The Iris

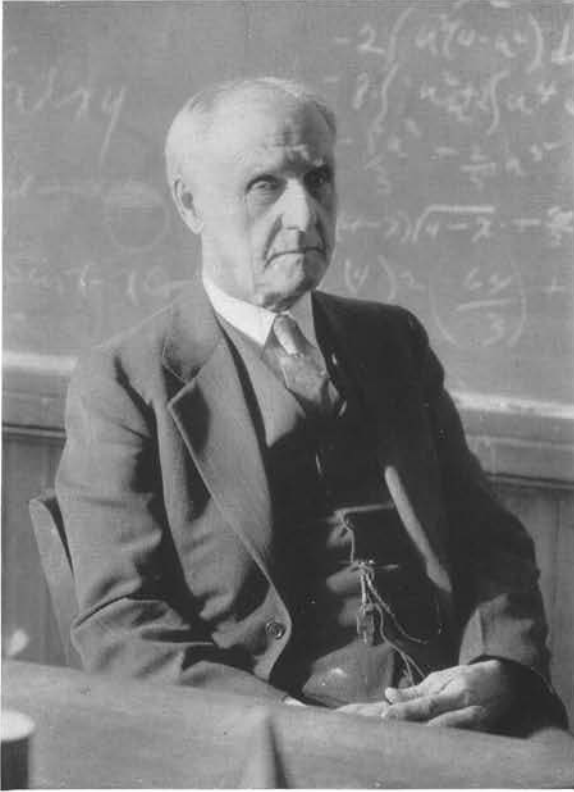

CENTRAL STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE
STEVENS POINT • WISCONSIN

To . . .

a man whom we admire and respect
for his ethics, appearance, good sense of humor and ability to produce fine
music from average material.

PETER J. MICHELSEN

Farewell to you . . .

Joseph Victor Collins, Ph.D. You, who are a distinguished man in the field of mathematics. Your record of forty-three years of student guidance during your career in our college and your fine qualities of scholarship, justice, leadership and service have ever inspired our deepest respect and admiration.

We will be looking forward to the day, Dr. Collins, when you will mount your bicycle again and pedal your way over to see your fond admirers here at Central State Teachers' College. We like your unusual ways of handling the many problems of the world of which we are all a part. May happiness ever be with you, Dr. Collins, you who retire a young man.

Foreword . . .

You have just opened the most complete photo-album that C.S.T.C. has ever had. Your editor's love of photography and natural desire to give you a "picture story" of C.S.T.C. has given him the challenge to picture the characters and individuals who make up the personality of C.S.T.C.

The staff, not the editor, presents this book. Our organization has been most complete and the editor has been supervisor and guide, not author. Remember we have sacrificed fancy colors and elaborate layouts to be able to give you more pictures. The Iris staff proudly presents this book with the hope that we have selected pictures that you will like; pictures that will represent what C.S.T.C. means to you.

PRESIDENT HYER

A year ago when I did my bit for the Iris, I did not think that I should ever again have the privilege and the pleasure of responding to another request for a few words for this page. But now that the opportunity has come, I wish to use the little space assigned me to express my sincere appreciation for the many fine things which the faculty, the students, and the student organizations have done to make this one of the happiest of all the many pleasant years in which I have been a teacher. I wish to thank each of you personally, and to wish that you may be so fortunate as I have been in having friends like you.

Yours sincerely,

REGENT MARTENS

It is a privilege to speak directly to you, students of C. S. T. C., and to wish you success, a real success. Experience has taught me that there is a vast difference between education and schooling. Making a life is far greater than making a living. The world within is the real world. What though the body live in a cottage if the soul dwells in a mansion?

Sincerely,

Geo. A. Martens

DEAN STEINER

To those who know it best Central State Teachers College is not static. It is a live, vigorous, growing educational institution which is constantly broadening and deepening its channels of service for young men and women. May the progressive spirit of old alma mater be transmitted to her alumni and students everywhere!

Sincerely,

H. R. Steiner

Iris Staff

The Iris Staff this year selected no theme . . . we had one aim . . . to give you a picture book of life at C. S. T. C. . . .

This book is not the work of one or two members of the staff . . . it is a staff project . . . our organization was democratic . . . the work was done in small groups . . . staff members were responsible to sub-supervisors . . . sub-supervisors with the editor made up a board of directors . . .

Although all the members cooperated loyally, a few members deserve special mention for their efforts . . . Bob Vennie, chief photographer, responsible for many of the fine pictures . . . Jeanette Van Natta, staff secretary, did much of the typing . . . Ted Meyer, layout artist, arranged the many pictures in this book . . . "Gordy" Haferbecker, copy editor, supervised the writeups . . . LaRue Smith, utility man . . .

To complete our photo album, the cover is a Florentine design, imitation hand-tooled leather . . . S. K. Smith, of Chicago, supplied these covers . . . the engravers, Jahn and Ollier of Chicago . . . printing, the Badger Printing Company of Appleton . . .

POINTER:

The "Normal Pointer" made its initial appearance in December of 1895 . . . published monthly . . . had more aspects of magazine than of a newspaper . . . edition usually consisted of about ten pages . . . subscription price, fifty cents per annum . . . first editor was Jay S. Hamilton. . . .

Many faculty members labored on former Pointer Staffs . . . Alfred J. Herrick—business manager in 1902 . . . "Little Herbie Steiner"—Wit and Humor editor in 1909 . . . (Repertoire yet unchanged) . . . Norman E. Knutzen—Editor-in-Chief in 1912 . . . (we'd like to see a faculty publication some week) . . . "Ups and downs" in former years . . . publication suspended for months . . . in one instance—an entire year (Was that 1912, Mr. Knutzen?) . . . weekly project in 1914 . . . in 1916 titled "The Pointer" . . . more closely resembled a newspaper in 1924 . . . has been published regularly ever since. . . .

McQUIRE—Captain—Halfback

All-conference halfback . . . a will to win that many times turned defeat into victory . . . instrumental in the many fine showings that Point made this year . . .

NIMZ—End

Popular fellow . . . many friends . . . could boot that pigskin and do his share on the grab end . . .

OLSEN—End

Another personality plus man . . . sometimes called upon to lead the team and did it a la Ousterban style . . . not as large as some football players but still could hold his own with the biggest and best of them . . .

WEINGARTNER—Center

All-conference center . . . played a good piano along with many other outstanding qualities . . . smallest and toughest center in the conference . . .

HITZKE—Halfback

Outstanding passer . . . seen lot around school . . . shows a distinct tendency toward the fairer sex . . . all around good fellow . . .

BRUNNER—Tackle

Big and brawny . . . stopped anything that came his way . . . not the spectacular type of fellow but was a good hard worker . . .

OTTO—Tackle

Another "Tarzan" in the line . . . first year man but proved his worth in every department of play . . . not the loud, boisterous type of fellow but here again we must say . . . a right guy . . .

LOWECKE—Guard

Played the game at guard like a true veteran . . . knew all the tricks of the trade . . . should prove a very capable captain . . . plays a good game of basketball to boot . . . worth knowing . . .

POPHAL—Guard

Stonewall on defense . . . could also furnish a sizeable opening for a plunging back . . . well liked by everyone and rightly so for "Gib" can get along with anybody . . . not the ladies man

BOHAN—End

Came from Chicago Heights with a good rep . . . proved it was no undue credit . . . was at his best when the going was toughest . . . popular fellow around school . . . has a steady . . . in fact many of them . . . expect big things from him in years to come both socially and in athletics . . .

BUCHOLZ—Quarterback

Cool and heady field general . . . good student . . . not a social hound but manages to get around in more ways than one . . .

BURCH—Guard

Hard as nails . . . held down the guard post in devastating style . . . good boy . . .

HOUCK—Fullback

A human battering man on offense and a demon on defense . . . has many friends and proves a friend to everyone . . .

BREMMER—Halfback

Another passing demon . . . also a nifty ball-carrier . . . good looking but doesn't seem to take advantage of it . . . just plain Don . . .

HOMECOMING

"Toe Knee" Sardge and his Marionettes, a "progressive" organization pulling many strings, has afforded first rate entertainment to the C.S.T.C. student body, and is enjoyed by all. On to a progressive democracy with Tony and his Marionettes.

Hear ye! hear ye! Know ye how much the state expends for your education? Know ye how much this college spends compared to other colleges? We cannot stand this additional expense. We cannot stand. . . .

"To require any applicant for admission, who shall not have been exempted by any of the provisions of this section, to pay or to secure to be paid such fees for tuition as the board may deem proper and reasonable. The board may also charge any student laboratory fees, book rents, fees for special departments or an incidental fee covering all special cost." (1)

that inspires a staff
to creative effort . . .*

A SCHOOL annual is at its best when student interest is keyed to a high pitch by the fascinating development of niceties that will make the book distinctive. This is the key idea back of Badger Yearbook Service. Close contacts and personal assistance offer students an insight into the fundamentals of school annual building. The work is accordingly given impetus through a better understanding of the purpose and aim in every move. Thus, a staff knows at all times what it desires to accomplish. When this is achieved, the task becomes a pleasure.

The success of the Badger plan is evidenced each year in the high ratings received by an unusually large percentage of books produced by us, and by the fact that many schools insist on Badger quality year after year.

(If you are a faculty adviser, or a student interested in annuals, write for full details on the Badger Plan)
