STEVENS POINT

Foreword

The dome that rises above Old Main has now become the symbol of our university. It is the visible symbol of the intellectual and social growth of WSU. The aim of this IRIS is to capture and record one year of this growth. Paper and ink cannot capture the inner growth of each student and the memories he cherishes cannot be bound between two covers; they are the invisible qualities that give meaning to a visible symbol.

STUDENT LIFE

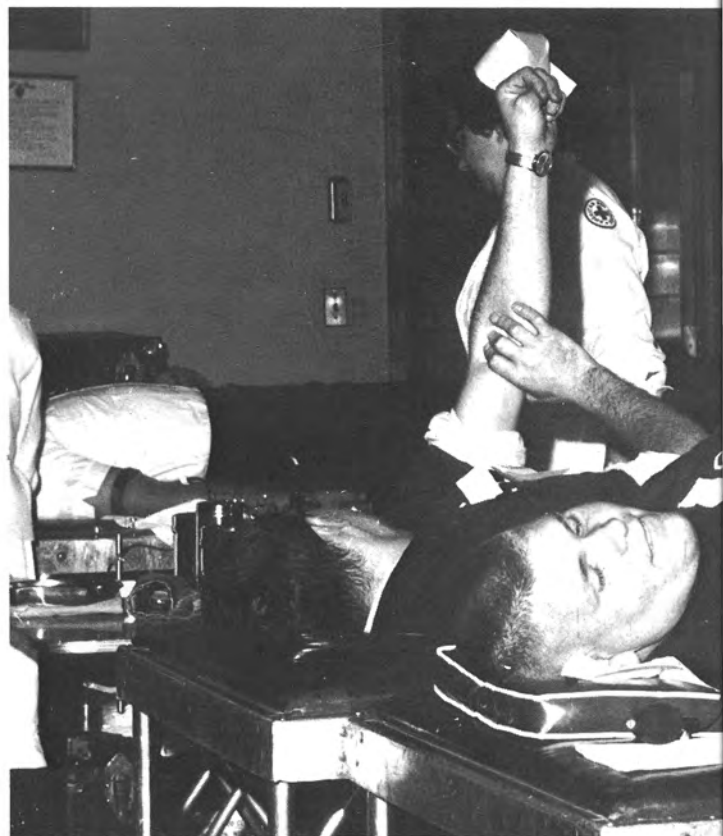

"We must strive to acquire knowledge . . .

... and to apply it with wisdom.”
J. F. Kennedy

“... and he'll be tall, dark, and handsome.”

Much of the activity of the 1965 Pointer Jubilee was held in the Frank Lloyd Wright room of the University Center. It was in this room that various organizations such as religious groups, fraternities, sororities and other social groups constructed their booths.

Each of these groups hoped they would be able to acquaint both new and old students with the people and activities of their particular organization. In this way students would be able to choose their affiliations for the year.

The before mentioned booths were both entertaining and informative. The following are samples of some of the displays that were constructed.

A “love-o-meter” was sponsored by the Amateur Radio Club. It was at this booth that couples were able to find if they were “ex-lax, average, mediocre, or playboy-playgirl of the year.”

The Young Republicans held drawings throughout the evening. The lucky winners were awarded this year's most exotic prize, a “rat fink”.

The International Student Organization had a fortune telling tent and Sigma Tau Gamma brought back many memories by showing slides of last year's activities.

Alpha Kappa Lambda was another group that showed slides. By displaying extreme cases of water pollution and the number of deer that starved or were killed on highways they were able to point to the need for improved conservation practices.

Large crowds were drawn to the College Theatre booth where movies that had been produced, directed and filmed by John Primm and Larry Klubakowski were being shown.

A new feature this year was the Homecoming booth. It featured portraits of the Queen Candidates and tickets were on sale for the finale program which featured the Village Stompers.

The Gridiron room was turned into a Playboy Club for the evening. Soft romantic music played in the background and a number of college girls dressed as “bunnies” waited on tables.

For those students that preferred a faster pace, the “Temptations” provided music for the latest dances. This activity took place in the new Wisconsin Room.

Conscientious workers put the finishing touches on their booths.

Homecoming

Thousands of flyers appeared on campus, huge posters were put up everywhere, large portraits of the Queen candidates were on display in the main lobby of the Science Building and the TKE's sat on a scaffold ringing a bell for Paula. This was how Homecoming 1965 opened on October 6.

This year for the first time, the Queens Assembly was held in the Fieldhouse and the following day, Friday, the tunnel was jammed with students voting for their favorite candidate. The "S" Club sponsored the Homecoming Dance and it was at this time that Miss Anita Knaack was crowned the 1965 Homecoming Queen.

Saturday was the colorful parade featuring the Glengary Bagpipe and Drum Corps and the Madison Scout's Drum and Bugle Corps. The latter group also performed between halves at the Pointer-Hillsdale game.

Homecoming was climaxed by the appearance of the Village Stompers at the Fieldhouse on Saturday night.

The Glengary Bagpipe and Drum Corps performed after the parade.

The WSU Pointer Band led the large Homecoming parade in which the Sig Tau's Devil took first place.

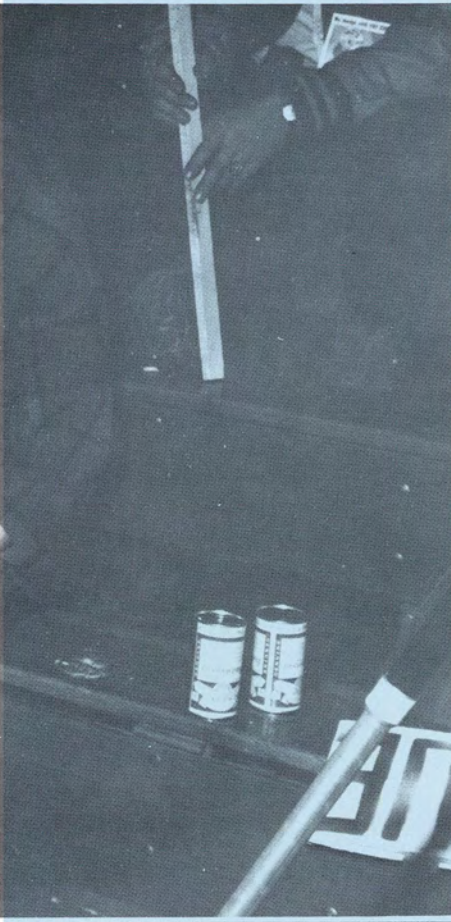

Campaigning worked up to a fever pitch as elections drew near.

"Sno-A-Go-Go", the sixth annual WSU-SP Pointer Winter Carnival began with the now traditional torch-run from Madison and torch lighting ceremony on Sunday, February 13.

Len Marcisz, General Chairman, announced at that time that this year's carnival would be dedicated to Norman E. Knutzen, founder of the WSU Men's Glee Club and director of the group for more than 30 years.

This year's carnival program included a kick-off dance; contests for hairdos, legs, and unusual dress; endurance contests—including pipe smoking and pancake eating; an evening of outdoor sports; the Woodchoppers Ball and the appearance of the Kingston Trio at the climax program.

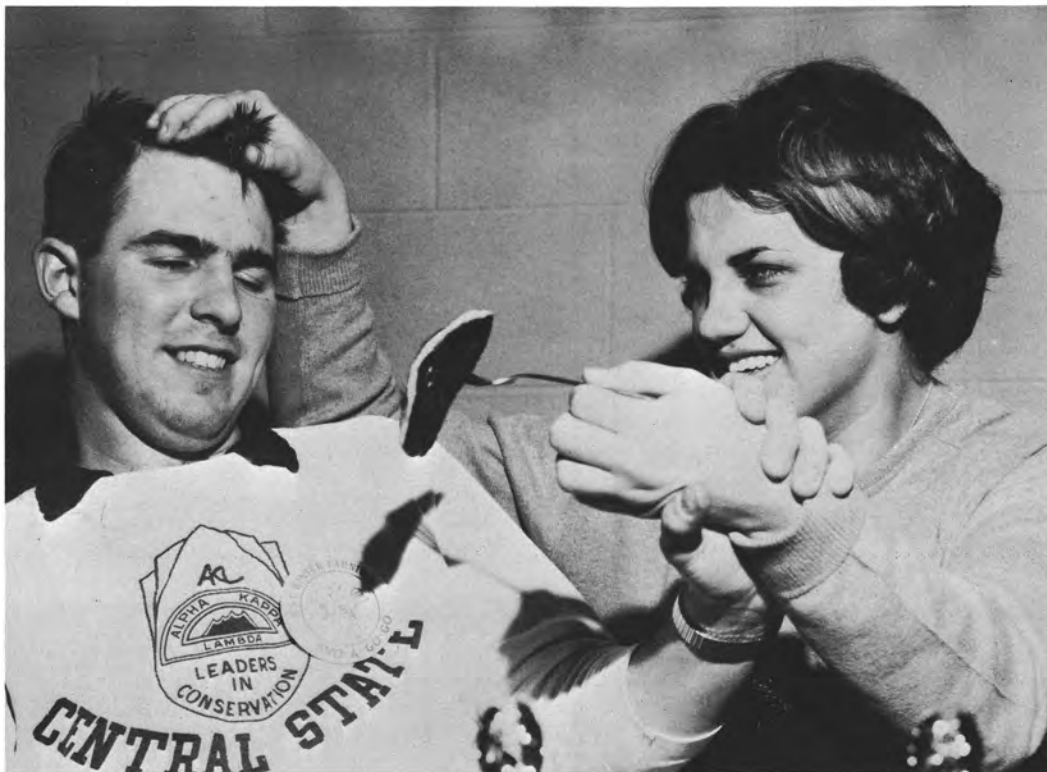

A new feature was the Legs Contest; there was both a man's and a woman's division. The categories were the cutest knees, the shapeliest legs, the best decorated socks, the hairiest legs and the smoothest legs. Another new contest was the dress-up competition. A single costume appropriate for an A-Go-Go party, a masquerade ball on the ski slopes and an elegant soiree at "Pointiffany's" was planned to challenge the ingenuity of the contestants.

The Woodchoppers Ball on Saturday evening was highlighted by the crowning of the King and Queen, Jerry Glocke and Fran Lewis.

The climax program on Sunday night featured the Kingston Trio. The Trio has performed before audiences in most of the top night clubs in the world. They have drawn sell-out crowds at the Hollywood Bowl, the Waikiki Shell, Red Rocks and Las Vegas. They have toured the Far East, Europe and Australia. Here at WSU the trio presented some of their most famous songs including, "Tom Dooley", "Tijuana Jail", "Where Have All the Flowers Gone" and "Greenback Dollar".

A new organization on campus this year, the Residence Hall Council, had many activities aimed at those who live in the halls. Among these activities were: the All-Hall-Ball, Creative Art Contest, ABC College Bowl competition, late movies shown in the halls, and the RHC Weekend.

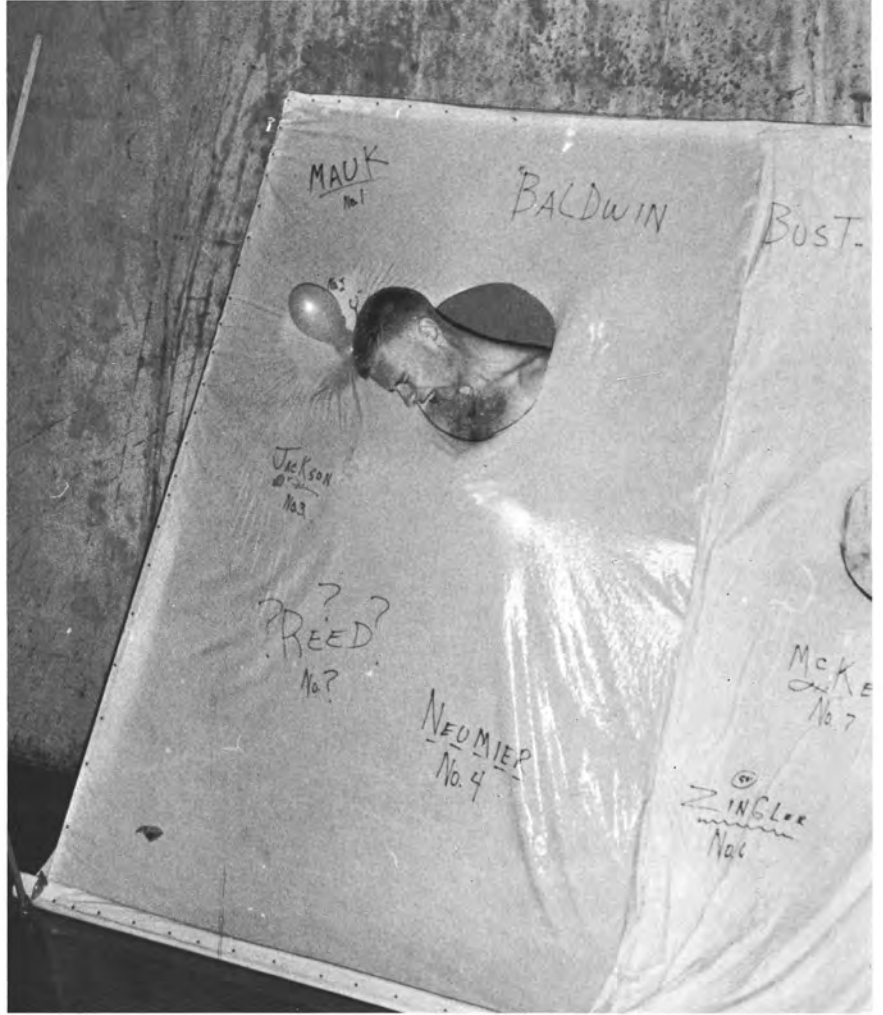

The All-Hall-Ball and Creative Art Contest were held in the Allen Center in December. The "Daze and Nights" played and awards were presented during intermission.

The Academic Bowl Competition continued throughout the school year. Each residence hall had one team and the first place team from Hyer Hall was given a trophy.

During RHC Weekend a carnival was held in the Allen Center with each hall participating by entering one booth. That evening a talent show was held. It was composed of skits, folk singing groups and classical singers. Trophies were presented for first and second place. As a finale to RHC Weekend, there was a dance held in the fieldhouse featuring the "Kingsmen."

Students Everywhere

University Profiles

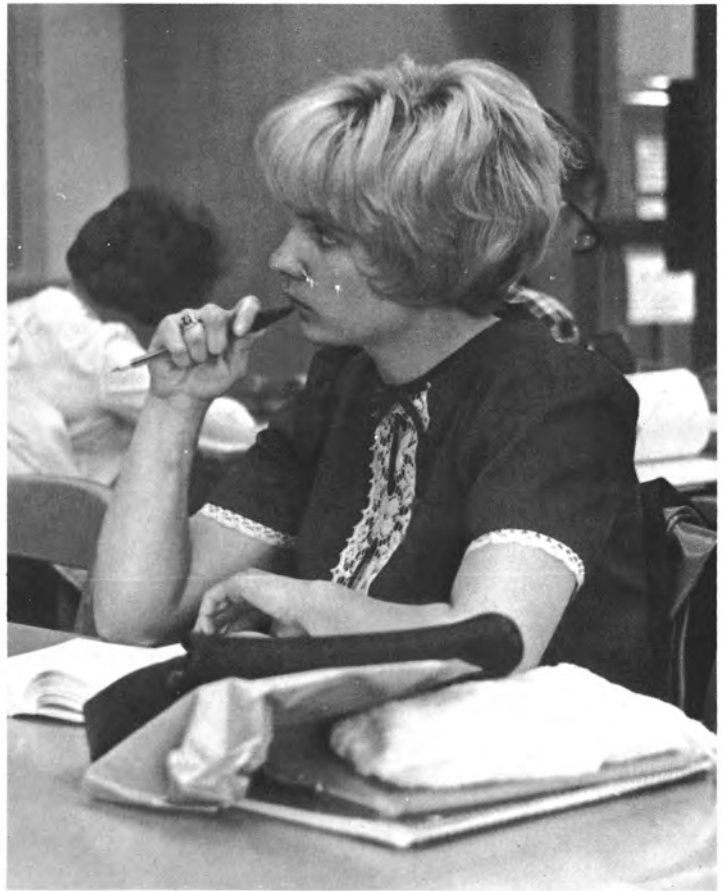

This year for the first time the stacks were opened for general use. This allowed the students to make extended use of the vast material available in the University library.

The library also offers a large study area and a place to meet friends. Ingenious students are quite good at finding other study areas. They can be found . . .

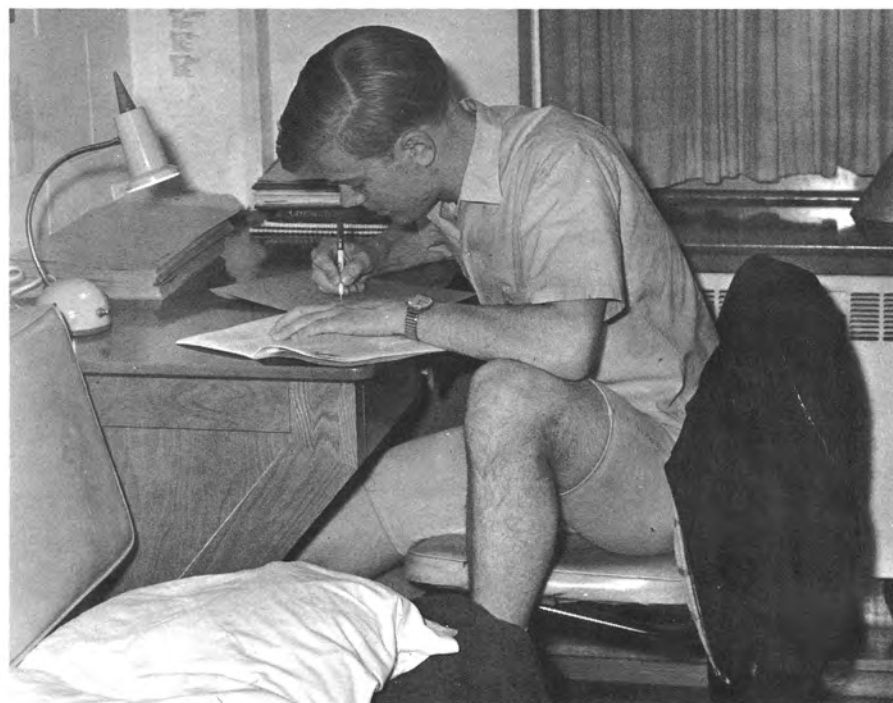

... in the center lounge,

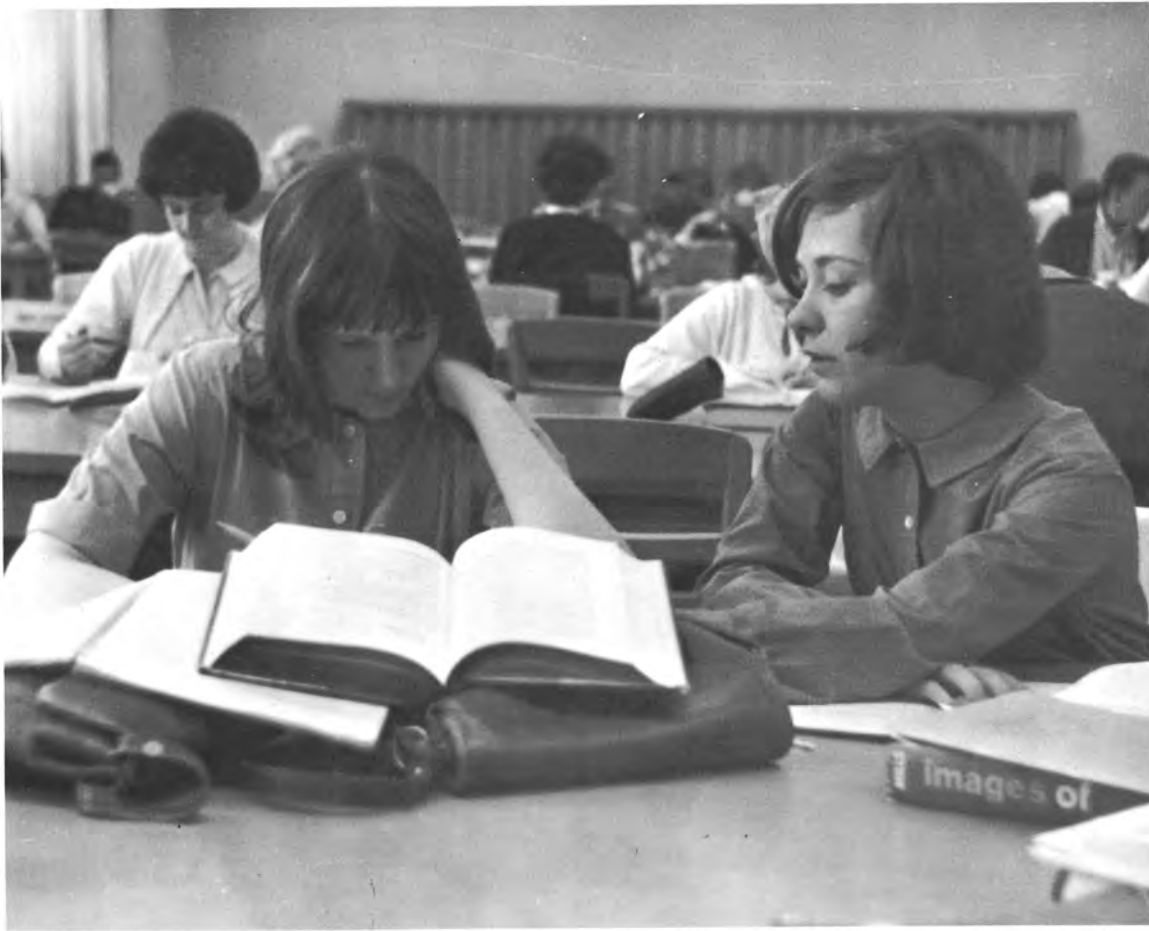

in the Pinery Room,

and in the dorm.

The coming of spring heralds new places of study. The scenic campus then offers opportunities where students may gather for studying and other constructive activities.

Constructive activities that students participate in are varied. Larry Klobukowski, for example, produces and films short movies which have afforded him several awards. One of Larry's many films was a Civil War production.

Eating may be a necessary activity but it can be varied and enjoyable.

The cafeteria line is one of the fastest moving lines on campus.

Tasty meals come out of paper bags and are eaten outdoors.

Mom never cooked like this.

Outdoor cooking of another kind.

The dorms are centers of activity. Activities such as . . .

... doing the weekly or monthly laundry,

sleep-ins,

and quiet talks in front of the fire place.

On week-ends the real action moves to the food centers.

They swing out with jug bands, get acquainted mixers, sing alongs and informal dances.

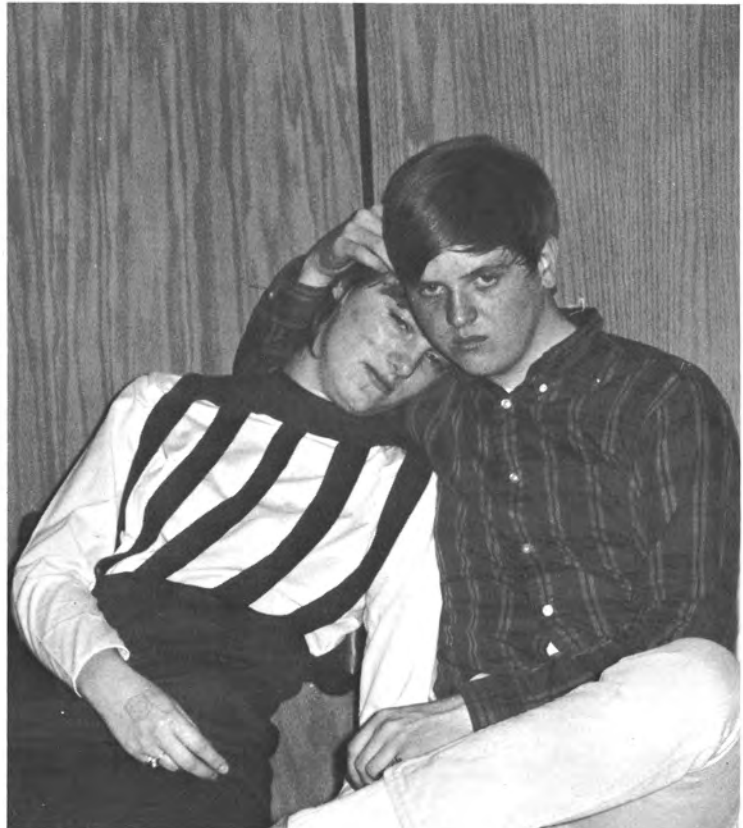

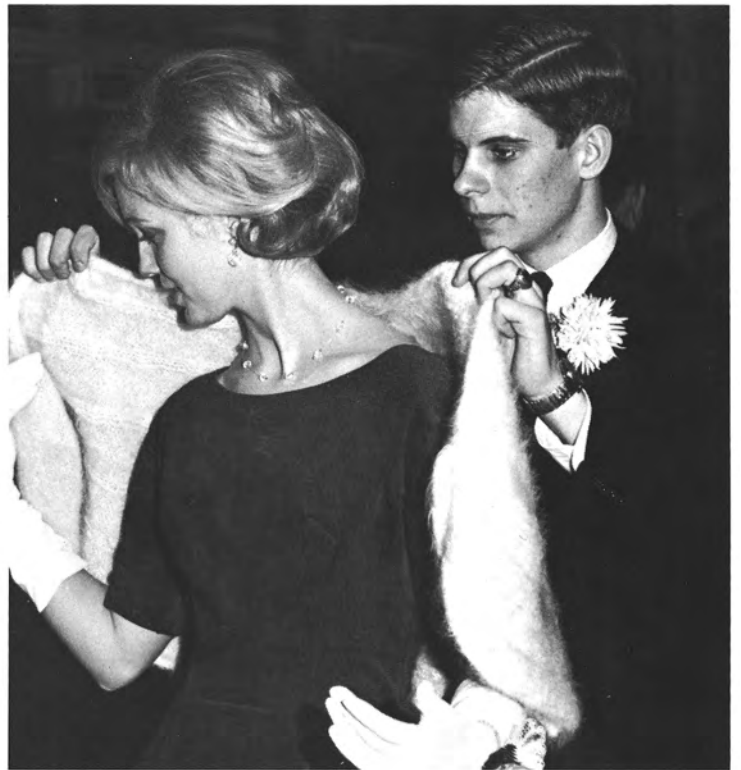

The week-end dances are . . .

The formal which signals the end of another school year is approached with anticipation.

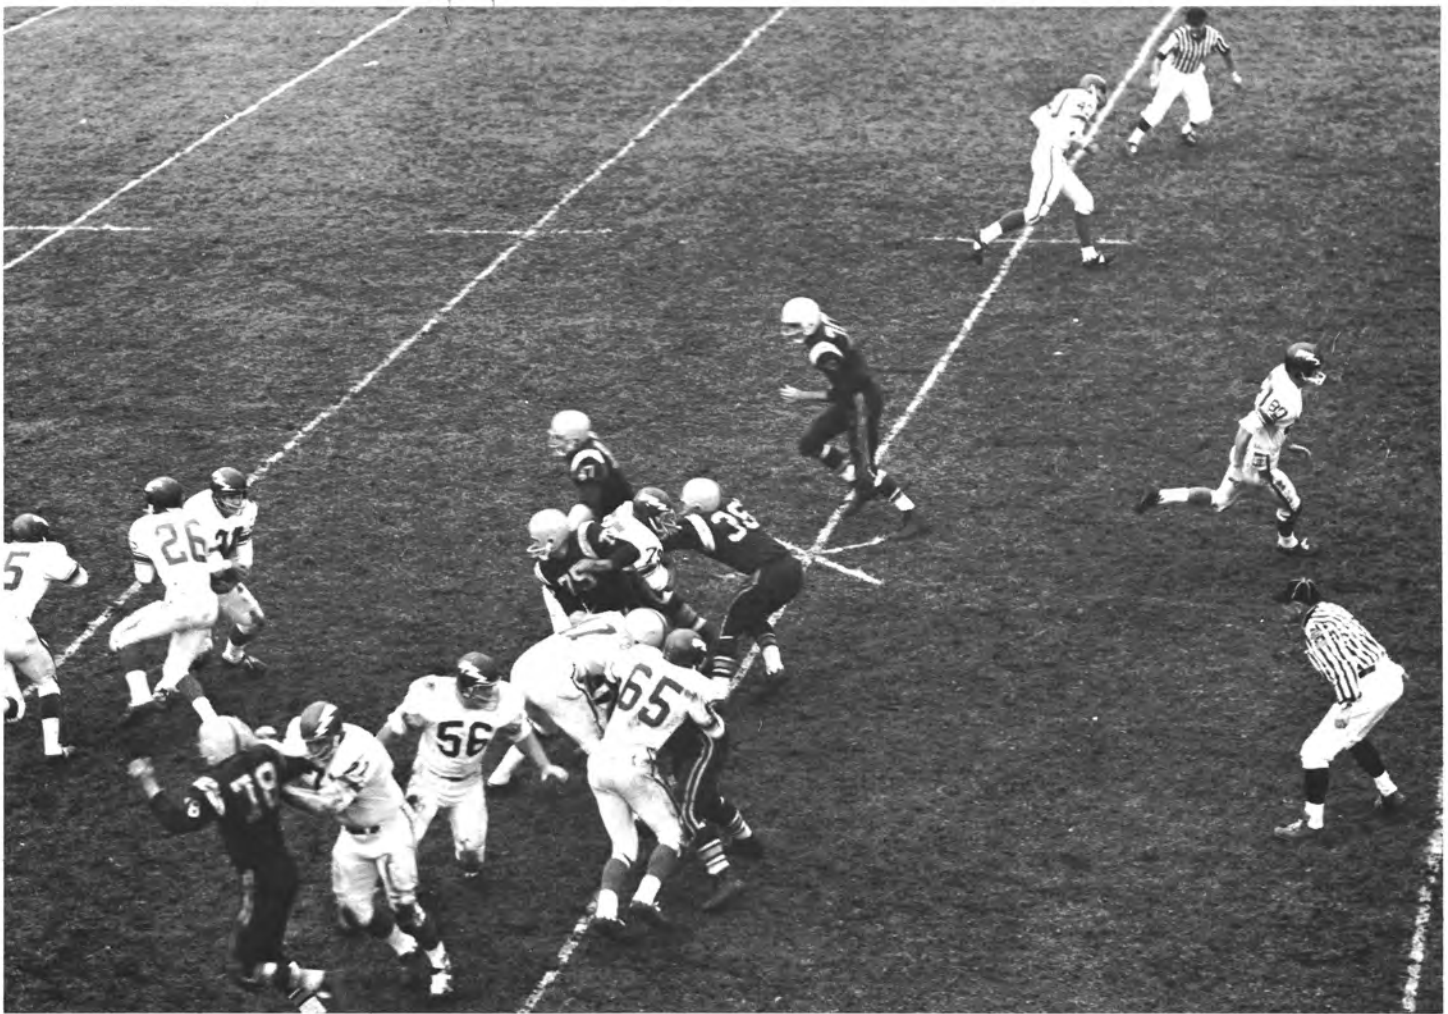

Football

The Pointers, cheered by large crowds, managed to win over half of their games this season. Ron Ternouth, playing on the offensive for the first time in our homecoming game against Hillsdale, scored both WSU touchdowns on runs of 12 and 79 yards. This resulted in a 14—13 victory over the Dales. Football has been said to be a game of luck or fortune. But because of hard work and high spirits our Pointers have usually managed to push on to victory and respect.

Swimming

The Stevens Point University swimming team made a terrific showing in the NAIA Championships held at Hendrix College in Conway, Arkansas. The team cracked five schools records and scored 36 points. Point was one of 43 schools from all over the United States taking part in the event.

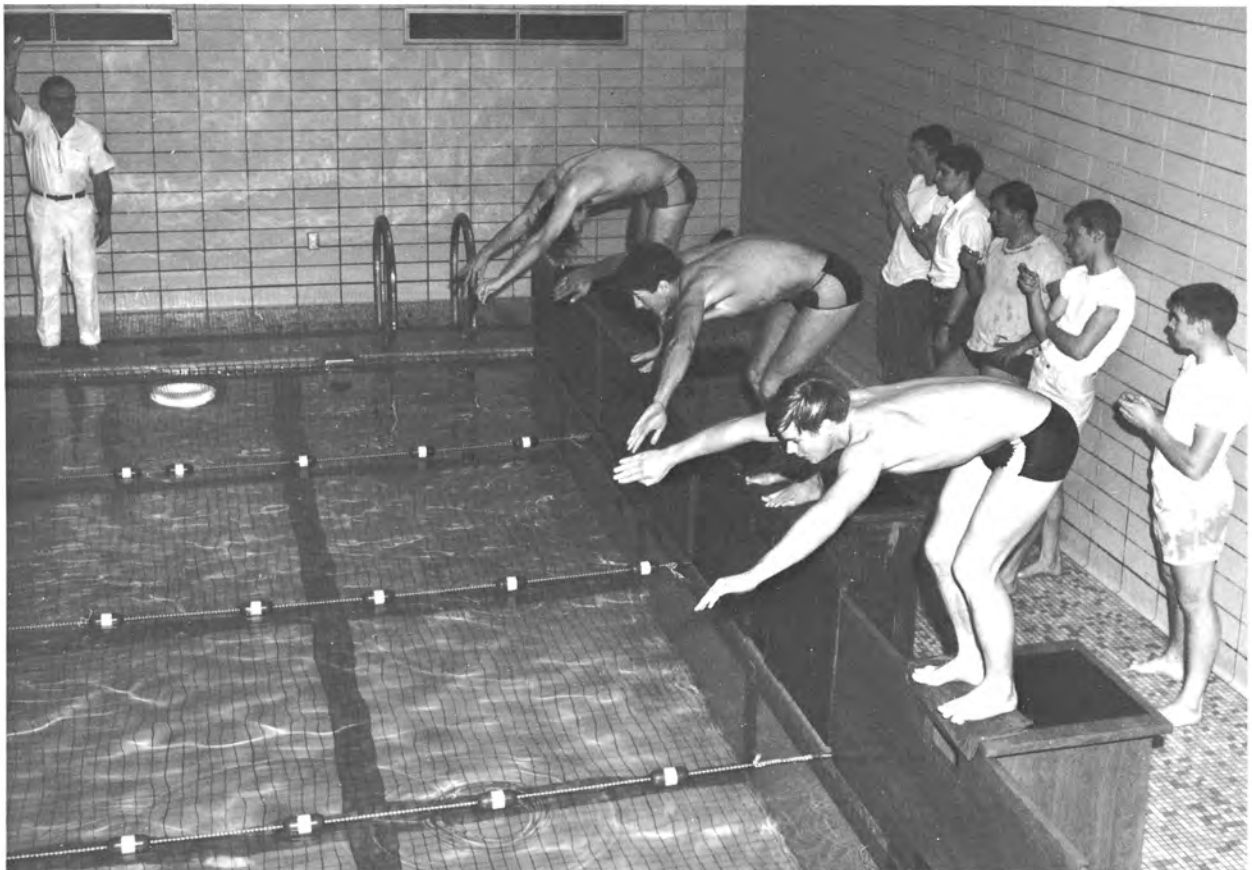

Rob Simkins captured sixth place in the 100-yard back stroke and ninth in the 200-yard back stroke. Dave Stebnitz finished eleventh in the 200 breast stroke and thirteenth in the 100 breast stroke. Joe Conachen and Bill Gelwicks both took part in the 50 and 100-yard freestyle events. In the 50-yard event both were part of a four-way tie for thirteenth. In the medley event the Pointer team took seventh place and in the freestyle relay they captured ninth place.

arts and lecture SERIES

WISCONSIN STATE UNIVERSITY • STEVENS POINT

One of the nation's top concert series was presented in the 1965-66 Art and Lecture Series. Beginning with the Roger Wagner Chorale in November, students, faculty and non-University people had the best of the Arts available to them. Other presentations in this series were Eugene Istomin, pianist; the American Jazz Ensemble; the Philadelphia Orchestra, Eugene Ormandy conductor; Janos Starker, cellist; Shirley Verrett, mezzo-soprano; the Koeckert Quartet; Nathan Milstein, violinist.

Since 1950 Eugene Istomin has gained international renown. It was at this time that he was chosen to participate in the Casals Festival at Prades, France. This distinguished pianist has attained success in such places as diversified as Israel and Iceland.

Roger Wagner Chorale

After winning distinction for its notable performances with the Los Angeles Philharmonic, the Roger Wagner Chorale became widely recognized as one of America's finest singing groups. The Chorale has recorded extensively in a series of songs ranging from Folk Songs and Sea Chanties to the great masses and madrigals. They have also engaged in tours of the United States and Europe. As a part of their tenth coast-to-coast tour of the United States, the Chorale performed in our University Field-house.

Appearing with well-known orchestras throughout the world, Nathan Milstein has gained distinction as one of the most outstanding violin soloists on the concert stage. To an eager and receptive WSU audience, Milstein presented some of the finest and most familiar classics.

In January 1966 Shirley Verrett returned for her second performance at WSU, having received a standing ovation from her last year's concert. This talented and beautiful mezzo-soprano has also appeared in places as distant as New York and the Soviet Union and has been rated among the world's great singers.

Jerome Hines

Hailed among the great bassos of the twentieth century, Jerome Hines has won acclaim in places such as New York, Moscow, Milan and Buenos Aires. Hines has performed often with every major American orchestra and is renowned as a concert singer as well as an operatic one.

At his home theater, the Metropolitan, Hines has sung many of the great roles. He has done the title parts in "Don Giovanni" and "Boris Godounov", both King Philip and the Grand Inquisitor in "Don Carlo", Mephistopheles in "Faust", Sarastro in the "Magic Flute", King Marke in "Tristan and Isolde", Wotan in "Die Walkure", Gurnemanz in "Parsifal" and Ramfis in "Aida".

Janos Starker

Each year Janos Starker, "King of Cellists", devotes part of his time to touring Europe and appearing at the major Music Festivals of the world. Not only has Starker graced Europe with his artistry, but he has also performed extensively in the United States both as a concert soloist and as a first chair cellist in such orchestras as the Dallas Symphony, the Metropolitan Opera and the Chicago Symphony.
