

Commencement Plans Set, Hjortland Main Speaker

Rev. Elmer S. Hjortland of the United Evangelical Lutheran church of Oak Park, Illinois, will be the main speaker at the sixty-second annual CSC commencement to be held in the College auditorium on Wednesday, June 6, at 10 a.m.

A string ensemble under the direction of Dr. Hugo D. Marple, will play "Larghetto" from "Concerto Grosso No. 12" by Handel as a pre-occupational.

Rev. Calvin F. Helming of the Evangelical Reformed church of Stevens Point will give the invocation.

Following this, President William C. Hansen will give the charge to the class. Then the "Little Group" will sing two vocal selections: "Lord God Unto Whom Vengeance Belongeth" by Baker, and "Verdant Meadows" by Handel.

After Rev. Hjortland's address, the String Ensemble will play "Eine Kleine Nachtmusik" by Mozart.

President Hansen will confer the degree and present the diplomas to the members of the graduating class, with the candidates being presented to him by the directors of their division. Dr. Quincy Doudna will present the graduates of the Rural and Elementary Divisions, Raymond M. Richtselt, the graduates of the Secondary Division, and Dr. Warren G. Jenkins, the graduates in the College of Letters and Science.

To conclude the program, Rev. Calvin F. Helming will pronounce the benediction and the String Ensemble will play Handel's "Maestoso" as a postlude.

CSC Well Represented In Alice Queen Finals

If next year's Alice in Dairyland isn't a CSC'er, it won't be because she didn't have plenty of chances! Rosalyn Lee, Lodi; Dixie Lee Blom, Bonduel; and Jean Hohenstein, Arkdale, all CSC coeds, are finalists in the Alice in Dairyland princess contest.

Rosalyn, a sophomore in home economics, will represent Region 4 from South Central Wisconsin. Dixie is a freshman in L and S, and will represent Region 12. Jean is a sophomore in L and S, and will represent Region 7.

Faculty Change Announced

President William C. Hansen has announced the resignation of Mrs. Clifford A. Morrison — (the former Miss Miriam Moser). As Miss Moser she came to the college in 1946 as a teacher in the Physical Education department. She received her B.S. from La Crosse State college and her M.S. from the University of Wisconsin. Last Christmas she was married to Dr. Morrison, chairman of the history department at CSC. As yet, President William C. Hansen has not hired any one to take her place in the physical education department.

Outstanding Seniors, Underclassmen Honored For Their Achievements

By Barbara Coburn

Outstanding seniors and underclassmen in the fields of athletics, scholarship, science, mathematics, music, home economics, and others were honored at Central State college, Monday, May 21, at the Awards Day program in the college auditorium at 1:15 p.m.

Earl G. Shawano, was the recipient of the Sigma Tau Delta honor key for outstanding work in creative writing by a senior, awarded by Diana Bloom, Eagle River.

Marlene Strebe, Athens, presented three Women's Recreational association awards — women's basketball tournament champions, Nelson Hall, Eleanor Rostal, Merrill, captain; Miss Rostal and Patricia Sroda, women's badminton tournament champions; and WRA honor pins given to those women who compiled over 900 merit points in WRA activities, Marlene LeMere, Rothschild, and Miss Sroda.

Eugene (Butch) Sorenson, Stevens Point, was named the outstanding underclassman male athlete, and received a trophy presented by Terry Pease, Wycocena, on behalf of the "S" club. The Culver-Rogers award, Sigma Zeta's $25 award for the leading junior science student, was given to Betty Behl, Antigo by Lois Schlottman, Stevens Point.

Jack Crook, Jerry Scheel, Terry Pease, and Dave Harbut, of Wisconsin Rapids, Rothschild, Wycocena, and Neumann, Bancroft; Shirley Oelke, Marathon; Judith Pehike, Wittenberg; Mary Jean Ruminski, Wisconsin Rapids; Joseph Rucinski, Stevens Point; Carol Schmirler, Colby; Joyce Spencer, Waupaca; Constance Stoehr, Gresham; Vernita Sullivan, Friendship; Alvina Whiteside, Athens.

Stevens Point, respectively, having each earned four major letters in two sports, were awarded lettered blankets by Coach Hale Quandt. Mr. Quandt said that Larry Collins, Westfield, had recently broken the school's half-mile track record, and would receive the track shoe charm traditionally given to anyone breaking a school athletic record. He then presented the Goodrich award to the outstanding male athlete of the senior class — Carl Huberty of Lena.

Eileen Schieb, Minocqua, gave the Primary Council scholarship, which goes to a junior girl majoring in primary education, on the basis of scholarship, accomplishment, and need, to Mary Ann Puralowski, Stevens Point. Rosemary Kreidler, Plymouth, was named as runner-up. A music scholarship of $25, for the junior who has made the greatest progress in music at CSC, was awarded to Roland Marsh, Ashland, by Robert Reed, Stevens Point.

Miss Rita Youmans explained that the home economics department had two awards to present this year — the regular annual award and the Wisconsin Home Economics association award. The latter may be conferred by Central State only once every six years, as it travels consecutively to the six Wisconsin schools offering majors in home economics. This award for the outstanding student in home economics was given to Jean Gatzke, Berlin, Nancy Monson, Wausau, received the award given by the CSC home ec department for service to the school and the department.

Tau Gamma Beta's Mrs. Winifred Spindler award, an honor key, was awarded by Lois Schlottman to the junior TGB sorority member who has contributed the most to her school and her sorority, Nelta Nelson, of Larsen. Robert T. Anderson gave the Pointer awards to business manager Ara Sergenian, Madison, and editor-in-chief Jerry Madison, Marshfield.

The Business and Professional Women's Club, which customarily has given a scholarship to a P. J. Jacobs senior who has expressed an interest in the teaching field, changed this policy this year, it was announced by Mrs. Elizabeth Pfiffner. They were so well pleased with the work of the two Central State students who had received these scholarships in the past two years that the group decided to give each girl a $50 award and cancel the scholarship for this year. Recipients were Mary Braatz, 1954 winner, and Bonnie Wochinski, 1955 winner, both of Stevens Point.

Miss Schlottman received the Sigma Zeta award for the senior who contributed the most to the school and the field of science, from Don Christoffersen, Ogema. The senior who contributed the most in the field of music in his four years at CSC was Bob Reed, Stevens Point, announced by Dr. Hugo Marple as he presented the $50 award for excellence in music.

Dr. O. Floyd Nixon, retiring mathematics department head, gave the Joseph Collins award, carrying an honorarium of $25, to Mildred Swendrzynski, Wild Rose, outstanding senior in the mathematics field. Miss Swendrzynski is the second woman in eight winners to receive the award. Dr. Nixon cited her unequalled record of a straight three-point average in mathematics.

Tau Kappa Epsilon's senior scholarship award, given to the senior man with the highest grade point, was awarded to Harold Miller, Greenwood, by Jerry Madison. The Sigma Phi Epsilon honor cup for the senior with the highest scholastic average was presented to Jo Daniel by Jerry Bruss, Louis Knuth, Rock Springs, awarded the Phi Sigma Epsilon leadership award to Jack Crook as the outstanding senior male in leadership, in scholarship and in at least two major extra-curricular activities.

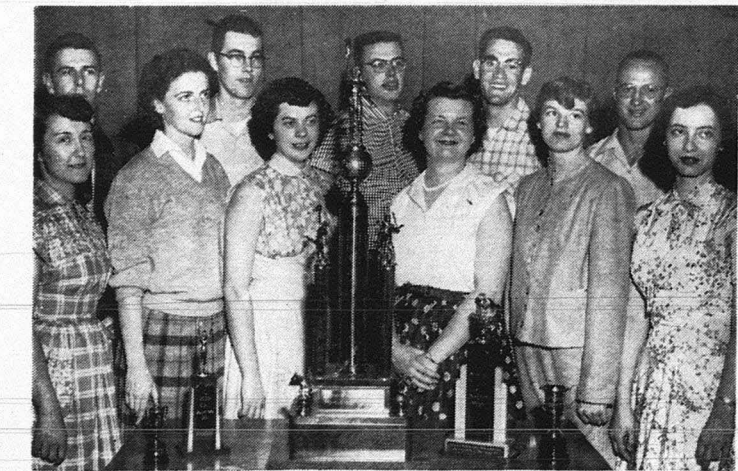

Thirty-two seniors, who have maintained a high scholastic average while being active in extra-curricular activities, were named to the Dean's Honor Roll by John Roberts, Dean of Men and Mrs. Elizabeth Pfiffner, Dean of Women. They are:

Mrs. Pfiffner announced that 12 Stevens Point businessmen have pledged annual $125 scholarships to the May Roach Scholarship fund, and with the many contributions from friends of Miss Roach the committee has been able to award six $75 scholarships as well. Some of the winners were announced today, the rest to be announced before September. The $125 scholarships and recipients were: Boston Furniture Company to Jack Charlesworth, New London; Hardware Mutuals Insurance company, Grace Schulz, Colby; Vetter Manufacturing company, Nancy Hager, Wabeno; Normington's Dry Cleaning, Lois Bartels, Wausau; Point Sporting Goods, Elizabeth Weimann, Iola; Journal Printing company, Margaret Bloom, Rhinelander; Lullaby Furniture company, Tom Farrell, Green Bay.

A Fare-Thee-Well . . .

Well, that time of year has come again when most of the students look back at the nearly completed school year with nostalgia, and the instructors look back with relief.

Seriously, though, we have seen many things accomplished in this past year at CSC, and also many things planned for the following year. The great accomplishment was the fact that we were able to get out 16 (count 'em) issues of this publication without too many mishaps.

For this endeavor we have several people to thank, but, as we know, the many workers and lack of space limits us to a general showing of gratitude.

To our faculty editorial adviser, Miss Glennon, we offer our thanks for another fine year in the job of Pointer adviser, also to Mr. Anderson, who's still trying to balance our books, and to Mr. Specht, to President Hansen and Mrs. Elizabeth Pfiffner for their unflinching cooperation, to Wozralza's, who often wondered how we could cut so much out after they'd set up the type, and to all of the members of this Pointer staff for their help.

We only too well realize the Pointer shortcomings of the past year, but we are optimistic, and using the Dodgers' famous battle cry (which finally paid off in 1955), we say, "Wait 'til next year!" J. M. M.

Faculty Familiar Face

By Mary Jo Bugas

Miss Cecilia Winkler spent her childhood on a farm near Plainfield, Wisconsin. Her memories of this early life are of busy, happy days. She attended a rural school near Plainfield and later, Plainfield High school.

After high school Miss Winkler journeyed here to Stevens Point and took the rural education course at CSC. After completing the four year course, she taught in various rural and state graded schools. The County Normal at Wautoma was the next stop. After that, she became principal of the graded school at Beaver Dam.

Five years ago Miss Winkler returned to Stevens Point and CSC. She now teaches the intermediate rural grades at the Campus School. She says, "I liked it so much here I just had to come back."

Miss Winkler's greatest enjoyment comes from teaching, but she is also enthusiastic about bowling and golfing. Quieter pleasures like knitting and crocheting interest her too. The students traveled by chartered plane to South America. The tour included stops in Honduras, British Honduras, Bolivia, Columbia, Ecuador, Peru and Brazil.

On August 31, Miss Winkler landed at the Rio, Brazil, Airport. On that day also President Getulio Vargas resigned his post and later in the day shot himself. Miss Winkler found herself in the midst of the ensuing riots. She was forced to take a taxi from the airport to her hotel and during the height of the frenzy. Fearful that the angry mobs of people would turn their wrath on the cab in which she rode, Miss Winkler felt that that ride took longer than the 14,650 miles the rest of the tour covered.

Miss Winkler has always returned to CSC from her journeys. Let us hope that, even after her marriage, CSC keeps her for a long time to come.

"Congratulations And Best Wishes, Seniors"

To you who are graduating next month, I want to extend my personal congratulations on your achievement to date, and my best wishes for your continued success. Your job next year will be somewhat different from what you have been doing the past four years, but there will be many elements of similarity. Success in that job will depend on good work habits, acceptable attitudes, sensitive understandings and appreciations, and in the quality of offerings and colleagues and community just as it has to a lesser extent, perhaps, here on the campus.

We want to be proud of you as a graduate of this college and we want to do all in our power to merit your pride in this college. As you return to the campus from time to time we hope to amaze you with the improvement in our new and better facilities. As we grow in enrollment and facilities we hope to grow also in quality of the quality of offerings and opportunities for our students. Again, our best wishes to you.

Wm. C. Hansen, President

New Faces To Appear On Next Fall's Faculty

Next fall at CSC will bring in several new faculty members, as well as the usual round of classes, clubs, and opening week excitement. Already hired by President William C. Hansen are Eugene N. Brodhagen, Axel E. Hansen, T. K. Chang, Clyde W. Hibbs, Orville M. Rice, and Orland E. Radke, and others will be appointed later.

Mr. Brodhagen will be filling the position in Men's Physical Education which Phil W. Reuschlein held this year. Mr. Reuschlein has resigned and will teach next year at Western Michigan college high school at Kalamazoo. Mr. Brodhagen, originally from Bonduel, Wisconsin, is presently teaching at the State Teachers college at Winona, Minnesota. Prior to that he taught for one year at Grinnell college (Grinnell, Iowa) and two years in the Phillips High school, Phillips, Wisconsin. He received his Master's degree from the University of Wisconsin, and did some graduate work beyond that at the University of Minnesota. He is married and has one child.

Mr. Chang, who was born in Canton, China, will be filling the Geography position which was taught during the past semester by Richard Carter and Miss Leah Diehl. Mr. Chang brings an international flavor to the college faculty, for he received his A.B. and M.A. degree from Chinese universities but is an American citizen himself. He has done graduate work at the Universities of Nebraska and California. At present he is teaching at Carroll college, Waukesha, Wisconsin. Previously he taught at the University of Oklahoma and Nebraska.

Mr. Chang is married and has two daughters and one son. All were born in this country and are American citizens. He will be on the summer school staff preceding his regular assignment for next fall.

New man in the Conservation Department is Clyde W. Hibbs, originally from Independence, West Virginia. He received his B.S. and M.S. degree from the University of West Virginia, and his M.A. from the University of Michigan, where he is now completing work for his Ph.D.

Mr. Hibbs is not teaching now, but is a Soils Conservationist and Farm Planner at Ann Arbor, Michigan. Prior to this he taught eight years at Ravenwood, West Virginia, High school. He is married and has no children.

Coming to CSC as a member of the Mathematics department is Orville M. Rice. Originally from Toledo, Illinois, he got his B.E. at Eastern State college at Charleston, Illinois, and his M.S. at the University of Illinois. At present he is teaching at the Junior College at Flat River, Missouri, where he has been for four years. Previously he taught high school in Martinsville and Blue Mound, Illinois for four years. Mr. Rice is married and has three children.

Taking the position now held by Mrs. Marjorie Pfiffner and prior to that by Burton R. Pierce at the Campus school Junior High will be Orland E. Radke. Originally from Montello, Wisconsin, he is presently Principal of Sturgeon Bay High school, where he has been four years. Before this he taught in high schools at Antigo, Edgar, and Centuria, Wisconsin.

Mr. Radke received his Bachelor's degree from Central State college, and his Master's from the University of Wisconsin. He is married to the former Marjorie Stimm, who is also a graduate of CSC. They have three children.

Taking the place of Raymond E. Specht in the geography department while Mr. Specht is doing graduate work at Northwestern University next year will be Axel E. Hansen of North Dakota.

Mr. Hansen received his bachelor's degree from the University of North Dakota and his master's degree from the University of Wisconsin. He has done a year of graduate work in geography. His teaching experience has included two years in Henderson State Teachers college at Arkadelphia, Arkansas, and this past year at Eau Claire State college.

Mr. Hansen is married and has one daughter.

Richard Sroda Is Winner Of Camera Scholarship

Dick Sroda, freshman from Amherst at CSC, has been selected as the winner of a two-year scholarship at Brooks Institute of Photography, Santa Barbara, California. He was the winner in the US Camera magazine's teen photo group scholarship contest. A letter from Ed Hannigan, editor of the magazine, told Dick of his award, which was the only prize offered in the contest.

The scholarship, valued at $1800, was won in competition in the US Camera Teen-Age Photo group, a club of 13-19-year-old photo enthusiasts sponsored by the magazine. The selection was made on the basis of an essay and a portfolio of 10 pictures submitted to the magazine.

Dick has been a photography fan for many years. He is News Service photographer for CSC and has worked part time for the Stevens Point Journal, particularly covering photo assignments in the Amherst area. Other feats of his include winning more than 30 photography contests, being photographer for the Amherst High school year book before his graduation, and developing and processing his own pictures in a well-equipped home darkroom.

Dick will start school there next fall.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

What has happened to the intramural program at CSC? Probably some freshmen and new students don't even know that we have one. There is very little ever said about the scant program that is offered.

An intramural program should be set up to provide recreation for all the students. For those who are no longer in gym classes, there is very little offered at CSC in the line of recreation. For example there isn't a touch football program in the fall, the basketball season is run on a tournament basis so after two games many teams are eliminated, and that compromises their recreation for that season. In the spring the softball season starts with only two weeks left to go. This means that another elimination tournament must be set up and this late in the year some teams will probably play only one game. No wonder some fellow get don't even know that we have so little offered. The question is who is to blame?

As I understand, the intramural program is in the hands of Coach Quandt. But let's not put the blame on him. Besides being athletic director he assists in football in the fall, coaches basketball in the winter, and baseball in the spring. I'm sure we all agree that he doesn't have the time to put in on a good intramural program, and I don't blame him.

But why couldn't some student be paid to run such a program all year? Things would get done then and all boys would have a chance to participate. Money of course would be a problem, but if we can afford $15 for a new student union, "which we need like a hole in the head," then maybe the State Board of Regents can charge us a dollar more for something useful.

Tom "Tiger" Tate

Colby, Wis.

Dear Editor:

This letter comes to tell you my sincere appreciation to you and the entire Pointer staff for keeping me "close in touch" with CSC while I was away this year.

I've missed the friendly atmosphere of our college, the work, the activities . . . and though unable to participate as I had the past three years, I always felt at home when another anticipated issue of the Pointer reached me.

During these six months of convalescence I have recovered miraculously from the spinal fusion. Presently I am employed at the local Attorneys-at-Law until the beginning of the '56-'57 school term. I am looking forward to being back next year, and once again extend a hearty "Thank You" to all who've made these months pass quickly and happily.

With sincere regards,
Grace Schulz

Long Career at CSC of Dr. Nixon Terminates at End Of School Year

By Mary Braatz

One of CSC's long time and well known faculty members ends his teaching career this June, when Dr. O. Floyd Nixon retires as chairman of the mathematics department. Dr. Nixon has spent the last 19 years at CSC.

A native of Ohio, Dr. Nixon moved to Indiana while still a teen-ager. High school days were spent in Russiaville, Indiana. He received his B.A. from Indiana University in 1914, his M. A. from the University of Chicago in 1922, and his Ph. D. from Ohio State University in 1932.

The more than 40 years of teaching which Dr. Nixon can lay claim to began in an elementary school near Kokomo, Indiana, before he graduated from college. High school teaching in Iowa and Green Bay kept him busy until 1930. At that time, he went to Ohio State in order to work on his Ph. D. He remained there until 1934, and spent the three years after that supervising education at a federal institute for young first offenders at Chillicothe, Ohio.

Back in the 1920's, Dr. Nixon had taught during the summer session at Whitewater State college. Frank S. Hyer had headed Whitewater at that time, and was now president of CSC. When Dr. Joseph V. Collins retired as chairman of the mathematics department, he invited Dr. Nixon to assume the post. Thus began a long career at CSC.

One of Dr. Nixon's things to be proud of is his family. Married to the former Vesta Tharp in 1918 ("She was a wonderful woman," Dr. Nixon remarked) he became father to two boys, Robert and Floyd (Babe). Both sons graduated from Central State and Robert went on to West Point. Babe served with the marines during World War II and then went on to Ohio State, where he obtained his master of science degree in electrical engineering. At present, Babe is with the Glenn L. Martin Aircraft company in Baltimore. He is the author of a book, "Principles of Automatic Controls," which is becoming the standard textbook in this field.

Bob has made a career of the army, and is currently a major, stationed at Ft. Belvoir, Virginia.

Since his wife's death in 1953, Dr. Nixon has lived alone at his home at 1000 Clark street. After his retirement, he plans to move to Baltimore so he can be near his sons. He will either buy a small home there or rent an apartment.

As for leaving CSC, Dr. Nixon commented that a poet once said we never do a thing for the last time consciously, without a feeling of sadness. Still, he admits to looking forward to the free time, recollecting a summer vacation two years ago when he wished he could have had a few more weeks before school started. He said, "I'll miss my work with the students — my students have been good, and it's been a delight to work with them."

Looking back over his years of teaching, Dr. Nixon recalled many experiences which have meant a great deal to him. One which stood out, especially for the humor involved, was a letter written to him by an older woman in his calculus class. She had gotten a "D" the first semester, but was back the second semester anyway. About final examination time she handed in a special letter to Dr. Nixon which read as follows:

"It would be a deep pleasure for me some day to have really learned enough math to come back and demonstrate to you that I'm a fairly smart woman. I never had the difficulty some people have when they say 'Calculus makes no sense to me.' It does make infinite sense but I'm blessed if I can get the gears to mesh so I can grind out the answers."

To Dr. Nixon, the young people of the world have always been things of wonder. "Each one thinks the world is made for him," he said. "When you think of the solar systems, the beauty and size of the universe, you know a teacher must teach the supreme, reverent, generous, good things."

There is one bit of writing which Dr. Nixon especially remembers. It is a very worth-while piece of advice and inspiration to both students and teachers. "In this life we see not the end of human actions. Their influence never dies. In ever-widening circles they extend beyond the grave. . . . We touch not a wire but vibrate in eternity. We think not a thought but reports at the throne of God. . . . Let youth especially think of these things and let everyone remember that in this life it is a serious thing to think, to speak, to act."

Closing a wonderful career such as Dr. Nixon has had should be a proud moment in his life. The many thoughts and inspirations which his teachings and affection have placed in the minds of students will truly "vibrate in eternity." In memory of all he has done for us, we of CSC wish that his future days may contain all the happiness he deserves.

There Will Be A Familiar Face Missing When May Roach Starts Retirement

By Joyce Spencer

On June 6, 1956, after the degrees are handed out, and the curtain has dropped on the current school year, someone, who is almost a tradition in the halls and the history of CSC, will be closing the door of her third floor office, and entering her little red Chev for the last time as a member of the CSC faculty. Miss May Roach, after a half-century of teaching, begins her leisure years as an ex-school-ma'am on that day.

It was in 1917, while she was serving as principal at Cable, that President John F. Sims was attracted to her work, not only as a teacher, but also as a civic improver. An attractive community park was made out of an unsightly railroad right-of-way, largely through the efforts of Miss Roach and her students. Other improvements followed, including the installation and maintenance of kerosene lights outside public buildings, and these, combined with unusual teaching ability, won her a position as supervisor of the Rural Demonstration school. Later she became a member of the faculty, working with Oscar W. Neale in the rural division.

One of the treasured souvenirs that Miss Roach will take with her to her home in Eau Claire, is the big, roll-top, cherry desk that was used by President Sims during his association with the college.

As a student, Miss Roach amassed a multitude of memories. Throughout the years she has cherished the friends she made among the faculty during her own college years. Aside from the opportunities afforded for an education, she says that much of her learning was "caught, rather than taught," and that a pleasant student-faculty relationship helps the student to grow. Her years as a faculty member have been equally rewarding, for she feels that she has grown much from her contact with students over the years.

It was the school year 1909-10, when Miss Roach was a student here, that students and faculty arriving at school one bright morning were amazed and mystified at the sight of the senior class flag gently waving in the breeze from the staff atop the dome of the center building. To any curious member of that year's school enrollment, the Pointer can only say, "Ask Miss Roach. She knows more than she tells."

As Miss Roach leaves the school she made no definite plans, but says that she is not going to sit down and reflect, or stop and look back. There is a danger in reflection, and memories are grand, but not to live on, for there are new memories to be made every day.

A full life has been hers, and she has learned through the years that at each period of life there have been things to be enjoyed. Many students have learned what it means to be a good teacher from Miss Roach, and the sphere of her influence widens from year to year as students of her former students enroll in college to learn to be teachers.

After half a century of teaching and 42 years as a member of the CSC family, it is not to be wondered she looks forward to retirement with just a bit of reluctant eagerness. Bodies get tired, especially after years of climbing to third floor every day, but spirits, like those of Miss Roach, remain young forever. To those students who look forward each new year to seeing Miss Roach, and to the alumni who eagerly climb to third floor for a visit, there will be a void that will be difficult to fill. We can echo the words of the little grandmother who said regretfully, "Life will be different in Stevens Point with Miss Roach gone."

From May Roach

God Bless You Forever

"God bless you in sleeping,
God bless you in waking,
God bless you at eve
And when gray dawn is breaking,
God bless you in gladness,
God bless you in sorrow,
God bless you today
And God bless you tomorrow,
God bless all your hopings,
Each deed and endeavor,
God bless you this moment,
God bless you forever."

— Brian O'Higgins

If it were possible to do what would give me greatest satisfaction at this time, I would express individually my deep appreciation to each person in my beloved "Central State" family for what has been done to make this a joyous and memorable year. I know such things don't "just happen", but result from thinking, planning, and working hard co-operatively.

The Pointer has graciously given me this opportunity to say "Thank you" to each and every one of you and wish you real success always.

May 1956

Thank You

Ray Lepak wishes to thank the students and organizations whose contributions helped to buy him a tape recorder and tapes. The tape recorder has been a great help to Ray.

Worn Stairs (A Senior Remembers)

By Jo Daniel

I guess each student picks out his own symbol of college, his own little CSC tower. Mine are the stairs leading up from the East Entrance, those polished hollows which we wear a little smoother each year.

Some times it's a tired, slow walk as we trudge up and down; after an IHIS deadline which lasted until four a.m. and cost the state one pound of coffee . . . the last f v days before vacations when everyone is just hanging on . . . the mornings after bowling or roller skating when each step is an agony in horse liniment . . . Homecoming floats finished at Nowak's . . . spring parties in the park.

And the footprints which were pounded down in anger and frustration: A jinxed class schedule which just won't unspool . . . the fitness of Dr. Jenkins which confuses all comers in debates you know you should have won . . . the stone wall of the administrator's NO . . . the hopeless struggle to temper the enthusiasm for expansion . . . the exam answers you remember as soon as you left the room.

All this is over-shadowed by the crazy runnings around only college kids can endure. The staccato rhythm of a Charlie Chaplin tragedy . . . lugging posters for Queens, sales and student productions . . . racing to get to a class after a quick cigarette . . . the rush to see the committee chairman on the day of the dance and no chaperons lined up . . . meetings . . . getting to the Bookstore so Jerry can get to class . . . the rush to the teach attempt to catch the deadline in meetings . . . a frenzied plea for student mailboxes.

The footsteps of others mingled with my own: Some of them special . . . like a Dr. Smith or a Dr. Dixon . . . pros who catch and pass on the real joy of college . . . four years in which we are free to experience the thrill of studying . . . if only I had seen it earlier . . . the unheeded lament of every senior.

But most of all when it's your last few days, the footsteps you remember are the relaxed ones going over to the Eat Shop . . . strolling along talking to a casual friend . . . the quiet echoes through the halls as you leave the building after a Saturday session in the Photo Lab . . . all the while trying to forget that you must leave CSC behind . . . yet anxious to get going . . . to see new places . . . meet new challenges.

CSC Coeds Present At WACE Convention

"Teachers Look at Children's Goals and Values" was the theme of the annual convention of the Wisconsin Association for Childhood Education at Green Lake last Saturday, May 19. Eight girls from Primary Council attended. They were Patricia Menzel, Bernice Hahn, Nancy Bird, Gloria Garfield, Eileen Schieb, Marie Doro, Rita Lepinski and Margaret Whiting. Miss Gladys Van Arsdale and Mrs. Phyllis Ravey accompanied the group from CSC. After registration in the morning, a noon luncheon was followed by reports. Then the girls could choose between three afternoon workshops, in music, art, or reading. At least one girl went to each group.

CSC Alumni Association Announces Plans

Mrs. Marjorie Kerst, executive secretary of CSC's Alumni association, has announced the association's plans for the coming year. Most of them especially concern the graduating seniors, who are urged to become members of the association. In order to become members of the association, graduates can obtain membership cards from Mrs. Kerst, fill them out, and submit them to her along with a $1.00 fee.

Becoming a member of the Alumni association enables the senior to receive four issues of the "Alum News Bulletin" and a year's subscription to the Pointer. It also means that when Teacher Convention time at Milwaukee comes next fall, the alumni will meet for an open house and luncheon at Hotel Schroeder. And "Homecoming" will be a real "Home" coming to the alumni returning to CSC.

Just before the graduation rehearsal on the afternoon of June 5, the Alumni association will sponsor a coffee hour for the graduates in the Home Economics parlors.

Over The Fence

By Nancy Hager

Dear Mom. This is my final letter before school ends. Just wanted to let you in on a few of the events that have taken up the time that I might have used studying.

School started off with a bang — Homecoming. A bunch of people put up a couple of girls for something or other and somebody won. Boy, have I got the pictures! Somebody collected some trash and threw a match on it and then a crowd marched down an alley yelling. I didn't feel like walking so I roasted marshmallows. They had a ball game one day, soccer or something — I heard we won — that was the week-end. I was home painting my motorcycle.

November was a lot of fun. I met a girl and went duck hunting. I got five ducks and the girl started going steady with my roommate. After Thanksgiving everyone was thinking of Christmas — I was too — in fact, I flunked three tests because I stayed up so late getting in the spirit of things. But I knew you wouldn't be mad after I gave you the present I made in art class. Have you ever used that paper bird whistle?

My finals weren't too bad but I guess my class discussion wasn't very good. I don't feel too bad though as the guy that sits next to me in English got all D's. I didn't let it get me down though. The next week I went out every night — three times, two parties and one party. In January a girl called me up and asked me to a dance. I went! How are your tomatoes, did they freeze? I went to a basketball game. I had the best seat in the gym — on the edge of the rebound board. I answered a cheer and someone hoisted me on his shoulders and carried me around the floor. I didn't do it again.

I got an invitation to go to a Greek party. I didn't get asked again. I guess they didn't like my green toga.

So as you see, Mom, things have been very busy for me. Besides all of this, I've joined a discussion club that meets at Rudolph's and that takes most of my time. Send me your toothbrush, motorcycle, and $3.42 for my library fine. Must close now and start my term paper.

Your loving son

A couple who will take their finals on June 2 (final tests) are Bob Fuller and Elaine Dallman.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Rindfleisch of Abbottsford became the parents of a baby boy, David Dale, May 3. Mrs. Rindfleisch is the former Shirley Sonnenberg, Pointer editor in 1953-1954.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard W. Taylor are the parents of a baby boy, Stephen Bentley, born Thursday, May 17. The Taylors also have two other boys.

Gee, that's swell! Dave Jersey and Gail Gee recently became engaged.

Engaged: Marlene Aschbrenner and Dorain Thurs. Wedding: August 11, 1956 at Wausau.

The girls at 742 Center Street would like to thank Han Young Kim for helping them fix a flat tire Thursday night.

This is the friendly idiot signing off for another year and wishing you a hot and happy summer. Like that drip said to the soap suds, "Good-by, Mr. Chips".

Cotton Picking Swirl Held

High-kicking can-can girls, champagne glasses and a false ceiling of red and white streamers decorated the Campus school gym for the Tau Gamma Beta Cotton Swirl on Friday, May 18. Dancing started at 7:30 and the Tau Gams presented their annual floor show.

The Parisian atmosphere of the "Cafe Patee" provided a fine background for "the Poodle-cuts", "Eartha Kitt", "The Moulin rouge Girls" and a stray Sig Ep who was "Standing on the corner, watching all the girls go by". These are only a few of the acts with which the girls entertained the large crowd that gathered.

Refreshments were served and dancing continued until 12. Pat Reading and Sue Monroe were co-chairmen of the event. Nancy Hager was "puppet of ceremonies".

Roach and Nixon Tea Very Well Attended

Between 150 and 200 people attended the Student Council tea held in honor of Miss May Roach and Dr. O. Floyd Nixon at the Student Union between 3 and 5 p.m. on May 15. Miss Roach was presented a corsage. Dr. Nixon was given a boutonniere, and Raymond E. Specht, who is taking a leave of absence next year, was given the azalea plant used as a center-piece on the main table. In charge of arrangements for the tea were Arlene Golomski, Mildred Swendzynski, Jean Gatzke, Donna Wagner, and Monica Wodlarski.

Conservationists Plan Many Summer Activities

By Dave Kubach. Although the regular school year will end on June 4, the work will be just beginning for some of the conservation students and the faculty of CSC's conservation program. The Trees for Tomorrow camp at Eagle River will be in session as usual; Dr. Walter Sylvester's summer camp at Peninsula State Park and Devil's Lake is going to be repeated for the second year; and a new practice teaching project in co-operation with P. J. Jacobs High school will be originated this summer.

P. J. Jacobs High school of Stevens Point will be the second school in the state to offer a summer program in conservation to their students. Seven CSC conservation students will work with the high school students in a teaching capacity for which they will receive education credits. The principal activity for the voluntary conservation course will be stream improvement on either the North Branch of the Ten Mile Creek in Portage county or the Little Plover River. During the summer the high school students will also come in contact with other phases of conservation such as soil and watershed management. On days when the weather is unfavorable for outside work, some excellent conservation movies will be shown to the high school students.

For the second year, Dr. Sylvester will lead a group of 15 men on a trip to Peninsula State Park and Devil's Lake where they will work in the field with men from the conservation department. The men receive six credits for the summer session. They are paid for their work at these two places and this covers their expenses for the time they attend the summer camp.

From June 11, until June 27, the camp will be at Peninsula State Park where the men will work on control projects geared to halt the increase of the Lamprey eel. The men will also work with entomologists from the University of Wisconsin, besides taking part in numerous other projects concerned with conservation.

Devil's Lake will be the site of the summer session from June 28 until July 14. There the men will study white pine blister rust control in cooperation with the U. S. Forest Service. Work will also be done in the line of soil conservation measures.

The men, who at this time are planning definitely on taking part in this summer camp, are Don Kehi, Roger Worlund, Bob Searles, John Farrell, John Green, Phil Lukowicz, Jim Van Duser, Bob Slamka, Herb Post, Dave Schneckberg, Chuck Wightman, and John Plenke. Mrs. Sylvester and Mrs. Herb Post will handle

Six CSC Home Ec Students To Attend AHEA Meeting

Six of CSC's senior Home Economics students are planning to attend the forty-seventh annual AHEA meeting to be held at the National Guard Armory, Washington, D. C., from June 26 to 29. The girls going are Rosemary Axtell, Carol Fabich, Kathy Holicky, Lois Schroeder and Anne Weisbrodt.

AHEA means American Home Economics association. It is the professional organization for home economics people and is active all over the nation.

While in Washington, the girls will take a tour of the nation's capital and also enjoy a boat trip to Mt. Vernon. Professional tours will be taken through the National Housing Center in Washington, Clinical Center of the National Institutes of Health, Public Health Service at Bethesda, Maryland; National Institute of Drycleaning at Silver Spring, Maryland, and the Agricultural Research Center in Beltsville, Maryland.

The conventioners will also see Danny Kaye and the All-Star International Show at the Carter Barron Amphitheater.

At the annual meeting, plans will be made for next year's AHEA program and subject pertinent to Home Economics will be covered by speech and discussion.

"Go West Young Man" Thar's Work Thar!

With the advent of summer and the end of school most of CSC's students are either applying for jobs or thinking of ways of avoiding them. Some of the Conservation students have decided to take Horace Greeley's advice and go westward for their summer's work.

Right now it would seem that the Flathead National Forest in Northern Montana will look like a transplanted CSC. At the present time at least five men have applied for jobs and received them in the Flathead National Forest. The men will be stationed at the Big Creek Ranger Station about 20 miles north of Columbia Falls, Montana, along the North Fork of the Flathead River.

Those making this expedition from CSC are Chuck Knight, Jack Franston, Tom Vander Velde, Dud Zimmerman and this reporter.

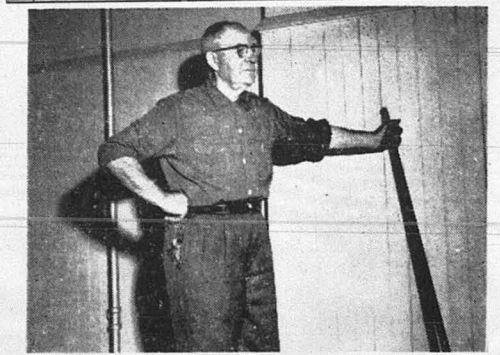

The work in the National Forest will probably consist of brush clearing, trail maintenance and any other labor that will not require too much skill. Most of the men will probably be suffering from mental fatigue come summer.

As the Flathead National Forest borders the Glacier National Park, the men will be laboring in an exceedingly beautiful area of mountains, forests, lakes and streams.

On their days off, the summertime foresters will hike, take pictures and sample some of the best trout fishing to be found on the continent. This reporter, for one, would like to sample the fishing around 40 hours a week.

the cooking chores for the duration of the summer session.

The Trees for Tomorrow Camp at Eagle River will be in session from July 17 until July 25. A record number of students wishing to receive extra education credits in conservation are expected to take advantage of the summer courses offered there at Eagle River.

John Rasmussen, one of CSC's two retiring janitors, this year, is shown "taking it easy" for a while before continuing his tasks. Pretty soon he'll be taking it easy — full time!

CWA Banquet To Honor Graduates

Hats off to the seniors! The senior women will be guests of CWA, the college women's association, at a dinner in the Coral Room of the St. George Hotel, on Sunday, May 27, at 5:30 p.m.

Omegs And Phi Sigs Hold Annual Picnic

The Omegs and Phi Sigs held their annual picnic and softball game on Tuesday, May 22, at Iverson Park. The traditional softball game was won by the girls. Victory by the girls is almost as traditional as the game itself. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard F. Wiewel and Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Runke chaperoned.

A week earlier, on May 15, the Omegs were entertained at a picnic supper given by the Omeg Alumnae who live in the Stevens Point area. After the supper, card games were played with travelling prizes being awarded to the winners. Mrs. Mary Samter, Mrs. Phyllis Ravey, and Miss Bertha Glennon were guests. Mrs. Richard Berndt is president of the alumnae group.

Campus School Musicians Schedule Concert Monday

Music groups from the Campus school will perform in the College auditorium on Monday, May 28, at 8 p.m. The 22 member orchestra and the 13 members of the Campus School String Ensemble will select their program from the numbers presented in a concert last Friday at Biron and Children's Choice schools near Wisconsin Rapids. The groups are under the direction of Joseph B. Henry.

The Grade School Choir, under the direction of Miss Patricia Reilly, will present "A Heritage of Song." Their program will include "To Music," Schubert; "When 'Ere You Walk," Handel; "Cowboy's Meditation" and "Cindy," American Folk Songs; "Cradle Song," Mozart; "Brooklet," Schubert; "Lady Moon," Loomis; "The Cuckoo Cries," Moller; and "The Trout," Schubert.

They assisted in installing waterfront facilities, and in preparing and repairing the camp for the coming summer season. A. P. O. has served the Library Concert committee this semester by offering technical and publicity help with the Music Listening Program.

Man Shortage Is Quite Evident On Field Trip

By Joyce Spencer

Seldom in the past few years has a "man shortage" affected a college class, as any timid coed, confronted by a sea of masculine faces on the first day of class, will testify. However this unique situation has finally developed in Robert S. Lewis' summer session geography field trip. So far, with summer school just around the corner, there is just one man, Joe Hill, to entertain the course. Twenty-one women will make the trip.

A fabulous way to go to school would be an apt description of the trip. The class will leave CSC on June 17 in a chartered Greyhound bus driven by Justin Beebe of Stevens Point. For 20 days, over 4,500 miles, the class will travel through the West.

Plans have now been completed, and the class will visit the Black Hills, Salt Lake City, Yellowstone and Glacier National Parks, Win- nipeg, and many other interesting spots of historic or scenic interest. The Passion Play at Spearfish, S. Dak. in the Black Hills, will be seen on June 19. Presented in a natural outdoor amphitheater, the play becomes a never-to-be-forgotten experience for all who see it. A visit to the southern area of the Black Hills has been planned for June 20, where they will visit the Rushmore Memorial, Custer State Park, and the spectacular Needles Highway. A special sightseeing bus has been hired for the Black Hills tours because the roads are too narrow for safe travel with a Greyhound.

Arrangements are being made with the park service for rangers to act as guides through both of the national parks. This will aid the group in visiting the more interesting and scenic spots of the parks with a minimum loss of time.

Since the bus will accommodate 26 students there are still four openings that can be filled. The cost of the trip will be $195.00, plus the $40.00 tuition fee, and will include transportation, room rent, insurance, and the cost of side trips and entry fees. Meals will be extra, along with souvenirs and other sundry small expenses, such as sun burn lotion.

Mr. Lewis now has a sign up, saying, "Man Wanted," and anyone wanting fun, travel, and education would enjoy the trip very much.

"Springtime" Is Theme Of Tau Gamma Beta Tea

Sunday, May 20, Tau Gamma Beta held an annual tea in honor of their parents and advisers, Miss Cecilia Winkler and Mrs. Marjorie Kerst, at the Student Union. Large blue letters on one wall spelled out the "Springtime" theme and were encircled with colorful butterflies and pink daisies. A large piece of painted pink driftwood was placed in the center of the table which was covered with multicolored daisies and was surrounded with stiff pink and blue net.

Trees decorated with colored paper blossoms stood in each corner and on the tea tables and adorned with a bouquet of daisies also enveloped in pink and blue lace. The guests were greeted with tiny yellow butterflies as favors and the actives were pinned with replicas of little blue sprinkling cans.

A dessert and coffee was served while all were entertained. "Hi, Li Lo" was interpreted by a group consisting of Marcie Kalski, Elaine Eskritt, Pauline Ainsworth, and Mary Lou Bablitch. Then the sorority "Poodle Cat quartet" sang "The Great Pretender" and "Je Vous Aime Beaucoup." They were accompanied by Lolly Schlack.

The chairmen of the committees were: Invitations, Ann Welsbrot; food, Donna Trickey; entertainment, Sue Monroe and Pat Reading; favors, Lois Schlottman; decorations, Joyce Schlottman.

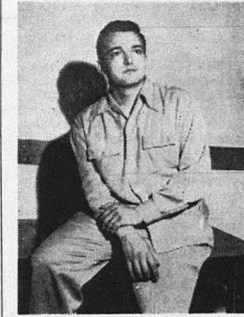

The Stratton Story - Athletics, West Point, Hard Work, And Central State

By Russ Gardner

Everyone's seen that genial pleasant-faced janitor at the Library. Not many know, though, that Larry Stratton has probably one of the most interesting stories of any student going to the 10 state colleges at the present time.

About 10 years ago, Larry graduated from Spaulding High School in Barre, Vermont, after having been active in the various sports, and in the upper ninth of his class scholastically. Immediately, he started trying to get an appointment to West Point. He was successful and began to save up enough money to go there.

Because he was short some science and mathematics credits, however, he went for a time to Vermont Junior college to make these up. In one of the first football games of the year, he had an accident, a smashed knee. This crippled him for over a year, and, of course, lost him his appointment. Finally he had an operation which took every cent of the $800 that he had saved up.

So, after recuperating, Larry started working again and received a combination scholarship and athletic scholarship to Adams State Teachers college in Alamosa, Colorado. His knee was hurt again and so he lost the scholarship. Because he was then heavily in debt, he went to Los Alamos, New Mexico, where he was an inspector in construction.

In 1950, Larry married Ernestine Garcia from Alamosa, back in Colorado. Moving back to this state, he became advertising manager on a daily newspaper. He did well on that job, enlarging the classified advertising from two columns to two pages. But he couldn't advance without a college degree so he became quite interested in CSC through the late dean of Men, Herbert R. Steiner. Mr. Steiner painted a nice picture, so before long the Strattons were on their way to CSC.

Just as the family of three, at that time, was on the way, Mr. Steiner sent a letter telling them that accommodations could not be made. They were on their way, though, so it was too late.

Unable to pay his tuition right away, Larry started school here in the fall without a steady job. He did odd jobs of all sorts until about a month after school started when he started working over 40 hours a week. Taking in all the summer schools and working steadily, he was going to transfer to Oshkosh after he lost his job during the summer of 1954, the end of his sophomore year. Dean John E. Roberts stopped him though, and he did finally find a job.

That Junior year, Larry carried five jobs, working 54 hours a week. One of those semesters, he received a 3.0 grade point average. Things seemed to lighten a bit then, especially when President William C. Hansen put him in as Library janitor where he now works 40 hours a week, the only janitor in the Library building. He has another little chore too, that of managing the College House at 830 Clark street.

Larry and Ernestine now have a family of two boys and a girl. Two of these were born since he started school.

Larry wants to give his wife a great deal of credit. Especially, he thinks she deserves it in feeding the family on $40 per week. That takes some doing these days. She also does much of his typing and helps him in such fashion. Ernestine's brother is also going to school here. His name is Pappy Garcia.

Seeming most happy to graduate,

Larry is going to teach at Stoughton next year. His schedule is tentatively biology, football, and baseball there. Stoughton is only 13 miles south of Madison. He chose this location with a purpose since he wants to do graduate work at the University of Wisconsin.

Now 28 years old, Larry says that those 10 years ago when he graduated from high school seem a long time in the past. Is it any wonder?

New Class Officers

In the student Council-sponsored class elections held Tuesday, May 22, the sophomores of 1956-57 turned out in strong numbers and next year's seniors cast a relatively heavy ballot to elect their next year's officers. The unofficial count showed the following winners: Sophomores 1956-57: Eugene Sorenson, president; Diane Baehler, vice-president; Mary Jo Buggs, secretary; Bill Bucher, Student Council representative; Emalee Berth, treasurer.

Next year's seniors elected the following officers: Louis Korth, president; Jerry Drake, vice-president; Treiva Anderson, secretary; Ray Stroik, treasurer, and Betty Behl, Student Council representative.

Pointers Select Class Leaders For Next Year

Class elections were held on Tuesday, May 22, with the polls being open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The plan of having class elections in the spring is a new one for Central State, the elections formerly being held early in the fall. The idea is to enable new officers to be prepared to take up their duties immediately in the fall, and especially to give the new Student Council a chance to get an early start on their program for Homecoming.

Tuesday, May 15, was the deadline for nominating petitions, with a total of 25 petitions being filed by that time. A total of 11 petitions were entered by next year's Senior class, and 14 were submitted by next year's Sophomore class. The Junior class of '56-57 did not file any petitions. Because of their failure to carry out their part of the election system in the spring, the Junior class will hold their elections next fall along with the incoming Freshman class.

The following nominees submitted petitions for Tuesday's election, according to Betty Behl, Student Council President:

Senior class: For president, Bill Wickde, Dave Spindler, Louis Korth, Donald Nice; For vice-president, Jerry Drake, Carl Boettcher, Joel Weaver; For secretary, Treiva Anderson; For treasurer, Eyon Beckwith, Ray Stroik; For Student Council Representative, Betty Behl.

CSC Primary Luncheon Tickets Sold Today

Tickets will go on sale today for the annual Primary luncheon which will be held this Saturday, May 26, at St. Paul's Methodist church at 12:30. The theme this year is "A Child's Garden of Verses."

President William C. Hansen will be the honored main speaker and Arnie Lenius of Racine, the alum speaker. Representing the seniors will be Rita Loinski. Freshman girls will put on their annual skit under the direction of Luanna Miller, Wanda Morris and Nancy Jensen. Other entertainment will be a duet by Margaret Christ and Helen Bovee and a reading.

Carol Seuder is chairman of arrangements; Connie Weber, invitations; Patricia Roth, decorations; Jean Ketchell, entertainment; and Mar. Lou Peterson, tickets. General chairmen of the luncheon are Ann Zimmerman and Gloria Garfield.

All Primary girls are reminded that this is the major event of the group each year. Answers to invitations come from alumni living in all parts of the United States, and several are able to attend.

This is just one of the many tasks that keep Frank Mansavage of our CSC maintenance staff busy throughout the day here at college. Frank retires in July.

Pointer Trackmen Capture Third Position In State College Meet

The Pointer trackmen managed to capture third place in the Wisconsin State College meet held at La Crosse on Saturday afternoon, May 19. La Crosse led the teams in scoring with 98 1/2 points. Milwaukee, defending champions, took second with 76 1/2 points. The Pointers came at third with 25 points followed by River Falls with 19 1/2 points. Fifth place was taken by Oshkosh which collected only 11 points.

Five state records fell on that warm, sunny day, which made running conditions perfect. The individual standout of the day was Bill Provine who won four events and broke three records. Provine of La Crosse won the 100 yard dash, the 100 and low hurdles, and the broad jump. He set a 220' 10 3/4" broad jump record, a 24.4 second low hurdle record, and a 15.1 high hurdle record.

Perez won the 880, the 440, and anchored the relay team to pace Milwaukee.

Grisham, a freshman from Merrill, was the Pointers' only first place winner. He cleared the pole vault at a height of 12 feet. Carl Huberty, defending state high jumping champ, took a second in his specialty. He was beaten by Giombetti of La Crosse, who cleared 6' 1 1/2". It was Huberty's third loss in 25 meets in his four years here at CSC.

The other second place winner was "Lips" Kestley of Antigo. Lips leaped 21' 3 1/2", the best of his career. He was followed by Jerry Drake of Mosinee who took third place with a leap of 20' 6". Tom Brockley took a third in the shot with a throw of 41 feet. Larry Collins set a school record of 2 minutes 2 seconds, chopping over three seconds off the old school record, in the half mile. He came in fourth place. The 880 was won in two minutes flat.

Jiggs Meuret took fifth place in the 440 with his best time of the year 52.2 seconds. This event was taken by Perez of Milwaukee in 50.2 seconds.

The Point relay team took an easy third.

Golf Season Ends

On Friday, May 19, CSC's links men finished sixth in the state golf meet at La Crosse. Let by a brilliant 150 (35-37-40-38) by Nick Perry, La Crosse swept the tournament with 623. Stout finished second with a 676, followed by Whitewater with 698. Oshkosh had 693, River Falls 694, and Stevens Point had 700. Eau Claire and Milwaukee finished with 717 and 745 respectively. Dave Stark was medalist for Point with a 164. Central State played host to St. Norberts, Monday, May 14, only to be beaten 12-6 in that dual meet. Jerry Scheel was low for Point with a 38 and Jim White took medalist honors for the match with a 71.

By sinking a 30 foot putt on the 18th green, Oshkosh won from Point 9 1/2-8 1/2 on Friday, May 12. In that dual meet, Russ Dorfman was low with 76. Dave Stark led the Point squad with an 89. In other matches for the year, Point tied with Whitewater 9-9, and beat Milwaukee 15-0 in a triangular meet at Milwaukee. In that match, CSC lost to Oshkosh 18-3 and Milwaukee lost to Oshkosh 15-0.

Phi Sigs Leading In IFC Softball League

Although the FKE ball team might not win a game this year, they can at least hold their heads high when the talk about good games starts to be pushed around the campus. In their Phi Sigs game, they lost to the Central State played host to St. Norberts, Monday, May 14, only to be beaten 12-6 in that dual meet. Jerry Scheel was low for Point with a 38 and Jim White took medalist honors for the match with a 71.

In the other game, the Alpha Beta Rho team came from behind to hand the Sig Eps a 14-8 defeat. Al Curtis started for the Sig Eps, but had to leave when they were ahead 6-5. John Weisenfeld gets charged with the loss. Mel Sonnentag racked up the win.

Last week's games saw the Sig Eps edge out a 6-4 victory over the Tekes, and the Phi Sigs doing their usual to the Alpha Beta Rho.

Without rain or snow, the season ended Wednesday, May 23, when the Phi Sigs and the Sig Eps tangled, and the Tekes tried for the first win of the year against the Alpha Beta Rho men.

Kappa chapter of Phi Sigma Epsilon can add another trophy to their collection in the form of the IFC trophy, as it is impossible for any other team to win it. If you don't think so, take a look at the standings as of Monday, May 21.

Phi Sigma Epsilon 5 0
Alpha Beta Rho 3 2
Sigma Phi Epsilon 2 3
Tau Kappa Epsilon 0 5

While in the process of mentioning records, it would probably be appropriate to give some thanks to the "blind men" who do the dirty job of officiating. Mainly, to Dale Lightfuss, Don Counsell, and Neil Greehling.

Off My Back!

Because of the usually brilliant thinking of the one-track mind of the assistant sports editor, there is no story on the intramural softball games this issue.

Due to the fact that this is the last issue, there will not be anything in about these games. However, we will try to use this small part of the page to a good advantage, by saying, "We're sorry," and offering an apology.

Letting Out the Air

By Carl Huberty

In this, our last issue, we wish to congratulate all the athletes and coaches for the excellent job they did in the past year. From Coach Roberts' championship football squad to Coach Harrer's "thincides" fine showing in the state meet, we have viewed many very fine performances by our CSC athletes. Our congratulations are extended to Coaches Roberts, Quandt, Harrer, Reuschlein and Wiewel for the excellent leadership they have given in their respective sports.

Congratulations to Larry Collins for breaking the school record in the half mile at the state track meet. He was clocked in 2 minutes, 2 1/2 seconds, which better Bill Ruhssam's previous mark of 2:05.1. Clarence Grisham also performed remarkably well as a freshman at the state meet as he cleared 12 feet in the pole vault for a first place. He barely missed 12 feet six inches in trying for a school record. Another record — in the 880 yard relay — was shattered but it was not recorded because of the lack of an official time. Fritz Kestly had a jump of over 22 feet on one effort but he fouled, thus preventing another record from falling.

If you want a nice day for a picnic or such plan it for the same date as the WSC State track meet, as the past four meets were held on near perfect days for outdoor activity.

We hope our Sudsville Sluggers (Milwaukee Braves) can bounce back after losing two from the Peskes where he'll be coaching. It looked like they had soap on their fingers last Sunday. Gene Conroy should provide that needed insurance in the mound corps and if they would trade off some of their "bench strength" for a "Stan Musial" they can give those Pirates a good game.

Good luck to Ken Wasserman with his coaching position at Stockbridge. Let's hope John Amburgy can send some more "Boulders" from Bowler where he'll be coaching. Good luck to Jerry Scheel and his athletes at Weyauwega.

Point Trackmen Beat Michigan Tech Here

The triangular meet scheduled to be held here in Stevens Point on May 15, turned out to be a dual meet between the Pointers and Michigan Tech. St. Norberts was unable to come. Point scored an easy 82-1/3 to 48-2/3 victory largely due to the fact that the Houghton club was without their best hurdlers, sprinters, and broad jumpers. These boys stayed at home to catch up on their school work.

Point slammed the High Hurdles, the 220 yard dash, and the broad jump. They collected nine first places to Michigan Tech's six and in addition Point took the relay easily. The high point man of the day was Jerry Drake with 12 1/4 points. He won the 220, took second in the 100 yard dash and broad jump, and shared in the winning relay. Grisham was next high with 10-7/12 points, collected by winning the pole vault, taking second in the 220 and tying for second in the high jump. He also ran in the relay.

Bob Pawjowski won the high hurdles and took second in the discus for a total of eight points. Jiggs Meuret won the low hurdles and took a close second in the 440 for eight points. Larry Collins and Carl Huberty won their specialties, the 880 and the high jump respectively.

A heavy wind blew strongly most of the afternoon and slowed up the time considerably.

Wrestling Review

The CSC grapplers coached by John Roberts boasted a 7 win 3 loss record for the 1955-56 season.

Two of the Point wrestlers won gold medals for first place in the State A.A.U. tourney. Don Smith won at 135 and Butch Sorenson won at 177. Terry McLarky and Hank Yetter were runners-up.

Butch Sorenson was voted the most valuable wrestler of the year and Jack Blosser was named captain for next year. There will be only three graduating lettermen, namely Don Smith, Dave Hurlbut, and Terry McMahon.

CSC Nine Concludes Another Fine Season

This year's Pointer baseball team was very successful as shown by their nifty 8-2 record. Both losses were recorded by slim margins of 5-3 and 6-4, which proves that this was an exceptional year for our sluggers.

The first doubleheader of the year was against La Crosse where the Pointers suffered their first loss 5-3. John Klonsinski was the losing pitcher. Jack Laramie then came back to take the second bill 4-3.

In a home doubleheader with Stout, they suffered their second and last defeat 6-4, with Dave Schill the loser. They again won the nightcap of this twin bill 4-3, Paul Boehmer winning.

At Mission House the Quandt men took both ends of the doubleheader 5-2, and 3-1 with John Klonsinski and Jack Potter winning in that order.

The Pointers then played host to the Titans of Oshkosh where they won the first game and were rained out in the second one. Don Feit was the winner of the 9-8 decision.

Point then traveled to Eau Claire to take two games from the powerful Blugolds behind the pitching of Dave Schill and Don Feit, who won their games by the margins of 7-4, and 8-1 respectively.

In a make up game from the one rained out with Oshkosh the local boys had a slug-fest which turned out a lopsided score of 19-4. Jack Laramie was given credit for the win.

At the season's end 16 of the Pointers were to receive letters. Jack Pease won both the captain award and the batting crown with an average of .673. Ron Hoensch was chosen most valuable player of the year.

Busy Summer Ahead For CSC's Mr. Henry

Joseph B. Henry, on the faculty of CSC's Music Department, has planned a busy summer of music and study. Early in July he will fly from his home in Ohio to the seaside resort town of Aseclonar, California, to attend a workshop of the American Symphony Orchestra League. The week-long workshop of the League (an international organization of professional and semi-professional symphonies) is made possible through grants by the Rockefeller Foundation.

Mr. Henry will attend L'Ecole Montoux at Hancock, Maine, from July 15 to August 15. The 75 conductors participating in the school form an orchestra and conduct under the supervision of Pierre Montoux, the highly revered French conductor.

Mr. Montoux, 81, was a friend of Debussy and Ravel and premiered some of their work. The contemporary composer Stravinsky considers Mr. Montoux his favorite conductor. Besides appearing as guest conductor with many orchestras throughout the world, Mr. Montoux has been conductor of the Concert Montoux in Paris, the Concert Gebouw in Amsterdam, the Boston Symphony and the San Francisco Symphony.

Mr. Henry, who has played first horn in the orchestra at L'Ecole Montoux for the past two seasons, will return to the horn section of the group. The repertoire for summer study will be the complete orchestral works of Brahms, the last five symphonies of Mozart, and three operas, "Don Giovanni," by Mozart, Gluck's "Orpheus," and Verdi's "La Traviata."

Miss Youmans is Offered Position At University

The University of Wisconsin will be the gainer when Miss Rita Youmans, head of Central State's home economics department since September 1952, takes her new position there next fall as an associate professor in the University school of education. She will take a permanent position, replacing Prof. Ruth Henderson, who has been granted a leave of absence and will retire next year.

Miss Youmans' duties will include teaching a demonstration class in home economics at Wisconsin high school, teaching home economics methods to classes of home ec majors at the University itself, and supervising student teachers.

Before taking her new position, Miss Youmans will attend the summer session of the University of Illinois, where she will work on completing her thesis for her doctor's degree. Her dissertation is in the form of a survey which compares the distribution of time between personal and professional activities of home economists.

Although the position at the University of Wisconsin is a professional opportunity for advancement, Miss Youmans feels that she is sure to have many regrets upon leaving CSC. "I'll miss the students that I've worked with and the fine spirit between faculty and students," she commented.

A LAST MINUTE PRAYER

(For all students who are worried about their exams)

By Betty Rustad

O Lord perched high on Heaven's lid, Look down on me, your little kid. And in this last and dreadful hour Help me with your Almighty power.

I've lapsed a little, Lord, I know I sometimes hike down to the show. I've danced a bit, and skated, too, But never more than others do. Some mornings, Lord, I've let things slip.

Of course, I didn't mean to skip. But You who know a secret deep Can't tell how much I've craved the sleep.

Perhaps to You, of Lord, it seems, I waste much time on foolish dreams. But if you knew this tall, dark guy, I'll bet you'd do the same as I.

So perched up there on Heaven's lid.

Look down on me, Your little kid. Forget the Times I've been a fool. And help me, Lord to get through school.
