Next Wednesday morning at the regular 10 o'clock assembly hour Mrs. Fiechtli's Tyrolean yodlers will entertain the student body. The master artists won the six days' yodle and song contest in Innsbruck, Switzerland and their programs have drawn numerous press comments.

All college and high school girls and their escorts are invited. Invitations are also being sent to alumni and townspeople. The party will be a strictly couple affair.
THE MISSING HALF

As has been announced, Hoover was the choice of the student body in the college election held November 8. This selection was expected and in keeping with college surveys throughout the country. In a college of this size and type there was to be the choice of college officials who have not participated in the election, for it is a reflection on the president-elect, but it is a direct rebuke to the collegians who failed to vote and yet desire to become the teachers of the boys and girls of Wisconsin in a very short time.

We venture the suggestion that these uninterested people were among those to get the political speakers at the assembly a few weeks ago with healthy Bronx cheer. The results are disheartening. Yet, apparently, the heated campaign and perfect organization developed in the local institution for the election, were not of sufficient intensity to motivate one-half of our enrollment.

It is disappointing indeed, in view of the fact that these same people, who failed to indicate their training in citizenship, plan to become teachers. A suggestion comes to us that these college elections shall be continued and that they shall be tradition. It is also suggested that the registration lists shall become the property of the Training School. The lists undoubtedly would be valuable in training of citizenship, patriotism and other necessary qualities in the candidate for the teaching profession. We believe that an analysis and study of the registration list would be interesting. What department responded best? What department had the poorest showing? Are the High School, Rural, German to be the choice of the students who voted. We make that statement because only 377, or 50%, of the students responded to the poll, and the president therefore is the choice of the young men and women who have a feeling of patriotism, citizenship and a normal interest in public affairs. This is not a reflection on the president-elect, but it is a direct rebuke to the collegians who failed to vote and yet desire to become the teachers of the boys and girls of Wisconsin in a very short time.

The college was presented with a bond issue of $5,000,000 to build a new dormitory and expand the existing one. The issue was approved by a vote of 2,186 to 996. The new dormitory is expected to be completed by the fall of 1922.

The college has received a large number of letters from former students expressing their support and interest in the new construction project.

Sweeps from the Janitor's Duster

It looks to me like one big gyp The way they robbed our squad. Because we hit a healthy clip They licked us with a fraud. They pulled the wool over the field; Whitewater found that out. We dusted off the Sawdusters; We put Eau Claire to rout; We quit by giving Stout the heel, And made the conference shudder. And so they tried to check our zeal By licking us on paper, And the gypsies mussed us up And took what was our own.

'Here's something that may cheer us: 'You can't keep good men down.'

Playing on a frozen field the Stevens Point gridders pulled down the curtain on the 1933 football season by defeating the Stout Institute team last Saturday afternoon at Schmeckle Field, 6 to 0.

Unbeaten At Home

The Pointers maintained their winning pace at home, finishing the season without losing a game on the new athletic field. This last game almost proved the breaking of the record before it got started, for Coach Burbridge brought a fighting team to Stevens Point. They resembled the team that played River Falls to a standstill in the first game of the season.

The two teams fought on even terms for the greater part of the game, but the heavier Point line was able to hold whenever Stout threatened. Straight football accounted for the Pointer's lone score. Former Student
Big Ten Prospect

Richard Tuthill, remembered here as a student last year, is playing Freshman football at the University of Minnesota, and going big. He is mentioned by Minneapolis sportswriters as varsity material next year.

Was a Boxer

"Dick" is remembered in connection with the boxing tournament now at hand. He fought in the first one, held here last Spring. He fought a rather portly gentleman, name unknown, and dug his fist in the midsection of said gentleman's anatomy. "One-punch Tuthill" was immediately proclaimed the winner.

Tuthill did not go for football at the Point, but under the expert tutelage of Coach "Bernie" Bierman of the Gophers is expected to develop rapidly. He was a star at Stevens Point High during his prep days.

Some students complain about the poor grades they receive, claiming that they wrote on the tests exactly what the instructor told them in class. If they get anything any higher than an "F," the instructor is either generous or conceited.

CROCKER'S CRACKS

Well, anyway, the college voted intelligently.

A local citizen walked into the Post Office the other day and planked a two quart pail on the counter at the stamp window and asked that it be sent to Washington to be filled with good beer. Some one had told him that if he voted for Roosevelt all he would have to do the next day was to send to Washington for beer and he could have it. He was a pretty disappointed man and a very angry one when the clerk told him the truth. There is one man who wishes he hadn't voted for Roosevelt.

One hundred forty of the one hundred forty six graduates of the 1932 class of Milwaukee State Teachers college were placed in teaching positions secured places in Wisconsin and six are teaching outside of Wisconsin.

Ripon College has blossomed forth with the appearance of a consolidated eight-page weekly, combining the three former publications into one. The new paper contains the boast of "Wisconsin's Oldest College Newspaper."

Superior State Teachers' is proud of a new $120,000 library wing, to be completed Feb. 1.

Smoking on the Campus and at football games has been banned at the University of Southern California.

SENIORS AND FACULTY DINE

All the graduates are “aglow” now that the day for the Senior-Faculty dinner is at hand. Every year Miss Housey, Mrs. Rowe and the graduates at Nelson Hall and at the John Francis Sims Cottages entertain the college faculty at a dinner-banquet in their living-room. This year’s banquet will be held in Nelson Hall Saturday evening at 6:00 o’clock.

The Silver Tea sponsored by the Y.W.C.A. and held in our living room was well attended. More about this is written elsewhere in this issue.

No wonder Wisconsin had such good luck Saturday. Jane Wright was in the bleachers at Madison making noise (and also acquiring a cold). Thyrza Iverson was also out for sports this week-end. She attended the Midwest Women’s Hockey Tournament held at Milwaukee.

Gladys Caldie visited with relatives in Minneapolis the week-end. Are some of us ever glad your brother is a baker, Gladys! Adeline Bellman spent the Armistice Day recess at her home way down south in Port Atkinson, Wis. Alice Paulson was entertained by her sister at Menasha for a few days.

Elda Miller of Westfield was hostess to her roommate, Margaret Beardsley. Alene Stock entertained Leora Streblow at Loyal. Katherine McCarthy visited with Catherine Sargent at Antigo.

Gwendlon Colburn entertained her friend, Hermoine Kuhlm of Wausa, at Nelson Hall this week-end. Magdalen Goggins was visited by her cousin, Mrs. Goggins and a friend, of Wisconsin Rapids last week.

Five “stiffs” put in their appearance Sunday afternoon. On Saturday morning they followed the exercises of a radio “set-ups leader”. That’s what we get for not keeping in trim.

Violet K.: “How old are you, Rose?”
Rose W.: “I was 16 in February.”
Violet K.: “Oh, so you were born in 1916.”
Rose W.: “Yes, and next year I will be born in 1915.”
