MINNEAPOLIS SYMPHONY A TREAT.

HENRI VERBRUGGHEN,
Conductor.

Without question the outstanding musical event of the past season was the appearance here, on May 14, of the famous Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, at the Majestic Theater.

Space, unfortunately, does not permit us to print the splendid program. The soloist at the afternoon concert was the harpist, Henry J. Williams, whose selections had an unusual appeal. Outstanding numbers played by the orchestra were the Paderewski "Minuet", and the famous Tannhauser March.

Marie Tiffany, soprano, distinguished herself as soloist at the evening concert. This concert showed the wonderful organization under Verbrugghen's guidance, at the height of its performance. Beethoven's Fifth Symphony was the feature number, but any of the hundreds who attended from here and outside towns, will feel grateful for the lasting impression the concert made, for it was truly a treat, from the Freichutz Overture to the "March Slave".

VAUGHN, BASKET BALL CAPTAIN.

At a meeting of the basket ball men, Fritz Vaughn was elected captain of the next year's team.

There will be a style show of silk dresses in the assembly room this week. Ask the Home Ec. girls for date, and be sure and come.

STEVENS POINT ALUMNI BAN- QUET SOON.

It will be of interest to the former Stevens Point High School students to note that an alumni banquet is to be held Saturday June 6 at Hotel Whiting. An attendance of about 300 is planned.

LITTLE GIVES INTERESTING TALK TO NORMALITES.

Last Monday the boys of the school heard a very interesting talk by George Little, director of athletics of the University of Wisconsin. Mr. Little gave a review of Big Ten athletics stressing the fact that the schools do not try hardest to have a winning team but to develop physically strong men and women. Drawing from his past experience our states' foremost athletic director completely absorbed the attention of his listeners, setting up an athletic standard worth striving for.

PRES. SIMS ADDRESSES STATE P. T. A. CONVENTION.

Between 600 and 700 people attended the 14th annual convention of the Parent Teachers Association of Wisconsin which was held at the High School last week, May 20 - 23.

The main event of the convention was the banquet held at Hotel Whiting, Thursday evening. The dining room of the hotel was taxed to capacity by the 350 guests who attended. Pres. Sims was the principal speaker of the evening. He highly commended the work being done by the Parent - Teachers organization stating that the influence of the state and local parent teacher associations on education was incalculable.

Prof. E. T. Smith was another member of the Normal faculty who spoke at the banquet. Prof. Smith responded to the toast "Parents?" He said in part: "The modern parent, perplexed perhaps, but sound at heart, determined that our children shall have a better start than we older people had."

A silver loving cup, the prize for having made the biggest gain in membership was awarded at the banquet, Kenosha being the city to win the honor.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY, DULCY TO BE PRESENTED, JUNE 8.

"Dulcy", a good wholesome comedy in three acts produced by special arrangement with Samuel French of New York will be given June 8. The play is written by George S. Kaufman and Marc Connelly. In order to select the cast tryouts were held all seniors being eligible. A large number responded and the following cast was chosen:

Dulcy Ann Steinert.
Gordon Smith, her husband
..... Valerian Weisner
William Parker, her brother
..... Vance Williams.
C. Roger Forbes .. Glenn Dexter.
Mrs. Forbes . Mildred Novotony
Angela Forbes . Deva Roehrborn
Schuyler Van Dyke
..... Carrol Van Buskirk
Tom Sterrett ... Laurin Gordon.
Vincent Leach. Carl Maslowski.
Blair Patterson .. Glendon Ehle.
Henry Everett Holterman.

Mr. Burroughs is coaching the play. It is a delightful modern comedy full of clever witticisms. The play is being put on by many of the schools and colleges this spring. It was given at Appleton and a number drove down to see it and they all reported a wonderful entertainment. The sarcasm of Bill, the discomfiture of Forbes, the plotting of Dulcy, the ventures of Van Dyke are some of the things that would put a smile on an Egyptian Mummy. DO NOT MISS IT!!! JUNE 8.

OSHKOSH NOSES OUT POINT NOR- MAL IN DUAL MEET 73-62.

Capturing all the points in the javelin throw and all but one point in the two mile run. Oshkosh defeated Stevens Point Normal in an interesting track meet Saturday.

In spite of the bad weather the meet was a success. It seems to fall to Mr. Swetlands luck to always have it rain on the day of a track meet.

Ted Powell, captain of our track team, was high scorer of the meet by taking two firsts and tying for a third for a total of 14 points. Clow of Oshkosh, who won the high and low hurdles, was second high man. Atkinson of our team and Wright of Oshkosh tied for third high honors.

Summary of the meet:

100-yard run: T. Williams O, and Powell S. tied for first; R. Williams O, third. Time :10.2.
Mile run: Won by Gunning S. Donahue O, Bloomquist O. Time, 5:08.8.

220-yard run: Won by Powell S. Boguski O, Besserdick O. Time, :22.4.

High hurdles: Won by Clow O. Bruce S. Kolka S. Time, :16.8.

440-yard run: Won by Powell S. Lyons O, Schroeder S. Time, :54.8.

Two mile run: Won by Lindsay O, Anderson O, Curtis S. Time, 11:12.

Low hurdles: Won by Clow O. Bruce S, Gerdes O. Time, :26.2.

Half-mile run: Won by Lyons O, Krantz S. Wegner O. Time, 2:10.

A dance was given in the gym for the track teams on Saturday night.

ing school building at the Stevens Point State Normal School.

President Sims states that plans have been made for building operations to start as soon as possible. Under the terms of the appropriation $75,000 is made available this year and the same amount in 1926.

JOKES — PRACTICAL AND OTHERWISE.

Speaking of fuses, rotten apples, firecrackers, and practical jokes in general. Now we'll admit that these things were quite funny, possibly even clever, but we wonder if these daring young jokers in the ardor of their accomplishment didn't overlook one phase of their humor — the possible serious consequences. Now fireworks often set fire to the things they come in contact with. What if one of these burning missiles had destroyed some girl's sight, or, as almost did happen, burn some girl's hair, or even seriously injure someone with a weak heart. Let's have our fun, the more the merrier, but let's be careful and look at the results before we start anything.

MEETING OUR PROBLEMS.

It would seem that the spirit and social life in all the Normal Schools has been slumping this spring. We have recognized this lack of pep in S. P. N. but have not thoroughly analyzed it as has River Falls Normal who state the result of their investigation in these three points:

1. Forty per cent of the students take no part in school activities.
2. Once a student takes part in any given line of work, he is called on for every such job in the future.
3. In a few cases students have held two or more offices at once, and have been unable to do their best work with either.

These conditions are plainly applicable to S. P. N. (River Falls is confronting their problem in all seriousness with a proposal of student self-government as the only practicable solution to the situation. What are we going to do?

IRIS COMING JUNE FOURTH.

On May 21 a representative of the Meyer Press visited our editor, Carl Maslowski, and informed him that the books would be here about the first of June.

Many compliments were paid to the book by the printers who told the staff that this year's IRIS is the first normal school annual to have a colored section at the beginning of the book.

Many other interesting features are promised to S. P. N. students but when we asked for a more detailed description we were told to remember the cat and wait to see the book itself.

The staff of the "IRIS" certainly deserves a great deal of credit for the smooth way in which the work is being done as well as for the speed with which our annual is being made.

12TH ANNUAL TRACK AND FIELD MEET.

The 12th annual track and field meet for high schools was given by the Stevens Point Normal School on Saturday, May 16. The meet was a success although it rained and was very cold. It would have been a record meet had there been good weather. The high school boys were at a disadvantage due to the cold and rainy weather.

Wausau easily won the meet. Pflieger was their outstanding man, Merrill won second; Stevens Point High, third; Madison Central, fourth. Madison Central, who had won for two consecutive years, was unable to repeat their victory. Wausau won fourth in the state meet so the class of schools represented was of the highest class in the state. We want to thank the schools for bringing their teams to the meet in spite of bad weather.

The high scorers were:

H. Pflieger (Wausau) 13 points.
Parkin (Madison).... 8 points.
Bishop (Hancock).... 6 points.
Schneider (Wausau).. 6 points.

Wausau	40 1/2

Madison Central	14

At 8:00 Saturday evening, Pres. Sims gave out the cups and medals to the winners and an interesting talk. The day was successfully ended by a dance in the gym.

ORGANIZATIONS.

MARGARET ASHMUN CLUB.

The Margaret Ashmun Club held their last meeting at Nelson Hall May 20. Mr. Burroughs, who was in charge of the program, had two one-act plays: The Shepherd in the Distance, and Playing with Fire presented by members of the public speaking class. After the plays new members, who had been voted in at the previous meeting, were initiated by being called upon to give extempore talks on appropriately assigned topics. During the process a great deal of ability in the way of snappy retorts was revealed. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, and coffee were served.

Since its organization a year ago the Margaret Ashmun Club has become one of the most active societies in school. The meetings have been managed most successfully, the programs being of a consistently high order. With its system of membership it is known that the Margaret Ashmun Club will continue in this plane.

ROUND TABLE.

The following officers of the Round Table were elected at the last meeting for next year: — Miss Hetzel — pres., Miss Swancutt — Vice Pres., Miss Krump — Sec. Treas.

The members of the Round Table enjoyed a picnic Tuesday, May 19th. Two trucks with the help of Mr. Watson's car took the group to Jordon. Interesting entertainment was given by Virginia Tate and Edythe Johnson who told your entire fortune by just gazing at your palm. Some tried the water and said it was wet. The snaps that were taken will serve as souvenirs of the day.

Miss Martha Herman has accepted a position at Two Rivers for next year.

RURAL.

The Rural Life club met Monday evening May 18. The following program was given:

Community singing
Reading...	Guilty or Not Guilty G. Wolfe.
Song.....	Group of students.
Reading	Mysterious death Sam Turk.
Johnny Bell	Group
Musical Comedy
Orchestra music	Walker,Grandy, Lawton, Boetcher.
Recitation ..	Cohen on the Radio William Godson.

Plans for the annual picnic were discussed. We were very glad to be informed by Mr. Neale that the faculty would give the picnic this year. Now we are sure that everyone is going to have a very good time. We should show our appreciation by turning out in large numbers.

As has been the custom a number of years the annual play was given in a country district. This year it was given in the Forester hall at Custer to a large and appreciative audience.

In the coaching class recently Mr. Swetland was relating some of his experiences hunting large rabbits. He was silenced by Cummings who said, "Out where I was Last year I threw a pitchfork into a rabbit and he ran away with it."

Y. W. C. A.

On Wednesday, May 13, Irene Hart told us of the experiences which she and Henrietta Timme had at the Cabinet Conference at Carroll College. The meetings were very inspirational; everyone extended a very courteous welcome to them.

On May 20 Miss Gray continued her very interesting and inspiring talk about her travels in Europe. She told us more about the Passion Play of Ober-Ammergau and showed us scenes from the play and photographs which had been taken of the peasants participating. She also told us of other places of interest; one of which was the castle to which Martin Luther fled at the time of his persecution.

HOME EC. NOTES.

We are glad to report that Elsie Kresin has accepted a position at Manawa, Wis. as Home Economics teacher. Also Pearl Rose has signed her contract for the position at Humbird.

The south cottage girls gave two formal Saturday. May 16th Emogene Darling and Louise Kaiser entertained the Misses West, Zimmerly and Church at lunch, and Agnes Olson and Bernice Boeynk entertained Mr. and Mrs. Watson and Miss Hussey at dinner.

The sophomore cookery sections entertained each other at two formal dinner parties during the past week.

The ninth grade girls of the Training School Department under the supervision of Esther Gayhart, gave a dinner party last week.

Mrs. Hasbrouch, an authority on Infant Care, spoke to the senior Home Nursing classes, Wednesday, May 20.

At the last Home Ec. meeting, Miss Meston gave a most interesting report on the talk Miss Kugel gave at the Home Economics convention held at Marshfield. Miss Kugel spent several months in England and France, studying their menus and ways of serving.

In England, no one eats breakfast until 9 o'clock and then it is a very hearty one. Lunch is served at twelve. At four all trains are stopped for tea. Everyone has tea, whether they want it or not, even during showers one may see Englishmen having tea under umbrellas in the park. Dinner is served at seven. This is an extremely heavy meal. Butter is never served with bread, at the main course, so the Americans learned to park their bread until the last course when the butter is served. Englishmen also have a supper at nine o'clock. Their cooking does not appeal to the American as they do not use very many condiments.

It is quite different in France. The French are known as the best cooks in the world. The food is all prepared in such a dainty and appetizing manner that it is difficult to determine the ingredients and flavoring. The French diet is much more varied than the English.

Miss Allen accompanied by Miss Helen West of Marshfield is taking her "Elizabeth" home to Postville, Iowa. She will start Fri. afternoon.

LAUGHING CURE KEEPS BLUES AWAY FROM LARGE AUDIENCE.

"The Laughing Cure" presented by the Rural Department proved to be a tonic for the blues, Friday evening May 15. The doctrine of the play was caught by the large audience in attendance and as they left the auditorium at the end of the play everyone was happy and satisfied.

The cast took their parts well and ably portrayed their characters. The cast consisted of Frank Grandy, Alfred Rowland, Mabel Raleigh, Cyril Dahl, Mrs. Appel, Pauline Justman, Alice Scribner and A. Walker.

FACULTY SUMMER PLANS.

By the time classes convene here next September, some of our S. P. N. faculty members will have traveled many miles both at home and abroad.

Of especial interest are the trips planned by Miss Allen, who in company with Miss Zimmerli of the High School Faculty, will sail, June 13, on the "Coronia", for a two months visit in the British Isles, France, Switzerland, and Italy; and Mr. Collins, who, accompanied by Mrs. Collins and their daughter, Helen, will sail, June 20, from New York on the celebrated ship, the "Olympic", to Europe. Mr. Collins plans to attend the International Education Program Congress at Edinburgh, Scotland, in July, and later the party will tour the continent.

Other members of the faculty plan to spend their vacation in auto travel, while several others will pursue advance graduate study at Columbia, Chicago, and Madison.

Marvel: — Why the last three nights you left before Miss Hussey told you it was time to say good-night."

SOLOMON LEVITAN SPEAKS.

One of the most interesting and worthwhile talks heard at S. P. N. was given on May 7, when we were favored by a visit from State Treasurer Levitan.

For the greater part of a half hour, Mr. Levitan kept us intent with the sincere logic and effective humour of his speech. That America offers unlimited opportunities for educational advancement to all who seek it; that those who expect to get a "kick out of life must put a kick into it", were some of the high spots of his remarks. Education and the school are the great exponents of democracy, he declared, and to that end no state or commonwealth should fail to give its undivided support.

Possessor of a pleasing yet unassuming personality, Mr. Levitan made friends of us all and we welcome him here at any time. We will remember his pungent remark: "Don't wait for something to happen to you; make it happen."

Mr. Delzell — What is a vulgar fraction?

Irving Gordon — Oh, that's an improper one.

Maurice Willette says all the business staff of the Pointer does is monkey business.

Mr. Steiner as he starts to lecture in Rec. U. S. History: I guess you had better open a couple of windows, it's going to get pretty hot in here.

WHO SAYS S. P. N. STUDENTS AREN'T FAST?

Laverne Krantz, a local student, suffering from an attack of that disease known as the accelerator itch opened up his ear and after a pleasant talk with the speed cop found himself broke but happy.

She: — (sniffing) I smell burning hair.

He: — Well, take your head off my shoulder then.

A COMMON S. P. N. EXPERIENCE.

On Monday morn the world looks gray
As we tread our way to school
And all the classes lag — say!
You feel just like a fool.
Some pedagogue makes you feel dumb
And you're about to quit,
But Monday afternoon has come
And someone spills some wit.
This old place is not so bad
How could I ever cuss

I guess I was a great big cad
To stir up such a fuss.
And so the week advances
You fit right in the swing
Of daily tasks, as well as dances,
Musicales, and everything.
You feel so full of pep and cheer
When Friday night comes near
You rather want to talk and hear
Of S. P. N. throughout the year.
