

JUNIOR PROM DATE SET FOR MAY 19

NUESSE PICKS HEADS TO AID IN BIG EVENT

Edward Leuthold Named General Chairman; Date Shifted To A Friday Night

Plans for the college's biggest social event of the year, "the Junior Prom", have begun.

President Celestine Nuesse met with his committeemen last Friday afternoon and the date of the formal promenade was definitely fixed for Friday, May 19. The date was shifted from a Saturday to a Friday night to avoid the midnight closing hour restrictions on Saturday night dances.

Big News Soon

Last year's prom carried out a southern plantation theme with Eli Rice's colored orchestra making the "darker" setting complete. The theme and orchestra for this year's feat remains a mystery, but the Prom committeemen promise some important announcements at an early date.

Prom Leaders Picked

Edward Leuthold was named general chairman by President Nuesse. Cletus Collins is chairman of the music, assisted by Alice Sorenson. Cletus is dickering with several popular bands and will award the orchestra contract within the next week.

George Maurer is chairman of publicity. Decorations will be in charge of Fred Cochrane, assisted by Edna Crocker and John Fish. Kathryn Wiggins is in charge of programs and invitations and will be aided by Ignatius Mish.

Doris Erickson is chairman of refreshments. Kathryn Slowey and Ida Lahti will assist her.

Crowd Last Year

Over 200 couples attended last year's prom. Invitations will be mailed to alumni, townspeople and their friends. The formal will be held in the new gym.

IMPORTANT

It is very imperative that all students planning on taking the World's Fair excursion trip to Chicago, April 29, sign up in Mr. Rightsell's office immediately. Unless 200 signatures are secured at an early date the proposed trip will be cancelled.

Nine Reel Picture And Talk On Norway Mon.

Students and their friends will be entertained by a nine reel moving picture of Norway in the college auditorium Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Rural department is bringing S. J. Ristesund, a regular "Norske", here on that night. Ristesund will give a fascinating lecture of his home country in conjunction with the moving picture. There is no admission charge.

"The Personality Girl" Coming Here Thursday

Jean MacDonald, whose charm and ability to entertain has won her the title of "The Personality Girl", will be the assembly hour feature next Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

She is a Canadian comedienne and entertainer and convulses audiences with her charming nonsense, so they say.

NEW BOOKS

By KARL ANDERSON

A list of books added to the College collection:

BROWNE, LEWIS—"Blessed Spinoza"

Since little is known of the actual life of the Jewish philosopher who was born in Amsterdam three hundred years ago, this biography relies largely upon conjecture, drawn from study of contemporary conditions, and from Spinoza's writings. It is a reasonable, careful work, and may serve as an introduction to the "Ethics".

CAMP, SAMUEL GRANGER—"Taking trout with the dry fly"

A thoroughly practical manual on the art of angling for trout which emphasizes the latest developments in rods and tackle. It is designed to acquaint the angler with the equipment which experience has shown to be best adapted to the American dry fly method. An informative book for either the novice or experienced fisherman.

COATES, ROBERT M.—"The outlaw years, the history of the land pirates of the Natchez trace."

The outlaw years were 1800-1835, and the pirates were the outlaws who operated along the Mississippi frontier. The history of their activities contains so many details of brutality and murder that it is, in parts, unpleasant reading. Contents: Pioneers - The Harpers - Hare - Samuel Mason - Murrell.

EATON, HUNTER—"What every woman should know about an automobile"

A non-technical book about the mechanism and the handling of an automobile, written clearly and with humor. A few simple diagrams and cartoon drawings make effective illustrations.

GALVIN, EILEEN H.—"Assemblies for junior and senior high schools"

Suggestive outlines for high school

Training School Quint Champs, Win City Grade School Title

Another championship was won by the college when the Training School Seventh Grade basketball team defeated the Lincoln Seventh team to win the city title, 12 to 10, last Saturday night.

The Line-up

Playing on the victorious quintet were Douglas Wright, forward, Royce Hanna, forward, Foerster, center, and Klein, Murray, Warden, Scribner, and Cholewinski, guards.

The Eighth Grade team of the Training School almost duplicated the feat of the champs, losing in the final round to St. Stephens, 11 to 10. The city champions were awarded medals in the Junior High School assembly last Monday.

FOX THEATRE FREE TICKETS

assemblies, showing possibilities of vitalizing the programs and relating them to studies and to extra-curricular activities. The outlines are brief, but valuable because of their wide range of subject.

GUEDALLA, PHILIP—"Wellington"

Historical soundness, truthful characterization and good writing mark the biography of the English military hero. Wellington's political career and his part in important reforms are given as much space as his better known achievements on the battlefield. Many other historical figures are brought in to the narrative, and the atmosphere of pre-Victorian England is well-preserved.

"INMATE WARD 8"—"Behind the door of delusion"

A newspaper man who entered an insane asylum voluntarily for a year to cure alcoholism writes from there this temperate account within its walls. He commends the officials and doctors in charge, but criticizes state legislatures, for passing unintelligent laws affecting such institutions. Interesting written and unsensational.

CHORUS WITH ORCHESTRA IN PROGRAM TODAY

Music Department In Charge
Of Assembly; Michelsen
To Direct Concert

The assembly program this morning will be given by the various divisions of the music department under the direction of Mr. Peter J. Michelsen. Vocal solos, songs by the chorus, orchestral selections, and instrumental solos will be featured in the concert.

Classical, semi-classical, and popular selections are all to be included in an hour of exceptionally fine entertainment. About 60 musicians will take part in the concert.

Varied Program

Numbers on the program are, Spanish March (A Bunch of Roses) by R. Chapi; Waltz (Tres Jolie) by E. Waldteufel; Vocal solo (Rosemary) Robert Emery, by Vaughn de Leath; Overture (Raymond) by A. Thomas; Sere-nade (Frasquita) by Franz Leh-ar; Vocal solos ('Over the Ste-ppe') by Gretchaminoff, 'Trade Winds' by Keel, 'Come to the Fair' by Easthope Martin) by Norman Knutzen; Flute solo (Blue Bells of Scotland) Otis Michel-son, by Jules Levy;

Local Talent

Chorus and Orchestra ('Dear Land of Home' by Jean Sibelius; 'In the Luxembourg Garden' by Lockhart-Manning, 'Sweetheart', from Maytime, by Sigmund Rom-berg); Cornet solo (Gypsy Love Song) Aaron Monastersky, by Victor Herbert; and Orchestra and Chorus (Way Down South) by W. H. Myddleton.

Free College Dance In New Gym Saturday

An all school dance will be held in the new gym Saturday night. The social committee is treating, and college students will be admitted on presentation of their activity tickets.

Ben Mannis and his "Colle-gians" will furnish the rhythm for dancing from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock. Chairman T. A. Rogers of the social committee said it was imperative that all students present their activity tickets at the door if they desire free admission.

OSHKOSH DELEGATE ATTACKS POINTER STORIES

According to reports brought home from Madison, journalism was a major topic of discussion last Saturday when athletic representatives of the various state teachers colleges met and drew up next year's basketball and football schedules.

We are told that Oshkosh's representative, Mr. H. H. Whitney, opened the meeting by bitterly attacking the Pointer for printing authentic but unwelcome truths in its columns relative to the Point-Oshkosh game at Oshkosh last February. Students and townspeople who witnessed the game will recall how Coach Kotal was molested during the game by Oshkosh fans in back of him — how our team was seated in an undesirable corner of the gym, and when Stevens Point fans offered our eagers and coach better seats Oshkosh authorities promptly marched them (including our President) back to their seats. The truth of these stories evidently stung Oshkosh. Nevertheless we commented on the incident in a milder form than many another paper would have.

Whitney, displaying a collection of Pointers to the athletic members at the meeting last Saturday, said that news of this nature should not be tolerated in college papers. He didn't deny the authenticity of our stories — what he advocated was the taking away from the college newspapers the freedom of press.

We're wondering if Oshkosh's delegate realizes that college papers are supported by student subscriptions and advertising, not by faculty opinions. Students have the right to demand news as it happens. If Whitney's suggestion were executed, college papers hereafter would be carefully censored by faculty members and only rose colored accounts of dear old alma mater would be seen in print. We would have no student publication; it would be a faculty digest.

However Whitney's attack makes us a stronger advocate for the organization of a press association which would include the nine teachers colleges newspapers and Stout Institute. Delegates from the respective college papers could meet annually or semi-annually and discuss newspaper problems. Then too, such a journalism organization would enable Mr. Whitney and the Athletic Board to concentrate their efforts entirely upon specific rules governing "ineligibilities" and other athletic regulations in their own field.

Phi Sigs Hold Formal Initiation For Three

Three pledges, Bill Nason, Neal Rothman, and Arba Shorey received formal initiation into Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity in the men's lounge of the college last Tuesday evening.

Immediately following the ceremonies, the fraternity held its initiation banquet at the Gingham Tea Rooms. Thirty active and alumni members were present. Mr. Frank N. Spindler of the college faculty was the main speaker. He contrasted Oberlin college with Harvard University and narrated his collegiate experiences at both institutions. Faculty advisers Fred Schmeeckle and Eddie Kotal gave short talks. Messrs. Charles W. Nason and Win Rothman were guests of the Phi Sigs. Mr. Nason, cashier of the Citizens' National bank, discussed banking conditions with the group. Arthur Thompson, president of the fraternity, presided.

CONGRATULATIONS

Donald Mills, conference debater, is a proud papa these days. David Russell, an eight pound baby boy born last Saturday, is the new addition to the Mills family. Mrs. Mills was Jane Russell of Medford, a former student here.

A new men's lounging room was opened at Superior State Teachers college last week. The room will be used by the men students as a lounging and club room. It is interesting here to note that THERE ARE TO BE NO RESTRICTIONS ON SMOKING. Superior, it appears, is recognizing that even in teacher's college men are men.

Some more of our graduates who have attained prominence. The future will offer as good or better opportunities for success as the past. The present day students of this school should be inspired by what former students have done.

W. A. A.

We wish to correct a statement made in this column last week. Instead of four women left in the running for the championship, we find that, as the tournament is of the round-robin type, Bonita Newby, Velma Scribner, Ruth Reedall and Alice Sorenson have been picked as the leading contenders. So what?

One senior team, one junior, two sophomore and three freshman teams are entered in the round-robin volleyball tournament. Games are being played every Tuesday and Thursday in both gymnasiums to insure the completion of the tourney by Easter. The team line-ups may be found on the W. A. A. bulletin board where the results will also be posted. 'Tis rumored that there will be a grand picnic for contestants long about April 20th.

Dancers In Program

At last the twelve industrious "tappers" who have been struggling so valiantly each Wednesday and Friday evenings are getting their much-deserved recognition. They are making two appearances before Easter; on May 7th they will show the Business and Professional Women's Association some high-stepping, and on April 13 they are staging a real show for assembly.

Take That, Smarty!

A small boy, leading a donkey, was passing an army camp. A couple of soldiers wanted to tease the lad.

"What are you holding on to your brother so tightly for, my boy?" said one of them.

"So he won't enlist in the army," the young fellow replied, without blinking an eye.
