Kindergarten-Primary Candidates Get First Job Interview Friday

Candidates for positions in the kindergarten-primary division will be personally interviewed on Friday, November 18, at 9:30 a.m. by Milwaukee school administrators. Walter S. Nichols and Paul B. Clemens, assistant superintendents of the Milwaukee public school system, are the first school officials to visit the campus for interviews.

There are 16 prospective graduates in this division. While enrollment in the division has risen to 100 at the present time, students are still being urged to consider primary work to fill the need for teachers in that area.

Training for this division, whose director is Miss Susan Colman, begins in the Sophomore and Junior year with observation and participation under the guidance of Miss Elsie Grime, Mrs. Mary Samter, Mrs. Mildred Williams, and Miss Gladys Van Arsdale. Practice teaching in the Senior year requires the student to spend an entire half day in the Training school for one semester. If work is satisfactory, the student will receive ten credits. Another semester carries the equivalent of 3 credits of practice. During this program the student will have done work in at least three grades of the division.

Thanksgiving Assembly

The Women's Self-Governing association of the college is sponsoring a Thanksgiving assembly at 10 o'clock on Tuesday, November 22. The program committee consists of Barbara Clark and Gretchen Holstein.

Father Ezra Diman is to be the speaker at the assembly. He has been a missionary in the Philippines for several years. Father Diman and his family are now on furlough in Stevens Point.

Muriel Held will be organist for the opening and closing music. There will be a Thanksgiving reading by Donna Alderton and a soprano solo by Anita Domack. The speech will be followed by music sung by a group from the Girls' Glee club.

The WSGA urges all students to attend this special Thanksgiving assembly. Instead of the regular Tuesday classes, Friday's schedule of classes will be held on Tuesday. The Thanksgiving assembly will thus be held during the regular assembly period ordinarily held at 10 o'clock on Friday.

Four Pledges Initiated Into Sigma Tau Delta

Donna Alderton, Joann Kenney, James Koehn and John Kowaleski were formally initiated into Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity, at a ceremony held in the Student Lounge Wednesday evening, November 16.

These pledges completed their requirements and were accepted as active members at this time.

Mrs. Raymond E. Specht, a guest of the group, gave an interesting discussion of the play, "Death of a Salesman," which she had seen recently in Chicago. A lunch was served following the program.

Men's Glee Club Appearing in Second Concert November 20

The Central State Men's Glee Club, under the direction of Norman E. Knutzen, will make its second appearance at a concert being held Sunday, November 20, at 8:15 p.m. in the auditorium. This concert, at 8:15 p.m., is for the public, as the student body will have a similar program in the near future during a regular assembly hour.

The following program has been prepared for Sunday's concert: "The Purple and the Gold" by Pray-Percival; "It's a Grand Night for Singing" by Rodgers; "In a Monastery Garden" by Ketelbey; "Laudamus" by Protheroe;

Charlotte Reichel, a contralto, will then sing "Song of Redemption" by Protheroe and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. Harold P. Kusserow will accompany Miss Reichel on the organ.

Piano-Organ Trio
A piano and organ trio, "Sheep May Safely Graze" by Bach will follow Miss Reichel's solo. Frank Wesley and Robert Karsten will be at the piano with Bertram Davies at the organ.

The second group of Glee club numbers includes: "Panis Angelicus," "The Lord's Prayer" by Cesar Franck; "Exaltation" by Gibb; "Dry Bones" by Watson; "Wayfarer's Night Song" by Martin-Salter; "The Creation" by Richter.

A brief intermission then follows. Wallace Bartosz, tenor soloist, will then sing "The Flower Song" from "Carmen" and "Ah, So Pure" from "Martha" by Flotow. He will be accompanied by Mrs. S. G. Peterson.

"Bless this House"
Miss Reichel will then sing "Bless this House" with her piano accompaniment.

Friday Class Schedules To Be Run Next Tuesday

Class schedules for Friday will be run on next Tuesday, November 22, instead of the regular Tuesday schedules. This change was made by the administration because of the fact that school on Friday has been suspended numerous times, and certain courses, especially three credit courses, have suffered because of it.

Band in Annual Fall Concert November 29

The CSTC band, directed by Peter J. Michelsen, will present its annual fall concert on Tuesday, November 29, at 8:15 p.m. in the college auditorium.

The program planned includes "Our United States March" by Frank Ventre, "Fingal's Cave Overture" by Mendelssohn, "French Quarter" by John J. Morrissey.

"Carnival Day in New Orleans" by J. J. Morrissey, themes from Rachmaninoff's second concerto, "Mexican Overture" by Merle J. Isaac, "Tropical" — one of the outstanding rumbas of the day — by

The Greeks and their invited guests will dance to the music of Cliff Hoene at the semi-formal Pan-Hell dance to be held at the American Legion clubhouse on Saturday, November 19. Dancing will be from nine to one.

After the period of the traditional pledging, the members of both the sororities and fraternities will dance to mellow music as the highlight of the weeks of grueling tasks that had to be performed for the actives.

Board of Regents in Meeting at Madison

The State Normal School Board of Regents is meeting today and tomorrow, November 17 and 18, in Madison. The regents will discuss state-supported higher education in the Milwaukee area and progress on the building program in the state colleges. The regent of Central State Teachers college is Wilson S. On behalf of the Alumni association, we wish to take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation to the Student Council, the Faculty Alumni committee, the Pointer and other members of the student body and faculty who assisted in any way with the arrangements for our association activities during Homecoming week, October 28 to 30. We are also indebted to the many alumni who returned for Homecoming and who came to the reception for alumni at the WEA convention in Milwaukee.

Northland to Try Merits of CSTC Cagers Monday Night

What kind of a basketball team will CSTC have this year? This question has been puzzling armchair experts about the campus ever since Point wrapped up a share of the football championship 15 days ago.

Can CSTC expect to have a good team? Coach Hale F. Quandt is loathe to commit himself on this question. One thing is certain — there's no lack of material so far as numbers go. Coach Quandt reports that over 40 candidates are working out in the Training school gym in preparation for the season's opener against Northland college next Monday night, November 21, at P. J. Jacobs high school gym. Sometime before game-time the squad of 40 will be pared down to 20 or possibly 15.

Five Lettermen Return

Almost certain to be around when the final squad selections are made are the five returning lettermen of the 48-49 team. They are forwards Chet Polka, Bill Wagner and Eugene "Tex" Polzin; center Gene Fick and guard Jim Christenson. Absent from the roster because of graduation and transfer are Curry, Hartman, Flugaur, Kadolph and Ludwig. Curry, particularly, will be missed and will be no doubt be plugging other college fives after he is eligible to play on the La Crosse squad at the beginning of the second semester early in February. Fortunately, Curry will join the Indians too late to play against Point on January 12 at La Crosse.

With only a nucleus of last year's veterans on hand, then, the basketball outlook depends in a large measure upon last year's "Collegiates" — the second team that is, and upon newcomers.

Hopelulls From "Collegiates"

From the Collegiate group Bruce Menzel, Dick Lorenzen, Don Schneider, Bill Conachen and Walt Samstad are likely to help carry the load, together with Jack Dabareiner, a newcomer from Jefferson. These hopefuls plus the veterans form the so-called first team as indicated in current practice sessions. Coach Quandt says that some changes are likely before next Monday's opener.

Other candidates are English, Feigley, Lewis, Lindow, Okary, Rush, Purchatzke, Knickerbocker, Douglas, Strand and Martin.

Open Against Northland Monday

This, then, is the outlook as far as anyone cares to commit himself. CSTC's basketekers have yet to prove themselves, but they hope to begin doing that against Northland next Monday night in the first of a 22-game schedule.

The past has shown that basketball teams frequently win games in direct proportion to the number of their supporters; "Suitcase students" would do well to note that the forthcoming game is played, conveniently enough for them, on a Monday night.

Special Student Prices For High School Games

In the interests of CSTC students who are alumni of P. J. Jacobs High school and other students interested in high school athletics, the Pointer prints the following statement from R. A. Gerke, chairman of the high school athletic committee:

"College students may purchase regular student general admission tickets (price 25¢) to all high school home games upon showing their CSTC student activity card. However, since it is only fair that a student reserve section be open only to the high school, college students wishing to reserve a seat will be required to pay the regular adult reserved seat price."

This is the policy which was followed during the past football season and which will be followed at basketball games and other events. Incidentally, the first school home basketball game is Friday night in the P. J. Jacobs gym where Stevens Point plays Madison Central High school.

The month will again produce "November widows" as Wisconsin nimrods take to the woods Saturday in an attempt to reduce the deer herd to an optimum size. The antlerless deer season will last five days and will close on November 23.

EAST SIDE TEXACO

The Fifth QUARTER

Well, sport fans, the basketball season is coming on fast. Several high schools have already started their seasons and the Pointers swing into action next Monday against Northland. It'll be the first outing for Coach Quandt's team and it should be a good opportunity for CSTC fans to get a look at the cage squad. See you there.

Those Badgers from the University are still in the thick of the Rose Bowl parade. They've really been pouring it on in their last few games. It'd be perfect if they could get by Minnesota next Saturday. Not many of the experts are predicting a Wisconsin victory, though. But they also said Ivy didn't have much of a team this year, either. They've been wrong before. Here's hoping they are again.

Intra-mural basketball got under way last week in two leagues. There are five teams in each league. The play is really hard and fast. If you don't believe us, just stop down in the gym some night and watch them. It's really good.

See where the Wisconsin Teachers college teams took it on the chin in exhibition games over the weekend. LaCrosse was dumped by Illinois Normal 26-14; Milwaukee was blanked by St. Norberts, 28-0 and Superior lost to the Duluth Branch of the University of Minnesota, 33-27. The sole victor from our conference was Stout, who edged upper Iowa, 14-13.

Looking over the basketball schedule set up for the Pointers this year, we were really surprised. That's a schedule in any league. Twenty-two games and all of them against good teams. You'd better chalk off the dates of the home games now and be sure to see them. You'll really miss something if you don't.

ATTENTION, ALUMS

The following message from Miss Syble Mason, secretary of the Alumni association, will be of interest to alums who read the Pointer:

"We are indeed proud of the spirit of fellowship and loyalty which was exemplified by our alumni at the Homecoming festivities and at the alumni reunion at the WEA convention in Milwaukee.

"Many alumni attended the business meeting at 12 noon on Homecoming day, at which time the proposed constitution for the Alumni association was adopted. Copies of the constitution are available from the secretary upon request. A report on the financial status of the association was also given. It is our hope that many alumni will want to become active members of the association by paying the annual dues of $1.00.

"There were 96 present at the alumni luncheon at Nelson Hall following the business meeting. Special guests were President and Mrs. William C. Hansen, Regent Wilson S. Delzell, Marjorie Finch, Homecoming queen, and John Kowaleski, president of the student council. Alfred J. Herrick, father of Virgil E. Herrick, association president, was also present as a graduate of the class of 1902. A message of welcome by Virgil Herrick was responded to by President Hansen on behalf of the student council and the student body, and Mrs. James Cory of Merrill gave the response on behalf of the alumni. Before adjourning to Goerke Field for the game, all sang 'The Purple and the Gold,' under the direction of Dean Herbert Steiner.

"There were 175 present at the reunion held in Milwaukee on November 3. We had the privilege of greeting and visiting with many alumni whom we had not seen for some time. We were especially pleased to see so many of our recent graduates too. There hasn't been time to compile statistics on the classes represented, but we know that there was a good cross section, including some of the earliest classes. It was such a happy occasion that two alumae of Superior State Teachers college registered in our alumni register and enjoyed the fellowship for some time before they discovered that it wasn't their college reunion.

"We shall be very glad to hear from our alumni and shall welcome suggestions for the improvement of the association program."

Syble Mason, Secretary

Division Suggestions

Those students who must select a division soon have been offered the following suggestions by Dr. Raymond E. Gotham.

Those students with a sound academic record would do well to consider entering the primary and intermediate divisions, home economics, music and physical education.

There are always vacancies in academic areas for a limited number of outstanding students. It is definitely to the interest of students to participate in related extra-curricular activities to become competent in their fields practically as well as academically. Experiences working with young people in Boy Scouting, recreation, drama and forensics are always valuable.

In making recommendations for teaching positions many are found to have only academic credits to offer with little over and above to supplement their learning, says Dr. Gotham.

Wherever she goes, Miss Roach says that there's someone connected with CSTC, and that person usually has a message for her to take back to the college. Sometimes the wires in Miss Roach's memory get so crowded she can't remember which message goes to whom. Now she writes them down.

Some time ago she delivered a greeting from the wife of a biology teacher to Dr. Pierson, who learned his first biology from the lady's husband.

She has talked to such a variety of groups that she has never been stumped when it comes to making an audience receptive to her ideas. FAMILIAR FACES feelings were perhaps better displayed by the happy smile on his face than by his reserved comment.

A Master's at Minnesota

After receiving his degree, Bernie plans to teach a year or two and then move his wife and family (?) to Minnesota, where he will get his master's degree at the University of Minnesota and from there continue on in the teaching profession. He prefers a teaching position some place in the famous Minnesota lake region, still near to civilization but far enough up north to afford him access to two of his favorite sports, hunting and fishing. Another of Bernie's favorite pastimes is eating, and Bess, being a home ec graduate, seems to fit perfectly into this picture. Their weakness is chop suey.

Bernie is of the opinion that as a teacher-training school, CSTC is "better than most." He will be sorry to leave, but it is certain that his many friends will be more sorry to see him go.

BAND CONCERT

Also included on the program will be one instrumental and one vocal selection with band accompaniment. These soloists have not been selected yet. Plans are made for inviting six school bands to be guests at the concert.

Mr. Michelson states that the program planned is one that students should especially enjoy.

Other Concerts Planned

Today the band is scheduled to play a concert at the Minoqua High school at Minoqua. Representative from the school bands of Park Falls, Eagle River, Phillips, Elcho and Three Lakes will be present at this concert. The CSTC band will play several high school band festival numbers to aid the high school bands and their directors in the interpretation of the numbers.

On Monday, November 21, the band will play an evening concert at Athens in the city auditorium. School bands from the surrounding districts will attend the concert.
