- On First Floor

College students are reminded that Tuesday, Nov. 8, is general election day. Cast your vote for president of the United States and for state governor and senator on that date at the college voting booth located in Mr. Knutzen’s room.

While millions of citizens throughout the country, are casting their votes for our next president on that day local students likewise will be balloting their decisions.

Students Must Register

Students must register the day before election day, on Monday, Nov. 7, in Mr. Knutzen’s room. Members of the social science classes will officiate at the polls. On election day, Nov. 8, the polls will be open 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. in Mr. Knutzen’s room.

Everyone Vote

In order to get an accurate and complete election return every student must vote. Don’t fail to register on Monday, Nov. 7 and vote on Tuesday, Nov. 8 and send in your ballot in the state have held similar elections. Some favored Hoover, others Roosevelt. How do we stand?

Student politicians gave you the platforms of the respective parties in assembly this morning. Now give them your vote on election day.

Next Tuesday morning at the regular assembly hour students will be entertained by Phillip Martindale, the horseback lecturer of the Yellowstone. Mr. Martindale has had extensive experience in ranger work and his subject will be brim full of high spots and intimate habits of wild animals. He will also narrate some of his experiences as a ranger.

Opera Coming, Nov. 8

On the following Tuesday evening, Nov. 8, the renowned Hansel and Gretel opera company will appear in the college auditorium at 8:15 o’clock. Student activity tickets will admit all college students. Townspeople must present their entertainment tickets. Students are asked to leave vacant, rows 3 to 13 in the middle section for townspeople.

Aimee Porter Here

Aimee Porter will entertain at the student assembly this Thursday, Nov. 10. Dr. Robert Parker Miles’ lecture presented this morning was gripping, dramatic and intensely human.

CELESTINE W. NUENSE

Nuese has taken a prominent part in school organizations and activities. He has participated in both debate and oratory for the past two years, winning the State and Tri-State Oratorical Contests in 1932.

Active In School Affairs

Nuese is also active in the Margaret Ashmun society, of which he is president, and is a member of the Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity, Sigma Tau Delta society (pledge), Loyola club, Greek Council representative, Forum, and Harlequin club.

Edward Leuthold, Shavano, co-candidate, and member of the Chi Delta Rho fraternity, lost the race by only a narrow margin. Leuthold received 28 votes to Nuese’s 32.

Sorenson Is Vice President

Alice Sorenson of Stevens Point, was chosen vice president of the class. Fred Cochrane and Alice May Dorsha were the other candidates. Miss Sorenson is also active in school affairs. She is a (Continued on page 4, col. 1)
SATURDAY IS "DAD'S DAY"

"Dad's Day" is to be celebrated at the local college Saturday afternoon when our ancient rivals, Oshkosh, meet Coach Kotala's gridders on our new athletic field.

This is the first time in the history of our institution that a Dad's Day has been arranged. Parents and particularly fathers are interested in athletics, especially the old grid game.

Saturday's tilt promises to be one of the toughest on our card. Milwaukee trimmed Oshkosh with a two-week victory. Milwaukee beat us by two goals last week. The excitement that will be stirred up this week-end should excite any football fan.

Let's all make it a point to invite our Dads to the big game. The Oshkosh-Point game will afford them real entertainment.

STUDENT ENTERTAINMENT BARGAIN

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 8, at 8:15 o'clock the famous and renowned Hansel and Gretel American Opera company will entertain the student body in the college auditorium. No outsiders will be allowed except the 136 townpeople who purchased entertainment tickets earlier in the season.

Next Tuesday, Nov. 1, Phillip Martindale, the horseback painter of the Yellowstone, will give us an interesting account of his experiences as a ranger at the national park. Martindale will address the student body at the regular assembly hour.

We heard the Welch Singers the first week in October. In looking over the entertainment program we have some 15 other numbers which promise to be just as amusing and amusing as our past ones. Many of us little realize the amount of money it requires to bring any one of these nationally known organizations or speakers to a platform. The price varies from twenty five dollars to seven or eight hundred dollars and more.

President Hyer has secured practically all of our entertainment numbers at bargain prices by having them stop over on their way to or from some other point. Had it not been for the keen and bargain eye of our President it would have been impossible to secure even a small percentage of the numbers that will be offered us this semester. Students get these entertainments and educational lectures for less than a dollar each semester. Over 15 outstanding numbers will be presented this semester. Not a bad bargain for students when we think it over.

Stauffer Appoints Senior Ball Heads

Plans for the "Senior Ball," which will be held in the new gym on Dec. 10, are being completed and Alta Stauffer, senior president, has appointed committee for the new event which is expected to rival the annual Junior prom.

M. Alt Stauffer has been named general chairman. Irl Thuber will take charge of decorations, assisted by Natalie Gorski, Cedric Vig, and the social committee. Charles Cowan has been detailed to invitations. Vera Scheffner will direct the program arrangements. Refreshments are in charge of Jimmy Nason and publicity will be handled by Samuel Blatzke.

There will be a senior class meeting in Mr. Evans' room Tuesday, Nov. 1 at 4 o'clock.

KOTALMEN FACE RIVAL TEAM IN GRUDGE BATTLE

Place in Conference Race At Stake As Rival Elevens Clash

Next Saturday afternoon the new Schmeckle Field will be the setting for the resumption of one of the oldest and most bitter rivalries in Wisconsin when the Pointers meet Coach Kolf's Oshkosh gridders in an important conference game.

Oshkosh Strong

Oshkosh presents a strong team, having dropped a 13 to 7 tilt over to Milwaukee in it's first conference game, only to come back to drop Platteville, 12 to 0, and to hold the strong La Crosse Racquets to a scoreless tie.

The local conference record is a bit more impressive, with wins over Whitewater and Eau Claire recorded, but last week's defeat at the hands of Milwaukee more than off-set any imagined advantage over the Sawdust boys.

Glandt, Barlow Star

Orr Glandt, diminutive quarter back, and "Bud" Barlow, half back are outstanding for Oshkosh, with Wambre, a full back, a threat when it comes to bucking the line. Coach Kotal will trot forth an aggregation possessing a distinct offensive threat, but badly shattered in the line, where the loss of Garber, veteran tackle, and Scholz, really hurt.

In Becker we have the best punter in the conference, and the combination of Becker, Hinkle, Hansen and Gomhol gives the locals a quick hit, fast backfield.

Last year the Oshkosh gridders defeated the Point in two games, winning the first, 8 to 6, on a muddy field at Oshkosh, and coming here in a post-season game to trounce the locals, 13 to 0. The Kotalmen will try to wipe out these recent reverses.

Band To Play

The local band, under the direction of Mr. Michelsen, will lend a collegiate air to the festivities, and the Oshkosh musical organization has been invited to attend. Students are expected to fill the same section assigned to them for the Oshkosh game.

SHE: I think dancing makes a girl's feet big, don't you?

HIM: Yeah. (Pause)

SHE: I think swimming gives a girl awfuly large shoulders, don't you?

HIM: Yeah. (Pause)

SHE: You must ride quite a lot, too.

Eligibility Row Threatens Loss Of Garber, Vet Tackle

Ben Garber, veteran tackle and mainstay of the line of the local eleven, has been protested as ineligible, and may not be able to get into the lineup again this season.

Eligibility Protested

Whitewater and Eau Claire have formally protested Garber's eligibility. Playing on the grounds that he had not completed the semester's work in residence required of all transferred students before they can be eligible for intercollegiate competition. Our contention is that Garber, by carrying half a load last spring and attending summer school, received the necessary credits and has done the equivalent of a semester's work.

The protest will be referred to the Athletic Board consisting of one representative from each of the Teachers colleges on Nov. 8. If the protest is upheld, the Point will automatically lose the games he has played in, the Whitewater and Eau Claire tilts. Because of this, Garber will not be entered into the lineup again until his status is lifted, for his participation, in case the protest is the allowed, would automatically lose the game for the Pointers.

Team Spirit Hurt

The loss of Garber hurts doubly, for his most efficient understudy, Antigo, picked this time to leave school. Added to this is the loss of morale on the team rising from the thought that games fought for may be lost again.

Not an encouraging prospect.

College "B" Squad Beaten By Jordan

The college "B" team, coached by Dave Krehms, and accompanied by Mr. Righet, invaded the campus of Jordan College at Menominee, Mich., last Saturday in their first game. Jordan proved too strong for the inexperienced collegians, and plowed down the turf for a 61 to 0 win.

Tough Picking

"B" members of the "B" team state that the Jordanites were strong enough to give the first stringers plenty to handle. Jordan College is a new institution, with athletic staffs that is even better than our own, according to team members.

Harry Richman captured the attention of the outsiders, with Pat Christian, using his boot to make any suitable opposition impossible.

Still, if Milwaukee loses to Platteville and La Crosse, it will be no great loss. Big little word, that, "if".

SAM'S SPORT HORTS

Of course, it couldn't last, and the string of correct predictions is broken. Somehow, Eau Claire was supposed to take Stout, and River Falls, a team which had barely edged Oshkosh, trimmed the strong Superior team.

The loss of Garber hurts doubly, for his most efficient understudy, Antigo, picked this time to leave school. Added to this is the loss of morale on the team rising from the thought that games fought for may be lost again.

Milwaukee's White Wave rolled over the Kotalmen's gridders last Saturday afternoon, taking the center field for a 20 to 7 win. The score in no way indicates the real closeness of the game.

Milwaukee Scores

The Peds started off as if they were going to do a Notre Dame march, strolling through the Point line for first down after first down to a touchdown. Several Point penalties aided in this trek for six points. Boll plunged through for the marker. He also kicked for the extra point.

After the initial scoring the game settled down to a hammer-and-tong battle, with Becker's punting giving the Point the edge. Early in the second quarter Boll, Milwaukee captain and chief threat, broke through the line and found the backfield running through signal practice on the other side of the field. He jaunted 65 yards for the second touchdown, and proceeded to make his kick good for the extra point.

Locals Thrusten

The locals wobbled up after that to show some of the stuff that beat Eau Claire. They secured possession of the ball on the Ped's 30 yard line, and Becker, on a delayed kick, broke through the Milwaukee line and squirmed his way through the entire Ped backfield for a thirty yard touchdown.

The Kotalmen began another...

Debate Teams Will Convene Here In March
The most drastic changes in the history of the Inter-Collegiate

Debating League of the Wisconsin

Teachers Colleges were tentatively effected at the meeting of a committee held at Eau Claire Satu-

day. The committee included Mr.

C. D. Donaldson, Eau Claire,

Chairman, Mr. L. M. Burroughs,

Stevens Point, and Mr. W. D. Wyman, River Falls.

Tourney in March
Instead of holding the confercence debates on the first Friday in March, as was previously the rule, a tournament will be held at

Stevens Point on March 1, 2, and 3, 1923. The tournament will be a "round robin" affair, in which each team will change sides successive round.

Debate Try-Outs To Be Held Soon
Mr. L. M. Burroughs, debate

coch, will issue a call for college debugers soon after the Teachers convention in Milwaukee.

The question for college debate this year is Resolved: That the Unitated States should agree to the cancellation of the allied war debts.

Local debaters are urged to read up on the question before try-outs. Material for this year's quadt looks promising with a list of veterans and plenty of new competition available.

ter, but it ended sadly when Sweyn, Milwaukee right end, intercepted a lateral pass and ran

70 yards for the third Peditouchdown. This time Hall missed his try for the extra point.

Hard To Lose
The game was fast and hard fought. Milwaukee had the breaks, but they also had a fast, cold coach team that made advantage of them. The Pointers, handicapped by the loss of Garber and Slotwinski in the line, and the injury of Hinkle, had plunged full back, fought gamely, and earned at least a tie. Milwaukee, losing Iocelucci and Irish for almost all the game, had almost equal cause to complain.

The game shows the Pedi down to second place in conference standing, and gives Milwaukee a

Illustrated songs were the chief form of entertainment at a party given by the new girls in compliment to the "old girls" Tuesday night at nine o'clock. Every year the new girls entertain in return for an initiation party given for them. Carol Worden was in charge of the program, with Mathilda Killian as finance head, and Barbara Fulton, refreshments chairman.

Jane Wright attended the Homecoming festivities at River Falls State Teachers College this week-end. Sigrid Stark returned from Nass, Minnesota, after a week's absence on account of a death in her family.

Three of our girls, Blanche Fo­bart, Ione Harvey, and Florence Lenker went along with the band to play at the Milwaukee-Point game Saturday. Helen Pielch was there among the rooters.

Miss Rose, Miss Allen, Miss Carlsten, and Miss Pfeiffer spent the weekend at Miss Row's Pelican Lake cottage.

Lorraine Guell of Fond du Lac entertained her mother at the Hall for a few days. Blanche Fo­bart was visited by her brother, and sister Sunday. Mr. B. Nelson of Woodruff called on his daughter, Eileen, Monday. Ella Mortensen entertained her mother and sister of South Mil­waukee at the dormitory Saturday.

Dr. Wisiol Speaks

Dr. Eisen Wisiol, M. D., delivered an interesting lecture on me­tabolism and its relation to gluu­lar secretion, at a meeting of the Sigma Zeta Science Society last Wednesday, Oct. 19. The college people met in the staff room of St. Michael's hospital. In con­junction with the lecture a demon­stration was given of an intricate respiratory machine employed in determining the basic metabolism.

Dance Saturday Night

Phi Sigma Epsilon Fraternity will sponsor a dance Saturday night after the Oshkosh game in the New Gymnasium. A special treat is planned in the way of mu­sic. Lrv. Lutz and his Florida Five will provide the sym­phonia­tion, and Irv. claims that he is going to give us some real music. High school students and towns­people are invited.
