Cagemen Pick Marshall As New Captain

Was Outstanding Performer On Red Granite Team

At a meeting of letter men held Monday afternoon at one o'clock in Coach Moll's office, Richard Marshall of Red Granite, Wis. was elected Basketball captain for the year 1929-30.

While a senior in high school, Dick was one of the main stays and stellar performers on the Red Granite team which won the Supplementary Tournament here in 1927. His work was outstanding throughout the tournament. He is a very cool, clear headed fellow and is expected to lead the Purple and Gold Basketeers to victory.

Has football talent

Beside his basket ball abilities, he showed promise on the football field last fall. In his first year out, he won his letter by playing in an aggressive manner at the tackle position.

Dick is a good student and participates in many outside activities. He is business manager of The Pointer, Sophomore class President, and Vice President of the Margaret Ashmun Club. The Margaret Ashmun Club is an organization consisting of honor students in English and those showing proficiency in forensics and journalistic work.

Eight earn letters

The following men are the lettermen for the cage season of 1929-30:

Captain "Scotty" McDonald, Captain-elect Richard Marshall, Benny Weronke, Glen ("Slow Motion") White, "Snizzle" Neuberger, Art Schroeder, Kermit Laabs, Greg Charlesworth.

ASHMUN BANQUET

The annual Margaret Ashmun Banquet is to be held at Hotel Whiting, Wednesday, May 22.

The new officers for next year will be announced during the banquet which will be at 6 o'clock.

The toastmaster, Clarence Theis, has arranged with various students for toasts.

It is expected that all will have a pleasant time and the price is $1.00 per plate.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Christianson will be the guests of honor for the evening.

"The Detour" To Be Given On May 24th

You will not have to take The Detour, but we are sure you will want to — so that you will not become stalled in the mud of the crossroads of life.

Come to the Rural Life Play and see Vic Vroble, and Myrtle Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Hardy solve the problem of the future happiness of their daughter, Kate, acted by Geneva Nichols. Get the philosophy of Tour Lane, who is none other than Joseph Spatz.

Would you believe Herbert See could drive a close bargain? Well, see him as Einstein, the dealer in old furniture, and his son Robert Hughes, who is "Jakie". Then there is "Jack" Stephenson as Ben Glenny, the tax collector, and Dana Lamont, the artist, impersonated by Edward Opprecht; Pearl Burnett, his wife, who buys butter and eggs of Mrs. Hardy.

Surely you will want to see the rough places in "The Detour" made passable. Remember the date, May 24. Admission 25 and 35 cents.

CAPTAIN-ELECT MARSHALL

Placement Service Shows Improvement

Comparison of placements during past two years shows growth of service.

On May 25, 1928 a total of 68 placements had been made, 42 of which were graduates.

On May 13, 1929 a total of 78 placements had been made, 58 of which are graduates.

Since the last issue of the Pointer, the following have received positions: Graduates —

Leota Andrews — Home Economics — Princeton, Wisconsin.

Lois Gherke — Home Economics — Wrightstown, Wisconsin.

Henry Bannach — Principal, Ward Building — Stevens Point, Wisconsin.

Crystal Holderegger — English, History, Library — Bancroft, Wisconsin.

Dora Mac Losby — Home Economics — Osceola, Wisconsin.

Mary Bida — Grades 6, 7 and 8 — Hubert, Wisconsin.

Ellen Groh — Grades 5 and 6 — Wittenberg, Wisconsin.

Students Of School To See Show Tonite

A movie, "The Amateur Gentleman", will be presented in the College Auditorium tonight at 7:45. Admission — 25c.

The cast of the picture consists of Richard Barthelmess, Dorothy Dunbar, Gardner James, and Nigel Barrie. The theme is taken from Jeffery Farnol's picturesque novel of early English days. It is the story of a boy who inherited a fortune and set off for London Town to become a gentleman, a boy who was the gamest fighter and the pluckiest horseman that ever cleared the hedges and ditches in a steeplechase and who dared the world for a woman's love. It is a Sidney Oleott production.

Grammars Win 100% In Iris Campaign

The business manager of the Iris wishes to announce that the Grammar Department has also won 100% in the campaign for Irises.

Students will remember that the results were published some time ago and at that time the Primary Department was the only one to win 100%.

State Band Tournament Begins Here Tomorrow

School Arranges Tennis Matches

Professor F. J. Schmeeckle has arranged for a tennis meet with Lawrence College on May 25th. A five-man team, the members of which will be selected later, will go to Appleton. There will be two doubles and five singles matches.

A match has also been arranged with Oshkosh Teachers' College at a later date.

The following college students have become members of the club since the last issue of the Pointer:

James McFarlane, Leavitt Robertson, Marion Swan.

Twenty city people are allowed to become members of the club. Their membership fees are five dollars. There are eight vacancies left. The following city people are now enjoying the use of the court:

Gregory Simonis, John Simonis, Allan Leahy, C. G. Fletcher, Walter Anderson, Oscar Mordt, Rev. Schwemmer, E. Guth, Joe Whitman, Irving Larson, Glen Neale, Bog Evans.

A maximum of ten high school pupils has been set. Their membership fee is three dollars. Elizabeth Rice, Weldon Leahy, Edward Hoffman, Morcyne Wysocki, Miss Sutherland, and Robertson have already become members.

Sons and daughters of the faculty members automatically become members of the Tennis Club. The tennis courts seem to be in almost constant use during the last few days of spring weather. New nets have been installed and the lines have received a fresh coat of paint.

Any student who is interested in learning to play tennis may make an application for membership to Mr. Schmeeckle.

Ask Organizations To Pay Space Cost

There are many clubs and extra curricular organizations who have not paid for their space in the annual. These organizations should feel this responsibility and should realize that the success of the book depends upon the manner in which this responsibility is taken care of.

Such groups as forensics and athletics have been given space for pictures and write-ups which all costs money and must be paid for. Due to the fact that the book is larger, the finance is greater so the business manager wishes the prompt attention of every individual in charge.

Rhondda Group Wins Audience Approval

A large audience enjoyed the concert given by the Rhondda Welsh Male Singers in the College Auditorium on Saturday evening. This was the third tour of the chorus. These singers have exceptional voices and pleasing harmony. The many selections which they rendered were enthusiastically received by an appreciative audience.

On Sunday evening the chorus appeared at the Frame Memorial Presbyterian Church where they presented a sacred concert. The church Auditorium was practically filled, a pleasing tribute to the ability of these fourteen singers.

Special Train From Milwaukee To Bring 1,000 People

The annual Wisconsin State High School Band Tournament, which is to be held in Stevens Point, will begin tomorrow and continue until Saturday night — dates, May 17 and 18 inclusive.

Fifty bands, coming from all parts of the state, will be enrolled. A special train will come from Milwaukee carrying 1,000 people. In all, it is estimated that there will be about 2,500 musicians and leaders. Friends and relatives who will accompany the bands will probably raise the total of visitors to around 5,000.

Lodging Arranged For

The band members will be taken into the homes of residents of the city and given free lodging. All halls in the city have been donated for tournament purposes, but there are still about five hundred people who have not been provided for. If any students know of a room or bed which could be donated for this purpose, please notify Mrs. Blood or some other person in charge.

Tomorrow, class A and B bands will perform in the High School Auditorium while at the same time class C and D bands will perform in the College Auditorium.

Entertainment Planned

Plans have been made for entertainment of the participants. Games, contests and stunts will be put on by various bands and they in turn will be entertained as guests of the city. One afternoon they will be entertained at (Continued on page 4, col. 1)

Miss Roach Speaks To Grammar Group

Miss Roach gave a most inspirational talk to the Grammars at their meeting, Monday, May 13. "The Importance of Teaching" might be a suggestive title for the wealth of first hand information and advice our own Miss Roach gave to the group of "soon to be" teachers.

Gladys Cutler read "Papa's Letter", a reading handled very well by Gladys and enjoyed by all.

Our only regret is that our attendance was small, and so many were unable to enjoy our meeting. We hope to see every Grammar at our next gathering.

The Grammars wish to heartily thank both Miss Roach and Miss Cutler for their willingness in appearing on our program and aiding us to see teaching in a new light.

MUSICIANS

STUDENTS are aware of the fact that Stevens Point will be host to those high school musicians who are to represent their respective towns in the State Band Tournament on Friday and Saturday of this week.

This is an event which will afford an unusual opportunity for collegians to display friendly attitudes to the visitors. Friendliness should be displayed both because of its ethical value and because of the sense of loyalty to Central which every last student must have.

The affair is a tremendous undertaking and will demand the fullest cooperation to insure success. After all, the responsibility rests with the individual and he is the one who is able to make the stay of the musicians most enjoyable.

After the band tournament has become a past event, will you be able to feel that you had done your bit? You will derive great mental enjoyment if you will have made a few little sacrifices of a personal nature.

Don't forget to give the wheels a little boost, however small. Remember that Central State is a co-host of the undertaking.

TENNIS

THE students and faculty members of Central State are peculiarly endowed in one respect. (It is not meant to infer that this is the lone respect). It is an important respect, nevertheless.

Five tennis courts are at the disposal of students and faculty members of the college as well as town folks. The courts are of concrete and are well built. Visitors have noticed these particular recreational facilities. They have complimented the school because of such a condition that affords unusual opportunities for exercise and enjoyment to wielders of the racquet.

The courts were made possible because of the philanthropy, we might say, of local faculty members. Now that we have the courts, why not utilize them to the fullest possible extent?

There have been years when the tennis turnouts were rather meager and disappointing. This season, we notice a marked improvement as far as tennis enthusiasm is concerned.

In spite of all this, it is evident that there is room for a great deal of improvement. Those in charge of the tennis destinies of Central are laboring diligently to wipe out the debt contracted in the erection of the courts. Students are aiding in this undertaking.

Great loyalty has been shown, but many are using the courts without contributing the small sum which people expecting privileges of membership are expected to advance.

Past experience has shown that time spent in learning and improving ones game of tennis has never been regretted. School life affords an especially convenient time for learning the game and at the same time, receiving physical exercise which is so necessary.

The editor was quite impressed with a communication which was received from Irving Gordon, a former student of C. S. T. C. who is now engaged in teaching at the Amherst High School. While at school, he was engaged in many extra curricular activities and among them was the tennis game.

His enthusiasm for tennis has evidently outlived his other athletic interests for his message pertained to tennis.

After a short introductory statement or two, he struck out into the heart of the subject. The students will, without doubt, enjoy thinking over the authoritative statements which are to be found in the excerpts which follow.

"It seems as though that now the College has become red-blooded in all forms of sport, that this blood should be infused into tennis also...."

It seems as though there should be lively interest in a tournament as long as there is such fine equipment. Don't miss the 'golden opportunity'.

Tennis should be firmly established on a competitive basis with other colleges as it is in all major schools.

It's a great game! One that can be carried on after graduation. This cannot always be said of football, basketball, etc."

After a consideration of these facts and others, no one can fail to picture the dividends to be gleaned from a little time appropriated to work-outs on the tennis courts.

What do you thing about it?

Suspicion always haunts the guilty mind; the thief doth fear each bush and officer.—Shakespeare.

HUMOR
MORE OR LESS

The opening selection for this week's humor column will be a selection entitled "This might be a better world if there weren't so many saps, but it would be harder to make a living."

I'M STANDING

Palmer Budahl: "Yes sir, I had a mustache like yours once, and when I realized how it made me look, I cut it off."

Irl Thurber: "Well, I had a face like yours once, and when I realized that I couldn't cut it off, I grew this mustache."

AT THE END

Asel Weldon: "Seems to me like you are two-faced."

Mary Agnes Boyle: "I might be two-faced, but it's a cinch you aren't or you wouldn't be wearing that one."

Doctors don't have so much trouble cutting the hide, but the flappers are having a hard time hiding the cut.

"This is a most uplifting movement," remarked the sailor as he hitched up his trousers.

"How very depressing," said the fat woman, as she sat down on the air cushion.

OF THE LINE

Did you ever hear of a modern girl who has clocks on her stockings? And if they do wear clocks, could you find one so reticent that even these self-same clocks were slow?

A Chicago coed doesn't necessarily have to be conceited to be stuck up.

BECAUSE THERE'S NO ONE

Dale Driscoll: "Money isn't everything."

Agatha Malueg: "Yes, Dale, but it comes in handy when you're trying to live."

He who laughs last didn't see the joke in the first place.

Bennie: "Darling, you are the breath of my life."

Sweet Girl: "Well, do you ever hold your breath?"

BEHIND ME

Many college students have been driven to murder after finding their roommate's finger-prints on their girl's neck.

A professor knows it's time to get a new suit of clothes when the dogs start barking at him.

Now I know that you will surely read the titles from top to bottom.

We will now close with a very solemn selection entitled "If all the coeds who walked back from auto rides were placed side by side, the chiropodists would do a flourishing business." (?)

The Whirlpool

Respectfully submitted....

To whom it may concern:

In the last issue of the Pointer I noticed a person by the surname of "Toots" suggested that Lucile Hyland be presented to the Court of the Hall Of Fame. I don't believe the ceremonies could be made auspicious enough to do Lucile justice.

If suggestions are in order, mine is cast for Mr. Bertram LaBrot as a potential entrant to the Hall of Fame mausoleum.

Signed,
"Sincerely"

Dear Editor of the "Whirlpool"—

I think that some students at Central have quite a bit of crust. These are seen playing on the tennis courts quite often, and they haven't consideration enough to let the Tennis Club members take the courts.

The courts need upkeep and must be paid for. Why not let those people use them who contribute?

Everybody knows whether you are a member or not. You are only fooling yourself. And you can't blame club members for inwardly resenting the above mentioned procedure.

Get wise, you birds!

WHO'S WHO AND WHY

Answer to last week's description — John Stephenson.

Description — Not a local boy... wears glasses, sometimes... is quite a hardworking sort of chap... according to the directory, he lives in a home town with an "e" in it... past seventeen... has been here before... telephone number has a "J" as a suffix... his last name has an "e" in it... we believe that he is a senior in the college... and you know what that means!

LORRAINE TRELEVAN

Again Nekoosa has the call! Write your own ticket!

Again she is small, but Oh Boy. Like Nekoosa — far ahead of the rest. Stays at Nelson Hall, but that doesn't mean anything.

Is a clever little dancer. Talks fluently and if the boys don't watch out... Looks kittenish but sometimes acts just a little devilish. Ho, Ho, Hum!

A very active girl in the social life of old C. S. T. C. She has kept them guessing. Don't forget it either. If you had been here last year, you would have known. Who's who and why and what of it!

Displays lots of pep and fight. Is at present collecting data for her latest book "Oscillations in pursuit of happiness."

Mr. Neale is beginning his season of commencement addresses on Thursday, May 16 at Shiotoon, where he appears for the High School graduating class.

Up to the present time Mr. Neale is scheduled for fourteen commencement addresses, the last one being at the Rural County Normal in Merrill on June 13.

RURAL NOTES

Harry Steffen spoke at the Meehan Community Club on 4 H Club work, last week.

Miss Roach talked to the Catholic Woman's Club at Eau Claire, last week.

It is reported that thirty, one-year rurals have received positions in schools.

The seventh and eight grades at the demonstration school took their final examinations last Saturday.

Section One of the one-year Rural Department is putting on the next Rural Life Club program next Monday, May 20. Practices have begun, and there is a promise of a good program.

Dr. Baldwin and the Rural faculty members were in Madison Saturday, May 11 for a Round-up Conference. The principal speaker was Dr. William McKinley Robinson of Kalamazoo, Michigan. They report a very splendid and helpful meeting.

NELSON HALL NOTES

All the girls who could possibly go home, very properly celebrated Mother's Day with their mothers.

Frances Johnson entertained Lela Buttgen at her home in Merrill over the week end.

Helen Larson's return to school was delayed on Monday by the illness of her sister, Ruth.

The smile on the Nelson Hall girls' faces is getting broader: $330.00 has been paid in the piano debt. About $7.40 was cleared by the movies, "Alice in Wonderland", and "Robinson Crusoe," on last Friday night. It is hoped that a good sum will be cleared by a food sale at the booth planned for this week end.

The Nelson Hall family will have one of the Milwaukee vocational school bands in the house during the tournament. There are about 62 in this band. Besides some of the girls will have their special friends from other bands; as a result Nelson Hall will be a very busy place.

Esther Hawkes celebrated her birthday at a very happy party in her room on Saturday night.

Claire McClellan, of the class of 1928, visited old friends in Nelson Hall on Sunday afternoon; and Mrs. Norma Hanson, nee Edith McLeod, of the class of '23, called on Sunday evening.

Mr. St. Clair who, with other summer resort owners, staged an exhibition at the Coliseum in Chicago, visited Ethel on his way down and is expected to call again on his return trip to Land O' Lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Hagen visited Ellamae Newberry at her home in Mauston over the week end; and en route took Genevieve Taylor and Jeanette Hanson to their homes in New Lisbon.

Dorothy Oleson entertained Alice Falk, Lucile Hyland, and Pauline Buhlman on Saturday and Sunday, and Mildred Steinke entertained Janet Urquhart, Murilla Roberts, Anne Jeselun, Anna McWilliams, and Isabel Sanderson.

Mrs. Lloyd Mueret, nee Margaret Cawley, brought her beautiful baby daughter to call on friends Friday afternoon.
