

WINNER PLAY COMING HERE, DEC. 8

Comedy Featuring Favorite
Actors To Be Presented
In Auditorium

Stevens Point dramatic fans are expecting to see one of the finest, most wholesome and rollicking farces ever presented here, when John D. and Minet Winner, aces of Wisconsin's players, are featured in "For Cryin' Out Loud", a three act comedy. For many years these players have headed an amusement company that time and again has pleased the city.

Appear At College

Playing at the Teachers' College auditorium on Thursday, December 8, the farce will present John D. Winner in what is heralded as one of his best comedy roles, that of the Irish father, Pat Kelly, and Minet Winner, as the typical New York flapper of 1926, playing the part of the daughter, Maggie Kelly. Both will have the support of a splendid cast which has aided in presenting the comedy before.

The play, which has been a regular feature of the Winner repertoire, has been enjoying the acclaim of audiences from the mid-west to the Pacific coast. Written by Joe Lawlis, a Hollywood actor-playwright, it is typical of the new dramas which present the farcical, yet homely lives of typical Americans.

Feature Specialty Acts

Specialty acts to be featured throughout the play will include John D. Winner himself in several humorous songs and his best jokes. The whole cast will appear in one of the specialties. In addition, the Winners are bringing with them a juvenile singing and dancing team.

One Night Only

The show will begin at 8:15 p.m., and is better than two hours in length. The appearance at the Teachers' College is prompted by the fact that the local theatre management is not permitted to contract independent players at the present time. Hitherto, the Winners have presented several evenings of vaudeville at the Fox; "For Cryin' Out Loud" will be given but one night only. Admission will be 35c. for adults, 25c. for students and 10c. for children. Students are requested to bring their student tickets with them to obtain the saving in admission charge.

African Explorer Here At Assembly; Mexicans Coming

Students will be entertained by Joseph E. Elliot, African explorer, at the regular 10 o'clock assembly this morning. Elliot has an absorbing story of his adventures in the Hinterland of Liberia in mysterious Africa.

Ramos Players Here

Next Thursday, Dec. 8, the famous Ramos Mexican Orchestra will present a rich variety of instrumental selections and songs. The Ramos group overlays its artistry and musicianship with the glamour of old Castilian Mexico. The colorful, exotic costumes of the seniorists induce an atmosphere of picturesque charm.

King Male Quartet

At the regular 10 o'clock assembly on Tuesday, December 13, the King Male Quartet will appear in the auditorium. This singing quartet and bell ringers have won applause from all sections of the country.

American Quartette

The renowned American Quartette will appear in the college auditorium Friday evening, December 16.

"Light of World"

"The Light Of The World" will be presented in the auditorium Monday evening, December 19. The regular student tickets will admit all college students to these performances. Townspeople having entertainment tickets will also be admitted to the evening programs.

"IRIS" STAFF STARTS DRIVE

Goal Set at 600 Copies Which Would Enable Sale Of
Book at $2

Miss Eileen Mueller, editor of the college annual, and her "Iris" staff have started a subscription campaign with 600 copies as their goal.

At this time the question of the publication of a college annual is one which is claiming attention in colleges thru out the state.

Milwaukee Teachers College published no annual in 1932; Whitewater has decided against a 1933 publication. At Central State some of our most successful annuals have been published during recent years. To assure a 1933 IRIS and to determine the type of book, the staff must know the exact number of copies that can be sold. The regular price per book has been $3.00.

Goal Set at 600

At present, prospective finances have been budgeted so that the following arrangement may be made. If 400 books can be sold, the price will have to remain at $3.00. If 500 students subscribe, the books can be sold at $2.50; but — the price can be set at $2.00 per copy if 600 copies are ordered.

Drive Now On

The price of this year's IRIS will be determined by the number of subscriptions sold before December 20. Subscribe for your IRIS by filling out a subscription blank and making your initial payment of $1.00 to Alta Stauffer, Natalie Gorski, Helen Lohr, Robert Krembs, Arthur Thompson, or the Counter. Urge your friends to subscribe now — in order that the price may be popular in character!

SPEECH CLASS PRESENTS PLAY NEXT TUESDAY

"The Donovan Affair" To Be Given In College
Auditorium

"The Donovan Affair", a three act comedy mystery story, by Owen Davis, will be presented in the College Auditorium next Tuesday, December 6.

The play will be given under the auspices of Mr. Burrough's speech classes for the purpose of raising money to buy new curtains for the stage.

Interesting Plot

The story concerns the advent of several mysterious murders which take place in the home of wealthy social leaders in the East. After many baffling facts are uncovered, the crimes are finally solved and the murderers brought to light. Virgil Pizer is well suited for his part as the hard-boiled Inspector Kell.

Davidson Better, Rejoins Faculty

Joseph M. Davidson, training school instructor, who has been ill for the past several months at his home, 1123 Clark street, resumed his duties as critic in the Junior High school last Monday.

"Dave" said he is feeling fine and intimated that it was plenty "nice" to be back with the gang again. His physician advised him to take it easy for a while.

SENIORS GIVE FREE TICKETS FOR NEW BALL

Faculty Invited To Attend Winter
Festival As Guests; King Of Ball Deep Mystery

A new and novel idea is to be utilized to give away free tickets to the Senior Ball. At the last assembly before the Ball two seats will be selected at random in the Auditorium. The lucky occupants of these seats will be presented with free duets to the outstanding event of the winter social season.

Faculty Free

Upon a motion passed unanimously by the Senior Class all members of the faculty are invited to attend on the night of Dec. 10 without having to pause at the Box Office to deposit coin of the realm.

The entire student body is invited to attend. There seems to be some misunderstanding as to invitations. A student at the college needs no invitation. These are merely sent to our out-of-town friends to request their presence at the fete.

Bigger Orchestra

Tommy Temple informs us that a bass-viol player and a new cornetist have been added to his ace aggregation. He also tells us that he is polishing up several novelty numbers for the occasion.

The decorations committee promises to make the dance one of the prettiest to be staged at the college. The soft white spirit of Christmas will be reflected in the holiday draperies that will soften the outlines of the new gym.

Still a Santa

Don't let them shake your faith in Santa Claus. Any event that is going to be so happily spent and warmly treasured needs the co-operation of this gentleman. There must be a Santa Claus.

A pall of mystery still surrounds Miss Stauffer's choice of a King to lead the Ball with her. Tune in next week for all the dirt. Special for the co-eds: authentic ideas of what the well dressed woman is wearing for formal wear this year can be found at the Senior Ball.

DEBATE MEETING

A meeting of those who expect to try out for positions on the debate team will be held this afternoon at four o'clock in Mr. Burroughs' room. Plans for organization will be arranged.

Published Weekly at Stevens Point by the students of the Central Wisconsin State Teachers College. Subscription Price $2.00 per year.

Entered as second-class matter May 26, 1927, at the post office at Stevens Point, Wisconsin, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

WE'LL LET YOU BE THE JUDGE

Students have sent us some mighty good (and we might add boiling) opinions during recent weeks. This week's contributions seem to center around the admission price of the Senior Ball.

We have plenty of problems and arguments of our own without joining in on the discussion, yet both sides have presented facts which are well worth considering.

We must admit that $1.50 represents no small collection of coins during these present hard times. On the other hand the Senior Ball threatens to equal or surpass our other social dances such as the Junior Prom, sorority, and fraternity formals. All these other groups taxed the students as much and in some cases more for admission.

Disregarding the price itself, the Senior Ball should have the backing of every college student. Perhaps it would have been a good idea for the Senior officers and advisers to have convened with representatives of the other classes relative to a mutual price. However it may be too late to act now. Invitations have already been printed and mailed.

The Ball is being sponsored by the seniors to lend entertainment to the entire student body, not only to the upper classmen. Whether this entertainment is worth $1.50 or just $1.00 is too intricate a problem to be rightfully weighed by the Pointer Editor.

However we do hope that some of the worthy opponents of the alleged "high tariff" don't pull a "Gandhi boycott" as humors around the halls have it.

STUDENT COLUMN BECOMING POPULAR

Contributions have been flowing into the Pointer office quite regularly of late. Nothing pleases us more than to find a good student opinion lying in our mail box on the third floor.

Regardless of whether your argument is "pro" or "con" on the topic you wish to debate it will always find a space in our "student broadcast" column.

We received some fiery arguments this week, both for and against. We dare say that our student opinions are read with equally as much interest, if not more, as any other item in the paper. We have reserved this space in the paper for you. We want you to use it.

Our only request is that you drop your opinions in the Pointer mail box on the third floor not later than Monday of the week of publication.

NO COLLEGE ICE RINK

Students interested in ice skating and hockey have been wondering whether or not the college is contemplating a rink. Mr. Fred J. Schmeekle, our athletic chairman, answers this question for us.

Schmeekle said there will be no rink on the college grounds this year. "Although we would, very much, like to construct a private rink for our college students, we have neither the money nor a place for it," stated our chairman.

"To flood our athletic field with water for an ice rink would ruin our turf and gridiron", continued Schmeekle.

A municipal rink has been constructed by the city at the Goerke Memorial field. Students report that there is good skating on the Plover and Wisconsin rivers. Nearby swamps and lakes are also being invaded by local ice gliders.

A Letter To Agnew

Athletic Department
W. S. T. C.
Whitewater, Wis.
Dear Coach:

Congratulations are being poured upon me from every part of the state and from students and faculty of C. S. T. C. At first I was in a daze, I didn't know the reason. Now I have found out I won the "Championship" for Whitewater.

Boy, I'm patting myself on the back. I am waiting for my Gold Football and my "W". Also send me the date of the banquet; it will only be proper that I attend.

In closing, my Dear Coach, I want to congratulate you too, because after all, it was you who did most of the work.

Yours for fewer championships,

STUDENT

BROADCAST

Spectres of Al Capone!

Dear Editor:

The pre-ballyhoo concerning the "Senior Ball" was published about two weeks ago. The very last sentence "You'll admit there is a Santa Claus", struck me under the foul line. If the Senior Class insists on charging one dollar and fifty cents admission, I wouldn't even admit that there is a "depression" in this country.

Chicago gangland seems to have many willing disciples right here in our own midst. The business kings of the Senior Class couldn't stop at petty thievery, (meaning one dollar charge) but had to levy bombing fees and union dues all in one price, "the demoniacal racketeers".

Tom Temple is going to play for this dance. He has also played at the "Capitol" in this same city. The admission charge at the time was sixty cents a couple. The attendance at the "Capitol" is not as large as the attendance at our semi-formal school parties. Still the proprietors of the "Capitol" seem to make money. The band also plays at the place until one o'clock and only needs to synopate until twelve o'clock in the school. Now the conclusion is, "Why do we have to pay so much for like quality?"

We are also going to enjoy (maybe) the winter scene motif. Not being able to ride in a taxi or buy some gasoline for the chariot, we shall have to walk. If I judge the weather aright (it will be bitter cold) a scene depicting "Hades" would be more appropriate.

Enough of this; but if my girl forces me to take her to this dance and I have to pay one dollar and fifty cents, she can begin now to anticipate the enjoyable evening which we have in store for us.

"A good time was had by all" except those who paid one dollar and fifty cents.

MODERNISTO

The War Is Over!

It seems as thou a few people think that there is no such thing as hard times. I don't know what that "little few" called the senior class are thinking about, $1.50 for a dance, in hard times, 75c. is too much.

Just where do the fellows who have to pay this get all this money? They get it from a father and mother at home who are doing without things to put them through college. Boys do without meals so they can go, they ask other fellows as poor as themselves, sell their clothing just to go to a dance. Is it right?

Who are the Faculty Advisers? Don't they know the value of money? Or are they thinking how to make ends meet and not looking after the job assigned to them?

If I were a member of the class of '23 I would hate to look any one in the face. If the class wants money they can go out and hold people up. This is not much better.

Unless this dance is at a price fellows can pay, we will see you all at the Capitol, on Dec. 10. We can hear the same band for 35c.

TWO GUN PETE,

On The Defense

Ye Editor:

When the Senior Class presents the Senior Ball, it hopes to put on the best semi-formal of the school year. The decorations are to be as elaborate as any Junior Prom and as exclusive as the sorority and fraternity dances. It is not going to be an ordinary school dance. Neither will you have to dance in a poorly ventilated building with every type of humanity within an arm's reach.

We agree with Modernisto when he states that he can dance for less than half this price to the same music at the Capitol. However we contend that the Capitol does not offer elaborate decorations, programs, punch, and a select crowd of people. These all add to the success of a dance and they can not be furnished without an increase in prices. If the above details were not included with the Senior Ball, every one would consider it as an ordinary school dance. The Homecoming dance cost a couple $1. There you danced to a 20 dollar orchestra. Since we are paying $75, are we not justified in charging $1.50?

The orchestra is not the only overhead that we have. Our expenses will amount to $150. This means that we should have to have 160 couples to meet expenses if we charged $1. We do not anticipate a larger crowd than 125 to 150. Thus to insure our class of clearing expenses and a little extra in reward for our efforts, we must charge $1.50.

We are not planning to capitalize on the event. If it is going to deprive one of "home and food", we would not advise you to come. If we should make a small profit, it will go toward reducing the expense of the Iris which is an "entire school project". Remember that we must pay a tax of 15c. per ticket.

A SENIOR

What Do Some Students Term Liberty?
Dear Editor:

The article which appeared in the "Student Broadcast" column two weeks ago requires an answer — either "pro" or "con".

Discipline is required in the conducting of any public institution. For this purpose experienced people are chosen to fill the positions.

Modernisto: Did you actually consult the majority of the Nelson Hall girls before writing that article? It would have been advisable to have done so, because many of the girls feel quite to the contrary.

The parents of a girl who goes away to school are satisfied to know that some competent person is in charge of her conduct. Both Barnard and Chadbourne Halls at the University of Wisconsin are dormitories for girls. The freshman girls are allowed one 12:30 night a week. The sophomores, two, the juniors, three and the seniors as many as they wish, but girls who successfully reach their fourth year in college realize that health and beauty as well as good marks cannot be maintained with more than three late "pers" a week. Furthermore — the house mother absolutely insists that all lights be out by ten o'clock.

The majority of the students attending college here have one sole aim and purpose: To learn, and finally receive their degree or teacher's certificate so that they are fit to go out and instruct the children of the next generation.

Just what are some of the things that a girl cannot do who is living in Nelson Hall? I mean — things that are right. Of course she cannot ruin her reputation or her health. The Dean of Women would certainly protest against this and eventually have the parents blaming her. And don't you suppose that the elders in charge know what is the best for young people?

In mentioning the extent of time allowed after a dance — I think "Modernisto" exaggerated to a certain extent. Between thirty and forty-five minutes are allowed the girls. This offers enough time to get refreshments as well as "ride home in a taxi". There is nothing unreasonable about this. As for requesting a late per.... any girl who

OPPONENT GRID TEAM PICKED

LOCAL ELEVEN SELECTS BEST ALL STAR TEAM

Best 1932 Opponent Team Named
By Kotalmen; Boll Of Milwaukee Captain

In picking this all-opponent football team, the players in some instances may not have been the outstanding on their respective squads but they exhibited the best brand of football against the locals. The following were the toughest the locals faced during the past season:

R. E. — K. Anderson — Stout
R. T. — Wandrey — Oshkosh
R. G. — Irish — Milwaukee
C. — Sherman — Eau Claire
L. G. — Haight — Eau Claire
L. T. — Phillips — Whitewater
L. E. — Hochschild — Milwaukee
Q. B. — Glandt — Oshkosh
L. H. — Conway — Stout
R. H. — Rosenberg — Milwaukee
F. B. — Boll — Milwaukee (Capt.)

K. Anderson of Stout and Hochschild of Milwaukee were outstanding among ends. They bottled up everything that came around their end and as pass receivers, they had no equal. In addition to what is expected of an end Anderson was the best punter the opponents offered.

Best Tacklers

The tackles were well taken care of by Wandrey of Oshkosh and Phillips of Whitewater. Both were very aggressive. Few gains were made over their positions.

In guard positions, Irish of Milwaukee and Haight of Eau Claire were towers on defense and equally as efficient on offense. Irish was the cream of the line crop. He played guard on defense and tackle on offense and managed to open big holes for his backs.

Sherman Is Center

The center position goes to Sherman of Eau Claire who played magnificently on defense and passed accurately. He is considered as one of the leading centers of the conference.

At quarterback is Glandt, the Oshkosh safety man. He is a veteran in that position and a very able general. Glandt can kick, run, pass and is elusive in the open.

Conway of Stout and Rosenberg of Milwaukee were the two outstanding backs. Both were excellent blockers and ferocious tacklers. They were good ball carriers but were used mostly as blockers because of their proficiency in this department.

Captain and Full

The Fullback post was well taken care of by Boll of Milwaukee. The driving line crusher was the most consistent ground gainer and a superb passer. Defensively, he

SAM'S SPORT SHORTS

In answer to numerous requests, we will not publish an "All-Plover Valley" eleven.

We also will refrain from going into spasms of joy over our basketball team this year. We'll leave that to the corridor coaches who are picking the team already.

As a matter of fact, we're in a blue mood tonight. This fall we covered the last football season of a college career. We've seen men come and go — old friends forge to the front, and then disappear.

School is a sad thing in a way, and the career of an athlete is sadder. Cheered on the gridiron or basketball floor, he's forgotten when next season rolls on without him.

What price fame? All he can carry away are a few letters and perhaps a gold basketball. Only a frayed sweater and a worn-out towel remind him of his day of glory.

Here's to ya, fellow! We've followed you for four years with a typewriter under our arms, and we can't even keep the typewriter when we, too, have to quit. But it's been fun, anyway.

Stevens Point High School is making plans for another big season in basketball as defenders of the Wisconsin Valley Championship. Although the ranks were rather seriously depleted by graduation, enough veterans remain to build a strong and smoothly working squad. Among the veterans from last year, Captain Olinney, Witte and Nugent are expected to form the front line, while Menzel and Broome are strong contenders for the guard positions. Needless to say, Stevens Point expects to crash through with another first division team this year.

Boxing Tourney For College Pugs Soon

Work on the boxing tournament soon to be staged is proceeding at a hot pace, according to "Windy" Thomas, promoter, manager and chief towel swinger all in one. The boys are learning the difference between a hook and an uppercut, and are beginning to look like finished boxers.

As already noted, the next tourney will be in the nature of an elimination contest, the winners of these bouts being awarded a chance to fight for the school championship. Rather a doubtful pleasure, but they seem to want it.

COURT SEASON LOOKS ROSY AS PLAYERS DRILL

Capt. Art Thompson Leads Hopeful Talent; Basketeers Fight For Varsity Berths

Work for the current basketball season started with a bang two weeks ago when active practice was begun in the new gym. Captain-elect Art Thompson is assisting in the organization of the rookies.

As soon as the gridiron mole-skins were hung up for another year Coach Kotal led his basketball hopefuls over to the new gym to see if they really could do all those things to a basketball. According to the railbirds who are looking over the talent they really can.

Large Turnout

Nearly fifty men turned out for the first practice, and they're still coming. Coach Kotal already has made one cut, and still the squad totals forty basketeers, according to Manager Shafston.

Letter men returning this year are Guy Krumm, Frank Klement and "Pete" Peterson, forwards, Art Thompson and Ronnie Winn, centers, and Nolan Gregory, guard. Rumor have it that possession of a letter doesn't insure a place on the team this year. Several of the newcomers who are to "strutting their stuff" are sure make the grade. In addition to new material, members of last year's "B" team are making a determined effort to make the varsity.

Non-Conference Games

In addition to the conference games listed at the top of the page several non-conference games are scheduled. Belonging to the southern group of the teachers college conference, the Kotalmen will meet only Oshkosh, Eau Claire, River Falls, Whitewater, and Stout. Milwaukee, Platteville, Superior, LaCrosse will not be met.

IN MEMORY

Central State Teachers college joins the local High school in sending its deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vicker and family over the loss of their son, Dale, age 18, who died at the local hospital November 18 after being injured in the Point-Rapids football game on Nov. 5.

Dale was a left guard on the 1932 champ team and was a member of the senior class. Infection of the left arm which developed into blood poison proved fatal to the young gridder.

Varsity Team Off For Week End Schedule

Coach Eddie Kotal and his basketball team will leave this noon for a week-end invasion of Michigan state's upper peninsula.

Tonight the college quintet will play their first game of the season when they meet the College Of Mines in Ironwood. Friday night the varsity courtmen are scheduled with Michigan Tech. at Houghton. Saturday night the Central Staters conclude their week's grind with Northern State College at Marquette, Mich.

Kotal is taking ten basketballers on the trip.

STUDENT BROADCAST

wishes to go out for entertainment which is approved by the authorities, has no reason to be afraid to ask, because Miss Hussey is very lenient in that respect and has never refused anyone permission to enjoy a good, clean time. Also, if a girl is in doubt whether she will arrive home promptly at ten o'clock from a show, it is merely necessary to give this information to the Dean of Women before leaving. Why is it that girls are so shy of the authorities? In order to enter the teaching profession any girl should be able to ask their elders for certain privileges. In most cases it doesn't take many hours of "mental agony and travail" in order to summon enough courage to ask for a late pass, unless the individual is planning to do something "shady" and cannot devise a suitable alibi.

As for smoking — girls who desire to smoke will smoke whether they have to hide or not. This is an entirely different situation than at Northwestern, however. Teachers require some morals, and what school board wishes to employ an instructor for children, who has come from a college where the dormitory maintains a smoking room?

To the point of the article: What is the definition of liberty in a girl's dormitory? Surely not one which is governed very laxly and is in an uproar at all hours of the night and day.

I wonder if the author of the previous article realizes how unpatriotic he or she has been as far as the rule of the school is concerned, or how heavily he or she "treaded on the toes" of those who know what is best in the discipline of young people.

FACULTY FLASHES

BY MOTHER GOOSE

Now let us present Mr. Jayne,
In every respect he's most sane,
He has the pep and the zest
Of the wild woolly west
And we hope he is here to remain.

Of course we all know Eva Seen
In the Gym she is surely the queen
With dumbbells she works
And her tasks never shirks
No wonder she's graceful and lean.

Good Natured, fat men have to be
And Rogers is one you can see,
For fat folks can't fight
Or turn and take flight
And so they just smile and agree.

HOW ABOUT THE REST OF US?

If times are hard and you feel blue
Think of others worrying too.
Just because your trials are many
Don't think the rest of us haven't any.
Life is made of smiles and tears
Sorrows filled with fears.
And though to us it seems one-sided
Trouble is quite well divided.
If we could look into every heart
We'd find that each one has his part.
And those who travel fortune's road,
Frequently carry the biggest load.

CROCKER'S CRACKS

Well, all we know is what we read in the papers...

The Haresfoot Club in Madison, an organization of university players composed entirely of men, selected what they thought were the six most beautiful girls on the campus. And is there ever hell to pay! ...the Kappas only had one girl chosen and the Delta Gammas had two. It is rumored that the Haresfoot lads are staying in nights lately.

A number of the faculty men and students went deer hunting over the holidays. We know two who got cold feet and one proud nimrod who held three kings. Good old "Fred" Schmeekle brought back the bacon, of course, and he tells us it weighs 180 lbs. Let's see now, 180 times 20 cents equals $36.00. That's pretty expensive "bull", don't you think?

Oh yes, Bob Janes, a little blinded after three days within the cabin, ventured into the forest with the old adage "don't fire till you see the whites of their eyes" well in his mind... and managed to bag two beautiful speckled (with buckshot) Holsteins. These, we should judge, Farmer Jones valued at $25.00 per head.

A weighty question is unearthed in a headline of the Daily Cardinal at Madison. "BOOTLEGGERS DESPONDENT; LIQUOR HITS NEW DEPTHS"... "Is he depression killing the speakeasy? Or is the speakeasy killing the depression?" "Are the beer parties of yesteryear rivaled on the campus today?" We were going to write an article on that but we couldn't find a student on the campus here who could give us any authentic information... Always the inquiring reporter was answered with... "I don't drink" Nertz.

Headline in Charleston Teachers College News: LECTURER SAYS THE FUTURE OF THE WORLD DEPENDS UPON OUR INTELLECTUAL INTEGRITY: Don't fail us, Charleston, don't fail us...

"Twas the night before Christmas
When all o'er the earth,
Was heralded the tidings of the
Dear Savior's birth;
A song in the air, a star in the sky,
And heavenly music sung from
The ones upon high,
Told of a manger and Mary so mild,
Of Joseph the Father and the Christ Child.

"Twas the night before Christmas
And "peace unto men",
Rang through the heavens
Again and again.
That message has traveled
Like light from that star
And has echoed through years,
From that song from afar,
'Tis the time for that song to echo again
And may all hear its message
Of "Good Will Unto Men".

GOING HOME

Our work is forgotten,
Our spirits are glad
For we are going home
To Mother and Dad.

We are counting the days
They are too, no doubt,
Just thirteen more of them
Until college is out.

Then a rush for the train,
A rush for the bus
The laughing and shouting
And Oh! such a fuss.

For our work is forgotten,
Our spirits are glad
And we're on our way
To dear Mother and Dad.

SWEEPINGS FROM THE JANITOR'S DUSTPAN

You know Doc Collins rides a bike
With very little fear.
He'll pedal down through any pike
Like a noble charioteer.
One day he viewed an episode
Of a hit-and-run auto
That quickly beat it down the road
And left a man in woe.
A cop came up to our J. V.
To clear the situation.
He asked, "Now just what did you see?"
Please give an explanation."
"Why nothing, Sir", was the reply,
"I don't recall a thing.
I couldn't even specify
The color of that rig."
"The only thing that's not a blur
Was that by multiplying
Fifty times the license number
And then by six dividing;
That the cube root of the quotient
Times a certain angle's sine
Was equal in exact extent
To the digits minus nine."

Money Stops College Hockey Temporarily

Twenty hockey enthusiasts reported for practise at the rink on Goerke Field last monday afternoon in an effort to establish a college hockey team. Hopes were dimmed by the announcement that finances would not permit the purchase of equipment by the college. Inasmuch as no one wants to stand in the net and try to stop that puck with a tennis racket, it appears that the idea will have to be postponed for at least another year.

Ice Skating Is The Winter Sport

Ice skating has become a popular sport in Stevens Point. Both students and townspeople are taking advantage of the rinks located in the city and nearby points.

The municipal rink at the Goerke Memorial field is in splendid condition. Many of our coeds and men students have discovered "good" rinks along the Plover river. Our "west siders" report that the Wisconsin river is frozen over and affords good skating.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

(The question: Do you prefer the name "Central State Teachers' College" or "Stevens Point Teachers' College"? Why?)

Celestine Nuesse: Central State Teachers' College, because it sounds more impressive to the prospective freshmen.

Mr. Steiner: Stevens Point Teachers' College because of the enfusion between us and The Central State College at Scandinavia.

Henry Vullings: Stevens Point Teachers' College, because it locates the place. Central State doesn't mean anything.

Mr. Giovaninni: Central State Teachers' College, because a state institution should be named after the portion of the state it represents. Stevens Point would give people the impression that you were naming it after the town, and that it was a privately supported institution.

Frank Klement: Central State sounds bigger.

Ralph Bader: Central State Teachers' College sounds bigger. No, the name didn't make any difference in my choice of a school.

Charlotte Atwell: Stevens Point, because all of the other Teachers Colleges are named after the town in which they are located.

Mr. Kotal: Well, its called Central State Teachers' College, but it could be Stevens Point State Teachers' College. There are about four Central State Teachers' College in this part of the country. However, we should settle our choice on one or the other. Besides we give "S" instead of "C" as award letters.

Pete Peterson: Stevens Point Sate Teachers' College, because it indicates the location of the school.

Elizabeth Neuberger: Stevens Point Teachers' College, because its easier to tell where it is located.

Mr. Smith: Central State Teachers' College, because it makes the college more neutral to those High Schools in this district who are rivals of the Stevens Point High School.
