FIRST HONORS

MASKED BALL PLEASURES

Miss Ruth Schwahn, Stevens Point, a member of the Omega Mu Chi sorority, and an entry of the Junior class, was elected Queen, and Oscar Copes, Tomahawk, a member of the Chi Delta Rho fraternity, and also a Junior, was chosen King of the Mardi Gras, popular balloting returns showed Tuesday evening. The popular duo led the field by a wide margin, and the smiling couple were immediately crowned as the climax of the evening's hilarious session, attended by an enthusiastic throng, who constituted a brilliant spectacle with an array of costumes that ran the gamut of human invention.

PRINCIPAL HERRICK IN INTERVIEW—PAINTS AN

"There is no question but that this year's graduates stand the best chance of securing jobs since the period of four or five years ago. Indications even this early point to a real up-turn in the teaching field," remarked Mr. Herrick, director of the Central State College Training School, on the occasion of a Pointer interview Tuesday.

"There were more teachers placed last year than in any year since 1931," continued the director, "and if better times continue, the chances are reasonably good that a much larger percentage will be placed this year."

All of which is certainly encouraging news for the '36 graduates.

Training School Practice Teachers Change Classes-Subjects For Second Semester Of Teaching

After three weeks of class assignments and adjustments, student teachers are again back teaching youngsters in the Training School.

The future teachers, their classes, and the hours they teach are as follows:

Junior High School

Torgony Anderson, Nathan Pingle, Emmet Kolhane and William Bretzke, Math. 7. at 9:10; Irene Kleist, Russel Way, Verna Michaels, Eng. 8 at 9:10; Arba Shorey, Kenneth Olson, and Gideon Carswell, Civics 9. at 9:10; Gladys Boursier, Boy's Music at 10:05, and Eng. 7. at 11:00; Dolores Skarweski, Girl's Music at 10:05 and Nat. Study 8 at 1:15; Francis Bremmer, Gym at

U. of W. Student Helps College Librarians

Mr. John Dulka, a student librarian from the Library school of the University of Wisconsin is assisting the college library department during the present month.

Mr. Dulka is a graduate of Milwaukee State Teachers College. He will go to Milwaukee for his second month of practice. His future work will be carried on in the Milwaukee Public Library during that time.

Pointer Grades In "Gay" Nineties

Staff members' grades for the past semester revealed many surprising statistics. In addition to being the smallest teachers college staff in the state the local journalists certainly can compete for the highest scholastic average with any like group in the state.

Sixteen staff members have a grade average for last semester's work of 91.5. A total of 567 honor points were also gathered, or an average of 35.4 per person. All grades were considered in making this survey. Besides holding their grades in this superlative style the members of the Pointer staff have delivered fifteen issues of the Pointer during the first semester as an extra-curricular activity. It is with pardonable pride, we hope, that these figures are presented to our readers.

Bremmer New Phi Sig Prexy

Francis Bremmer was elected president of the Phi Sigs, succeeding Arba Shorey. Mr. Bremmer is a senior; this is his third year as a member of the fraternity, which he represented on the Greek Council last semester, and which, as president, he will again represent this semester on the same body.

Central State Band Tour Plans Complete; Eight Cities Listed

MARCH 2ND SELECTED AS STARTING DATE FOR ANNUAL PILGRIMAGE

The band will begin its annual tour next Monday, March 2. On that day, Professor Michelsen will lead his organization in the highlight of its yearly activities.

A slight change from the tour as outlined in the last issue has been necessitated. The first concerts were to have been at Portage, Monday afternoon, and at Baraboo, Monday evening, but a shortage of fuel has caused Baraboo to cancel its arrangements. In the place of these two concerts, Mr. Michelsen has arranged for a concert at Marshfield Monday evening; also, a tentative concert is scheduled at Wausau High in the afternoon. The rest of the trip is outlined in a separate place in this issue.

Concert At Waupun

Word was received a few days ago that a concert was accepted at the Waupun State Reformatory. Mr. Michelsen had his Richland Center group there some years ago, and he promises that the band will have a very interesting and instructive visit at the institution. It is possible also that the band will play at Oshkosh State Teachers College. However, no definite word has been received up to the present time.

Two busses and two cars will carry the players and their instruments on the tour. This is a change from last year, when the school bus and quite a number of private cars transported the group from place to place.

C. S. T. C. BAND RECEIVES ENTHUSIASTIC COMMENT ON RECENT BAND CLINIC

The band clinic which the C. S. T. C. band held here a few weeks ago for high school band directors was a decided success. Mr. Michelsen has received numerous very enthusiastic comments on the meeting. Some of the participants are asking that it be renewed again next year. Others are even asking that two clinics a year be held. All of them agree, however, that the success of the last event was due to the informality with which it was carried out.

Published Weekly, except holidays and examination periods, at Stevens Point by the students of the Central Wisconsin State Teachers College. Subscription Price $2.00 per year.

Entered as second-class matter May 26, 1927, at the post office at Stevens Point, Wisconsin, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam

Many of our readers, we are sure, witnessed the motion picture, "The Barretts of Wimpole Street", which pictured the romance between Robert Browning and Elizabeth Barrett, (later Elizabeth Barrett Browning). Miss Barrett, a victim of a spinal injury which made her a life-long invalid, met Robert Browning in his poems and he in hers when each was struck by the quality of the other's verse. Many secret meetings led to a union, violently opposed by Mr. Barrett, all of which actually happened, and the chief events of which were portrayed on the screen in the pictures above named, which was selected as the outstanding production of last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Browning were united in 1846. Sonnets From the Portuguese was published in 1850, although it may have been possible that Miss Barrett had written these poems prior to her marriage. The verse below is one of the favorite passages from the Sonnets, undoubtedly inspired by Elizabeth's love for Robert Browning. They are offered to C.S.T.C. swains for whatever utility value they may possess.

"How do I love thee? Let me count the ways.

I love thee to the depth and breadth and height

My soul can reach, when feeling out of sight

For the ends of Being and ideal Grace.

I love thee to the level of everyday's

Most quiet need, by sun and candle-light.

I love thee freely, as men strive for Right;

I love thee purely, as they turn from Praise.

I love thee with the passion put to use

In my old griefs, and with my childhood's faith.

I love thee with a love I seemed to lose

With my lost saints,—I love thee with the breadth,

Smiles, tears, all of my life!—and, if God choose

I shall but love thee better after death." or perhaps this poem would be useful:

Cynara

Last night, ah, yesternight, betwixt her lips and mine

There fell thy shadow, Cynara! thy breath was shed

Upon my soul between the kisses and the wine;

And I was desolate and sick of an old passion,

Yea, I was desolate and bowed my head: I have been faithful to thee, Cynara!

in my fashion.

All night upon my mine heart I felt her warm heart beat,

Night-long within mine arms in love and sleep she lay;

Surely the kisses of her red mouth were sweet;

But I was desolate and sick of an old passion,

When I awoke and found the dawn was grey:

I have been faithful to thee, Cynara! in my fashion.

I have forgot much, Cynara! gone with the wind,

Flung roses, roses riotously with the throng,

Dancing, to put thy pale, lost lilies out of mind;

But I was desolate and sick of an old passion,

I cried for madder music and for stronger wine,

But when the feast is finished and the lamps expire,

Then falls thy shadow, Cynara! the night is thine;

And I am desolate and sick of an old passion,

Yes, hungry for the lips of my desire: I have been faithful to thee, Cynara!

in my fashion.

THE CALL OF THE LAST FRONTIERS...

The passion for far away places seems to be born in everyone... with some the call is strong enough to persuade the more bold to give up the common-place, and search out the ends of the earth... and for some the far places must ever be roamed in fancy, in the security of book and fireplace.

So it is that tales from the last frontiers have ever enchanted the young and the old.

Charles Nordhoff and James Hall in their book, "Mutiny On The Bounty", bring to us again a breath from the South Seas, the smell of the salt spray, the lure of the open sea, as they trace the destinies of the crew of the Bounty, based upon an actual historical happening, and descendants of whose crew to-day live on Pitcairn Island, in the Tahiti group, in the South Seas. In the forthcoming picture, "Hurricane Island" the lives of Fletcher Christian and his cohorts are again taken up.

It is no wonder that the book and the picture were successful, for 1. They were based on actual facts. 2. Both Hall and Nordhoff live in the South Seas. 3. The film was "shot" on the coral strewn shores of the South Pacific.

James Hall and Charles Nordhoff met in the La Fayette escadrille, that famous allied flying unit composed of men of many different countries, principally French, English, and American. Since that time both have spent their lives in the South Seas, and their returns to civilized haunts are infrequent and of brief duration, for they prefer Tahiti, "paradise of the Pacific".

The way Nordhoff and Hall feel about it, they might well have written this poem:

Sea-Fever

I must go down to the seas again, to the lonely sea and the sky,

And all I ask is a tall ship and a star to steer her by;

And the wheel's kick and the wind's song and the white sail's shaking,

And a gray mist on the sea's face, and a gray dawn breaking.

I must go down to the seas again, for the call of the running tide

Is a wild call and a clear call that may not be denied;

And all I ask is a windy day with the white clouds flying,

And the flung spray and the blown spume, and the sea-gulls crying.

I must go down to the seas again, to the vagrant gipsy life,

To the gull's way and the whale's way, where the wind's like a whetted knife;

And all I ask is a merry yarn from a laughing fellow-rover,

And quiet sleep and a sweet dream when the long trick's over.

Masefield

Girls used to wear many unmentionables. Now they wear hardly anything worth mentioning.

JUGO-SLAV SWAINS FAVOR FAT GIRLS:

Slenderness is regarded as a misfortune in Jugo Slavia. The Serbian girl looking for a husband strives for that "full" look by eating as often and as long as possible. On Saint George's Day—the feast of Beauty—the girls weighing the most are married in public festivals.

Rhodes Chamber Opera Company Here Tonight

"The Prodigal Son" by Debussy, will be presented by the Rhodes Chamber Opera Company this evening at 8:00 in the auditorium. This is another of the townspeople's entertainments, so students will be required to obtain tickets at the office.

In "The Prodigal Son," Debussy has set to music one of the most familiar and beloved of Biblical Stories. It will be staged with a simplicity of style. The text will be sung in English, and the company promises their highest efforts to make the words understood. The stage settings and the costumes for the production will be the same as those used in its original performance at Goodman Theatre in Chicago.

Several excellent solo dancers of the late Chicago Civic Opera Ballet will add novelty to the production by their beautiful interpretations of the "Dance Interlude." They will also be seen in some modern dances.

College Debaters In Successful Speaking Trip

Two C. S. T. C. debate teams returned last Saturday evening from Whitewater, where they won nine out of ten debates. The team of Virginia Watson and Jane Reedal won five debates, that of Jack Burroughs and Mike Zylka won four and lost one.

The debates were a part of the invitational tournament sponsored by the Whitewater State Teachers College. The title of "best debater" was awarded by the judges to Miss Weisenberg, of Carroll College. Mr. Zylka tied with Mr. Voight, of Eau Claire, as the second best debater of the group, in the opinion of the judges.

Central State debaters will leave Sunday to take part in a three day debate tourney at Saint Paul; the mens' team will engage St. Thomas debaters, the ladies' team the debaters from St. Catherine's.

CAGERS FACE HARD ROAD TRIP

POINTERS TROUNCE PLATTEVILLE FOR TWELFTH IN ROW

Rinka Scores 13 Points In Hard Fought Game Which Ends 37-32

Stevens Point Teachers College cagers suffered an off night last Friday, and were barely able to defeat Platteville, 37-32. The game was a hotly contested affair with the score being tied five different times and it was only a late spurt that enabled the Pointers to chalk up their sixth conference triumph and number twelve in the present victory string. The Pointers couldn't hit the bucket at all, while, at times, Platteville connected with astonishing accuracy.

Platteville Leads At Half

Hopkins opened the scoring by connecting from under the hoop but charity tosses by Johnston and Lindow knotted the score. Gardner put his team out in front again with a beauty from mid-court. Johnston was successful on another gift shot after which Unferth sank a push shot from the corner for Stevens Point's initial basket. Rhemstedt, long armed Platteville center, plunked in two buckets and a free throw to run the score to 9-5. However, a dribble in and a free toss by Rinka and a rebound by Nimz erased the Miners' lead. Hopkins tied things up with a free toss but Rinka's bucket and Unferth's free throw made the score 13-10. Then Gardner, Disrude, and Rhemstedt came

SPORT SHOTS

Monday and Tuesday Coach Kotal took his Point ball club over to Wis. Rapids to practice at the spacious Lincoln Field-house. Milwaukee has one of the best playing floors in the state so Kotal used the Rapids floor to get his team acclimated to a large playing space. Milwaukee's superior reserve power will give the Green Gulls an advantage over the Kotalmen Friday.

River Falls cinched at least a tie for the Northern Division Title by rallying to trip La Crosse, 45-33, after trailing at the half, 26-19. And for once Herkal wasn't the leading scorer of the game. Superior licked the Minnesota "B" team, 45-36.

Saturday Indiana may lose its share on first place in the Big Ten Conference for on that night the Hoosiers travel to Evanston, Ill., to tackle Northwestern. Less than a week ago those fast stepping Wildcats laced Purdue, 45-40, to drop the Boilermakers from the ranks of the undefeated.

Coach Leital of Platteville was unable to accompany his quintet to Stevens Point last week end because of illness. F. J. Stoneman of the faculty handled the ball club in his absence, and seemed to do an excellent job.

Monday evening Coach Kotal and his basketweavers were the guests of the Point Cafe management. Proprietor Gus Youtsas treated the "gang" to a swell steak dinner and dessert. Immediately following the meal Manager Neuman of the Fox Theatre invited the squad to the current feature.

Milwaukee plunked in three buckets in the closing minutes of play to defeat Oshkosh last Friday, 43-38. Rudiger led the Penwell scoring machine with seven field goals, while Lautenschlager (remember him?) tallied six baskets for Bob Kolf's team. The victory kept Milwaukee in the running for the title and definitely eliminated the strong Oshkosh quintet.

through with baskets while the Point's lone scoring effort was a free toss by Schneider, making the score at the half stand, 16-14 in favor of Platteville.

Pointers Get Going

The second half started with a rush when Nimz flipped in a pretty rebound and Unferth a short goal to put the Kotalmen in the lead. Disrude's dizzy one hand shot from far out again tied the score. Gardner's free toss on Unferth's third foul gave Platteville the lead momentarily but the Pointers spurted into the front once more on a basket by Lindow and three charity tosses by Johnston and Nimz. The score was tied for the fifth time when Rhemstedt

11 TEAMS LISTED IN INTRA-MURAL CAGE LEAGUE NOW

The Intra-mural basketball league is gradually assuming form and will, in all probability, get under way early next week. Eleven teams have announced their intention of playing and a schedule is being drawn up. The managers and their respective teams are as follows:

Holy Terrors	Totszke
Hawkeyes	Haeuser
Rural Dept.	Cowles
Freshmen	Wayne Johnson
Sophomores	Dagneau
Juniors	Sparhawk
Seniors	Ken Olson
Chi Delts	John Maier
Phi Sigs	Dregne
Bluejays	Westfahl
Olson's Diners	Atwood

PUG POINTERS

During the past week about two dozen pugs have been training and practicing diligently under the watchful eye of boxing coach Warren Jenkins in preparation for the coming inter-school boxing meet. Each evening the old gym is turned into a virtual ring. The old canvas is laid out and the leather slingers pair off and go to it.

Although little is expected in the way of a championship squad, prospects are especially bright for the inter-collegiate matches in view of the fact that a number of vets are sprinkled throughout all divisions. Such men as Berard, Whipple, Harding, Gordon and Hayes, all veterans, are expected to form the nucleus of the squad.

Mick-Chuck Mix At Armory

There is still plenty of time before the inter-school meet to try out for the squad. As an incentive, about four trips are offered this year. Again let us say, experience is not necessary.

Turning somewhat aside from the usual run of sports in C. S. T. C., we are informed that two local huskies are contemplating trying their luck at art of grunts and groans. "Chuck" Sparhawk and "Mickey" McGuire will try their skill on each other at the armory tomorrow eve, Fri. Feb. 28, at 8:30 on a card that promises its moneys worth. "Chuck" will tip the scales at 176 and "Mickey" will weigh in at about 175. Although the two men are the best of pals, a real battle is expected.

"Chuck" needs no introduction in wrestling circles around central Wisconsin and if there is any doubt about McGuire's ability ask the former about the outcome of prolonged sweat sessions in the locker room each noon.

BATTLE MILWAUKEE AND CONCORDIA ON SUCCESSIVE DAYS

Green Gulls Rave As Favorites Point Victory String May End

Coach Eddie Kotal and his undefeated Pointers will depart early Friday morning on the all-important Milwaukee trip. The Kotalmen certainly have their work cut out for them, for on Friday Stevens Point mixes with Guy Penwell's fast stepping Milwaukee five for the league leadership; then on Saturday the Pointers conclude the current road season meeting the strong Concordia quintet of Milwaukee.

Plenty At Stake

From all indications Friday's tilt with Milwaukee should prove to be a thrilling affair. Stevens Point has chalked up twelve straight victories in the present campaign. A victory for the Kotalmen would mean thirteen in a row and give Stevens Point its third undisputed cage title in four years. If Milwaukee wins the Pointers will have to liek White-water here next week to gain a tie for the championship.

Milwaukee Going Strong

Back in January Stevens Point nipped the powerful Green Gull five on the local floor, 31-29. Milwaukee has not suffered defeat since that time, rolling over Oshkosh and Concordia twice, Platteville, and St. Norberts. Stevens Point's defense will have to concentrate on halting the high scoring Walter Sprangers, Southern Division scoring leader, and Willard Rudiger, speedy forward, if the Kotalmen entertain any hopes of ringing up another victory.

Concordia Tough Too

Saturday evening Kotal's basketweavers will clash with the Concordia Falcons on Milwaukee's west side. The Concordia team, coached by Bill Ackman, is in the midst of a very successful cage season. At latest reports Concordia had won nine and lost four. Two of Concordia's defeats came at the hands of Milwaukee, while two of its triumphs were over Whitewater Teachers College. The Concordia attack is built around a tall front line and a pair of half-pint guards.

the masked ball. Chi Delta Rho, with a cleverly created blend of music in the form of a satire on modern radio programs, with Len Scheel as the urbane announcer, was awarded first place by the judges, presenting, "The Buggy Whip Program—Horsiest Program on the air". Other organizations who placed were the Tau Gamma Beta sorority, who won second place with the well-conceived "Handsomeness and Silver Long Ranger" playlet. Third place was awarded to Omega Mu Chi sorority for their "Uncle Ezra" presentation. The Primary group and the Womens' Athletic Association won first and second honorable mention respectively. The judges for the plays were: Mrs. Raymond Rightsell, Mrs. Herbert Steiner and Mrs. Marrs.

The members of the winning playlet were Vic Kilmer, Robert Steiner, Mickey Hubbard, Ralph Anderson, Bill Theisen, Al. Bucholz, and Len Scheel, announcer.

Other organizations presenting attractions were: the Mens' Chorus the girls' glee club, the Iris, the Home Ees, Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity, Grammar Round Table, faculty men, and the faculty women.

COSTUMES PRIZES AWARDED

Miss Hanna, as an old gentleman, with a most convincing make-up, and her (his) partner, Miss Church, really "stole the show" with a most excellent portrayal of an old married couple. They were "simply great".

The costumes judges were: Miss Marie Swallow, Miss Carolyn Rolfson, Miss Edna Carlsen, and Mrs. Dorothy Dunn Hoffman.

The costumes prize-winners:

Best dressed individual—Francis White
Funniest individual—Ed Way.

Best dressed couple—Ruth Nason and Betty Schwahn.

Funniest couple—Miss Church and Miss Hanna

Group prize—Bill Koehl, Joe Pfiffner, Jim Pfiffner, Charles Orthman.

MENZEL EXPRESSES THANKS

Mr. Frank Menzel, business manager of the Iris, and director of the Mardi Gras, wishes to express through the Pointer his appreciation to all parties who helped in any way to make the Mardi Gras successful. Special thanks are due Mr. Burroughs, Mr. Steiner, Miss Colman, Miss Roach; the decorating committee, Ted Menzel, Zelda Wied, Gladys Malinowski, and to Mr. Joe Pfiffner, script writer for the radio setting furnished Mr. Burroughs. Special thanks are also due the above named judges who so graciously donated their services, and to Mr. Halvorson and the Castilian's orchestra.

Around The Corner

Around the corner, I have a friend
In this great city that has no end;
Yet days go by and weeks rush on;
And before I know it a year is gone.
And I never see my old friend's face,
For life is a swift and terrible race.
He knows I like him just as well
As in the days when I rang his bell
And he rang mine. We were younger then
And now we are busy, tired men—
Tired with playing a foolish game,
Tired of trying to make a name.

"Tomorrow, say, I will call on Jim
Just to show that I'm thinking of him."
But tomorrow comes—and tomorrow goes
And the distance between us grows and grows;
"Here's a telegram, sir,"—Jim died
today!
And that's what we get—and deserve—
in the end;
Around the corner, a vanished friend.

Olympic Hopes?

Eddie Brill seems to have gone in for winter sports but at the present time he cannot decide between Lake Placid, New York, and Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, for the scene of his operations.

Good Reason

Milton Andersen: "Yes, we have two kinds of sheep on our place — those with short tails and those with long tails. Do you know why some have short tails?"

Bill Loewecke: "No, why?"

Milton Andersen: "Cuz my Pa cuts 'em off."

Have You Ever Noticed?

This "Greek rushin" business seems to have a lot of people excited. It is whispered about the halls, "Do you think I ought to go to that party?" Gosh! I hope I get a bid from them." "You going too?"

Faculty Fun

Instead of "tickling" the ivories, our faculty, cave-man-like, "knocks" them around. Mr. Rightsell started this rough stuff years ago when he put a billiard table in his basement. The enthusiasm has spread until at the present time Mr. Rogers and Mr. Thompson also have billiard tables and President Hyer and Mr. Evans have pool tables. They say after ivory all day in the class rooms it's a sort of pleasing way to quiet their nerves by knocking it around at night.

Save Our Golden Rule!

Overheard near Frank-the-janitor. "If the people in this school don't quit throwing candy wrappers on the floor I think I'll board up that counter."

Who's This?

A number of Central State students have been notified that their biographies are to be listed in the publication Who's Who among students in American Universities and Colleges. One percent of the student body in each institution in the United States is nominated and in large schools the percentage is even smaller. Under no circumstances do the numbers exceed fifteen people. The list must be approved by a dean.

Platteville Game

and Gardner connected with baskets. Rebounds by Nimz and Rinka placed the Pointers in the lead for good with less than eight minutes to play. Disrude came through with another dizzy push shot, but Nimz evened things up by faking Rhemstedt out of position for a dribble-in. Hopkins scored from mid-court to cut Point's lead to two points. Two baskets and two free throws by Rinka, and gift shots by Lindow and Johnston cinched the game for the Kotalmen, while Platteville's scoring was confined to a free throw by Disrude and Falk's rebound. Kotal inserted a whole reserve five in the final minute as Koch and Goff connected on free throws to make the final score 37-32.

WISCONSIN 24, POINT 28

STEVENS POINT 28; U. OF WISCONSIN 24; SURPRISE ATTACK DOWNS FOE BEFORE 5,000 HOWLING FANS

(Remember these headlines of the March 2, 1933 Pointer? The date of the game was just three years ago tonight—Feb. 27, 1933. Present Seniors were Freshmen then. No one present, and everyone was there, will ever forget the scenes of that night, and the brilliant stand of the Purple and the Gold, before the onslaughts of the giant Cardinal quintet—Pointer Editor's note.)

Flashing a rapid-fire passing attack and an air-tight defense Coach Kotal's Pointers climaxed the most successful season in the history of the school by defeating the one and only "Doc" Maxwell's University of Wisconsin Badgers, 28-24, in the Field House at Wisconsin Rapids Monday night.

The result came as a drastic surprise to the capacity crowd packed in the new gym, who had come to see the University team give an exhibition of basket ball playing. The program was wrong. It was Eddie Kotal and his Pointers who gave the demonstration, and how they did it!

(The balance of the long write-up has been deleted because of lack of space. The write-up, a fine piece of work by Sam Bluthe, sports editor at that time — George Mauer, now at Illinois, was editor-in-chief, ran well over two columns—Pointer Editor's note.)

The lineups:

(Pointer Editor's note: Unfortunately, the balance of the record of this game is not shown; Wisconsin substitutions, the officials, etc. are not listed. The college athletic board was the same as at present, Profs. Schmeele, Rightsell, Steiner and Watson).

ville's scoring was confined to a free throw by Disrude and Falk's rebound. Kotal inserted a whole reserve five in the final minute as Koch and Goff connected on free throws to make the final score 37-32.

Rinka, Nimz Top Scores

Chet Rinka, with thirteen points, and Fred Nimz, with nine, led the Point scoring.

The Sea Gypsy

I am fevered with the sunset,
I am fretful with the bay,
For the wander thirst is on me
And my soul is in Cathay.

There's a schooner in the offing,
With her topsails shot with fire,
And my heart has gone aboard her
For the Islands of Desire.

I must forth again tomorrow!
With the sunset I must be
Hull down on the trail of rapture
In the wonder of the Sea.
