Three Weeks Of Pledging And One
"Hell Week" Await Greek Pledges

After the so-called 'week of silence,' fraternity and sorority pledging was begun Monday evening. According to the rules adopted by the Greek Council last year, pledge period will last for three weeks and be culminated by "hell week," during which time, pledges may be observed performing many and varied antics for the entertainment of active members, and supposedly, for the benefit of the pledges themselves, like eating spinach, no doubt.

Sororities Pledge 18

On Monday evening, the Tau Gama Beta administered the pledge to seven prospective members, including Margaret Turrish, Barbara Joy, Gaywood Skinner, Florence Knope, Viola Hotvedt, Adeline Bellman, and Ellyn Selen. The service was held at the home of Miss Betty Rice, 704 Main street.

THE QUESTION: Do you favor another Chicago excursion this spring, on the same lines as the two years ago?

Allan Modell: I think they should hold it over until this summer when the fair is in progress and not let them see just the buildings. Otherwise I think it’s a good idea.

Alice Sorensen: I didn’t go two years ago.

Art Thompson: Mmm, do I think it’s a swell idea, cause we had such good time on the last one. In fact, I favor it.

Bill Herrick: I’d like to go to Chicago. But I can’t help you to see the town, and not have the trip so closely planned as to time. They ought to make the time he’s long enough.

Richard Schwan: I’m in favor of that Chicago trip. They should have had it last year. I think it’s a good idea. The Chi Delta back it.

Stanley Popel: I think it’s a good idea, but I wouldn’t be able to afford it. Some of us don’t feel we could afford it. But as long as you want to go badly enough, you can find the cash.

Wilson Schwan: I don’t favor it because I don’t believe in communal. Last time everybody was so tired when they got there that they slept through most of the pageant.

Ray Koehl: The Soo Line itself is having too many excursions. It wouldn’t make it worth while for the fair doesn’t really start till this summer.

Pete Peterson: Yes, I favor one, but in those hard times I don’t know whether we’ll have to scrap enough ‘dough’ or not.

THE QUESTION: What do you think of the beauty school students that we used to tell about.

Allan Hodell: I think they should have it. But I wouldn’t think that this one is more than 1,120.

Bill Herrick: I like to see the body with a good movement.

Richard Schwan: I don’t think they should do it. It’s a good idea.

Stanley Popel: I don’t think it’s a good idea. I wouldn’t think they should do it.

1. Pointers After Milwaukee Whitewater at his boys hard this week. His boys have featured in the new gym.

Intra-mural basketball season is scheduled to follow the team. The game is considered the hardest and most-to-be-feared battle on the local schedule this year. The results is a toss-up.

The Oshkosh “Advance” carries an item to the effect that Oshkosh was offered the Wisconsin game before the Pointers accepted it, and only refused because their gym didn’t have the necessary capacity. Sounds like sour grapes to us, buddy.

SWEETHOPES FROM THE JANITOR'S DUSTER

OVER CONFIDENCE

That team is cocky as hell. Your crowd is just as bad. We've never dared need to great big scores. It makes this janitor mad.

We think we've got this championship all sewed up in a bag. Although we've hit a healthy clip, it's not yet time to brag.

Napoleon had his Waterloo; Superior stopped La Crosse. We may fail to the Oshkosh crew and chalk up our first loss.

Only sebass get their stripes Without some work to do. This hero hookum surely grips With three full games to go.

So keep your head to fit your hat Or you'll take it on the chin. A trimming now would knock us flat, Our confidence is sin!

With Oshkosh, Steel and River Falls We've got a lot to beat. They're apt to put us to the wall.

CONCEIT SHOULD MEET DEFEAT!

NELSON HALL

Girls' Cage Finals
In Gym Tonight
The girls basketball tournament started off with a bang last Tuesday night, with team one handing team two a valentine in style of 40 to 2 defeat. However, the joy was short-lived, for on Wednesday team three crushed team one to the tune of 44 to 17. Team one then appeared to develop the habit, for on Thursday, team four let them down with a snappy 9 to 32 defeat.

The battle appeared to be between teams three and four; according, on Monday night team three took a narrow 23 to 20 victory over team four. Wednesday night team two met team three, and the final game will be played tonight between teams two and four.

The tournament showed that the girls have plenty of spirit, and keen eyes for the basket, as the scores bear witness to. The personnel of the teams appears on the bulletin board at the foot of the East stairway.
