There once was a man not unique
In thinking himself quite a shique.
But the gals don't fall
For this fellow at all
For he only made thirty a wique.

There Was a Young Lady --

Hear Ye! Win a Prize! Enter the Pointer's Big Limerick Contest!!

There once was a young man so benighted
He didn't know when he was slighted
He went to a party
And ate just as hearty
As if he'd been really invited.

No one is slighted here. All are invited to enter the big limerick contest. This contest, sponsored by the Pointer, is for the purpose of recognizing and fostering all talented limerick writers of CSC. Both students and faculty are encouraged to enter.

Three prizes are being offered for the best original limericks ($3, $2, $1 respectively). A limerick authority board composed of the Pointer staff editors will judge the contest. All limericks must be in by December 12. A basket labeled, oddly enough, "Limericks," will be placed in the Pointer office.

In case any of you future limerick geniuses are still not quite certain what a limerick is, here are a few examples:

"Blue Christmas" Is Theme of Senior Ball

"Blue Christmas" is the theme selected for the annual Senior Ball to be held this year on Saturday, December 6 at Delzell Hall. The orchestra hasn't been chosen yet, but plans are in process to make this an enjoyable evening for everyone, says Henry Drechsler, president of the senior class.

The list of committees is as follows: General co-chairmen, Mary Brittnacher and Bill Clayton; theme, Joyce Moll, chairman, Pat Barrett, Delores Newhall, Roland Krueger, Ray Sommers, and Janice Gruen; decorations, Glenna Clark, chairman, Rose Ann Kearns, Sally Connor, Ruth Fieting, Don Vissers, Jack Polzin, Parr Eves; dance hall, Ed Heuer, chairman, John Sandberg, Suzanne Tate, Dick Bruha; orchestra, Jack Popeck, chairman, Jerry Bartoss, Jean Sackler, Arlon Parkin.

Publicity, Ross Papke, chairman, Virginia Cable, Bob Flint, Bob Gruling, Kathryn Stankevich, Verna Schaefer, Kay Leahy; invitations, Mary Pfiffner, chairman, Arline Melster, Nancy Pautz, Frank DeGuire, Phyllis Jarneck; chaperones, Helen Isbarn, chairman, Ruth Teetzen, Wilma Schmeckle, Ardis Raaths, Marilyn Gilbert; tickets, Barbara Nelson, chairman, Mary Lund, Eleanor Curtis, Virginia Marros, DeLoe Roth, chairman, furniture, Frank Hoffman, chairman, Ann Elesen, Chuck Robinson, John Bruha, Dorothy Thompson, Richard Toser, Vivian Hofman, Duaine Drew, and Bob Kristianson; clean-up, Arlene Altenburg, chairman and all members of the senior class.

Marionette Program On tap for Students

A rare treat in this age of modern mechanized entertainment is in store for CSC students when the Pedal Marionettes of Coffey-Miller present their fascinating dramatic program in the college auditorium on Friday, December 5, at 10 a.m. They will present Moliere's "The Imaginary Invalid," a clever satirical comedy.

These life-like puppets are worked from underneath instead of the customary method from the top, which gives them the name of Pedal Marionettes. These marionettes bring alive again the plays which have proven their worth over centuries.

In the afternoon they will present "Ala Baba and the Forty Thieves" for the students of the Training school.

All CSC students are welcome at the morning performance as it is part of the regularly scheduled assembly programs which are paid for by the student activity tickets.

Young Actors Vie For One-act "A" Ratings

The annual high school district one-act play contest will be held in the CSC auditorium on Saturday, November 22. In charge of activities will be Supt. A. D. Wicklund of Nekeosa, district chairman of the Wisconsin High School Forensic association. No admission will be charged for these plays, and college students are invited to attend.

In this district there are 11 leagues, with each league holding a contest. The winners of "A" ratings at the league contests are the schools which will be represented here in this district meet. The schools winning "A" ratings on Saturday will come back to CSC on December 6 for the sectional contest.

Schools which will be presenting plays on Saturday are Weyauwega, Bonduel, Wittenberg, Iola, Westfield, Adams-Friendship, Loyal, Greenwood, Mosinee, Bowler, Gresham, Birnamwood, Edgar, Endeavor, Westboro and Medford.

Kjer To Act As Judge
Earl S. Kjer, instructor in speech at Eau Claire and a graduate of CSC, will sit as critic judge. Leland M. Burroughs, head of the English and speech departments here, is chairman of local arrangements and has appointed Amy Kampenga and Bob Peyovich as production managers to work with Mr. Wicklund.

Activities for the contestants and directors include a noon luncheon at

To Sing for Students Friday

The Men's Glee club will present its annual Fall concert for the public this evening, at 8 o'clock in the college auditorium. The club will also present an assembly program tomorrow morning (Friday) at 10 o'clock for the entire student body.

Director of the Glee club, Norman E. Knutzen, has announced the program to be as follows: "The Purple and the Gold," Pray — Percival; "Prayer of Thanksgiving," Kremer; "Like a Mighty Eagle," Spohr — Lewaos; "Laudamus," Protheroe; "Oklahoma," Rodgers-Stickles; "Smith Through," Perin; "Meditation," Wennerberg-Wick; "The Creation," Richter (A special request); "All Day on the Prairie," Giron; a Czechoslovakian dance song and "This is My Country," by Ringwald.

Highlighting the program will be solos sung by Howard Moon, tenor from Elroy; James Williams, tenor, Mosinee, and John Bruha, bass, Weyauwega. An organ solo will be played by Edward Plank, Jr., and a group singing "We Gather Together."

This year's program will be sponsored by the Women's Self Government association. Shirley Sonnenberg is general chairman of the event. All 2:10 classes will be dismissed for the assembly, according to word received from President William C. Hansen.

Sadie Hawkins Out To Get Her Man ---! Hav U Got Yourse?

Daisy Mae has her man! Have You? If not you'd better 'et your cream of wheat and put on a liddle speed. Friday night, November 21, at 8:30 is the time and date. The display of the catches will be at the Training school gym. Dig up those Dog Patch clothes of yorn and get set to win one of the prizes—'cause $10 in prizes will be given away. Joy Juice and dog patch cookies will fill the hollow after dancin' and swingin' your partner for a few hours. The cost — only a meager 60c per couple.

The committees making this gala whing-ding possible are: Advertising, Nancy Court, chairman; Cleo Gilbert, and Shirley Sheets; decorations, Diane Sief, chairman, Mary Ann Smith and Helen Isbarn; ticket makers, Joyce Jones, chairman and Helen Jones.

Refreshment committee, Clara Colrupe, chairman, Mary Bartel and Mary Anne Rashka; serving, Joann Cuff, chairman, Dorothy Germer and Phyllis Hoelt; music and entertainment, Rosemary Polzin, chairman, Phyllis Caskey and Joan Chapman; prizes, Gloria Suckow, chairman, and the Training school and coffee hours at 9 a.m. and at 3 p.m. at Delzell Hall. Special pictures will be taken of college students at work during the day. Recordings of plays and individuals will be made at various times during the day by Dave Silverman of the Radio Workshop.

College students will be helping Saturday to make the contest a success. Virginia Cable is student chairman for the coffee hours. Assisting her are Sally Scribner, Lois Schroeder, Beverly Paski, Trudy Schnauffer, Cleo Peterson, Bobbie Broeren, Florence Fayne, Rita Czerniewski and Homer Plumb. A member of the faculty Public Relations committee will also be present.

Miller Chairman of Crew
John Miller is chairman of the stage crew committee. Jim Stasko, Ed Kmiotek, John Soetebeer, Pat Malick, Frank Brocker and Jane Schultz are working with him.

The information desk will be staffed by Bernadelle Siefertinski, Barbara Hanson, Dick Toser, Penelope Bullock, Rosemary Polzin and Bill Groesse.

Ushers will be Dick Toser, Bernadelle Siefertinski, Margie Thalacker, Harriet Marten and Maryjo Resnick.

John Miller is in charge of the programs. Mary Bartel, Ellen Elde and Lois Bogsted are monitors for the makeup room.

Humor 201

What this school needs is a course in humor. "Who ever heard of a humor class?" you may ask. "Why, it's unheard of. And, anyhow, what good would it do?"

"Unheard of," you say? Ah, no. A special sense of humor course introduced at the University of Florida has become so popular that the university plans to make it a permanent part of its curriculum. Eastern colleges also have given humor a trial in the curriculum and have found it successful.

There's more to a course in humor than one may think. It involves much more than the mere reading and enjoying of joke after joke during the class period.

A course in humor would include an analysis and definition of humor, a study of the writings of great humorists, and the observations of the effects and values of humor in everyday living. A humor class might also deal with the Paronomasia of Marxism (puns of Groucho Marx), the fine degrees of risible response (smiles, grins, chuckles, laughs, and guffaws), the elements of laughter, and the techniques of joke-making.

Classwork in this study would not be easy, but it would be interesting. Analyses could be made of current radio and T-V comedians such as Edgar Bergen, Bob Hope and Jack Benny. A comparison of humorists such as Mark Twain and Bennet Cerf could be sample assignments.

We believe that Humor 201, or whatever designation such a course might receive, should correlate at least the following subjects: English, history, speech, art (cartoons), and psychology (Why do people laugh?).

Clearly Central State's curriculum committee should seriously consider this proposal to add the subject "humor" to our curriculum. May they see the importance of such a course, add it to our choice of studies, and make Central State the Mid-West leader in "humor education."

Humor tells the story of human laughter and happiness, yet today it struggles in the grasp of materialism. Humor affects every living person and grows more important day by day. Should such a subject be denied admittance to the curriculum of our wide-awake and up-to-date college?

FAMILIAR FACES

A friendly blonde with a smiling face and bubbly personality is our familiar face this week. Her name is Joyce Moll; her home is in Junction City; and her favorite expression is "Oh, no! you kids."

This busy senior is in the Primary Division. She is the president of Tau Gamma Beta and a member of Pan Hall and Intersorority Council. She lived at the farm for three years and was president of Nelson Hall last year. She now lives in an apartment. Joyce is very interested in people and enjoys meeting them. Last year, you'll remember, she was little boys and girls in the kindergarten class busy with their work. She practices teaches in the kindergarten now and has taught the third grade the first ten weeks of school. Joyce is also active in Gamma Delta and Primary Council. Oh, yes, in her spare time she does her school work.

Concerning her future plans Joyce has this to say — since she spent four years working on a higher education she will not waste it, but put it to a good use by continuing in the education field unless someone comes along and changes her plans.

The Committee on Allocations Divides Students' Money

Allocations to various organizations covered by the student activity fee were announced this week by the student-faculty allocations committee.

The greater portion of the business of the committee was concerned with the division of the additional two dollars of the fee charged this semester. The following organizations were granted increases: Hospitalization, $.50; Pointer, $.25; Iris, $.25; athletics, $.50. One new organization, the student union, was given $.50.

The following is a complete list of the allocations for the first semester. In each case the amount listed is per student.

|-------------------------|----------------|
| Athletics | $2.75 |
| Pointer | 1.75 |
| Iris | 1.75 |
| Entertainment | 1.00 |
| College Physician | 1.00 |
| Hospitalization | .90 |
| Student Union | .50 |
| Bus | .50 |
| Band | .40 |
| College Theater | .30 |
| Classes | .25 |
| Girls' Glee Club | .20 |
| Men's Glee Club | .20 |
| Orchestra | .20 |
| Social Committee | .15 |
| Divisions | .10 |
| Student Council | .05 |
| Total | $12.00 |

Other important action taken by the committee was the passage of a resolution recommending that when a silver offering is taken at programs sponsored by groups covered by the activity fund, the students should be informed that they are not required to contribute.

Another meeting of the committee is scheduled for 3:00 p.m. this afternoon in room 157. At this time recommendation will be made for the second semester fee.

The members of the committee are William Clayton and Frank De Guire, students, and Burton R. Pierce, Mrs. Elizabeth Pflfner, Miss Sibley Mason, Kenneth W. Boylan and Quincy Dounda, faculty.

Beards Fertilized and Fumigated -- AKL Will Hold Woodchopper's Ball

Hey! Look at the beards sprouting on those AKL boys! No, there is not a shortage of razor blades. This is just a beard growing contest. The beards will be judged and prizes will be awarded for the best beards at the annual Woodchopper's Ball on February 3, when the contest officially ends.

Each year Alpha Kappa Lambda, conservation fraternity, invites all students to attend the Woodchopper's Ball. This year the club decided to try a new gimmick, a beard growing contest open to all campus men. So, come on all you college fellows! Throw your razor away for about three months and grow a beard. At present the club is planning to have a number of girls on hand to do the judging. Other schools have done it — why not CSC!

Don't wait fellows, start your beard now, fertilize it as you best know how and let it grow. (But don't trip over it.) Everybody from the youngest to the oldest, the bachelors and the married men, the most independent lad and the best first man on the campus can grow a beard. Your growth can take on any shape from a mustache to a full beard. In between are the Van Dykes, the mutton chops and the goatees.

All Colors Accepted

Are you worried about color? All colors will be accepted: red, black, brown or sandy. One of the AKL boys was threatened by a girl with perox-

Local Phi Sigs Hosts to 1952 Regional Meet

Kappa Chapter of Phi Sigma Epsilon will be host this year to the 1952 Regional Meeting of state and neighboring chapters. Phi Sig chapters are from Milwaukee, Whitewater, Eau Claire, and Menominee are definitely expected to attend the gathering this Saturday afternoon. The meeting will begin at 1:00, and a dinner at 5:00 at the Country SPA will close the Regional. Francis Bremner, a graduate of CSC and now the executive officer of the fraternity, is also expected to come from Davenport, Iowa, for the affair. Jerry Baerenwald, Bob Grullung and Henry Drechsler are in charge of housing while Steve Bogaczyk will handle the dinner affairs.

Home Ec's to Sponsor Annual Christmas Sale

The Home Economics club has chosen, Wednesday, December 3 as the date for its traditional Christmas sale. This is a big day for all interested early Christmas shoppers.

Members of the Home Economics club are getting ready to display the results of many hours of fuss and fury in this annual Christmas sale. All the articles to be sold are hand made and of high quality.

The girls will be selling knit goods, stuffed toys, luncheon sets, decorations and ornaments for Christmas, plus many other interesting items.

There will be a special session for those with appetites and yen for food. On sale will be freshly baked foods, popcorn balls and candy.

The committees for the sale are: Vivian Schulz, acting as general chairman; Joyce Zellinger, advertising head; Katy Allen, manager of setting up and decorations. Donna Thompson will take care of the selling, with Dorothy Kuhne's committee doing the pricing. Glenna Clark has the final sweep in charge of cleanup.

WRA Chooses Leaders To Head Winter Sports

Leaders have been chosen to lead WRA's winter program of sports activities with competition to be held in ping-pong, volleyball, swimming, dancing, archery, badminton, basketball, softball and tennis. The various sport heads are:

Ping-pong, Shirley Achenreiner and Charlotte Raddant; volleyball, Chloe Brody and Charlotte Hale; swimming, Ruth Ann Charlesworth and Eileen Schlieb; dancing, Mary Britton and Amy Kampenga; archery, Phyllis Riekkoff; badminton, Myra Bugs and Deloris Krause; basketball, Lon Breyman and Marg Smith; softball, Delores Miller and Jeanette Suehring; tennis, Rose Marie Christoffersen.

AKL has heard a few dissenting votes from the girls. Don't worry, girls, the brush pills will be shaved after the ball. They are pretty soft after the first month anyway.

The rest of this is strictly "Off the Record" but "It's in the Book." "Black Beard" McMahon and "Paul Bunyan" Spaulding were discussing their prospects of the coming deer season. Overhearing their conversation, the clean shaven Fred J. Schmeckle said he heard the conservation department was closing the bear season for fear that some of the AKL boys would be shot.

"Beardy" Breeze has been doing some nice work on those life-like posters advertising the contest. Someone asked to make a poster for a beauty shop bearing the inscription, "Beards Dyed, Trimmed, Fertilized, and Fumigated."

Hi there, fellow inmates of this institution! You are witnessing the christening of the column that contains the odds and ends — you know, stuff that won't fit under the "Sports," "Coming Events," or "Honorary Society" headings. Hope you like us!

A couple of days ago, down in the biology room, Doc Pierson was lecturing on the life of the ostrich.

"This long-legged creature," said Doc, "sees little. He is able to digest anything and everything."

One dreamy gal in the back of the room whispered to her neighbor, "What an ideal husband he'd make!"

Thank heavens the situation here really isn't that bad!

In last year's "Pointer" of Nov. 8, there appeared a paragraph announcing an event of great import to a certain twosome. Ray 'Andy' Anderson had traded his frat-pin for the affection of Bobbie Hanson. We are happy to announce the next scene of this Dan Cupid production. For those who haven't heard the news of their engagement, here's a tip. Bobbie's eyes aren't the only sparkle now. Best wishes!

Pledging is over for another semester. Here's betting that a certain group of fellows and gals will be glad to forget about black stockings, red bow ties, yellow and lavender bows and Robin Hood hats. At least how these new actives can look back, laugh, and store up new mean ideas for the next pledging period. Nevertheless, new actives, we're really glad that you went through the season without a fatality.

Have you made the acquaintance of the moron whose stomachic cravings gave him cerebral difficulties? He stuck his head in the oven cause he wanted a baked bean!

A happy day! A few weeks ago, the Chi Delta celebrated the "plannings" of Lynn Olson and Bill Anderson, and Jo Jersey and Marly Gilbert. Congrats, kids.

Some more pinnings and engagements are Rose Ann Kearns pinned to Walter Brunzman, Betty Kuserow planned to Gordy Fairbert, Mary Ann Smith pinned to Ed Heuer, Dot Thompson engaged to Gordy Sorenson, Marilyn Gossage engaged, Chuck Robinson engaged and Sally Connor engaged to Willis Zick.

The latest, and we might add the fastest, in romances is Rita Czerniewski's engagement to Homer, freshman class president, Plumb.

The following article, taken from the October 23 Milwaukee Journal needs no further comment: "David Zwick, 20, of Kaukauna, (student here last year) is one hunter who doesn't let anything — even laws — keep him from enjoying the sport. Several weeks ago he was fined $15 for shooting ducks during illegal shooting hours. His latest escapade — trapping and possessing muskrats out of season — brought him a $50 fine before Appleton Municipal Judge Oscar J. Schmiede, who also suspended his sportsman's privileges for one year. Said Zwick: 'I wanted the skins to finance my way to conservation school!'"

Student's note: Mr. Crow delivered an exceptionally good Armistice Day address — despite the fact that he did not have a table on the stage to sit on. A few observant students may have wondered whether or not Chief Crow-out-Loud has Indian ancestors. In front of a class, his favorite position seems to be sitting Indian-style on the lecture table.

In closing, we would like to invite you to write down little items or announcements of one kind or another on a scrap of paper and drop them off when you go by the Pointer office.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

A recent issue of the Pointer contained an article regarding campus leaders based on the 1952 edition of American College Student Leaders. Several have asked whether this list were in any way official. I find that it was not, but that it was developed in the Student Council last year following an inquiry by the publishers of the book. As far as I know, nobody has complained about the selection except that many other persons who have received honors here should probably have been included if any members of the college were to be listed.

I frequently get requests for such lists, but I do not respond to them ordinarily, since usually those requesting them are simply hoping to profit through the sale of the book they are developing. I find, for example, that this particular book sells for $7.50 and that copies of it were automatically sent to the parents of students listed with the request that they send payment of $7.50 or return the book.

Dear Editor:

I enjoy the Pointer so much. Although the names of the students are strange to me, I recognize them as brothers and sisters of former schoolmates of mine, and I enjoy reading about the faculty members I knew and the activities too.

Your is a very interesting Pointer — are there still hectic Monday nights?

CSC to Open Basketball Season Against Michigan Tech, Northland

Pointer hardcourt players will unveil their basketball skill for the first time in the 1952-53 season when they meet Michigan Tech at Houghton and Northland college at Ashland on consecutive nights, November 25 and 26. The games had originally been scheduled for Friday and Saturday, November 23 and 24, but due to Thanksgiving vacation recess, the games have been moved up several days.

Coach Hale Quandt has been busy reading his charges, with daily practice sessions, for the past three weeks.

Fifteen of the 34 players who answered his call for candidates have been chosen by the head mentor to compete for positions of the varsity squad. Of these, seven are returning lettermen. These include Ray Anderson, Dick Bechard, Fred Schadewald, Jerry Boldt, Fred Schadewald, Bob Bostad and Les Thompson.

This year's squad is a very young one, with no seniors and only three juniors on the varsity team. However, seven lettermen form a fairly large nucleus of experienced men with which to work. Also, several newcomers to the squad have shown in recent practice sessions that they might be ready to help out when called upon.

The rest of the squad candidates form a Collegiate squad, coached by Jim Newman. Players will participate in the city Recreational league and will play preliminaries for the varsity home games. Practice sessions are held with and after varsity drills.

A list of this year's CSC bucketeers, their home towns, class and height follows: Ray Anderson, White Lake, junior, 5' 10"; Dick Bechard, Clintonville, sophomore, 5' 8"; Bob Blomley, Ironwood, Mich., sophomore, 6' 4"; Jerry Boldt, Bowler, sophomore, 6' 3"; Bob Bostad, Stevens Point, sophomore, 6' 1"; Pat Buchberger, Marathon, freshman, 6' 2"; Pat Helixon, Marshfield, sophomore, 5' 11"; Ken Roloff, Kaukauna, freshman, 6' 0"; Joe Sanks, Stevens Point, freshman, 5' 11"; Fred Schadewald, Stevens Point, junior, 6' 3"; Mark Schommer, Kaukauna, junior, 6' 2"; Bill Schroeder, Columbus, freshman, 6' 0"; Les Thompson, Tomahawk, sophomore, 6' 3"; and Ken Wasserman, Shawano, freshman, 6' 3".

Competition Rough In Bowling League

The roar of bowling balls and the crash of falling pins were heard again at the Bowling Arcade last Thursday night, November 13, as the bowlers of the Campus league got into full swing. The leading pin-topper for the evening was Dave Kilgas with a 236 single game and a 189 average for the night. After the air had cleared, these bowlers still had the five-highest averages: Dave Kilgas, 189; Bob Ullsperger, 158; Frank Schmidler, 151; Doug Tanner and Jim Wilkinson, 149.

High single series also went to Dave Kilgas, who pegged a 569. Team high single honors went to Alpha Kappa Lambda with an 805, while Old Style and Pepsi Cola tied for team high series with a 2187.

Next week's games will feature a clash between the two top teams of the league, Pepsi Cola and AKL. The winner will gain an undisputed first-place berth.

7 Seniors Get Jacket Awards

Seven seniors from this year's football squad have been named by the S-Club to receive jacket awards for their outstanding play in the inter-scholastic sport. The honored graders are Ollie Andrews, Jack Brandt, Jack Popeck, Marilyn Gilbert, Stan Karis, Ray Mundt, and Bryan Purchatzke.

The S-Club awards a leather-sleeved wool letter-jacket. To qualify for the award, the candidate must be an ardent S-Club member, must have won either three or four letters in one sport, the last monogram to come in his senior year, and must be voted the award by the club's award committee. Jacket awards are given for participation in football, basketball, track, tennis, and golf.

Eighteen Matmen Respond To Call For Wrestlers

Coach John Roberts issued the call for college wrestlers last Thursday, with 18 grapplers responding. Practice sessions have been scheduled for 3:30 p.m.

Thus far, meets have been arranged with Carroll, Ripon and Lawrence, although the dates have not as yet been set. Coach Roberts expects to schedule about six meets to be held throughout the season.

Anyone interested in participating in the mat sport is cordially invited to do so. The squad thus far is especially lacking in lightweights, those ranging from 120 to 135 pounds.

Those who have reported for tutoring are Stan Karis, Don Herrmann, Roger Schneider, Ronald Hunter, Ed Jacobson, Bob Bach, Carl Jurgella, Harold Swanson, Dave Jersey, Don Paulson, John Langton, Dave Ross, Mike Seagraves, Ken Hurlbut, Dave Hurlbut, Jerry Munderloh, Fred Ruhland and Tom Nielson.

CSC's successful football season has come and gone and, where the gridiron sport has left off, the game of basketball takes the limelight. Central Staters won't be able to see the Pointers in action until the eighth of December, however, as the first three games of this year's campaign are being played on foreign courts.

The Pointers will be sporting their new style home uniforms when they take the floor for their home-court debut. The jerseys are tailored along T-shirt lines and are white with dark purple trimmings, including borders, numbers, and the word POINTERS spread in large letters across the front. The trunks are the same as those used last year. The traveling uniforms have also been altered since last year. The jerseys have been re-numbered and also have lettering across the front. The traveling uniforms are black with white trimmings.

The Collegiates have had two outings thus far this season. Last Saturday morning they journeyed to Wisconsin Rapids where they had a scrimmage session with the high school varsity. The team as a whole showed that they can use quite a bit of polish before they will become a hard-to-conquer team, as they fell before the Red Raiders 65-55. Then Monday night the Junior Varsity played host to Weltmans of the city leagues in the preliminary to the Globe Trotter game and lost 59 to 54.

Also new on the basketball scene here is the addition of an assistant manager, Rudy Brychel. Rudy is a freshman from Milwaukee and has been active at his new job since the beginning of practice. Also, Ray Mundt has assumed the duties of equipment manager.

The only noticeable injury on the squad thus far happened during last Friday's scrimmage session when Ray Anderson suddenly found one of his back nerves acting up. Nobody knew how it happened, but Andy was walking around like an aged turtle the rest of the day. Saturday morning everything was cleared up and "Ace" was back to his normal self again. (That's normal?)

Ever play nine holes of golf on a November 15th? That's what four CSC students claimed they did last Saturday! Frank DeGure, Bob Flint, Bob Ullsperger and Lyle Briscoe outdid themselves when they went the rounds in shirtsleeves. No one was willing to submit his post season score, however.

Nubbs Miller Leads Pointers To Final Victory

Central State's mighty football machine, playing the final game of the season, unleashed an untamed offense to run roughshod over the Eau Claire Blueguards, 33-6, at Eau Claire, Saturday, November 1.

This magnificent offense, led by "Nubbs" Miller piled up 487 yards and 21 first downs. Of this total, Miller accounted for 283 yards and four touchdowns as he marched through the undermanned Blueguard defense.

Eau Claire, strangely enough, scored first on a 74 yard explosion right through the middle of the Pointer hard-rock defense. But this was the end of the Eau Claire scoring as CSC bounded back for two T.D.'s in the second period before reading themselves for a last period three touchdown blast.

Point took the ensuing kickoff after the touchdown run by Eau Claire's Ron Buckli and drove 65 yards down the field with Miller going over from the 17. Al Due missed the P.A.T.

A little later Purchatzke recovered an Eau Claire fumble on their 26 and four plays later Miller again tallied on a 15 yard gallop. Due again failed to convert.

The fourth quarter uprising began just after the beginning of the final period. With the ball on the 23, quarterback Bill Schroeder hit Miller on the 18 and the hard-running fullback zig-zagged his way into paydirt. Al Due's try was successful to make the score 19-6.

Halfback Joe Sanks ended an Eau Claire drive on the 28 with a timely interception and returned it to the E.C. 41. Miller climaxed the drive by going eight yards around right end. Due made it 26-6.

Late in the period Davidson picked off an Eau Claire serial and returned it to the Blueguard 10. Two plays later Schroeder hit Purchatzke for the final tally. Due finished the scoring at 33-6.

Pledges' Woes Ended With "Indian Summer"

Pledges' woes were officially ended last Saturday night when the Pan-Hellenic semi-formal dance was held at Deibel Hall union in their honor. Members of the Greek organizations and their guests danced to the music of Russ Nelson's orchestra against a backdrop of Indian summer. Two murals, significant of the theme, adorned the walls of the rooms.

The various dinners held before the dance were a fitting climax to the pledging season.

Psi Beta Psi had its dinner, with an Indian summer theme, at the Sky club. Formal initiation of the pledges was held before the dinner in the Home Economics parlors. The new members are Penelope Bullock, Norma Herrington and Bonnie Lou Kalepp.

Mrs. Eagon Speaks to Group

Mrs. Burdette W. Eagon spoke to the group, after which Delores McLees welcomed the new members and Miss Kalepp responded for the pledges.

Radine McIntee sang "The Indian Love Call." The Psi Beta trio, composed of Nancy Pautz, Beverly Ziebarth and Vivian Schultz, entertained with a few selections. Penelope Bullock was honored as the pledge with the highest grade point average.

Committees for the dinner were as follows: Invitations, chairman, Marlene Zastrow, Mary Ann Panke; decorations, chairman, Janice Thurston, Miss McIntee, Verna Schaefer, Miss McLees; transportation, chairman, Kathryn Allen, Mary Ann Bauer.

Psi Sigma Epsilon welcomed Jim Gosh, John Miller, Jr., Roy Laszewski, Garie Turner, Bob Breese, Bob Konapacky, and Fred Stephanek as new members at their Pan-Hell dinner at the Antlers. Don Pionke was general chairman, while Arlyn Kline was in charge of invitations, and Jerry Bartosz, transportation. John Miller, Jr. received the outstanding pledge award made annually by the Phi Sigs.

Tau Gams Use Theme

Tau Gamma Beta also had an Indian summer air about their dinner held at the Hesser hotel. The theme of the dinner was "Tau Gams are sitting pretty."

Delores Newhall was toastmistress at the event, and she introduced Dorothy Thompson who spoke on behalf of the graduating seniors. Mrs. Gilbert W. Faust, patroness, was the guest speaker. The Tau Gamma trio, Janice Gruen, Nancy Court and Barbara Nelson, sang "A Perfect Day." Ruth Ann Charlesworth sang "Only a Rose," the traditional song sung at Tau Gamma Beta Pan-Hell dinners. Gloria Suckow accompanied the singers.

Kathleen Leahy was general chairwoman for the dinner, while Sylvia Abrahamson was chairman of invitations, assisted by Mary Lund. Joy Lane was decoration chairman, assisted by Janice Gruen and Eleanor Curtis; Mary Pfiffner was in charge of transportation and was aided by Wilam Schmeecle. Delores Newhall was in charge of the program.

Chi Deltas Entertain

Chi Delta Rho entertained their new members at the Country Spa.

Bob Paulson and Dale Rindfleisch were in charge of arrangements for the dinner. Frank DeGuire and Bill Clayton secured the hall and the cloakroom for the dance, and Jerry Boettcher, Bob Ullsperger, Harold Zukowski and DeGuire were in charge of initiation. New members of Chi Delta Rho are Bill Miller, Kelly Douglas, Eric Hedquist and Mark Schommer.

After formal initiation ceremonies, Omega Mu Chi welcomed Cleo Gilbert, Diane Albrightson, Carol Holt, and Dorothy Palmer as new members at a dinner held at the Meadows, where decorations followed a fall theme.

Toastmistress Joyce Pinkerton introduced Mrs. Elizabeth Pfiffner, who spoke to the sorority on "Pledging Ends and Sorority Life Begins". President Barbara Hanson welcomed the new members, and Miss Palmer responded on behalf of the pledges.

Presents Honor Pin

Dorothy Gilbertson presented the sorority's honor pin to Miss Albrightson for her high scholastic achievement. Dorothy wore the pin last semester. Judy Clayton in turn presented her honor pin to the pledge with the next highest average, Miss Holt.

Miss Susan Colman, retired head of the Primary division, was made an honorary member of the sorority.

The Omeg quartet, composed of Carol Corliss, Miss Clayton, Jackie Piehl, and Miss Hanson, entertained with a few songs.

General chairman for the event was Margie Benson. The committees were as follows: Transportation, chairman, Miss Clayton, Joyce Pinkerton, Pat Giese; invitations, Betty Crook; alums, chairman, Joanne Jersey, Carol Corliss, Miss Hanson, Joann Cuff; entertainment, chairman, Sally Connor, Shirley Sonnenberg, Sharon Sutton, Virginia Cable; materials for initiation, Ardis Raath; decorations, chairman, Benita Hold, Sally Scribner, Jackie Piehl, Pegge Pisel, Donna Thompson, Dorothy Gilbertson. Jean Sarbacher and Pat Rickel were in charge of handling finances.

Chi Delta Rho was in charge of securing the hall for the dance, and Phi Sigma Epsilon, the orchestra. The decorations and theme were prepared by Psi Beta Psi. Omega Mu Chi was responsible for inviting chaperons and guests, and Tau Gamma Beta was in charge of tickets and programs.

Around the Circuit

Here we are back on the old circuit with a little chat about the loads of activities on the campus of each one of the state colleges.

During October the students at LaCrosse were privileged to witness a showing of the famous Gimbel Art collection of 1950, which includes 10 canvasses of oil paintings based on tales of common everyday life in the Badger state, all painted by Wisconsin artists.

Eau Claire has good reason to have vest buttons popping this year, as they are the proud owners of a new $1,500,000 four-unit teacher training building. One of the many special features of the building is the "behind-the-scenes" corridor above the classrooms, from which observers can see and hear classroom activities without being observed from the classroom.

Drama seems to be in the air everywhere! At River Falls all freshman group will produce a play having a touch of love, politics and psychology, namely William McCleery's famous comedy, "Good Housekeeping." The Superior State College Players will present the great Broadway musical comedy, "Anything Goes," this semester. And last but not least the Pioneer Players at Platteville will present the three-act comedy by Rudolph Beiser, "The Barretts of Wimpole Street."

Everyone's smiling at Milwaukee State as plans advance for the building of a new library and laboratory training school. It will be the first building construction at the college in more than 20 years.

Whitewater college students participated in a round table discussion on the subject "Children in Today's World and Their Heritage" at the Training School PTA meeting during National Education Week.

And now in closing, here's our thought for the week, courtesy of Floyd Brenholt of the Royal Purple, Whitewater: "Think before you speak — it saves much time and worry."

Now Secretary Starts

A new secretary, Mrs. Vernon E. Plotrowski, better known as Mary Ellen, originally from Brooklyn, New York, has been employed as OSC and is at work in the main office.

Mrs. Plotrowski came to Stevens Point in March after spending 18 months as a member of the Waves at Burlington, Virginia. Before accepting the position at the college, she worked at radio station WSPT. Mrs. Plotrowski received her schooling at Quebec, Canada.
