

High Schools Debate In District Tourney

Wisconsin Rapids with six debate wins, Wausau five, Merrill five, Rhinelander and Marshfield four, were winners in the district debate tournament of the Wisconsin High School Forensic Association held here on February 7. They will compete in the sectional meet to be held here February 14, along with winners at Oshkosh and LaCrosse. Erv Marquardt, coach of forensics at Wausau high school, will be in charge of this meet. A. D. Wickland, superintendent at Nekeosa, will be chairman of the district spring contest.

The sectional winners here on February 14 will participate in a state meet to be held at Madison later. Other results at the district meet were as follows: Stevens Point won three debates, Antigo three, Waupaca two, and Wautoma one.

Mr. Wicklund was chairman of the meet and Leland M. Burroughs was in charge of local arrangements. Judges selected from the CSC faculty were Mr. Burroughs, Robert S. Lewis, Miss Pauline Isaacson, Dr. Frank W. Crow, Dr. Nels O. Reppen, Dr. Clifford A. Morrison, Norman E. Knutzen, Nels R. Kampenga, Herbert R. Steiner, Dr. Roland A. Trytten and Dr. Alf W. Harrer.

Saturday's three round event included drawings and room assignments at 9 o'clock, with the first round at 9:30, followed by a coffee hour from 10:30 to 11 o'clock. The second round began at 11. A noon luncheon was served at Nelson Hall, after which Norman E. Knutzen directed group singing and President William C. Hansen gave an address of welcome to students, judges and visitors. The final round began at 1:30 p.m. and a coffee hour at 2:30 completed the day.

Any Kampenga was general student manager and Dave Silverman was assistant manager. Timekeepers were: Diane Self, Jane Schultz, Gladys Lehman, Mary Bartelt, Belvina Shertfinski, Tom Ruthford, Tom Wirkus, Frank Brocker, Bill Gressel, Dick Ressler, John Soetebeer and Cleo Peterson. Felisa Borja was hostess for the morning coffee hour and Harriet Martin served in the afternoon. Diane Bloom and Lois Schroeder assisted.

Capacity Crowd Enjoys Indian Ceremonial Dances

Last Thursday night, February 5, Reginald and Gladys Laubin presented a program of Indian ceremonial dances to a capacity crowd in the college auditorium. Colorful and authentic costumes and dances provided an evening of entertainment. A story explaining each dance, the rhythmic beat of the drums and the unusual Indian songs added greatly to the effectiveness of the program.

The two dances that will probably be remembered longest by the majority of the audience are the Prairie Chicken Dance in which Mr. Laubin imitated the actions of that bird, and the Hoop Dance which really takes a great deal of skill and agility.

The Laubins also told a story in Indian sign language with one making the signs and the other interpreting the message.

The program was sponsored by the college assembly committee, of which Robert S. Lewis is chairman.

Life-Saving Class To Be Given Here

The American Red Cross Senior Life-Saving and Water-Safety course will be given this semester by Miss Jessiemae Keyser, CSC's women phy. ed. director, and Bill Grode, phy. ed. instructor at P. J. Jacobs High school.

The course will involve 20 hours of work and will be given in the P. J. Jacobs pool. The class will meet twice a week in the evenings. Availability of pool and preference of course members will determine which evenings a week. The first meeting will be at 7 p.m. tonight, February 12, at the pool.

This course is open to any college student (and towns person) who is able to pass the required swimming tests. Those interested should see Miss Keyser immediately. The course does not carry college credit.

Miss Keyser also announces that those who are interested in obtaining a Red Cross instructor's card in both First Aid and Water-Safety should contact her soon.

Boylan Moved from Roost to Classroom

Kenneth W. Boylan at last has been freed from the "scourge of Room 353." After five and one-half years of patiently enduring the trials and hardships of his third floor roost, Mr. Boylan has been awarded a real office and a safer classroom, Room 255, near the auditorium on the second floor.

For the past five and one-half years through extreme heat (from the skylights) and biting cold (it takes a long time for the steam to reach the third floor) Mr. Boylan has taught his math students to the tune of cooing pigeons and musical radiators. Add to this the wholesale occupancy of 353 at the beginning of each semester by the textbook library and you may have some of the reasons for the gray in Mr. Boylan's hair.

Without doubt, though, declares Mr. Boylan, the worst of it was the knocks he received on his head from the rather low, sloping ceiling. Even in five and one-half years he couldn't learn to duck every time.

Needless to say, Mr. Boylan is glad to have an office of his own, and not just a desk in the corner of a classroom. His students also should benefit from the more agreeable climate of 255.

Maybe some day Mr. Boylan will be privileged to join the Pointer staff in the prestige of a first floor office.

Fuzzy Woodchoppers Awarded Prizes at Annual AKL Ball

Beards were the main attraction at the annual Woodchopper's Ball, sponsored by Alpha Kappa Lambda fraternity, and held at the Training school gym on February 2. First prize went to Bill Spaulding on the basis of quantity, quality and length of his beard. Don Wilde received second prize and Phil Ziemann, the third prize. Dr. Bernard F. Wiewel announced that those members of AKL who did not grow beards were to be fined one dollar. Burdette W. Eagon, Fred J. Schmeckle, and Mr. Wiewel acted as judges for the beard-growing contest.

The gym was appropriately trimmed with evergreen trees and boughs, which also served as a background for the mounted wild animals throughout the gym.

Chaperones for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Eagon, Mr. Schmeckle and Mr. and Mrs. Wiewel.

AKL members in charge of decorations were Don Bassler, Dick Hall, Russ Hutter, Bill Kohls, Bob McMahon, Jim Newman, Ranson Rhode, Bill Spaulding, Dean Todd and Don Wilde.

Other committee heads were John Berkahn, orchestra; Royce Wade, dance location; Ranson Rhode, refreshments; Robert Breesse, Parr Eves and Eugene Koehn, advertising.
