New Dormitory to Honor Regent Wilson Delzell; Work Already Begun

Preliminary work is already well underway on the construction of the new college men's dormitory, Delzell Hall, which will be located at the former site of the tennis courts.

The ground breaking ceremony was held last Wednesday morning with Regent Wilson S. Delzell turning the first spadeful of dirt. President William C. Hansen made the opening remarks and then called on Mr. Delzell, Senator O. W. Neale and Assemblyman John T. Kostuck, who spoke briefly. The President then announced that the new building would be named Delzell Hall in honor of Regent Delzell and also Mr. Delzell's father, the late James E. Delzell, who for many years was a member of the college faculty.

The general contractor for the building is the Ben Gonther company of Oshkosh. The general contract price is $285,768. The combined plumbing and heating contract went to the Ahern company of Fond du Lac at a price of $60,000, exclusive of alternate bids. The Bakke company of Waterford, Wisconsin, has the electrical contract at a figure of $16,995.

The dormitory will face east on North Fremont street and will have 40 double rooms. It will rise three stories, having two stories above the basement. There will be no facilities for meals in the building.

Pres. Hansen Announces Class Advisers for 50-51

President William C. Hansen has announced that the class advisers for the 1950-51 school year are: Miss Bertha Glennon and Robert S. Lewis for the Senior class; Miss Monica Bainter and Dr. Edgar F. Pierson, Junior class; Miss Mildred Davis and Mr. Frederick A. Krempel, sophomores; and Mrs. Elizabeth Pfiffner and Dr. Roland A. Trytten, freshman. The first named is the permanent class advisor and the second named, the rotating advisor.

New advisers this year are Miss Bainter and Mr. Krempel. The arrangement makes it possible to have one woman and one man as advisers for each class each year.

AKL Venison Dinner Planned for Dec. 9

By popular request, the date of Alpha Kappa Lambda's annual venison dinner has been changed from Thursday, December 7, to Saturday, December 9. By this change of date it is hoped that more alumni will be able to attend.

It promises to be a great occasion with plenty of good food and entertainment. About 30 guests, including faculty members and conservation leaders, have been invited. The committees and chairmen are as follows: Entertainment, Alan Bowers; seating, menus and decorations, Bill Goetz; and invitations, Don Sargent.

Glee Club Greetings

I want to extend greetings to the men of the Central State Glee club, both the former members who will be back and the present members. This has been a fine musical organization through the years and has provided good fellowship and musical experience for many students. I also want to express on my own behalf, and on behalf of the college, our appreciation of Mr. Knutzen's fine services as director of the club.

Glee Club Alumni Returning to Help Celebrate Club's Birthday

Will Hold Public Concert Sunday

Men's Glee club alumni from near and far will return to Central State this weekend to help celebrate the organization's fifteenth birthday.

This anniversary celebration will get off to a start on Saturday afternoon when the men will hold a rehearsal and get-together, while their wives and sweethearts are entertained at a tea in the Home Economic parlors. The tea is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Gilbert W. Faust.

A 6:30 p.m. dinner will be served at the Presbyterian church, with Edward J. Plank and Mr. Faust sharing the toastmaster's duties. An informal dance at the Training School gym, with Larry Woodbury providing the music, will end the day's activities. The dinner and dance were previously scheduled for St. Peter's auditorium, but were later changed.

A public concert Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in the college auditorium will feature a group of songs sung by the returning members and the present Glee club. On Monday evening at 8 p.m. a concert will be presented for the student body.

Club Began in 1933

The club had its beginnings way back in the fall of 1933 when a group of 26 men met with President Frank S. Hyer and organized the Men's chorus. The men presented their first public concert on March 22, 1934. Gilbert Busch of Rhinelander was the first president, and Carrol Swenson of Stevens Point the first accompanist. Norman E. Knutzen of the college faculty became director of the group and has continued as director since that time.

The organization grew in size through the following years and in 1936 was invited to membership in the Associated Glee clubs of America. The following year the members competed in the Chicagoland Music Festival at the Drake Hotel and Soldiers Field in Chicago. By the end of the thirties the membership had grown to over 60 men.

Group Went to World's Fair

Thirty former members will especially remember the tour made in July of 1939, for at that time those 30 men went to the World's Fair in New York City and participated in a concert in the Court of Nation with 2000 other AGCA members from all over the United States. On the return trip the boys were thrilled at a reception at the home of Colonel Crawford at West Point, and a day spent at Niagara Falls.

The Glee Club continued its outstanding work until mid-semester 1942, when things were interrupted by the war. During the years from 1942 to 1945 the sum total of the membership numbered one — Mr. Knutzen. By the second semester of 1946 the Glee club was organized again and in early May of that year the tenth annual concert was presented.

Now, following five years of re-organizing and rebuilding, the club has once again become as large and as active as it was during the years prior to the war.

Ken Veselak from Antigo is general chairman for the celebration. Other committees are as follows: Finance, Norvin Holm, Tigerton; decorations, Charles Hanka, Wausau; publicity, Frank DeGuire, Stevens Point; invitations, Ed Heuer, Wild Rose; orchestra, Lloyd Peterson, Schofield; program, Edward J. Plank and Robert Ellingson, Stevens Point. The present officers are Rudy Horn, Stevens Point, president; Norvin Holm, Tigerton, business manager; Robert Gilbert, Hancock, librarian. The Glee club mothers are Mrs. Frank N. Spindler, Mrs. Herbert R. Steiner and Mrs. William Scribner, Sr. all of Stevens Point.

Miss Heel Is Ill

Miss Helen Heel, CSTC music instructor, has been confined to her home for the past two weeks because of illness. Peter J. Michelsen has taken over her classes and will continue to do so until her return. Miss Heel hopes to be back by November 17.

Miss Hrazdilova, Ripon Student, Will Speak at WSGA Banquet

Her impressions of America will be told by Miss Jirina Hrazdilova, a Czechoslovakian exchange student, now a sophomore at Ripon college, when she speaks at the annual WSGA banquet on Wednesday, November 15.

The banquet will be held at Nelson Hall at 6 o'clock. Tickets for the event will be sold for several days during the week before the banquet, and another opportunity will be given the women to get their tickets immediately following the WSGA meeting on Friday morning, November 10, during the 10 o'clock assembly period.

As this banquet, is one of the most outstanding events for CSTC women students and faculty women, and as the number of tickets will be limited, coeds are urged to buy them early. The tickets are 50¢ for dorm girls and $1.25 for those outside the dormitory, and will be on sale at Nelson Hall and in front of the library. The ticket deadline will be Friday, November 10.

While a guest at CSTC, Miss Hrazdilova will stay at Nelson Hall, where a party is being planned for her by the dorm girls with Barbara Nelson as chairman.

Miss Hrazdilova was born in Mukatevo, Czechoslovakia in the easternmost part of the Republic. Her parents and two sisters still live in Czechoslovakia. Her education in Czechoslovakia included five years of grade school, four years of lower secondary school and one year of a higher secondary school. In addition to her native language, she has a working knowledge of Latin, Russian, and German, and had one year of English in her home country. Miss Hrazdilova first arrived in the United States about two years ago, under the sponsorship of the American Field Service. Prior to entering Ripon college, she studied at Wayland Academy in Beaver Dam. As a part of her American field service scholarship, she made an extensive tour of the United States, traveling from New York to Colorado, then to Texas, and back to New York.

Probably one of the more out-

standing foreign students in this country at the present time, Miss Hrazdilova is much in demand as a speaker. Students here at CSTC remember well the vivid picture of Czechoslovakia and its struggle for independence which she presented here at an assembly last January and are looking forward to an equally interesting account of her impression of the United States.

Janice Gruen and Eleanor Curtis are acting as general chairmen for Why Condemn Suitcase Students?

The increasing reference to CSTC students who depart weekly for home after their final class hour on Fridays, as "suitcase students" has come to give that term the same connotation as the "Quisling" that was applied to the Nazi sympathizers and collaborators in Norway, during World War II.

In the following paragraphs it is not our purpose to either support or condemn these "Traitors" to CSTC school spirit, but to point out that the indiscriminate use of this term is an injustice to many of those students who fall into that category.

If a student, living within a comparatively short radius of this city, feels it advisable to ease the strain in an already depleted pocketbook by going home for the weekend and saving anywhere from two to six dollars on meals alone, is he to be condemned for his actions? Should the label of "suitcase student" be applied to that student who would not be able to attend school at all if it were not for the wages earned through a week-end part-time job?

Why should an out-of-town student stay here over the weekend when there is nothing to attract him other than the local theaters and dance halls? Could he not just as well frequent these places in his home town thus having the additional benefits of free meals?

It has become increasingly evident that, when there are week-end activities, any student who finds it financially and physically possible, will stay in Stevens Point to support school functions. This observation is borne out by the fine attendance at the recent Homecoming festivities.

It appears to us that the solution to the week-end and exodus problem does not lie in shaming those students into staying on the campus. A better answer would be in the form of the type of program that the members of the Student Council have formulated, a program designed to interest as many as possible of the former "suitcase students" into staying here through the development of new and varied week-end activities.

The Student Council has promised action soon. It will be interesting to see the results of its campaign.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Chi Delta Rho

Eight new members were formally accepted into Chi Delta Rho Fraternity at initiation ceremonies conducted prior to the fraternity dinner on October 28. Both the initiation and dinner were held at the Cartwright Hotel.

President Don Hendrick was emcee for the program which followed the dinner. The greeting to the new members was given by George Mosey, while Bernard Feigley responded for the pledges. Maurice Mead, pledgemaster, reviewed the happenings of the pledging season.

The main speaker of the evening was Dr. Raymond E. Gotham, director of the training school. In his talk Dr. Gotham stressed the many benefits that one can obtain from belonging to such an organization.

Other guests who spoke briefly were faculty advisers, Dr. Harold M. Tolo and Gilbert W. Faust. Kenneth W. Boylax was a special guest. New members are Charles Hodgdon, LaVerne Herman, Frank Hoffmann, Gordon Fairbert, Bill Flynn, Bernard Feigley, Kenton Stewart and Bill Clayton.

Alpha Kappa Rho

The constitution was amended at the regular meeting of Alpha Kappa Rho last Monday, November 6, at the home of Peter J. Michelsen. Following the meeting the members listened to a recording of Richard Strauss' tone poem, "Death and the Transfiguration." Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Home Ec Club

New students showed bewildered faces as they were told their initiation duties at the November 6 meeting of the Home Economics Club. The girls who are being initiated were asked to wear signs in front and in back of themselves. The signs will bear the motto "Nations Fall when Families Break Up" and will have the word "Home" on them and will also make reference to some Home Ec course that would benefit "Any college student" who would take it. This part in the initiation will go on until the last class on Friday, November 10. Any girl, being initiated, who forget to wear the signs and is seen by an active member will have to pay that girl. The money collected, if any, will be turned into the treasury.

Hermelinda Bohl gave a report on the Mount Mary convention. The girls who represented the club at the convention were: Dorothy Kuhnke, Margaret Jones, Bernelda Noah, Eldora Reineking, Beverly Barnes, Phyllis Peterson, Hermelinda Bohl, Marlene Hartleb, Winnifred Pierre, Kathryn Allen, and Miss Bessie May Allen, director of the Home Economics Department at CSTC.

Rural Life Club

4-H was the theme of the Rural Life club meeting, Monday night, November 6. Speeches were given by Delores Witter, Catherine Konop and Dorothy Wotruba on the subject of 4-H work. Lillian Lovdahl was elected to the Student Council as a representative of the Rural division.

Primary Council

A talent show was put on by Primary Council Monday evening in the college auditorium. Ilse Hrypa acted as mistress of ceremonies for the evening.

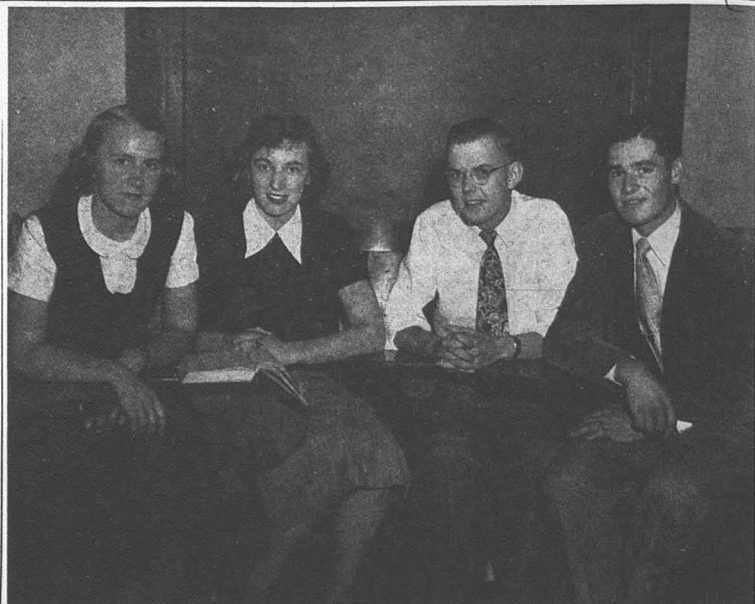

The junior girls revived the flapper era with a song and dance act; Mary Ann Peterson and Dorothy O'Neill danced the Charleston, accompanied by Mary Douville and Nancy Goebel. Reta Fontaine did the announcing and Idella Zimmerman, Joyce West and Marilyn Korth sang "Harbor Lights," with Harriet Marking at the piano.

A solo, "Ave Maria," was sung by Dorothy Allen, Pauline Weisen played "Romance" and Ethel Farris gave a reading entitled "My First Date." Mary Baumer, Lucille Freeman, and Joyce West concluded the freshman program with two songs.

The senior girls presented a true to life skit, "A Day of Practice

Girls Will Have Chance to Grab Man of Their Choice Friday Nite

Girls, here's your big chance to ask the guy of your choice to frolic at the Y-Dub Sadie Hawkins dance to be held in the Training School gymnasium Friday evening from 9 to 12 o'clock.

The tickets, priced at 30 cents per person, are now on sale in front of the college library. This is an open dance and everyone is invited to attend in the oldest clothes possible. Prizes will be offered for the best representations of Lil Abner and Daisy Mae.

The decoration committee, under the chairmanship of Lila Elmer, is busily making the decorations, which are planned to carry out the Sadie Hawkins theme. The others on the committee are Marjorie Lawrie, Reta Fontaine and Eunice Bauer.

The entertainment committee has planned an interesting program to consist of skits and songs, followed by refreshments and social dancing.

Co-chairmen for the event are Pat Harrison and Betty Mehne. Other committees include the following: Food, Marjorie Finch, chairman, Arlene Altenberg and Anita Hoefft; invitations and chaperons, Pat Holding and Peggy Thorpe; entertainment, Beverly Tibbetts, chairman, Thora Fink and Arline Meister; clean-up, Joyce Rasmussen, Dejon Rothman, Betty Mehne, Pat Harrison and Louise Oelrich; tickets, Pat Harrison, Louise Oelrich and Betty Mehne.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

Just a word or two to let you know that I have been receiving the "Pointer" and that I am enjoying it immensely. I have been receiving it on Monday, as the mail service here is somewhat slow and there is no delivery on Sunday. It is really nice being informed through the "Pointer" of the goings-on back at CSTC. It sort of makes me feel as though I am still going to school at the old alma mater. As the saying goes, "Curiosity killed the cat but information brought him back to life." This saying might well be applied in my case. Receiving the "Pointer" has "brought me back to life" as far as CSTC and its alumni are concerned.

I would like to express words of praise to those that were responsible for the tremendous Homecoming festivities that were connected with that annual event. I'm sure that all of the returning alumni were as impressed as I was, and well they might be. Here's hoping the students keep up their excellent work in the days to come. Thanks again for everything! Bill "Skippy" Worzalla University of Minnesota

The Monday night activities of the POINTER staff were abruptly interrupted shortly after ten o'clock when the late-working male members of the staff dropped their pencils and leaped from their typewriters in response to a fire call from Nelson Hall. Student Council's Weekender's Club

Fun plus 2 1/2 days without classes need no longer add up to the unknown quantity "x". The problem has been solved by the eager new Student Council, and the answer is, The Weekender's Club. Although the activities are tentative, many of the faculty members have voiced their approval, and the plan needs only the acceptance of the student body to put it into operation at CSTC.

The plan, as it stands now, provides activities to please every personality, and would make the two days and three evenings between classes eagerly anticipated weekends. Pep rallies might be held on Fridays to get the students enthusiastic about the games, and the weekend festivities. Besides the varsity games, intramurals will be encouraged, and all athletic equipment will be at the disposal of the "weekenders." Mixing the athletic spirit with social diversions, smoothly informal dances, called Basket Balls will be held prior to out of town games, and after home games. These will supplement the regular Saturday Swings, which will be very informal mixers featuring everything from square dancing to the Charleston.

Stretch Calendar

The proposed plan would also stretch the calendar, and make room for the meetings of organizations which have been crowded into only four evenings each week. With most of the students on the campus, Sunday evening could be used for religious groups' meetings, and perhaps even suppers might be arranged where facilities are available.

Besides the regular activities, a separate dues paying group might be formed which would sponsor sleigh rides, and skating, and skiing parties. Fresh talent for sponsoring the pep rallies and dances is available in the many campus organizations, such as departmental groups, fraternities, sororities, and classes, which would work under the direction of the Student Council. Each would have a new approach, and no one would be overlooked.

This entire program is flexible, and can be molded by the students' opinions. Suggestions for widening the program with canasta parties, or knitting groups, for example, are asked. It's always more fun to do things with others, and good organization is necessary for continued success. Everyone must contribute, and everyone must participate, for if we're going to be good full time teachers, we can't afford to be disinterested part time students.

SLY ★ LINES

The teachers' annual two or three day sight seeing and shopping tour is now over, and classes can get back to business. According to Milwaukee papers, most of the teachers do the very things they criticize their students for — cut meetings, miss educational programs and exercise bad manners by walking out in the middle of speeches.

Remember — monkey see — monkey do.

Reminds one of the student who said to his instructor — "I can tell by the shape of your head that you are a square shooter."

Did you know that the Communists are complaining because the rich enjoyed the nice October weather, too.

As Carman Lane says — "Whether you're handsome or ugly, it's nice to have a face."

Straight Man — "Why did you give it up?"

B. P. — "Ran out of old Indians."

Pointers Eke Out 7-6 Victory Over Titans; Lose Last Game to Pioneers

The Pointers ended their home football schedule on October 30 with a 7-6 victory over the Oshkosh Titans at Goerke Field. Nubbs Miller's conversion, following Dave Bliese's two yard plunge, proved to be the margin of victory.

Statistically, the game wasn't even close. The Quandt troop notched 13 first downs to the Titans' four; they accounted for 258 yards, compared to the visitors' 68.

The Purple and Gold touchdown came in the third period with Joe Castagna, who turned in his best performance of the year, leading the way. After Jack Leichtenberg caught a pass that put the ball on the Titans two yard line, Dave Bliese cracked into pay dirt. Miller then converted for the margin of victory.

The Oshkosh TD came on a 15 yard pass from Schwebke to Kohn.

Lose to Platteville

The Pointers ended football hostilities for the season last Wednesday night with a sour note as they dropped a 14-0 decision to the Platteville Pioneers.

Jim Yackels, Platteville's driving halfback, was responsible for both Pioneer TD's. After a scoreless first half, Yackels found his way for 57 yards and the first marker of the evening. Early in the fourth quarter the Southern recovered a fumble on the Pointer 20 yard line. Yackels again proved himself as the chief Pointer nemesis and hit pay dirt. Quarterback Leon Veith kicked both conversions for Platteville.

The Pointers' main scoring opportunities came late in the first and second halves. Shortly before the first half ended Jack Leichtenberg scooted behind the Platteville safety but an intended pass fell short. Then with one minute and 58 seconds remaining, Dave Bliese took a Pioneer kick-off and returned it 78 yards to the host's 10 yard line. The ball was worked down to the one yard line but Ole Father Time ran out for the Pointers.

As far as injuries go in the game it was a situation that Coach Quandt had to contend with the entire season. Walt Samelstad aggravated an old ankle injury and was forced to leave the game. Nubbs Miller also missed the entire game because of an ailing shoulder.

The defeat dropped the Pointers to seventh spot with two victories and four losses. The Pioneers clinched fourth place with a record of four wins in six loop starts.

Ramblers Capture First; Klaks Beat Out Phi Sigs

In a thrilling, hard fought battle Ramblers defeated the Phi Sig House 14-7 and thereby assured themselves of first place in the touch football league. Runner-up honors went to the Klaks, who, in a play-off game for second place, defeated the Phi Sig House 13-7.

In the Rambler - Phi Sig House battle, good passing and vicious blocking were features of the game. The deciding touchdown was scored late in the fourth quarter as Dave Case passed up the middle to Eugene Paulsen who took the ball in the end zone.

The Klak victory over the Phi Sig House team for second place honors came only after an exciting, closely contested battle in which the teams fought to a 7-7 standstill throughout the game. Jim Schrank, on the last play of the game, pitched a long pass to Pete March who took the ball on the run and dashed into the end zone to give the Klaks their margin of victory.

CSTC Presenting Series Of Conservation Programs

The conservation education department of CSTC is now presenting a program "Conservation in Wisconsin" on Friday evenings at 7:30 p.m. over WHA-FM, Madison. This series of 30 programs is being conducted under the direction of Fred J. Schmeckle, chairman of the department, and is produced by the Radio Workshop.

The first eight programs of the series will deal with the conservation of soil and water. The series will then continue with programs on the conservation of the forests, wildlife, scenic and recreational areas of Wisconsin.

The programs will be conducted, as far as possible, on the round table discussion plan. Mr. Schmeckle hopes to obtain many of the people who are prominent in the field of conservation as guests.

The program has been well received by the volume of fan mail that has been received. Several other radio stations have requested permission to rebroadcast recordings of the program. At the present time the program is being rebroadcast from the CSTC's Radio Workshop studios at 3:30 Tuesday afternoons.

FIFTH QUARTER

Coach Hale Quandt announced last week that the Pointers' game with West Liberty College in Wheeling, West Virginia, has been cancelled.

The Point mentor stated that because of the unusually large number of injuries on the squad, it would be impossible for him to field a team without fear of risking permanent injury to one of his players. The matter was discussed during a squad meeting and a majority of the players favored cancelling the game.

Basketball drills started on Monday night for 40 Pointer hopefuls. Coach Quandt welcomed back five returning lettermen; Bruee Menzel, Bill Conachen, Walt Samelstad, Chet Polka and Don Schneiders. First home game for the Purple and Gold squad will be on December 6 with Milton providing the entertainment here.

Elegy of Sports Writers (taken from The Octopus, U. of W. humor magazine.)

"The football season is off to a quick end run, the Wisconsin squad is showing plenty of push, and the sports writers, I am happy to report, are right in there punching with their dusty cliches. The time-honored 'high end over end kicks,' 'the plunges over into pay dirt,' 'the knifings off tackle,' and 'the rollings around end for 10' are really taking a pummeling from the sports writers all over the football circuit. All the verbs, adjectives, and adverbs have been used. What's left for the poor future sports writers? Nothing but a sly alliteration, a casual onomatopoeia or a sneakily dropped split infinitive. I think it's about time for these men to incorporate foreign language excerpts. Then the sports pages would not only have a more literary appeal, but also a distinct continental flavor."

Comment: Now that our reading audience has been told our great weakness, we are entering the T.V. field.

Belke Lumber Company's Keglers in First Place

Belke Lumber Company moved into undisputed possession of first place in the college bowling league by sweeping two games from the Phi Sigs. However, so close is the bowling league this year that, at the present time, a team on the bottom can move into first place by sweeping a series of three games. Other results last week saw AKL take two from the Campus Cafe, Knudtson's Market whip Brunswick twice and the Chi Deltas top Don's Concy Island in two out of three.

Willie Peterson blasted a sizzling 256 game to lead the individual honours. Willie's 256 is the league high for the year. Other bowlers who hit the honor roll last week were Lloyd Peterson 220-202; Marv Johnson 215-202; Bill Edwards 204; and Herb Peterson, 202.

Marv Johnson led the league in series honors by racking up a neat 578. Runner up honors went to Willie Peterson, 573; Don Mangold, 550; Herb Peterson, 549; Lloyd Peterson, 546; and Robert Karsten, 509.

Tau Gamma Beta

Four pledges became active members of Tau Gamma Beta sorority at a candle-light initiation ceremony held on Saturday evening, October 28, at Nelson Hall. The new actives are Eleanor Curtis, Marlene Hartleb, Lorna Krueger and Helen Nulty.

The Krueger hotel was the scene of the Pan-Hell dinner held following the initiation ceremony. Pumpkins, black cats and other Halloween figurines made of pipe cleaners decorated the tables.

During the program, for which president Phyllis Peterson acted as toastmistress, Barbara Lewis spoke on behalf of the actives and Eleanor Curtis spoke on behalf of the pledges. Marlene Hartleb was presented the Jean Maier scholarship pin by Kay Leahy, who, with Barbara Bauman, wore the pin last semester.

Miss Gladys Van Arsdale, sorority adviser, gave a talk on friendship and what it means to a sorority girl and how it applies to everyday living.

The four new actives were each given a rose, while the song "Only A Rose" was sung by Ila Williamson.

Guests included the following: Miss Mary Pfiffner and Miss Joanne Altenburg, alumns; Mrs. Marjorie Kerst and Miss Gladys Van Arsdale, advisers; Mrs. Gilbert Faust, Mrs. Robert S. Lewis and Mrs. C. R. Frazee, patronesses; Mrs. William C. Hansen and Mrs. Frank N. Spindler, honorary members; and Mrs. Edgar F. Pierson, Mrs. Mildred Williams and Mrs. Elizabeth Pfiffner, special guests.

14,000 Teachers Attend Annual WEAC Convention

Approximately 14,000 teachers convened in Milwaukee's civic auditorium, the Arena, for the largest Wisconsin Education convention in years on November 2 and 3. Classes at CSTC were suspended, and most of the instructors attended the convention. Miss Syble Mason, secretary of the CSTC Alumni association, reported that more than 200 alumns were present at an informal get-together at the Hotel Schroeder on Thursday afternoon.

The program for the convention was the same as announced in last week's Pointer, except that Ernestine Gilbreth Carey, author of "Cheaper By the Dozen" spoke Saturday morning, taking the place of General R. L. Eichelberger, who was ill and unable to come to Milwaukee. Entertainment included a concert by a "Four Piano Ensemble" Thursday evening, followed by a social mixer and square dance at the Antlers Hotel Ballroom.

Raymond E. Specht was co-chairman of the "Safety and Driver Education" section on Thursday and Miss Gladys Van Arsdale, as president of the Wisconsin Association for Childhood Education, presided at a luncheon on Friday noon at the Hotel Schroeder. Mrs. Mildred Williams was elected to serve as chairman of the kindergarten-primary section for next year's convention and Mr. Specht was chosen secretary of the geography section.

Pan-Hell Formal Dance Climaxes Pledging Season

The climax of the pledging season of the Greek organizations of CSTC was the Pan-Hellenic formal dance held at the Training school gym from 9 until 1 o'clock on Saturday, October 28.

Nearly 75 couples danced to the music provided for the occasion by Cliff Hoene's orchestra. A Halloween theme was carried out in decorating the gym and a false ceiling was made of black and orange paper ribbons. Witches, goblins, and pumpkins decorated the sidewalls. Decorations were furnished by the training school pupils, who used them in connection with their Halloween party on October 27.

The general chairman of the dance was Robert Bestul. Dr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Gotham and Dr. and Mrs. Edgar F. Pierson acted as the chaperones.

Dinners and initiation ceremonies for the sororities and fraternities were held before the dance.

Grues; decorations, Bernice Dehlinger, chairman, Phyllis Gerchen and Irene Morris; entertainment, Bonnie Babcock, chairman; transportation, Virginia Marros, chairman.

Wesley

Reverend Jordon, the state M.S.M. director, will be at the Wesley evening tonight. The meeting will be for "Brotherhood Night." Everyone is urged to come to the meeting, as it will be a very worthwhile one.

The Wesley Foundation helped to sponsor the play "She Stoops To Conquer," given by the University of Minnesota players Wednesday night. It wishes to thank everyone who helped the Inter-faith Council to make this a success.

Omega Mu Chi

The Sunrise cafe was the scene of the Pan-Hell formal dinner held by Omega Mu Chi sorority, Saturday, October 28. The dinner tables were colorfully decorated with a fall harvest theme.

At 6:30 p.m. the candlelight formal initiation ceremony began during which Ardis Raaths, Pulaski; Ruth Schein, Stevens Point, and Sally Connor, Auburndale, were made active members of the sorority. Each of the new members received a long stemmed yellow rose as a token of friendship.

Immediately following the pledge ceremony, the guests took their places at candle-lighted tables, each having a centerpiece of fruit and mums. The individual nut cups were decorated to represent pumpkins and Halloween witches. On the mantle, directly behind the speakers' table, the silver emblem of the sorority shone by candlelight and was surrounded by yellow and rust mums.

After a steak dinner, toastmistress and president of the organization, Helen La Leike, welcomed the group. Mrs. LaLeike introduced Mrs. Harold M. Tolo, honorary member, as the first speaker of the evening. Second on the program was Beverly Tibbetts, vice-president and acting

Skilled Performances Shown at Music Clinic

Able direction, good training and skilled performances were shown at the Music Adjudication Clinic and Workshop here on October 27. Peter J. Michelsen was chairman and in charge of local arrangements. Even though the soloists and choruses from high schools in this area had but a few weeks to prepare for the event, they displayed good timing, mellow tones and able command of their instruments.

Adjudication comments were made by Dr. Charles O'Neil about instrumental solos and ensembles. Emmett Sarig of the University Extension division commented on the vocal selections. Many CSTC students attended the session along with the band masters and teachers from throughout the state.

group one and Joy Lane is chairman of group two. Dorothy Kuhnke is in charge of tonight's decorations. Dave Ross is chairman of the Christmas party.

A Gamma Delta convention for Wisconsin colleges will be held November 11 and 12 at the University of Wisconsin in Madison. As many local Gamma Delta members as possible are urged to attend.

ed the courageous POINTER staff of the impending catastrophe.

The editor, composition editor and his assistant seized a fire extinguisher from the wall, thinking to do a workman-like job in a hurry. Their efforts were somewhat impeded by a leaky hose on the extinguisher that directed spray everywhere except in the direction of the fire. A second extinguisher was pressed into service and proved a little more effective despite another leaky hose and very little pressure. The firefighters finally abandoned their modern techniques and reverted to using their feet to stamp out the conflagration. And so-o-o, the school was saved!

the speakers for the evening. After Mr. Burroughs' novel "hello," Mr. Kremple welcomed the new members, preached a miniature sermon and cast a few priceless pearls before 37 stuffed boys. Pledge chairman Bob Okray wished the new actives success, and Earl Korth, speaking for the pledges, retorted cleverly.

Frank Wesley entertained on the piano.

Alpha Psi Omega

This semester three one-act plays will be presented by Alpha Psi Omega dramatics fraternity. This was decided Monday at a meeting conducted by President Donna Alderton.

The plays chosen are "Suppressed Desires," "The Valiant," and "Curse You, Jack Dalton!" All students interested in dramatics in any form are asked to contact Leland M. Burroughs, faculty adviser. A great deal of help will be needed to make these plays a success.
