CHICAGO TRIP FOR COLLEGE STUDENTS SET

Special Excursion Will Afford Sight-Seers Fun On Tour Of City And World's Fair Buildings, April 29

Plans for a special excursion trip to Chicago for college students and their friends are practically complete. The date has been set for Saturday, April 29.

Private cars will accommodate the sight-seers and the special excursion will leave the local Soo Line depot at 1:01 Saturday morning. The train will arrive in Chicago Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

A Bargain Price

The college is sponsoring the trip and Mr. Raymond M. Rightsell of the faculty will be in personal charge of the tour. Railroad officials have quoted a "very attractive" price which will be announced within the next week. The round-trip ticket will include a breakfast, all cab fares, and admission to all buildings including the Century of Progress and World's Fair structures. Special guides will explain the World's Fair buildings to the students and guests.

Will Tour Chicago

New busses will convey the excursionists on a sight-seeing trip around Chicago which will start promptly at 9:30 o'clock and continue until 11 in the morning. At 11 o'clock the famous Shedd aquarium and the Field museum will be visited. The tourists will have time to lunch at the museum refreshment counter.

Special guides will then take the students on a tour through the World's Fair buildings, explaining the various phases of the Century of Progress undertaking.

Plenty Of Spare Time

Following the preview of the fair buildings the students will be given transportation to the Marshall-Field building in the

Wisconsin Legislature Sends Greetings To Kotal's Champs

Among the many telegrams and letters of congratulations received by Coach "Eddie" Kotal and his state champion basketball team recently is the following message from the Wisconsin Legislature:

Director Athletic Department
State Teachers' College
Stevens Point, Wisconsin

Dear Sir:

I have the pleasure of advising you that the Assembly this morning adopted the motion of Assemblyman John T. Kostuck of Portage County, offering the congratulations of this house to you and your basketball team for its victory over the team of the University of Wisconsin yesterday evening.

This is probably the first time that any athletic team of a state teachers' college has defeated a team of the university, and you and your team are indeed to be congratulated, both upon your victory and the sportsmanship exhibited during the game.

Sincerely yours,
JOHN J. SLOCUM
Chief Clerk of the Assembly

With its 36 to 33 victory over River Falls Friday night, Stevens Point Teachers' college closes the most successful basketball season experienced in the history of the school. Besides winning the championship in the teachers' college conference with 10 straight victories, the peds won eight non-conference games, including a 28 to 24 victory over the University of Wisconsin five at Wisconsin Rapids Monday, Feb. 27. They scored a total of 713 points during the year just closed, compared to 462 points for all opponents.

Reach Climax at Rapids

The Central Staters capped their successful season at the Rapids when they outplayed Doc Meanwell's Badgers before a crowd of about 5,000 people in the Lincoln field house at Wisconsin Rapids. It was one of the biggest upsets of the season in collegiate basketball.

Members of the championship Teachers' college squad are: Guy Krumm, Argonne, Larry Bishop, Antigo, and Art Thompson, Nolan Gregory and Waldo Marsh, all of Stevens Point, regulars; Ralph Bader, Bob Tardiff, and Earl Eckerson, Stevens Point; Leslie Omholt, Wisconsin Rapids; Harry Hansen, New Lisbon; Peter Peterson, Amherst, and Frank Klement, Leopold. Harris Shafton and Bill Herrick are student managers and Bobby Reading is mascot.

The record of the Teachers' team for the 1932-33 season follows (the first figure in each line is Stevens Point's Score):

- 54, Ironwood Jr. College 30.
- 26, Michigan Tech 23.
- 48, Northern State Teachers 29.
- 38, St. Norbert's 28.
- 39, Northern State 19.
- 34, St. Norbert's 19.
- 37, Alumni 26.
- 40, Oshkosh 25.
- 47, Stout Institute 31.
- 49, Eau Claire 31.
- 36, River Falls 28.
- 28, Whitewater 19.
- 48, Eau Claire 24.
- 46, Whitewater 24.
- 45, Stout 30.
- 34, Oshkosh 19.
- 28, University of Wisconsin 24.
- 36, River Falls 33.

Total points: Stevens Point, 713, opponents 462.

College Band Heads To Give Concert Today

The assembly program this morning will be in the hands of students of Mr. Michelsen's Director's course. Each member of the class is to direct a separate selection on the program. Incidentally, it might be well to add that, even though this is the Directors' show, the band will render its assistance by allowing itself to be directed. Although we have all seen many band directors in action, it should be interesting to note the various techniques required for different types of musical selections.

STATE DEBATE TOURNEY UNDER WAY THIS WEEK

Stevens Point And Eau Claire Draw Best Team Ratings. Finals Tomorrow

Debaters from seven State Teachers' Colleges are here this week to decide the championship of the Teachers' College loop. The question is Resolved: That the United States agree to the cancellation of inter-allied war debts. The tournament is a round robin affair, each team debating both sides of the question, and meeting a squad from each of the other schools. Each team shall have debated seven times before any eliminations are made. At that time, any squad having lost more than one debate shall be dropped, allowing only the undefeated teams to continue. This type of contest is being tried in the conference this year for the first time. Because of its location, Central State Teachers' College has been selected as the permanent meeting place for this tournament.

Two Teams Each

Superior, River Falls, Eau Claire, Oshkosh, Platteville, La Crosse and Stevens Point all entered two teams. The elimination rounds started yesterday morning, and will continue until each team has met seven opponents. Those teams continuing will be eliminated upon the loss of one debate. The tournament is expected to be concluded Friday afternoon or evening, depending upon the number of teams eliminated in the initial rounds.

Strong Competition Expected

Five of the teams entered have already had experience in this type of tournament, having participated in the St. Thomas contest. From the showings made in this tilt, Eau Claire, River Falls and Stevens Point seem to be the class of the tourney, although some "dark horse" may turn up.

The judges selected are Professors Weaver and Eubanks of the University of Wisconsin speech department, and Professor O'Neil of the Michigan department of speech. Because only three judges are available, it will be possible to hold but three debates at one time.

PACK THE EQUIPMENT IN MOTH BALLS

Whether the college Athletic Board will decide to have Coach "Eddie" Kotal pack his 1933 champion basketball equipment in moth balls for the year is a spicy topic which is being discussed both by students and downtown sport chatters.

A letter from the La Crosse Tribune Sports Editor intimates that Coach Johnson's runners-up La Crosse team is anxious to meet the "state champs". Offers from Marquette University and other strong colleges prove that it would be little trouble for the local board to contract a game with any of these institutions. But would there be any advantage in scheduling another game?

As far as athletic glory is concerned we've already reached the pinnacle. The gain would naturally lie on the financial end of the arc. When we played Wisconsin we had to accept their terms just to get a "crack" at them. Now the cards are different. We are in a position to dictate. Marquette, La Crosse and the others are the teams that are taking the initiative in proposing games.

It would be poor logic to consider La Crosse in preference to Marquette. We have won the conference title. La Crosse is second. Except for the personal satisfaction of sport fans in matching the relative strength of the two teams, there is nothing to gain except a few additional dollars for the athletic fund.

It is quite obvious that a game with Marquette would draw a better crowd than a match with the La Crosse quint. The attendance at the Wisconsin game proves that.

However, unless a truly attractive guarantee would be assured the local department it would be folly to consider any post-season game.

Every team eventually grows stale. Our Champs are no different. The Kotalmen have just completed one of the hardest schedules in the history of the school. Practices haven't been concentrated upon during the past week. We believe the players are fed up on the game for the year. The River Falls game proved that. Basketball fans are naturally losing interest in the sport with robins already chirping spring melodies.

Unless a neat little "golden egg" could be realized from any post-season tilt we are in accord with salting the equipment and pensioning the players for the season.

They Had Him Buffaloeed

Dear Editor: I never was so embarrassed in all my life as I was at the Mardi Gras dance last week.

I had really no desire to go to the dance (which is losing the old fun spirit and becoming more of a "wash-out" every year) but I bought two tickets one morning in school to help the "Iris" cause along. They told me that it would admit me to everything. That evening I called for my fair damsel and we took in the main show. By way of digression, before I called on my girl I paid a bill which took all but 15 cents of my entire cash on hand. But why worry — I had my tickets and assumed that my financial worries were over. After enjoying the main show and "Herb" Steiner's yodeling or tyroling we (my girl and I) dashed over to the new gym in order to spend a nice quiet evening of elbowing, kicking, and stumbling on other people's feet. Can you imagine??? — the robbers had blocked off the free lockers where we had always hung our coats. This was done for the purpose of draining another 20 cents from our strained billfolds. Alas! — What a predicament for me with only 15 cents in my pocket and the leeches wanting 20 cents. Luckily I found a friend who gave me the required nickel.

However — I am absolutely sick of these bloodsuckers who never seem to get enough. I am also through with any future money making schemes which are put on so as this cause and that cause may be benefited.

NICKELSHY

P.S. Maybe that 20 cents helped pay for that nickel's worth of trash that was thrown from the balcony near the end of the "fiasco".

LaCrosse Drops Us A Line

LaCrosse, Wisconsin March 1, 1933.

Coach Eddie Kotal State Teachers' College Stevens Point, Wis.

Dear Coach:

LaCrosse wants to congratulate you on your successful conquest of the University of Wisconsin basketball team, and we wish you continued success in the future.

Your victory, however, makes it all the more imperative that you meet the LaCrosse State Teachers' College basketball team before you close your season.

I am writing on my own initiative, although I know that Coach Howard Johnson desires a game or games with your institution. I believe your community and mine would both welcome such an attraction. I know that it would mean a great deal to both teams, financially.

I sincerely believe that the two institutions could meet in home and home engagements and attract great crowds in both places. Or, if you coaches would not care for two games, the two teams could meet at either school's gymnasium or on a neutral court.

Both teams are tired as a result of long, hard schedules, but, I believe, the men, themselves, would welcome

Wants College Baseball Team

Dear Editor: In a short time, some of our college athletes will be wondering what to do with their spare time and energy in order to keep in 'condition'. Why not adopt a Spring sport that the fellows will enjoy, and one that will furnish the proper amount of much-needed exercise? What I'm getting at is this: Why not organize Baseball as a regular sport? Equipment should cost comparatively little and material is certainly not lacking. And from what I've heard around school, interest is present in quantities.

I have often wondered just why it is that we continue to sponsor track; a sport that seems to be so limited and so lacking in student interest. Among other things, track involves considerable expense with no appreciable income. Lets talk it up!

SPORT NERT

Here's A Hot One

Dear Editor: In Physiology classes, education classes, and other classes we learn that in order to have efficient pupil activity we must have proper temperature and light conditions. For the past years our library has been a regular "furnace box" in all kinds of weather. Every one, students and faculty, are complaining about the unpleasant studying conditions—found in the most vital study room in school, our library. The writer agrees that the ventilation system is poor, but there are windows that can be opened and at least make it a little cooler. Coming from an afternoon's study in the library is about as strenuous as going out for track. Let's keep the library a little cooler. KOOL KOMFORT

POINTERS CLINCH CAGE TITLE

KOTALMEN NIP RIVER FALLS IN FINAL CONTEST

Close Battle Throws Scare Into New Champs As Local Peds Keep Clean Slate By 36-33 Win

Fighting before a packed gym in their last home game of the season the River Falls Falcons almost staged the biggest upset of the year when they held Eddie Kotal's Point basketeers to a 36 to 33 win last Friday.

Real Score

The new champs just couldn't get primed for the River Falls game. It seemed an anti-climax after the Oshkosh and Wisconsin games of the preceding weeks. The boys weren't over confident — they just couldn't get down to work.

River Falls was all set for the Kotalmen. A win over the locals would make a success out of a poor season. The fact that they could beat the team that beat Wisconsin was something to shoot at. And did they shoot!

Long Shots Win

It was only superior basketball sense that saved the Pointers. They were out-fought, almost outplayed, but Guy Krumm still had his eye for the basket and Art Thompson could still push in those shove-shots. The local defense was air-tight, but Morrow and Isaacson were deadly on long shots.

The first half ended with the Falcons leading by a score of 18 to 14 and the Pointers more surprised than anything else. Coach Cowle's laddies were out for bear, and the crowd was right with them. Their gym is small, and the mob made so much noise that the players couldn't hear the officials whistle.

Last-Minute Rally

The Pointers came back in the second half, tying the score and going ahead by a small margin. A last minute rally by the Falls, led by the little Isaacson, almost knotted the score, but a basket and a free throw by Larry Bishop just before the gun went off put the game on ice.

The lineup:

Stevens Point (36)—		FG	FT	PF
Krumm, f	6	0	3
Bishop, f	1	1	2
Thompson, c	5	1	4
Eckerson, c	0	1	1
Marsh, g	1	2	3
Gregory, g	1	3	4
Bader, g	0	0	0
TOTALS	14	8	17

River Falls (33)—		FG	FT	PF
Isaacson, f	3	1	3
Kuss, f	1	6	3

Reserves Responsible For Team's Conference Success

Now that the championship is in the bag and the suits are being packed it's time to pay a little tribute to the men that really helped to make the championship possible. We don't mean the men who scored the points and played in every game — we mean those reserves who played without the crowds to cheer.

Developed In Gym

Any team is really developed in the gymnasium, not on the floor after the whistle blows. Those nice plays and fancy shots take a lot of practise on those long afternoons. Without the reserves, men who have never missed a practise, men who were always ready to scrimmage the regulars, and men who often did what Wisconsin couldn't do, and beat them, our team couldn't have developed.

The regulars get the applause on the floor, and the space in the papers, but the subs have the satisfaction of knowing that they have done more than anyone else in molding the smooth-working aggregation on the floor. Without exaggeration we may say several of the men who sat on our bench could have made the first-string on almost any other team in the conference.

Give 'Em a Hand!

So here's a hand for Harry Hansen, Frank Klement, Bob Tardiff, Les Omholt, Pete Peterson, Earl Eckerson, and Ralph Bader. See you in there next year, fellows!

FLASHES

Our "state champs" were driven to Milwaukee Tuesday and saw Notre Dame defeat Marquette 36 to 34.

"Eddie" and the board members both favor the storing of the cage equipment in moth balls for the year. Good idea, 18 consecutive wins are enough.

A Milwaukee restaurant advertised that its steak was a la carte so "Art" told the waiter to wheel it in.

Myron Fritsch said the real college cheer is the check from home.

They also expressed a fear that Art Thompson might get on the All-Conference team. We want to know what a man has to do to get on an All-Conference team?

It is our honest belief that we have five men, man for man, and record for record, who compare favorably with any five men in the conference. In Krumm, Bishop, and Thompson we have three high-scoring offensive men. In Gregory and Marsh we have two of the cleverest guards in the state. Incidentally, the Point, playing ten conference games, has had less points scored on it per game, and has scored more points per game, than any other team in the state. And then La Crosse says we might get a man on the All-Conference team!

In the last football season we had a team which really lost only one conference game, that to Milwaukee, and defeated Whitewater, winners of the State title. When time came to pick an All-Conference team Stevens Point got two men mentioned on the second team. Oy, is this justice?

ALL-OPPONENT TEAM SELECTED BY POINTERS

Wisconsin, Oshkosh, And Stout Represented On Squad Picked By Courtmen

An all-opponent basketball team has been selected this week by Central State's championship quintet. All twelve of the men on the squad voted, and the resulting team represents what the Point considers its strongest opposition.

Our Selection

Tadych Forward Oshkosh
 Kuss Forward River Falls
 Wittig Center Oshkosh
 Poser Guard Wisconsin
 Stori Guard Stout

Wittig Center Choice

At center the majority of the votes favored Wittig, the elongated boy from Oshkosh who gave Art Thompson his greatest battle in jumping for the tip-off. Morrow of River Falls and Anderson of Stout were also considered.

At one forward position the locals favored Tadych, another Oshkosh man, who only became eligible in the second semester, and did not play here. He is said to be fast and a real fighter. At the other forward Kuss, River Falls captain, was an almost unanimous choice. He was the sparkplug of the Falcon offense.

Badgers Recognized

Other forwards who received votes were Lindow of Oshkosh, who starred here; Smithwick, big St. Norbert's forward; Smith, University of Wisconsin star, and Wichman, another Badger forward.

At guards the boys selected Poser of Wisconsin and Stori of Oshkosh as the outstanding men they faced. Poser was the star of the Badger aggregation at Wisconsin Rapids, and Stori kept Stout in the running this year. Close behind in the balloting was Stephenson of Whitewater, who qualifies as the conference selection. Other men considered were Stogbauer and Pugh of Oshkosh.

Pointers Make Team

Along this line, the Eau Claire Spectator listed an All-Opponent team selected by the Zornmen. They picked Bishop and Gregory of the Point, along with Morrow, Stori, and Kuss.

The Beauty School

by Helena Rubinstein
Noted Beauty Authority

Before retiring, give special attention to your forehead and the area about your eyes. Cleansing the skin with a good cream is the first step. Then, using the fingers of both hands, beginning at the center of the forehead, smooth on a youthifying tissue cream to coax away the impending lines. On the frown lines, use a gentle rotary movement, then a firm, lifting movement with palms of hands from eyebrow to hair line. The cream may be left on all night about the eyes and on the forehead.

Nothing adds such softness and beauty to what might otherwise be "ordinary" features as lovely brows and lashes. The eyebrows can be trained to a thin, glistening line, not by tweezing, but simply through a regular daily use of a tiny brush moistened with a little eyelash cream. Brush the lashes upward, using a little of the same cream — it darkens and at the same time promotes the growth.

If you use eye makeup, be very subtle with it. Don't use it as a rule for daytime. But for evening, used rightly, eye makeup can be a decided asset. A little shadow on the upper lids makes the eyes seem larger, softer, more expressive. In fact, the more romantic evening gowns lose half their glamour if the eyes are not shadowy and mysterious.

For more detailed information about preparations that will smooth out lines and make the eyes lovelier, more expressive, write to Helena Rubinstein (Personal Service) 8 E. 57th St., N.Y.C.

In spite of the present hard times the educational value and entertainment which the excursion affords warrants the undertaking, college authorities stated.

Mr. Rightsell said that 200 ticket sales must be guaranteed the railroad company. Two years ago a similar excursion was sponsored by the college and was hailed as a big success.

College Debaters Are Well Acquitted In St. Thomas Tourney

Two Stevens Point debaters, Donald Mills and Celestine Nuesse covered themselves with glory at the Northwestern Intercollegiate Debate Tournament held at St. Thomas College in St. Paul last week. Practically every college this team met are outstanding in the section of the country they represent. The first day of the tourney, Mills and Nuesse defeated Hastings University of Hastings, Nebraska, lost to the University of South Dakota, and won over Nebraska Wesleyan and St. Olaf College. The second day they defeated South Dakota State, and lost to the same Hastings team they previously defeated and lost to a women's team from Sioux Falls. Of these teams, Hastings, the University of South Dakota and Sioux Falls entered the semi-finals, and the Hastings team lost to St. Thomas for the championship.

On the other hand Tom Smith and Burton Hotvedt fared not so well, losing to the other Hastings team, South Dakota State and Gustavus Adolphus, while winning a solitary decision over Mayville State Teachers College of South Dakota.

Competition Keen

Twenty-two mid-western colleges of all classes entered the tournament, and competition was keen from the first. Many of the schools entered are famous for their debate teams, as is the case with St. Olaf, Luther, and St. Thomas. Last year a girl's team from Hastings University won the national girl's championship. The Wisconsin State Teachers College Conference was well represented, teams from Eau Claire, Superior, River Falls, Whitewater, Platteville and Stevens Point competing. Considering the showing made by our debaters, Stevens Point is regarded a strong favorite in the State Conference Tournament which started here yesterday.

Sigma Tau Delta Initiates Pledges; Banquet Later

Due to the present financial entanglement, Psi Beta Chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, National honorary English fraternity, has postponed the annual banquet for the initiation of new members until the material coinage flows a little more freely. Initiation services were performed at a meeting held in Miss Davis' room Monday evening, March 5, at 7:30 P. M.

After a short business meeting, the initiatory service was given to Patricia Cowan, Leone Cuff, Dorothy McLain, Marie Mechler, and Cedric Vig. Miss Cowan and Miss McLain were former associate members.

Mr. N. E. Knutzen presented a delightful song recital at a meeting of the Loyola Club, February 2nd. He played his own accompaniment and offered interesting comment concerning each of his selections, unifying them into a program greatly enjoyed by club members.

Father Kunding To Speak

The Loyola club is pleased to announce the appearance of Father Kunding, assistant at Sts. Peter and Paul church, Wisconsin Rapids. Father Kunding will be the speaker at the next meeting to be held on Thursday, March 16.

Margaret Ashmun Club

The regular meeting for the Margaret Ashmun Club was held Wednesday evening at 7:30 in Mr. Burroughs' room. Miss Mary Hanna had charge of the program and gave a very interesting sketch of "Modern American Drama". Miss Hanna had assisting her two of the club members; Margaret Morris and Olga Wolfgram. Miss Morris discussed the highlights of contemporary American poets and Miss Wolfgram presented her views on contemporary American fiction.

Rural Life Club Meets

The regular meeting of the Rural Life club in the Rural assembly rooms was held last Monday evening. The feature of the evening was a talk by Mr. Otto Lund on his experiences in the navy during the World War.

Other numbers on the program were; reading by Louise Nelson, vocal duet by Muriel Waid and Carol Anderson, and piano solos by Minnie Walker.

Mr. Karl Anderson, a Wisconsin State Library School student, who is doing his field work in the college library, is a new member of our merry dining-room family.

Mrs. Lewis Aschinger of Tigerton visited with her sister Mamie at the dormitory this week-end. Miss Seen was Mamie's guest at dinner Sunday. Mrs. Kay Van Buskirk was the guest of Sigrid Stark at dinner Monday evening.

Betty Hoepfer entertained her corridor at tea in honor of her birthday March first. Irene Miller was honored by a group of her friends at a special birthday table at dinner Sunday.

Carol Weldon is recovering after an attack of tonsillitis. Her mother spent Sunday with her. Leone Henrichs was surprised Tuesday with a visit from her family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henrichs and son Bob of Baileys Harbor.

Beginning this week there will be a ping-pong tournament, both singles and doubles, and a shuffleboard tournament in the women's room. A match will consist of two wins out of three. When a match has been played, scores must be recorded. Each match will count two points for the winner. Games must be played before April 13, so contestants are urged to play as soon as possible.

Those entering the ping-pong tournament are Thyrsa Iverson, Alice Sorenson, Velma Scribner, Bonita Newby, Ruth Reedal, Carol Anderson, Doris Leavens, Alta Stauffer, Kate Wiggins, Irene Miller, Reinetta Reisinger and Kate Slowey.

The doubles teams are Thyrsa Iverson and Alice Sorenson, Velma Scribner and Ruth Reedal, Doris Leavens and Carol Anderson.

The entrants in the shuffleboard tournament are Bonita Newby, Velma Scribner, Genevieve Podach and Gladys Bourcier.

Starting March 14, women's volley-ball will be held regularly on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 4 o'clock.

"Say It Isn't So" — that back in '29 when our Mr. Giovannini was an Alpha Delta campus leader up in Marquette, Mich., the gang called him "Peacho".

Now that the coeds have learned that gold basketballs and white "champ" sweaters have been ordered for our players lots of 'em will be sorta hanging around. Warning thou females, "Hands-Off Larry".

Today we interpret the abbreviation B. C. to mean "Banks Closed".

Our "state champs" aren't going hungry. You should see the dinner invitations listed on "Eddie's" calendar that are still in store for the boys. The college athletic committee had the team over to Schmeekle's last Sunday. Prexy Hyer and Regent Atwell were also present.

Local merchants are supporting a drive to raise money for a championship trophy for the team. The college manual training department has offered to build an attractive glass case for it. You'll maybe see it on the second floor along with the other spoils soon.

Mr. Schmeekle boasts of being the only person in college who saw every C. S. T. C. basketball game. Ya, including Kotal. "Eddie" missed the River Falls game here just for quinsy's sake.

Myron Fritsch deserves a knitted bathtub for his cheerleading. No foolin, Fritsch is the only "yeller" we got left. We started out with four at the start of the year. The depression got two and Oshkosh is holding the other as a hostage.

"John" and the Kampus Kitchen staff have a big surprise in store for the college gang tomorrow night at 7 bells. Be there but don't bring your own lunch.

15 Year Gap Between Champs Of 1918 And Champs Of 1933

This year's state championship basketball aggregation has made the old-timers scratch their heads to remember just when it was that the Point won her last championship. We find that the local school has been in the basketball doldrums since 1918, when we last won the state title.

Starting on the 1918 aggregation were Harry Hertzand, Aaron Ritchay, forwards, Erwin Smith, center, and Charles Burns and Dan Horne, guards. Ferdinand Krembs and Charles Horne were reserves. S. A. Tenison was the coach.

Beat La Crosse

The old-timers won the title by defeating La Crosse in a "crooshal" game. They were ambitious in their competition, playing both Lawrence and Ripon back in the days when those colleges were institutions. It seems funny to think that some fifteen years hence some Pointer writer may look up the record of our own team and get flippant about it. Ah, me.

L. Gordon, '32 Is Success As Debate Coach

Every now and then we hear of Stevens Point graduates who are making good, and here is one. Laurin Gordon, four year degree graduate of the class of 1932, and now teaching English at the Wittenburg high school, has just completed a successful season as debate coach of that school by winning all of the six debates in his conference. This is Wittenburg's first year of active participation in the conference. It was through the efforts of Gordon that debate was introduced into the school activities program.

While at Central State, Gordon won his letter in debate for three years, was president of Sigma Tau Delta during his Junior year, and was active in Forum, Oratory, Extemporaneous Speaking, Margaret Ashmun club, Iris, and Pointer work.

Laurie Peterson, also a graduate of Central State, is Principal of the Wittenburg high school.

Housekeeper: "No-o, I think the feet are cut off."
Butcher (with superior smile): "I thought so. When we sell a turkey, ma'am, we sell it feet and all."
