Reception Line Will Form At Eight-thirty - March Miss O’clock

Local Resident
Miss Joy is a resident of Stevens Point, and a graduate of the local high school. Since her graduation from the secondary institution in 1932 she has been a student at C. E. C. where she is a sophomore in the high school department. Miss Joy is a prominent member of Tau Gamma Beta sorority.

Schwan Heads Line
Healing the reception line, which will form at 8:30 o’clock and disband at 9:00, will be Wilson Schwan, chairman of the dance, and Miss Thyrza Iverson, followed by Miss Krumm and Miss Joy. NATIONAL MEET AT LEXINGTON
DEBATERS’ GOAL

Nuese, Mills, Collins, And Zylka Leave With Burrushes For Kentucky Friday

Tomorrow afternoon, Friday, March 30, debate coach Leland M. Burrushes and his four proteges, Celestine J. Nuese, Donald Mills, Cletus Collins, and Mike Zylka, leave for Lexington, Ky., where the first two men will enter in the national convention debate tournament sponsored by Pi Kappa Delta fraternity, to be held April 2 to 6 inclusive.

Mike Zylka is entered in the extemporean speaking contest, while Collins is official alternate to Nuese and Mills in the event that either of them should become incapacitated.

Stop At Ripon
The first stop of the journey will be Ripon College, Ripon, Wis. Our affirmative team will meet a negative squad Friday night. Professor James of Oshkosh State Teachers College will be the judge. Saturday morning they will tackle the University of Wisconsin in a practice session. That afternoon they will get to the blue grass state begins.

Seek Pi Kappa Delta Unit
Formal application has been made for a chapter of Pi Kappa Delta to be instituted at this college. This forensic society has chapters at colleges and universities throughout the coast. In the neighborhood of one hundred and fifty schools will be represented in the tournament at Lexington. Those from C. E. C. who are eligible for membership in the fraternity are Professor Burrushes, Cletus Collins, Jack Burrushes, Donald Mills, Celestine J. Nuese, and Mike Zylka.

Today two teams composed of Mills and Nuese vs. Collins and Zylka will give an exhibition before the Young Democratic Club at the court house in this city.

Men’s Lounge Gets Needed Coat Of Paint

The profits gained from the dance which was sponsored by the Men’s Room recently, have already reached their destination and prove their value. If you don’t get what you’re raving about just take a peek into the room on your next trip by and see for yourself. The walls have been neatly redecorated with cream colored paint having a special characteristic of being two shades darker near the bottom than at the top. The woodwork has taken on aspects of being buff in coloration, and the shabby appearing bulletin boards have been removed. All around the top is an especially attractive border of purple and gold. The floor has likewise received a new coat of maroon finish.

Complete Redecoration

On the wall spaces between the windows we find pennants of the nine Teachers Colleges of the state, Stout Institute and the University of Wisconsin. These pennants are unusually designed, being made up with plastic paints which give them a ‘felt texture’ appearance. The letters are raised and bear the colors of their respective schools.

Playing The Game Chosen As Rural Play

“Playing The Game”, a three act comedy-drama, has been selected by the Rural Life Club for its annual play to be given on Monday evening, April 30, at eight o’clock. Rehearsals are well under way for the production. The performance will be given in the college auditorium.

Eleven In Cast

Eleven people are included in the cast of the production. Only members of the Rural Life Club have been cast for the parts. They are: Elizabeth Brockbank, Virginia Busse, Gertrude Zuch, Eleanor Marshall, Genevieve Rupp, Irene Jensen, Bob Neale, Erno Tutt, August Gabriel, Donald Hamilton, and Ole Schleuen.

Miss Hannah is coaching the production. Further information relative to the play will appear in a later issue of the ‘Pointer’.

Primaries Plan Kid Party April 9

A “kid party” is the unique entertainment in store for members of the Primary department May 9. Games and a program suitable for this festive promise to be pleasantly diverting. Evelyn Stephenson is in charge, with the program committee—Misses Colman, Biser, To- bis, and Brown are chaperones for the evening.
HIGHER STANDARDS

It may appear to be quite doubtful to many of the present Teachers College Students, but we believe that to the majority of them the idea of raising the Standards of Teaching, probably in accordance with the suggestion offered by the Council on Education on the Wisconsin Teachers Association, which appears on this page, would be decidedly benefactive to this profession. The Council states, "The training necessary for elementary school graduation as a minimum qualification for teaching on any level in our state." This almost undoubtedly would put the Teaching profession up to where other professions would be decidedly benefactive to this profession. The Council states, "We support a four year course beyond high school graduation as a minimum qualification for teaching on any level in our state." This almost undoubtedly would put the Teaching profession up to where it actually belongs, where it would be rated equally with other professions in the eyes of the public. There perhaps would remain a slight tendency for the standard to remain somewhat below that of other professions in that the training necessary for elementary teachers could be completed at state supported institutions, thereby drawing young men and women into the field who are not at all fitted for the work.

On the whole, the level of the profession would be raised considerably. Shifting to Secondary and Higher Educational fields, preparation along those lines would result in the public schools for the first time placing their part-time and evening schools on an equal level with the regular educational fields pre-high schools and higher educational fields are controlled by the public school system and are not state supported. The people of the state should be held in trust for public education and not be deprived of control of our education by state support up to 50% of the cost of the public elementary and secondary schools.

NO JUSTIFICATION FOR FRATERNAL ORDEALS

The fraternity "testing" program has changed in the last few years, and it was about time that it did. There can be no justification for the so-called "hazing" test. It doesn't make "men" out of one's contacts the same with their families. Hazing persists because there is a certain element in the fraternities which to evade the social obligations of our commonwealth. We insist that public high schools must support a curriculum adequate to prepare such health services as medical examination, school nurses, clinics, and nutrition.

Administrative Reorganization

We favor such a reorganization of the county and state systems of education as will result in a more effective administration through the appointment of responsible and capable administrators.

Knutsen Entertains Glee Club at Tea Room

The Men's Glee Club was entertained at the Gingham Tea Room last evening by Mr. Norman E. Knutsen, director of the organization. President F. S. Hyer and Dean Steiner were guests of honor.

In connection with the social side of the evening, plans were made regarding further appearances at the city's home games. In some cases it was evident that the group will make appearances in some of the larger high schools in this vicinity.

A compliment always passes for more than its face value.
PIONEER FIGHT CARD APRIL 12; NO TOURNAMENT

Boxing Team Selected
Train Regularly For First Test

The elimination tournament schedule for tonight has been dropped, due to the fact that most students will be going home for the holidays. The college boxing team has been selected, however, and the men are working hard in preparation for the card at Platteville, April 13. Stanley Rosshak, Lloyd Hayes, Charles Torbenson, Russ Beppler, Peter Zaborksi, Alvin Zerfah, Art Laabs, Web Beigel, Bruno Slotwinski, and Mickey McGuire are the punch-throwers who will carry the Purple and Gold as they invade the padded rings of the Pioneers.

Fight At Platteville

College fans will have a chance to see the team in action when a return match with Platteville takes place shortly after the meet there. Other matches between colleges are being scheduled, with St. Norbert's as the best bet.

This year marks the inauguration of boxing as an intercollege sport at Central State. The progress in athletics this school has made under Coach Eddie Kotal has not only brought us winning teams, but also a much wider distribution of sports than ever before in the history of the school. Kotal has been instrumental in the backing of boxing, tennis, track, baseball, volleyball, golf, cross-country running, tumbling, wrestling, and intramural games of all kinds. An athletically minded man ought to be able to find exercise and experience along nearly any line of work.

Wide Activity Range

The intramural and interclass tournaments give even the poorest players a chance for competition and exercise. Our institution has progressed rapidly along the lines of scholarship, athleticism, and extra-curricular activities to such an extent that new fields are open to every mind and body. The opportunities at C. S. T. C. are certainly vast, and it does not pay to pass them all by.

The charity that begins at home doesn't make many acquaintances abroad.

BILL'S BULL

April 12 is the date set for the annual basketball banquet. Fritz Crioler, coach at Princeton, is to be great speaker. Such an accomplished and well-versed speaker is a treat well worthy of our guest.

Tumbling is getting underway with Art Thompson as head tumbler and coach. Men working out are Jimmy McGuire, Charles Spain, Bill Theisen, Leonard Schen, John Wied, Art Russmann, and Clifford Elliot. Coach Tommy plans to put on an entertainment in May.

Plans for the fraternity kitten tent ball tournament will soon begin. Several of the fellows wanted to know if a certain Frank on the west side of town belonged to the Chi Delta's. He seems to have in his possession an article closely resembling the trophy won in last year's battle.

Meeting

At the monthly meeting last night plans were begun for the event of the year: the annual day at which the W.A.A. members are hostesses to girls of all the surrounding high schools within a certain radius. Following the meeting the cast attended the theatre benefit.

33 A Poor Season

Last year the racquetouters were not very successful in intercollegiate competition. SPECIAL prize periods are being considered in an effort to improve the reputation of the college stars. Possible doubles combinations are Gordon and Schwahn, and Collins and Neale. Every spring match is held between colleges, climaxed by the state tournament. For the last two years this event has taken place here.

Tennis Men Begin Drill Tourney Soon

The surest sign that spring is near comes when you see Maurice Skinner getting in shape for tennis. Workouts in the gym feature Skinner and his tennis racket as he gets his eye in shape for the cement court. Plans are already underway for tennis tournaments to select the college team. Skinner, Cletus Collins, Arvie Gordon, Bob Neale, and Dick Schwahn are the veterans returning. Art Thompson was the only loss by graduation.

By LOIS L. RAINER

Bridge, Ann. Peking picnic. 353 p. $2.50, Little, 1932

An artistc novel giving a vivid and comprehensive picture of legation life in Peking. A group of sophisticated English, French and Americans make witty and interesting puppets for Miss Bridge. The author has a keen appreciation for Chinese life and land, and through her we see beauty in a landscape which has often been portrayed as arid and unpleasant. A delightful work through which the reader may gain much knowledge of Chinese life and customs.

Faulkner, Harold Underwood. Quest for social justice. 1898-1914. 390 p.illus, $4, Macmillan, 1931

A well balanced treatment of American society of the years before the World War, with especial emphasis on the life of the common people. Prof. Faulkner has taken a heterogeneous mass of facts and organized them into an interesting story of the death of the laissez-faire system; the birth of the conservation movement; the labor and feminist movement; the concern of legislatures for child labor; and the turn of sentimentalism to realistic trends. An excellent panoramic view of American life from 1898 to 1914.

Hoskins, Roy Graham. Tides of life: the endocrine glands in bodily adjustment. 352 p. $3.50, Norton, 1933

An up to the minute resume giving the latest developments of the endocrine glands and their functions. A firm believer in the future of glandular therapy, Dr. Hoskins has written with a conservative and critical mind an interesting and popular book on science without embroidering the facts, or becoming tiresome with a lot of incomprehensible technical terms.

Jung, Carl Gustave. Modern man in search of a soul. 288 p. $3, Harcourt, 1933

A collection of lectures by a noted Viennese psychiatrist who sees the necessity for an approach to the spiritual side of man in psychiatry. Jung makes an honest effort to synthesize his knowledge of the human mind into a new and modern philosophy. The reader isn't always positive whether or not the author is sure of himself when he discusses the importance of dreams; the original stages of life and the soul; or the magnamity of man's spiritual problems; but all lectures are originally presented and arouse the student's mental curiosity.

Compliments of Harlequin Club
New Amendment
Drops Entry Bars

At a meeting of the Harlequin Club Monday night Professor Knutzen addressed the group in an informal and inspiring talk. Plans were made for a party to be held shortly after the holidays. A new amendment proposed by Bill Ringness was officially read into the constitution after being tabled some time ago. Though they are not complete, plans were made for a party to be held shortly after the holidays. A new amendment proposed by Bill Ringness was officially read into the constitution after being tabled some time ago.

New Requirements
Membership in Harlequin Club is now attainable by students doing outstanding work in speech classes as well as to those who have taken part in plays sponsored by the club. Activity in Harlequin productions, which hitherto was the only method of gaining admittance, will admit only those whose work is deemed satisfactory by a unanimous vote of the club membership, according to the new emendation.

The amendment was adopted in order to affiliate the club more closely with other dramatic work in college and to offer membership to a greater number of people, which has become necessary due to the growth of the school in recent years.

Several Concerts
Scheduled By Band

As has been evident in the last three years, our music department is "going over the top" in features presented to the student body and to the public. During Mr. Michelson's regime the music department of C. S. T. C. has blossomed into one of the outstanding schools in this outside activity.

We are hereby submitting some of the plans of this department. Though they are not complete and do not include all of the intentional excursions and appearances to be given in other schools, they will briefly indicate important dates of their calendar:

- April 11, '34. Band Concert (In Auditorium)
- April 15, '34. Chorus and Orchestra (International Radio Program)
- April 20, '34. High School Band Festival
- April 25, '34. Operetta

A SECOND FAKE IS UNCOVERED FOR STUDENTS

Teachers Agency Is Termed Not Reliable. Students Should Investigate

The following information concerning an advertisement of a Teachers Agency of which has appeared in several of the Teachers college paper, a blank which within Teachers College circles in the past two weeks, was received the past week.

Post-dated Checks

As far as we can learn the procedure of the agency has been to buy goods-sized space, offering post dated checks in payment, these checks being made payable quite some time after the advertising would be of the most use. The registration fee appears to be $3.00 if the candidate enrolls for either a summer or school year position, $5.00 if he enrolls for both, $8.00 each additional if candidates enroll in Department B, which is for people who wish to secure positions in the same city. The commission is 25%. This is quoted from the contract. "The XYZ guarantee to secure a good position for the candidate with substantial raise in salary, if the candidate is now teaching — or it will, if the candidate requests a refund, refund all the money paid to the XYZ, including all the money the candidate paid the XYZ for photos. The candidate agrees to supply the XYZ with at least six good copies of his or her photo. Failure to do so within one week from the date of this enrollment will remove the XYZ from all obligation to make a refund to the candidate."

Many Vacancies

Included with the letter sent to those who reply to their ad is a map showing the approximate number of vacations annually in each state. 2,891 is the number given for Wisconsin. The ad states that "good positions" are plentiful now and that complete information will be mailed upon the receipt of a three-cent stamp. They also offer on their registration blank to pay $5.00 for each name suggested as a candidate as soon as a position is secured for this person.

How the manager got the data from Wisconsin is a mystery. Anyway it seems outrageous to take money on this basis.

Mr. Herrick made an announcement in Mass Conference Monday afternoon stating that all graduates interested in registering with a Teachers Agency see him as to the stability of the organization before doing so.
