'50 Homecoming To Be Biggest and Best

Men's Glee Club Will Present Concert Sunday

The Men's Glee club, under the direction of Norman E. Knutzen, will make its first appearance of the season at the annual Homecoming Concert. The concert will be given in the college auditorium on Sunday, October 15, at 2:30 p.m.

The group this year consists of 65 members. Thirty of these members will be making their first appearance as a part of the Men's Glee club.

The accompanists for the club are Robert Karsten at the piano and Frank Wesley at the organ.

The following selections will be among those presented at Sunday's concert: "Just Singing Along," Moore; "Stout Hearted Men," Romberg; "Old Buttermilk Sky," Carmichael; "Panis Angelicus," Cesar Franck; "Sleepy Lagoon," Coates; "Now is the Hour," Scott-Stewart; "Oklahoma," Rodgers-Hammerstein; "Strike up the Band," George Gershwin; "To A Marching Tune," Parks-Moore; "On the Sea," Dudley Buck; "Laudamus," Protheroe.

Soloists will be "surprise" numbers from the club personnel. There is much good promising solo material this fall.

Greek Organizations Plan Banquets for Alums

Among the Homecoming events this year are the banquets being held by CSTC's two sororities and two fraternities.

Tau Gamma Beta is having a steak dinner at the Sunrise at 6 o'clock Saturday evening. At 9 o'clock Saturday morning there will be an alumni meeting in the Rural assembly.

The Omega Mu Chi Homecoming banquet will be held at the Cartwright Hotel, also at 6 o'clock on Saturday. The speakers will include Ruth Finch, alumni speaker, and Beverly Tibbetts, vice-president. Virginia Gmeiner will be toast mistress.

Phi Sigma Epsilon will not hold a banquet but instead will welcome alumni to Open House Friday night and Saturday immediately following the game. Refreshments will be served.

The Chi Delta Rhos will hold their dinner at the Antlers on Lake Du Bay at 6:30 p.m. on Saturday. The faculty advisers are to be their guests.

Will Talk at Convention

Miss May Roach, acting director of the CSTC Rural division, is scheduled to speak at the Western Wisconsin Teacher's association convention which is being held in LaCrosse today. She is slated to address the rural state graded section on the subject "First Things First."

CSTC Cheerleaders Show Know How and Enthusiasm

This year CSTC is blessed with a cheerleading corps which is both experienced and enthusiastic. It is made up of three girls who were regulars last year, Barbara Bea, of Park Ridge, Barbara Pope, of Waupaca, and Dorotheanne Rebella of Mellen, plus Warren Hamela, of Portage, who was a CSTC locomotive leader way back in 1948. This talented group operates under the able advisement of Miss Miriam Moser.

They are not yet functioning at full strength, which, according to the revision of the Cheerleader's Constitution, is six members. Tryouts, which will be held during the lull between the football and basketball season, will bring about the selection of two more senior students, preferably men, to fill this gap.

Head Cheerleader Rotates

The position of head cheerleader is alphabetically rotated for each appearance. In other words it starts out with Bea, works through to Rebella and then goes back to Bea again. Business meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month, and the remaining Tuesdays are devoted to practice sessions.

The cheerleaders, as well as most other students, are eagerly awaiting the Homecoming festivities this weekend during which they will be called upon to do their stuff at the Pep Assembly Friday afternoon, the bonfire Friday night, and last but not least, at Saturday's battle of perfectly proportioned pigskinner.

They have worked out daily in the gym for the last three weeks developing their wind in preparation for what will undoubtedly be for them a "lost voice weekend." Starting this week they have also tried to conserve their vocal chords by substituting the written for the spoken word wherever possible. The very noble and self-sacrificing spirit of this stoic squad was expressed by Miss Rebella who, when asked how she felt about the forthcoming ordeal, replied, "I only regret that I have but one voice to give for my school."

Nelson Hall Holding Open House After Game

Nelson Hall will hold its annual open house following the game on Saturday afternoon. Refreshments will be served in the recreation room. Everyone is cordially invited to attend. The entertainment committee has planned a musical program featuring vocal and instrumental numbers.

Harriet Marking is chairman of the entertainment committee. The chairmen of the other committees are as follows: Food, Gertrude Collum; decorations, Pat Rezin; hostesses, Arline Meister; and clean-up, Dorothy Severson.

Festivities Will Begin Friday

CSTC is once again about to plunge into the gala festivities of Homecoming. According to Louis Jacoboski, Homecoming chairman, this year's Homecoming promises to be a celebration that is bigger and better than any other in the history of the college.

Pointer Announces New Staff Members

With this, the third issue of the POINTER off the presses, the new editorial and business staff members of the current semester have become fairly well acquainted with their new duties and the holdovers from past semesters have acquired the joys and headaches of their predecessors. There have been changes in all major positions on both the business and editorial staffs and the present roster is as follows:

Editorial Staff

Business Staff

WARREN BLODGETT

Fellow Alumni,
Association errands took me to the Main Building of CSTC one day this week. Classes were in session, but as I was walking up the wide southwest walk, I was the only person on the campus. The thought came: "Hundreds of students here now, and thousands have gone this way in 50

The festivities will begin with a bang on Friday, October 13, for that is the day when everyone does his or her best to impersonate a hobo. The most authentic looking hobo of each sex will be awarded numerous prizes which have been contributed for the occasion by local businessmen.

Band Will Parade in Halls
At three o'clock in the afternoon the college band will parade down the halls, its stirring school songs inspiring the students with enthusiastic school spirit. Students will hastily leave their classrooms and rush, not to a departing bus, but to the CSTC auditorium where they will cheer the fighting Pointers in a roaring pep rally. The high point of the pep meeting will be the announcement of the name of the lovely lady who will reign as Homecoming Queen. Candidates for queen are Molly Knope, sponsored by AKL, Beverly Barnes, sponsored by the Chi Deltas and Jackie Hall, the "S" club's candidate. The Hobo Royalty will also be chosen at that time.

Fire Lighted
At seven in the evening the Homecoming queen will light the huge bonfire for which the Freshmen have been eagerly collecting anything they could find that can be burned. When the bright flames of the bonfire have become dying embers, a huge snake dance (of college students only) will wind its way downtown, around the Public Square, and back to the college. There will then be a dance in the Training school gymnasium.

Homecoming Parade
At 10 a.m. Saturday morning the big Homecoming parade will be led by Ed Pliska, parade marshal and two girls on horseback, Loretta and Phyllis Przybyski, who will be attired in riding habits. It will form at Nelson Hall, go down Clark st., around the Public Square, down Main street and back to the dormitory. The Baton Twirlers of P. J. Jacobs High school and the Drum and Bugle Corps of St. Josephs academy have been added to the parade. Prizes for the best floats will be awarded at the Homecoming Dance.

Saturday noon an alumni luncheon will be held at Hotel Whiting at 12:15 o'clock when old and new grads and faculty will meet to renew acquaintances.

The most important event of the entire weekend — the football game, itself — will start at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Goerke Field where Stevens Point will tangle with the boys from River Falls. The Homecoming queen will be given a re-years or more, but of all of them, I am out here alone."

You, too, might feel alone — even for Homecoming; but the warm coloring of the walls of Main Building will welcome you, too, as it welcomed me. You will likely miss faces that you would like to see, but you are assured that there will be a buzz of activity about the campus. For fellowship, you may attend the alumni luncheon before the game; and before, at, or after the game you will see someone that you know.

Welcome Home.

Published weekly except holidays and examination periods, at Stevens Point by students of the Central Wisconsin State Teachers College. Subscription Price $5.00 per year. Entered as second-class matter May 26, 1927, at the post office at Stevens Point, Wisconsin, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

You Are More Than Welcome

Welcome alums! We, of the Pointer staff, on behalf of the student body, wish to heartily welcome you on your return to CSTC. With this issue we shall strive to open a door for you into three days of what we feel promises to be the greatest Homecoming celebration that ever rocked these ivy-covered walls. We invite you, figuratively speaking of course, to help us raise the roof and tear down the walls.

This is your opportunity, and ours, to renew and enrich old acquaintances and friendships, to relive the experiences that you, as graduates, will someday be able to share with those of us who are leaving soon and those of us who are experiencing a first Homecoming. This is your yearly opportunity to revert to the status of the taught, and to admit to the teacher that quite possibly some of the knowledge that was forced upon you during your stay here has been of value since.

And on Saturday we'll have a game for you. A game in which we'll prove that with the proper baking and support a good team can be a great team.

It is true that the festivities will begin on Friday the 13th, supposedly a day of ill luck and bad fortune, but we ask you to join us in throwing superstition to the wind. Let us scoff at black cats, disregard broken mirrors and light three on a match. You can help us prove that it is always the people who make a day what it is.

This is your Homecoming, alums. Come home!

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Chi Delta Rho

At a smoker held on Sunday evening, October 8, the members of Chi Delta Rho Fraternity entertained eight prospective pledges in a re-converted basement at the Frank Steckel residence at 1025 Normal avenue. Guests of the fraternity were: Charles Hodgdon, Frank Hoffman, Ken Stewart, Bill Clayton, Bill Flynn, LaVerne Herman, Gordon Fairbert, Bud Feigly, and honorary member, Verne Varney.

President Don Hendrick and pledge master Maurice Mead gave brief addresses. The actives and their guests played cards until refreshments were served.

Alpha Kappa Rho

Four pledges of Alpha Kappa Rho, honorary music fraternity, became active members, Monday evening, October 9, at an initiation dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Michelsen. The four who became members after pledging for two weeks are Janice Gruen, Beverly Mueller, Barbara Nelson, and Frank Wesley. The president of the fraternity, Carman Lane, and the other officers, performed the initiation ceremony.

Alpha Kappa Rho alumni will assemble at the Whiting hotel for the annual Homecoming breakfast. Guests at the breakfast will be Mr. and Mrs. Herbert R. Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bukolt and Mr. and Mrs. Michelsen.

Tau Gamma Beta

The fall rushing party of the Tau Gamma Beta sorority was held at the home of Virginia Marros, on Sunday, October 8.

Each guest received as a favor a pink or a blue carnation. The sorority colors were also displayed on the serving table by the pink candles, blue napkins and the centerpiece of pink and blue carnations.

Norma Mayer, as mistress of ceremonies, introduced the alum speaker, Carol Collins, and sorority president, Phyllis Peterson. Elizabeth Holm, as chairman of the entertainment committee led several games. A lunch of hot fudge sundaes topped with nuts, several varieties of cake, coffee and mints was served.

Offering Boy Scout

Leadership Course

A Boy Scout Leadership training course is being resumed again this year, according to Dr. Raymond E. Gotham. This course has two major phases, a basic course and an advanced course. The class will be taught by officials of the Samoset Council of Wausau and Marshfield. Those who complete this course will have it added to their teaching credentials.

were co-chairmen of the affair.

Other committees included the following: Food, Phyllis Jarnick, chairman, Bonnie Babcock and Ila Williamson; invitations, Janice Gruen and Marjorie Myers; transportation, Bonnie Dehlinger, chairman, Kay Leahy and Barbara Bea; entertainment, Elizabeth Holm, Phyllis Gertschen and Norma Mayer; and cleanup, Barbara Bauman and Mary Lund.

The Tau Gam annual Homecoming-Pledge dinner will be held on Saturday, October 14, at the Sunrise at 6 p.m.

Inter-Faith Council

The Inter-Faith Council has planned an all-school Fall Harvest party which will be held on Thursday, Oct. 19, from 7:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. in the Training School gym.

Games, refreshments, and dancing are scheduled for the evening's entertainment. All CSTC students are invited to attend.

Are You Superstitious? Homecoming Begins on Friday the Thirteenth

Homecoming begins this year on Friday the Thirteenth. According to the best traditions of popular superstition, this means bad luck for someone, preferably River Falls.

The Friday the Thirteenth superstition is a combination of two others, namely, the beliefs that Friday is an unlucky day and that thirteen is an unlucky number. When combined, these two are supposed to possess an extra powerful dose of bad luck.

According to one authority, the number thirteen is supposed to have come to be distrusted because it is the most unmanageable of the numbers. (Perhaps this also explains why so many students approach their class exams in fear and trembling.)

Perhaps the most popular explanation is that there were 13 persons at the Last Supper, Judas being represented as the thirteenth guest.

There are also several explanations as to why Friday is considered to be the black sheep of the family of days. The foremost among these is that the crucifixion of Christ took place on a Friday. Another explanation is that Adam and Eve ate the forbidden fruit on a Friday. (The mystery as to where the witnesses came from who noted on what day this event occurred is left unexplained.) A reason far closer to home for college students is that all the money from home has been used up by Friday.

All the above evidence seems to point out that the Homecoming festivities beginning Friday, October 13, have very little chance of being successful. But this date, falling as it does, gives the students of CSTC a chance to blast this superstition for all times.

Wanderlust Strikes

Four CSTC Students Tour Country

"Why heck, there's no reason why we can't do it," Jim Hyer of Waterville, Norris Lindquist of Shawano, Andy Redmann of Milwaukee and Louis Mitness of Evansville finally reached this decision during a bull session one chilly evening last January. "We could quit at the end of the semester and take off."

The four wanderlust stricken CSTC students, two juniors, one freshman and one senior, obtained permission from their parents without too much difficulty, bought a Model A Ford for $45, pitched in $50 apiece for living expenses and left CSTC February 17, on a trip which was to take them throughout the southern United States, Mexico and Palestine.

The primary objective of this excursion was to get a first-hand account of just what was going on in this 20th century civilization of ours. They stopped at as many universities and sites of historic importance as possible throughout the entirety of their pilgrimage.

Scrimped on Expenses

They scrimped on expenses whenever an opportunity presented itself, cooking their own meals and sleeping under the stars during most of the actual traveling. The original $50 plus money earned at odd jobs along the way was sufficient to finance the undertaking.

Their first prolonged stop was in Vicksburg, Miss. Here they spent three days prowling around among the many spots of historic interest, such as the famous battleground and museum.

They then made tracks for New Orleans, arriving just in time for that most colorful celebration, the Mardi Gras. They spent six weeks here, held by the magnetic attraction of New Orleans, its friendliness and warmth. Redmann and Lindquist, after many unsuccessful attempts, finally landed jobs. While Redmann jerked sodas in a drugstore and Mitness served cheese sandwiches in a restaurant, Lindquist and Hyer were sitting in on classes at two famous institutes of higher learning, Tulane and Loyola Universities. The fellows were lucky enough to make an arrangement whereby they paid their rent by painting the inside of a boarding house.

Try for Greece

Lindquist still hadn't worked off that wanderlust and soon made arrangements for a trip to Greece on

Plans for Christmas

Concert Continuing

In spite of all the preparation and excitement for Homecoming, Peter J. Michelsen reports that preparation for the annual Christmas concert is still going on. He says that the Mixed Chorus music is lovelier than ever and the Symphony Orchestra, which has begun rehearsals already, has better instrumentation than ever before.

More men's voices are needed in the Mixed Chorus and anyone playing a stringed instrument who has not joined the symphony is invited to come to rehearsals at 7:30 Wednesday evening.

This week has seen some people in a daze. They don't want to "shave" and they don't know whether to be "whacky" or a "k-dope." They are just confused with an old American custom, that of electing a queen. It seems the first thing that happens when a few Americans get together is the election of a president, and a sec-treasurer. . . . of late they have always elected a beauty, a queen, or dedicated a day or a week to the movement.

It's Homecoming time and everyone should get in the spirit. Even the "suitcases" should join in. Well, lots of people wish a lot of luck to everyone, except River Falls.

It seems with the threat of the draft that some of our students are enlisting. Several of our patriotic students visited the recruiting office and returned saying, "No dice, they don't let you go home for the week ends."

It was said that Bob Cole was going to sell balloons at the football games. He refuses to comment on the matter—guess it's a big deal.

If you see some "sad sacks" around the school—take pity on them. Pledging has started once again and the only thing lower than a pledge is a River Falls Rooter.

Open House at the dorm after the game. The refreshments are always welcome, and it's the only chance for males to get above the first floor.

Dr. Quincy Doudna, now in Lima, Peru, sent an SOS to Bob Lewis to get him three sets of long underwear. Seems it's cold down there in Peru!

Assistant Coach Pieper says that when he was born they named him Edgar Walter and the shock was so great that he couldn't talk for a year!

Recently married: Bob Kristianson and Verna Genrich, a '47 grad.

Let's all back our school—and our team. See you at the game.

Misses Rolfson and Swallow Tour New England States, Nova Scotia

Miss Caroline Rolfson and Miss Marie Swallow, accompanied by Miss Swallow's sister, toured the New England States, New Brunswick, and Nova Scotia this summer. Miss Rolfson is an administrative assistant in the college office and Miss Swallow, secretary at the Training school. The three women, riding in Miss Swallow's new Dodge coupe, traveled 6,248 miles.

Leaving Stevens Point on July 14, they ferried across Lake Michigan from Manitowish, Wisconsin, to Ludington, Michigan. After visiting at Battle Creek, they motored through Detroit and went on to Niagara Falls. A sight-seeing tour of New England with its beautiful Green and White Mountains was climaxed with a day in New York City.

Boston Market Is Visited

Their next main stop was historic Boston. Of special interest was the open-air market of the Italian section. Miss Swallow remarked that the method of displaying wares in the open-air market made one doubt that there are Pure Food laws. The next lap of their journey took them to Orono, Maine, the home of the University of Maine, where they visited Mrs. Mary Samter, first grade supervisor of the Training school, who was teaching at the university during summer school.

Then the travelers were on their way again, going north into New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. After seeing the fishing activities in Nova Scotia and Cape Breton, they started for home.

Peninsula Is Interesting

The adventurous three were bumped and shaken continuously as they drove the rocky roads of Gaspé Peninsula. The views of the primitive French life were ample reward for the bumps, however. Dog carts hauling wood and fish and two-wheeled carts loaded with hay and pulled by one horse were all a part of this quaint section of Canada. The U. S. tourists encountered French menus and waitresses who knew very little English at almost every restaurant on the Gaspé.

Surviving the roads of the Gaspé Peninsula, they followed the St. Lawrence River through Quebec and Montreal. From there they went to Toronto and then set their sights for home. They returned to Stevens Point on August 6 just in time to begin their fall work at Central State.

The three tourists spent their nights at motels or tourist cabins. Their membership in the AAA proved valuable. Despite rough roads in Canada and frequent ferryings they had no car trouble, and returned home with memories of a most interesting trip.

NOTICE

All college women!
Saturday night—October 14 is a 2-900 night for all.

WELCOME BACK ALUMS

* ALUMNI BRIEFS *

(By Miss Syble Mason, alumni secretary)

Two graduates, whose homes were in the Central Wisconsin area, but are now located in the East and in the West were visitors at their Alma Mater during the summer. George Quandt, class of 1910, has a two-fold interest in CSTC, for his uncle, Hale Quandt, is the athletic coach here. George is assistant manager of industrial relations of the Dictaphone Corporation in Bridgeport, Connecticut. The work of this department involves personnel, training, wage and salary administration and medical benefits.

George said this was the first visit back to Wausau, his home town, since 1943 and that he "thoroughly enjoyed his visit in Stevens Point." Visiting from Garrettsville, South Dakota, was Donald Aucutt, class of 1911, who is athletic coach in the high school there. His home town is Antigo.

Several of our alumni have received promotions in recent months. Lawrence Beaudin, class of 1931, who has been registrar at Carroll College, Waukesha, is now superintendent of schools at Geneva, Illinois. Walter R. Bruce, class of 1930, has been appointed as superintendent of the Oconto schools. Mr. Bruce has been superintendent of schools at Greenwood for the past four years.

Laurin P. Gordon, class of 1932, who has been supervising principal of the Mount Horeb public schools, is now principal of the Roosevelt Junior High School at Appleton. Dorothy Johnson, class of 1931, who has been teaching in the English department at the Marshfield Senior High School, is now head of the English department of the Plymouth High School.

Robert Krembs, class of 1933, who has been office service manager in the Hardware Mutual's south central department at New Orleans, La., has returned to the Stevens Point office as a methods engineer.

Alice Gordon, class of 1940, whose home is in Nelsonville, and has taught in the Lincoln county normal school at Merrill, the Wood county normal at Wisconsin Rapids, and most recently at the Racine and Kenosha county normal school at Union Grove, is now county supervising teacher in Portage county. Hazel M. Nicholas, class of 1938, has assumed her duties as dietitian and house manager at Gridley Hall, freshman women's dormitory, at Carleton College, Northfield, Minnesota. Miss Nicholas has supervised school cafeterias and has owned and operated her own tea room in Duluth. Before going to Carleton College, Miss Nicholas was dietitian for a hospital in Hibbing, Minnesota.

Harvey H. Cornell, class of 1942, principal of the Door-Kewaunee county normal school at Algoma since 1945, became superintendent of schools at Algoma. Oscar B. Christianson, class of 1939, principal at Stoughton high school, has accepted the position of principal in the McLane elementary school at West Bend. Delos Kobs, supervising principal at Dorchester for the past three years, is now head of the Spencer public schools.

George Dearborn Spindler, class of 1940, is now consulting anthropologist in the research program of the sociological and psychological aspects of education at Stanford University at Palo Alto, California. Alex Perrodin, class of 1935, who is a science critic at the LaCrosse State Teachers College training school, is on leave this year to study at Columbia University, New York City.

The Sept. 28 issue of the POINTER announced the marriage of several time graduates and students attending college this year. Many alumni were married during the summer and

GREETINGS TO ALUMNI:

On behalf of the college and the teaching staff, I want to extend greetings to our returning alumni who are here for the week end activities in connection with Homecoming. I know that the many good times you have had at Central State Teachers College are still very vivid in your memory, and you will enjoy renewing your acquaintance with many who are still here whom you knew in college. We hope you are enjoying your work and your experience as a teacher and that you will have a very satisfactory and successful year. The Homecoming committee has made preparations to keep you pretty well occupied and entertained this week end. Be sure to establish your contact with our new Alumni Association. We are anxious that it shall grow into a strong association to promote the welfare of Central State Teachers College.

Wm. C. Hansen
President.

early fall. The following announcements have come to the attention of the secretary of the association: Margaret Mary Doherty, class of 1949, and Harlow John Stull, both of Plainfield, were married September 30. They will live in Almond where the bride has been a primary teacher. Therese Furmanek, class of 1950, became the bride of Mario Braga, on August 19. Mrs. Braga has taught in the schools of Marathon county and in the Detroit, Michigan schools.

Verna Genrich, class of 1947, who has been teaching in the Beloit public schools, became the bride of Robert Kristianson, CSTC student, on July 22. Mrs. Kristianson is teaching in the Wausau public schools this year. Bernice Mary Gliscinski, class of 1944, became the bride of Raymond Skalski on August 19. Mrs. Skalski has been teaching in the senior high school at Wausau. They are now residing in Stevens Point where the bridegroom is employed.

Robert Hartman, class of 1949, was married to Jane Margaret Thompson, of Stevens Point, on May 27. Mr. Hartman is coach at the Bowler high school. Helen Hetzel, class of 1944, became the bride of Raymond Jarasgosi, of Plainfield, on July 22. For the past four years Mrs. Jarasgosi taught in the Lincoln school at Fond du Lac. They are living in Plainfield.

Clara Huebscher, class of 1946,

Welcome home! We are glad to have you here. We have been looking forward to your coming and have made extensive preparations for your entertainment. We hope the week-end will measure up to your expectations in fun, frolic and renewed friendships.

Also, we hope that when you go back to your school rooms, homes and offices you will carry with you a renewed enthusiasm for the great CSTC spirit which is exemplified by the Purple and the Gold.

Elizabeth Pfiffner,
Dean of Women

was married on July 1 to Harold J. Wooddell of Wisconsin Rapids. Ruby Joling, class of 1938, became the bride of Leslie L. Loomans on August 8 at Wisconsin Rapids. Mrs. Wooddell taught school in Wood county and the Christian Grammar school in California. Anthony Isherwood, class of 1949, claimed as his bride Miss Virginia B. Rzentkowski, Stockton, on September 2 at the St. Mary's Catholic church at Fancher. Mr. Isherwood is a fish culturist for the U.S. fish and wildlife service at Lake Mills.

Audrey Jones, class of 1948, was married at Auburndale on June 24 to Floyd E. Wichman of Adams. Mrs. Wichman, who has been third grade teacher at Adams, is continuing in that capacity this year. Ethelyn Olson, class of 1948, became the bride of Roger Peterson on June 17 at Iowa. Mrs. Peterson has taught the past two years at Bear Creek. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson are living in Norway, Michigan. Martha Randorf, class of 1947, and Thomas Eugene Baxter of MacDonough, Ga. were married August 3 at Plainfield. They are living in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Marion Roberts, class of 1941, became the bride of Harold C. Welke in Stevens Point on June 3. They are living at Iron Mountain, Michigan where Mrs. Welke is a home agent. Mr. Welke teaches at Florence, Wisconsin. Irene Ludwig, class of 1945, became the bride of Rev. Victor L. Brandt of Williamsville, N. Y. on August 20. The wedding ceremony was performed by the bride's father, who was assisted by the father of the bridegroom. The bride was librarian of the St. Louis Lutheran high school.

The following are examples of outstanding and interesting experiences which CSTC alumni have had during the summer: The Beaver Dam legion band holds the title of the "traveling" legion band in the country. The band's trips are planned to spread good will and to enable its members to have a worthwhile sightseeing vacation. The band has covered all of the 48 states, much of Canada and Mexico. The group spent seven days in the Black Hills this summer. Wherever the band goes, the members boost Wisconsin for its products and its scenic beauty. The band completed its 29th anniversary good will tour this summer. The band director is Frederick Parfrey, director of the Beaver Dam public school bands and the city music program. Mr. Parfrey graduated from CSTC in 1939.

Among the many persons who

Bustles Whistle, Mustaches Wave As Students Celebrate Homecoming

The whistle of bustles rubbing together in the stadium; the rush of air caused by a thousand twitching handlebar mustaches, a few over-garbed with artificial paint on their faces, the shouts of the crowd as a motley crew of padded players dash around on a rather beat-up, crudely designed field. A scene like this would have been Homecoming 1895. But never was such a picturesque sight seen on this campus because Homecoming is a product of the 'Roaring Twenties' at CSTC.

Then even if the teams weren't the best, just think of the celebrations! Charleston in the streets, bobbed hair on coed's foreheads beating out the rhythm, and the team swimming its way out of a bathtub full of gin. But don't yearn for the old days too much, cause it wasn't that way either. It was just a start; the first stages in the making of a tradition. But why all this Homecoming business anyway?

Debating Big Thrill

In the olden days, debating was the big thrill and the war cry was: "Talk the pants off 'em'." And when all was said and done the students would sit down and gab with the old grads who were sure to be there. It seemed like a good enough system when slowly the whole campus went to pieces. Membership in the debating clubs fell off. Probably the school was a little tired from 20 years of talk. But the alumni never stop coming back. So why then change to "beat the pants off 'em'?" Football is the answer. It captured the imagination of the student body more than any debate ever had. The thrill of seeing a good team on a sunny fall afternoon fight it out with a made the Holy year pilgrimage to Rome this year, was Florence Flaugher, class of 1945. Accompanying her was Betty Blablich of Stevens Point, who has remarked that it was "a trip never to be forgotten." The pilgrimage was sponsored by the Newman club federation. Stops were made at Luxembourg, Paris, Lourdes, Nice, Monte Carlo, Perugia, Pisa, Florence, Assisi and Siena before entering the Eternal City.

Fred A. Hebal, class of 1931, and physics teacher at the P. J. Jacobs High school, was awarded a General Electric science fellowship for 1950 at Case Institute of Technology, Cleveland, Ohio. The fellowship paid all expenses including travel for a special course in physics taught at the institute this summer. The fellowships were awarded to 50 teachers in recognition of outstanding high school instruction in physics in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Kentucky and Pennsylvania. Arvie W. Gordon, class of 1935, who is teaching at Chilton, was also awarded this fellowship.

These alumni briefs are a mere sampling of what can be made available to our alumni. However, we need the help of each and every alumnus of CSTC. When you have news of yourself or other alumni, share it with the alumni secretary, so that such news may be passed on to all. Over 900 alumni will receive this issue of the POINTER. This service is being made available to alumni through the annual active membership dues of $1.00 from 213 CSTC alumni.

Needless to say, the financial support of many more alumni is needed to carry on the services which are outlined in the alumni constitution. One of those services is an Alumni bulletin which at this time cannot be published because of the financial straits of the association. All alumni who received the Homecoming letter are urged to return the blank requesting biographical information whether or not they return for the Homecoming festivities.

rival school made that particular event the hub of Homecoming.

The first mention of it in the Pointer appeared in 1922. The whole student body joined in a five block parade, after a pep assembly in the auditorium. That time honored institution, the snake dance, was an important factor in this first recorded Homecoming.

During the next few years, the habit seemed to be hard to acquire. Many times it languished only to pop up more with spirit than ever before.

1926 Big Year

1926 was quite a blowout. The Pointer showed the way and the pace was approaching what it is now when it's a struggle to escape flunking just the extra-curricular activities. Nevertheless one year, the Pointer, in an editorial which stated that "either Homecoming has a terrible cold or has died altogether," scolded the students, especially the frosh. But like a spring shoot coming up through the snow, 1930's all but blew the school off its foundations. Indications are that it's been that way ever since. In fact according to the Pointer each one has been the biggest, peppiest, best yet. Each year the students declare confidentially that never will there be one like this year's. Is there a natural limit to this sort of thing? It's up to the 1950 Homecomers to prove there is—and we've reached it!

Welcome, Pointers, to your 1950 Homecoming!

Highlighting the program of events this year is the afternoon football game with our old time rivals, River Falls. The parade, the reunions and the other traditional Homecoming activities have been under preparation for some time and bid fair to measure up to the high standards set in the past. However, the REAL success of Homecoming depends upon your presence here! Your friends want to see you and you want to see your friends. Don't disappoint!

Opportunities Good in Primary And Intermediate Education

Dr. Raymond E. Gotham, director of the Training school, reports an increasing number of opportunities in the fields of primary and intermediate education. For women, either primary, fourth or fifth grade is excellent, while for men, fifth to eighth grades are exceptionally fine. Teachers in this field may, if they have the ability, continue in graduate work which prepares them for grade school principalships. Reports show that basic salaries are the same for grade schools as high schools. Great opportunities are also evident in the rural field with most salaries ranging from $200 to $250 a month. Those men and women who find they are unable to finish four years would find the rural and rural grade school fields very profitable.

Dr. Gotham also observed that many young women in this area are losing splendid opportunities by not entering the field of home economics. From a study of a list of last year's graduates in home economics, it was found that there were no girls from the city of Stevens Point in that field. CSTC is the only one of the nine teachers colleges which trains home economics teachers. Dr. Gotham stated that he could have placed well over 100 home economics teachers last year alone. There is also a need for students with English majors.

It is also becoming increasingly evident that prospective teachers must obtain basic training in at least one good extra-curricular activity.

Demands for secondary teachers are increasing, with the military service taking young men out of teaching positions. If this continues nearly all graduates will be able to get good positions.

A list of CSTC graduates of 1950 who have been placed and alumni who have obtained new positions follows.

Primary division graduates, with salary ranges from $2400—$3100, include the following:

Esther Murat Berndt, Stevens Point, teaching kindergarten at Laona; Kathryn Brown, Plainfield, primary grades, Madison; Carol Collins, Stevens Point, grade 2, Wausau; Mary Connor Taylor, Auburndale, grade 1, Crandon; Helen Eagleburger, Stevens Point, grades 2 and 3, Stevens Point; Ruth Finch, Stevens Point, grade 3, Appleton; Harriet Hennig, Watertown, grade 3, Palmyra; Blanche Huebner, Waupaca, teaching kindergarten at Sheboygan; Mary Kearns, Dalton, grade 1, Merrill; Hildegard Kuse, Medford, grade 3, Shawano; Marchita Newton, Stevens Point, grade 2, Laona; Kathleen O'Connor, Mosinee, grade 2, Appleton; Rita Peabody, Stevens Point, grade 3, Portage; Grace Peterson, Iola, teaching kindergarten and music at Shawano; Carol H. Radich, Hortonville, grade 3, Edgerton; Colleen Rybickie, Stevens Point, teaching kindergarten at Mellen; Gertrude Wegman, Sturgeon Bay, teaching at Janesville.

Intermediate-Upper Elementary graduates, with salary ranges from $2300—$3200:

Robert Bennett, Stevens Point, grades 5 and 6, Palmyra; George W. Boneske, Athens, grades 6 to 8, Athens; Robert Brehm, Wisconsin Rapids, grades 5 and 6, Wabeno; Charles Eschenbach, White Lake, grade 6, Wautoma; Everett M. Gardner, Granton, grades 6, 7 and 8, Mt. University Players Will Give Shakespearean Play

Shakespeare's well-known comedy, "Much Ado About Nothing," will be presented by the University Players, Inc., at the Emerson school auditorium on Monday evening, October 16, at 8 o'clock.

This touring company is made up of graduates of the Speech and Drama department of the Catholic university in Washington. Each member has had from five to 10 years of theatrical experience and has demonstrated dramatic ability. Their aim is to bring the best in professional theater to all parts of the country and away from Broadway. Besides appearing in plays the 16 members of the company help unload equipment and adapt their scenery to the many theaters they use.

Concerning the production, Miss Pauline Isaacson, CSTC speech instructor, says, "The drama department of the Catholic university is excellent and I would say that any play it produces would certainly be worth a student's time."

Tickets are $1.00, tax included, and will be sold in front of the library today.

The St. Norberts students had a big let down when they returned to school this fall. All the hard work of students throughout the years was cruelly eradicated. Yes, the walls which had been filled with crib notes, had been painted during the summer with the school colors of green and gold.

A Modern Interpretative dance class has been set up at Oshkosh Teachers college. It is open to all students and will meet twice a week.

At River Falls the students are assured of at least one hour every week when they can find any member of the faculty. All faculty members will be in their offices on Wednesdays at 11:00.

Lester "Butch" Leitel is celebrating his twenty-fifth year as Director of Athletics at Platteville this year. His comment when asked about the Platteville team for this year — "Any opposing team will be given an interesting afternoon."

Whitewater State Teachers will be heard over the radio on station WCLO in Janesville by means of tape recordings.

Eau Claire is in the process of electing a Homecoming Queen, too. The only difference between them and us, is that we know that Homecoming is the 14th — they haven't set a date.

The enrollment at Milwaukee is also a bit lower this year than last. It dropped from 1,803 in 1949 to 1,750 this fall.

Class Officers, Council Members And Queen Voted for Thursday

Senior Officers

Thursday was election day for class officers, student council representatives and homecoming queen. Posters on the walls, and announcements over the public address system proclaimed that the campaigns were on and many eager nominees were ready to translate the desires of the student body to definite action and policies. Results of elections will be published in next week's Pointer.

Candidates for homecoming queen were: Jacqueline Hall, sponsored by the S club, Beverly Barnes, the Chi Delta Rho candidate, and Marilyn Knope, sponsored by Alpha Kappa Lambda.

Freshman Officers

Freshman class officers were chosen from Dave Ross, Jerry Boettcher and Carroll Jeffers for class president; Bill Kohls and Winston Wolfe for vice-president; Jean Ferdon for secretary and Richard Wiener for treasurer.

The ballot also had the names of Sophomore nominees: Robert Plint and Robert Rude for president; Frank DeGuire for vice-president; Arline Meister for secretary; and Rollie Krueger for treasurer. Junior candidates for officer were: Chet Polka, Dave Bliese and Jerry Scheel for president; Gordon Sorensen for vice-president; Nancy Sannes and Bill Cable for secretary; and Gordon Fairbert and Don Olsen for treasurer.

Senior class officers were elected from: Lloyd Peterson and Robert Petranek for president; Marvin Johnson and Charles Bruce for vice-president; and George Mosey for treasurer.

Taking no back seat to the important class officers election and glamorous selection of a Homecoming queen was the choosing of Student Council members. Each division chose representatives and each class four. Candidates from the freshman class were Andy Redmann, Betty McGoff and Norma Herring-ton.

Charles Robinson, Glenna Clark and Mary Seales wished to represent the sophomores, and James Curry, Don Schulz, Jim Hyer and Norris Lindquist were the Junior candidates. Senior student council representatives were Arthur Schoff, Robert Cook, Joseph Boettcher and Harry Johnson.

Pointers Will Battle River Falls Falcons on Saturday

The big game of the year takes place Saturday afternoon here in Stevens Point, when the River Falls Falcons invade Goerke Park for the Pointer Homecoming game. This game is the highlight of the biggest and best Homecoming in CSTC history.

The Pointers don't have a soft touch for their Homecoming encounter. The Falcons failed to win a conference game last year, but this season it is a different story. River Falls served notice that they were to be reckoned with when they trimmed always tough Milwaukee in the season's opener. They have a group of seasoned players back in the fold and are rolling in high gear.

The purple and gold gridders have been hard at work for this game. The loss to LaCrosse didn't dampen their spirits any and then, too, Homecoming is that extra special game and a win in that would make a season a success. The Pointers should be in top form for this game and really be out there to bring home the win.

With the new found pep and the great team we have, it looks like a very successful Homecoming this weekend!

Don's Coney Island Moves Into First Place Tie With Brunswick

By sweeping three games from the Phi Sigs, Don's Coney Island moved into a first place tie with the Brunswick team which took two from Alpha Kappa Lambda. However, top team honors went to Brunswick with a smashing 906 for single game high and a total pin spill of 2557. Marv Johnson's 560 took individual honors in total pins while Walt Wainig had the evenings high game with 217.

Other honor counts went to Frank Schmidler 530, George Greathouse 511, Earl Korth 510, Bob Petranek 509, D. Mangold 518, Jim Benson 540 and 209, L. Peterson 507 and 200, Bill Conachen 513, H. Peterson 547 and 202, Russ Alderton 526, and Don Larson 516 and 201.

CSTC Band Performs At Monday Night Game

The CSTC band went all out Monday night to show off its deftness in performing field maneuvers. The band has been practicing its marching and drilling thoroughly and it can be certain that the showing it makes at Homecoming will be just as good as it was Monday night at the Whitewater game. Walter R. Sylvester is responsible for the new drills, for he has been out with the band instructing them in the new exercises.

For anyone who might have missed the Dad's night game at Goerke field on Monday night, here is a brief account of the exercises. Before the game, the combined Stevens Point and Whitewater bands, led by drum major Dorthianne Rebella, played "The Star Spangled Banner" while the flag was raised. Following this, the CSTC band played the Whitewater school song and formed two W's. After forming the letter "P" in a horseshoe, they retired to their side of the field where they played "The Purple and the Gold" to begin the game.

Half time activities began with the CSTC band marching out from the goal posts to the Point side to form a "Pointer", playing "Hail to the Varsity." Then they formed a "Hi Dad" and played the cheery "Hello" song. The players dads were introduced and the band played "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," forming a dollar sign to show the appreciation of the munificence of their Dads. After forming a CS they marched off the field.

That's the Song of It

"Seems Like Old Times" "Because" around this time of year all the "Student Princes" start yelling "Hoop Dee Doo." "The Galloping Comedians" have come down from "Along The Navajo Trail" and they're all set to "Let's Do It Again."

However, "The Deep Purple" heard the "Cry of the Wild Goose" and the boys from Main street were "In The Mood" to "Bewitch" the Falcons.

"That Old Black Magic" went to work for the Pointers. Our quarter back heard "Sams Song" and promptly threw some "Star Dust" at the Falcons. "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes," so the enemy thought but they were "Dancing In The Dark." "Can Anyone Explain" that "You Can't Be Fit As A Fiddle When You're Tight As A Drum." "Mona Lisa" was in the crowd counting "One-zy-Two-zy" as "Vagabond Shoes" scored the touchdowns.

"Why Fight the Feeling," River Falls, cause come next Saturday there will be "Blue Skies" and you would be ahead if you said "I Surrender Dear" but "Who's Sorry Now?" Those weren't "Little White Lies" we told you. "Three Blind Mice" in black and white came out on the field and said "Can't We Talk It Over." "Yes Indeed" there will be plenty of "Stomping at the Savoy" after the big game. So "Some Enchanted Saturday Evening" you guys and gals give out with an "Indian Love Call" and get over at the "Sleepy Lagoon" with "A Song In Your Heart." "Good Night Irene."

Pointers Lose Dad's Night Game To Whitewater Quakers 26-12

Whitewater's Quakers put a dampener on everything but the indomitable CSTC spirit at Goerke Field Monday night as they steam-rolled to a sharp 26-12 triumph. Point was supposed to be "up" for this one and few of the 3500 people who turned out for this Dad's Night contest had expected anything else. Indeed, they came anticipating a good warm-up for the River Falls Homecoming, perhaps a good cigar at half-time, and a nightcap of coffee or coke at the Campus.

From the opening kickoff to the final horn it was evident that Point lacked the zip, finesse and potency of Whitewater's running and passing plays. Except for that fleeting moment in the second quarter when Point clutched a 6-3 lead, by virtue of a fumble recovery and Nubb Miller's pile-driving off tackle, it was a night Whitewater will long recall with satisfaction.

Entress was a particular thorn in CSTC's side as he shoved the Blue and White into an early 3-0 lead on a long field goal, boosted the extra point that capped the Quaker's first TD drive, and repeated before half-time with another 3 point placement. Bailey and Vander Avond were outstanding at halfback and strongly reminiscent of Tom Curry who had so recently plagued the Pointers at LaCrosse. He swept the Point ends and nosed through tackle until, at times, it seemed the gallant Pointers were losing track of the ball.

Coach Quandt's men could have had few other alibis for this one since most the fumbles and penalties were in CSTC's favor. Point was simply outplayed and outplayed. The game, vital to CSTC's repeat bid for the championship, was a costly lesson, but perhaps it can be turned into a profitable lesson for this Saturday's big Homecoming game with River Falls.

Whitewater Pep Rally Shows New Campus Spirit

The big pep rally held at Nelson Hall last Monday afternoon as a prelude to the Whitewater game was proof again there's a new spirit loose on the old campus. Kids stormed out of 3 o'clock classes, poured out of the Eat Shop and Campus and had swelled Fremont street by the time Andy Redmann stepped to the microphone to say, "How about that?"

Warren Hamel's cheerleaders opened the rally with some new yell and Waupaca's Barbara Pope did a terrific job in selling them. Miss Sue Bailey and Vander Avond were outstanding at halfback and strongly reminiscent of Tom Curry who had so recently plagued the Pointers at LaCrosse. He swept the Point ends and nosed through tackle until, at times, it seemed the gallant Pointers were losing track of the ball.

Play Begins In Intramural Sports

Action in both the touch football league and the tennis tournament was started this week. Due to this late start both the league and the tournament will be run in a comparatively short time with most of the play being concentrated between now and the last of the month. Football games will be played every Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday at 4:15 p.m. while the first two rounds of the sudden death tennis tournament will be completed by October 13.

Next week's schedule for football is as follows:

Monday, October 16
Phi Sig House vs. Klaks
Ramblers vs. W.C.T.U.*
Tuesday, October 17
Boettchers vs. Ramblers
Hyers vs. Klaks
Thursday, October 19
Hyers vs. Phi Sig House
Boettchers vs. W.C.T.U.

WANDERLUST

Tour Palestine

It took three days to unload the cows and horses in Palestine, during which the CSTC crusaders took government-sponsored tours of all the sacred sights. Much to their dismay, they were forced to drink large quantities of wine because of the bad water. Palestine seemed to them a new nation, much like the U. S. during the time of early settlement. They were so fascinated by life in Palestine that they missed the departure of their boat by about an hour and had to hire a harbor boat to take them out to it.

The boat returned them to Newport News, from where Lindquist went back to New Orleans and Redmann left upon another cattle-tending trip to Palestine.

Hitchhike to Mexico

In New Orleans Lindquist met a Tulane student who talked him into hitchhiking to Mexico. The temperature averaged 104 degrees in the shade. Lindquist said that never again would he make a crack about the lazy Mexicans. The highlights of their trip were visits to Mexico City, Taxco, Acapulco and Monterey.

Lindquist again returned to New Orleans, where he picked up Hyer. They drove the rusty but trusty old Ford back to Wisconsin, arriving in the latter part of June.

Redmann arrived home one day later. He had hitch-hiked back immediately upon returning to New Orleans from his second Palestinian jaunt.

They're all back at CSTC now except Mitness.

The consensus of opinion seemed to be that the trip had been far more valuable than the same half year of school would have been. After making this statement they tried to back down because they didn't want to be responsible for half the school leaving for Mexico, Palestine and other remote regions of the world.

served seat of honor and will come to the game in regal style in a convertible.

Nelson Hall Open House

Nelson Hall will hold an open house after the game with refreshments and musical entertainment. Everyone is invited to attend.

One of the outstanding attractions of this year's Homecoming is the appearance of Larry Ladd's orchestra at the "S" club dance, which is to be held at P. J. Jacobs High school gymnasium on Saturday night from 8:30 to 12:30. Lovely vocalist Shirley Foster and the Velvetones, a variety quartet, will be featured. Larry Ladd's orchestra is currently playing at George Devine's Million Dollar Ballroom in Milwaukee. This is the first time that a musical aggregation as well known as Larry Ladd's has played for a CSTC Homecoming.

Glee Club's Annual Concert

The hectic Homecoming activities will come to a close when the Men's Glee club gives a concert Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at which tired celebrants of Homecoming will find themselves being refreshed by the sweet strains of good music.

The Stevens Point Chamber of Commerce has been backing the Homecoming festivities 100%. They had 1000 pennant handbills printed, donated part of the prizes for the floats and paid for the huge Homecoming sign across Main street. Merchants belonging to the Chamber of Commerce donated prizes for the Homecoming queen and the hobo king and cooperated in arranging Homecoming window displays.

WAA

CSTC fellows and gals can get their pompoms for the gala Homecoming celebration this weekend. Members of the WAA are selling CSTC decals and colorful pompoms just outside the library for the rest of this week. This morning they may also be obtained outside the auditorium.

Other WAA Homecoming preparations include the busy job of making their float and setting up a display window at the Sport Shop.

* Omega Mu Chi *

"We Have Our Eyes On You," inscribed on a poster and two large eyes were on a door to greet rushes Tuesday evening when they attended a rushing party of Omega Mu Chi Sorority held at the home of Mrs. Carl N. Jacobs, 903 Clark street, a sorority patroness.

To carry out the theme, the favors were black hats with a large eye on each. Prize winners for games played were: "Whose Eyes?" Eleanor Curtis and Sally Connor; "Name the Song," Lorna Krueger and Mrs. Gene Raddant; "Penny Wise," Ruth Schein and Lucy Greathouse.

Mrs. Ben Glennon, an alumna, spoke on "What a Sorority Means to Me." Mrs. Charles Cashin, a patroness, was a guest.

The rushes were Sally Connor, Eleanor Curtis, Lorna Krueger, Ardyth Raaths and Ruth Schein. A lunch of sandwiches, moulded salad, coffee, mints and nuts was served from a table decorated with yellow and lavender flowers and tapers. Mrs. Gene Raddant, adviser, poured.

The committees were: Invitations, Beverly Tibbets, chairman, and Nancy Sannes; transportation, Jean Robertson; food, Jean Dobeck, chairman, Virginia Fisher, Letitia Brunner, Eleanor Hummel and Marjorie Finch; entertainment, Nancy Goebel, chairman, Joyce Pinkerton, Joan Fehrenbach and Suzanne Swanke; decorations and favors, Andrea Miller, chairman, Virginia Gmeiner, Jean Sarbacker and Gretchen Holstein; clean-up, Beverly Berg, Nathalie Hogland, Jacqueline Hall and Marilyn Knope.

Quincy Doudna Writes Letter from Lima, Peru

Dr. Quincy Doudna, who has a one year's leave of absence to work with the ministry of education in Lima, Peru, is now in that city. He, his wife and two sons flew there from Miami two weeks ago.

In a brief letter that he wrote to Robert S. Lewis this week he said:

"I am established in my office, but as yet have not got off to much of a start. Late this week Ray Gibson and one or two others and I are going to make a loop through Oroya, Cusco, Puno and Arequipa, using transportation ranging from mules to planes, with much of the trip in a Dodge truck with a kind of station-wagon body. I expect to learn a bit of geography and I'll report later.

Gibson was confused as to our time of arrival, so we were not met at the airport when we arrived Sunday morning at 1:05. I managed to get through customs on my Spanish and my face (both limited) and with some difficulty located Ray through the American Embassy. He came out and got us and we are staying there right now. They have a huge place.

The boys start an all Spanish boys school tomorrow. It is taught by Catholic brothers.

The sun was shining when we arrived, but hasn't been seen since. I haven't seen a thermometer, but it is about 60 to 65 I think. There is no heat in any building except for an occasional electric heater."

Posters Show Spirit

The campaigns for the Homecoming Queen and the student officers were heated affairs if the posters that suddenly mushroomed all over the school were any evidence. These posters were of many sizes and descriptions and most of them relied on a clever slogan or catchword.

These bits of persuasion were posted in unusual places and were primarily designed to catch the eyes of passers-by. As he passed through the halls, the student was urged to "vote for Bev" or asked to make Molly or Jackie the Queen. His attention was called to the various candidates for class officer or student council. These colorful posters and pictures helped to bring forth the spirit of the elections and the Homecoming festivities.

CHEERLEADERS

Origin Unknown

The origin of most of CSTC's cheers is a deeply veiled mystery to our pep promoters who know only that they have been handed down from generation to generation. The welcome mat is always out for new cheers, original or otherwise, and any suggestions or constructive criticism which may be offered.

The cheerleaders were very much pleased with the spirit shown at the pep rally for the LaCrosse game but realize that this is only a small sample of the potential pep and suppressed spirit which smoulders within the stifled souls of CSTC's sophisticated students.
