

Schwarzkopf Will Present Opera Recital On Monday

Famed opera soprano, Elisabeth Schwarzkopf, will present a recital Monday night, March 10, as part of the Arts and Lectures Series program here.

Her 8 p.m. performance will be in the Main Building auditorium where tickets will be on sale. Advanced tickets will be at the University Center information desk. Series director Jack Egan said special rates will be given to area high school students. WSU students will gain admittance with their identification card.

Both a recording artist and a stage performer, Miss Schwarzkopf's first professional operatic engagement was at the Berlin Civic Opera in her native Germany. Before World War II, she marked her first leader recital in Vienna, and by the time that conflict ended she had gained prominence throughout Europe as a singer.

She has been on frequent tours to the country in 1963 and making her first appearance in Carnegie Hall. She has debuted with nearly all of America's leading philharmonic orchestras.

Elisabeth Schwarzkopf

In her Stevens Point appearance, she will feature a complete program of German art songs by Strauss, Wolf, Schumann and Schubert.

The works of Hugo Wolf are her favorites, and after singing a complete program of his compositions a New York Times critic once wrote:

"Miss Schwarzkopf reminded one that Wolf was something more than a minimalist; they could concentrate more drama in a short compass than could others who used larger forms and enormous forces, and the German-born soprano conveyed the tensions of these highly charged little dramas with unerring perception." Paul Henry Lane in the New York Herald Tribune observed:

"Elisabeth Schwarzkopf offered a song recital that only such a consummate artist can hope to carry through with success."

The soprano does not just sing, she lives through a song, and when there is a mock dialogue or question and answer, there are two or three persons singing. She follows every turn, every nuance, her facial expression always vividly expressive, an extraordinary artist."

Miss Schwarzkopf has said her interest in this composer is because "his songs are so beautifully suited to my voice and temperament." German words and the music form such an organic whole they cannot be separated without a loss.

Miss Schwarzkopf has long held the title of Austrian Kammergesangsdirektorin and Golden Orpheus trophies awarded by the City of Mantua for the year's best operatic performance. The latter trophy was handed to her by the late Arturo Toscanini who said of her singing in Beethoven's "Missa Solemnis" that he had never heard such a good soprano in this work.

In private life, she is Mrs. Walter Lege, wife of the director of London's Philharmonia Orchestra and Chorus.

Library Funds Cut State's Financial Problems Affect Point Campus

By Ron Hoban

Governor "Knowles'" state fiscal deficit is just beginning to affect the Stevens Point campus in at least three ways, and the effects of the problem will probably be more evident in the next few years.

According to G.M. Johnson, the campus budget analyst, freeze now exists on "one-half year of capital equipment" finance for out-of-state travel and management. The freeze no longer affects students and organizations, however.

The enactment of this freeze due to the state deficit has hit WSU-Stevens Point at one of its weakest points, the library. Dr. Frederick Krepmele, Dean of Library Science, reported "between $6,000 and $7,000 in capital equipment and $60,000 worth book orders for the library have been held up."

Krepmele went on to say that "there is a bill in the state legislature now which, if passed, will take $60,000 from the library book fund."

This bill, Assembly bill 71-A, was originally meant to take the money from funds set aside for supplies and contractual services for the library, but an amendment to it provides for the money to come from the book fund instead.

"The reason for this amendment," Krepmele said, "is that there is more money set aside for book purchases than that set aside for supplies."

"And our state legislators feel that the library can be operated

Runs Through Saturday 'Royal Hunt' Opens In Main Auditorium

The drama department's first play of the semester, "The Royal Hunt of the Sun," is now being performed nightly through Saturday at 8 in the Main Auditorium.

"Royal Hunt of the Sun" is the story of the Spanish expedition to the land of the Incas and features three leading actors, Max Pogansin, Mosinee, as Pizarro; Michael Harper, Stevens Point, as Atahualpa; and Terrence McGovern, Sarasota, Fla., as Martin Ruiz.

The cast of the play will be on tour Mar. 11-14 to entertain about 3,000 high school students from seven western Wisconsin communities.

A 2 p.m. matinee Mar. 11 at the Chippewa Falls Senior High School will be for local and Cadott students. Taylor and Adams students will travel to Whitehall High School for an 8 p.m. performance. The final show will be another 2 p.m. matinee at Gale-Etrick High School in Galeville to which Holmen students have been invited.

Dr. Faulkner said "although a great deal of work is involved, the University Theatre personnel believe the educational and entertainment values far outweigh the troubles. Many of the high school students who see the play will be exposed to theatre for the first time; for some, it may also be the last."

Jennifer Hyland Selected 1969 Miss Stevens Point

Jennifer Hyland, a WSU coed and resident of Stevens Point, was named "Miss Stevens Point 1969" in the annual pageant at Pacelli High School Sunday evening.

The "Miss" Hyland, nicknamed "Jelly," is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hyland, 2300 Main St. She has now won the right to enter the "Miss Wisconsin" pageant.

The "Miss" winner, a cheerleader at WSU, received her crown from the 1968 reigning queen, Miss Kathleen Negard.

Susan Jean Bueger of Brookfield was selected as first runner-up. Second runner-up was Mary Lecky of Marshfield; third runner-up was Bonnie Beth Dana, Minocqua.

Fourth runner-up was Lil Marie Shamblie, Luck. All are students at WSU-Stevens Point.

Darlene Rose Bushman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bushman, 1556 Church St., was named "Miss Congeniality" by the other contestants. The "Miss Congeniality" trophy is presented to the contestant who is considered "the most helpful, courteous and thoughtful" in the talent competition.

She represented 50 percent of the points in the contest, Miss Hyland had an interpretive dance of a scarecrow. She donned herself in bibbed-blue jeans, a plaid shirt and straw hat for the dance.

Miss Bueger played a bassoon solo, "Rhondo" from Mozart's Concerto No. 1 in B flat major. Miss Lecky sang "Sunny." Miss Dana recited the poem, "The Last Hyacinth," and Miss Shamblie played the guitar and sang "When I First Came to This Land."

The new "Miss Stevens Point" will receive a $300 scholarship, a wardrobe, an expense-paid trip to the "Miss Wisconsin" pageant and hairstyling.

The first runner-up received a $100 scholarship and the official pageant trophy which was given to the other contestants along with a book book and official "Miss America" charm bracelet.

Mistress of ceremonies for the 4th annual pageant was Barbara Burkhaug, "Miss Wisconsin" in 1967 and second runner-up in the "Miss America" pageant.

The pageant theme, "I Feel Pretty," was carried out in the opening number sung by the contestants. Music was provided by the Don Chesbro orchestra.

Following the coronation a reception for the contestants in the Paccelli cafeteria.

United Council Pass Black Resolutions

By Jim Hofer

The General Assembly of United Council passed 15 resolutions last weekend, urging the Wisconsin State universities to take certain actions that will improve relations between Minority and Majority groups.

One resolution urges the State Universities to actively recruit Negro instructors. Others suggest that textbooks truly representative of the total American culture be used in the state universities in those instances that textbooks now represent the white American culture.

One resolution defeated in the General Assembly would have urged the teachers of the State Universities to educate themselves on the backgrounds of major minority groups.

Other resolutions suggest that residence hall student assistants and residence assistants have, as a part of their orientation work, a background in American minority groups.

Another resolution urges the Wisconsin anti-discrimination laws to be investigated and, if possible, unfair housing practices against college students of all colors, races and creeds.

A spokesman of the minority group seminar told of discrimination against black students supposedly on the basis of the applicant's being a student, but actually on a race basis.

Chris Flood and Kuni Iwata

were WSU-SP delegates to this minority group seminar.

Legislature Ponders Anti-Disruption Bills

By Paul Janty

In an effort to curb disruptive students and their activities, numerous bills have been introduced recently into the State Legislature with their intent to hinder sharply such activities.

One bill calls on the Boards of Regents of the state universities and the UW systems to raise non-resident tuition to at least five times the current tuition paid by resident students.

Another bill sponsored by State Senators Nile Soik (R-Whitfish Bay) and James Devitt (R-Greenfield) asks that students who have been convicted of treason, sabotage, sedition, display of seditious flag or emblem, flag desecration and improper use of the flag be ineligible for admission to the UW or any state university.

Student loans, scholarships and tuition remissions would be discontinued to a student if he was convicted in a campus disturbance. This bill is also sponsored by Senators Soik and Devitt.

Freshman non-resident enrollments at the UW would be cut by 15 percent in the fall of 1969 and every year thereafter by another bill introduced recently in the legislature.

Lakewood, non-resident graduate enrollments would be set at 60 percent for next year and after that non-resident graduate students could only comprise 50 percent of the total graduate enrollment.

Of particular importance to WSU-Stevens Point and the rest of the state supported schools would be a bill limiting undergraduate enrollments effective July 1, 1969. The bill sets enrollment limits at the UW-Madison at 30,000 students, WSU-Oshkosh at 12,000 and here at 8,000 students.

Another bill would prohibit faculty members and administrators excluding athletic department personnel from recruiting non-resident students.

A proposed Truth in Education act under the sponsorship of State Senator Gordon Roselie (R-Darlington) would make it illegal for a member of the Communist party to teach at a state-supported institution. Also under Roselie's sponsorship is a Senate resolution asking the legislature whether they will continue to tolerate Communist speakers and Communist organizations on the campuses of Wisconsin's public institutions of higher education."

UCM Sponsors Four Courses On Marriage

The University Christian Movement is sponsoring a series of Inter-Faith marriage preparation courses, Thursday evenings at 8 in the Garland Room at the University Center.

Tonight, a lecture on the legal aspects of marriage, "Why Must I Die and Leave Her?" will be given by Gerald O'Brien, a Stevens Point attorney.

Mar. 13, David Coker, the Director of WSU Counseling Center, will conduct a talk on the psychological aspects and attitudes, "What Is Behind His Face."

Ed and Bert Kurtz, who have been involved in marriage seminars for many years and are the parents of seven children, will discuss how to live your marriage, "Wine, Roses and Toast," on Mar. 20.

The series of courses will conclude Mar. 27 with Dr. Andrew Lucas, a Wisconsin Rapids physician, lecturing on the medical aspects of marriage in "Who Says Sex is Dead?"

What is the solitary brick wall in St. Michael's parking lot used for? Sue Schneider

Richard Lansing, hospital administrator, stated that the brick wall served two purposes. First, the water drains from the northwest corner of St. Michael's parking lot to the south end of the parking lot. The water then drains from the south to the east end of the parking lot and empties into two large storm sewers; there is a 5-foot drop in elevation from northwest to south.

There is a sunken boiler room at the corner where the water turns from south to east thus, the draining water had to be diverted away from the boiler room and away from a loading zone due east of the boiler room. Rather than having a simple rounded parking lot diverting the water away from the boiler room, the architect preferred to build a split parking lot.

In the near future, there will be a swinging gate joining the boiler room to the brick wall — only certain people will be admitted beyond this point. The architect felt that even though a simple railing could do as good a job of dividing the parking lot as the brick wall would, the wall would create an artistic illusion that the brick wall was somehow a part of the sunken boiler room.

The architect also figured that a brick wall would go better with a split level parking lot than would a simple railing.

THE WALL of St. Michael's Hospital.

Why do students receive only 12 out of 35 votes in voting for the Excellence in Teaching Award? Don't the students know more about a teacher's ability than anyone else?

Gordon Haferecker, vice-president of academic affairs, said that the number of students voting could be changed by the RAPTS Committee if they chose to do so. The original number of student voters was six; the number was increased to twelve in 1967.

Should the students favor a change in the number of student voters, the proper procedure would be to contact the Student Senate so that the Senate could request the RAPTS committee to increase the number of voters.

Haferecker stated that the student was not the best judge of a teacher's ability in all cases. There are several points to be evaluated outside of the classroom where only a teacher's colleagues would be concerned.

It was suggested by the presidents of other institutions that recent alumni be selected as voters. One problem with alumni voters would be that they would not be in touch with new teachers and could only vote for the teachers they had while in school.

However, an alumni vote would be advantageous because they had already spent four years at the institution and could look back at their teachers with a more mature perspective. Once out of school, an old teacher may be more or less appreciated than he was while the alumni were still in school.

Bloodmobile Will Make Second Visit To Campus

The Red Cross Bloodmobile, sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega will be making its second semester visit to the campus on Mar. 18-19. The hours for this visit will be from 10:00-4:00 p.m. in the Wright Lounge of the University Center.

Due to the large amount of interest shown on the second day of last semester's bloodmobile, during which 2/3 of the quota was taken, the quota of 300 was surpassed by 85 units, or 28%.

Donating blood is one of the most generous acts that can be done, and its results far surpass the small amount of time spent. New donors are always needed. If you have, or have not donated before, try to encourage a friend to come also.

Traveling plaques will again be awarded to the top participants in the four categories, men's halls, women's halls, fraternities and sororities. The winners last semester were Theta Phi Alpha, Delta Sigma Phi, Phi Alpha and Sigma Phi.

For those under 21 (unless married or a member of the Armed Forces), a consent slip is required. The printed form may be cut out and sent home for signature, with ample time before arrival of the bloodmobile. Consent forms may also be obtained at the University Information desk, or the main desk of each residence hall.

Little Joe's Will Sponsor Drink Contest

Little Joe's Drinking Establishment is sponsoring the first half-barrel drinking contest at 2 p.m. this Sunday, Mar. 9. Six fraternities, the Vets Club and the Siasfcs are scheduled to compete to see which organization can drink a half barrel in the least amount of time.

The tentative schedule for the contest is: Phi Sigma Epsilon and Delta Sigma Phi 3:00; Vets Club and Tau Kappa Epsilon 3:30; Sigma Tau Gamma and Sigma Phi Epsilon 4:00; Siasfcs and Sigma Phi 4:30.

The team with the fastest time will be the champions for the year. Barf buckets will be furnished.

Those attending the event are requested to bring a wet suit to the contest.

Draft And You Will Be Topic Of DeBot Talk

Three members of the Stevens Point Draft Information Service will speak at DeBot Center next Tuesday, Mar. 11, on "The Draft and You." The lecture will start at 8 p.m. in the Blue dining room of the center.

Members of the Draft Information Service who will discuss the Selective Service System and its consequences include Rev. Harris T. Hall, Rev. Richard Steffen and Rev. Joseph R. Sullivan.

A question and answer period will follow their talk. Refreshments being served. The program is sponsored by the DeBot Program Board.

Soroka Writes Three Chapters For New Book

Dr. Wacław W. Soroka, professor of history, has written three chapters for the book, "Polish Law Throughout the Ages," to be published soon by Stanford University Press.

The book will be issued in the Publications of the Hoover Institution on War Revolution and Peace.

Titles of Dr. Soroka's chapters are "Historical Studies of Polish Law, Main Institutions of the Polish Private Law, 1400-1772 and The Law in the Polish Lands During the Partition Period."

Miss Rapids Entries End On March 15

The Miss Wisconsin Pageant will be held May 17 in conjunction with the Hops Tree Festival. The event is being sponsored by the Wisconsin Rapids Jaycees.

Contestants must be from either South Wood or Adams county. The entry deadline for WSU students is Mar. 15. Interested girls should contact Bruce Walters, 929 Grove Ave., Wisconsin Rapids, 424-2583.

Pageant prizes for Miss Wisconsin Rapids will include a $400 scholarship, $300 clothing wardrobe, miscellaneous gifts from Wisconsin Rapids merchants and an all expense paid trip to Oshkosh to participate in the Miss Wisconsin Pageant.

First runner-up prizes include a trophy and a $150 Scholarship. The second runner-up wins a trophy and a TV. Miss Congeniality is awarded a trophy and a $25 gift.

Hatchet Named To Committee On Research

Ronald A. Hachet, director of the University Center, has been appointed to the research committee of the Association of College Unions-International.

The organization has 800 members throughout the world and is the oldest professional group in higher education in the United States, having been founded in 1914.

Hachet has been at WSU for nearly seven years. He is currently in the midst of planning an addition which will more than double the size of the local University Center.

Faculty Meeting

The faculty will be meeting tonight at 7:30 in Room 125 of the Classroom Center in their monthly meeting.

The agenda includes reports from the various faculty-student and faculty committees. Also slated for tonight's meeting will be a resolution by John Bailiff of the philosophy department asking that credits be withdrawn from ROTC courses.

Point Basketball Team Enjoys Best Season In Recent Years

Despite losing to Stout in a playoff game Saturday night to determine the WSU Conference's representative in the NAIA District 14 playoff, the Stevens Point State basketball team still concluded their most successful season in more than 20 years.

The narrow 90-88 setback at the hands of Stout, pushed the Pointers' final season record to a respectable 19-5. They finished in a first place tie with Stout for the WSU championship with a 14-2 mark. This was the first Stevens Point championship for Coach Bob Krueger, who completed his seventh season. The last time a Stevens Point team won a basketball championship was back in 1960-61, when Coach Hale Oquid's Pointers finished 10-2 in the WSU championship. In 1947-48 Stevens Point compiled a 12-2 record overall.

"I felt we had a very successful season," commented Krueger. "It's just one of those things when it comes to one game at the end of the season that kind of spoils everything."

"For the sake of the kids, it would have been great to go to Kansas City," Krueger continued. He was pleased with the way the Pointers fought back from a 20-point second half deficit to almost catch Stout in the playoff game.

"If ever a team had a right to quit, they did," said Krueger. "This was a very rewarding experience for the entire team and will help them in the future."

This was a relatively young Stevens Point team and Krueger is optimistic about the Pointers' prospects for next season. They will lose only three of their top 16 players and two of their five starters. Gone will be co-captains

Mike Hughes and Palmer Clements. Clements was the top reserve and Hughes was the Pointers' leading rebounder and second highest scorer. Also to be graduated will be guard Russ DeFauw.

Hughes scored at an average of 14.01 and hauled down 13.8 rebounds per game. This is the second straight year the 6-8 Wausau native has led the team in rebounding. He grabbed 306 last season in two less games. He also led the Pointers in scoring last season with a 21.6 average, but this year was used primarily as the hub of the Stevens Point offense and from his high-post position set up the Pointer offensive attack with screens, picks and passes to the open cutting man.

Clements, who saw action in all 24 games, but not in a starting role, came in on several occasions and scored a key basket or grabbed a clutch rebound. He averaged 6.9 a game.

De Faww hit at a 10.5 clip from his backcourt position. His free throw shooting in the later part of season carried the Pointers to wins over Oshkosh and Eau Claire.

To build upon the Pointers will have back the team's leading scorer in the person of sophomore Tom Ritzenthaler. He scored at an average of 15.8, as all five Point starters finished the season in double figures. His 380 points for the season put him in the fifth spot on the all-time single-season scoring list. This is more than La Vern Luchford and Bucky Wickman had scored.

Also back next season will be 6-2 sophomore guard Quinn Vanden Heuvel who almost single-handedly overcame a 20-point Stout lead Saturday. Vanden Heuvel scored 31 points to lead all scorers, with 16 of them coming after Stout had built a 78-58 lead with 9:12 to play. He averaged just over 13 points a game for the year.

The third starter to return will be junior Ken Ritzenthaler who scored at a 10.8 clip. He led the team in field goal accuracy with a .510 mark. He set a conference shooting mark last season with a .558 percentage.

Sigma Pi

The formal rush was held Tuesday, Feb. 25, in the Frank Lloyd Wright Room. Under the direction of rush chairman Jim Johnson, talks on aspects of fraternity life were given by Doug Cybela and advisor, Robert Bush. A tour of the house and barbeque were served by the Little Sisters for the rush.

The brothers of Sigma Pi ventured to Stout to see the deciding games of the season and to have a party with the Stout chapter.

The Brothers celebrated Sigma Pi Founders Day, Feb. 26, with a small ceremony during the day.

Panhellenic

The annual Panhellenic formal will replace the Spring formal this year. It will be held at the Holiday Inn on April 19. The theme for this year is "Dream, the Impossible Dream."

Sigma Phi Epsilon

Last week the brothers of Sigma Phi Epsilon worked on a variety of odds and ends. Activities were centered around a truckload of the world's finest salted-in-the-shell peanuts. To bag the nuts, a peanut packing party was held at the Sig Eps house on Sunday. At the party brothers Don Zander and Roy Gilie introduced the theme of "Peanut Power" for the movement. Proceeds from the sale will be donated generously to the United Fund.

Fourteen Sig Eps have already made reservations in Daytona Beach for a wild Easter vacation. Chairman of the journey, Paul Pekartz, said that each traveler will tell a tale of adventure both back and forth on the trip. The prize for the best story is still up in the air.

Young Dems Will Host Obey Meet

On the weekend of Mar. 8, the Young Dems of WSU-Stevens Point will host a state-wide college conference to further the election of David Obey. Obey, presently the assistant minority leader, is the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Seventh District.

On Saturday afternoon, Mar. 8, the distribution of literature and other campaign activities will take place in the Stevens Point area. This is to be followed by an evening conference of state and area Young Democratic leaders.

Sunday, Mar. 9, will see a strategy conference attended by Mr. Obey, his campaign staff, Democratic party officials, and state and local leaders of the Young Democratic Clubs of Wisconsin.

Approximately 100 members of state Young Democratic clubs will be in Stevens Point to attend this conference.

Stampers Will Meet Tonight At 7

The WSU Stampers have scheduled a meeting this evening at 7 in the Mitchell Room of the University Center.

All interested persons are urged to attend.

party, Tuesday, Mar. 4. The theme was "India." It was held at Norvica Stewart's home.

The DZ's are planning a Hay-Ride-Date-Party on Mar. 21. The DZ's are looking forward to activities with the men of Sigma Tau Gamma this weekend, making hats at Lakeside on Friday and a Panama Party on Saturday. Zeta Chi will have members from Whitewater to join in the fun on Saturday.

Tau Kappa Epsilon

The Tokes informal rusher was held on Thursday Feb. 27 at Point Bowl.

Mar. 6 marks the beginning of the formal pledge period. In intramural basketball the Tokes won their second game to remain undefeated with a win over Phi Sigma Epsilon.

Alpha Sigma Alpha

At the Feb. 25 meeting, the sisters of Alpha Sigma Alpha congratulated sister Sherry McConney on her pinning to TKE Gary Fingle in the form of a tire ceremony.

The sisters are eagerly awaiting the formal as well as informal rush periods. Rush chairman Chris Flood is directing the activities which include a round-robin, which was held last Sunday night, a costume party, held last night, and a formal party to be held Mar. 8 in the afternoon.

A date party was held on March 1 at Ashley bar, and a party is being held on March 8 with the Phi Sig's.

The Alpha Sig's basketball team won their first WRA game last Monday.

Phi Sigma Epsilon

The chapter at Stevens Point will host the chapter from Northland in March. Activities will include a basketball game followed by refreshments.

Monday, Mar. 3, there was an informal rusher with Dean Hafenbecker and Dr. Gibson speaking. Then everyone adjourned to the Four Haws to get to know each other better.

The brothers held a date party at Ashley on Feb. 20.

Pat Fortune Will Speak Wednesday

The speaker for the next American Chemical Society is Patrick Fortune, a senior here at WSU-SP. The meeting is planned for Wednesday, Mar. 12, at 7:30 p.m. in A-21 of the Science Building.

The subject of his talk will be "The Determination of Ground State Multiplicity by Magnetic Susceptibility."

A discussion and refreshments will follow his talk.

Senior Citizens Offered Radio And TV Courses

Helping senior citizens of the area make retirement years more meaningful is a new project at WSU-Stevens Point.

Working in conjunction with the University of Wisconsin extension division and one television and six radio stations, Stevens Point State has arranged programs to be broadcast weekly for the next three months.

Orland Radke, director of Stevens Point extension said he hopes the series will help bring retirement the images of helplessness and indolence and stir dynamics into those golden years.

The programs are made available to the school through the Institute of Lifetime Learning, an auxiliary of the American Association of Retired Persons and National Retired Teachers Association which have a combined membership of one million.

Subjects to be discussed on the weekly programs are "What ages the aging person?" "Let's stop manufacturing loneliness," "How to communicate while we can," "How to bridge generation gaps," "Vitality is an inside job," "Outwitting our ghost in time to love," "Age comes before beauty," and "Is joy your avocation?"

The series will begin Thursday, March 6, at 10 a.m. with the showing of a 20 minute color film, "Raisin Wine" on WSU-TV in Wausau. A local commentator will make an introduction.

For the next thirteen weeks,

550's Honor Bob White At Meeting

The 550's meeting was begun last week with a hymn led by President Dave Kovach. Vice President Bob White gave a "ski" and ticket sales report and was later honored with the first annual "RE" award, complete with trophy. Discussion of the state convention, liquidation Mondays at the Eau Claire trip followed. The meeting was adjourned for refreshments.

Next meeting will be held Mar. 13. Persons with six consecutive months active service (any branch) are welcomed.

Next week's schedule has Hansen at Baldwin, Smith at Pray-Sims, Watson at Knutzen, Burroughs at Schmeckle, Roach at Hyer and Steiner at Neale. Delzell has the bye.

NEALE HALL

Miss Cheri McGrath was voted AWS junior representative. She is a sophomore from Milwaukee and is majoring in primary education.

Neale held a square dance with Smith Hall on Sunday, Mar. 2 in the Blue Room of the DeBo Center. The caller was Mr. Decker.

Sister Margaret of Newman Parish spent Sunday night at Neale. She has a degree in sociology and talked with several girls on the subject of racial problems and family management.

WATSON HALL

Monday, Feb. 24, tryouts for the DeBot center fashion show, "New England Fashion," were held in Warwick Lounge of Watson Hall at 8:00.

Tuesday, Feb. 25 the first issue of Watson Hall's newspaper "Watts on Charlie," was published. The chairman of the newspaper are Linda Cherry and Mary Van Os.

Thursday, Feb. 27, Watson's Snack Bar began 2nd semester operation. This week 4th West will be operating the snack bar. Committee Chairman: Queen Candice, chairman, for the Military Ball is Alyce Jepson; Chairman of Watson's Song Fest is Candee Erickson.

SCHMECKLE HALL

Schmeckle hall has stated a series of money-making activities to help pay for an AM-FM radio they hope to purchase for the main lounge.

On Tuesday, Feb. 25, the girls participated in the first activity in this series: "Trick or Treat in February," organized by Becki Rohr and Mary Bakke. "Trick or Treat" was a night for revenge. Girls' names were placed in a box with a suggestion for tricks they were to perform. In order to see these girls perform the audience had to bid money. The victim could match their bid and raise it another nickel if she didn't want to perform.

Some of the suggestions were, having Sally Sharp push an egg across the floor with her nose; having Jersey and Sue Molepske dance to "Down at Papa Joe's," having Mary Beth Thompson wash her hair and letting it dry without being set; having Karen Lamers give impersonations of the basketball team, and having Ginny Nendza dance in her bikini on a scale. Mary Bakke was master of ceremonies for the event, and a total of $16.27 was contributed by the girls.

On Thursday, Feb. 27, Schmeckle Hall had Chief Kulas speak and show a movie on self-defense. The program was held in the basement lounge and was well attended.

On Feb. 21, Ginny Tomaszewski became engaged to Dan Fisher, from Monico.

Pointer Track Team Starts Working Out

By Craig Johanesan

The WSU track team under the coaching of Don Hoff has started workouts for the upcoming season. With 14 letterman back and several promising freshmen this year's team should be about equal to last year's team which finished 5th in the conference meet.

Leading indoor veterans are co-captains John Clark, a junior and George Check, a senior. Clark, winner of the team's MVP award last year, lost only one race all season. Included in his wins were the WSU conference 1000 and 220 yard dash titles, the school record in the 220. He was also anchorman on the record setting 440 yard relay team.

Check holds the school record in the triple jump, an event in which he has been runner-up in at the conference meet for three years. He is also a high jumper, long jumper, and high hurdler.

Coach Hoff also has six other record holders back led by senior John Clifford in the 880 yard run and sophomore Jerry Perring in the high hurdles. Ron Whit and Tom Rasmussen, both on the 440 relay, Floyd Wilkenson in the intermediate hurdles, and Bill Reichwald, pole vaulter.

Other returning lettermen, all dashmen and middle distance runners, are juniors Mark Check and Paul Hauns, and sophomore Earl Aldridge, all 440-and-mile relay runners, sophomore Jim Nottard in the 880-and-dashmen Tom Lubner, a sophomore, and senior Dan Brown. Brown lettered in 1965 and 1967.

The greatest loss to the team is Al Schroeder, discus and shot put man. Schroeder set a school and conference record in the discus and placed 4th in the N.A.I.A. meet at Albuquerque, New Mexico in 1968. That was the only time he did not take first in the discus last year. He also won the conference discus title in 1967 and first broke the school record in 1965.

Also missing are record holders Paul LaMere in the two and three mile, Larry Wiffen shot put and javelin, Steve Jansen in the long jump, and Craig Johanesan, 440 relay, Jim WSU's wrestling team found the going rough last weekend and finished last in the conference meet held at Plattville.

The best showing was made by Jim Sobocinski, a freshman from South Milwaukee, who took second at 177 pounds, losing the championship match in overtime by a 4-2 score to Eau Claire's Sam Spanel. Sobocinski won his opening match, 5-2, and pinned his semifinal opponent to gain the finals. By virtue of his second place finish, Sobocinski will represent the Pointers at the N.A.I.A. Tournament in Omaha, Nebraska, this weekend.

Only two other Pointers placed in the meet: Dirk Sorenson, who took third at 115 pounds with a 12-2 decision, and Bob Hayden also copied a third at 160 pounds with a 4-0 decision.

Whitewater dethroned defending champion Superior in one of the closest meets ever. The Warhaws took one first and three seconds Team scores and the championships at each weight class were as follows:

115 Pounds: Whitewater, 65 points; 2. Plattville, 64; 3. Stout, 55; 4. Eau Claire, 50; 5. Superior, 37; 6. Oshkosh, 36; 7. River Falls, 31; 8. La Crosse, 29; 9. STEVENS POINT, 24.

Langlois, a three year letterman and 440 and 880 runner is practice teaching and not out. Mark Mansek, a pole vaulter, did not report.

CHAMPIONSHIPS

115 pounds: Truesler, Superior, beat Cruz, Stout, 8-3.
123-Kinapetter, Oshkosh, pinned Alax, River Falls.
130-Carey, Plattville, pinned Ryser, Eau Claire.
137-Albaugh, Plattville, beat Marks, Whitewater, 3-0.
145-Janicki, Eau Claire, beat Houghdahl, River Falls, 12-4.
152-Holden, Whitewater, pinned Johnson, Eau Claire.
160-Peterson, Stout, defeated Lewis, Whitewater, 7-1.

Outdoors

By Dave Crechore

By now, almost everyone is aware of the difficulties that our Wisconsin white-tail deer population is facing this winter. The main problem is the huge amount of snow which blankets the northern half of the state. The deer have trouble finding food, and waste much valuable energy just plowing through the white stuff. These factors have contributed to an already excessive amount of starvation and yarding-up.

It was apparent in mid-December that Wisconsin's northern deer herd would face a stress period in excess of one hundred days this spring. Experienced game managers have long recognized that winter timber sales contribute over fifty per cent of the available deer browse supply in some management units. Both the Northeast Area Game Management Supervisor for the Department of Natural Resources, estimating that the amount of nutritious natural deer food for deer which is provided by commercial timber cutting operations runs into several thousand tons. For example, the three-county Rhinelander district has 57 known timber sales occupied by deer, and the two-county Woodruff district has 30.

However, with loose, deep snow accumulating ever before the first of the year, many loggers became discouraged and abandoned or postponed their operations. Thus the snow began to limit both the deer herd's freedom of movement and a considerable portion of its food supply.

To correct this situation, it was necessary to keep the logger out before the first of the year. Many loggers became discouraged and abandoned or postponed their operations. Thus the snow began to limit both the deer herd's freedom of movement and a considerable portion of its food supply.

The Department of Natural Resources appealed to the pulp-using industries and asked if loggers could be assured a ready market for wood products. Deep snow conditions became more tolerable when woodworkers were made aware of the immediate markets at the paper mills.

With mild temperatures and rain occurring during the week of January 20, snow depths settled by one-third and the entire Northeast Area. The snow has continued to compact in spite of several recent minor snow falls. Although conditions vary considerably, the deer have been quick to utilize the snow crust and have adopted feeding patterns away from their well-beaten, trough-like trails. This welcome reprieve was accompanied by daytime temperatures approaching the mid-thirties. While nighttime temperatures have dipped well below zero, the deer at present are reasonably well off. More heavy snow could bring on more problems in a hurry, however.

As winter slips into the critical days of March, conservation crews (cutting browse for deer) will be bolstered by sportsmen's groups. Longing limbs extending out the deer's reach in completed timber sales will bring the entire edible portion of the felled tree tops to hungry white-tails. In fast-growing aspen forests, the crews will fell the non-commercial trees in completed timber sales, providing additional browse and eliminating shade competition to new aspen sprouts.

Advance plot marking, by resource managers, of trees to be cut around deer yards will provide a systematic winter deer range improvement. The benefits of this sort of management are two-fold. The tops of felled trees provide immediate browse, and the small openings that the cutting creates encourage new shrubby growth, which will provide future deer food.

So it would appear that while this winter has been, and will continue to be very hard on our white-tails, every effort is being made to keep their losses at a minimum. In addition, it should be noted that without the cooperation and interaction of game managers, foresters, loggers, paper mills, sportsmen's groups, private contractors, and state, county, and township authorities, our deer would be in a very bad way indeed. It is quite likely that major natural resource problems like this can be solved only when all of these varied groups and agencies work together toward a common purpose.

Pointers' Title Attempt Ends In Defeat

Late Rally Falls Short, Stout Wins

By Tim Lasch

WSU-Stevens Point put on a furious rally in the closing minutes but fell short and lost to WSU-Stout in a state semi-final playoff at Menominee last Saturday, 90-88.

With the victory, the Blue Devils gained the right to meet the independent champion, Lakeland, at Sheboygan last Tuesday, with the winner advancing to the NAIA meet in Kansas City, Missouri.

Stevens Point ended its season with the loss, finishing 19-5 overall and tying with Stout for the WSUC crown. Stout increased its record to 20-3.

Playing before a standing room only crowd, Stout led throughout after Quinn Vandenhuevel scored the first points of the contest in the opening minute. The Blue Devils controlled the rebounds throughout the first half and gradually pulled away behind the hot shooting of Bill Heidemann.

The Pointers were able to stay close for the first twelve minutes behind the scoring of Mike Hughes and Ken Ritzenhaller, but Stout outscored the Pointers, 15-3, in the next five minutes to grab a 44-30 lead with 3:08 left. Stevens Point narrowed the gap to ten, 50-40, at the intermission.

Heidemann hit on 8 of 11 attempts in the half and added 7 free throws without a miss to lead Stout with 23 points. Cal Glover was a one-man show on the boards as he pulled down 15 of Stout's 20 rebounds in the first half as the hosts outrebounded the Pointers.

Counsell, Rohde Sign Contracts For Pro Football

Mike Counsell and Bob Rohde, both four year stars in football at WSU-Stevens Point, have been signed as free agents by the Denver Broncos of the American Football League.

Counsell, a 6-3, 232 pound defensive lineman from Oconomowoc, was an honorable mention all-conference choice the last two years.

Rohde, a 6-0, 220 pound Watertown native, was the Pointers leading ground gainer the last two years and ranked third and fourth in total offense in the WSUC in those years.

The men received their chance when Pointer Coach Duane Counsell recommended the two to Broncos scouts. He sent game films to Denver and the Broncos were impressed enough to offer the two a chance at pro ball.

20-11 Hughes and Ken Ritzenhaller led the Pointers with 11 points each in the opening half.

Stout came out in the second half as though they meant to put the game out of reach, grabbing a commanding 75-58 lead with ten minutes left. Glover and Mel Coleman led the Blue Devils in the surge.

The outcome of the contest appeared to be decided at that point, but the Pointers were not about to give up and put on a tremendous rally that fell just one basket short.

Vandenhuevel put on a fantastic shooting display that almost singlehandedly pulled the game out. Held to seven points in the first half, the deadly southpaw poured in 24 in second half, hitting on 12 of 17 shots, mostly long jumpers from the top of the circle.

Stout was visibly rattled by the Pointer press and began to turn the ball over on numerous occasions. Four straight baskets by Vandenhuevel and a three point play by Tom Ritzenhaller brought the Pointers within ten, 81-71, with 5:41 still remaining.

Stevens Point gradually reduced the lead to just 86-82 with 1:48 left, but Tim Donke sank a pair of crucial free throws to give Stout a safe lead.

Time ran out on the Pointers as Palmer Clements tipped in a shot as the buzzer sounded, giving Stout a final 90-88 verdict.

Coleman, led the way for Stout with 24 points, 18 in the second half. Heidemann was the wild scorer in the second half and finished with 23 points, as did the steady Glover, who also shared 24 rebounds and scored several crucial baskets in the end.

Vandenhuevel finished with 31 points before fouling out, a season high for one game by a Pointer. Ken Ritzenhaller added 17 marks. Hughes, 15, and Tom Ritzenhaller, 11, for Stevens Point.

QUINN VANDENHUEVEL (14) couldn't seem to miss a shot in the last ten minutes of Saturday night's game against Stout as he led a Pointer rally which fell two points short, 90-88 of victory. Vandenhuevel put in 31 points before fouling out with less than a minute to play. Other identifiable Pointers in the picture are Russ DeFauw (22) and Mike Hughes (44). Jim Pannier Photo

Pointers Rip Eau Claire To Tie For WSUC Crown

By Tim Lasch

WSU-Stevens Point pulled away from WSU-Eau Claire in the last five minutes of the first half and then held off the hosts in the second half to gain a 61-50 victory in the WSUC regular season finale held last Wednesday at Eau Claire.

The victory gave the Pointers a first place tie with Stout in the final conference standings, as both teams finished with 14-2 marks in conference play. Eau Claire was forced to settle for a third place tie with Platteville with an 11-5 mark.

Stevens Point ended up 19-4, the best overall record in modern history at WSU, a shade better than the 1961-62 Pointers, who finished 18-4. Eau Claire ended at 14-8 overall, marking the first time since 1956 that a Bluegold squad won more than 12 games in a year.

The Pointers whipped the upset-minded Bluegolds with one of their steadiest performances of the year, shouting well from the floor throughout, breaking the Bluegold press, running a well-planned delay offense, and padding their lead with phenomenal free throw shooting.

Eau Claire started fast, jumping to several four point leads, 12-8 and 15-11, before the Pointers, especially sophomore Quinn Vandenhuevel, began to find the mark.

Stevens Point ran off nine straight points to take a 20-15 lead before Eau Claire rallied to regain the lead, 21-20, on two baskets by freshman standout Jim Lindsey and one by Larry Sturz with 5:43 left.

Vandenhuevel then took over again with another long jumper and after an Eau Claire basket, the Pointers ran off eight straight points to grab a 32-23 lead with 1:15 left in the half.

Mike Hughes and Bob Hennig each scored three points and Tom Ritzenhaller a basket in that surge.

Hughes took an unsuccessful shot from near midcourt as the buzzer went off ending the half, but he was fouled by Mike Ratliff and sank both tosses to give the Pointers a comfortable 36-25 lead to take into the locker room.

Vandenhuevel put on a phenomenal shooting display, hitting on 8 of 11 attempts in the first half, including five in a row. Most of his baskets were from 15-25 feet away from the basket. He led the Pointers with 16 points.

Despite a pressing defense, the Pointers remained in charge throughout the second half. Good ball handling and perfect foul shooting would not let the Bluegolds get any closer than nine points despite a fine effort by the 5-11 Lindsey.

Lindsey led an Eau Claire rally that brought the hosts within nine, 53-44, with 6:12 left, but Tom Ritzenhaller re-entered the game and sank a bank shot under heavy pressure to quell the rally and Eau Claire did not get any closer the rest of the way.

The Pointers went into a delay offense with about nine minutes left, shortly after Hughes picked up his fourth personal foul, and succeeded in using up over a minute of time on several occasions, forcing Eau Claire to foul. Stevens Point was equal to the task, however, sinking all nine charity tosses it attempted in the second half, and 15 of 17 for the game.

Vandenhuevel finished with 20 points to lead the Pointers, followed by Tom Ritzenhaller with 15, Russ DeFauw with 8, and Mike Hughes with 7 points and 13 rebounds. Vandenhuevel and Tom Ritzenhaller each pulled down eight caroms. Ken Ritzenhaller was held to 4 points but got both baskets in key situations in the second half.

Lindsey led Eau Claire with 19 points and 6-7 Steve Johnson added 13 points and 13 rebounds.

The Pointers were much more accurate from the floor, hitting on 23 of 35 attempts, a 434 clip, while the Bluegolds

Lasch's Sports Flashes

By TIM LASCH

"When I think of the Pointer's loss to Stout last Saturday, I think of Wisconsin's loss to SouthernCal in the Rose Bowl in 1962. Everyone figured Wisconsin was out of that one, trailing 42-14, but they lost 42-37. The hero of that one was Ron VanderKelen.

The Pointers trailed, 75-58, also in the last quarter (ten minutes left), and the hero of their comeback was Quinn Vandenhuevel.

That game was one of the most exciting I've ever seen, played by two great teams. Give Stout a lot of credit for hanging in, and give the Pointers the Comeback of the Year Award. Congratulations to Coach Bob Kruger and all of the team for a great season, the first title year for the Pointers since 1961. Best of luck in the future to the three seniors on the squad, Co-Captains Palmer Clements, and Mike Hughes and guard Russ DeFauw.

I erroneously reported that the conference swimming meet was last weekend, but it is this weekend at Superior. So again, best of luck to Red Blair's tankers and let's take another Pointer championship.

Vince Lombardi wasted no time in visiting the Packers again. He got Tom Brown for a "relatively high draft choice." I would like to know the Packer's philosophy in trading away one of their steadiest performers of last-year!
