". This ingredient when mixed in with a well balanced recipe of sports should result in a finished product not only good to look at but good to participate in with the rest of the school.

It's rather difficult to sum up all the emotions and activities of four or more years of college life. The best we can say is we've enjoyed almost every minute of it and the memories we have will stay with us always.

In music this year the annual Christmas concert, Glee Club trips and concerts, homecoming concert and various auditorium presentations all showed promise of attaining higher goals than ever before experienced here at school. The future in the music department looks secure and it looks as if our school will again boast the best of music in the state.

We'd like to take this opportunity to thank personally all the instructors who had to put up with us for our four years' duration. Their patience and tact in imparting information to our sometimes muddled brain is and was appreciated. We think we can speak for most if not all seniors when we say we're proud to call Central State our Alma Mater.

The dramatic presentations were all well attended and were presented in a professional manner. This field, along with the forensic and oratorical fields, also showed promise this year of reaching previous heights enjoyed before the war.

This time of year inspires much talk of love and romance and we can't pass up the opportunity to comment a little along these lines without mentioning any names — haven't you noticed how many couples are taking the fatal plunge? Could it be that the future in the teaching profession has assumed a more secure aspect, or could it be that true love will always find a way? Regardless of the answer we can rest assured that the next generation will be thoroughly imbued with CSTC spirit and in turn might form the nucleus for a future student body. All's well that ends well, and the best way to terminate a college career may be in a single or married state as you will want it, but there must be something to it, everybody's doing it.

All fraternities which were previously disbanded because of the war have resumed normal operation. The old rivalry has risen anew and each frat is out to better the other in one way or another. This rivalry makes for healthy competition and this in turn results in good solid fraternity life. Who can deny that college without fraternities and sororities would be like ham without eggs and Abbott without Costello. These organizations together in Pan-Hellenic Council form the Greek policies of the school. These are part of our school

Nation to Honor Its War Dead on Memorial Day

A week from tomorrow, May 30, is Memorial Day, and although we all know for what it stands, perhaps we can consider again its meaning and origin. It is a day usually free of work or school obligations, but it is more than that. Too often the true spirit of the day is lost in the rush to picnic grounds, lakes, dances, golf courses and other amusement spots. Delving into the past history of this holiday, we find that two years after the Civil War it became known that the women of Columbus, Miss.,

were showing no partiality in their observances for the dead, but were decorating the graves of Confederates and Nationalists alike.

This aroused a wave of kindly feeling in the North and resulted in the writing of a well known poem, "The Blue and Grey," by Francis Miles Finch. The practice began to gain favor in other towns.

Suggested in 1868

The first definite step toward establishing Memorial Day, or Decoration Day as it was known then, was taken in 1868 when General Logan, National Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, at the suggestion of Adjutant General N.P. Chipman, issued a proclamation setting aside the 30th of May, 1868, as a day for honoring the memory of the dead, and for decorating the graves of the dead of the Civil War. He also suggested that this be made an annual affair.

Legislation in state after state followed, and now, although all states have not set aside May 30, there are less than half a dozen states which observe no Memorial Day.

Since its beginning, the meaning of Memorial Day has been intensified. Two dreadful World Wars have swelled the lists of those to whom we are to pay tribute.

This year, instead of being merely a play day, Memorial Day should merit serious thought. The total figure of all our war dead would be staggering, were it possible to obtain it. When so many have died for their country, it is little enough that the nation should pause annually and tip its hat. In addition to this, it is important that the nation, made up of individuals, should exert every effort to preserve the peace and prevent a lengthening of the list of dead. This is the most fitting tribute we can pay our heroes, as we shall be continuing the task they died to begin.

gratulations to all graduating students and best wishes for continued success to the other three classes. Luck and best wishes in future years to the President and all the faculty. We'll always treasure these years as the tops in our educational pursuits.

Galaxy of Assemblies For Summer Session

A variety of programs is scheduled for the coming summer session assemblies, Leland M. Burroughs, chairman of the faculty assembly committee, announced this week. On Thursday, June 19, at 8 a.m., Major Paul Cyr, a young American spy and one of General Wild Bill Donovan's Cloak and Dagger boys, will speak on "The Adventures of an American Spy". The Master Singers, an outstanding male quartet, will present an extensive and varied program on Thursday, June 26, at 8 p.m. The quartet is under the direction of Walter Hardwick, former member of Chicago Civic Light Opera, and appeared at CSTC last summer. The following Thursday, July 3,

Dorm Doin's

Now, again, has come the time to gather all the loose ends, and tie the strings on our bag of tricks for the year.

Most Dormites are attempting to do just that. One of the seniors in the dorm went further and said good-bye to an old way of life. Janice Milton, from Neillville, surprised nearly everyone at Nelson Hall on Friday night by announcing her plans to be married the next morning to Jake Schoettel. At dinner, Friday night, Lorraine Levrá played the Lohengrin processional on the piano and everyone formally wished "Jan" the best of everything in her new life.

Two-thirds of the girls at the dorm say "I don't know" when they're asked what their summer plans are. Several intend to stay on for summer school. Many are going home—for a much needed rest, or to take up summer jobs in their hometowns. Resorts will have many Dormites working for them. Lenore Arnette and Lorraine Thatcher have "Positions" at a place in Wisconsin Dells. Wedding bells will ring for Kay Prey in August. Mavis Bartlett will be an especially happy person when she drives to Mississippi to be with her husband after graduation.

One long school year has woven its web of memories around our lives. Nelson Hall was the scene of many changes, both internally and externally. With nothing left to worry about except passing exams, getting a summer job, passing exams, saying good-bye to our best friend for three months, passing exams, finishing term papers, and passing exams, well... we're nothing left to do but pack a year's collection of magazines, crate endless articles of clothing and canned food, return borrowed books, and find things we looked for back in Oc-

Supervisors Observe City Schools on Tour

Several Training school supervisors visited schools in Janesville, Madison and Marshfield last week for observation purposes. Mrs. Edith Cutnaw, Miss Lydia Pfeiffer and Burton R. Pierce, supervisors at the Training school visited the grades and junior high school at Janesville on Tuesday, May 13. Miss Mary Ullman, recently added to the Training school staff for next fall, and who is now teaching in Janesville, provided a full day of well-planned visitation.

Mrs. Mary Samter, first grade supervisor, stopped at Madison and visited the city grade schools. Among classes visited was that of Miss Ollie Parkin, a CSTC graduate.

On Friday, May 16, Mrs. Mildred Williams and Miss Leah Diehl, primary supervisors, visited grade schools at Marshfield.

The purpose of these visits is to observe the programs of city schools throughout the state in order to adjust the training of teachers to meet the demands with which beginning teachers are confronted in their initial teaching experiences. School officials, as well as teachers, appreciate the interest of college faculty members in their school program and encourage frequent visitations.

tober. (Oh, yes, and incidentally, pass our exams!)

Mimeographed sheets were placed in our mailboxes last week, bearing instructions on how to store articles over the summer, and so on. It was also stated that we may anticipate new living-room rugs and a newly furnished Rec room for next fall. We have that and reunions, as well as new friendships, to look forward to. Looks like a good year coming up.

Tuesday night a joint birthday (for girls having birthdays in the months from March to August) was held. Each month was represented by special decorations at a separate table. Special guests were: Miss Mildred Davis, Mary Pfeiffer and Mrs. Elizabeth Pfeiffer.

Next Tuesday, if the weather is fair, girls all will take their trays out on the lawn for a picnic supper. Sounds like a grand innovation... ought to be traditional.

Not much other news — because we're too taken up with "passing exams." In the meantime, we vote thanks to Miss Leona Bovee and Mrs. Laura Gehrke for their patience, and to fellow Dormites for their friendship and help, and to the rest of the campus—for a wonderful year. See you all next fall!

A Senior's Prophecy

(By Rosemary Nelson) "It is American to congratulate the winner, to pin upon him the medal of approval. It is American to applaud success", — and so I congratulate my fellow classmates upon reaching the goal they sought.

The young men of the class of 1947, perhaps a little older than graduates of previous years, had the courage to aim high and do big things, and, after years of service, returned to college to finish their education. Periods of adjustment are not measured by time, for all through life one must adjust oneself to people, places and circumstances, but the most pronounced period lies between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one.

During those years the young men of this class were serving with the armed forces, undergoing fear, danger, confusion, and yearning for their loved ones. They passed with flying colors and returned to college free from discontent and rebellion against the status quo to-day, and courageously took up their studies where they had left off.

And what of the girls of the class of 1947? All through their High school years they dreamed of the days when they would attend Central State Teachers college. Not only did they plan their courses but they dreamed of parties, dates and fun.

When they finally entered college, the courses were open to them — the campus was here, but what of the parties, dates and fun? These girls sadly missed the good times they had planned for: besides their studies there were occasional get-togethers and coke parties in their rooms, or a movie or a game of tennis, but they led far from normal lives, for young people need and require association with those of the opposite sex. Extra work was forced upon them, for it was up to the girls to edit the school paper and to prepare the annual, work which the young men had previously shared a part in doing. These girls did not shirk their duties; they did not allow themselves to be victims of self-pity, resentment or rebellion, but accepted all as their legitimate duty.

This class of 1947 is indeed worthy of our pride, our gratitude, and our confidence in every conceivable form for the manner in which the members have conducted themselves, without hand-wringing, through those periods of loneliness, denial and frustration. They have hitched their wagon to a star, and my prophecy is "That these young people, so schooled in carrying on against odds, will step out ahead of the crowd and accept leadership in whatever task lies ahead," thus making this world a better place in which to live."

Junior High Holds Semi-Formal Dance

The spirit of spring was expressed last Saturday evening throughout the Training school gymnasium during the MDB spring semi-formal dance, sponsored by the faculty of the Junior High.

James Van Wageningen and Gwen Fischer led the grand march and were followed by Allan Summers and Carole Church. Informal dancing including a "Shoe Mixer" was enjoyed by both faculty and students.

Miss Doris Ockerlander presented the following readings, "The Youngest in the Family", "How the Elephant Got His Trunk", and "Soap".

Special guest of the evening was Miss Mary Ullman, who will head the Social Studies department of the Junior High next fall. Other faculty members and guests included Dr. Raymond E. Gotham, Mrs. Raymond M. Rightsell, Mrs. Edith Cutnaw, Mr. and Mrs. Burton R. Pierce, Mrs. Carl Kidder, Miss Miriam Moser, Mr. and Mrs. John Zei, Miss Patricia Thorpe, Edmund Kowalski and Miss Ockerlander. Mrs. Zei served the punch and Miss Catherine Firkus acted as hostess.

Schmeckle's Classes Plant 50,000 Trees

The conservation classes, under the direction of Fred J. Schmeckle, have completed a two-week tree planting program, in which time they planted 50,000 seedlings in the Frank Walton Memorial forest and a school forest near Meehan.

Ten thousand white pine were planted, 2,500 white spruce and the balance Norway pine. The trees cover an area of from 45 to 50 acres. Twenty thousand were planted by hand and 30,000 machine-planted.

Each student, man or woman, in conservation courses 103 and 107, was required to plant 100 trees as laboratory work.

1947-48 Calendar Virtually Completed

Students Urged to Join Civic Music Club

A membership drive to inaugurate a series of concerts in Stevens Point under the auspices of the Civic Music association was launched last Monday evening at a dinner held at Hotel Whiting. These concerts, to be presented next fall and winter at the Emerson school auditorium, will be not less than three in number and probably as many as five. The artists presented at these programs will be famous virtuosos in their fields.

To all high school and college students a reduced price of $3 for a season membership ticket is being offered. This is an opportunity that no student can afford to miss. Anyone interested in good music will be able to hear several fine concerts at a ridiculously low price.

All students interested in joining the Civic Music association should contact Norman E. Knutzen, Bill Golowski, Ed Przybylski or George Whitney before Saturday evening, May 24.

Training School Will Undergo Improvements

Next year the third floor at the Training School will look very different, owing to a reconstruction of several classrooms. The present assembly room is to be eliminated and all of the desks moved out to be replaced by tables. The room will be used for a study hall, for social activities, for visual education and for junior high assemblies.

Rooms 332 and 331 are to be combined into one room and called the ninth grade home room. An office will be constructed adjoining this room, which will be occupied by Principal Burton R. Pierce, who will have charge of the ninth grade room.

A large window will be installed between rooms 330 and 331. Room 329 is to become the seventh grade home room and the small room, 328, is to become the office for Miss Mary Ullman, who will be in charge of the seventh grade home room.

Rooms 327 and 326 are to be combined into a single room to be used as the eighth grade home room. A doorway is to be constructed between Rooms 324 and 326. Room 324 will be used as the office of Mrs. Edith Cutnaw, eighth grade home room supervisor.

Students will assemble each morning and noon in their respective home rooms before going to their classes.

The present offices 301, 302 and 303 will become storerooms for reference books, visual education materials and supplies.

English and history will be taught as a two hour course under the supervision of the same teacher. Miss Ullman will supervise the seventh grade integrated course and Mrs. Cutnaw, the eighth grade course. Miss Ullman will also have charge of the ninth grade course.

The same plan will apply for mathematics and science, with Mr. Pierce as supervisor.

Plans are underway for the extension of practice teaching periods in the intermediate department to one-half day, rather than the single hour period of the present schedule. Quincy Doudna and Dr. Raymond E. Go (See TRAINING SCHOOL, page 6)

Handbook Due Soon

Work is progressing well on the CSTC Student Handbook, which is being published by the Student Council.

The committee composed of Esther Davidson, Art Swenson, Naomi Barthels and Art Pejsa, has been busy compiling the material for the handbook under the guidance of Miss Pauline Isaacson, faculty adviser.

There is a possibility that the handbook may not go to press until after graduation due to the fact that some necessary material is not yet available for the publication. However, the book is certain to be out before the beginning of the summer session.

Bound to Be Good!

The Pointer office will be open on Monday, May 26, from 8 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1-4 p.m. to receive the Pointers of those students who wish to have bound copies made.

All Pointers should be in chronological order and none but complete volumes (27 issues) will be accepted. There are some extra copies of the Pointer available at the Pointer office and students who lack no more than four issues may obtain them at the above mentioned time.

Students should leave their home town addresses as well as their Stevens Point addresses with the person who receives their Pointers. Cost of binding will be 50 cents per volume, which must be paid at the time the Pointers are turned in. No Pointers will be accepted for binding after Monday, May 26.

Who's Whose

And some more people get wed, yet! Janice Milton and Jake Schoettel took the vows last Saturday. Congratulations and our best wishes!

We can't possibly start studying for finals until Fearless wins out over his arch-enemy, Anyface, and if he doesn't hurry up it won't even pay to start. Well, we could coast and risk our A's dropping to B's.

It seems two Mexicans, Juan and Manuel, were walking home one night after more than enough tequila. They came to a railroad crossing, and there, near the track, was a human arm.

"Look," said Juan. "Eet ees our fran, Pedro, I think. I can tell by the ring on hees finger."

They walked further down the track and came to a human leg lying near the ties.

"Look," said Manuel. "Eet ees our fran, Pedro, I think. I can tell by the silver spur."

They walked a little further down the track and came to Pedro's head and shoulders.

Manuel walked over to the remains of his friend and shook him, saying, "What's the matter, Pedro, you seek?"

At the risk of repeating ourselves, (and we could quote worse sources) we'd like to mention Mary Stewart and Everett Humke, who have been going together since before they came to school last fall. An' without rows!

Some other couples who've been 'keepin' stiddy company' for a goodly share of the year are Berndt-Esther Murat; "Buzz" Dryfoose-Jean Zahner; Chvala-Cassie Rose-nov; Art Daily-Mary Chenoweth and others we wish we had room to mention.

But us, and Joe Worth, we don't hold with dating and those kinds carryings on, do we, Joe?

Student Organizations

Alpha Kappa Lambda

Gus Walters, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, gave an enlightening talk, "Main Street Conservation", at a meeting of Alpha Kappa Lambda held last Wednesday evening. Mr. Walters' talk was informal and included much information beneficial to many people besides Conservationists.

Members of this organization who are leaving the college will be honored at a party on May 26. The place has not been decided upon as yet.

Tau Gamma Beta

Jeanette See was elected president of Tau Gamma Beta sorority at a meeting held at the home of Jean Walker on Tuesday evening, May 13. Other officers chosen to lead the group are vice-president, Luille Toschi, recording secretary, Jean Walker; corresponding secretary, Lenore Arnette; treasurer, Betty Ruth Crawford; assistant treasurer, Phyllis Kasper; historian, Loretta Fenelon; press representative, Evelyn Markwardt.

After the business meeting a short musical program, "Til We Meet Again", was presented in honor of the seniors. Refreshments were served.

Omega Mu Chi

When Omega Mu Chi sorority met at the home of Mrs. Harold M. Tolo, on Tuesday evening, May 13, Virginia Hull was elected president of the sorority for next semester. The following will fill the remaining offices: Wanda Counsell, vice-president; Kathryn Rosenow, recording secretary; Kathleen Berg, corresponding secretary; Jean Crosby, historian; Virginia Hansen, chaplain; Barbara Voight, treasurer; Margaret, press representative.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Tolo, with Virginia Hull and Elizabeth Stadler pouring at a table attractive with a low bowl of spring flowers and lighted tapers.

Members of the sorority were entertained at an informal party held at Eske Lodge near Nelsonville last Tuesday evening. The party was given by the sorority patronesses, Mrs. Charles H. Cashin, Mrs. Carl N. Jacobs, Mrs. Earle Kidder, Mrs. Palmer Taylor; honorary members, Mrs. Leland M. Burroughs, Mrs. Albert E. Harris, Mrs. Tolo, Mrs. Erwin Schwahn and faculty advisers, Miss Bertha Glennon, Mrs. Mary Samter and Miss Pauline Isaacson.

After the dinner each of the six seniors was presented with gold compacts as a remembrance of the sorority.

Installation of new officers was also held at Eske Lodge.

Radio Workshop

The Radio Workshop of CSTC will complete its 1946-47 broadcast schedule next Thursday, May 29. At that time the members of the "College Roundtable" will revert to fortune telling and will prophesize the

Band, Girls' Glee Club Hold Picnic Today

Members of the College Band and the Girls' Glee club will join together this afternoon to enjoy a picnic to be held at Iverson park. Plenty of good food and fun is promised to all who are present.

Guests of the band and Glee club will be President and Mrs. William C. Hansen, Dr. and Mrs. Edgar F. Pierson, Mr. and Mrs. Quincy Doudna, Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Michelsen and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert R. Steiner.

outcome of future world events. During the latter part of the program Miss Gertie Hanson will present a preview of summer Radio Workshop programs.

Taking a backward glance at the weekly programs, listeners found that "Our College", "Books and Authors" and "The Music Album" were popular programs carried over from last year's schedule. Two new workshop innovations adapted this year were "The Radio Workshop Players", presenting a radio drama each Wednesday, and "The College Roundtable", an extemporaneous discussion on current controversial topics. According to the many favorable reports from many listeners, these programs were very popular and in all probability will be continued next year.

A tentative plan for the coming year calls for a children's broadcast the nature of which is not yet determined. Miss Hanson, Workshop director, promises more news of future plans on next Thursday's broadcast. Her statement summing up the year's programs is as follows: "I'm proud of the work accomplished in the Radio Workshop during the year of 1946-47. Every year production and broadcasting is better. This has been made possible through the interests of the Workshop students and the untiring efforts of the staff, the loyalty of the production manager and the hearty cooperation of station WLBL."

"S" Club

Chester "Boots" Derezhinski was elected president of the "S" club for next year at a meeting held Tuesday, May 13. Dick Berndt was named vice-president and Jim Koehn, secretary and treasurer. The executive committee will consist of Cliff Worden and Dick Parsons. Bill Mellin was named chairman of the correspondence committee.

Sigma Zeta

Pat Thorpe was elected president of Sigma Zeta, national honorary science fraternity, for the coming year at a meeting held Wednesday, May 14, at Iverson lodge. Other officers elected were Percy Voight, vice-president, Fern Horn, historian, and Dr. Roland A. Trytten, recorder-treasurer.

Percy Voight gave an interesting report on the trip to the National Conclave held at Westerville, Ohio. Gilbert W. Faust also spoke to the group. Guests at the picnic included Dr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Lyness, Mrs. Robert Burkman, Mrs. Percy Voight and Mrs. Peter Muto.

Members and their guests enjoyed a in a softball game after which a lunch was served.

Gamma Delta

Gamma Deltans will hold their spring picnic at Iverson park on Sunday, May 25, beginning at 4 p.m. A fine program has been planned, including plenty of eats. All members and other Lutheran students are urged to enjoy the fine spring weather and enjoyable companionship. Those who haven't signed the list on the bulletin board are asked to do so on Oct. This will be one of the last opportunities for Gamma Deltans to meet together in a social gathering this year.

The committee in charge consists of Ramona Putnam, Gladys Rindfleisch, Dick Zander and Dorothy Loberg.

All Gamma Deltans who are members of the Senior Walther League of St. Pauls Ev. Lutheran church in this city are invited and urged to attend the Walther League Birthday Party which will be held this evening beginning at 6 p.m. in the church parlors. A banquet will be served and a program has been planned in commemoration of the founding of the League.

Phi Sigma Epsilon

Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity elected its officers for the coming year at a meeting held last week.

The Fifth Quarter

Well, yours truly—this writer that is—ain't braggin' but what the heck, when a man makes a prediction and he's lucky enough to have it come true he oughta get some credit. That's right—the trout weren't biting on the opening day of trout season, and there was a good turn-out of fishermen. (See Fifth Quarter, last week).

Lake Weber, Wisconsin's much talked about poisoned lake of 1942 and replanted in 1943, put to shame the 70 some odd fishermen who lined its banks on that first day. The big ones, reportedly two feet long, swam around at their leisure while some of the best fishermen in the state tossed everything in the book to them.

Reports from CSTC students were about the same as all others. Everett Humke and Gene Taylor fished the Pelican Lake over the week-end getting one small Northern that had to be thrown back. More luck in the future, men.

A few of the local boys, supposedly on an extra spurge of energy, were out on the tennis court in the wee hours of the morning last Sunday. It seems that the plans were made unexpectedly sometime earlier that same day, the exact time and place have not been authentically established at this writing.

As the story goes Jim Cory was there as well as two other unidentified Moxon House dwellers. Jim, it seems, thoroughly convinced his followers that there is nothing like three sets of tennis in the early a.m. to put a man on his feet. And as a matter of fact Jim says, quote, "It'll make you feel well all day".

Just how much further it is advisable to go into the details of this story is not certain, so before it gets too involved, we suggest that whoever may be interested should see Jim himself.

A fine show of sportsmanship was witnessed in the Cardinals-Independents softball game last week. In the last of the tenth of the tied-up ball game, the umpire miscalled a long foul that would have meant the winning run for the Cards. Dick Berndt, manager of the Cardinals, seeing that it was obviously a foul ball asked for a change of decision which nearly cost them the game. The Cards finally pushed over two runs in the last of the eleventh to win the game.

As you all know this is the last issue of the Pointer and of course the last Fifth Quarter. It has been a pleasure to follow our athletic department throughout the past year. To you, the readers, if you like this column and care to tell the staff about it, that too will be appreciated very much.

So until next fall, and another Fifth Quarter, so long and good sporting.

Review History of Central State

The Wisconsin state legislature of 1891 authorized the establishment of the sixth state normal school to be located in the central and northern part of Wisconsin. The eagerness of the cities, particularly Wausau and Stevens Point, for the honor of having the school in their locality was great, but it came to an end with Stevens Point as winner.

The money raised by the county and the city for building the school was $50,000. This was taken in cash from Stevens Point to Madison in two installments.

Campus Limited

At first the campus occupied five acres. The first floor of the building contained the model department, second floor the normal department proper, and the third floor the science labs and classrooms.

The great railroad strike of 1894 hampered the building of the school very much, as supplies could not be transported. The result was that when the school opened on September 17, 1894, the building was not and the development of independence and self-reliance. The courses in 1894-5 were offered for high school graduates and others of ability. Most of the students had not finished high school, however.

In 1899 the college had acquired quite a collection of statuary. Many people came to see it. One fellow, though, after looking at the pieces of art, didn't seem very pleased. He asked, "Why don't Mr. Pray, when he buys those things, get whole ones, and not those that have been broken?"

Add West Wing

In 1900 the west wing was added. This addition provided a secondary assembly room, new quarters for the art department, and new rooms for the model department. The Normal could now take care of 500 students.

In 1902 the domestic science course, for which our college is famous, was introduced. The John Francis Sims Cottage for training the Home Ec students was opened in 1915.

John F. Sims became president in 1905.

In 1908 the first summer session began. The average enrollment for summer sessions since then has been 455.

Offer Rural Course

In 1912 the "Country School Teachers' Training Course" was introduced. A model rural school was obtained out in the country. Miss May Roach was the supervising teacher. The Orthman Demonstration school on the campus was not built till 1922.

The east wing was built in 1914, Nelson Hall was opened in 1917, and the Training School was built in 1930.

In 1926 Dr. Robert Dodge Baldwin became president and held this office until 1930, when Frank S. Hyer succeeded him. Recent presidents have been Phillip F. Falk, Ernest T. Smith, and William C. Hansen.

Fall Football Schedule

Football practice for next year has been scheduled to begin on September 8, which is the opening of the 1947-48 season.

There are big hopes for a good turnout with a lot of lettermen expected back. Most of the team this past year consisted of underclassmen who, (we hope) will be back again.

The opening game is scheduled for September 20, just two weeks after practice starts. A conference rule forbids any practice before school opens or before September 10, whichever is first.

Following is the schedule for the 47-48 football season:

Date	Opponent	Place
Saturday, September 20	Eau Claire	Stevens Point
Saturday, September 27	River Falls	River Falls
Saturday, October 4	Oshkosh	Stevens Point
Friday, October 10	Superior	Superior
Saturday, October 18	Milwaukee	Milwaukee
Saturday, October 25, (Homecoming)	Platteville	Stevens Point
Saturday, November 1	Whitewater	Whitewater

yet completed. The first students probably remember the noise of the saw and hammer as well as the science and literature they learned that first year.

In 1898 five acres were added to the campus and a plan of landscape gardening was introduced which has been consciently carried out. That is the reason this campus is one of the most beautiful in the state today.

Experiment at School

The Normal School was very much an experiment the first year. Almost all the teachers had never taught in a normal school before, so they were free to carry out their own ideas. Theron B. Pray, first president, however, had great confidence in them and in the outcome of the experiment.

In 1894-5 the enrollment was 201 and the faculty members numbered 13. The first POINTER was issued in December, 1895. This early paper was a literary effort rather than the college newspaper it is today.

The first catalog gave advice discouraging two students rooming together. The school seemed to think it was a hindrance to rapid progress

Jones Wins Sigma Zeta Award

Ed Kowalski, president of Sigma Zeta, honorary science fraternity, announced the winner of the Sigma Zeta award. The award is made for scholarship, service to the school, and outstanding work in science. The recipient of this year's award is Bess Jones. Ed also told of fraternity activities and stated that all faculty members of either the math or science department were either active or honorary members. He then introduced the following activities: Ed Boycks, Vincent Brunner, Betty Ruth Crawford, Helen Firkus, Lynn Feutz, Bill Golomski, Fern Horn, Virginia Hull, Dolores Jelinek, Bess Jones, Verle Krienke, Frances Kutchenrifer, John Mase, Betty June Maki, Peter Muto, Doris Ockerlander, Art Pejsa, Lorraine Peters, Kathryn Peterson, Patricia Thorpe, Carl Torkelson, Percy Voight, Ruth Ruff Zei and Ed Kowalski. The following associate members were also introduced: Merlin Brunner, Jim Buelow, John Judd, Jean Neale and Francis Quinn.

Mary Due, president of Tau Gamma Beta sorority, announced the awarding of the Jean Mailer Pin to the pledges with the highest scholastic average. Lenore Arnette wore the pin during the first semester, and Phyllis Kasper, the second semester.

Omega Mu Chi also awards a pin to the pledge with the highest scholastic average. Mary Noble received the pin for the first semester and Wanda Counsell for the second semester. Elizabeth Stadler, sorority president, made the announcement.

Nelda Dopp Honored

Annually, Alpha Kappa Rho, honorary music fraternity, presents an award to the outstanding senior girl, based on qualities of leadership, scholarship and good sportsmanship. The winner has her name engraved on a large trophy to be kept in school and is awarded a small personal trophy. The recipient of this year's award is Nelda Dopp, Bess Jones and Helen Firkus received honorable mention. Stephen Speidel, president of the fraternity, made the award and also accorded recognition to the following senior members of Alpha Kappa Rho: Catherine Firkus, John Edwards, Jack Perry, Anne Kelley, Rosemary Nelson, Mildred Speidel and Stephen Speidel.

It was announced that the Phi Sigma Epsilon leadership trophy to be awarded to the outstanding senior man would not be presented as yet, since the committee to select this senior had not reached a decision.

Chi Delta Rho fraternity annually presents an award to the senior having the highest scholastic average attained over a four year period. The winner, who is to have her name engraved on the Student Honor Cup, is Bess Jones. Percy Voight, fraternity president, made the presentation.

Dr. Harold M. Tolo presented awards to Bess Jones, editor of the Iris, college yearbook, and to Jim Cory, business manager. Dr. Tolo also presented Miss Bertha Glennon an award for her five years as editorial adviser to the Iris staff. The major members of next year's Iris staff were announced: Wanda Counsell, editor, with Mary Ellen Due as associate editor and Reuben Beilke, Phyllis Christensen, Phyllis Kasper, and Jimmy Koehn as assistant editors. The Business Staff will be headed by Jim Cory and John Lobenstein, as co-managers, with Melvin Berg as assistant manager.

Dr. Tolo also announced the following as winners of the Time Magazine Awards: Alan Fonstad, George Rogers, Mrs. June Stimm, Bill Ramsey, and Merlin Brunner.

Pointer awards were announced by Robert S. Lewis, business adviser, who stated that the keys and pins had not as yet arrived. Mary Juettin will be presented a gold key for her work as editor of the student weekly publication. Mary in turn presented awards to the following members of the editorial staff: Ed Przybylski and Darlene Morren, who will receive silver pins for two years of outstanding work and Art Swanson and Marjorie Beawer who will get bronze pins for one year of outstanding work.

Mr. Lewis also presented a gold key to Betty June Maki, who has been business manager of the Pointer. She presented Evelyn Markwardt with a silver pin for two years of outstanding work and George Whitney, a bronze pin for one year's outstanding work. All member of both the business and the editorial staff will receive bound copies of the Pointer.

New Conservation Award

Fred J. Schmeckle, chairman of the conservation department, announced that the Wisconsin Federation of Garden clubs will award two scholarships to Junior students in the conservation major. The award will be equivalent to two semesters' tuition fees. The scholarships will be given to individuals who the judges decide have the greatest possibility of advancing in the field of conservation.

The chairman then introduced President William C. Hansen, who presented the Home Economics award of $100 in cash to the outstanding Junior girl in the Home Economics department. This year's award went to Betty June Maki.

President Hansen also announced the winner of the Kent Cutnaw Scholarship, given by Mrs. Edith Cutnaw as a memorial for her son who was killed in action in World War II. One year's tuition is awarded to a young man who, by the end of his freshman year, has been high in scholarship and has evidenced a special interest in social studies. James Koehn received this scholarship. William Ludwig and Leore P. Marchel were chosen alternates.

Dolores Jelinek, president of Alpha Psi Omega, honorary dramatic fraternity, presented membership certificates to the following: LaVerne Larson, vice-president, Helen Trewartha, secretary-treasurer, Norman Dineen, Helen Firkus, Bill Mellin, Ray Bartkowiak and alumnus Warde Whitaker.

Jean Fumelle, president of the Women's Athletic association, presented the following awards to members who have shown ability in this organization. A chenille "S" for two year membership was awarded to Jean Fumelle, Marjorie Schrader, Ramona Putnam, and Ruth Wachholz. Felt emblems for one year membership were received by Lorraine Levra, Mary Connor, Lillian Douglas, Carol Mews, Lorraine Goth, Virginia Franke, Dorothea Graham, Frances Engstrom, Eva Peterson, Hildegard Kuse, LaVerne Collum, Angelina Doxtator and Elizabeth Swenson.

JCC Presents Check

Men's athletic awards were announced by Dr. Tolo, chairman of the athletic committee, and presented by Coach George Berg. Dr. Tolo also introduced Gordon Hansen, president of the local Junior Chamber of Commerce, who presented a check for $150 to be used for the sweater fund. The program closed with the presentation of a sweater to all men active in athletics during the past years, when such awards were not made.

"The Purple and the Gold"

Other schools of valor boast,
Of victories galore,
Of laurels never lost,
Of triumphs by the score;
Let them tell you of their prowess,
Of warriors strong and bold,
But their colors ever lower
To the Purple and the Gold.

Our men are all victorious
Through every state around,
Our athletes and debaters
Are winning great renown.
Though we're proud of all
Wisconsin,
Whose fame's in story told,
Our heart's with Alma Mater
And the Purple and the Gold.

To the banks of old Wisconsin,
When years are past and gone,
As schoolmates we have parted,
Our lessons all are done,
We'll return and show our comrades,
We're loyal as of old,
And cheer them on to victory
Neath the Purple and the Gold.

ALMA MATER

Hail! Stevens Point, the school supreme
Central College, thou art queen;
Hail! Alma Mater, thee we love,
For us thou art all other schools
above."

Staff Gets Candy At Final Session

Miss Bertha Glennon and the Pointer Staff recently were surprised by a box of candy, from Mrs. Dorothy Dunn Huffman, of San Diego, California, former society editor of the Stevens Point Journal.

The following note accompanied the gift: "For Miss Bertha Glennon and The Pointer Staff, just a very small sign of my appreciation for the interesting Pointer copies this year. Best of luck in 1947-1948, Dorothy Dunn Huffman."

Needless to say the candy made a sweet ending for the staff on its last Monday evening of work.

(Note: The following editorial is based upon a news broadcast made by George Grim over station WCCO, Minneapolis, on May 4, 1947. Mr. Grim will be off the air this summer as he is taking a reporting trip through Greece, Turkey, Poland, India, Palestine, China, Japan and the near East. Mr. Grim stated, however, that he will be back on the air next fall with programs about and for teachers.)

Almost buried in the news about the United Nations is the writing of a charter within the UNESCO—the fast way of saying the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization.

This charter has nothing to do with guns, atomic energy, world police forces or who sees Stalin next. This charter is a declaration of the dependence of our world upon the men and women who teach in our schools. The charter can do but one thing—remind the world that its future depends upon the enlightenment of its citizens. After that, it's up to the citizens, but it doesn't look very hopeful.

Our world has a way of short-changing one of its most important people—the teacher. Though a brainless Hollywood star whose talent may only be visual gets star dollars by the thousands, the day-after-day teaching of Miss Jones gets the merest handout.

This isn't limited to one nation. The shoestring salary of the teacher shows its shameful slimmness everywhere. Take Mexico, for example—35,000 teachers staged a one-hour work stoppage last November in protest against low salaries and high costs. Half of Puerto Rico's 9,000 teachers hit the pavement until a special session of the legislature raised their pay.

It's been the same the world over—Panama, Rome, South Africa, Canada.

Are these strikes justified? Take a look at the figures and check for yourself.

The bottom salaries for primary teachers run from $2 a month in India to $160 a month in Scandinavia. Incidentally, that $160 a month minimum really equals about $320 in terms of what the Norwegian crown will buy.

Here's some more low salaries—Hungary—$2 a month; British India and Japan—$10; Poland—$18; Brazil—$25; Netherlands—$31; Greece, China, Iraq, Czechoslovakia and Russia—$40; Chile—$50; Bermuda—$55; Egypt—$62.25; Canada, South Africa and France—$75; Turkey—$80; Cuba—$96; England—$105.

You cannot live on most of those salaries. In South America, for example, most teachers are required to hold two and three jobs to survive.

You get what you pay for in many businesses. That applies to some incompetent teachers. Yet, there are many teachers who stay on the job because they realize its importance. They cannot walk out on the children—or their future. When a teacher is forced to carry a picket sign, the shame is upon the shoulders of America's legislators.

They ought to write into the UNESCO declaration a paragraph about the materials with which the teacher works. The buildings—the equipment—the textbook shortage. Far too many school buildings are dingy, ill-heated fire traps where the pupil has a terrific task in liking the place at all.

Wisconsin boasts of its highways, and hems and haws over the matters of school buildings, textbooks and teachers' pay. We, as citizens of Wisconsin, are to blame for the deplorable situation now at hand. What are we going to do?

Alpha Kappa Rho

Members of Alpha Kappa Rho were entertained at a 6:30 supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Bukolt last Monday evening. Following the supper an evening of musical fun was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Michelsen and Mrs. Foster Diley were guests at the supper.

YWCA

The newly organized Y Dubs began their fun at an initiation picnic for the new members at Iverson Park last Sunday afternoon, May 18.

The members-to-be played baseball while the initiation ceremony was being arranged by Betty Dietz, chairman and other members.

When it was almost dark, the candlelight ceremony around the campfire, with the impressive words of each member, was a thing of beauty, long to be remembered by all.

Several hymns were sung by Toni Bowman and Jean Walker. Barbecues, the result of the culinary skill of the food committee, Barbara Razner, chairman, Betty Dietz, Janice Sisley and Miss Miriam Moser, were thoroughly enjoyed.

Those present were: Marilyn Bobbe, Marjorie Beaver, Toni Bowman, Fern Horn, Sylvia Horn, Betty Dietz, Bess Jones, Phyllis Kasper, Betty Ann Richardson, Janice Sisley, Jean Walker, Doris Yeager, Mrs. William C. Hansen and Miss Moser.

Before adjourning, plans were made for the Freshman Tea to be given early in September.

WAA

Jene Fumelle was re-elected president of WAA at the last business meeting of the year. Other officers who will assist her are Mary Connor, vice-president; Carol Mews, secretary; Marjorie Schrader, treasurer and Lillian Douglass, press representative.

During the meeting the girls decided upon September 17, as a tentative date for their fall picnic. This picnic has been especially planned for the purpose of welcoming all new women who will enroll at CSTC next fall. Carol Mews and Laverne Collum are co-chairmen for this picnic.

The spring picnic, which brought to a close all WAA activity for the year, was held at Iverson park last Wednesday, May 21. Betty Swenson and Ramona Putnam were co-chairmen in charge of the picnic.

Chi Delta Rho

Jim Cory was elected president of Chi Delta Rho for the next semester at Tuesday night's meeting in Room 107. Other officers elected are: Chester "Boots" Derezinski, vice-president; Jim Beulow, secretary; Jim Lewis, treasurer; Michael Fortune, sergeant-at-arms.

Plans were concluded for the Chi Delt annual formal for tomorrow night. Gilbert W. Faust addressed the fraternity and commended it on its record for the past year. The possibility of having a "frat house" for next year was also discussed.

LSA

Orval Moser was elected president of LSA for the coming year at a recent meeting held at Schmeckle Field. Mary Ellen Due will assist him as vice-president, Hildegard Kuse as secretary, Joan Paulson as treasurer, Dorothy Severson as Mission secretary and Betty Swenson as press representative.

Members of the organization played a game of softball and enjoyed a social hour before refreshments were served.

Betty June Maki led the devotions at the close of the evening's activities.

Girls' Glee Club

Patricia Lavers was elected president of the Girls' Glee club at a meeting held in the auditorium on Tuesday afternoon, May 20. Other officers for the next year are: Grace Peterson, vice-president; Esther Davidson, business manager; Margaret Roberts, secretary; Marjorie Simonson, treasurer; Marjorie Kohler and Evelyn Markwardt; board of directors; Winnie Church, press representative.

Staff Announced For Next Year's Pointer

A tentative staff for the 1947-48 POINTER was announced last week by Art Swenson, editor, and Miss Bertha Glennon, faculty adviser. Although nothing is definite, it appears that the staff will line up something like this:

News Editor; Janice Sisley. Assistant news editors; Isabelle Stelmahoske, Elizabeth Stadler. Organizations editor; Mary Juettten.

Feature writers; Darlene Morren, Pat Feragen, Michael Fortune. Composition editor; Reuben Beilke.

Sports editor; Gordon Johnson. Assistant sports editor; Jim Neale. Reporters; Jeanne Walker, Margaret Roberts, Mary Ellen Gmeiner, Betty June Maki, Dorothy Olson, Gladys Soetebeur, Phyllis Kasper.

Typists; Martha Stock, Doris Yeager, Lorraine Meyer, Pat Jones. Proofreaders; Marjorie Beaver, Lillian Douglass.

In spite of the fact that most of the positions seem to be filled, students are reminded of the fact that the POINTER is YOUR student paper and applications for positions are welcomed.

1947 Yearbook To Be Out Soon

The Iris staff can, at last, completely relax because that's all; the book is on the presses. The 1947 Iris is at the printers and will be ready for distribution before school is out, although the exact date can not be determined at this point.

The complete staff and the position each held is as follows: Editor, Bess Jones; associate editors, Ray Bartkowiak, Elizabeth Stadler; photographer, George "Sam" Koshollek; cover design and etchings, John Gerdes; introduction and captions, Fred Weller; layout, Carrie Krogness.

Radio Workshop and College Theater, Dolores Jelinek; Iris and debate, Jim Beulow; Forum, Margaret Roberts; music, Margaret Hull; honorary fraternities, Betty Crawford; sports, Jim Davis; Rural Life, Laverne Haskins; Primary Council, Dolores Lepak; faculty Lenore Arnette; WAA, Marjorie Schrader; Grammar Round Table, Jean Smith.

The typists were Lucille Tanner, Dorothy Severson, Roberta Shepard, Martha Stock, Doris Yeager and Catherine Firkus.

The engraving was done by the Brock Engraving Company of Madison and the printing and binding by Worzalla Publishing Company of Stevens Point.

Conservationists Hear Talk on State Lands

Dr. Cramer of the Wisconsin Conservation department spoke before the conservation classes last Friday afternoon, May 16, on the state acquisition of hunting and recreational grounds.

He is the head of the public hunting and recreational grounds, and his talk centered around the acquisition of these lands through purchase or lease program. Each year 50 cents is taken from every hunting license to be added to the funds set aside for the purchasing of additional land for hunting and recreation.

Marines Plan History Of Second Division

General Alexander A. Vandergrift, Commandant of the United States Marine Corps, has recently convened a board for the purpose of compiling and publishing a complete history of the Second Division. This is the division which distinguished itself in combat at Tarawa, Saipan, Okinawa and Guadalcanal.

The history, when completed, will be distributed free of charge to all former members of the Second Division, who served with the unit between January 4, 1942 and September 2, 1945. In order to complete the distribution list for this publication, Colonel D. M. Shoup, president of the board, has requested all such former members to submit the following information: (a) Name, rank and serial number; (b) Present address; (c) Inclusive dates of service with the Second Division; (d) The unit within the division to which attached; (e) Specific incidents or actions which are believed to be necessary to be included in the history when published.

Colonel Shoup requests that this information be submitted to: Second Marine Division History Board, Room 2120, Headquarters U.S. Marine Corps, Washington, 25, D.C.

Information has also been released to the effect that the Corps has re-adopted the policy of granting recruits ten days leave upon completion of Phase One of their recruit training.

TEXT LIBRARY NOTICE

The Text Library will be moved to the new quarters in the present unbound periodical room on the third floor of the college building this week. Books will be received at the end of the semester, and dispensed at registration in Room 353 directly across the hall from the new library. Text library hours will be extended to receive the books lent to students during this past year as follows:

Thursday, May 29, 9:45-10:15 a. m.
2:30-3:10 p. m.
Monday, June 2, 10-12 a. m.
1-3:30 p. m.
Tuesday, June 3, 8-11 a. m.
1-4 p. m.
Wednesday, June 4, 8-12 a. m.
1-4 p. m.

Students are urged to return books as early as possible and each person should return his own books. The hours in which the text library is open are such that it should not be necessary to stand in line. All books must be returned and all records cleared before leaving after examinations. Under Board of Regents ruling no grades will be recorded for a student until all his library delinquencies are settled. Check at the circulation desk and pay all fines due before returning books to the text library.

RETURN ALL TEXT BOOKS TO THE NEW LOCATION, ROOM 353.

Hanson, Lewis Attend State Geog. Meeting

Robert S. Lewis and Miss Gertie Hanson represented Central State Teachers college at an organizational meeting of the Wisconsin Council of Teachers of Geography held at Oshkosh State Teachers college on Friday, May 9.

The meeting, which was attended by representatives of the state teachers colleges, the University of Wisconsin and St. Norbert's college, was for the purpose of reviving the Council, which had lapsed during the war years.

Among the officers of the Council is Miss Hanson, who was elected treasurer.
