College Year Book Being Sent To Publishers

Annual Staff To Complete Work Soon

College Year Book Will Be Distributed Within a Few Weeks

Over half of the work on the 1932 Iris has been submitted to the printers, and Alta Stauffer, editor-in-chief of the college annual, said additional copy is being completed daily.

The annual will contain 176 pages with six insert pages. The first section will page the administration; second, the classes; third, organizations; fourth, activities; fifth, athletics, and the last section will contain features.

Student Art Work

All art work this year is being done by local students. Last year commercial artists were engaged. The editor said 380 books are being ordered. Over $400 of advertising has been sold.

Many new features will be found in this year's edition. One change will be the double column page. An eight page campus view section will be another feature.

A modern collegiate theme has been adopted by the staff. The Badger Printing Company of Appleton has the printing contract. The Jahn and Allier Company of Chicago, has the engraving job.

Editor Compliments Workers

Miss Stauffer said the staff is to be complimented on the splendid cooperation it has been giving the editor. She also said that honorable mention is due to the typists not on the staff who have been volunteering their services.

Chicago Trip Dropped, Not Enough Names

There will be no special excursion trip to Chicago sponsored by the college this year because of lack of a sufficient number of signatures. This action is definite Mr. Rightsell said in a statement to the Pointer Tuesday.

More Signers Needed

A guarantee of 100 car-fares were needed to make plans for the purposed educational tour mature. Less than half of this quota was secured.

Maybe Next Year

The present hard times and the busy April social calendar undoubtedly were responsible for the poor response. However the administration was well pleased with the success of last year's trip, and if times allow it an excursion trip to Chicago will be undertaken next year.

Knutzen To Decide Coloma Contest Tomorrow

Professor Norman E. Knutzen will leave for Coloma Friday afternoon where he is to judge the League Forensic Contest to be held at the Coloma High School that evening. The contest will include seven schools with representatives in both oratory and declamation. Mr. Knutzen is to be the sole judge of the meet.

Work Being Completed On College Athletic Field Now

Work on the college's new athletic field was started last Saturday by the Vaughn Construction company and a crew of city men.

A 150 yard cinder straightway on the west side of the field is well under way. When this is completed the crew of men will grade and level the field and place from 3 to 4 inches of surface soil over the entire area and seed it. Approximately 1000 cubic yards of dirt will be used.

Cinders Laid Thick

The straightway now being completed will act as the west

INTRA -- MURAL BASKET -- BALL CONTEST ON

Intramural basketball will terminate Friday night, when the winning teams of the C. S. T. C. Intramural Basketball Tournament meet to decide the Intramural Basketball Champions for the year of 1931.

St. Mitchell Leaves His Duties Here

Lack Of Funds And Work Allows Coach Kotal To Handle Athletics Alone

Gib St. Mitchell, who has been acting as assistant coach to "Eddie" Kotal since last fall, concluded his services with the college at the end of March.

Lack of funds and an insufficient amount of work in the athletic department to warrant an assistant necessitated the action. Mitchell has assisted Kotal in football work and also has had charge of some gym classes and intra-mural activities.

Mitchell's personality and good fellowship has won him many friends about the institution. He has no definite plan for the future but is interested in high school activities.

Junior Class Ready For Friday Eve

Eli Rice's Cotton Pickers Will Blend Into Southern Garden Scheme

President Vig and his committeemen have been working desperately to transform the bare walls of the new gym into the place of southern beauty that awaits the dancers tomorrow night.

Promptly at nine o'clock Eli Rice and his Dixie Cotton Pickers will commence weaving their non-resisting music.

Interest Shown

Three fourths of the excitement of a prom is the interest in the queen and what she will wear. King Vig of Hawkins has confirmed the statement that Adeline Bellman of Fort Atkinson will preside with him at this aristocratic southern ball. Miss Bellman will appear in a light green net formal frock covered with rows of matching green lace. A black velvet ribbon forms a girdle. White dancing sandals and full length gloves complete the costume. The Queen's wrap is in the modern short style, black velvet lined with white satin.

Hail Lord Thompson

Reigning with the King and Queen will be Lord Arthur Thompson of Stevens Point, and Lady Ruth Reedal of Phillips.

Regent and Mrs. W. E. Atwell, President and Mrs. Hyer, Dean Hussey, Dean and Mrs. Steiner, Adviser and Mrs. Evans, with the nobles and their ladies will receive you as you "Come Smiling To Cottontown."

Point Forensic Men To Judge At Neillsville

On Tuesday, April 19th., Professor Leland M. Burroughs, together with Laurin Gordon and Celestine Nuesse are to judge the League Forensic Contest at the Neillsville High School Auditorium. On Friday of the same week, Mr. Burroughs, Mr. Watson, and Mr. Pierce of the Training School will leave for Wausau to judge the District Forensic Contest to be held at the Wausau High School auditorium that afternoon and evening. The contest will include representatives (Continued on page 2, col. 4)

Phi Sig. Ep. Spring Formal

SOCIETY

SORORITY DANCE

One of the most successful dancing parties of the spring season was the Omega Mu Chi sorority formal, held at Wausau at the Hotel Wausau Saturday evening. One hundred and ten couples were present, including a number of sorority alumnae members. Many pretty evening gowns of lace, satin, taffeta and chiffon, with white, blue and green as the predominating colors, made the scene especially charming, and shoulder and wrist bouquets worn by many of the girls added to the spring-like effect of the party. The programs were bound in white leather with the sorority crest in gold, with long gold pencils attached. Archie Adrian's orchestra of Fond du Lac played for the dancing.

Preceding the dance a 6:30 o'clock dinner was served in a private dining room of the hotel. Covers were laid for 30 at small tables, each decorated with a bouquet of spring flowers and two tall green tapers. Favors for the escorts of sorority members were small watch charms of black onyx with the sorority crest in gold.

Chaperones for the party were Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Benn. Miss Florence Brown and Miss Eva M. Seen, faculty advisers, were special guests for the evening.

TAU GAMMA BETA

At a recent meeting of Tau Gamma Beta sorority, Miss Jones of the local faculty was chosen as adviser of the organization.

Plans have been completed for the spring formal to be held April 28, at Hotel Whiting. A cordial invitation is extended to all students. Tom Temples' orchestra will play for dancing from 8:30 to 12:00 o'clock. The admission will be two dollars.

PHI SIGMA EPSILON

Cletus Collins, Kendall; Guy Krumm, and Ashur Shorey, Argonne were initiated into Phi Sigma Epsilon national fraternity last Tuesday evening. Formal initiation will be held next Tuesday evening.

Friday, April 22, the Phi Sigs will hold their spring party at Hotel Whiting. Knights of the Night Orchestra, of Fond du Lac, will play for dancing. A banquet for active and alumni members will be served at 7:00 o'clock. All students and townspeople are invited to attend the dance from 9:00 to 1:00 o'clock.

Y. W. C. A. Host At Afternoon Tea

A delightful spring tea was given at Nelson hall Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock by the Young Women's Christian association of the Teachers college. Bouquets of tulips, narcissi and calendulas decorated the spacious parlors and the hall, and the tea table had as its centerpiece a large bouquet of red tulips in a black vase. Tea, tiny sandwiches, cookies and mints were served. About 100 guests were present.

Misses Helen Switzer, Edith Bauman, Alta Stauffer and Frances Johnson took turns in presiding at the table, while assisting in receiving and serving were Miss Blanche Tyler, president of the association, Misses Amy Boeyink, Jean Morrill, Elmyra Blecha, Lila Kenyon, Katherine Wiggins, Viola Rasmussen and Inez Braun. Miss Stauffer played several piano numbers as an informal program and radio music was enjoyed.

The object of the tea was to raise a fund to send delegates to the national Y. W. C. A. convention which will be held at the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, May 5-9.

Three Favorites

It is very difficult to offer any advanced dope on the tournament, but barring "dark horses" it looks like Rightsell's team, captained by Anderson, Burroughs, team, captained by Swan, and Steiner's team, should be the favorites.

No admission will be charged for spectators, and an invitation is extended to all students who are interested in intra-mural sports to attend.

We've been treating the boxers in rather a kidding way up until now, but they sure aren't fooling. The tin-ears have been working out in a big way.

The bouts on April 20 and 21 are sure to be packed with thrills — and fun. "Windy" Thomas is in charge of the staging of the affair.

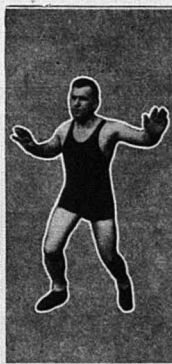

Incidentally, we confused "Windy" with Herbie Thompson, New London scrapper, in the last issue of this sheet. Our mistake, keep — as usual.

Wyndham ("Windy" to you) has met Thompson several times both as an amateur and professional, and is conceded the edge over the New London boy.

These all-school boxing tournaments have been a tremendous success at the "U" and have filled the great field house to capacity. The same success, on a smaller scale, should be duplicated here.

"Pete" Peterson is scheduled to give an exhibition of shadow boxing before the bouts start. "Me and my shadow," says Pete.

And Ashur Shorey has challenged Burt Hotvedt to have it out for the heavy-weight championship.

Varsity Is Defeated By Six-Letter Men

The Six-Letter men have again proved that experience is the best teacher. Monday night this team challenged and played the other men of the varsity to a basketball game, and won by a score of 37 to 34 in an overtime period.

The Six-Letter Team was composed of Vrobel, Schroeder, Alberts, Neuberger, and Chvala. The opposing team consisted of Baker, Thompson, Cashman, Gregory, and Klement.

The six-letter men issued a challenge to any other organization in school in an issue of The Pointer last March 17.

OHIO

Senior chemistry students at Kent State Training School here recently had a narrow escape when, in trying to bleach cloth, some of them poured concentrated sulphuric acid into a calcium chloride mixture. The result, chlorine gas, caused sore throats and stuffy colds.

WISCONSIN

In this modern age of hair cutting one can hardly imagine a heavy china or metal bowl hung around the barber's neck as he cuts his customer's hair; yet such is the practice in the peasant communities in Southern Europe and in the Orient. In the University of Wisconsin Museum is a collection known as the Fairchild collection of barber bowls, which is the only one of its kind in the United States.

WHITEWATER

Kalamazoo, Michigan, was the birth place of Edna Ferber reads "The Royal Purple". Miss Ferber's parents were of Jewish descent. At an early age, her family moved to Appleton, Wisconsin, where Miss Ferber received her education.

ILLINOIS

The hot dogs are still holding their own with the girls at Pemberton Hall. One night each week, after the ten o'clock light dip, steaming hot dogs with plenty of mustard are sold for a nickel apiece. Not only do the hot dogs provide a tasteful lunch but little by little are filling the coffers of the Pemberton Hall treasury.

GALESBURG

"The Knox Student", the student publication of Knox College Galesburg, observes April Fools' Day by allowing freshmen to edit the paper. In past years such wild reports as the following have been made in the "Fool's Day" issue: "Nations' Capital Moved"; "Marvelous 52 story building on the campus"; and in one issue it was announced that "there is no Santa Claus".

IOWA

Robert Wick and David Grant will represent the college in the oratory and extemporaneous speaking contests of the Tri-State League of State Teachers Colleges at the state school at Stevens Point, Wisconsin. Dr. F. W. Lamber-ton, professor of public speaking will accompany the speakers.

Bug house fables — Once upon a time there was a man who told a girl, she was the first one he had ever loved.

Varsity Challenges Six-Letter Winners

"The six letter men aren't so hot," the defeated Purple team claim, and they hereby challenge the champs to a return game. Students will be charged the heavy fee of five cents (one nickel) to witness the spectacle.

We see a plot in this — perhaps that last game was all a buildup for this vast financial coup. If we get a comp, maybe we'll keep quiet about it. If not — well, the big expose will be published in the next Pointer.

College Men Stage Boxing Show Next Week

Boxing Fans To Witness Real Fights

Thomas And Chick Miller Aid In Preparing College Men For Matches

Fight fans will have ample opportunity to observe some real action on Wednesday and Thursday, April 20th, and 21st, when C. S. T. C. will hold its first collegiate boxing tournament at the New Gym.

City Fans Interested

If the local interest which fans have showed for fight cards held at the Armory is any indication, the crowds attending this new attraction, should be large. Training quarters have been established next to Coach Kotal's quarters, and the fighters have been spending time after school hours, working out there.

Thomas Here

An unusual amount of interest has been shown in the success of this healthy sport. "Windy" Thomas, a C. S. T. C. student, who has had a considerable amount of experience in both amateur and professional boxing, is in charge of the arrangements for this affair.

Match-Maker Aids

The boxers who are signed up at present are receiving instructions from "Duke" Warren and Manager "Chick" Miller. Although the referee for these fights has not been definitely chosen as yet, "Chick" Miller is the probable choice. No pairings will be revealed until the night of the fight, but those who have signed up are: Mayer, A. Greene, Ostrowski, Grover, Auby, A. Laabs, Weaver, Gaffney, Fritsch, MacDonald, Wilkins, Gurholt, Scribner, Beppler, Christenson, Cochrane, Tuthill, Roy, Brooks, Marrs, Wynn, Kelley, Buege, Schneek, Latzig, Kidrowski, and Turinski.

The admission, according to the Athletic Commission, who is sponsoring this attraction, will be $.25 for Students, and $.50 for outsiders.

FIRST APPEARANCE HERE

Winston "Windy" Thomas, above, Teachers' college student from New London, will make his first appearance on a local card when he meets Jackie Keller of Minneapolis in a four-round bout here on April 18. Thomas is working out daily with Russ Russell and Duke Warren, also of the Teachers' college, as his sparring partners. Thomas has always been rated in and near New London as a better fighter than Herbie Thompson. He is a conscientious worker, adhering strictly to training rules. Among fighters he met as an amateur are Frankie Knauer, C. A. A. U. champion, Len Bernstein (four times), Joe Cieslak (three times), Benny Goldblatt, Mike Ferro, Hank Rasmussen, Hans Ahl, Carl Mozetic, and 19 others. As a professional, Thomas has met Danny Delmont, Joey Thomas and Herbie Schultz. Thomas turned pro the first of the year.

Last week we were favored by visits from "old girls", Gertrude Conklin a student at St. Theresa's, Winona, Minnesota; Ann Baird, a university girl; and Kathryn Novitski, a Green Bay teacher. The Wicke sisters, Ethyl and Myrtle were with us too. Mr. Earl Goulke, '27, was a caller at the Hall Monday. Mr. Goulke was in Miss Rowe's employ once upon a time.

Remember Anita Dalton, who was here two years ago? We received word of her graduation soon to be. She is a student at the State University. Doris Erickson and Leona Henricks were visited Sunday by a former high school teacher, Miss Ruby Williams of Granton. Miss Christine Thelan, a medical student at the university, visited Alta Stauffer last week.

Florence Hubbard spent the week-end with Neva Redemann at Fremont. After the Omega Mu Chi spring formal Saturday, Crystal Joseph entertained Genevieve Pulda, Murilla Roberts, Ann Jeselum, Adeline Bellman, and Vivian Enge at her home in Elderon. Reinetta Reisinger paid a visit to her uncle who is ill in Menominee, Michigan.

Elsewhere in the Pointer you will read of the charming silver tea given by the Y. W. C. A. Saturday in our living room.

The following girls enjoyed a hike and picnic at Robertson's Park Monday in honor of Doris Erickson's birthday — Ida Lahti, Alice Paulson, Leona Henricks, Dorothy Hoff, Margaret Mortenson, Wilma Gutknecht, and Doris.

Three more rolls for our piano were purchased on the Christmas gift of Mr. and Mrs. Hyer. We enjoy the new music to the utmost. "By the Fireside", "Starlight" and "Somebody Loves You" are the new rolls.

Signs are pointing to the Junior Prom on Friday. That's all you hear in the house now.

WE were pleased with Lew Sarett and he should be pleased with us. He furnished us with a refreshing and intellectual program that we will long remember. We mustered a large audience that was the most alert, responsive and appreciative group that we have assembled for a long time.

IT is seldom that this famous poet, naturalist and dramatizer addresses a group before a scheduled appearance. His purpose is to reserve all his enthusiasm and energy for his program. He broke precedent while at his stay in Stevens Point and spoke unexpectedly at the banquet given in his honor by the Sigma Tau Delta, professional English fraternity, of which Sarett is national vice-president. President Hyer, who is a personal friend of Sarett, induced him to speak by making the situation very informal and pleasant. Besides the conventional salutations Sarett added a beautiful thought to his greeting that is well worth distribution.

SARETT is a teacher and he talked to the students as prospective teachers. In his "shop talk" he pointed out the differences between a materialistic and the idealistic mind. Teachers, poets, readers have idealistic minds and have the power of "escape" that materialistic minds lack. The latter form of mind or interest is confined to tools, machines, and technical matters. The "escape" mentioned was the ability to leave our own hum-drum existences and dream the lives and circumstances of others in our books and plays. Thus our experiences become manifold, more interesting and delightful. But books alone are not the only avenues of "escape" for teachers. They have the lives of their pupils which they may live and feel as their refuge from an ordinary existence. To make a long story and an interesting speech short,—the teacher has not a bad job after all.

WE are appreciative of the services and aid that "Gib" St. Mitchell has performed for the college during his stay as assistant coach. "Depleted athletic funds have made it necessary to get along without an assistant for his leave.

ST. MITCHELL is a clean-cut fellow and was very friendly. He displayed considerable ability as a football line-coach, intra-mural and physical education director. "Mitch" has won our admiration and we wish him luck and hope that he will soon have definite plans for his work.

After studying the tabulated results of the straw vote taken a few weeks ago, Professor E. T. Smith has drawn some interesting conclusions on the ballots. His comments will appear in the next issue of The Pointer.

The ancient Greeks are said to have fought better when their battles were staged under the walls of their cities. Stevens Point ought to win football games next year with the new athletic field adjacent to the College buildings.

Class room pun by a Bronx lad: "A cynic, teacher, is what you wash the dishes in, and a stoic is da boid that brings da babies."

Our typist says that proposals have been plentiful this month but none have had a genuine ring to them. This depression!

Miss Roach fainted the other day when a Ruralite thought that a brick kiln was an Irish murder.

Here's a pick-up from the past basket ball season. Coach (to captain): "Get out on that floor and RUN THAT TEAM! And for God's sakes don't forget to watch the bench for signals."

The coming College boxing show lacks but one thing to make it real, and that is half-a-dozen law suits.

KOLLIN'S KADDY KAPERS

"When I was a baby I swallowed a needle and three months later it grew out of my elbow."

"That's nothing. When I was a baby I swallowed a tack and a little later I had a nail on my big toe."

"By the light of the moon he told his love
 The color left her cheeks —
 But on the collar of his coat
 It showed for many weeks."

Why take life seriously. You can't get out of it alive anyway.

Druggist — "What kind of a tooth brush do you want?"

Sambo — "Mister, give me the biggest one you've got 'cause there's ten kids in my family."

Imagine "John the Janitor's" surprise when he found out the window he had to fix was broken from both sides.

"Money talks."

"Yes, but it never gives itself away."

First Coed — "Why did you tell him you had to go to the dressing room for cold cream?"

Second Coed — "Well, I had to do something to get the chap off my hands."

"I'm a little stiff from bowling."

"Where did you say you are from?"

"What do you sell?"

"Salt."

"I'm a salt-seller too."

"Shake."

The woman of 40 works like 60 to look like 20.

He — "Say Vivian, may I come over tonight?"

She — "Sure Harold, come on over."

He — "Why, this is not Harold."

She — "This isn't Vivian, either."

WRITING A MATH TEST

C. Atwell — "Did you get the answer to that third problem yet?"

James Turrish — "No. How far off are we?"

C. Atwell — "Just two seats."

"My heart is in the ocean," murmured the poet.

"You're a jump ahead of me," said the drunken sailor as he leaned over the railing of the ship.

Barber — "How do you want your hair cut?"

Green Freshman — "With a hole in the top like Mr. Evans has his cut."

"Shoot at will," commanded the officer. But at the command Will was not to be seen.

"What pay do you get in the army?"

"Thirty dollars a day, once a month."

"Hello, big shot, how's everything?"

"She's fine, thanks."

Ghosts will not spook until they are spoken to.

Mr. Burroughs — "Where do you have the most difficulty in making a speech?"

Sam Block — "In my knees."

American dentists are supposed to be the best in the world. Someone went to great pains to find that out.

Some say to enjoy good jokes you must be "broad minded." Don't take me wrong, because we don't mean the fairer sex.

"He never had a piano lesson in his life."

"It's nice he doesn't put the blame on someone else."

It seems that nothing has done so much for the feminine figure as the one piece bathing suit.

Just remember that a winner never quits and a quitter never wins.

PLAYFUL WILLIE SCRIBNER

"Little Willie, full of glee
 Poured iodine in mamma's tea

When Dad got Mom's insurance dough —
 Willie got a radio."

AT TEAROOM

Waiter — "This money is no good."

Dner — "Then we're even — you're dinner was no good either."

AT THE DORM ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Miss Hussey — "Young man, the lights go out here at 10:30."

Baker — "Suits me fine, Miss Hussey."

A girl who wouldn't dream of riding horseback, thinks nothing of dancing that way.

Judge — "But what were you doing in the chicken coop if you weren't going to steal the chickens?"

Rastus — "Oh, I was just testin' my will power judge, dats all."
