...By How We Do In The School.

FOREWORD

Through the halls, down Reserve Street, up the stairs, each day the students of WSU move. From the muddy ground, from lots on which stone houses once stood, and from grounds now bare of oak and elm trees grow buildings of blond brick, steel beams, and cement. These are but physical activities for the real growth and movement of the University lies within the intellectual growth and the successful movement of its students within society, a collegiate society of peers perhaps, but also one of faculty and administrators, and a community strange to most. A society labeled small by some while others may feel it is too large. Some will find it a warm and invigorating society while others will find it unsatisfactory. But in accepting it, in using it as a guide to establish who we are and what we are, we establish a base on which we shall move and continue to grow when these four hectic, yet, wonderful years are culminated.

It is the aim of this IRIS to capture one year of life, the life in and on this campus; one year of studying, playing, and working; one year of intellectual growth and social movement. It contains pictures of classmates and teachers, of dances and classes, of plays and sports, and of Carnivals, Homecomings, fraternities, religious groups, and even blood donors. It is a chest of paper, cloth, and inks to which must be added what each WSU student has reaped in this one year, and what memories he cherishes. Only then is this annual valuable, only then will the hours spent on it be fruitful, and only then will it become a treasure chest.

DEDICATION

FRANK W. CROW

The 1965 IRIS is dedicated to this history professor as a tribute from all the students he has aided in his first eighteen years at WSU.

SALUTE

ELIZABETH PFIFFNER DEBOT

The IRIS salutes Dean Pfiffner upon the culmination of twenty-five years of service to the students of WSU.

MEMO:

TO: all WSU "pirates"

FROM: the mates of the IRIS

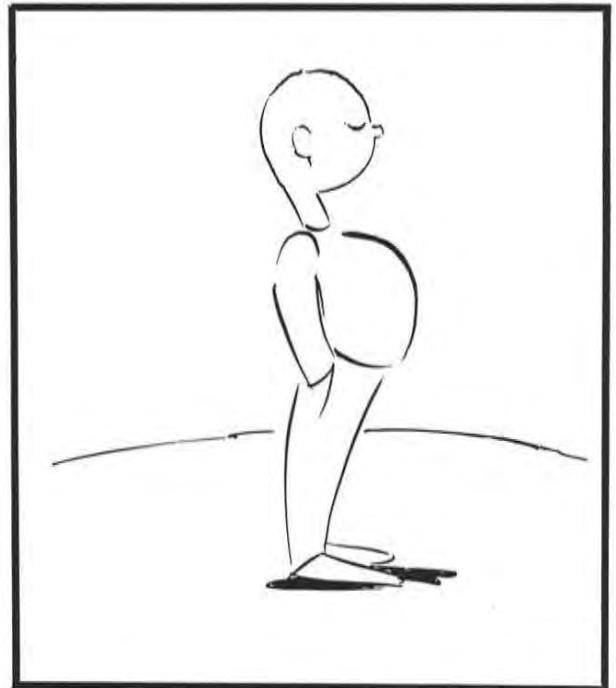

The 1965 IRIS is a pictorial treasure chest of memories . . . one year of work, of activities, of growing and moving . . . to be rediscovered each time it is opened.

After graduation each one of us will go off on our own expeditions, following personal treasure maps in search of hidden wonders and rewards. Days will pass, perhaps years, before we will take up this small paper chest again; brush off the dust and cobwebs; and turn its pages once more. We will recall old shipmates, shed a sentimental tear or two, and laugh at how much we have changed, while hoping no one will ask, "Is that really you?"

We have dug into the cache of old IRIS issues and have pirated some of their "valuables" for you to enjoy.

"IRIS," the name of our school flower and of our annual publication is a word that symbolizes at Central State Teachers College beauty in life and in art—a beauty that springs from purposeful work and recreation.—1929

— we should have been very humble, but we weren't—1940

in a world no longer mysterious and beautifully unreal, our tasks seemed double hard—

RETURN

It is late. Voices, calmed from early evening hilarity, have become stillness and starlight.

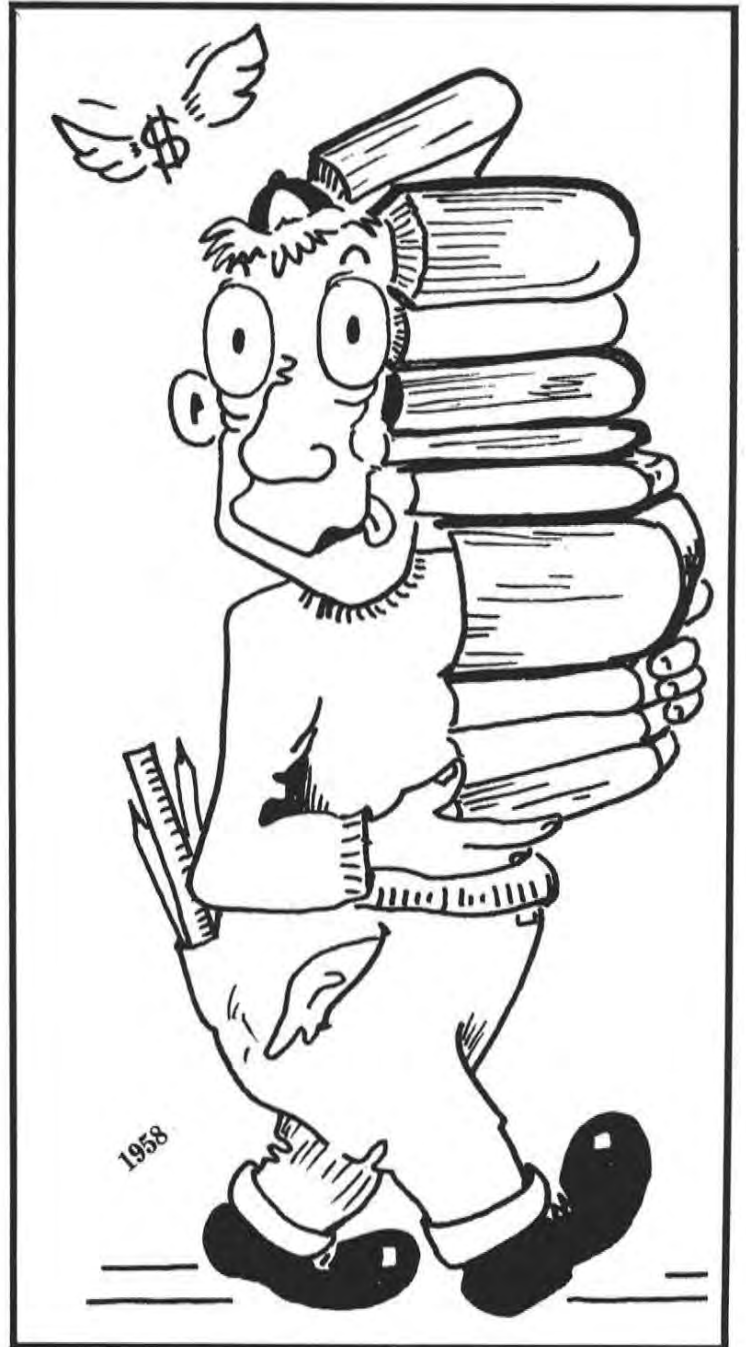

Against darkness I can see the building—the tower rises into haze and stars of the sky.

I've come back to school.

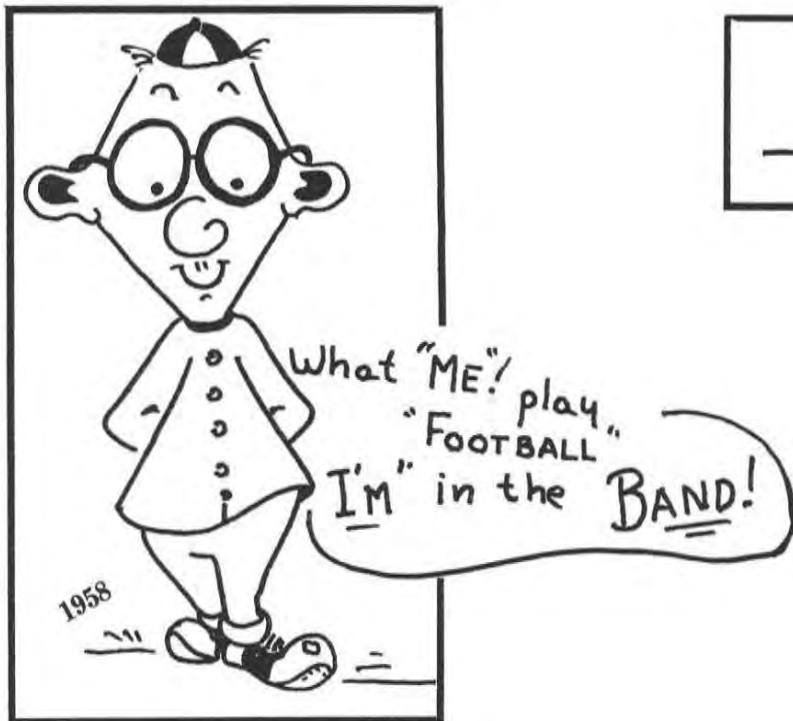

Vaguely I hope for others, as I gaze, some semblance of wishes fulfilled, of dreams of the future and friendships and learning and struggling that have been mine.

More clearly, I wish that nothing will take this year away from me. If no one can attain the height of my feeling, selfishly I wish for myself that I can recapture the happiness of another year.

1940

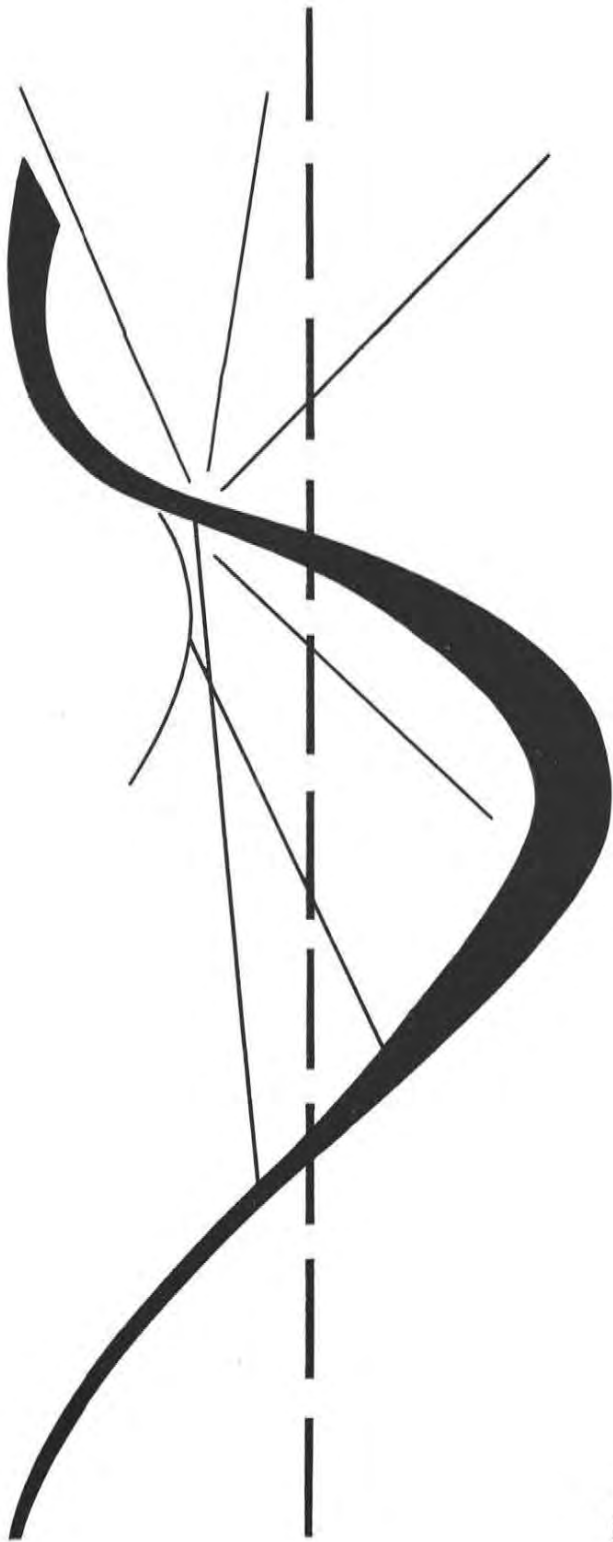

In observing the students, the different attitudes toward school distinguish one class from another. First, we have the Senior Class, who are apt to be quite worldly in their attitude. They're ready for graduation now and are going to seek their fortune. Next in line we have the juniors, who are just beginning to get their taste of teaching through their education and technique classes. Then come sophomores, who generally have all the self confidence in the world, but, of course, after one year of college it's expected that they would acquire self assurance. The "freshies" are usually termed "green as grass" but we must give them credit—they catch on to college life in a hurry.—1947

During your four years at Central State you have lived in a small college town enjoying all the freedoms which come with college life. You have chosen your own friends, made your own decisions, and established ideals which will greatly affect your way of life and the quality of your character.

As you leave, you take with you memories of your college years, but the freedom you exercised is more than a memory. It is a usable possession upon which our American way of life is built.—1948

POINTER JUBILEE

Allen Center is all decked out for the first big event of the school year.

It was a cool, windy evening in October. The campus organizations had set up booths in a balloon and streamer bedecked Allen Center to introduce themselves to the incoming Freshmen. Presented were Greek organizations, religious groups, honor societies, professional organizations, and political groups. There were fortune booths, kissing booths, fishing ponds, bean bag games, and dancing. The turnout was large, the conversations alluring, the entertainment lively, the evening enjoyable. The Pointer Jubilee, sponsored by the University Center Board, was considered a great success.

Lovely little animal, isn't it?

Looks like a success.

Juggin' along with the Phi Sigs.

Guess what the Y-GOP is doing in the next booth.

Watch that diplomatic action!

HOMECOMING

The year 1964 gave Stevens Point its first homecoming as a state university. Spirits were unusually high as the festivities opened with the introduction of the queen candidates. They were Marilyn Becker, Delta Zeta, sponsored by Phi Sigma Epsilon; Karen Gueths, Alpha Phi, sponsored by Sigma Phi Epsilon; Jan Holtzmilller, Delta Zeta, sponsored by Theta Delta Phi; Mary Panter sponsored by Sigma Tau Gamma; Jeannine Sands, Alpha Phi, sponsored by Tau Kappa Epsilon. "The Rejects" provided the music for this Student Council sponsored dance.

THE CAMPAIGN

Another blow for Mary

They'd do anything for Jeannine.

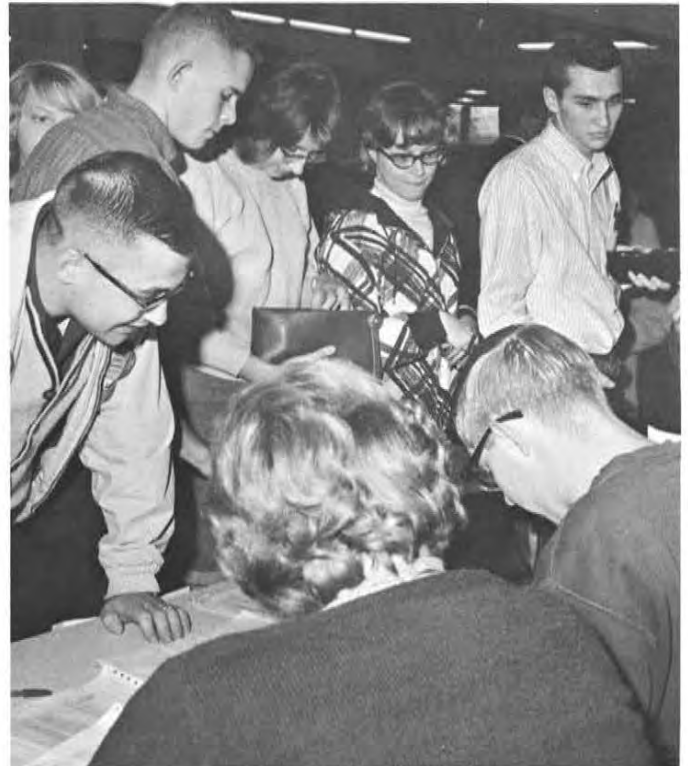

Teke culinary artists sample their work.

The campaign to pick a queen for Homecoming 1964, opened Monday morning as members of sponsoring organizations greeted students on their way to early classes with pictures and favors of their candidates. Nightly during the week, the shouts of supporters and blare of bands were heard as they moved from hall to hall singing the virtues of their candidates. Pizza parties, hayrides, popcorn, and cars to be wrecked were all a part of the campaign. The climax came Thursday night as each candidate spoke in her own behalf at the Queen's Assembly. Friday all was quiet as the students spoke on behalf of their choices.

The candidates converse?

WSU students voted for their choice.

THE ASSEMBLY

The moment when time stands still

"Oh really?"

Queen Pat crowns Queen Marilyn

Alpha Phi's first place float.

THE PARADE

Gamma Delta takes third.

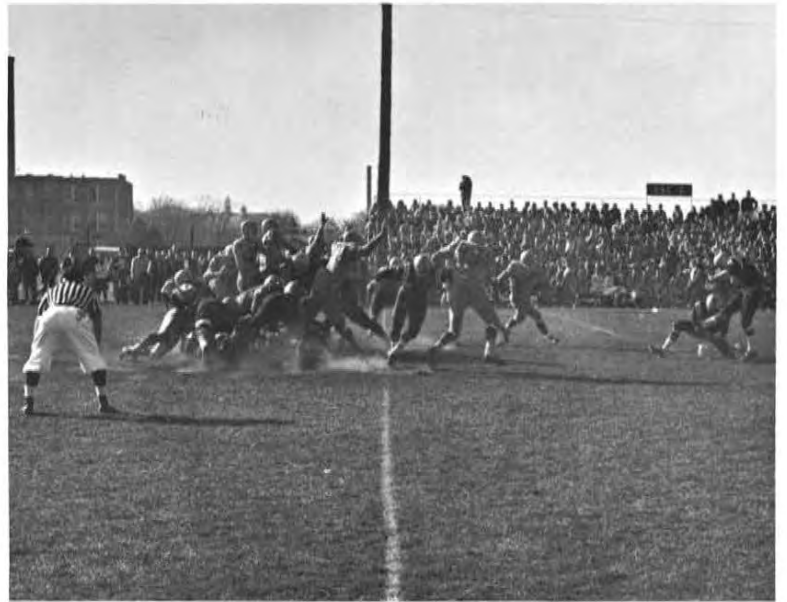

Delta Zeta second place winner.

THE GAME

Arf! Arf! Arf!

... and they held that line!

We depart victorious.

Happiness is two black eyes and a Homecoming victory.

Janet Fjelstad and Mark Deadman, representing Roach Hall, walked down a long white carpet, up a drawbridge and into a huge castle where they were crowned King and Queen of the 1965 Winter Carnival. The crowning was the climax of the Woodchopper's Ball on Friday night, held at the new Allen Center. Janet is a sophomore majoring in home economics and Mark is a sophomore majoring in economics. This year seventeen halls and campus organizations sponsored candidates for the king and queen contest. These seventeen candidates, pictured on the following page, were first introduced at the Torch Lighting Ceremony held on the front lawn of Old Main on Sunday afternoon.

KING AND QUEEN CANDIDATES

Dick Schoenberger, Ce Ce Cashin (Alpha Phi); Ron Snow, Gerry Campos (Pray-Sims Hall); George Haag, Ruth Nyre (Hyer Hall); Mark Deadman, Janet Fjelstad (Roach Hall).

Chuck Sambs, Judy Rasch (Smith Hall); Larry Holmes, Pam Wenker (Phi Sigma Epsilon); Tod Wise, Mary Rolfson (Delta Zeta); John Wenger, Kristin Weingarten (Alpha Kappa Lambda).

Steve Zeise, Julie Twichell (Steiner Hall); Thomas Zmude, Karen Zehner (Theta Delta Phi); James Davis, Sue Schmiedlin (Alpha Sigma Alpha); James Fickler, Jacqueline Horel (Sigma Phi Epsilon); Kenneth Davies, Carol Foss (Psi Delta Psi).

John Wehrle, Marlene Anderson (Delzell Hall); Jim Schilling, Sue Sadowske (Sigma Tau Gamma); James Best, Ginger Clay (Tau Kappa Epsilon); Gary Lasch, Paula Wendschuh (Ski Club).

"Sno-lympics" dedicated to Dean Debot after 25 years of service opened Sunday, February 14. A torch lit by Governor Knowles in Madison was carried by seventeen WSU men to the lawn of Old Main where Mrs. Debot ignited the huge Sno-lympics torch. The spirit of Winter Carnival was alive all week in the form of the huge burning torch.

The games officially started with the pancake eating contest. WSU won the State University crown away from Superior when Smoky Joe Southworth ate over fifty pancakes.

During the week the hairdo and pipe-smoking contests were held. In the pipe smoking contest, there were two divisions, one for men and one for women.

Thursday night skiing, skating and tobogganing were some of the activities that students participated in at Iverson Park.

This year the Woodchopper's Ball was held at the new Allen Center. King Mark and Queen Jan reigned over the dance.

Official game time was all day Saturday. The women opened the games with their own brand of football and Nelson Hall was this year's champ. New games added were the chariot race, greased pig and Sadie Hawkins.

The 1965 Winter Carnival was brought to a brilliant close at the climax program with the appearance of the New Christy Minstrels.

Judy makes the touchdown.

The lost art of log-sawing was revived for Winter Carnival.

The TKEs placed first in the new chariot race.

"Canadian Maple Leaf" won first place for Alpha Phi in the women's division.

Sculpturers displayed true artistic talent in life-like statues.

Sigma Tau Gamma placed first in the men's division with "Buddha."

They won?

Happy Birthday, Karl!

All sacked out, Jan?

LECTURE SERIES

In a continued effort to make the best of the arts available to students, faculty, and non-University people of Central Wisconsin, the 1964-65 ARTS AND LECTURE SERIES provided a variety of dramatic and musical productions beginning with the October performance of the Warsaw Philharmonic. Other presentations this year were Emlyn Williams as Charles Dickens; John Browning, pianist; Minneapolis Symphony; Nell Gotkovsky, violinist; Shirley Verrett, mezzo soprano; Hermann Prey, baritone; Juilliard String Quartet; dramatic presentation of "In White America"; and the New York Woodwind Quintet.

SHIRLEY VERRETT

Since her first appearance at the Spoleto Festival in Italy, Shirley Verrett's mezzo-soprano voice and her feeling for her music have moved audiences throughout the world. She became the first Negro to sing "Carmen" at the Bolshoi Theatre and debuts with it at the New York City Opera in the fall of 1965.

EMLYN WILLIAMS

An all too familiar weekend sight was the WSU hitchhiker.

Some nights were meant for dreaming, wondering, wishing.

Posture — poor; conversation — light; homework — forgotten; relaxation?

During the year the senior Home Ec majors presented programs of homemaking interest to the women of the community and the campus. One program explored the world of fabrics and interior decorating, while another presented a lecture on furniture styles.

A ski Club style show during Winter Carnival week presented the latest fashions in ski wear.

While voting for Student Council and class officers was light; it was heavier for Homecoming and Winter Carnival royalty.

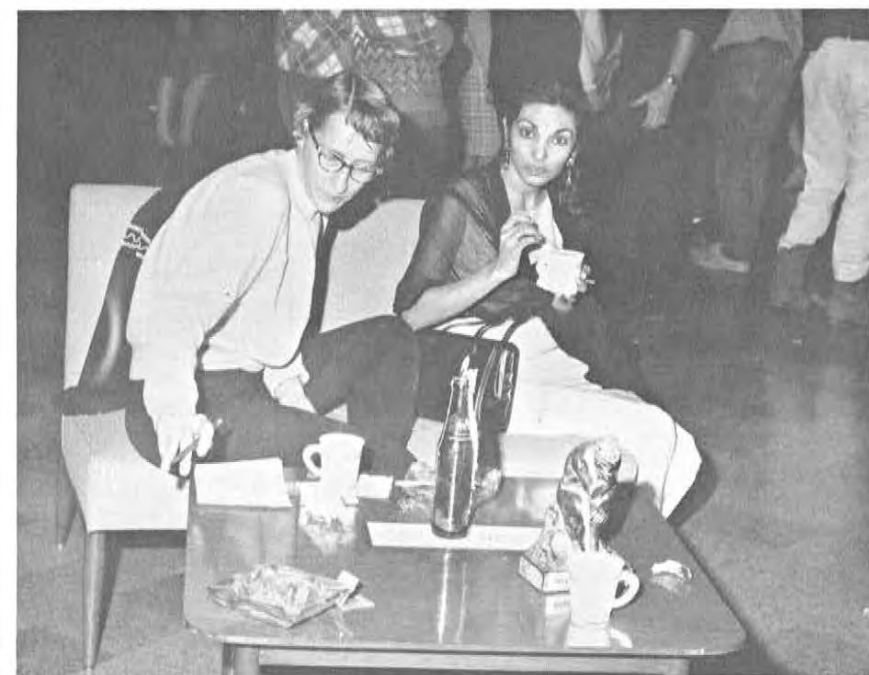

Student Council President J. Christensen made a statement, on the Courthouse steps, after the march protesting the Selma, Alabama treatment of Negroes.

On the night of the national elections results were followed in the University Center lounge.

Children's eyes are wide with wonder with what Santa has in his bag at the Speech and Hearing Association's Christmas Party.

Miss Schelfhout and Miss Gidwani relax with cups of coffee.

Former WSU students and faculty gathered together for a dinner on Homecoming weekend.

SOME ACTIVITIES ARE OF COMMUNITY SERVICE...

The spirit of giving enables some Indian families a happier Christmas.

... the road won't be traveled alone,

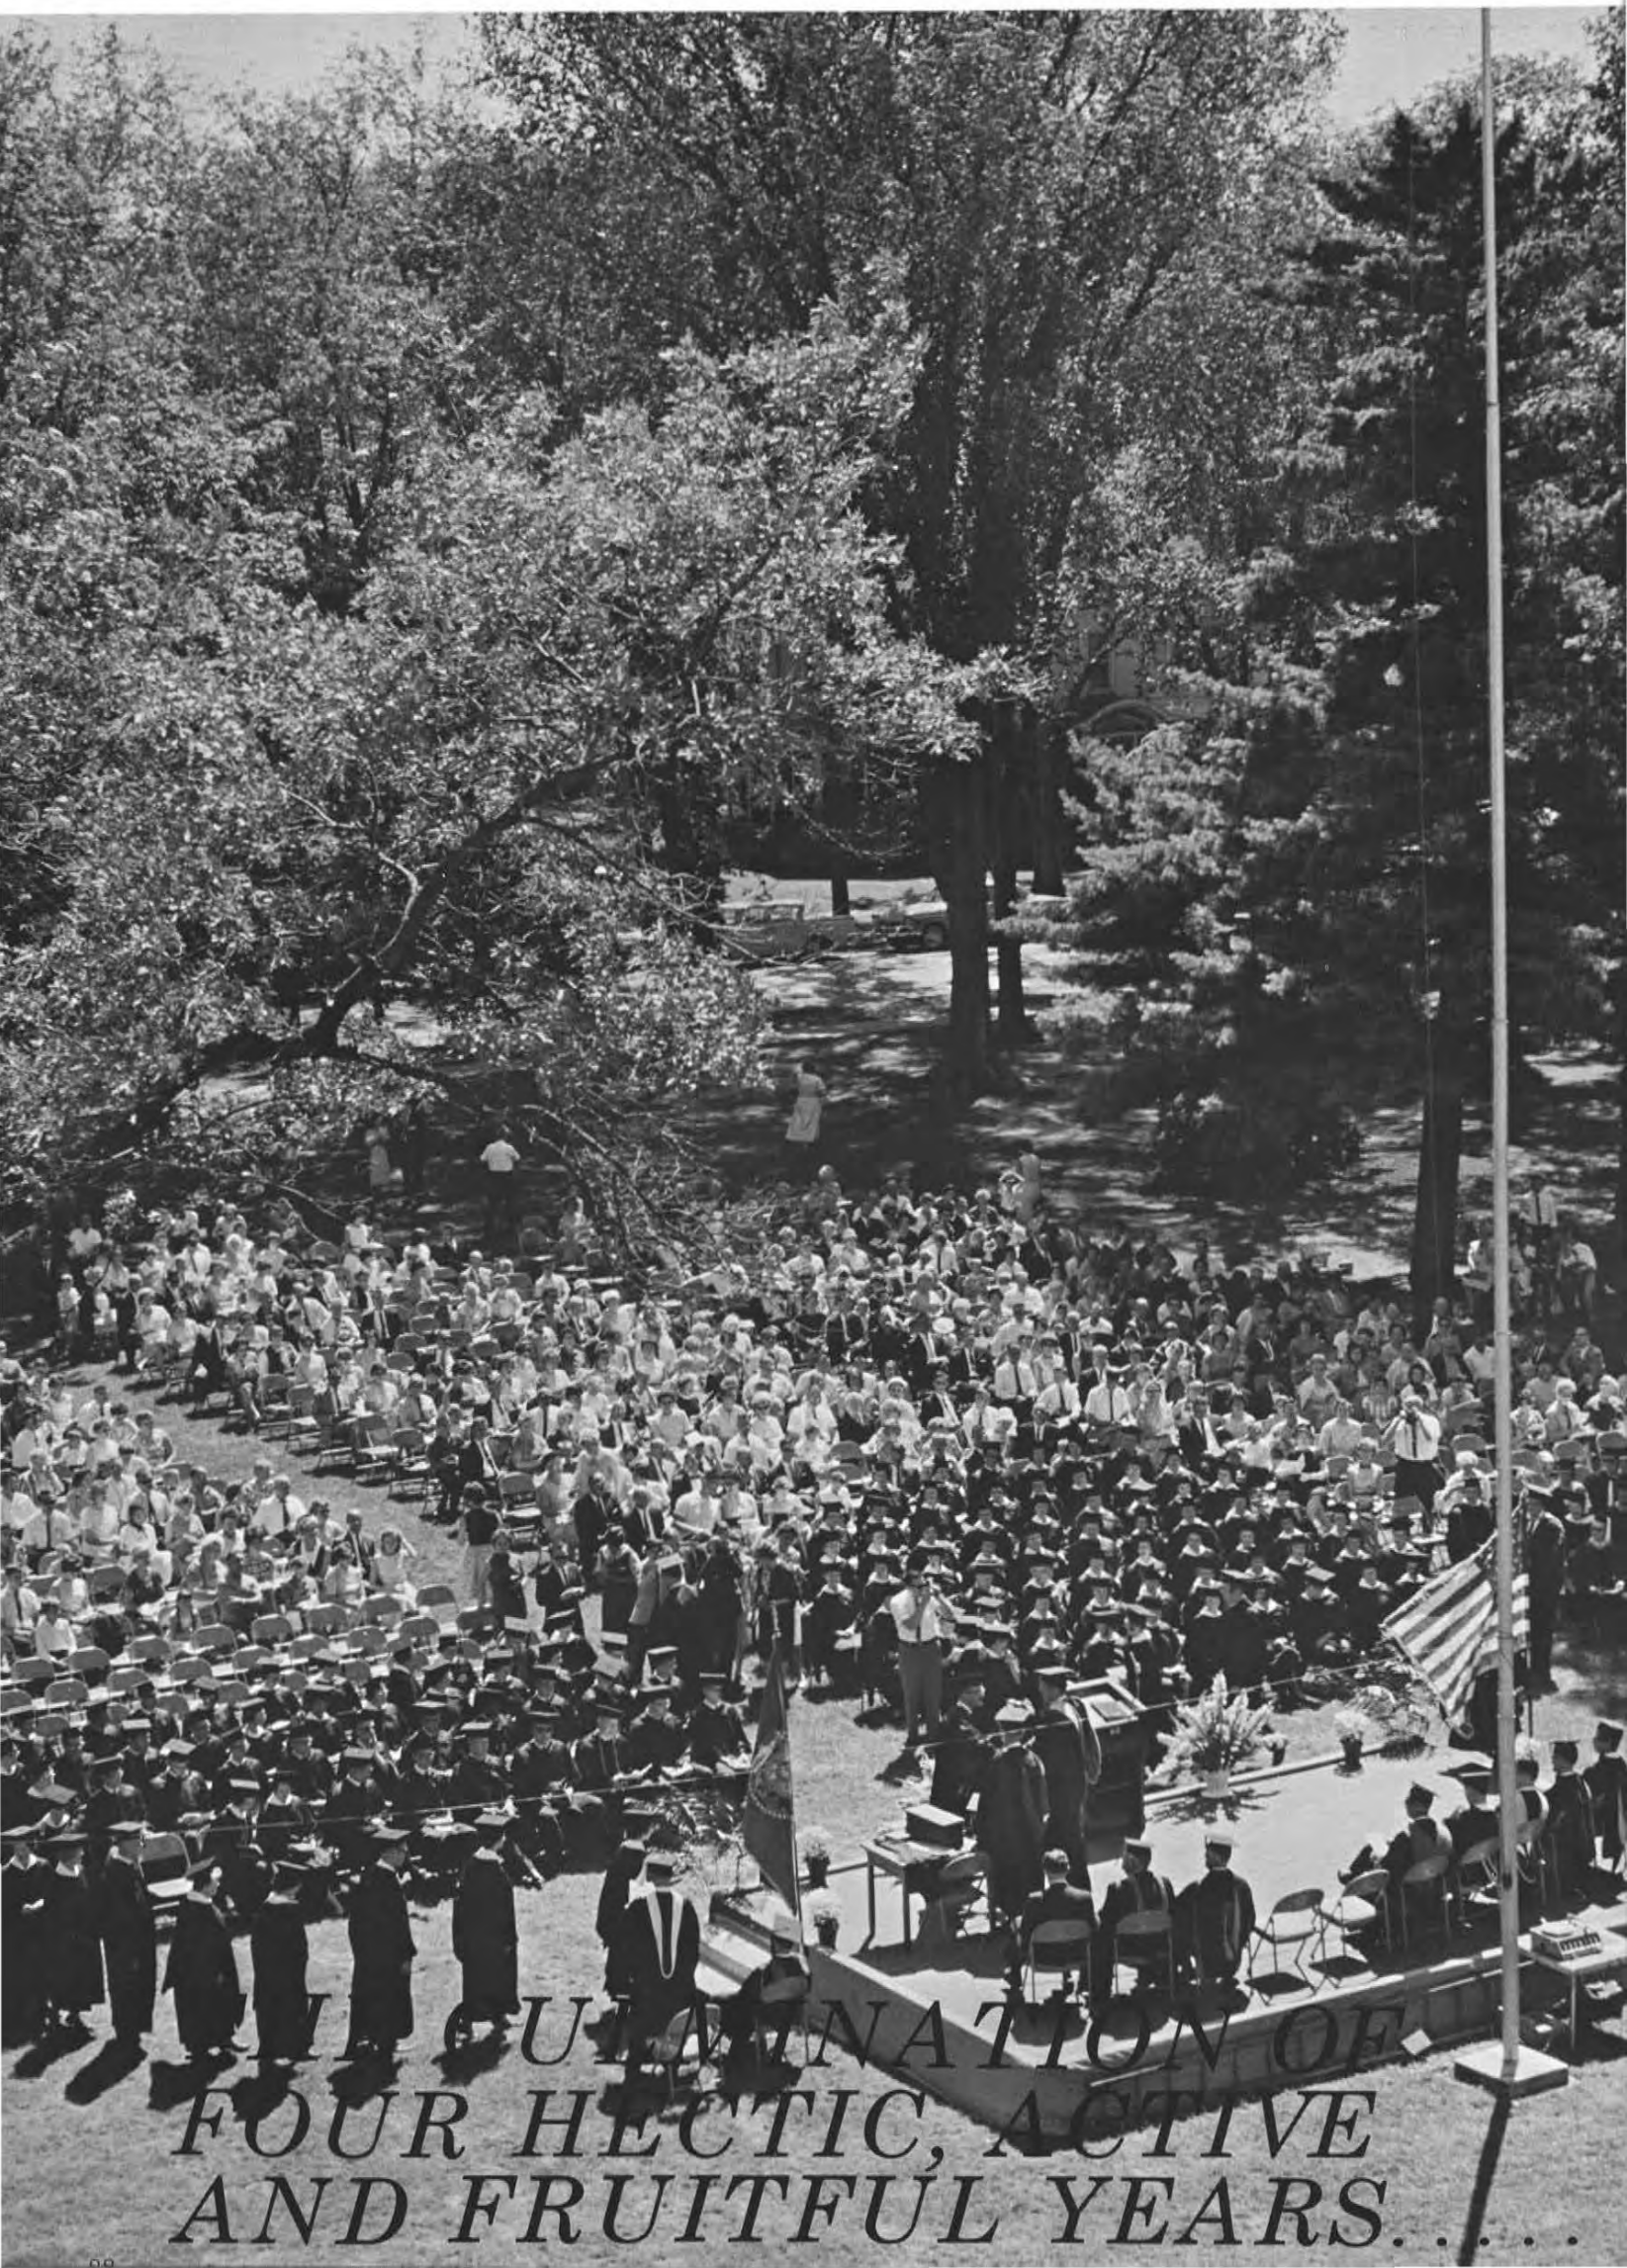

Four years pass and we no longer can count on being guided by schedules, classes, friends, or faculty. The gate swings open and we must choose our own paths, there can be no lingering anymore. For some . . .

The UNIVERSITY CENTER is currently experiencing a period of rapid expansion of its physical structure and facilities. Progress in this form is inevitably accompanied by new problems and challenges, but more importantly, new opportunities. It is primarily in these new opportunities that the University Center Board of future years will be interested.

The UCB of this past year, bearing in mind the limited facilities afforded the students, not only utilized those available to the fullest, but also went far beyond the confines of the center itself to provide activities for the students of WSUSP. In accord with the stated purpose of the UCB, these activities were designed to provide for the recreational, social, and cultural development of the student body. A few concrete examples of these might be the following: Freshman Mixer; All-School Mixer; Pointer Jubilee; Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas Dances; Christmas Decorating Party; the Election Night Vigil; and Winter Carnival.

The aforementioned activities, and many others, were made possible only through the efficient functioning of the Committee structure of the Board. The committees which constitute this structure are the seven standing committees, (Cultural, Games, House, Outing, Public Relations, Social, and Special Events) and three special committees (Foods, Personnel, and Property).

It is only through the constant efforts and many sacrifices of these committee chairmen, the UCB officers, and innumerable students that the University Center Board can continue to operate effectively.

Increasing scholarship and understanding is the aim of the organization, open to all social studies and social science. It fosters this by programs as this year's mock presidential balloting, slices of Brazil and Russia as shown by T. Sabrinko and N. Masterson, of Sentry Life, discussions and invited speakers.

PHI ALPHA THETA is the national honorary history society open to those who have attained high academic achievement in the field of history.

ALPHA KAPPA RHO, the Honorary Music Fraternity, seeks to help its members become acquainted with all aspects of music. This year they have had honor recitals, sponsored dances and brought music to the community by visiting the old folks home and presenting a program for them. The advisor is Mr. Dean Blair.

The WSU BRASS CHOIR, directed by Robert Van Nuys, has enjoyed a busy season this year in campus programs and in tours. Last May they were selected to play for the University commencement, and in December the ensemble toured the eastern part of Wisconsin for three days, in the Green Bay and Manitowoc areas, playing to large groups of high school students. In January the brass choir toured the southern part of the state for four days.

The “S” CLUB is an organization for athletes who have won a letter in one of the intercollegiate sports at WSU.

The organization presents official award jackets to athletes who have earned three letters in one sport, and who have been active in the club. Freshman athlete of the year and most valuable player awards for each sport are also presented by the “S” Club.

The annual homecoming dance is one of the major activities sponsored by the “S” Club. We are also in charge of the refreshment stands at football and basketball games. Social events include a fall banquet for football players and club members and a spring picnic.

The high point of the season took place during the semester break when the club travelled to northern Michigan.

Membership in this association is automatically opened to all university women who are interested in taking part in an intramural sports program for women. Throughout the year the girls are invited to sportsdays at the other state universities. This year Stevens Point played host to a basketball sportsday and a high school playday. ALPHA PHI, one of the oldest social sororities for women, was founded at Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York in 1872, and now has more than 37,000 members and has installed 90 collegiate chapters.

The Phis actively participated in Homecoming by winning first place in the serious division with the float "Arms for Victory," and by supporting Karen Gueths, the Sig Ep's Queen candidate and Jeannine Sands, the TKE Candidate.

Second semester's activities included participation in Winter Carnival, rush parties, pledging and the Mother's Day Tea.

Alpha Sigma Alpha is the oldest national sorority on campus. As a sorority, it endeavors to promote friendship and good will on the University campus, through community spirit. It establishes close bonds with other Alpha Sigma Alpha chapters as shown when members, Pat Strozinski and Barb Jakubowski were present at the installation of a new chapter at Loyola University in the fall.

Alpha Sigs exhibited spirit through Homecoming activities, participation in the annual Songfest and support of Winter Carnival. Promoting the national philanthropic project, Alpha Sigs bought Christmas gifts for the mentally retarded children at Northern Colony, Chippewa Falls.

Spring brought "Spring Festival" enthusiasm from Alpha Sigs. Rush parties and initiation of pledges culminated the year.

They were very proud when Marilyn Becker was chosen to reign as Queen over the Homecoming festivities. The DZ float, "Not Vain the Weakest When Their Force Unite," won second place in the serious division. An Alumni reunion was held after the game.

Nine new members were initiated during open rush and Delta Zetas participated in the Intersorority Tea.

In December, the DZ's annual "SNOW SWIRL" was presented and the girls had a Christmas Party.

Second semester, Delta Zeta participated in Winter Carnival, Spring Rush, and the Intersorority Dance.

PHI SIGMA EPSILON, Kappa Chapter, at Wisconsin State University, Stevens Point, is the oldest of its chapters in the state. Founded in 1931, Kappa Chapter has, since then, turned out many proud alumni who approach all fields of endeavor. These men, commonly known as the "Phi Sigs," are a dynamic group who sincerely believe that brotherhood is the primary goal of all fraternities. With this idea in mind, the organization has grown and prospered. During this period, it has continuously participated in Homecoming, Winter Carnival and other campus events to do whatever it could to enhance the social pleasure of the whole school. Also, academically, the Phi Sigs possess the prestige of having one of the highest organizational grade points on this campus. Thus, this combination of academic prowess, social interaction and, primarily, its concept of brotherhood made Phi Sigma Epsilon a well-balanced organization.

Although Sigma Phi Epsilon is designated as a social fraternity, it also attempts to develop to the fullest all of the important ingredients of campus living—high scholastic attainment, community service, and personal development through companionship and brotherhood.

Annual activities include float boat trips, Homecoming, Christmas party, Sweet-heart dance, viking party, and numerous other festivities. The fraternity, through its national organization, sponsors a summer camp for underprivileged children.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA, the newest of the four national fraternities on campus, actively participated in school functions and affairs as well as its own. Its purpose is that of promoting fellowship among its members through scholarship, loyalty to school and fraternity and the establishment of an environment for life-long friendships.

Homecoming was a busy time for the Sig Tau's as they sponsored Mary Panter as their Homecoming queen candidate and built a float which placed second in its division. The Sig Tau's came on strong during winter carnival as their giant "Buddah" won a first place for them in the ice carvings. Their king-queen candidates, Jim Schilling and Sue Sadowski, placed third, making Sigma Tau Gamma the only fraternity represented on the court. The brothers also participated in the games and ended the week coming in with a second place for winter carnival.

Traditionally valuing high scholarship, Sigma Tau Gamma has had the highest grade point of all the social fraternities on campus for 15 out of 16 semesters. Other points of the school year include the White Rose formal, the annual sweater dance, smelt fry, safaris, various pledging activities and intramural and interfraternal sports such as bowling, basketball and baseball.

The fraternity colors are blue and white, the fraternity flower is the white rose.

THETA DELTA PHI is a social fraternity for men, founded on February 11, 1964. Its aims are to encourage its members to high scholastic standing, to make available to its members the example, environment and training that best characterizes the college man, and to foster a more vigorous spirit of loyalty to the social and intellectual spheres that best traditionalize university life.

Theta Delta Phi participated in Homecoming this year by entering Miss Jan Holzmiller as their queen candidate and by their float entry. Among their other activities were the Winter Carnival events, the Bloodmobile, Cancer and March of Dimes drives. They also co-sponsored a drive to raise funds for a heart operation for their house-parents' daughter, "Squeaky."

The Brothers were welcomed back to school this year with the opening of their fraternity house, the first such house on the WSU campus.

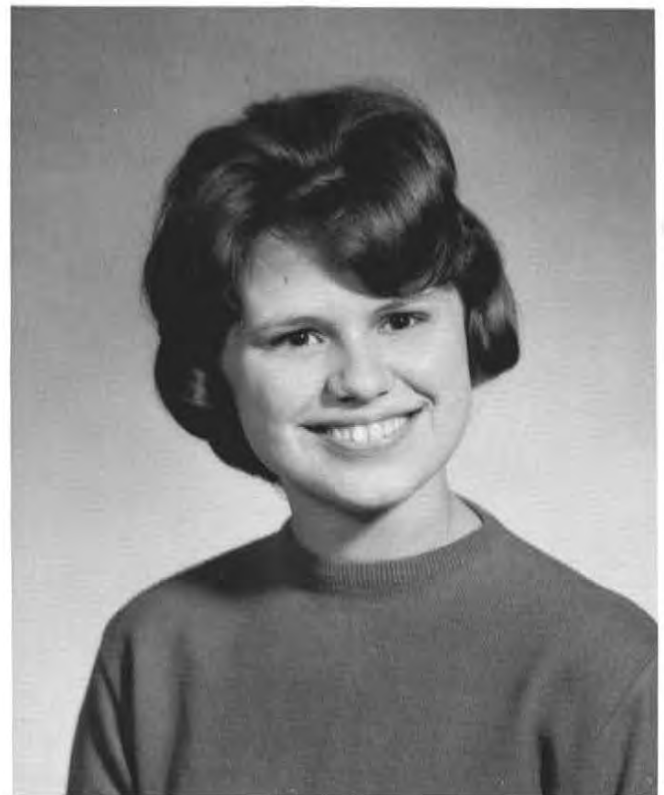

During the year, the fraternity also will participate in other social functions and further their hopes of becoming a chapter of a national fraternity in the fall semester of 1965.

During Homecoming activities, old actives reminisced with the present actives at the annual Homecoming Banquet. "Queen Victory, Bee Ours," the Psi Delta Psi float entry won first place in the humorous division.

Monthly service projects and special service projects were among the many activities for the year. Songfest, Intersorority Tea, and Winter Carnival were among the many and varied activities that the Psi Deltas participated in.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA, the only national and international service fraternity on campus has the purpose of assembling college men in the fellowship of the Scout Oath and Law, to develop friendship, and to promote service to humanity.

The past year has been a busy one indeed for the fraternity. It has extended services on four levels: students, faculty, community, and nation. Once again the used book exchange offered all students the opportunity to buy and sell used paperbacks. The fraternity served as guides for high school visitation days, and as assistant marshalls for Homecoming.

Alpha Phi Omega sponsored for the second time the Ugly Man on Campus Contest to raise money for the United Fund, was in charge of the campus bloodmobile drive, and assisted the local scouts on paper drives and other projects.

State and nation-wide services include assisting at the State Red Cross convention, serving as Peace Corps representatives on campus, and collecting funds for the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library.

This year, A-Phi-O won second place with its float at Homecoming and participated in Winter Carnival activities.

One of the newest organizations on campus this year is the QUIMUS JULI CLUB of second floor, Steiner Hall. "Quimus Juli," a Navaho saying, has come to mean "live it up" among the members.

Participation in campus activities was the focal point for Quimus Juli this year.

THE INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ORGANIZATION provides an atmosphere in which students from all over the world can exchange their ideas. We discuss political problems, social interests, and cultural backgrounds of the different countries which we represent. In this way the International Student Organization helps to promote friendship and international understanding. We welcome all WSU students to participate in our program.

This being our second year in operation and an election year, we started off our year in Y-DEMS with a drive to build up our membership. Our big project this year was an active participation in the election campaigns. Our time and efforts proved worth while.

In an effort to extend our role on campus we took part in the Pointer Jubilee and other campus activities. We sponsored speakers, debates and discussion groups. In keeping with our goals we tried to acquaint the students of our University with governmental problems and to establish in the students a feeling of responsibility toward those problems. One of our prime efforts was made in the direction of presenting the views and ideals of the Democratic Party to the students. We ended up our year by sponsoring a Miss Y-Dem contest and attending the state convention.

Republicans believe that government must remain always the servant—never the master—of the people. With this creed of individual freedom through private enterprise and integrity, the members of this club gather together with a common basis of understanding. The members do not profess to know “All” about politics, but they meet to learn more about the American political way of life so that they may become better citizens. Conventions, panel discussions, movies, well-known speakers, but most of all, expression of individual ideals and philosophies, are characteristic activities of this club.

Some of the many areas that Inter-hall participates in are: Homecoming, Winter Carnival, a special Christmas dance, the Christmas decorations in front of the halls, a spring dance.

Under the leadership of president Lynn Hall, Hyer Hall took on its second great year in operation. Starting off the school year, Hyer participated in Homecoming with outside decorations to the theme "Achievement through Unity." Throughout the year, we also actively participated in the AWS Songfest, Christmas festivities and Winter Carnival. DELZELL HALL

For the third year in a row, the men of Delzell have taken the leadership at Christmas time in beautifying the campus with decorations. It has become a tradition at Delzell to decorate the hall and in doing so to help spread Christmas Sprit throughout the campus and the town of Stevens Point.

The Christmas decorations made a glow in Fremont street for all to see.

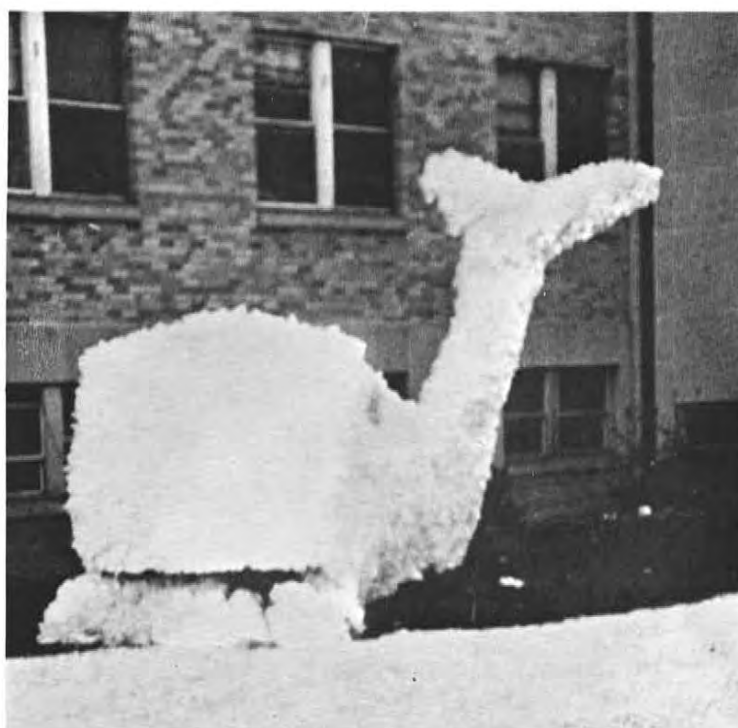

To the Turkey-Trotters and to winner Warren Terry this unidentified director served one large turkey dinner.

Dan Sambs threw the log for Delzell in for a grand total of three feet.

This year, DELZELL HALL is fortunate in having an active Hall Council and a cooperative group of residents who are interested in bettering the hall's image on campus. This was shown by the Hall's fine participation in the various Homecoming activities. The men of Delzell carried on dances with the various women's residence halls, and continued the tradition of competing in the Christmas decoration contest.

NELSON HALL is always a busy and inviting place to people who come to visit us. The girls of Nelson Hall, headed by a very active Hall Council, have participated in songfest, outside Homecoming and Christmas decorations, and various inter-hall activities. The annual Christmas Tea, Nelson Hall Ball, and closed lounges which featured guest speakers, have rounded out a very active year the girls in Nelson will not forget.

Long hours, miles of pen lines, yards of typewriter ribbon, and a large bottle of aspirin, all add to an annual called the IRIS. Each Monday night, and many nights in between, the volunteer staff met, planned, worked and worked some more. There were times when everything seemed to go wrong — once there was no film in the camera, another time the file drawers locked and no one had the key, pictures mysteriously disappeared from the room, things got lost on the editor's desk, and the builders sealed up the office windows and then proceeded to make holes in the opposite wall, and on it went.

November passed into December, January into February and the deadline was creeping up on us. But then came Easter and sighs of relief were heard in Room 26 of the Center for the annual was complete. Looking back things were not so bad. We remembered the strange letters some received, the times we laughed so hard we cried, and when we saw the results we smiled and felt rewarded for all our hard labor.

Yes, annuals are the resulting product of many long hours of hard work, but what would Wisconsin State University—Stevens Point be without the Iris?

Pat nearly got calluses from typing.

Christine is camera shy.

"What do you mean you lost the picture?"

"Let's do it this way!"

This has been one of the most memorable years for the POINTER and certainly one of the most exciting for the staff. Early in the year our Editor was hung in effigy outside of the University Center, because of his front page editorial endorsing Senator Barry Goldwater for President of the United States. The staff was exposed to everything from ugly epithets to a gift of a bouquet of roses—they had some enemies, but someone loved them too. To commemorate Winter Carnival this year, the Pointer published its first 12 page edition, another Pointer milestone.

Perhaps the highest compliment paid the Pointer was received from an administrator when he said that this was the first time in thirty years that the Pointer stimulated intellectual discussion on this campus. Yes, it was a great year for the Pointer.

Going down ?

Football has been said to be a game of luck or fortune. That critical fourth down play or that measurement for the needed first down rely on fortune. "Fortune mere fortune may make even madness wisdom."

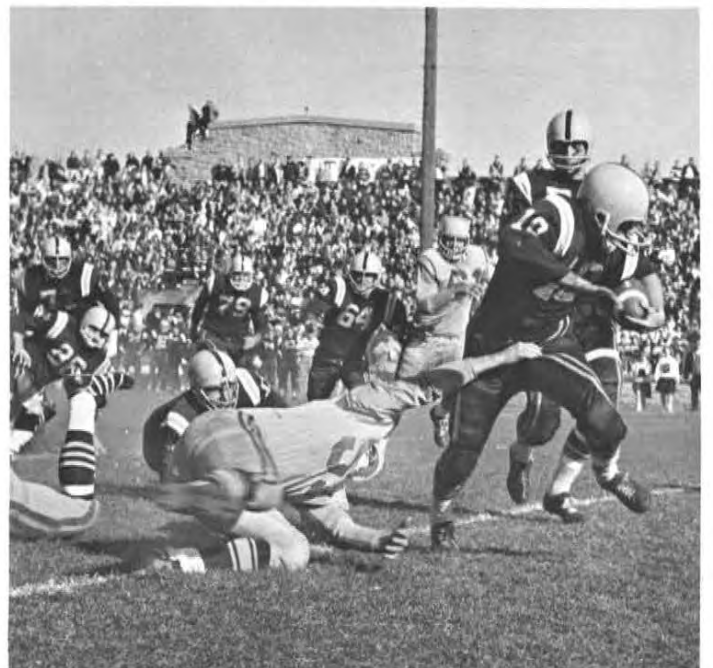

WSU All Conference Back Holmes bursts forth.

Icarus's wings melt.

Holmes breaks loose again.

The Pointer football locomotive was clogged early in the season by ineligibility to key squad members, but with hard work and high spirits the Pointers derailed conference champions Eau Claire at our WSU homecoming and dismantled River Falls, a contender for the Wisconsin State University Conference Crown. As has been the case in past years, the Stevens Point football team once again roared down the track to respect and victory.

The cries of the cheerleaders salute the 1964 team and welcome the 1965 team.

FRONT ROW: T. Frank, D. Ceplina, J. Lewis, J. Barsch, J. Nyaricki. 2ND ROW: Coach D. Hoff, P.

Bertrand, P. LaMere, D. Berry, R. Seefeld, C. Connors, E. Folas, Mgr. K. Jaeger.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Pointer harriers under the watchful eye of Coach Don Hoff and a determined squad of primarily freshmen proved that hard work can always make up for inexperience. Led by D. Ceplina and J. Nyaricki the harriers covered the three mile courses in outstanding times. Prospects point to an even better year in 1965.

"... and miles to go before I sleep and miles to go ..."

POINTERS 1965

J. Lawetzki arches a shot for two more points.

The cheerleaders are up in the air for another Point victory.

Ochs battles against River Falls' Falcons.

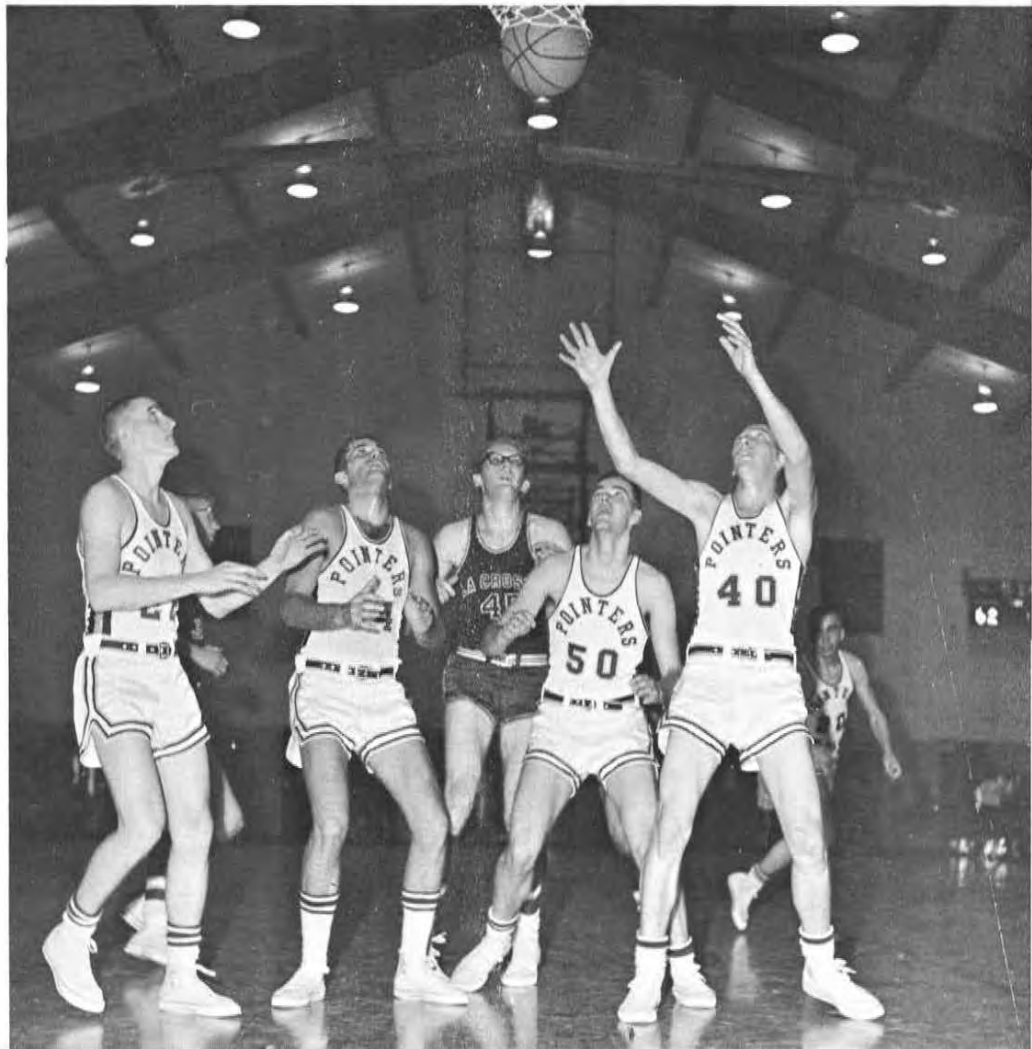

Coach Krueger's Pointers began the 1964-65 Basketball season with wins over Winona State (Minnesota) and Lawrence University (Appleton). WSU conference play was rugged and the Pointers lost their first five conference games. As the season progressed the team straightened out becoming one of the conference's finest by winning eight of the last eleven games played.

All Conference Center W. Zuege stretches for the basket.

A tip in by W. Zuege gains another two points for Coach Krueger's boys.

Dr. Bruce C. Ogilvie of San Jose State College, California says that athletes have more ambition, drive and overall dedication than the average college student. He also said, "There seems to be a definite athletic profile when the muscular fellows are compared with other college males." Thus as WSU moves forward and grows its athletes shall share in the University's prosperity.

Growth is an aim of Wisconsin State University-Stevens Point which began as a Normal School in 1894. Since that time it has grown architecturally, socially, and academically.

In the last fifteen years a Library, University center, Physical Education Building, Science Building, Bessie May Allen Food Center, and seven residence halls have been added to the campus. Two new residence halls and a University Center Addition are part of a multi-million dollar program that will add even more buildings in the next decade.

In July 1964 "Central State College" became a State University and in the following August the first Masters degrees were conferred.

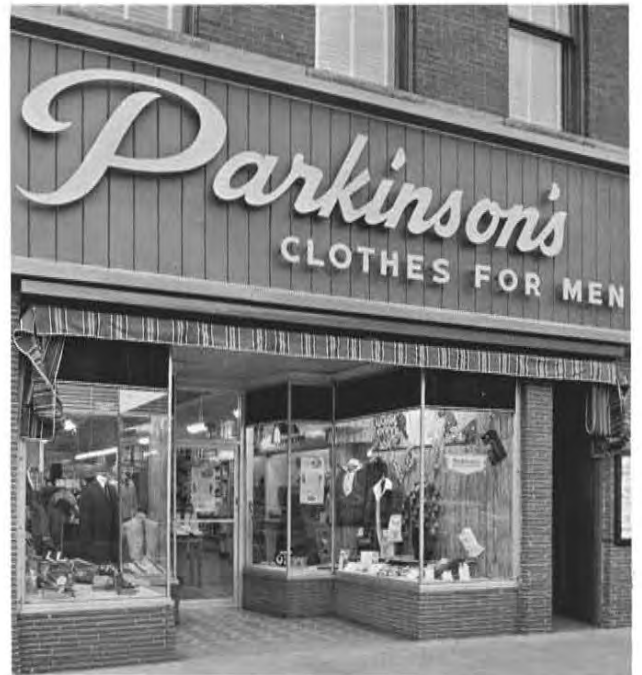

Departments likewise have grown. Twenty-six teachers make English the largest staffed department. New to the curriculum are the courses in American Civilization and Latin American Studies. Only slightly older is the Speech Therapy department.

Not only has the school grown but those who are leaving it have also grown. For in their growth lies the true value of the University.

- A University store
- Snack bar for 400 people
- A Multi-purpose room with portable stage
