

MUSIC FESTIVAL HERE ON APRIL 20

FORMAL DANCES WILL ENTERTAIN SOCIAL GROUPS

Fraternities and Sororities
Hold Annual Banquets and Dances in Apr. and May

Fraternity and sorority spring formals will afford students plenty of social life during the next two months.

Chi Delt Formal

The Greek social season will be officially opened when Chi Delta Rho gives its annual banquet and formal dance at Hotel Whiting on Friday, April 20. The fraternity has engaged Howard Kraemer's Orchestra for the event. We understand that this band played for an all University event in Madison this week. The banquet for active and alumni members and their friends will be held at 6:45 o'clock. Students and Faculty members are invited and outsiders will be mailed invitations to attend the dance from 9 until 1 o'clock.

Tau Gam — Apr. 27

On Friday evening, April 27, Tau Gamma Beta sorority will hold its annual banquet and dance at the Whiting. The Tau Gams have contracted "Cliff" Reichenberger to furnish the music for their spring formal.

Phi Sig Dance

Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity will hold its banquet and formal dance at Hotel Whiting on Friday, May 11. Jack Cameron and his orchestra will play for the Phi Sig dance. The entertainment will be featured by a floor show.

Omega's At Wausau

The season will terminate with the Omega Mu Chi banquet and formal dance, which will be held at Hotel Wausau, Wausau, Wisconsin on Friday, May 25. Glenn Geneva and his orchestra have been engaged to furnish the music for this event. The Omegas have changed the date of their spring formal from May 18 to May 25, because of a convention of the B. P. W. Club, which will be held here on the former date.

The Greek Council has decided that $2.00 will be the uniform tariff for this year's spring formals.

Junior Prom Success

More than 160 couples attended the college Junior Prom which was held in the new gym last Friday night. We are informed that after all expenses are paid there will be a comfortable balance. The profit from the prom will be added to the '35 "Iris" treasury.

Twenty seven high school bands from central Wisconsin will perform here before large crowds one week from tomorrow, Friday, April 20. The grand parade, in which one thousand musicians will march, will be led by Peter J. Michelsen's Central State Teachers College band.

Ashmun Club Holds Annual Story Contest

In keeping with its annual custom, the Margaret Ashmun Club announces its annual short story contest, open to all regularly enrolled students of this college. The purpose of the contest is to encourage and stimulate literary endeavor among the student body. Agnes Madsen has been chosen chairman of the contest committee with Cletus Collins and Thyrsa Iverson assisting her. Judges have not been selected to date.

Originality Stressed

Stories will be judged on originality.

Reunion Of Alumni At Commencement To Be Big Celebration

Preparations for the fortieth anniversary celebration of Central State Teachers College which is to be held during commencement week of June, 1934 are well under way. The Alumni reunion, which is to be the big event of the celebration, will take place on Friday evening, June 8.

Many Return

To date it is known that at least four members of the original faculty of the institution will be present. They are: Dr. J. V. Collins, Mrs. Mary D. Bradford, Dr. G. Culver and Prof. A. H. Sanford. Many alumni, both old and recent graduates, have indicated their desire to be present for this occasion. One of the largest crowds ever to gather on the campus of C. S. T. C. is anticipated at this time.

Walter Bruce, Principal High School at Necedah, Wisconsin, a member of the class of 1926, is President of the Alumni Association.

Further plans for the event will appear in following issues of The Pointer.

Cast Parts For Senior Class Play

Wednesday, May second has been chosen for the presentation of the annual Senior Class Play to be given in the collegio auditorium, "Skidding", a comedy in three acts by Aurania Rouveral, was selected by the committee because of its (the play's) almost universal appeal. As a matter of fact, the cast has already been selected and a rehearsal held in the auditorium Saturday morning.

Skidding's The Name

According to Miss Ruby Tilleson, who is coaching the production, it is an exceptionally fine play and much talent has been uprooted from within the folds of the Senior class and included in the cast. At present, there is but one part left: that of Judge Hardy. Miss Tilleson will welcome the appearance of any enterprising Senior thespian who is able to muster the dignity required by this role.

One Role Still Open

Parts have been assigned to the following upper classmen:—Aunt Milly, Ella Kleist; Andy, Cletus Collins; Mrs. Hardy, Loretta Rebmann; Grandpa Hardy, Tom Ringness; Estella Hardy Campbell, Vivian Johnson; Marion Hardy, Carolyn Hanson; Wayne Trenton, Pete Peterson; Mr. Stubbins, Art Kussman; Myra, Marjorie Pearson.

"Playing The Game," Rural Play, Shifted To Tuesday, May 22

The Pointer has been asked to announce a change in the date of presentation of "Playing the Game," a three act comedy-drama to be presented by the Rural Life Club under the direction of Miss Mary Hanna. The play will be presented on Tuesday, May 22, instead of April 30, as announced in last week's Pointer because of conflicting schedules.

TWENTY SEVEN HIGH SCHOOLS WILL PERFORM

More than 1000 Musicians
To Take Part; Over 3000
Visitors Expected

Next Friday, April 20, one week from tomorrow, Central State Teachers College will be host at one of the greatest musical festivals ever presented in Central Wisconsin. Mr. Michelsen, head of the local music department, is the sponsor and is in charge of the program.

Eight Orchestras

Twenty seven high school bands and eight orchestras, the college band and orchestra, and a drum corps from the Mary D. Bradford Training School will take part in the activities.

At 8:30 A. M. both at the Stevens Point high school and in the college auditorium action will begin for a full day of musical entertainment. Each unit will be given the opportunity to appear in concert presenting a limited number of selections. Sixteen schools will participate in the forenoon. In the afternoon the remainder of the organizations will present their wares.

Grand Parade

A grand parade to the downtown section of the city which will wind up at Schmeekle athletic field with a mass concert, in which more than one thousand high school musicians will take

THE GLORIOUS PAST OF HIGH SCHOOL DAYS

Of all insufferable people, one of the worst is the bore who is continually mentioning his past history. Who wants to spend an evening with a girl who persistently talks about her boy friend back home, the places she has been, and how popular she was in high school? Is it not equally distasteful to listen to the man who modestly admits that in his high school days (I'd call it daze!) he was the "big shot" star of the basketball team, or the recipient of straight A's.

After all, we now are in a higher institution of learning and should be looking forward, not backward. Why comment at all on past virtues and honors, for who is really interested? If one really is distinguished or possesses ability in a particular line, he will not need to broadcast the fact, for his talent will soon be discovered and acknowledged.

Then, too, the complexity of college life offers so many opportunities for recognition in the line in which you are interested that it seems unwise to attempt to live in past glory. Would there be any legitimate reason for not continuing in college to receive the honor and recognition obtained in high school if one's accomplishments are of the same calibre? Obviously, no.

If one lets past honor inspire him to greater heights instead of being overcome by them, there would be more doing and less "gushing."
— "The Stoutonia".

part, will end the afternoon musical festivities. The program will reopen in the main auditorium at 7 o'clock that evening. It will close at approximately 10 P. M. with the presentation of plaques by President Frank S. Hyer.

Distinctive Critics

This is not a competitive contest; rather it is a musical festival in which all bands and orchestras will participate without a feeling of competition, for the sole purpose of receiving helpful and constructive criticisms of their work by outstanding men in the field. The critics are: Col. Vesey Walker, a member of Gov. Schmiedeman's military staff and director of the famous American Legion Band of Milwaukee; John Paul Schenk, director and supervisor of music in the public schools of Green Bay, formerly a baritone soloist with Brook's Concert Band and at one time Director of the Civic Orchestra of Portland, Oregon.

To Broadcast

Several musical instrument companies have indicated their desire to have the privilege of showing their goods here upon that day.

For a period of two and one quarter hours during the course of events the melodies will be picked up by the local radio station, WLBL, and broadcast throughout Central Wisconsin.

Mr. Michelsen has estimated that if weather conditions are favorable more than three thousand visitors will be here that day. We will be the host to Principals, Superintendents, and Supervisors from many of Wisconsin's, and other neighboring state's, major high schools.

Townpeople have co-operated in their usually helpful manner in taking care of the advance preparations. Many details are yet to be taken care of in arranging for meals and lodgings for the visitors, parking of cars, etc. College students who would be able to assist Mr. Michelsen in executing his plans ought to get in touch with him immediately.

Band Concert

Last night, at 8:15 o'clock, in the college auditorium, the local band under the direction of Peter J. Michelsen, thoroughly demonstrated its superior ability, and gave the large audience an indication of the calibre of entertainment they may look forward to next week.

Due to the fact that Mr. Michelsen had sent out more than five hundred invitations to students of high schools from this area many of the auditors were strangers to the college.

ATTENTION! GRADUATES!

As you perhaps will remember, this Commencement will mark the fortieth anniversary of the founding of this school.

We hope that you are planning to be here for the Alumni Banquet Friday evening, June 8th, and for the commencement exercises Saturday June 9th, at ten o'clock a. m.

We hope for the largest gathering of graduates ever known in the history of the school, both of the older and younger graduates. We hope that Mrs. Bradford, Professor Culver, Professor Sanford, Professor Collins, Miss Quinn, and perhaps others of the original faculty of this school will be present at the banquet and at the commencement exercises.

Drop us a card if you can be here, especially if you can be here for the banquet, June 8th, so that we can make reservations for you.

Please note that the summer school session will open June 18th for six weeks.

This is a wonderful opportunity for you to make six credits towards your degree or towards any course you are pursuing here. Write us for a summer school bulletin. We shall be glad to send it at once.

If you know of any people who are planning to go to college this fall, recommend to them that they start in the summer school. Send us their names, and we shall be glad to mail them a bulletin.

SPRING SEES ANNUAL CRIES FOR BASEBALL

Mish Thinks We Should Have Team. So Does Coach And Everybody Else

Spring weather brings the sound of baseballs dropping into gloves, mud, and windows. "Sarge" Mish has been getting his team organized with light workouts the past week. The great amount of talent available is certainly encouraging, with outstanding men from all over Wisconsin. To pick out any of them would probably be slighting others whom we have never watched. However, most of the students and townspeople recognize many league players from this list: "Jug" Marsh, Johnny Bombera, Don Unferth, Bob Broome, "Sarge" Mish, and N. Crosby.

Large Turnout

Others who have signed up include Garry Holm, John Collins, Frank Klement, Pat Christian, Gil Busch, Frost Bassler, Sam Gilson, Harold Sultz, Fred Lowe, Ed Domke, Pete Peterson, Cletus Collins, Gerald Porter, Charles McDonald, Ken Olson, Loren Olson, Ray Urbans, Bob Steiner, Milton Anderson, Ronald Neff, A. Schulz, R. Ehler, Bodmer, Exner, John Olsen, Gregory, and Lang.

Top Ringers

This talent includes pitchers, catchers, infielders, outfielders, and outstanding sluggers says Mish. Unferth and Broome composed the regular battery for the Stevens Point Brewers. Jug Marsh and Johnny Bombera were outstanding first basemen on two Point teams. Frost and Staffon had batting averages that led their circuits last year.

We Want One, Too

Platteville, River Falls, La Crosse, Eau Claire, and possibly Oshkosh will have teams. Mish claims that with the talent signed up he can put a team on the field that would play on even terms with any college team.

32 Sign For Tennis Tourney Thompson To Coach Team

Art Thompson had so many answers to his call for tennis men that a tournament has been set for next week starting Monday. In the singles division 32 men have signed up and 16 doubles teams are listed. Doubles teams include:

A. Gordon, D. Schwahn
C. Collins, Neale
Gregory, Ritchay
Krumm, Ash, Shorey
F. Menzel, T. Menzel
Theisen, Knudsen
Brown, Abel
Schultze, J. Collins
Hansen, Thompson
Tesmer, Schulte
M. Brown, Beppler

Peterson, Arb. Shorey
Skinner, Tardiff
Murray, W. Schwahn
Herriek, D. Rothman

Thompson has seeded the veteran players in two groups of five. Neale, Gordon, Collins, Schwahn, Skinner, are the first group. Willy Schwahn, Dick Rothman, Tardiff, Knudsen, and Prof. Hansen make up the next five.

The tennis team plans to travel with the track team and engage in matches with whatever school is being met on the field. This is possible since nearly every school in the conference has a tennis team. Plans for the state tournament are still quite vague.

BILL'S BULL

Fritz Crisler who speaks in assembly today brings the type of program the students have been asking for. The only way President Hyer can tell what kind of programs the students like is by the turnout, and response of the student body.

Only nineteen more days left before trout season opens. The point as to whether May 1 is a good time to catch trout is one that has been contested by many sportsmen. However, the fact remains that getting out there next to nature for the first time and the chance of hooking a few of those little scrappers is the main idea.

With big league baseball about to start it looks as if the Cubs will have the best chance in the National League if the pitching comes up to even a fair degree. The batting punch added by Klein and Babe Herman's return to form make the Bruins a strong team at the bat. Their pitching has been poor so far but if the old veterans have a fair season we expect the Cubs to come out on top.

College track men have begun work and prospects look fair. Oshkosh seems to be the team to beat in track.

Collins says that what this school needs is less Senior Balls and more tennis balls. Sounds like a racket.

ality, plot, and local color, and must not exceed 2500 words in length. The contest begins today and closes May 15. All entries are to be presented to Mr. Burroughs, Ella Kleist, president of the club, or to Agnes Madsen, chairman of the committee.

Winners will be announced at the annual banquet of the club the latter part of May. The author of the prize winning composition will receive a membership to the Margaret Ashmun Club. Winners of second and third prizes are also to receive suitable awards.

LOCAL BOXERS FACE PLENTY TOUGH OUTFIT

Joe Steinbauer, Wisconsin U
Boxing Instructor To Referee Fights

Tomorrow, Friday the 13th, (beware) the new college boxing team gets its first test against an equally new Platteville squad. A return match here on April 21 will give students and townspeople a chance to see intercollegiate boxing.

Platteville picked its team in a tournament last week before an enthusiastic crowd of 800 fans. After two knockouts and a bunch of good scraps the pugilistic squad was picked. The Point team has been training for the past two weeks, so the match ought to be a real high class performance.

Joe Steinbauer, boxing instructor at the University of Wisconsin, is to be referee. The bouts are to be three rounds at two minutes a round. To insure real fighting there will be no draws or extra rounds. A winner is picked by Steinbauer after each fight.

If arrangements are completed satisfactorily, Chuck Sparhawk will meet the Platteville's local hope in a five minute wrestling bout. Probable matchings for the card are as follows.

Platteville	Stevens Point
Joslin	Roshak
Richardson	Hayes
Polich	Torbenson
Hoskins	Beppler
Price	Zaborski
Pair	Zurfluh
Kreutz	McGuire
Beaster	Laabs
Myers	Berard
Stanton	Slotwinski, Bruno
Moore	Slotwinski, Ben
Myers	Winn

"Punk" Winn would like to get in the scrap but his work might keep him out. Therefore, his selection is tentative.

DEBATE SEASON ENDS WITH TRIP TO LEXINGTON

Nuesse, Collins And Mills
Graduate In June. Squad
Sets Good Record

The 1934 debating season draws to a close as one of the most successful in the history of Central State Teachers College. The teams coached by Professor Leland M. Burroughs participated in thirty-six decision contests, winning twenty-four of them. In addition they engaged in twelve no-decision contests with various colleges in the state. Three tournaments were entered.

Won 16, Lost 7

Donald Mills of Medford and Celestine Nuesse of Sturgeon Bay comprised one team, winning sixteen debates and losing seven. Cletus Collins of Kendall and Michael Zyka of Stevens Point won eight and lost four. Willard Hanson and Gerald Porter, both freshman from Stevens Point, were other members of the squad.

Gave Exhibitions

At the beginning of the season members of the squad appeared in exhibitions before the High Schools in Birnamwood, Tigerton, Antigo, and Rosholt. Other exhibitions were given before the local Kiwanis Club and the Young Democratic Association.

Some of the most interesting no-decision encounters were those against the Hesperia Literary Society of the University at Madison, the triangular meet with the teachers colleges from La Crosse and Oshkosh, Lawrence College and Ripon College.

The teams first entered the practise tournament at Illinois State Normal University, Normal Illinois. Here was the first indication of the season's success, for C. S. T. C. made the best school record there, winning eleven out of fifteen contests.

Won Third Place

For the successive year, the Northwest Inter-collegiate Tournament at the College of St. Thomas, St. Paul, Minnesota, was entered. Here the combination of Nuesse and Mills won third place, losing only to Hastings College of Hastings, Nebraska, in the semi-finals. Hastings won the tournament. Among the strong teams defeated in these contests were those from the College of St. Thomas, Nebraska Wesleyan University, Northern State Teachers of Aberdeen, South Dakota, St. Olaf's College, and the University of South Dakota. The squad won a total of ten out of fifteen debates at this tournament.

Won 3, Lost 2

The feature of the season was participation as a petitioning college in the national convention tournament of Pi Kappa Delta forensic fraternity. Mills and Nuesse represented C. S. T. C. in debate and Michael Zyka in extemporaneous speaking. Cletus Collins accompanied the squad to Lexington, Kentucky, as alternate. Here the team participated in the first five rounds of debate, winning three and losing two contests. Outstanding teams defeated were those from Baylor University of Texas and the University of Texas and the University of Puget Sound, Washington. The trip to Lexington occupied the week of Easter vacation, and was interesting throughout.

Zyka Only Veteran

Zyka will be the only veteran returning next year, since Collins, Mills and Nuesse graduate in June. Mr. Burroughs will also have Hanson and Porter to work with, these two men having participated in several debates this season.

Local French Students To Attend Play

A number of C. S. T. C. French students will accept the special invitation of the Department of French and Italian at the University of Wisconsin to come to Madison April 14 as guests of that Department. The French play "Blanchette", the masterpiece of Eugene Brieux, is to be given on that date.

Educational Theme

The theme treats the effects of higher education on the masses, the difficulties of finding opportunities to use this training, and the problems that arise in educating youth beyond its home environment and the family. It is a play of gripping interest thoroughly realistic in its picture of French village life. It should be especially interesting to students of third year French here, as in their survey course this year they have read plays extensively and among them one by Brieux — Les Trois Filles de Monsieur Dupont.

The play will be directed by Professor Russo and includes native French instructors in the cast, in addition to other faculty members and advanced French students. The opportunity to hear good French diction and a fine interpretation is exceptional.

To See Art Collection

All guests will be invited to tea at the French House — La Maison Francaise — following the performance. An opportunity will be given to see the remarkable collection of fine pictures of 134 famous statesmen and literary men, such as Foch, Clemenceau, Herriot, Claudel, Brieux, Currel, Valery, etc., which were recently autographed and presented to the University of Wisconsin and are now framed and on exhibition.

NELSON HALL

The Nelson Hall girls presented a galaxy of fashions the night of the Junior Prom when they promenaded the halls in their sophisticated gowns. The scene was quite the opposite, however, when the girls turned out the other night as youngsters with hair ribbons etc. which they wore when attending the Primary Kid Party.

Two new girls, Vivian Staven and Myrtle Hoff have taken up residence at the dorm. Alice Martin has returned after a siege of scarlet fever.

That curiosity ran rampant was evident from the furtive heads in windows and stairways last weekend. No wonder, with all the strange men up for the Prom. One even came from Minnesota for the event.

Dresses For The Coed

We realize that during these trying times the average college girl can't afford a new spring dress for every social function — so we've just received a shipment of new spring dresses, frocks and semi-formal gowns that are within range of the student's purse yet clever enough to make any coed envious.

Our cheery colored dresses and gowns will be just the thing for those spring parties and college functions.

FAMOUS COACH GIVES LECTURE ON ATHLETICS

H. O. "Fritz" Crisler, Head Coach
At Princeton "U" Appears
In Assembly Today

In 1927, Amos Alonzo Stagg wrote his autobiography, "Touch-down". On page 331 of that volume is the following sentence: "Fritz Crisler, now an assistant in my department, the man who with Captain McGuire had boxed Stanley Keck so effectively at Princeton, played one of the greatest games at end in my experience". That same H. O. "Fritz" Crisler, who is now Head Football and Head Basketball Coach at Princeton University, will appear here at the regular Thursday morning assembly at 10 o'clock today, April 12. Incidentally, we might mention that he is the only man to handle both major sports in a great University.

Game Too Rough

By accident, so the story goes, Crisler went out for freshmen football at the University of Chicago. His first afternoon with the squad was spent, according to Mr. Bill Cunningham, in the November 18, 1933 Collier's, breaking up interference from an end position. "That interference was led by 'Big Charley' Higgins, 220 pounds of path-blasting fullback, later a Chicago captain of All-Conference luster. Higgins knocked Crisler almost into the bleachers everytime they collided. Barely able to drag himself into his clothes, young Mr. Crisler decided football was distinctly overrated as a pleasurable sport and he quietly determined to fail to show up thereafter". However, his absence was for only a period of one week. Before his college days were over he had received the distinction of being rated an All-American football player, an All-Conference Basketball Guard, and a Varsity Baseball Pitcher.

Assistant To Stagg

Following his graduation in 1922 he became personal assistant to A. A. Stagg at his Alma Mater, a position he held until 1930. In that year he refused an offer to go to the University of Minnesota as Director of Athletics but accepted the job of head football coach. His teams there were successful. In 1932 he took up the reins at Princeton University. The Bengals had just completed three or four of the most demoralizing football campaigns in their gridiron history. Look what happened at Princeton during the past season. They outscored their opponents 218 to 8. 6 of those Rutgers was responsible for, and the other 2 were chalked up by Yale. They went through a schedule of nine games without a loss or a tie to mar their record.

That: — From snowstorms and blizzards we went to the sunny south — good old Kentucky, the home of the blue grass.

A great time was had by everyone, including Mike Zylka. Poor Mike got a paddling in five different states, 50 counties and about 200 towns—large and small. Such is the life of a PLEDGE?

Had our picture taken with "Twenty Grand", that famous race horse. For prints inquire at the Phi Sig Fraternity house.

We all got quite a kick out of "you all" and "right smart". They do have a southern drawl. It didn't take Nuesse long to acquire it. Just listen to him some time.

We had the pleasure of staying at four different hotels, but all we could bring home for proof was soap. Well we need it at the house anyway.

Among the major attractions that were visited in Chicago were included, The Field Museum, The Shedd Aquarium, The Garfield Botanical Gardens and the Ghetto. Had a nice time there.

Southern gals are all-right. Hospitality prevails throughout — Oh Ya?

The dishes weren't the cleanest. We had to use our napkins, at times, to wipe out the grease spots. Waitresses are pretty nice.

Our delegation came to the front by appearing in short sleeves. It was rather warm — about 90 degrees above. No covers at night and a cold shower every morning.

Impressive Victories

Included in their string of victories was a 20-0 licking handed to Columbia, who later defeated Stanford 7-0, in the annual Rose Bowl game for the mythical national championship.

Students and faculty are fortunate to have this opportunity to meet this successful, mild mannered, ministerial looking young man of thirty-four years who is the director of the royal bengal from Princeton University, and a man whose teams look good even in defeat.
