McDONALD STARS IN OSHKOSH GAME; POINT GETS REST

WEAK SHOOTING AND PASSING FEATURE CRAZY CITY CONTEST

Purple Loses 26-15

Stevens Point Central 's still in the college league as a result of its 26-15 defeat by Oshkosh, Saturday night, in the long and narrow Bag city gym.

The Pointers had tough breaks in the game but made up for it in defensive moves.

First Half 8-15

Capt. Frank Wierenzinski and Dick Marshall started on the side, Tiny Bannan in the middle, Scotty McDonald and Harold Paukert played back. This line up stayed intact except for Ben Weronek, who replaced the center for a while.

Oshkosh scored seven on the score board before McDonald got two free throws, which he promptly sunk, and before the half ball had hit both twingers to his credit. Tiny got the only other free throw and passed it to him.

Mr. Davidson has been selected as judge because of his ability and interest in photography.

The wins will be given recognition in the 1928 Iris.

STEVENS POINT VS. OSHKOSH

Here lies the remains of a good, hard-fought battle for the afternoon.

Our opponents, the Pointers, were very strong, but we were able to hold them and win by a score of 15-4.

Our team played well and were able to keep up their momentum throughout the game.

Score at half time was 19-8.

“Free Throw” Mac Stars

The second spasm started off in a swift and even manner with the Purple attempting a comeback. Oshkosh climbed to 22 and finally clinched the lead by the night of the game.

In the second period, the Pointers tried to close the gap, but were unable to do so.

The final score was 45-26.

Oshkosh Artists

Bredeneck and Baxter, Oshkosh artists, did some fine work for them, as did Ross who bagged four deuces from the court. You're a dandy team over there on Lake Winnebago and we have no disgrace losing to you, but look out next time, because Oshkosh will be back.

Boys' Baskettball Tournament

When is it? 1st Annual Boys' Basketball Tournament will open next week.

WHO WON? THE COLLEGE AUDITORIUM, WHO IS WELCOME TO EVERYONE.

Appropriation Bill

The following statements come from Dr. Baldwin in regard to the Bill of Appropriation for Point College. Following Special Capital items are in the Bill which has been passed by the State Legislature and will be presented for consideration at this Session of the Legislature.

There will be a transfer of $25,000 original appropriation of March 1, 1919, for a science building to the committee for the construction of a new Science building.

This will give Stevens Point a training school which will cost approximately $175,000. The $25,000 will be added to the $150,000 already appropriated. The new training school will face on Reserve Street.

$45,000 will be appropriated for the equipment of the new training school. $65,000 will be appropriated for the construction of new buildings.

There was an appropriation made in 1925 for $21,000 to improve buildings, but this new appropriation will add much to the savings.

General Capital Appropriations $14,245 and $2,000 will be appropriated for the construction of new buildings.

The total appropriation for teachers' salaries is $10,000, which is an increase of the previous year of $2,000.

The total appropriation is $31,000, which is an increase of $5,000 over the last year.

The affirmative team was represented by Frank J.owicz and Pauline Bobbahn.

A BIT OF ADVICE

"It won't be long now." In a few more weeks the semester examinations will be upon us. Yes; actually, the finals will be here. No doubt it is a sad state of affairs.

If education ever gets out of the experimental stage, which at present it shows no sign of doing, let us hope that semester examinations will be considered interesting but unnecessary, along with lesson plans, unit outlines, and other meritorious and malevolent ereations of the minds of pedagogians. This is the only important point that is overlooked. Woe unto him that knoweth not his subject at a semester exam.

The question is then, how to pass the examinations? Knowing this would be the question, we have taken up the subject thereof, and devoted much very, very valuable space to it, with an eye toward the edification and material benefit of the student body in general.

On this solemn occasion let it be known that blessed is he who owneth a good notebook, or not owning one, knoweth of one who doth own. To this end, foresighted group we give our services and offer our free advice. Hit the notebook hard children, and fear not. To those who have been doing the least possible for almost four months and a half; to thee who have "let things go" generally, with the promise to themselves that they would work hard, really hard, just before the end of the half-year and prepare for the examinations, we meekly remind that the time is now come for so doing — and those who can, let them. Remember, if you cram hard, and learn but for one day, it is absolutely necessary for it makes the professor happy in the belief that he has taught you something.

To those who have not studied, and do not intend to, we suggest that a careful examination be made into bank balances, for much as it may be amusing to tell a truth, we have found it necessary to make small demands (only twenty-five dollars) upon those individuals who, to use a common term, fail — often to the subsequent pecuniary embarrassment of said individuals.

To those happy and fortunate individuals who already know what it is all about (what their subjects, courses, etc. are about, that is — not what this article is about) we wish to hearten with the assurance that no matter how much they know they are sure to be asked something they do not know, and so let them spend their time in toil and study.

In conclusion, let it be known that this institution for the training of pedagogues has not made it a practice, so far as can be ascertained through exhaustive study, to present students with D's on general principles — nor yet to give them A's for the same nefarious reason.

WANTED!

WANTED: A group of new college cheers. Old S. P. N. is gone now so lets all yell for its successor. It is very noticeable that while trying to show the team that we are back of them, we suddenly fall flat in content. — These nobs in which "Normal" is taped on.

All those old cheers, and songs too, must be discarded or revised, and new ones adopted. Half the year is almost gone, so don't you think it's time something were done about it?

The name of this institution: ladies and gentlemen, is Central State Teachers' College, Stevens Point Teachers' College, Stevens Point College, or what have you? You are bound only by your imagination — which should be very elastic.

People seldom improve, when they have no other model but themselves to copy after. — Oliver Goldsmith

HUMOR

MORE OR LESS

AS IT IF COULD!

Leo B: "I've heard that you are fond of music."
Baby Face: "Yes, but don't let that stop your singing."

OR WHAT HAVE YOU?

Zella: "What a horrible noise comes from that radio set."
Claire: "Well, I guess you would make just as bad a noise if you were coming out of there."

YES, WE'VE MET HIM, TOO

Thelma: "Have you never met a man whose touch seemed to thrill every fiber of your being?"
Florence: "Oh, yes, once—a dentist."

YA BETCHA!

He: "What a ruin!"
She: (blushing) "Does it really show?"

DEPENDS WHERE THE GIRL IS

Clarence Thesis: "How much will it cost to send a telegram?"
Operator: "Where to?"
Clarence: (dreamily) "To Adella."

IT'S THEIR PRIVILEGE

Ruth A: "Women have cleaner minds than men."
Sam Smith: "Sure, they change them more often."

HOW COULD SHE BEAR IT

Puff Kelly: "She suffered in silence."
Shrimp B: "I'll bet she suffered."

Sunday School Teacher: "Now if you are good children there will be angels around your bed at night."
Small urchin: "Don't I know lady, and say, can't they bite?"

SO THAT'S WHY!

Co-ed: "All men are fools."
Lawrence B: "Yes, dear, we were made fools so you girls wouldn't all be old maid."

JUST OFF THE PRESS

Definition of a football game. — Twenty-two nice young men entirely surrounded by maihicans.

A MORE FIGURE OF SPEECH

Mrs. Mott: "I must go on a diet."
Mr. Mott: "Yes, figuratively speaking."

Shades of Verduz: The motto of the French and German classes in regard to their ambition seems to be, "They Shall Not Pass!"

THE LIGHT THAT FAILED

Place: At a party.
Time: Darkness
Condition: Lights are all out.
(Now go on with the play.)

One voice: "Is there an electrician here?"
Another voice: "I'm an electrician."
All voices: "Throw it out."

HAS THE BOY NO AMBITION?

Tack: "What would you say if I threw you a kis?"
Veru: "Lazy, lazy."

"Check your baggage, Mister?"
"No, she's coming with me."

CATCH AS CATCH-CAN COLUMN

CATCH what you can;
Can what you catch.

MAYBE THAT'S WHY PONY COATS ARE SO POPULAR!

Ken McCarr says that every time he sees a girl in a fur coat he thinks of the good old days when he developed husky binges carry­ rying the race horses. Evidently Ken thinks that all girls who wear fur coats are fast steppers or at least high steppers. Co-eds with fur coats, beware of Mc­

Carr!

The tradition that has been held so tenaciously by our own Scotty has been rudely blasted by this trip. It is rather hard to imagine McDonald in the role of a gay Lothario but you should have seen him. Each day he would saunter somewhat to the Mazda lamp ad, with Mac as his only rival. The dull red glow that permeated the bus as it left the thriving village of Oshkosh, was nothing more than the modest blushes of the hero of the fray. As the bus driver remarked, "If Scotty is as good a match as the women as he is on the basketball floor the chaperone will have his hands full on the way back."

Charles Pile sneaked into the bus for the return trip in order to collect data on his new book "What I would like to know about the gentler (1 sex)."

Frank Wierenzinski has turned out to be a regular Panzi. After giving away his seat in the vehicle of the coed it was casually sold to two other fellows. We would have to have a buy a second hand car from such a salesman.

Faukert has banned the singing of the little ditty entitled, "Where was Paulek when the lights went on?" He hadn't ought to kick; he was only caught three times.

HE LOOKS DIGNIFIED

Tiger Flowers, the wild bull of the campus, was in great form and kept the fair maidsen in a certain continuous state of uproar with his droll sayings. To look at him one would never imagine that from such a face and form as his, such humorous outcappings could be found.

MY TRIP TO BUGTOWN

"—By Worthless McDoolittle

The Pep Club has arranged a return trip from way down east in Oshkosh, could very easily be likened to a "parlor" car.

We feel that Fern Pugh will soar far above the rest of her competitors in the oratorial contest. The subject of her speech is aviation.

MARRIED CHRISTMAS DAY

Fanny Dawley, daughter of James B. Dawley of Stevens Point, and Felix Mansavage, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mansavage of Plover, were married at 4 o'clock Christmas afternoon at the home of the bride's brother, Floyd A. Dawley, 600 Center Avenue. The bride, who was graduated from Puht College in 1921, has been teaching school. Mr. Mansavage is employed at the Stevens Point Paper and Pulp Mill. The young couple are at home on Minnesota Avenue.

LEAGUE INVITATION

The Young People's Lutheran League of the Trinity Lutheran Church wishes to invite, as special guests of the League next Sunday evening, at their provided hour services, the members of the faculty and the students of the Central State Teachers' College. The program begins at six o'clock and is followed by a supper, the charge for which is 25c. The Trinity Lutheran Church is located on the corner of Strong Avenue and Brawley Street.

MEMBERS HEAR DELEGATES

President Baldwin took charge of the joint Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. meeting, held last Thursday. Mary Hughes, Charlotte Schlatter, and Clarence Theis reported on their recent trip to Detroit where they attended the Detroit Conference. Arline Webster and Margaret Webster sang a duet accompanied at the piano by Bernice Gallop. Hymns were sung, and refreshments were served.

Valentine Party Planned

The Grammar Round Table held a meeting January 18. Plans were laid for the annual Valentine Party. The Program Committee, Armida Webster, Ethel Maas, and Beatrice Polly, secured a very interesting program. Alex Peterson gave a Piano Solo. Miss Harriet Nelson gave a reading, and Mr. Mott addressed the society.
