New Gridiron Is Dedicated
“Schmeckle Athletic Field”

In spite of a drizzling rain which did its best to ruin the day’s program, Central State Teachers college homecoming and dedication celebration furnished plenty of amusement and thrills for the hundreds of students and alumni who jammed our new athletic field for the day’s events.

Fans Favor Decision

The cheers and applause set forth by the fans when President Frank S. Hyer announced the title of our new gridiron as the “Schmeckle Athletic Field” proved that the decision of our athletic committee was unanimous. The only comment our modest Professor Fred J. Schmeckle made was, “They shouldn’t have done that!”

Our band furnished music throughout the day. Prior to the dedication speech, which was delivered by Edgar G. Doubs, secretary to the board of regents of state teachers colleges, the regal song was sung. President Hyer introduced the speaker. A rifle squad of local national guardsmen marched onto the field and fired a salute after the dedication. Periodical showers forced the fans to snuggle under raincoats and umbrellas during part of the ceremonies.

Willecke Is Announcer

Loud speakers were used to amplify the speeches. Play by play accounts of the football game were also broadcast to the fans. Gerhard Willecke introduced the speakers and gave accounts of the games.

A dance in the new gym Saturday night closed the homecoming and dedication celebration.

Not Profit $182

Total cash receipts from the dance and football game totaled $471.10. The game netted $324.25 and the dance $246.85. Expenses for the $289.10, leaving a balance of $182.

Officers Meet Monday With Rogers

There will be a meeting of the officers of all organizations and classes Monday evening in Mr. Rogers’ room. The meeting will begin at 7:30. Please be on time. There are several important matters relative to the program for the school year that have to be discussed.

Last spring the officers met and made out the social program for this year so that it might be included in the Handbook. From time to time this group meets to attend to problems which arise throughout the year. Remember the time and place of meeting!

Faculty Women Win First for Parade Stunts

Chi Delta Rho Fraternity Takes Honors In Float Division

We’ll have to hand it to our faculty women for carrying away first honors in the 1932 homecoming parade which was held last Saturday morning. Dressed in the most amusing of old-fashioned costumes, they carried out the depression idea to perfection.

Point Stunt Second

Second place for the stunts was won by the “Official Welcome Hack,” submitted by the Pointer. Professor Frank N. Spindler and Coach Willis Zorn of Eau Claire, were the distinguished passengers.

Third place was won by Thyrza Iverson and Edna Crocker, who dressed as street cleaners, pushed a Prizes can be totaled, “Clean Up Eau Claire”. A three pound box of candy will be awarded for each of the three stunt prizes.

Chi Delts Win

Prizes for the floats were awarded for originality and not for beauty as in previous years. Chi Delta Rho fraternity won first place with their canniabal float, “Making It Hot For Eau Claire”. They will receive a silver cup with their fraternity letters engraved on it.

The training school float was awarded second place. They represented a school scene. A banner will be given them. Any organization winning the banner for two successive years is given permanent possession of it. Last year the W. A. girls won title to the banner.

Get Honorable Mention

Honorable mention was given to the Rural and Home Economics departments floats. For beauty a purple and gold gondola entered by Nelson Joll was awarded honorable mention. “John and Frank, the Janitors” furnished plenty of amusement for the spectators.

All floats and stunts entered in the parade drew considerable comment and applause from the crowds that lined the streets.

Prizes for the stunts and floats were awarded in assembly today.

“Dave” Sends Thanks

Enjoy Parade Review

No person in Stevens Point enjoyed the college homecoming parade last Saturday morning more than Professor Joseph M. Davidson, who watched every move of the depression floats from his bedroom window at 1123 Clark street.

“Dave” sent word to the Pointer office expressing his appreciation to the faculty members and students in having the parade move by his home.

“Dave is Grateful

“It was one of the best college parades I’ve seen and I only regret that I didn’t have my camera to shoot some pictures. Words fail me in trying to tell you how much cheer and college spirit Saturday’s parade injected into me,” commented Davidson. “I also want to thank Mr. Michelson and his band for the special numbers they rendered in front of my home”, averred “Dave”.

Leaves Bed Tuesday

Mrs. Davidson said her husband is improving rapidly. He left the bed last Tuesday morning for the first time in seven weeks.

NEXT THURSDAY DATE SET FOR ELECTION DAY

Vote In Knutzen’s Room; Polls Open From 8 A. M. To 5 P. M.

Who will our next President be, and who is to govern the state of Wisconsin for the ensuing term? Whether or not Mr. Hoover and Mr. Kohler are superior to their respective adversaries, Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Schmedemann of the Democratic state, will be decided by the student body Thursday, October 27. So, when you hear the corridors resound with heated arguments and political opinions, don’t be alarmed.

Campaign In Assembly

A model-election is to be conducted on that date by the Social Science class of the school under the direction of Professor Norman E. Knutzen. Representatives of the respective candidates have been chosen from the student body to give short, resounding, on the merits of the leading contenders.

A part of the assembly period has been reserved for this purpose. A speaker will open the program and immediately thereafter, the student politicians will take the rostrum.

Registration Required

Arrangements have been made for the hall to play a short selection before each speech.

In order to make the election as realistic as possible, all students are requested to register on the Monday before the election in Mr. Knutzen’s room. Students are to be present; those who are registered but fail to attend are dropped from the roll.

WOUNDED FENCE IN TENNIS COURTS

Although the weather man did his best to ruin our celebration last Saturday, our parade, dedication, game and dance all met with success. Everyone was impressed with Edgar G. Doudna’s dedication address and everyone was happy to know that we now possess a “Schmeeckle Athletic Field”.

Although our new athletic field ranks with the best in the conference, there still remains one improvement that could be made with little cost. That is the erection of a steel fence on the east side of the field along Fremont street.

The additional steel fencing required to complete this side would not exceed $300. This would fence in our tennis courts. It would keep the “lack’id” of a proven foot steel present on the east side of our new field may avoid several broken bones or even a life. Then too, it would completely enclose our new field and tennis courts with a durable and attractive blockade.

A WORD OF PRAISE FOR EAU CLAIRE

An article in the Oshkosh Teachers College paper bitterly attacks Milwaukee football. This article will make不可能ed that we have a “Schmeeckle Athletic Field”.

Nevertheless the article caused us to turn back to our Homecoming game last Saturday when we defeated Eau Claire, 26 to 6. Alumni and students will heartily agree that Coach Willis Zorn and his gridiron men gave our Kotalmen nothing but clean cut competition. Zorn needed last Saturday’s game, and we wanted it to make our Homecoming a success. It’s mighty hard to restrict yourself on the sidelines at times when your losing team is penalized for what you may think is unreasonable. Zorn at no time showed any signs of anger or pout sportsmanship in spite of the short end of the score his team held throughout the contest.

Zorn is an alumnus of the local college and was one of the greatest fullbacks in the school’s history. He won a name for himself at Chicago, and under Coach Staff, was one of the Big Ten’s greatest backfield men.

We all like to win games. Zorn had more reasons than one for wanting to snatch this one. Football scores are soon forgotten but the sportsmanship displayed by the Zornmen in the dedication game on our new athletic field will remain engraved on our turf and in the memories of local grid fans for a long time.

BROADCAST

FROM THE JANITOR’S DUSTPAN

Last Saturday was sure a treat. Although it poured a bit. Despite the rain they couldn’t beat the Pointers’ winning grit.

And now I’m helping Coach Kotal to get the team in shape. Milwaukee’s going to go pelt-mell when we get in that scrum.

Well, our parade gave me a break. I’ve got a movie job. I guess my costume took the cake, the way I thrilled the mob. All those women in that Ford. And those two bicyclists had fashions of the latest word. Very tawdry to resist.

Who said this was a “horse” town? Why we had Derby winners, besides the nag that Bebbie found. Which sure did have the jitters. The two Tom Gats got lots of gas all sealed up in their float. And fire burned a skirt of grass, and Duggan was the goat.

To leave this out would be a sin. For “Windy’s” signed a fight. I’m matched with Doctor Cline. For the boxing show some night. Same one, come all to see this bout. The Prof and I will stage. I don’t know who’ll be put to rout. We’re not in for ages."

RIGHT ADDRESS BUT WRONG TOWN

It’s just as important to keep your bets with postoffice clerks as it is to place the right postoffice address on letters. At least Bob Neale is convinced of that.

Last week Bob mailed a letter to a “close friend” in a neighboring city. He submitted the right street number but gave Stevens Point as the postoffice address. The letter lay unclaimed in the general delivery box for several days. Finally Bob was informed of the error in address. He promised the postal employees a treat for their courtesy. One of our reporters overheard the agreement. The clerks didn’t get the treat so we got the story.

KOTALMEN INVADE MILWAUKEE

PEDS HOST TO POINT ELEVEN IN BIG GAME

Both Teams Conference Contenders; Milwaukee Last Year's Champs

Saturday afternoon Coach Kotal will lead his gridironers out onto the turf at Downer Field for their hardest game of the year. The place will be Milwaukee, and the time, Milwaukee's Homecoming. The team will be the White Wave, last year's Teachers College champions, and fair prospects to repeat this fall.

Locals Stronger

Facing this opposition will be a stronger Point team, with two conference victories under its belt. The Kotal-coached team has a strong line, bolstered by two veteran tackles, and a fast and shifty back-field.

Milwaukee is rough and tough this year, according to our contemporaries at Oshkosh. Coach Herman Kluge has a veteran line, bolstered by the pre-war lineman, Tom Irish. A new back-field threat, Joe Iaeunci, broke through in the Oshkosh game, and proved himself a worthy successor of Joey La Goshe, whom we remember with pain from last year's Milwaukee game here.

Homecoming Foe

Milwaukee spoiled our Homecoming last year, defeating the Point, 8 to 6. The Pointers played their best game of the year against Milwaukee, but the power of the Peds could not be denied. This year the roles are set to turn the tables. Both teams have strong records this year, the Pointers downing Whitewater and Eastern Wisconsin to start, and trimming Oshkosh, Elmhurst, and Northwestern college. The game is a crucial one for both teams, and should as much as any other decide the championship of the Teachers College Conference.

Local Alumni Plan Reunion In Milwaukee

The Alumni Association of Central State Teachers College will hold its annual reunion dinner the night of Thursday, November 3, in the Lorraine room of the Hotel Schroeder in Milwaukee.

Last year the dinner attracted over 150 alumni, and at least that many are expected to make their reservations for the affair this year. Details of the dinner are in the hands of professor Norman E. Knutzen, the president of the Alumni Association.

College Boxing Bouts In New Gym Next Wednesday

An all-college boxing tournament, sponsored by the Athletic Association and staged by "Windy" Thomas, will be held in the new gym next Wednesday night, Oct. 26.

Annual Event

These bouts have become an annual event at the college. Last spring a boxing tournament was held under the same management, and many of that audience can vouch for the excellence of the entertainment. The high spot of last year's battle was the bout between a pre-war lineman, Orsten Greene for heavyweight honors. Christy won, but before it was over the spectators were almost as groggy as the scrappers.

The names and matching of the boxers can not be given, for the spice in the program is that none of the boys know whom they are going to mix it with. It will be eight bouts, with the weights ranging from 130 to 180 pounds.

Fighters Work Out

The "in-ears" have been working out with "Irish" Kennedy, Paulie Landon, and our own Winston Thomas, and are ready to see action in front of that professional polish. The admission will be: Students 25c, outsiders 50c.

LOCAL VICTORY SCORE

Good Prospects

Great things are expected of the Red and Black this year. The case with which they disposed of Nekoosa, to the tune of 25 to 0, shows great power. Nugent, Point captain, and Higgins, substitute halfback starred for the locals, each scoring two touch-downs. Nugent bore the brunt of the attack, and has shown himself to be one of the most outstanding backs in the Conference both through his punting and his home-running carry.

Friday’s win leaves the Pointers serious contenders for their second consecutive conference championship, with only Antigo and Merrill considered possibilities stoppers of the victory-mad preps.

Point will bury Tomahawk (get it?)

Undoubtedly the first prediction will receive criticism. The policy of this page, however, is not to break words of encouragement about "our boys". Upon paper, and judging by the respective records of the two teams, Milwaukee looks to be the stronger.

The hazy that surrounded Homecoming did not blind all observers to a roughness in the Point play. There was a weakness in the running and returning of punts that was very evident, and a lack of knowledge of signals that made the backfield look very silly at times.

Don't misunderstand us. Coach Kotal is sending a team on the field superior to anything the Point has had in recent years. Their spirit is excellent—they may do anything. However, this is no time to hear the pennant being rung over. There's a few other teams in the conference, and we don't mean Eau Claire!

Knutzen, the president of the Alumni Association.

Dinner will be served at six-thirty. Those desirous of attending are asked to send their reservations to Mr. Knutzen.

HUMOR WINNERS ARE ANNOUNCED

Winners of the humor contest sponsored by The Pointer, which closed last week Monday were Florence Beaudin Cartmill, senior in the Rural department, and George Wolden, Freshman from Roshol.

Mrs. Cartmill will receive a year's subscription to The Pointer and Mr. Wolden will receive a half-year's term. The winners may send the issues to their parents, friends or any other person they choose.

Professors Frank N. Spindler, Herbert B. Steiner and Miss May Roach were the judges.

ZORN MEN BOW TO POINTERS

Pointers two touchdowns, Bishop scoring the first one on a pass from Becker, and a pass from Becker to Schwanne putting the ball into scoring position for the third touchdown. The other two touchdowns were due to interrupted passes, Becker snaring one, after which Hinkle went over for a touchdown, and Omhoft the other, in the last period.

Hof school. The tackle combination of Christiansen and Garber were outstanding in the line, with Bucky Miller playing good football. “Bucky” was acting captain. Becker, Hansen, Hinkle, and Atwood stood out in the back field, while Omhoft's field generalship was smooth. He picked his holes well.
