A movie, "The Amateur Gentleman", will be presented in the College Auditorium tonight at 7:45. Admission free.

The cast of the picture consists of Richard Barthelemy, Dorothy Dunbar, Gardner James, and Nigel Barrie. The theme is taken from Jeffery Farnol's picturesque novel of early English days. It is the story of a boy who inherited a fortune and set off for London to become a gentleman, a boy who was the gamest fighter and the pluckiest horseman who ever cleared the hedges and ditches in a steeplechase and who hired the world for a woman's love. It is a Sidney Olcott production.

While a senior in high school, Dick was one of the main stars and stellar performers on the Red Granite team which won the Supplementary Tournament here in 1927. His work was outstanding throughout the tournament. He is a very tall, clean bearded fellow and is expected to lead the Purple and Gold Basketees to victory.

Beside his basketball abilities, he showed promise on the football field last fall, in his first game. He won his letter by playing in an aggressive manner at the tackle position.

Dick is a good student and participates in many outside activities. He is business manager of the Pointer, Sophomore class President, and Vice President of the Margaret Ashmen Club. The Margaret Ashmen Club is an organization consisting of honors students in English and those showing ability, in forensics and journalistic work.

HUMOR
MORE OR LESS

The opening selection for this week's humor column will be a selection entitled "This might be a better world if there were as many naps, but it would be harder to make a living."

I'M STANDING
Palmer Budahi: "Yes sir, I had a mustache like yours once, and when I realized how it made me look, I cut it off."

Ir! Thurber: "Well, I had a face like yours once, and when I realized that I couldn't cut it off, I grew this mustache."

AT THE END
Avel Weldon: "It seems to me like you are two-faced."

Mary Agnes Doyle: "I might be two-faced, but it's a cinch you aren't or you wouldn't be wearing that one."

Doctors don't have so much trouble cutting the hide, but the flappers are having a hard time hiding the cut.

"This is a most uplifting movement," remarked the sailor as he hitched up his trousers.

"How very depressing," said the fat woman as she sat down on the air cushion.

OF THE LINE
Did you ever hear of a modern girl who has clocks on her stockings? And when, you say, these clocks, could you find one so reticent that even these sorts the same clocks were slow?

A Chicago coed doesn't necessarily have to be conceited to be stuck up.

BECAUSE THERE'S NO ONE
Dale Driscoll: "Money isn't everything."

Agatha Mauge: "Yes, Dale, but it certainly is handy when you're trying to live."

He who laughed last didn't see the joke in the first place.

Beannie: "Darling, you are the breath of my life."

Sweet Girl: "Well, do you ever hold your breath?"

BEHIND ME
Many college students have been driven to murder after finding their room- mate's finger-prints on their girl's neck.

A professor knows it's time to get a new suit of clothes when the dogs start barking at him.

Now I know that you will surely read the titles from top to bottom.

We will now close with a very solemn selection entitled "If all the coeds who walked back from auto rides were placed side by side, the chiroprists would do a flourishing business."

The Whirlpool
Respectfully submitted...

To whom it may concern:
In the last issue of the Pointer I noticed a person by the surname of "Toots" suggested that Lucile Hyland be promoted to the Court of the Hall of Fame. I don't believe the ceremony could be made auspicious enough to do Lucile justice.

If suggestions are in order, mine is cast for Mr. Bertram LaBute as a potential entrant to the Hall of Fame mansion.

Signed, "Sincere"

Dear Editor of the 'Whirlpool'-
I think that some students in Central have quite a bit of crust. These are seen playing on the tennis courts quite often, and they haven't consideration enough to let the Tennis Club members take the courts.

The courts need upkeep and must be paid for. Why not let those people use them who contribute.

Everybody knows whether you are a member or not. You are only foisting yourself on the Central club members for inwardly resenting the above mentioned procedure. Get wise, you birds! -- "Hot Head"

YES
WHO'S WHO AND WHY
Answer to last week's description -- John Stephens.
Description -- Not a local boy, born in sin, respectability... is quite a hardworking sort of chap... according to the directory, he lives in a home town with an "e" in it... perhaps... has been here before... telephone number has a "j" as a suffix... his last name has an "e" in it... we believe that he is a senior in the college... and you know what that means!

FALL OF HALE

LOURAINS TRELLIVAN

Again Nekoa has the call! Write your own ticket.

Again she is small, but Oh Boy. Like Nekoa — far above the other girls at Nelson Hall, but that doesn't mean her clothes will look like a little dress.

Is a clever little dancer. Talks fluently and if the boos do work, it looks like kittenish... but some times acts just a little de- licate. Her name is -- Hale, Hul.

A very active girl in the second class of the C. S. T. C. She has kept them guessing. Don't forget to either. If I was her I'll bet next year, you wouldn't have known. Who's who and why and what of it! Displays lots of pep and fight. Is at present collecting data for her latest book "Oscillations in pursuit of happiness."

Nelson Hall Notes

All the girls who could possibly go home, very properly celebrated Mother’s Day with their mothers.

Frances Johnson entertained Lela Buttgen at her home in Merrill last over the week end.

Helen Larson’s return to school was delayed on Monday by the illness of her sister, Ruth.

The smile on the Nelson Hall girls’ faces is getting broader: $30.00 has been paid in the piano debt. About $4.00 was cleared by the movies, “Alice in Wonderland”, and “Robinson Crusoe,” on last Friday night. It is hoped that a good sum will be cleared by a food sale at the booth planned for this week end.

The Nelson Hall family will have one of the Milwaukee vocational school bands in the house during the tourment. There are about 62 in this band. Besides some of the girls, they will have some special friends from other bands; as a result Nelson Hall will be a very busy place.

Esther Hawkes celebrated her birthday at a very happy party in her room on Saturday night.

Chaise McCollum, of the class of 1928, visited old friends in Nelson Hall on Sunday afternoon; and Mrs. Norma Hanson, see Ethel McLeod, of the class of ’23, called on Sunday evening.

Mr. St. Clair who, with other summer resort owners, staged an exhibition at the Coliseum in Chicago, visited Ethel on his way down and is expected to call again on his return trip to Land O’ Lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Hagen visited Ellamae Newberry at her home in Mau­ tion over the week end, and en route took Genevieve Taylor and Jentette Hanson to their homes in New Lisbon. Dorothy Olson entertained Alice Falk, Lucile Hyland, and Pauline Buhl­ man on Saturday and Sunday, and Mit­ dred Steike entertained Janet Urqu­ hart, Marilla Roberts, Anne Jeselen, Anna McWilliams, and Isabel Sundev­ son.

Mrs. Lloyd Muerer, see Margaret Cawley, brought home a beautiful baby daughter to call on friends Friday afternoon.

Here's another for a mathematics student — multiply a number by any number you wish, and will still have the same figures in the result. The number is 526,315, 789, 473, 684.

Well, well.

An English book on Etiquette, written in 1863, states — "The perfect hostess will see to it that the works of male and female authors be properly separated on her bookshelves. Their proximity, unless they happen to be married, should not be tolerated!"
