PRESIDENT ATTENDS MADISON MEETING

President Hyer attended the meeting on Monday Dec. 1, of the committee for the organization of a core curriculum for the four year course in elementary education in the State Teachers' Colleges.

The committee was composed of Presidents Baker of Milwaukee, Ames of River Falls, and Hyer of Stevens Point. The members met at Madison in the office of Mr. Doudna, secretary of the Board of Regents.

Work has been going forward on this curriculum for the past year, and Mr. Hyer reports, that such progress has been made as to make him hope the course will be ready for publication in the new catalogue to be issued early in the new year.

Following the committee meeting Mr. Hyer attended the School Men's Conference called by Superintendent Callahan, at Madison.

Mr. Hyer Relates Own Experience To Rurals

President Hyer gave an inspiring and instructive talk at Rural Life Monday night. He chose as his subject red letter days in his own teaching career. In his own delightfully informal and friendly manner he led us to enjoy many of his teaching experiences. He said that three of the most powerful factors in bringing advancement to an individual are honesty, friendship with older people, and doing more than one is paid for.

The Rural Life Glee Club made its first appearance, singing two numbers, "Who's That A'Calling," and "When It's Springtime in the Rockies."

Miss Lucy Doyle, supervising teacher of Portage county, gave two vocal solos, which the Club enjoyed very much.

After the usual community singing, the Club adjourned.

Students Entertain Carry Corners Club

Six students of the Rural Department, Alice Law, Mildred Bonas, Lucille Smith, Mildred Mack, Ethyl Wicke and Marie Rodosevich, presented a program for the Carry Corners Community Club meeting Friday evening, December 5. Miss Roach accompanied them. The following was the program:

Songs, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear", "Southern Memories" ..... by all the girls
Declamation, "Mason Family on Exhibition" ... Mildred Bonas

Songs "Springtime in the Rockies", "Drifting and Dreaming" ..... Alice Law, Marie Rodosevich

Declamation, "Buddy and Waffles" ..... Mildred Mack

Talk, "Advantages of a One-Room Schoolhouse" Alice Law
Community Singing, led by Miss Doyle, County Supervising Teacher.

Burlesque play, "Hiring a Teacher" ..... By the six girls

Elimination Debates To Be Held Next Week

There are eighteen members of C. S. T. C. who are preparing debates for next week. The debates are to be trials and will take place on next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons. From this group the squad will be chosen that will travel to Milwaukee Teachers' College, Marquette University, Carroll College, and the University of Wisconsin during the month of January.

Members Of Faculty To Attend Conference

Two members of the C. S. T. C. faculty, Miss Allen and Mr. Thompson are attending the National Vocational Association conference which is being held in Milwaukee Dec. 10-13. Leaders in Vocational Education from all parts of the United States were to be present.

Students Compete In Oratory Friday

The local oratorical contest will be held in the college auditorium at 8 p. m. Friday evening. The college orchestra will furnish music. Each of the contestants will give his original oration. There will be three people chosen from the Civic Clubs of Stevens Point who will act as judges. All students and any one else interested are urged to attend.

PREPARATION UNDERWAY FOR RAID ON CONFERENCE TITLE

Festival Rehearsal on Sunday P. M.

There will be a special rehearsal of the Festival Chorus at 2:15 on Sunday afternoon, December 14, in the College auditorium. Everyone who expects to be in the Festival must be at the rehearsal or present his name to Mr. Percival. The exact number who are to participate must be known so that all the necessary properties can be prepared.

On December 17 at 7 p. m. the dress rehearsal will take place in the auditorium. The rehearsal will last only an hour if all come on time. Be present and on time.

Dorm Girls To Stage Benefit Radio Dance

The Nelson Hall girls are sponsoring an informal dancing party to be held in the old gymnasium Saturday, Dec. 13. Every faculty member and student of the school is invited. Their friends are also welcome.

The "dorm" girls are paying for their Kennedy radio, which already has proved a source of much enjoyment. It looks as though the radio business will receive an impetus from the many ardent fans found at Nelson Hall.

Ray Jacobs' Orchestra will play for the dancing which will begin at 8:30. Mr. and Mrs. Leland Burroughs, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schmeeckle and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rogers will chaperone the party.

Front Stairway Now Open To Students

The front stairway is now completed and ready for use.

The State Inspector visited our school the week before Thanksgiving vacation and approved the new stairway, a fireproof construction, completed with terrazzo floors.

The new chemistry laboratory would now be complete were it not for the fact that some table tops were broken in shipment and that others were rejected because of imperfections.

The lab will be completed when students and teachers return after Christmas vacation.

This college will then have one of the best chemical laboratories in the state.

SIX LETTERMEN REMAIN TO BOLSTER QUINSET

The gridiron schedule came to a close three weeks ago when the boys played the last game for the season. Now the interest of the student body, city, and state will center on the new coach of C. S. T. C. and his basket ball team.

Forty Men Out

Eddie Kotal began his new job as athletic director at C. S. T. C. Wednesday. Only one call for men to work for the new mentor, and to build up a name for C. S. T. C. as an outstanding school in athletics has been made. The former coach at Lawrence and star of the Green Bay Packer football team had in the gym 40 prospective basketball players, Wednesday afternoon.

Nine League Games

Kotal will have his hands full this year; C. S. T. C. has nine league games, five at home and four out of the city. It is likely that practice contests will be put on the program before the holiday recess. There is at least one open day to be filled in the schedule after Christmas.

Veterans Back

Ollie Neuberger, veteran of the squad, will lead the boys this year. Every one knows Ollie, not only as a skilled basketball man, but as an outstanding man in football. Besides Neuberger, who is a forward, there are six lettermen from last year: Clifford Alberts, guard; Art Schroeder, forward; Orlando Johnson, center; Harry Klappa, center; Ed Baker, guard; Ted Chvala, forward.

RECOGNITION

A letter was received this week from last year's Editor, Miss Fern Pugh, who is now teaching in the high school at Wau-pun. In her letter, Miss Pugh gave the POINTER staff a pat on the back, which is greatly appreciated.

Work on an extra curricular subject, such as a school publication, is generally a thankless job. Few people ever think to give the staff a little praise for its work, when deserved, but when a mistake is made the condemnations are many. A verse on a wall of the POINTER office might be applied here. It reads as follows:

The students get the paper,
The school gets the fame,
The printer gets the money
And the staff gets the blame.

Staff members of a school paper, as a rule, receive no official recognition for their work, although the fruits of their labors go to uphold the honor of the school in the field of journalism. The least that the school can do is to show an interest in the work.

We always appreciate evidences of interest in our work on the POINTER as long as it is constructive. We are pleased to know that former staff members still follow up the work. We should like to hear from them more often.

LAWN OR PASTURE?

OUR college has a beautiful front campus. In fact, it is one of the most picturesque spots in the city. Some individuals do not seem to appreciate this type of beauty, however, because unsightly paths are being worn across the lawn at several places.

Students who want our "front yard" to keep its beauty should help to influence the guilty ones against practising these acts of veritable vandalism. We do not want our front campus to gain the aspect of a pasture crossed by winding cowpaths.

The lawn makes an excellent lounging place in warm weather. That is the use for which it is adapted. That kind of treatment does not injure the grass.

There are no "keep off" signs on our campus. Let us not over-tax our privileges. "Keep off the grass" when you intend to make a short-cut.

THE QUESTION

TO be or not to be, that is the question — whether, or not, our student body and faculty will enter for the rest of the year into the spirit that real colleges should have.

Let us go back to our football games this year. Maybe half of the school, and not all of the faculty members attended the first game. At the last two games of the season about one-fourth of the school and faculty were present. When the school has dances does the whole school turn out to make the party go over big? NO! It is not only the students but members of our faculty who never show up.

If we want a winning team this year in basketball we shall have to give a much better backing than was given to the football team.

Friday night the school will give an oratorical contest. How many of the student body will be on hand to hear the speakers who will represent our school this year? R. L. N.

THE strength and security of the nation will always rest in the intelligent body of the people. Our education should implant conceptions of public duty and private obligations broad enough to envisage the problems of a great distraught world. More than anything else, men and women need the capacity to see with a clear eye and to contemplate with open, unprejudiced mind the issues of these times.—WARREN G. HARDING.

HUMOR

MORE OR LESS

HOW ABOUT IT?

Many a college man who spends a night writing a love letter later spends a lifetime wondering why he did it.

HELP!!

Bill — "May I hold your hand?"

Jone — "It isn't heavy, I can manage it, thank you."

EFFICIENCY PLUS

Pat — "You mean that I am to file these letters?"

Miss Rowe — "That's what I said."

Pat — "Don't you think it would be easier to trim them with scissors?"

It's the same old thing but lipstick gives it a new flavor.

EVOLUTION?

Tom "I've changed my mind."

Art — "Well, does it work any better?"

Betty Co-ed says — "Don't snub the sloppy looking hobo; he may be just a vagabond lover gone to seed."

EVER TRY IT?

What is more pleasant than a cold bath before breakfast?

— No cold bath.

THIS IS THE SPOT

Customer — "This food isn't fit for a pig to eat."

Joe — "Then don't eat it sir."

Chemistry prof — "What is the meaning of T N T?"

Rastus — "I don't know the chemical meaning, but to me it is just Travel Nigger Travel."

W. M. S. G.

Joe College sez that his girl paints and powders so much that kissing her is just like eating a marshmallow.

THOSE LITTLE WHITE LIES

Ann — "You've broken that promise you gave me."

Dick — "Don't cry, I'll give you another."

ANCIENT!

And then there was a man who remembers when people went to a movie to see a movie.

Teacher — "Parse the word kiss."

Clarabow — "This word is a noun, but is usually used as a conjunction. It is never declined, and more common than proper. It is not very singular in that it is usually used in the plural. It agrees with me." —Pathfinder.

Many a man who embarks on the sea of matrimony wishes he had missed the boat.

NELSON HALL NOTES

To Everyone:

What's all the secrecy about these days? Have you seen some of the things I have this week? Did you meet anyone coming stealthily up the steps or see someone going down equally as quietly? If you did perhaps you're as anxious as I am about it all. Well, being a nosy person and having the excuse that it is part of my business, I peeked and eavesdropped last night.

About 10:00 I crept downstairs watched and waited around the office. In a short time someone came slowly tip-toeing down the stairs and into the office. Putting on the light, the individual went over to the list of girls near the telephone and found someone's name and room number and placed an attractively tied bundle in a mailbox. She then extinguished the light and smiling to herself (almost chuckling) crept up to bed. I could control myself no longer and so switched on the light and looked in the box the individual had chosen. Reaching in, I pulled out a daintily tied package. A little tag attached told me the whole secret: "For my gypsy sweetheart." Satisfied, I went to bed.

Have you remembered to send your gypsy sweetheart something? Perhaps she's blue or having difficulty. Just a line from you may cheer her up. You'll not only give her pleasure but watch what a good feeling it will give you.

Have you been thinking how soon Christmas will be here? On nearly every floor, there are hints, plans and suggestions for Christmas parties. The annual Nelson

Norske Refreshments For Home-Ec Party

The members of the Home Economics Department enjoyed a Christmas party held Monday in the old gymnasium, which was decorated especially for the occasion, with a small Christmas tree standing in a corner.

The program consisted of the singing of carols, and the following games; shadow pictures, king and queen, airplane ride, and fortune-telling.

Refreshments typical of Norway were served. They consisted of Fattig Mann Bakiles, better known as Norwegian Christmas cookies, and coffee.

The members of the committee were Kathryn Wiggins, chairman, Thryza Iverson, Lois Richards, Jean Boyington, Marjorie Pearson, Frances Korb, Kathryn Slowey, and Reinetta Reisinger.

Sorority Entertains At Afternoon Tea

The members and alumni of the Omega Mu Chi Sorority entertained at a tea for the faculty women, wives of the faculty, and the members of the Tau Gamma Beta Sorority. The tea was held in the reception rooms of the Home Economics Department at the college. Decorations, consisting of orchids, sweet peas and baby chrysanthemums, together with tall candles in amber holders, carried out the color scheme of the club, lavender and yellow. Mrs. Cashin, patroness, and Laura Schoeninger, president, poured.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. Christmas party will be held at Nelson Hall this evening. Vivian Enge, as chairman of the meeting has planned an entertaining holiday program. All members of the Y. W. C. A. are invited to attend.

Last Thursday evening the members of the Young Women's Christian Association enjoyed a talk on "What Do the Leading Scientists Believe About Religion?" given by Mr. Rogers. Mr. Rogers cited instances of the deeply religious thoughts and motives of the leading scientists of ours and other countries in this day and age. Dr. Millikin is no doubt the most familiar of the scientists, biologists, physicists, chemists and the rest who were mentioned.

The Rec. room at Nelson Hall was attractively decorated for the meeting which was held by Alta Stauffer.

NOTICE!

It has been brought to our notice that we have no distinctive C. S. T. C. yell! Think of it — our using high school and borrowed yells!! Outrageous! Well, now, show your school spirit! We have a new coach, we're going to have an extraordinary basketball team — it has started work already. Let's have a new yell belonging to C. S. T. C. only! We are waiting for your contributions!! Hand them to any member of the Pointer staff, or put them in the boxes in the halls for Pointer contributions. There is something that cannot be revealed at this time, but we'll just tell you that there is to be special mention and honor to be given to the one who submits the yell that is accepted for C. S. T. C.

Get busy, studes!! Here's your chance to make a name for your Alma Mater and for yourself!!!

Mr. Percival has compiled a C. S. T. C. song and yell sheet. It has been O. K'd by President Hyer and is ready to go to the publishers as soon as we find a yell distinctive of C. S. T. C. Put your brains to work immediately!!

First Prof — "My wife is a canny housekeeper."

Second Prof — "My wife doesn't know how to cook either."

Students regret to learn that Miss Hanson's health is of such condition that she found it necessary to withdraw from school at the close of school last Friday. It is hoped that she will be able to return when school opens after Christmas vacation.

WHOSE ZOO?

"Who's the pretty little blonde, Ray, the one going down the hall? Kinda clever how she tucks her hair over her ears, isn't it? A fellow would hardly know she was letting it grow. She seems to get plenty of attention from the boys; there's a Phi Lambda Phi fellow with her half the time."

"Gee, Jack, I don't know her name, but her last name sounds like it should come first. She wears a fuzzy orange beret quite often—don't know if it belongs to her or to her room-mate."

"By golly, I'm going to get a knock-down to her at the dance tomorrow night."

Miss Curlielocks when Boris' sweetheart.

(As you remember, dear readers, Miss Holmes was doing the screaming act when we left her. She has now finished and will tell you why the notes of sadness and despair.)

"What is the trouble, Miss Curlielocks?" queried Mr. Steiner. "Is something wrong, or did you just get a sad thought?"

"That isn't Boris! Where is my Boris? Boris!! They have killed him! Sob.... sob.... sob. Booo hooo hooo!"

"I believe the girl has gone insane," said Mr. Spindler. "She is the life of the Rurals. They have worked her too hard."

"Teacher's gone nuts," piped Kelly.

"Das is rictig," piped Doc Crosby trying to over-awe Miss Davis, with whom he had been recently dancing, with his fluent use of the German language.

Others followed with similar statements (in English), and Mr. Steiner took Miss Holmes aside and managed to quiet her.

"Teacher's gone nuts," piped Kelley.

"And now," said Mr. Hyer, after the commotion (meaning Miss Holmes) had quieted down, "We shall continue with our program. Mr. Klyzumshik will sing the song whose name I mentioned before, 'Olga's Boatman.'"

The lights went out. Darkness ensued. What happened?

"Eeek! Ooof! Rudy, stop kissing me! I'm faint. Water." (No, friends, this is not Miss Holmes' patented scream.)

The lights went on. Honey lay

(Continued from col. 1) swooning (also sagging) in Rudy's arms; he denied that he had kissed her as the lights went out. (We believe Rudy, because we have proof that he is bashful; though he is a fraternity member, he does not dance much.)

"Miss Curlielocks has disappeared!", shouted Mr. Steiner. "It's the work of THE WOLF!", yelled Del Kehir.

"Another nut bolted," whispered Tom Smith to Alice. "God pity the sailors on a night like this!"

"Well, at least they don't have to listen to your nonsense for an evening."

"I'm glad THE WOLF didn't get a case on Cis," said George Maurer in an awed tone. "What a way to handle women!"

"But," said President Hyer, "Where is Boris?"

All eye turned toward the stage. The seat of honor was vacant. Boris Klyzumshik was gone. "Eighteen thousand dollars," sighed Mr. Neale.

John Pralguski was poised in the center of the floor, the only nonchalant person present. He was playing with his yo yo.

(Where is Boris? Who kissed Honey? Be with you next week.)

WHO?

An idiot has no trouble sleeping; an intelligent person often does. Into which class do you plunge? Sh-h-h-h, don't tell anybody!!!

There are many more idiots among men than among women (Hooray!), but there are also more geniuses. (Oh-h-h!)

But you can't tell who wrote this!

W. A. A.

The first of the regular sport banquets is now history. Last Saturday night the hockey girls met and reveled in the old gym from 6:30 to 10:00 o'clock. Dinner was served informally by the W. A. A. girls; the idea of Hockey was carried out in the nut cups and decorations. The revelers danced to radio music between courses (such as it was). The entertainment of the evening was a dance program with special features. Ann Jeselun got the prize as the best drum major and you should have seen all the actors and actresses of the evening! Farina (Blanche Tyler) won first prize, and Miss Seen second for what? Well, we didn't have to tax our imaginations much to guess why they were.

There were numerous other incidents which added to the merriment of the party, and everyone left with a little token of the evening, and a satisfied feeling of an evening well spent.

Basketball practice has commenced in earnest. Come on out and join the girls at 4:00 on Tuesdays and Thursdays. If you have not been out to fall sports, hand your name to Miss Seen or to the president of W. A. A.

The next regular meeting of W. A. A. will be the 4th Wednesday in January and is in charge of Jennie Newsome, Lila Kenyon and Evelyn Davies. Wonder what will happen?

THIS WEEK'S SHORT STORY

"Gentlemen prefer blondes," remarked Neale as he edged up to the peroxide beauty.

She gave him a cold stare. "Blondes prefer gentlemen," she replied as she moved away haughtily.

NELSON HALL NOTES Cont'd

(Continued from page 3, col. 1) Hall Christmas Party will be held Monday in the dining room. It is rumored that a real live "Santy Claus" will appear to distribute the gifts. To add to the fun, each table is to prepare a stunt of some kind and judges will be selected to choose the winners.

Miss Hussey's guests for Sunday were "newlyweds", Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Plank. Their marriage took place during the Thanksgiving recess. Miss Georgiana Miller was a guest of Miss Rowe at dinner Monday evening.

Although most of the girls who usually go home for the week-end followed the same custom this week, there are a few who still find other places of interest. Bess Dewar went to Ripon for the week-end. She reports an interesting time.

Alta Stauffer entertained her sister this week-end. She tasted college life. We hope she comes again.

The old furnace of Nelson Hall has been removed providing more storage space. However, no beds have been carried out there as yet, as the room accommodates only potatoes and vegetables.

Genevieve Pulda was surprised on her birthday at a special table. The girls were Crystal Joseph, Ruby Hand, Helen Hammes, Ann Jeselun, Murilla Roberts, Frances Johnson, Dorothy McLain, and Vera Hillis. Orchid and yellow chrysanthemums and orchid candles decorated the table.

We are sorry to hear that Vellie Holand had been called home because of her mother's illness.

Some of the girls have been kept busy mopping up the floods resulting from leaking radiators. If anyone of you have any of this kind of trouble ask for pointers from those who have had the experience.

Don't forget the great big dance Saturday night. I'll see you there. Nan.

PREPARE FOR CAGE TILT

Richard Marshall, last year's center and forward, is in school this year but has had three years of competition and is therefore ineligible. His retirement leaves the chief problem of a center who can take the ball at the tip-off.

Among the candidates who reported were: Arthur Thompson, Stevens Point; Harry Hansen, New Lisbon; Misener, Unity; Art. Hoops, Spencer; Carl Kitowski, Stevens Point; Peter Peterson, Amherst; Art. Sorenson, Unity; Phillip Wilson, Unity; Jack Ball, Stevens Point; Clarence Travalli, Abbotsford; Ed. Leuthold, Shawano; Richard Rothman, Stevens Point; Gerhardt Willecke, Unity; L. Long, Bear Creek; George Kelly and William Feathers, Manawa; Melvin Andre and Alvin Buege, Algoma; Randolph Feecklam, Spencer; and Robert Neale, Stevens Point.

Dick — "Why have you your socks on inside out?"

Gen — "My feet got so hot I turned the hose on them."

Dad sez everything seems to get delayed in the mails except bills.
