

POINTERS MEET BADGERS MONDAY

BIGGEST GAME OF THE YEAR FOR COLLEGE

Capacity Crowd To See University Meet Kotalmen At Wisconsin Rapids In New Field House

Playing before a capacity crowd Coach Kotal's league-leading basketball quintet will take the floor against "Doc" Meanwell's Badgers this coming Monday night in the Lincoln Field House at Wisconsin Rapids.

Large Advance Sale

The game will be the outstanding basketball attraction scheduled for Central Wisconsin this year, and fans from all the surrounding territory are taking advantage of the opportunity to see the University team in action against our own Pointers. The capacious Field House seats approximately six thousand, and the advance sale indicates that every seat will be filled when the whistle blows.

Although the Wisconsin game is the big tilt of the year for the Pointers, they are not priming for it as much as they are for the Stout and Oshkosh games that precede it. A notice on the poster advertising the game states that Coach Meanwell and his varsity team will give a basketball demonstration before the game and between halves. It is our humble opinion that their varsity will have their hands full giving a demonstration during the game.

Pointers Thought Easy

Wisconsin, although rated high in the Big Ten conference, has been running into several snags, lately, losing to Iowa, Ohio, and Illinois in succession. They may look upon the Pointers as set-ups, and there-in may lie our chance of victory.

Poser, Hammann, and McDonald have been the "Big guns" on Meanwell's quintet, and are the men who will have to be stopped. The Badgers famous short-pass game will be utilized by Wisconsin to score their points. Coach Kotal's squad is ready, and may pack enough dynamite to upset the university five. With Krumm, Bishop, and Thompson slapping them in, and Marsh and Gregory guarding — well, old Doc is likely to pull a few more hairs out of his sparse thatch.

Three Weeks Of Pledging And One "Hell Week" Await Greek Pledges

After the so-called 'week of silence', fraternity and sorority pledging was begun Monday evening. According to the rules adopted by the Greek Council last year, pledge period will last for three weeks and be culminated by 'hell week', during which time, pledges may be observed performing many and varied antics for the entertainment of active members, and supposedly, for the benefit of the pledges themselves, — like eating spinach, no doubt.

Sororities Pledge 18

On Monday evening, The Tau Gamma Beta administered the pledge service to seven prospective members, including Margaret Turrish, Barbara Joy, Gaywood Skinner, Florence Knope, Viola Hotvedt, Adeline Bellman, and Ellyn Salen. The service was held at the home of Miss Betty Rice, 704 Main street.

Omega Mu Chi sorority presented the service to new pledges in the Women's Room of the college. Those who received the service are Evelyn Stephenson, Helene Waterman, Helen Piehl, Lorraine Gething, Jane Anderson, Margaret Mortenson, Ella Mortenson, Helen Bunker, Vera Torkey, Gwendoline Colburne, and Margaret Novitzki.

Fraternities Announce Pledges

Five men were pledged to the Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity Monday night at a regular meeting in the Gingham Tea Room. Bill Nason, Bob Steiner, Neal Rothman, Bob Tardiff, and Arba Shorey received the pledge service.

Chi Delta Rho fraternity pledged three men at their regular meeting in the Men's Lounge. The pledges are Sam Kingston, Larry Bishop and Ted Ketterl.

Debaters To Leave For St. Paul Mon.

Mr. Burroughs and a squad of five men will leave Monday night for the Northwest Debate tournament at St. Thomas College in St. Paul. The tourney will begin Tuesday, February 28, and will last until March 3. The debaters will speak on both sides of the question, changing sides with each debate. Central State will be represented by Celestine Nuesse, Donald Mills, Burton Hotvedt, Clarence Styza and Tom Smith. Competition is expected to be keen, for twenty colleges representing various sections of the mid-west have accepted invitations.

Dance After Stout Game Friday Night

A dance will be held in the new gym tomorrow night after the Stout basketball game.

Chi Delta Rho fraternity is sponsoring the dance and an outside orchestra will furnish the music. Students will be admitted for 25 cents. Townspeople will be taxed 35 cents.

NOTICE

All students are urged to appear in costumes at the Mardi Gras dance in the new gym Tuesday night.

Hirzy To Donate Prizes For Contest

In conjunction with the forthcoming Point-Wisconsin basketball game, Ferdinand A. Hirzy, official gift-counselor to C. S. T. C., announces a score-guessing contest open to all students and faculty members of the college. A bottle of exclusive perfume valued at five dollars will be awarded the young woman whose guess comes the closest to the actual score, while a handsome bill fold of equal value will go to the male winner.

Contest Rules

Following are the rules of the contest; 1. One guess to each person. 2. Names of both teams and their respective scores to be specified. 3. Sign name to slip, seal in envelope, and leave at Hirzy's Jewelry store before nine o'clock Saturday evening. Use entry blank on page five, column four.

Concert Scheduled For Tonight Is Postponed

Because of the illness of Mrs. Kathleen Powell Van Buskirk the concert which was to be held in the college auditorium tonight has been postponed to sometime next week.

The Twilight Music club is sponsoring the concert for the benefit of the local chapter of the Red Cross. Mrs. Van Buskirk is suffering with a severe cold.

BOOK THIEVES MAKE IT BAD FOR REST OF STUDENTS

Students are wondering why the privilege of using the reserved shelves in the library has been restricted — so is Mr. George Allez, librarian, wondering just where the some 150 reserved books have disappeared to during the past semester.

A partition now separates the reserve shelves from the regular stacks. Hereafter students desiring the use of the reserve section must ask permission from the librarian in charge. The regular stacks will be open, as in the past.

Mr. Allez stated that he was disappointed in being forced to this action. However it was done in the interest of the students and the college. The loss of 150 books represents approximately $300. With state appropriations being slashed continually it will be a problem to replace the stolen texts.

If students continue to abuse the one privilege remaining in using the reserve section, that too, will be withdrawn. In that event students desiring reserve books would have to get in line each day.

STUDENT

BROADCAST

Wants Credentials Ready

Mr. Editor:

At a recent mass conference I was surprised to hear that the main reason for the incompleteness of credentials was through the negligence of some of the directors of our various college departments. Such vital things as credentials are not ready to send out to prospective employers. I think that the Directors should take an exceedingly active interest in the "search for positions". If a student were to apply for a job today, his references, would not be at hand.

We find that the Directors have been asked many times to fulfill this task which would require but a few minutes. It may mean a job to some student.

Let's hope that these few lines will cause some Director to see the need for promptness in this vital matter.

"LOOKING FOR A JOB"

Favors Tuition Plan For Iris

Dear Editor:

The last few weeks have witnessed the promotion of an Iris campaign sponsored by the Senior Class. To secure subscriptions a personal campaign was conducted. At present 300 copies have been ordered. At $3.00 per copy, plus advertising, Mardi Gras receipts, and organization fees, the bills entailed in the making of the 1933 Iris will be met—it is hoped.

Now I ask, why not subscribe for our Irises as we do for our Pointers — paying $1.00 per semester in our activity fee collected at the beginning of each semester? In the first place, everyone would receive an Iris just as every one receives a Pointer. Second, the price per copy would be lowered from $3.00 to $2.00. Third, this system would be fair, allowing the same privileges for the Iris as for the Pointer Staff. (We are not objecting in any manner to the Pointer system; we, in fact, advocate that same arrangement for the Iris).

In another issue of this paper, several students expressed the fact that they favored the semester plan of payment for the annual as well as for the school paper. How many students would advocate the adoption of such a plan for our annual in place of the present system of "grab where one can"?

"ME"

"1932 Revue"

The main show in the auditorium will present the "1932 Revue". It is a coherent, fast moving skit of the happenings of 1932 featuring such notables as John the Janitor, Frank Spindler, "Pete" Giovannini, "Herb" Steiner, Charlie Evans and Georgie Allez. The main show is scheduled for 8 o'clock. Michelsen's band will play from 7:30 to 8 o'clock. The band will appear in costume. You should see how John the Janitor and the others will appear. The cast sounds good. The Committee guarantees a real frolic show.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

THE QUESTION: Do you favor another Chicago excursion this spring run on the same terms as the one two years ago?

Allan Hodell: I think they should hold it over until this summer when the fair is in progress and not let them see just the buildings. Otherwise I think it's a good idea.

Alice Sorenson: I didn't go two years ago, but it sounds good.

Art Thompson: Mmmm, do I! I think it's a swell idea, 'cause we had such a good time on the last one. In fact, I favor it.

Bill Herrick: I'd like to go to Chicago. But I'd like to have more chance to see the town, and not have the trip so closely planned as to time. They ought to make the time longer.

Richard Schwahn: I'm in favor of that Chicago trip. They should have had it last year. I think it's a good idea. The Chi Delts back it.

Stanley Popek: I think it's a good idea, but I wouldn't be able to go. Some of us don't feel we could afford it. But as long as you want to go badly enough, you can find the cash.

Wilson Schwahn: I don't favor it because I don't believe it's educational. Last time everybody was so tired when they got there that they slept through most of the day.

Ray Koehl: The Soo Line itself is having too many excursions. It wouldn't be worth it, especially when the fair doesn't really start 'till this summer.

Pete Peterson: Yes, I favor one, but in these hard times I don't know whether people would be able to scrape up enough "dough" or not.

The Beauty School
by Helena Rubinstein
Noted Beauty Authority

"Beauty is only skin deep", our mothers used to tell us. But all of us nowadays, mothers included, know that beauty is more than skin deep. Beauty of skin and contour and outline goes with eighteen carat beauty and it all comes from within.

The first rule is the cleanliness that comes only from the bath-a-day. Not a prolonged soaking but a quick sponge or shower — lathering the body with soap then using a wash brush briskly. Rinse quickly with warm then cold water, then rub your body all over with a rough towel. Bringing the blood to the surface is a wonderful help in keeping the pores active, the skin smooth and clear. Twice a week take a longer bath in really hot water, followed by a witch hazel rub. After your morning shower a dusting of deodorant powder delicately fragrant with water lilies will add to your comfort and keep you fresh and dainty during the day. Incidentally, a liberal dusting of this same powder on your feet and in your slippers before a party will keep your feet from blisters as you dance.

Another necessary aid to beauty is sleep. If you are up late one night, go to bed early the next night. I can't guarantee eighteen carat beauty if you neglect this part of your regime. And sleep with your windows wide open. Fresh air while you sleep is as vital to beauty as bathing, exercise and cold cream.

Just before retiring, a cleansing and massage cream applied to face and neck and left on a few minutes will cleanse, soothe and beautify your skin. If inclined to dryness, a little more may be applied around the eyes and on the throat and left on all night.

Going into the last stretch of the conference race, the Pointers will defend their championship claim against Stout Institute here tomorrow night in the new gym.

Stout Rated High

The Pointers defeated the Stout quintet there earlier in the season, 47 to 31, but the Blue Devils have come to life since then, and have been playing bang-up ball. They defeated Superior, the team that edged La Crosse out of the undefeated class, and have won over Eau Claire and River Falls.

Stori, Andersons, Star

Captain Stori, star center and guard, and the Anderson brothers, fast forwards, have featured in every Stout game. The Stoutonians play a fast breaking offensive game, and depend on speed to score their points. They are expected to be primed for the league-leading Pointers, as will every other team we meet.

Coach Kotal has been working his boys hard this week in preparation for this game and the Oshkosh game following it. He really fears this Stout aggregatin, which may turn the tables on the locals.

Reserves May Play

If a sizeable lead can be piled up against Stout no doubt the second-stringers will be sent in to hold the lead and save the regulars for the Oshkosh game. The band will play for the game, and reserved seats for the student section will be placed on sale Thursday at the Counter.

All boys interested in intra-mural basketball sign up in the coaches office before Friday.

Whitewater Quintet Bows To Pointers, 46-24

The Whitewater team, rated by many as one of the strongest teams in the conference, bowed in defeat to the Championship-bound Pointers before a crowd of 1,500 last Friday evening. Before the Pointers scoring combination had been stopped by the final whistle they had garnered a total of 46 points to their opponents 24.

Close At Start

Whitewater threatened at the start of the game to give the Pointers a hard battle but fell by the wayside when the going got tough. The Pointers had unusually hard luck on their shots sinking 19 out of 105 attempts. However, Whitewater was outplayed in every department of the game.

Nolan Gregory, diminutive Point guard, played a bang-up floor game and sank three field goals and three free throws for a total of nine points. Bishop, conference scoring leader, again topped the Point players in individual scoring, making six field goals and a free throw for a total of 13 points. Thompson was close behind Bishop, with five field goals and two free throws. Both Bishop and Thompson played nice floor games, as did also Krumm and Marsh.

Hockey Team To Meet Marshfield

If weather conditions permit, the Point Hockey team will meet the Marshfield City team Wednesday, March 1 at Goerke Athletic field. The game will be played under the new floodlights and will start at 8 o'clock. Don Blood, captain of the pucksters, assures the fans who brave the cold that it will be a battle worthy of their attendance.

SAM'S SPORT SHORTS

The basketballers ran into another mess of clover when they were invited to be guests of Jack Anker and the Hotel Whiting for a Sunday dinner.

The twelve team men, Coach Kotal, Mr. Hyer, Mr. Schmeeckle, young Bobby Reading, mascot of the Pointers, and Francis Strand, Sport Editor of the Stevens Journal, were the invited guests.

After the turkey had quit biting back dessert was served. Each portion carried with it a free

Record Crowd At Whitewater Game

Cash receipts from townspeople who jammed the new gym last Thursday night for the Whitewater game totaled $152.15, a new record. Mr. Fred J. Schmeeckle, chairman of athletics, said receipts would have topped $200 if the new gym could have accommodated the many who had to be turned away.

ticket to the Fox theatre for that evening. Wilson Floral Shop donated flowers for the evening, and Baebenroth's Drug Store volunteered refreshments after the show.

And Tom Smith states that now he knows he should have taken up basketball instead of debate.

The La Crosse paper carries a story advocating a Point-LaCrosse game. That was "B. S." (Before Superior). They also make a few belittling remarks about the competition we've been meeting. It so happens that the Point has beaten River Falls much more conclusively than the La Crosse boys were able to.

POINTERS MEET OSHKOSH QUINT ON HOME FLOOR

Kotalmen Seek To Keep Conference Record Clean Against Old Rivals; Bad Playing Floor

Fighting to hold their lead in the Teachers College conference the Pointers will journey to Oshkosh Saturday to meet the dangerous Kolfmen on their own floor.

Oshkosh "Jinx" Team

Oshkosh is always bad for the Pointers on their own home floor. No one can seem to remember when a Point team has beaten Oshkosh there. Last year the Pointers beat Oshkosh by a large score here, and then were beaten just as badly there. This year Kotal's quint took the B'Goshmen 40 to 25, and if the Oshkosh jinx is ever to be broken, it will be broken Saturday.

Even if the Pointers should lose to Oshkosh, they would retain a share in the championship, providing that they defeat River Falls there in the last game of the season. Oshkosh has a mathematical chance to claim the championship should the Pointers lose to both Oshkosh and River Falls and should La Crosse lose another game.

Strengthen Lineup

The Kolfmen will present a stronger lineup against the Pointers there than they did here, for several new men have become eligible this semester and are playing ball. Outstanding among these is Hanson, a tall forward. Lindow is eligible again after working off a condition, and Stogbauer, the blonde guard who so effectively covered Bishop, Wittig, and Pugh are all ready to topple the Kotalmen.

The Oshkosh gym is worth at least ten points to the home team in any game. It is long and narrow, with none of the width needed for a team that is accustomed to play for side-shots. The Oshkosh crowd is always pugnacious, and the team is noted for its tendency to "rough it up". That's what they did last year to win.

Fans Follow Squad

A large delegation from the college is scheduled to follow the team. The game is considered the hardest and most-to-be-feared battle on the local schedule this year. The result is a toss-up.

The Oshkosh "Advance" carries an item to the effect that Oshkosh was offered the Wisconsin game before the Pointers accepted it, and only refused because their gym didn't have the necessary capacity. Sounds like sour grapes to us, buddy.

SWEEPINGS FROM THE JANITOR'S DUSTPAN

OVER CONFIDENCE

That team is cocky to the core.
Your crowd is just as bad.
We're so darned used to great big scores
It makes this janitor mad.

We think we've got this championship
All sewed up in a bag.
Although we've hit a healthy clip,
It's not yet time to brag.

Napoleon had his Waterloo;
Superior stopped La Crosse.
We may fail to the Oshkosh crew
And chalk up our first loss.

Only zebras get their stripes
Without some work to do.
This hero hookum surely gripes
With three full games to go.

So keep your head to fit your hat
Or you'll take it on the chin.
A trimming now would knock us flat,
Our confidence is sin!

With Oshkosh, Stout and River Falls
We've got a lot to beat.
They're apt to put us to the wall.
CONCEIT SHOULD MEET DEFEAT!
JOHN THE JANITOR

Former Students Visit

Conrad Somers and Frank Tuszka of Whitewater Teachers college visited here last Thursday afternoon and attended the Whitewater game and dance in the evening. Both are Stevens Point residents and attended the local college for two years prior to their transfer to Whitewater last year. "Connie" was recently initiated into Beta Kappa Nu fraternity. "Frankie" was circulation manager of the Pointer last year.

All School Party

The members of the Round Table were hosts to the members of the student body at a dancing party held in the new gymnasium Saturday evening, February 18th. Dancing was from 8:30 until 11:30, the music being furnished by Ben Mannis and his college orchestra. Chaperones for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Burton R. Pierce and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Watson. Mr. Watson is the director of the Grammar department and Mr. Pierce is principal of the Junior High School. Oscar Christianson and Linnea Anderson were in charge of the arrangements.

Mr. Neale Speaks

Mr. Neale of the faculty described De Vinci's famous painting, "The Last Supper" at a meeting of the Loyola club, Thursday, February 9th. Trombone solos were played by Morris Skinner.

The club will meet tonight at 7:15 in the Rural Assembly. Mr. Knutzen will be the guest speaker. Every member is urged to come as a record attendance is desired.

Y. W. C. A. Meets

The members of the Y. W. C. A. will meet tonight at 7:15 o'clock in the living room of Nelson Hall.

Vivian Enge will be in charge of the program and each girl is asked to come promptly to avoid any delay in starting early.

Modern Essays Discussed

The regular meeting of the Margaret Ashmun club was postponed until Monday evening, February 20, on account of the Harlequin Club play "The Youngest" which was given Wednesday, February 8th.

The meeting was held in Mr. Burroughs' room at 7:30 P. M. The meeting was devoted to the study and discussion of "Modern Essays" under the leadership of Miss Syble Mason. Miss Mason was assisted by Celestine Nuesse and Alta Stauffer. Mr. Nuesse presented a topic on "Standard American Poets" and Miss Stauffer discussed "Modern American Fiction".

NELSON HALL

Miss Hussey was a guest of Miss Margaret Ashmun at tea Sunday evening at the latter's Clark street apartment. Miss Ashmun is known to most of us as a famous authoress and alumna of Central State.

Winter Picnic

A winter picnic was enjoyed by Thyra Iverson, Reinetta Reisinger, Kathryn Slowey, and Alta Stauffer, who went tobogganning with Miss Seen and Alice Sorenson. The outdoor lunch was especially good, as are all Miss Rowe's lunches.

Miss Vera Hillis of Woodruff visited with Ione Harvey this week-end. Eileen Nelson was visited by her parents from Woodruff.

Birthday Dinner

Margaret Beardsley and Charlotte Gauthier were "feted" at a special birthday dinner on Valentine's Day by their friends.

A P. E. O. banquet was served in the Nelson Hall Recreation Room Tuesday evening under the direction of Miss Rowe. Covers were laid for 70. The usual Tuesday night "open house" was deferred until Wednesday.

Thelma Crawford has been ill at her home in Westfield with troublesome wisdom teeth. The following were the "unusual week-enders": Elinor Eubanks, whose home is at Ladysmith; Carrol Keen, Antigo; Mamie Mahueg, Tigerton; and Alta Lupient, Curtiss. Alta Stauffer has judged two debates at Rosholt during the past month.

Greek Dance

Members of the Greek organizations who attended the Greek inter-fraternity-sorority dance Tuesday evening, Feb. 21, were assured of the fact that the faculty were right when they said that the first was a big success and that the next one would be even bigger and better than before.

Irv. Lutz and his "Florida Entertainers" played for the dancing from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock. Faculty advisers of the respective organizations were the chaperones. The Greek inter-fraternity sorority organization includes the two social fraternities and two sororities. Members of these respective groups, their friends and escorts were present.

MISS MANSUR INJURED

Miss Lulu Mansur, assistant librarian at the college, was injured and taken to St. Michael's hospital Tuesday when the car in which she was riding was struck in the rear by an oncoming one.

Injuries sustained by Miss Mansur included a cut in the back of the head and a severe shaking from the compact. Her condition was reported as being very favorable today and it is expected that she will be allowed to leave the hospital in a day or two.

Girls' Cage Finals In Gym Tonight

The girls basketball tournament started off with a bang last Tuesday night, with team one handing team two a valentine in the shape of a 40 to 2 defeat. However, the joy was short-lived, for on Wednesday team three crushed team one to the tune of 44 to 17. Team one then appeared to develop the habit, for on Thursday, team four let them down with a snappy 49 to 32 defeat.

The battle appeared to be between teams three and four; accordingly, on Monday night team three eked a narrow 23 to 20 victory over team four. Wednesday night team two met team three, and the final game will be played tonight between teams two and four. The tournament showed that the girls have plenty of spirit, and keen eyes for the basket, as the scores bear witness to. The personnel of the teams appears on the bulletin board at the foot of the East stairway.

NOTE:

The Pointer will give two Fox Theatre tickets to the student submitting the best title for this column. A short title, ranging from one to four words is desired. Facts, jokes and collegiate events will be heaped up and published in the column weekly.

Yep! we're in a hellova fix. We offered two Fox theatre tickets to the student who suggested the best title for this column. Now the judges go ahead and inform us that eight students tied for the free comps. Anyway here's how we're going to pick the winner. Of the eight names below, the one who guesses the total number of points to be made in the varsity-Wisconsin basketball game next Monday night will receive the comps. For example if the score is 30 to 20, the student guessing 50 will win.

The following students submitted the best titles: Cletus Collins, Alta Stauffer, Laura Kretzschmar, Alice Sorenson, Wilfred "Tuffy" Engbretson, Frank Klement, Patricia Cowan — and — the student who attempted to bribe the Editor by submitting the title "Maurer's Wheezles" — but who forgot to sign his name to the worthy title. These students may submit their guess numbers to the Editor any time before next Monday noon.

Students enrolled in the eight-hour a day "card playing" course at the Kampus Kitchen have advanced to the chapter on Bridge. It's a good course for our aviation enthusiast. We read where a new airplane is equipped with a card-table, probably to accommodate passengers to the grand slam.

Ex-corporal Mish says it may sound like a paradox, but the breaking of both wings of any army is a sure way to make it fly.

Our "Bill" says the reason so few milkmen are married is that they see women too early in the morning.

A kiss! When all is said, what is a kiss? An oath of allegiance taken in closer proximity, a promise more precise, a seal on a confession, a rose-red dot upon the letter i in living; a secret which elects the mouth for ear; an instant of eternity murmuring like a bee; balmy communion with a flavor of flowers; a fashion inhaling each other's heart and of tasting on the brink of the lips of each other's soul.

FOX THEATRE FREE TICKETS

Winners of last week's free fox theatre tickets were Edmund Kujawa, Eunice Edna Riley and Eddie Louis Kotal.

Program Given By Second Year Rurals

At a meeting of the Rural Life Club last Monday evening, in the Rural assembly room, an excellent program was presented by the second year students under the direction of Miss Hanna. In spite of adverse weather conditions, a large audience was present at the entertainment.

The program included community singing by the club, Piano solo by Florence Lindsey, "A modern student's vision of Washington" by Robert MacMillen, "Washington, the farmer" by Bob Neale, vocal duet by Genevieve Thurber and Florence Lindsey, and "Lincoln, the man" by Margaret Wilson.

Group singing of Southern melodies ended the evening's entertainment.
